Baccalaureate Service set Sunday

Dr. Derrell Monday, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will deliver the sermon Sunday for Iowa Park High School's Baccalaureate Service.

The service is to begin at 6 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Commencement will be the following Friday in Hawk Stadium. Invocation will be brought by Rev. Ed Prince, Church of God minister, and the benediction offered by Rev. Ole Olds, pastor of the Lakeview Church of God.

Scripture will be read by Rev. Mike Grubbs of the First Christian Church.

The processional and recessional will be played by Angie Covington, and special music provided by the high school choir, under direction of Janet Walker.

Should weather not permit the commencement exercise to be held out of doors, it will be moved into the auditorium. Each member of the senior class is being issued eight tickets, because of restricted seating available, according to Principal Richard Davis.

LAUNCHING ROCKETS - Students in the Iowa Park High gifted and talented class held their second rocket launching study Monday, using the tennis courts as their launching base.

Water, sewer rates to remain the same

Local residents will not have lower sewer and water rates, at least not in the immediate future.

A proposal to reduce both sewer and water rates by 30 percent was rejected by a 3-2 vote during Monday's city council meeting.

Proposing the reductions were the council's two newest members, Charlie Helms and Johnny Crawford.

Helms originally offered a motion to reduce the rates of both services 10 percent. Crawford seconded the motion, and offered an amendment to increase the reduction to 30 percent. Helms then moved to increase the reduction to 30 percent, and was seconded again by Crawford.

They were the only two voting for the motion. Aldermen Johnny Coker, Virgil Woodfin and Diane Robnett voted against it.

One motion during the evening did receive an unanimous vote. It was to permit the railroad to increase its speed when traveling west through the city, once the engine has passed Jackson.

The old barrier was Johnson

Road. Ordinance does not permit a train to travel at a speed greater than 30 miles per hour now, between Jackson and Bell.

Railroad officials asked that the westbound trains be allowed to accelerate at Jackson, because of the incline of the line to the west. Gaining speed earlier will reduce energy consumed climbing the incline.

A request to improve drainage in the 1100 block of Lincoln was approved, but by another split vote.

Aldermen were told that Harold

Stucki, a resident of the block, had made numerous requests over several years that a drainage problem be corrected by the city.

A cost study was made by city staff, and it was estimated the cost would be $1,954.

Only Alderman Crawford voted against the motion to have the work done.

Most of the balance of the meeting was discussion, primarily on projects already planned or underway. They concerned plans to upgrade the pump station that supplies water to the treatment plant from Lake Buffalo, construction of the Recreational Activities Center, rebuilding with concrete 1,340 feet of Colorado, and operation of the landfill.

Public Works director Mike Price completed his presentation of projects and requests for the 1990-91 fiscal year. He had begun his presentation at a workshop session last week.

Among his requested needs was a new trash pickup truck, estimated to cost $72,000. He explained both the trucks used were 1982 models.

And, during the discussion on the operation of the landfill, Price suggested allowing the cities of Electra and Holliday to use the pit here.

He explained the added trash would make better use of the pit, because the amount of trash generated daily by Iowa Park does not justify daily covering of dirt, which is required by the federal government.

Aldermen agreed to hold their next in a series of budget workshops at 7 p.m. next Tuesday.

SWEARING OF NEW CHIEF was held Monday by Mayor Wayne House, as Wayne Parsons reported to work for his first full day. Observing were his wife, two children, Karen and Brian, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Parsons Sr. of Temple.

Two vehicles stolen

Reports of two stolen vehicles and three burglaries were reported to police during the past week, and continue under investigation.

Both vehicles have been recovered, one of them only a block away.

The first stolen vehicle involved one of the burglaries.

A representative of Thompson Tool called police at 6:35 a.m. Friday to file a complaint that someone had forced entry into the office, taken a set of keys to a pickup parked in the yard, and used the vehicle to haul away several power tools.

Wichita Falls police later called to inform local police that the 1985 model pickup had been found at the intersection of Seymour Road and Beverly Drive. It had caught afire, apparently after being driven on a flat tire.

The vehicle was damaged, but saved, and all the tools were recovered from the truck.

Saturday evening, a resident in the 1000 block of Fourth Street told police someone had taken his 1990 Dodge Spirit from the driveway. He said he did not hear anything until noticing the vehicle missing.

The car did not have keys in it, but was left unlocked.

Police figure someone pushed the vehicle out of the driveway and somehow down the street to midway in the 900 block, where they lost control and it bounced across a curb and was left.

Officers found the vehicle 13 minutes after the report was received, according to the police blotter entry. Officers concede the case was a possible prank on the owner.

A resident in the 1000 block of West Cornelia reported to police Friday evening the theft of approximately $4,500 in cash.

The complainant, who admitted he had not seen the money, most of which was kept in a locked briefcase in his bedroom, since March.

He said he was missing $4,200 in cash from the briefcase, and a collection of quarters with a face value of some $250.

A resident in the 900 block of West Louisa told police he was missing $10 in cash and almost $200 worth of fishing gear, apparently taken by someone who was going to rent the house and had a key. The complaint was filed Monday night.

Officers arrested Donna Kay Lively, 26, on a Class C assault complaint at 12:26 a.m. Monday after being called to a home in the 700 block of West Cornelia on a domestic disturbance.

She was released at 12:50 after a $69 cash bond was posted and signing a promise to appear in municipal court.

Gas line break causes evacuation of school

A near disaster Friday morning at the high school turned out to be nothing more than an inconvenience and missing one class by students.

The building had to be evacuated when a natural gas line was broken by a construction worker.

There was no explosion or fire, which was an immediate danger and the reason for the evacuation.

A worker cut a two-inch gas line and a water line at the same time with a backhoe, when he started digging on the north side of the building shortly after classes got underway.

Gas began escaping freely from the high-pressure line, and flowing through an open door to the building.

The incident was seen by both M.L. Hodges and Jack Blagg, employees of the school. Blagg ran to the gas meter and turned off the flow while Hodges went to the administration office to tell authorities.

Assistant Principal Randy Lovelady, in the absence of Principal Richard Davis, announced over the school speaker system that everyone should exit the building on the north side. He explained the practiced fire exit drills couldn't be used because that would have sent some into the danger area.

