First Hawk-Bobcat game in two decades

When the game starts at 8 p.m. Friday in Hawk Stadium between the Childress Bobcats and Iowa Park Hawks, it will be the first time in over two decades the two clubs have faced each other.

Not since 1969, when the two schools were in the same district, have the two competed against each other.

Times have changed since those days.

Charlie Johnston was just getting his program started in Childress when the Hawks used the Bobcats as a stepping stone toward the state title.

Iowa Park won the game, 41-14. But as lopsided as the score was, the Bobcats were among the four teams that year to score two touchdowns against the Mean Green during that 15-game season.

Childress comes to town with a perfect 4-0 record this time, while Iowa Park lost its first three contests before finally winning last week.

The Bobcats shut out Quannah 20-0 in their season opener, had a couple of close scores, 19-14 over West Texas High School and 22-20 over Tulia, and last week manhandled Canyon Randall, a two-year-old Class 4-A school.

Coach Johnston's roster is loaded with 21 seniors and only eight juniors, back from a 1989 squad that advanced all the way to the region before losing 35-7 to Vernon. The Bobcats finished the season with an 11-2 record, while the Hawks stayed at home, but won seven of their 10-game schedule.

Among those 21 seniors on the Bobcat roster is possibly one of the best backs Iowa Park's defense will face all year: Teddy Hopkins.

MR. AND MRS. PETE KOONCE IN FRONT OF THEIR NEW HOME

Koonce proves hard work pays off

By Myrna Smith

Billy Wayne "Pete" Koonce has literally and successfully wrested his livelihood from the land he loves.

That he is a hard worker there is no doubt. That his success was fostered by "a streak of good luck" there is a doubt.

But, that it has come about by perseverance and the "sweat of his brow" is unquestionable.

Born in 1932 about five miles southeast of Iowa Park to a struggling cotton farmer, Pete was the youngest of nine children.

Koonce graduated Iowa Park High School in 1949 and went to work in the oil field. In June 1950 he was married to Margaret Marquart of Iowa Park.

A short time later he went to Montana for two years with an oil company seismograph crew.

Returning here Pete got a job with Dow Chemical Co., in Wichita Falls. While working there he bought a tank truck and ran it at night and on weekends until the company gave him a choice of quitting his job or getting rid of his truck.

He chose the truck and started a tank truck company. "During this time I worked around and got a few oil leases," Koonce said. He sold the company in 1969. "Some people can work all kinds of hired help. I can't," he added.

He now owns Koonce Oil Co., and has five full time employees he classifies as "top rate." His secretary, Peggy Thompson, has been with him since he had his first business.

The other four employees "can work anywhere, whether it is building a fence or a house, pulling a well, working with cattle, or servicing the machinery," he says.

Through the years Pete has managed to acquire 3,000 acres of land and works constantly. His wife says, "He never quits."

He is a believer in conservation, continually maintains his land to prevent erosion and to get maximum production, and believes in wildlife preservation.

Each year on opening day of dove season, Pete has a group of friends out to hunt and they always plan and prepare a big feed.

They have a two bedroom mountain retreat home in Lake City, Colo. The log house was built by Pete. He and Margaret go there each summer and usually in the early fall for the "turning of the leaves."

Also they have a four bedroom cabin at Lake Arrowhead, which has had some additions and remodeling done by Pete. The couple always like to have room in their homes for family and friends. Especially during crappie season they spend time at the lake.

The newest acquisition is their unique home on their land about six miles southwest of Iowa Park on FM 367.

They had a home built on Rita Lane where they had lived for 30 years. Mrs. Koonce commented, "I think it is significant that we moved in that house in March 1960 and into this one in March 1990."

You wouldn't have any trouble finding the farm, but you might miss the house. The gate where entry is gained to the property is built of pipe and has "Koonce" in large lettering, with a silhouette of a pump jack on one side and a cow on the other.

He has built graveled roads and culverts on the place with his own equipment and has dug three water tanks near the barn with his bulldozer.

When Pete bought the place and began improving the land seven years ago he started clearing the land of mesquites. Now he is sowing his third crop of wheat on 150 acres.