"All the students handled themselves very well and quietly," Lovelady said, and the building was vacated within some 30 seconds.

Police and volunteer firemen were called to the scene to assist.

The students were allowed to return to their classes in 30-40 minutes after it was determined the building was safe to occupy again.

Water service was resumed to the building about 11:30 a.m.

The loss of natural gas did not hamper cafeteria workers, other than not being able to bake potatoes. The main fare of the day had already been planned for sandwiches.

Boys showering at the fieldhouse were slightly inconvenienced, however, because they had no hot water. Coach Ray Sefcik said they took the quickest showers he had ever seen.

The gas line was finally repaired and cleared by workers Monday.

Assistant Superintendent Robert Palmer said he and others on the staff had pointed out where lines were on the west side of the building, where other digging is to take place. But he was unaware the digging on the north side was to begin when it did.

He credited Blagg and Hodges for their quick work, to cut off the flow and alert authorities of the need to evacuate.

Palmer explained it was a very touchy situation, with the volume of gas being spewed, that it was not touched off.

"It was a very explosive situation," he commented.

Construction, career ladder on school board's agenda

Construction and career ladder will be the primary subjects of a called meeting by the school board this morning.

The meeting is to begin at 7 a.m. in the administration building.

Trustees will consider, once again, a proposed addendum to the high school construction project, to put back in a teachers' workroom that was taken out because of funding.

Board members also will hear a recommendation by Supt. Glen Mitchell to reject all bids on the vocational agriculture's project building.

Recommendations will be made on the amount to be paid, and when, to levels two and three of the career ladder, as well as teachers to be placed on the two levels.

Career ladder funding is not affected by the as-yet unanswered school reform legislation expected to come out of Austin, Mitchell said.

In the original building proposal for the high school, three new classrooms and a teachers' workroom were planned for addition to the south end of the east wing of the building.

Bids were higher than anticipated and the workroom was eliminated by recommendation of the committee, in an effort to work within the budget.

However, some board members have asked that the full board take a second look at a plan to put the room back into the plans, but not complete the interior until a later date.

The cost to "rough in" the room would be $23,720, according to the contractor.

The lowest base bid for the ag facility, which did not include several items necessary for its use, came in at $82,375.

The budget called for $60,000, and the additional items would cost another $23,494, Mitchell said.

Committee members will be asked to study the issue and make a recommendation on future steps the board should take in order to complete the facility which was approved by bond issue voters.

"We have no choice" but to reject the bids because they are so much higher than the budget, Mitchell said.

Also on the meeting agenda is an annually required action on the 1990-91 Standard Application System Vocational Education Funding.

FFA Booster Club car wash Saturday

Harrelson, Wilson exchange nuptial vows Saturday in Wichita Falls

Miss Dana Lynette Harrelson and Randal Richard Wilson exchanged nuptial vows in a Saturday afternoon ceremony at Faith Village Church of Christ in Wichita Falls. David Harrelson, brother of the bride, minister of University Church of Christ in Las Cruces, N.M., officiated the double ring ceremony.

Miss Harrelson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Harrelson of Wichita Falls, and Wilson is the son of Mrs. Iris Wilson and the late Melvin Wilson of Iowa Park.

Prelude selections included "Annie's Song," "Oh Promise Me," "Follow Me," "Friends," "Always," and "Whither Thou Goest." During the ceremony, vocalists offered "The Wedding Song," "Faithful and True," and "Lord Bless You and Keep You."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a formal lace over satin gown featuring a fitted bodice with a high neck, sheer yoke and an appliqued sweetheart neckline. The sleeves, sheer and puffed at the shoulder, extended to the wrist. Three strands of pearls draped across the cut-out back, and the fitted waist flowed into a chapel-length train.

A chapel-length veil of bridal illusion fell from a headband formed of pearls, white flowers and leaves.

A cascade bouquet filled with fresh English country garden flowers added the finishing touch to her ensemble.

On her wedding day, the bride wore a necklace belonging to her maternal great-grandmother, and carried a handkerchief belonging to the groom's maternal grandmother.

The groom was attired in a formal black tuxedo with a dusty rose cummerbund and bow tie. A boutonniere of fresh English garden flowers complimented his attire.

The couple exchanged vows before a candlelit altar. A heart-shaped candelabra centered the altar, flanked by fan-shaped and heart-shaped candelabras on either side. Each of the candelabras were intertwined with ivy garland and centered with dusty rose bows.

Mrs. Randal Richard Wilson

rose bows also marked seating for the guests.

The bride was attended by Tina Williams Levy of Oklahoma City, Okla., as matron of honor, and Tracy Harrelson Kenney of Arnette, Okla., cousin of the bride, Betty Hamric Edwards and Angie Willis, both of Wichita Falls, as bridesmaids.

Each of the attendants wore identical tea-length dresses of dusty rose jacard, styled with a fitted drop waist, three-quarter length puffed lace sleeves and a scoop back. They carried smaller versions of the bridal bouquet.

Casey and Joshua Harrelson, niece and nephew of the bride, respectively, presented a charming picture as flower girl and ring bearer.

Miss Harrelson wore a dusty rose jacard dress with a drop waist and lace collar, complimented with a lace hair bow. She carried a small fireside basket, accented with fresh flowers and ribbon on the handle, and filled with rose petals.

Harrelson wore a blue pen-striped suit and carried a heart-shaped ring pillow decorated with dusty rose ribbon and a rose.

Ivan Wilson of Iowa Park, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Kelly Crush and Keith Karstetter, both of Wichita Falls, and Lee Gwinn of Fort Worth.

Assuming ushering duties were Kerry Wilson of Iowa Park, brother of the groom, Dennis Harrelson of Lubbock, brother of the bride, and Al Abston of Wichita Falls, cousin of the groom.

All of the male attendants wore identical black tuxedos with dusty rose cummerbunds and bow ties.

Upon entering the church, the bride presented each mother with a long-stemmed purple Dutch iris.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Harrelson chose a dusty rose street length dress fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves, a white collar trimmed in lace and a bow at the waist.

Mrs. Wilson wore a pink street-length dress styled with long sleeves, a tucked bodice and pleated skirt.

Both mothers complimented their attire with corsages of Fresh English country flowers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church annex.

The groom's table was covered in a white cloth and held the groom's cake, a silver coffee service and the bridal bouquet.

The groom's chocolate cake was decorated with mauve grapes draped over each side, and the couple's initials were printed in the center of the cake in old English lettering.

Presiding at the groom's table were Teresa Harrelson of Arnette, Okla., cousin of the bride, and Cheyanne Abston of Wichita Falls.

Miss Abston also presided at the registry.

Corey Wilson and Matthew Wilson of Iowa Park, nephews of the groom, handed out bell-shaped rice bags to the guests before the couple's departure.

When the couple left on a honeymoon trip to East Texas, the bride wore a navy print dress designed with small pink flowers and a drop waist.

The couple will live in Iowa Park.

Special guests for the wedding were Mrs. Lucille Worley of Archer City and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Harrelson of Wichita Falls, grandparents of the bride.

Out-of-town guests were registered from Archer City, Lubbock, Las Cruces, N.M., Oklahoma City, Fort Worth, Graham and Houston.

A rehearsal dinner, hosted by the groom, was given Friday evening at the Church of Christ Student Center at Midwestern State Univ.

Miss Harrelson was graduated from Rider High School and Midwestern State Univ. Wilson was graduated from Iowa Park High School and attends Midwestern State Univ.

Home mission book reviewed

Mrs. D.O. James introduced the study and reviewed two chapters of "Because Of His Love," a home mission book by Jennifer Bryon Owen, for the Thelma Smith Baptist Women Monday evening. Mrs. Sam Hill was hostess for the meeting held in the Fellowship Hall of First Baptist Church and attended by 12 members.

"The motivation for evangelism is to do missions so that the lost may hear," Mrs. James stated and reminded her listeners that evangelism was basic to the formation of the Southern Baptist Convention. She also said that the Home Mission Board was instructed in 1866 to direct the future efforts mainly on the basis of evangelism.

The title of the first chapter Mrs. James reviewed was "Welcome to the Family" and featured Jim De Guire, Home Mission Board-supported catalytic missionary, whose family include Hispanics, Koreans, Vietnamese, Japanese, Haitians and migrants living in South Georgia. "He believes that the foreign mission field is coming to this country," Mrs. James stated.