The land on his other three places is pasture land for his 200 head of mother cows. He raises calves for market.

He planted 200 pecan trees long before plans for the house were made, and built a barn complete with corrals and calf shoots, similar to the ones he has built on his other three places. A graveled road leads to the barn that sits southwest of the house and can barely be seen at the foot of a hill.

Koonce dug up pipe from abandoned wells and with his sense of resourcefulness he found a use for it. Some of it was used with wire cable in building a fence around the place and to define the area for the home from the rest of the land.

When entry is gained to the Domestic disturbances busy police

Domestic disturbances dominated the police blotter for the past week.

Six complaints were reported to police, and even though there was some physical violence, none of those reporting problems would file a formal complaint, police said.

Only one theft was reported. A resident of the 200 block of East Clara told police Sunday night someone had taken his bass boat, motor and trailer, valued at $8,500.

A grandmother told police her grandson had received a minor burn on his arm when he came in contact with an electric fence wire in the 300 block of West Poe.

A woman driving west on US 287 complained to police that a man had exposed himself at the intersection of Rifle Range Road.

She described him as sitting in a green 1985-87 Granada, having curly hair and a moustache.

The Department of Public Safety was notified, but unable to locate the suspect, according to the blotter.

Council to meet Monday

The city council will hold its regularly scheduled meeting at 7 p.m. Monday in council chambers, but the monthly meeting of the school board has tentatively been rescheduled on Monday, Oct. 15.

Supt. Glen Mitchell said conflicts with other meetings next week forced the rescheduling of the board's date.

Two ordinances, three resolutions and a public appearance are on the city's tentative meeting agenda, according to Administrator James Barrington.

One ordinance to be considered is a revision of the codes concerning street construction standards, which, according to discussion at the last council meeting, will include definitions for street surfaces.

The other ordinance is an annual action to update service on employee retirement benefits, Barrington explained.

One of the resolutions awaiting action would authorize a new water purchase agreement with the city of Wichita Falls. Barrington indicated the new pact includes a reduction in rates charged Iowa Park for treated water.

The other resolutions are to accept the city's certified tax rolls, and accept the Colorado Street construction project so the contractor can be paid.

Aldermen also will consider entering into an agreement with Texas Tire Disposal, a Fort Worth firm that, for a fee, takes vehicle tires which in the past have been put in sanitary landfills.

Government regulations on landfills now prohibit whole tires from being buried, and the council has a choice of either paying the firm to dispose of them or purchasing a piece of equipment designed to cut tires into quarters prior to burial.

A resident on West Washington has asked for time to discuss the council's future paving plans on that thoroughfare.

News Briefs

Older businesses change names

Two of Iowa Park's oldest businesses have changed their names, one last month and the other this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dutton last month changed the name of the funeral home to Dutton Funeral Home.

Started in 1908 by J.A. Tanner, the business was purchased in 1971 by Mr. and Mrs. Keith Aulds. The Duttons purchased the business in August 1989 and continued to operate a full year under the name Tanner, Aulds, Dutton Funeral Home.

The other name change became effective Monday, when Settle Drug was changed to Hughes Pharmacy.

The pharmacy was begun in the early part of the century. It was purchased in 1945 by Alan Berry, sold to A.K. Settle in 1962, and then in 1986 was purchased by Joe Hughes.

City receives 1.02 rainfall

Tuesday night's rain likely has everyone except road and building construction crews smiling.

Virgil Woodfin, who said Wednesday morning, "I can't believe what I measured," reported 1.02 fell in his gauge. Woodfin said the rain fell in a fashion that it should not crust recently planted wheat fields.

Local UW campaign at 75.2%

Iowa Park was leading all other communities and divisions in percentage of goal reached, when the midway United Way campaign reports were made last week.

Leon Stevenson, local chairman, reported pledges and collections of $50,867, which is 75.2 percent of the community goal of $67,600.

Overall, campaign volunteers have collected 42.7 percent of the year's goal, which is $1,580,000. Total pledges last week reached $675,009.

The two agencies in Iowa Park that are funded by United Way are The Friendly Door and Recreational Activities Center.