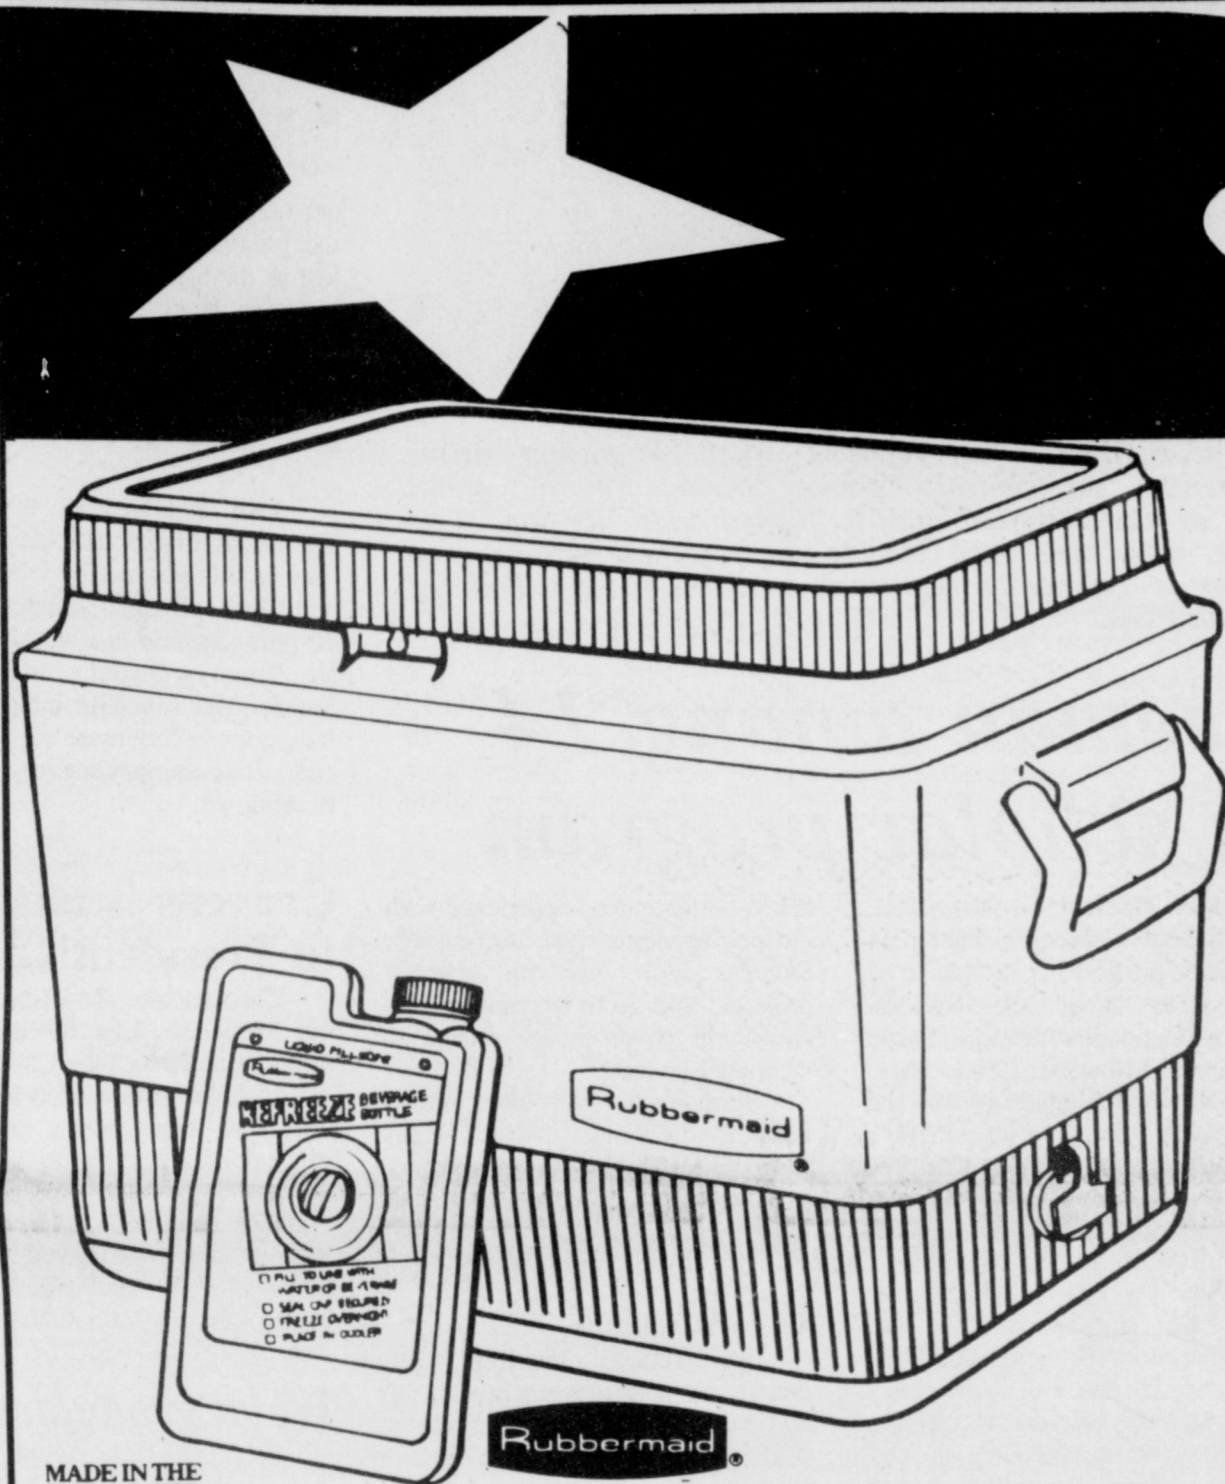

Linda Lou Coolidge, a vocational evangelist, was spotlighted in the second chapter of the review entitled "Singing Because Of Him." She is using her voice and testimony for the Lord through church services, concerts, street services, in convalescent homes and prisons. She and her husband particularly like to minister to the people in prison who are kept in bondage because of guilt and fear. Since 1983 when she started in music evangelism with only 18 tapes she has acquired 150 tapes for accompaniment since she does not play the piano or organ.

Mrs. V.I. Woodfin directed a brief business meeting and Mrs. E.T. Patterson was in charge of the missionary birthday prayer calendar.

As I See It...

By BOB HAMILTON

I don't know how many times I've heard complaints about the chug holes in the pavement at Park West Shopping Center.

And I'm aware that city hall has heard even more about it than I.

"That street through there is horrible. You could lose a car in one of them, or at least cause a wreck. Why doesn't the city do something about it?"

Well, unhappy drivers, I hate to tell you this, but that isn't a street through the shopping center, between Colorado and Pacific.

That's private property and not the city's responsibility.

It's true that a lot of drivers whiz through there as if it were a 30 MPH zone, and many seldom look left or right while passing through it to see if any shoppers are moving from one side of the lot to the other. They appear to believe they have the right of way.

Since it is not a dedicated street, the city's traffic laws do not apply. So if a driver has an accident with another vehicle, it becomes a civil court case and is not investigated by our city police.

You see, no street was ever dedicated through there. That used to be the old Texas-Oklahoma Fair Grounds. The main entrance faced the boulevard of Park Street.

I must admit that our Post Office is actually adding to the confusion, by telling shop owners what their address is.

For instance, when Meredith Long asked what her mailing address was for the store she opened in the center last week, she was informed it was 400-B West Park.

Since no street has ever been dedicated in the 400 block of West Park, that would seem to be incorrect.

It might be Unit 1-B North of Park West Shopping Center, but it's hard to have a street number when there is no street.

Local man is recognized

Lone Star Gas Co. employee Mike English has been honored by the American Gas Association.

The Chairman's Service Award for 1990 was presented to English at the recent AGA distribution/transmission conference in Los Angeles.

During the past year, he served as chairman of the group's distribution measurement committee.

English has been with Lone Star 28 years and has been assigned to the Iowa Park office nearly a year.

"Wedeveloped technical information for member AGA companies on the measurement of gas to customers," English said.

He is general superintendent of the North Texas Region Transmission Operations for Lone star, headquartered in the Lone Star office at Lake Iowa Park.

As superintendent, he oversees about 150 employees in the region which is generally north of Clarksville to Denton to Benjamin line and reaches into southern Oklahoma.

The region consists of a pipeline system of approximately 3,700 miles and support facilities to move natural gas from the various points of purchase to the cities served by the gas company.

Smith speaks to Optimists

Harold Smith from TU Electric was speaker at a recent meeting of the Iowa Park Optimist Club.

He told of a recent visit to the Comanche Peak nuclear power plant, and that they had been given the go ahead to start it up. This will mean a substantial saving in the cost of electricity, he said.

Smith showed a film on Lignite coal, and said that since Lignite has been used, five hundred million dollars has been returned to the consumers in savings.

The club's annual scholarships were presented at the high school awards banquet Tuesday night.

The Kyle Grove Memorial Scholarships went to Necia Williams and Jeff Boyd, the Cosmetology and Auto Mechanics scholarships were awarded to Kristy Lollis and Tim Heidrich, respectively.

Bailey, Pelsue united in marriage in Saturday evening ceremony

Miss Pamela Lynn Bailey and Stephen Charles Pelsue were united in marriage May 19 at Fain Presbyterian Church in Wichita Falls. Officiating the ceremony was Keith Hill, pastor, assisted by Deacon Richard Arndt.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Pascal Lee Bailey of Holliday, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonner Pelsue of Wichita Falls.

Wedding selections, including the traditional processional for the bride's entrance, were played before and during the ceremony on harp by Dr. Shelley Archambo. Brad Holmes offered a solo rendition of "The Wedding Song" during the lighting of the unity candle, accompanied by Dr. Archambo on piano.

The bride's chosen colors of burgandy and pink governed decorations in the sanctuary, illuminated by several candelabras enwrapped with greenery and baby's breath.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Bailey presented an elegant picture in a soft white satin gown featuring a high traditional neckline. The long sleeves, fitted in style, were puffed at the shoulders, and the bodice of the gown was adorned with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The skirt was enhanced with a triangular design in the front, and a scalloped design floured the hemline and extended around the cathedral length train. An oversized bow accented the fitted waist.