Next reporting date of the campaign is Friday, Oct. 19.

Absentee voting starts Oct. 17

When absentee voting in the general election begins Oct. 17, those wishing to vote may do so at the Wichita County Agriculture Building, 220 West Park, according to Vernon Cannon, county clerk.

For the past few years, absentee voting here has been at the school tax office.

Absentee voting for the Nov. 6 election will continue through Nov. 2.

Cannon also pointed out that those wishing to cast absentee ballots on the weekend of Oct. 27-28 would be able to mark their ballots at the county courthouse.

Hours the box will be open Saturday, Oct. 27, will be 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., and voting will be allowed from 12 noon until 5 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 28, Cannon said.

Ex-Student banquet set Sept. 13

The annual banquet of the Iowa Park Alumni Association will be held at 7 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 13, in the high school cafeteria.

Reservations should be made by those who intend to be at the banquet, which will be prepared by the Iowa Park MuleSkinners.

The Association will have tables at the football game the night before, where alumni are encouraged to register and update the mailing addresses.

During the Whoop-T-Do, coffee will be served ex-students at the Friendly Door.

Bonfire needs wood to burn

This year's IPHS homecoming bonfire will be burned near the Gordon Lake spillway, just north of Burnett Field.

Residents are encouraged to take all burnable materials to the site, which has been marked by the city.

The fire will be lit at 8 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 11.

Time to find turtles to trot

Youths are reminded that they should start searching for their entry in this year's Turtle Trot, which traditionally is the first event of the Whoop-T-Do.

Any youngster through the fourth grade who resides in the Iowa Park school district is eligible to compete for the $25 first prize donated by Dutton Funeral Home.

One entry per youth is allowed, and it must be marked with some type of identification. The race will be held at 9 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 13.

Blalock gives Lioness Club program

Mrs. Homer Blalock provided the devotional program for 15 members of Evening Lioness Club Thursday for the first meeting of the new club year.

Hostesses were Mmes. T.C. Berry, D.O. James and W.E. Karstetter.

Mrs. Blalock used "Happy New Year" for her theme. She urged her listeners to let the new club year be the beginning of a new year in each of them.

She said many old things would pass away and many old things would be kept. But, she suggested they remove the clutter from their minds and hearts so new inspirations could come to gladden their lives and enable them to be a benediction to society.

Among the blessed old things Mrs. Blalock emphasized for keeping were things that were true, honest, pure and of good report; old emotions filled with kindness, reverence for the authority of God; gracious ministries that bless mankind; habits that keep people on the straight way; friends that become more beloved each year, and reverence for God.

Old habits she mentioned that should pass away included anger, bitter feelings, suspicious looks, jealousy, clinched hands and unwilling feet.

The speaker added to this list, things that do not hold life together in the unity of good manners and are born out of unworthy service apart from the Lord, and all things that remain to nurse and encourage prejudices.

Mrs. Blalock closed her devotional with the Apostle Paul's advice to the church at Philippi regarding some of the "blessed old things" to keep.

Mrs. Kenneth Via directed the business meeting which was devoted to routine reports and studying contest rules and points for zone, district and state.

Plans were made for the baked goods booth at Whoop-T-Do. The booth will be set up in front of 107 Cash, Oct. 13.

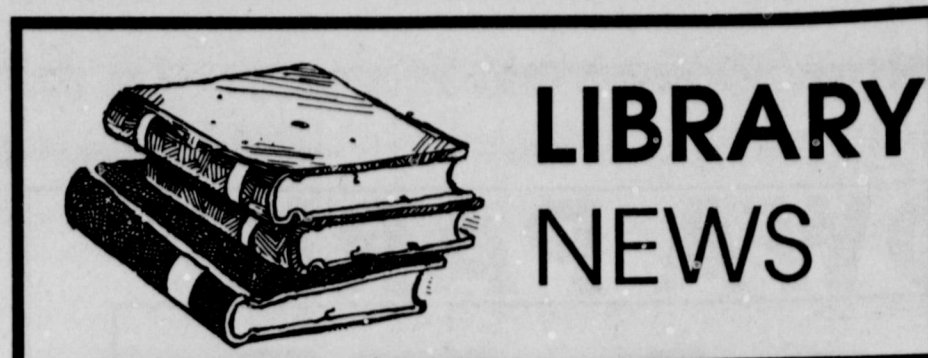

Announce engagement

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Beavers are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Paula Diane, to Sean Christian McGinty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick S. McGinty of Wichita Falls.

Miss Beavers, a graduate of Iowa Park High School, is majoring in radiology at Midwestern State Univ. She is employed at Tangles Salon.

McGinty is a Rider High School graduate, and is general manager of McGinty Tire Co. in Wichita Falls.

The wedding will be held Nov. 3, at Faith Baptist Church in Iowa Park.

A slide program on the benefits of fall planting was shown to members of the Iowa Park Garden Club, who met Friday morning in TU Electric's Reddy Room.

Mark Terning, Wichita County Horticulturist for the Texas Agriculture Extension Service, was in charge of the presentation. He stated that fall is the best time to plant trees because they suffer less transplant shock and have fewer disease and insect problems. Also, it has been proven that trees planted in the fall grow twice as fast as those planted in the spring.

"Not only is fall a perfect time to plant trees, but it is also a perfect time to seed lawns, plant fall bedding plants such as pansies and chrysanthemums, and to plant wildflowers such as bluebonnets," he said. Terning stated that bluebonnets are available as seed or bedding plants, and that they come in white, pink, or blue varieties. He closed the presentation with several slides of area landscapes.

Mrs. John Clapp presided over the business in which Mrs. Don Decker reported on the Flower Show to be held Oct. 13 in the First Christian Church Fellowship Hall. This year's theme will be "A Festival of Flowers."

Mrs. Ray Copening reported that the club will enter a float in the homecoming parade. The theme for the parade is "At the Movies."

In other business, Mrs. Jim Gilmore, conservation chairman, gave a report on recycling paper products, and Mrs. Decker showed a topiary, composed of a small bear figure, covered in small-leaf ivy, as the horticulture display.

Mrs. Gladys James announced that the yard of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Huff, 208 West Diamond, had been selected as the Yard of the Month for October.

Mrs. Gene Young gave the thought for the day entitled "Coupon Sale."

Lib Cabe and Bernice Compton were hostesses for the meeting in which

As I See It... By Bob Hamilton

My nerves can't handle much more of this.

"This" is losing pictures I've taken for the paper. And, no, I don't mean I dropped them out of my pocket or misplaced them on my desk.

This makes twice in more than 34 years in the newspaper business I've lost pictures. The other time was early last summer.

Unlike the first time, when I had my mind on something else while I was in the darkroom and turned on the light, exposing a roll of film, this time it was a malfunction of my camera's strobe light.

Luckily, not all my pictures were lost, however. Just those I had to use the strobe to shoot. Those I took with available light came out fine.

I guess what happened was, when I was leaving for Clyde Friday afternoon and the weather was threatening, I took the time to cover the strobe with a sheet of transparent film.

I secured the film with a rubber band. In doing that, I apparently put the cable between the strobe and camera in a bind, and though the strobe fired, it was not working as it should have with the camera.

Thus, I have no pictures of the football game, none of this week's Cook of the Week, and I'm not sure about a picture I took for Meredith Long's advertisement to be used next week.

Someone may be telling me something. The other time I lost pictures...you guessed it. Two pictures were for Meredith's ads.

No one ever said putting out a newspaper was supposed to be easy.

September slow permit month

September was an extremely dry month for building permits, according to the records at city hall.

Only 10 permits were issued, and one of those was for the Tom Burnett Memorial Library.

September's total was only $33,800, as compared to $128,951 for August. The year's total to date is $2,944,003.