To compliment her gown, the bride wore a fingertip length veil secured by a lace tiara with pearls and sequins. A full gathered pouf of illusion veiling added further interest.

She chose a bridal bouquet formed of white roses accented with pink and burgandy flowers.

The groom was attired in a Silver Shadow Essex tuxedo, with a tailed coat and a burgandy tie and cummerbund.

Penny Bailey, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mandy Bird, Lisa Mahan, Libby Thomas and Melissa Wagner.

Mrs. Stephen Charles Pelsue

The quintet was dressed identically in tea-length burgandy gowns featuring lace bodices and puffed sleeves that rested on the shoulder.

Samantha Childs, flower girl, wore a white dress accented with pink satin roses at the waist.

David Pelsue, brother of the groom, attended the groom as best man. Steve Duggle, Garner Mahan, Eddie McConnell and Domingo Ortiz.

Ushering guests were Lonnie Coates, Dan Fannin, Bruce Harris and Kevin Humphrey.

Male members of the wedding party wore Silver Shadow Essex tuxedos with regular coats, burgandy cummerbunds and ties.

Michael Bailey, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer. He wore a light gray tuxedo with a pink tie and cummerbund.

The mother of the bride wore a rose colored suit with a satin blouse, and the mother of the groom chose a royal blue chiffon dress with a satin flower accenting the shoulder.

A reception in honor of the newlyweds was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church, with Dr. Archambo providing harp music.

Leslie Bailey, cousin of the bride, attended the gift table.

Before the bride and groom left, a ball and chain was placed on the groom, and the key was presented to the bride by David Pelsue.

A carriage awaited the couple's departure, and took them on a peaceful ride through the Hamilton Park area.

The couple honeymooned in Fort Worth.

A rehearsal dinner was held at the Women's Forum Friday evening, hosted by parents of the groom.

The candlelit dinner was enhanced by tables covered in pink and floral arrangements in pink, burgandy and white.

The bride was honored with a pre-nuptial showered hosted by Kay Skidmore, Mary Terronez and Brenda and Beth Wood March 4 at the Holliday Activity Center.

Vicki Bailey, aunt of the bride, served a dinner to the bride, mothers of the couple and female wedding attendants at her home in Wichita Falls May 17. Later in the evening Penny Bailey was host for a shower at the Bailey residence in Holliday.

Beth Moldenhauer registered guests at the ceremony and reception at a table covered in pink and holding wedding pictures of the couple's parents.

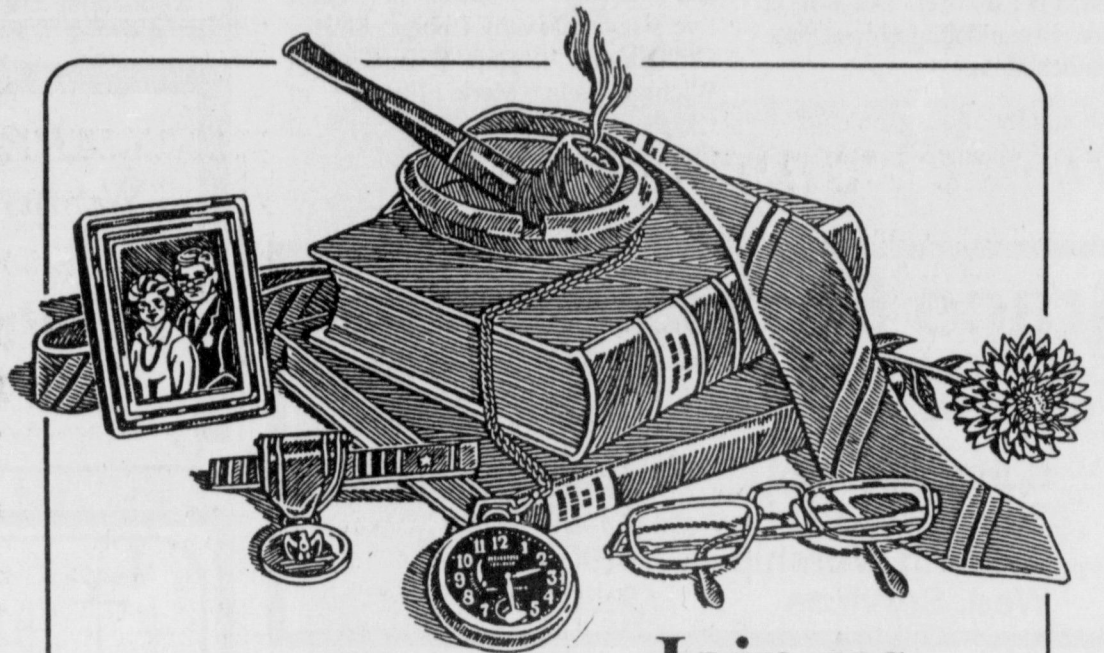

The bride's cake was the focal point of the reception area. The white-frosted confection featured rose designs accented in pink, cascading down the tiers onto a mirrored table. A porcelain bride and groom surrounded by pearls and lace stood within the center of the columns.

The groom's chocolate cake featured a basketweave design accented by chocolate covered strawberries.

The punch table, covered in pink, displayed a champagne fountain, serving pink mock champagne.

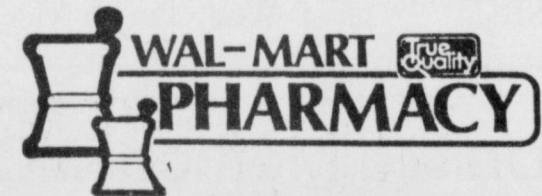

Hostess for the reception were Judy Purser, Sam Beachamp, Lynn Ewert, Terri Marmaduke and Suzanne Powell.

Rhonda (Mrs. Bobby) Baumer is a lifetime resident of Iowa Park. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R.C. (Pete) Shook is a graduate of Iowa Park High School and has been employed by TU Electric eight and a half years. She worked in the Wichita Falls office until last month when she transferred to the Iowa Park location.