Permits issued during September included:

- Farmers Home Administration, 607 W. Cornelia, repair, $8,000;
- Jim Adams, 1208 Emma, carport, $300;
- Mr. Denny, 308 W. Magnolia, repair, $5,000;
- Tom Burnett Library, 410 W. Alameda, repair, $2,100;

- G. Thurlo, 1400 N. Victoria, alteration, $7,500;
- Virgil Russell, 904 Dosia, alteration, $2,000;

- DeAnne Aulds, 603 W. Cornelia, repair, $500;
- Country Hill Apartments, 1000 Mary, repair, $3,950;
- Donald Potter, 709 W. Clara, repair, $600;
- Mr. Butler, 514 Rebecca, repair, $3,850.

Corrections

Two errors in last week's edition of the Leader have been called to the attention of the editor. A nurse pointed out that Mr. and Mrs. Monte Castro are patients in Bethania Hospital, not Wichita General. Also, Elgin Denney said H.T. Danner was the first Ford Motor Co. dealer in Iowa Park, not Luther Shaw. We regret the errors and appreciate them being called to our attention.

Helpful Facts

Building permits are needed any time the property owner is covering square footage of the property and/or when repairs change the physical appearance of a structure. Minimum charge is $10. Permits are available in the Public Works office at Iowa Park City Hall.

Where Jesus is Lord

GOD IS IN THE SALVAGE BUSINESS!

This is hard to accept, grasp, and practice: the church is not a hotel for saints, but a hospital for sinners. The church is an emergency room for sin-blasted sinners! All are beggars sharing bread. It is natural to view the church as belonging to the perfect, the strong, and the successful. We joke that "the church building would fall in if I cam." Those who need the church the most flee from it.

All of God's great men we failures: sinners, rejects, and fallen. Abraham lied, Moses beat up on a rock, Jacob was a con man, David was a murderer and adulterer, Paul the very chief of sinners. Peter denied the Lord three times! Yet God used these "failures" in His service!

Repentance is not just a self-willed vow to do better. It is facing up to our failures and then totally giving ourselves to God. All of us, to a degree, are cracked, chipped, torn, frayed on the edges. Only love can cover this multitude of sins.

Folks in sin need to repent, obey God's will, and "go home to tell what great things the Lord has done for you." People in sin must not ride, hide, and fight. We must live among those who know the worst about us. Church folks pretend we're perfect and cover us. People only think they can be used when they are perfect. When exposed, they move. Whatever your sins, whether secret or public, there is still hope. Jesus still says, "Follow Me." (Matthew 4:19) Where God is, there is hope! Peter stayed and faced the music! Judas ran into suicide. The choice is yours. It may be too late for innocence, but not repentance. Church buildings are filled with odds and ends, seconds, and damaged goods. That is why the Lord is in the grace business. Try it out!

Waterfield questions ruling

"Just because Judge McCowan has ruled that the Texas school finance system is unconstitutional, there is no reason to rush into hasty reforms of the system," said Rep. Dick Waterfield, a candidate for Congress.

Travis County District Court Judge Scott McCowan ruled the method of financing public schools in Texas was unconstitutional because it did not provide equal access to funding by all school districts in the state.

The judge set a deadline date of Sept. 1, 1991 to reform the system.

The current school finance system was put in place this year because of a 9-0 ruling by the Texas Supreme Court last year, declaring the old finance system constitutional.

"Fortunately for the people of the State of Texas Judge McCowan does not have the last word on this issue. Judge McCowan was elected to the bench by the very liberal voters of Austin and Travis county. His views do not reflect those of the majority of people in the state," said Waterfield.

"The Governor's office has indicated to me that the state will appeal the case to the Civil Court of Appeals. The case may then follow the path of the original Edgewood vs. Kirby case and end up in the Texas Supreme Court.

"The Justices on the higher courts answer to all the voters in the state and are much more conservative in their views than Judge McCowan. It is too soon to predict if the Legislature will be called upon to write another school finance reform bill," Waterfield stated.

"The unfortunate thing is that the people of the State of Texas will continue to pay the increased sales tax mandated by the same bill that has been declared unconstitutional. I voted against that increase in taxes, but we will be forced to pay the increased tax as the constitutionality of the school finance reform bill is decided," he concluded.

Childers renew marriage vows to celebrate 50th anniversary

Roy and Marcella Childers celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Saturday with the renewal of their marriage vows.