Rhonda's children include a daughter, Kaylee, who is eight years old and in the second grade at Kidwell, a two-year-old son, Justin, and five-year-old stepson Robert.

She says the family enjoys living in the country, where Bobby grows wheat and hay, and they have cows and chickens.

Rhonda likes to sew and work in her flower beds, and the family goes camping in Colorado or New Mexico every summer.

They are members of Our Lady Queen of Peace Catholic Church in Wichita Falls.

Huebner, Smyers vows read Saturday in candlelight ceremony

Miss Kristi Ruth Huebner and John Micheal Smyers were wed Saturday afternoon in an elegant candlelight ceremony held at University United Methodist Church in Wichita Falls.

Ray Hennigh, pastor, officiated the double-ring ceremony for the children of USMC Ret. Lt. Col. and Mrs. Ray E. Huebner of Saudi Arabia, and Jerry Smyers of Wichita Falls and Allison Smyers of Holliday.

A white aisle runner was laid for the bride's path to the altar, through pews marked with peach bows and greenery and brass hurricane candelabras centered with peach bows.

The altar area was centered with a 15-branched brass fan candelabra holding burning tapers. Two seven-branched brass votive candelabras flanked the centerpiece, and each were intertwined with grapeleaf ivy and peach bows.

Floral arrangements of calla and tish lillies, carnations, gladiolas, alstroemeria and Boston fern in peach, yellow, lavender, white and blue stood in brass stands at altar extremities. Grapeleaf ivy interspersed with roses, carnations and calla lillies in peach lavender, white, yellow and blue wrapped around the altar railing.

Miss Huebner was escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage for both parents. She was radiant in a white formal gown of hand woven lace from Saudi Arabia, made by her mother for the occasion.

The gown, embellished with clusters of seed pearls and rhinestones throughout, featured a jewel neckline edged in pearls, and elbow-length sleeves of sheer lace. The inverted V dropped waist was trimmed in pearls and swept into a chapel length train.

A tiered veil of bridal illusion fell from a wreath of white silk flowers and sprays of pearls.

In keeping with bridal traditions, Miss Huebner carried a blue lace handkerchief, carried by her mother on her wedding day, for the "something old," "something borrowed" and "something blue;" and wore her wedding dress for the "something new."

She carried a long cascade spray bouquet formed of red sweetheart rosebuds, white calla lilies, yellow cushion mums, peach alstroemeria, white roses, lavender gypsophila and light blue tiger lilies. Tiny white feathers delicately outlined the bouquet, and sprays of pearls, emerald green ribbon loops and pearls and white satin ribbon streamers added further accent.

Geraldine Janzen of Wichita Falls was matron of honor, and wore an emerald green silk tea-length gown fashioned the same as the bride's. She carried an arm bouquet composed of white calla lilies, peach and lavender carnations and roses, gypsophila, English ivy and white feathers, wrapped in emerald green ribbon with an emerald green and peach bow.

Cindy Boone of Fort Worth, cousin of the bride, Jill Huebner of Jacksonville, Fla., cousin of the bride, and Lance Shirley of Fort Worth were bridesmaids. Each of the bridesmaids wore gowns identical to the matron of honor and carried smaller versions of her bouquet.

Jordan Murfield of Holliday, niece of the groom, and Jennifer Boone of Fort Worth, cousin of the bride, were flower girls. The pair presented a charming picture in identical tea-length dresses of white silk tied with emerald green silk sashes. Each carried a white wicker basket filled with blue and peach alstroemeria, yellow poms, white azalias, sweetheart roses and baby's breath, accented with peach and emerald green steamers.

Parker Murfield of Holliday, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer. He wore an all-black tuxedo with a bow tie and cummerbund.

The groom was attended by Jeff Smyers of Wichita Falls, his brother, as best man, and Brett Gulley and Charlie Featherston, both of Wichita Falls, and Kelley Coats of Holliday as groomsmen.

Jeff Huebner of College Station, brother of the bride, and Brian Lear of Holliday assumed ushering duties.

Male members of the wedding party wore all-black tuxedos with black bow ties and cummerbunds, and the father of the bride wore full military dress blues.

The groom complimented his attire with a peach rosebud

Mrs. John Michael Smyers

boutonniere with baby's breath and green leaf, and other male members of the wedding party wore peach rosebud boutonnieres with green leaf. The father of the bride wore an identical boutonniere to that of the groomsmen, but with a bluebonnet added.

Jeanne Huebner of Fla., aunt of the bride, provided piano music, and Jena Huebner of Michigan, cousin of the bride, was bassist.

The bride presented her mother and the groom's mother with a long-stemmed peach rose tied with English ivy and white satin streamers.

To compliment her attire, Mrs. Huebner wore a corsage formed of yellow pom carnations, red sweetheart roses and tiny white daisies accented with pearls sprays, baby's breath and emerald green ribbon.

The mother of the groom wore a corsage of pastel pink tea roses and rosebuds, red and fuschia pom carnations, with baby's breath, pearl sprays and emerald green ribbon.

Rhonda Featherston of Wichita Falls directed signatures of guests at the wedding reception, held in the Fellowship Hall of the Church. The table at which she sat was covered in white lace and held the bridal book, plume pen and a framed portrait of the bride, centered with a hurricane globe circled with English ivy and roses and carnations at the base, and holding a burning peach taper.

The bride's table commanded guests' attention. Covered in white lace caught up in swags at the center with a peach satin bow, the table held a magnificent three-tiered confection iced in pale green. White beaded latticework accented the borders of each tier, and deep emerald green leaves provided a background for drop flowers in the bride's chosen colors, cascading down the sides of the cake.

A mound of flowers topped the cake, softly cascading down the side.

A floral creation of roses, azaleas, tulips, gypsophila, baby's breath, English ivy and tiger lilies in white, peach, lavender, yellow, blue and peach were arranged in a crystal bowl and centered the table. A crystal punch bowl surrounded by grapes at the base stood at one table extremity, and crystal and silver appointments completed the setting.

The groom's table, covered in white with a white lace overlay, held a chocolate cake decorated with fresh green grapes dusted with powdered sugar.

A floral arrangement similar to that on the bride's table, but with bluebonnets, centered the groom's table, and a silver coffee service completed the table appointments.