The ceremony was held at First United Methodist Church at 2 p.m., with Rev. John Mollet officiating.

During the ceremony the couple's favorite songs, including "I Love You Truly," and "Because" were played by organist Randy Rinehart.

The sanctuary was decorated with silk flowers and altar candles. The bride wore a corsage and the groom wore a boutonniere designed and made by one of their daughters.

Following the ceremony, the anniversary couple was honored with a reception in Fellowship Hall of the church.

The reception was hosted by their children, Donna Chandler of Mineral Wells, Roy Childers, Jr., College Station, and Lee Ann Mason of Irving.

Arrangements of fresh flowers highlighted decorations in Fellowship

Hall. A guest book table featured the couple's anniversary picture.

The refreshment table held a cake topped with a special 50th anniversary decoration and the punch and coffee services. Grandchildren of the honored couple assisted with the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Childers were married Oct. 1, 1940 in the home of the groom's family. They have lived in Wichita Falls or Iowa Park all of their lives except for brief periods.

They are retired and are active in Iowa Park First United Methodist Church and the Burlington Northern Railroad Retirement Association.

Approximately 75 friends and relatives attended the renewal of vows and reception.

Communication changes is program topic

Sixteen members of the Thelma Smith Baptist Women of First Baptist Church attended the meeting held Monday evening at the church. The hostesses were Mrs. V.I. Woodfin and Mrs. O.S. McLemore. Mrs. Steve Lowe and Mrs. Bill Toler were welcomed as new members.

Mrs. E.T. Patterson was in charge of the prayer period for missionaries on the birthday calendar for the day. Mrs. Woodfin presided during the business when members voted to donate items to the food pantry for the mission project for October.

The title of the program taken from the Royal Service magazine was "How Can They Hear? - Through Empowered Women." Mrs. J.T. Parker was program coordinator and discussed the change in the communications system since a telegram sent in 1840 made it possible to send a message a hundred miles. Then, when President Kennedy was assassinated, the message went around the world within a few minutes.

She said the change in communications had made an impact on both the senders and the receivers and made it possible to keep in touch with people and places all over the world.

For the spiritual application, the topical discussions showed how the lives of three Southern Baptist women missionaries have been empowered through prayer communications offered regularly for them by Christian women in different cities in Missouri.

Mmes. S.B. Reaves, McLemore, H.E. Cummings represented the missionaries in Peru, Venezuela and Paraguay, and Mrs. W.F. Booher, Mrs. Elmer Singleton and Helen Reed represented their partners in the states. The concluding topic was given by Mrs. Eleanor Bell who gave the testimony of one who believes that Christians are under mandate to pray for missions.

property through the iron frame gateway, a winding road leads around the foot of a hill to the house.

Pete used the Frank Lloyd Wright architecture theory in reverse. Instead of building the house to suit the surroundings, he built the surroundings to suit the house they wanted to build.

The view was a prerequisite to selection for the building site for both Pete and Margaret.

They, with the help of his sister, Louise Kuehler, designed the house. Pete told Margaret, "The house will have 3,200 square feet of space, so decide what you want and where you want it."

Koonce and his employees dug out the side of a knoll. Thousands of yards of river sand and dirt from the water tanks were hauled with Pete's front end loader to build the slopes on either side of where the house would be built.

On approach one views a long house of sand color that is a blend of Southwest and Texas vernacular architecture. The house faces slightly southeast, enough to escape some of the hot summer sun.

A veranda of scored concrete spans the full length of the house. The overall square footage of the entire structure is 4,800, which includes a four car garage and two guest bedrooms and a bath on the west end of the garage.

The roof over the veranda is of terra cotta tile, adding the Southwest flair to the flat roofed house. On the veranda are ceiling fans to keep the air stirring and black wrought iron patio furniture.

Pete and Margaret have been able to sit on the veranda this summer and watch the sunset and the wildlife.

"Many times we can look out on the veranda and see wild turkeys or pheasants parading around the yard or across the veranda," Margaret said.

Soon they will be able to sit in their living room and look out the deep windows across rolling land dotted with pump jacks, and a green wheat field.