Houseparty members were Jamie Murfield of Holliday, Jen Ferguson of Reston, Va., Suzette Shepard and Penny Gulley, both of Wichita Falls, and Betsy Huebner of Fort Worth, cousin of the bride.

Double hearts formed of white carnations with white doves and peach and emerald green bows were placed behind the gift table.

Following the reception, a party in honor of the newlyweds was held at the Kell Mansion. The bride wore a handmade red silk dress, and made her entrance to "Lady in Red."

Special guests at the wedding were Dorothy and Frank Hoyte of Lyons, Ka., grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. John Avriette of Phoenix, Ariz., and Mrs. Cecil Smyers of Wichita Falls, grandparents of the groom.

Other out-of-town relatives attending were Mary Cohen of California, Mary Ann Cohen of Arlington, Val, Ruth "Gamma" Huebner of Bushton, Ka., Chuck and Ann Malloy of New Jersey and Jean Stein Born of New York City.

Also, Jay and Jeanne Huebner, Jill and Jenna of Jacksonville, Fla., David and Carole Huebner and Mike, Tim and Betsy Huebner, Cindy and Greg Boone, Lancene Shirley and Brian Bentley, all of Fort Worth; Jen Ferguson of Reston, Va., and Jeff Huebner of College Station.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the mother of the groom at the Fellowship Hall of the Church Friday evening. A western theme predominated decorations.

The morning of the wedding the groom-elect, friends, family and members of the wedding party participated in a two man scramble golf tournament, where the top prizes were caps inscribed with "John and Kris."

The bride is a recent graduate of Midwestern State Univ., with a bachelors degree in business. She is employed by Dillard's.

Smyers is a student at Vernon Regional Junior College and at electrical trade school. He is employed by Marvin Groves.

Following a honeymoon trip to Cancun, Mexico, the couple are at home in Wichita Falls.

Woodfin gives program for Evening Lions Club

"I am not afraid of bees, but I do respect them," Virgil Woodfin told the Evening Lions Tuesday as he showed them the paraphernalia he wore when he was working with them.

He gave a brief history of the bee, stating that its honey was mentioned in the Bible and that it had been preserved and found in recent years in the pyramids of Egypt. He said that honey was the "perfect food" where no bacteria will live, and once it is capped over it will not spoil.

Woodfin, who has his own hives, said that he does not process his honey as some do, rather he takes it out of the frame, strains it and puts it in jars.

When he was asked how to get a start of bees, he said that the best way was to get them when they were swarming and that an ordinary swarm contained about 3,000 bees. He said that a swarm holds the queen bee, which lays the eggs, a good one being capable of laying 3,500 eggs a day; the drone bee which does not work, and the worker bees.

Woodfin said that the bees become workers three weeks after they are born and that their life span is about three weeks. He said that the drone bee does not gather any nectar, rather he mates with the queen bee. There is only one queen bee to a hive and her life span is about three years. He said the best sources for nectar in this area are the clover, alfalfa and mesquites.

Woodfin displayed one of his bee hives and explained the function of each part, one being the queen and drone bee trap. As he discussed the activity of the hive, he said that the worker bees do the hike duty, feed and groom the queen bee and stop up cracks in the hive. The drone bee does not have a stinger and can go from one hive to the other. He said that most hives have ten frames and told how to get honey out of the shallow frame that had been carried there by the worker bees. He said that he usually takes the honey from his hives each August.

Gordon Callahan introduced the speaker and announced later the club's annual auction sale would be held Saturday, June 2.

LAYAWAY OK!!

IN BI-DISTRICT PLAYOFF

Dramatic seventh inning Hawk rally falls short

It was a picture-perfect setup for a victorious rally. But it didn't come off.

Playing Abilene Wylie, runner up of Dist. 3-AAA, Monday at Stephenville in a single-game bi-district playoff, it was the bottom of the seventh inning, the Hawks were batting, they trailed 5-3, had two outs, the bases loaded, and Kelly McClure, one of the team's most dependable hitters, at the plate.

He swung at the first pitch and connected. But he had pulled the ball just inches wide of the third base line. Foul ball.

McClure then made solid contact with the second pitch. But it was a medium-high fly ball into left center field.

The ball was caught. The game was over. And so was Iowa Park's hopes of once again returning to the state championship tournament, because the season was also over.

Including Friday's 14-6 warmup game with Holliday, Iowa Park's record for 1990 was 17-5.

The Hawks scored twice in the bottom of the first inning. Leadoff batter Jimmy Duggins singled, and Danny Tatom followed with a walk.

Robert Denton popped up. Then McClure advanced Duggins on an infield sacrifice.

Duggins scored when a hard-hit ball off Jimmy Nicholson's bat was bobbled by the shortstop, and Tatom was later sent home when Wylie's pitcher was charged with a balk.

Tatom walked the leadoff batter in the second inning, and he scored on a single to narrow the score to 2-1.

Wylie took the lead in the third inning, and never gave it up.

Tatom struck out the first hitter, and the second popped up to first baseman Ken Schlaud.

Then, with two outs, the third hitter connected on an 0-2 count with a double to the center field fence. The next batter walked.

The blow that made all the difference followed. Wylie's batter, with a 1-2 count, clobbered the ball on an almost line drive to the base of the 395-foot center field fence.

Fielder Bunkie Imboden raced to the fence, arriving at the same time as the ball, and attempted an over-the-shoulder catch. But the ball bounced off his glove, then the fence and off his leg.

As the relayed ball reached home plate, the third runner was sliding under Nicholson. The Hawk catcher had to make a jumping catch, and almost caught the runner before he touched the plate.

A perfectly-placed infield hit to first base by Jeremy Carroll scored Nicholson, who had singled, in the fourth, narrowing the score to 3-4.

Iowa Park had a rally going in the sixth, when Denton, Nicholson and Carroll each singled. But Denton was called out in a very close call trying to score from third on Carroll's hit, and two were left on base when Schlaud grounded out to end the inning.

Wylie's leadoff batter in the seventh inning was walked, after Tatom had a count of 0-2.

Duggins then was moved from shortstop to the mound, and promptly struck out the next two batters.

But, after having stolen his way to third base, Wylie's walked runner caught Duggins in a full windup and successfully stole home plate on a squeeze play.

That extra-run lead changed the complexion of Coach Daryl Frazier's attack in the bottom of the inning, from needing one run to tie, to two.

Patrick Kennedy lead off the last inning, and flied out to right field. J'Bill Merrick singled, and advanced to second on an error by the right fielder.

Duggins then hit a fly out to left field, but Tatom walked to represent the tying run.

Denton followed, and he was unable to dodge a ball and was sent to first base, uninjured, to load the bases.

McClure's fly to left center was caught, and the game ended after two hours and 24 minutes of play.

Reflecting on the game, Coach Frazier said the following day, "You can't blame any one individual on the final outcome. All season we played as a team. We didn't come out with enthusiasm. They (Wylie) played well, probably better than they have all season, according to their record and scouting reports.

"They got the breaks (Wylie's pitchers were credited with only two strikeouts), we didn't execute, and we lost," he said.

Frazier said he felt his club could have been 22-0 at this point in the season, except for five innings in which they failed to execute or didn't get a needed hit.

Looking forward to next year, the coach said his five seniors, Nicholson, McClure, Duggins, Tatom and Bruce Palmer, who had started all four years, would be difficult to replace.

However, with the success of his freshmen on the JV team, and those who were returning from the varsity, he felt the Hawks would be back in the playoffs very soon.

Watch pecan trees for nut casebearer

Pecan growers are being warned by the county extension office to check trees for the nut casebearer.

Barely visible to the naked eye, growers should look for whitish green eggs on tips of nutlets and on the grove on the side.

Growers normally begin spraying for the pests between May 25 and June 5, Agent Mark Terning said.

A clinic on the pest is to be held at 6 p.m. Friday in Wichita Falls. Anyone wishing to attend can call 766-0131 for directions.

We're generating more than electricity.

Jobs Power The Future
Big cities and small towns across the area we serve are stretching their horizons. They're searching out new industries and new companies to bring new jobs. When the companies see what we have here - people who will work hard to build a better future, some of the most attractive electric rates in the nation, and an attitude set on winning - they decide to move here.

Electricity Powers The Jobs
That's why we need to build new generating plants and power lines, and develop alternate fuel sources like nuclear power. To make sure we can keep expanding opportunities for young people who want to raise families here. To make sure you have the electricity you need - today and tomorrow.

TU Electric is committed to helping make a better future for all of us. And to provide all the power that is needed to fuel the new economy. Electric Power. The Power for Texas.

Renegades are second in two tournaments

The Iowa Park Renegades, a girls' 14-and-under fast-pitch softball team, has placed second in two tournaments already this season.

They competed at Wichita Falls and Arlington.

Eight of the players are from Iowa Park and three from Wichita Falls.

In the Wichita Falls tourney, the Renegades won four games and lost two.

They defeated Grand Prairie 8-0, Zundy 32-0, lost 4-1 to Irving, and then beat Grand Prairie 10-5 to face the Red Raiders of Irving in the championship game.

They forced a second game to decide the tournament winner by beating the undefeated Red Raiders 11-10, and then fell short, 6-2, for the title.

Leading hitters were Gina Inman, Mandy Threet and Ginger Taylor with 10 hits apiece.

Jennifer Ricks pitched three of the four victories, striking out 34. Taylor pitched the other win.

At Arlington, the Renegades opened with a 20-1 win over Fort Worth, beat Garland 4-2, and Arlington 3-0, before losing 2-1 to Whitehouse.

They then defeated Arlington 2-0 to gain the finals, where they lost 7-5.

Top hitters were Mandy Cluely and Threet.

Ricks struck out 53 batters to win four games.

The Renegades, now 11-4, include Brande Overman, Inman, Anna Cox, Ricks, Cluely, Christal Goad, Ricks and Jayne Roberts.

Coaches are Glenn Taylor, Linda Taylor and John Hoelter.

Their next tournament will be June 2-3 at the Texas-Oklahoma Shootout in Duncan, Okla.

Operating out of Archer City, Crutcher Oil Properties has staked location for the No. 3 Waggoner in the Wichita Regular Field, about 14 miles north of Kadane Corner. It is in the H&TCRR Survey A-108 and carries authority for 1,500 feet of hole making.

F.T. Felty Operating of Burk Burnett has driven stake for the No. 15 S.B. Daniels a 1,950-ft. developmental bid in the Wichita Regular Field, five miles southeast of Burk Burnett. The operation is in the H. Hastie Survey A-99.

Girl Scouts to have overnight camp out

Iowa Park Girl Scout troops will be celebrating the end of school with an overnight camp out from 6:30 p.m. Friday, June 1 until noon Saturday, June 2.

The camp out will be held at Quail Creek Country Times Retreat off Old Lake Road in Wichita Falls. It is open to all Girl Scouts of Iowa Park and their families. A charge of $2.00 per Girl Scout has been set to cover the rental fee.

Travel directions and additional information is available through troop leaders or by calling Denise Parham, Service Unit Director, at 438-2344.

WINDTHORST BIRTHDAY

The 98th birthday celebration of Windthorst will be held Sunday, June 3, with activities continuing from 12 noon until midnight.

The No. 9 T.J. and J.L. Waggoner "B" is scheduled to be drilled in the Wichita Regular Field, 3.5 miles north of Kamay. With total depth projected to 2,000 feet, it is situated in the Hezekiah George Survey Lot 34 A-454.

S&J Operating Co. of Wichita Falls will be the operator.

Location has been staked for a 1,400-ft. developmental well in the Wilbarger Regular Field, 2.5 miles southwest of Electra. The venture is in a lease in the H&TCRR Survey and will be known as the No. 1 Waggoner "A."

David F. Crutcher Ins. of Wichita Falls will be the operator. Location is 3,150 feet from the south line and 1,450 feet from the east line of the survey.

Discovered in 1915, the Wilbarger Regular Field is producing at the rate of about 615,000 barrels of oil per year.

Flowing 117 barrels of oil with 35,000 CF gas per day, the No. 1 Thompson-Sawyer Library has been brought on line in the Bligh Field, Hardeman County, about two miles south-southwest of Quanah.

Trio Operating of Wichitas Falls is the operator.

The well will produce from a perforated interval in the Chappell Formation, 8,456 to 8,460 feet into the wellbore.