At a distance are trees on the bank of the Wichita River that meanders along the south boundary of Koonce land. All of this is the view the couple had in mind. The couple's two black Labradors also have been enjoying the veranda.

Tall windows along the entire front of the house add to the appearance and provide light to the interior. A leaded glass door with matching side panels leads into the living area. Double glass paneled doors provide an entrance into the master bath and bedroom.

Adding to the facade is the chimney that bears a large brass "Circle K," the Koonce brand.

There are no windows or doors in the back of the house as it meshes with the hillside that embraces it. This adds to warmth in winter and cooling in the summer months.

One thing so unique about the house is that all frame work, studs and bracing are of metal. The pipe used for the framework and metal studs were set in about 15 inches of concrete and the concrete for the foundation and flooring was poured.

Sixteen inches of insulation was sprayed in the roof and eight inches was used in the walls of the house.

Noted at the front door is the distinctive modified arch design that is a repeated theme throughout the interior.

Upon entry a light, airy openness and unobstructed simplicity is felt. Living and dining areas are incorporated into one great room.

An island separates the kitchen and living area and marks a place for table and chairs to be used for family dining or double as a game table.

Beams of the cathedral ceiling in the living area hint of wood, but are of metal. A focal point is the great stacked rock fireplace centered between panels of long windows.

On the exposed chimney above the mantel is a skull of a steer on which a scene is painted. It depicts a moonlit night with two cows and a calf at a watering hole. The painting was executed by the couple's ranch foreman.

Neutral colors predominate throughout the house. A soft taupe semi-circular seating arrangement divides the living and dining areas.

Wall units, both movable and stationary are used as functional pieces where a large formal dining suite dominates the area.

A long wall unit on one living room wall contains the entertainment and media center. In the space back of this section, just off the foyer closet is the control panel for sound throughout the house and satellites.

Many of the newer building and functional trends have been incorporated in the Koonce home.

In fact, function and convenience, are its identifying characteristics.

All built-in natural oak cabinet work in the kitchen was finished by Koonce. This look is continued on the refrigerator and deep freeze. The refrigerator is unusual in that the shelves are longer and more narrow than average, allowing easier access to the stored food items.

Neutrals are used on surfaces with the exception of appliances that make a statement in black.

The cabinets exemplify one of the newer trends of today by intermingling open shelves and closed cabinets.

An unusual curved corner sink of black, and a black glass induction cooktop compliment the solid surfacing of the cabinet and splashbacks that has the sophisticated look of granite, but isn't.

The induction cooktop is also a new feature. The unit contains electromagnetic coils beneath a glass cooktop. When turned on the coils create a magnetic field that is converted into heat inside the pot. Cookware for these tops must be flat bottomed and magnetic. The surface does not heat up, just the pot and contents. When it is turned off cooking stops immediately.

Storage space abounds in every nook and corner in the house. The utility room has walls of cabinet space and a desk area.

There is a huge walk-in closet which was built by Pete and one of his employees. The space it has is what most women just get to dream about. The closets are all cedar lined.

In this room there is hanging space for clothes on two walls. A storage cabinet is built along one wall and in the center of the area Pete built an accessory unit where there are drawers and shelves used for shoes, bags, etc. On the other side is more clothes hanging space.

Pete has a smaller walk-in closet off a second bathroom.

One room that Margaret calls her work room can also be used as an extra guest bedroom. She has a project going most of the time. Currently it is reversible placemats and napkins. She also does some painting.

In the master bedroom everything is built-in. In addition to the stationary bed there is storage space on either side, and a dressing table. The wood is white washed oak.

Off the bedroom is a large bath with whirlpool tub in front of a window. This is where double doors open out onto the veranda.

A powder room just off the hall coming from the living area is steel covered and could double as a storm shelter if it ever became necessary.

Space along the wall in the back part of the garage has been made into two workshops for Koonce.

They have set out pine trees on either side of the house and red oak trees in the front edging the circular drive. And Pete has done a good job of landscaping with the mesquite trees.

In spite of Pete's busy lifestyle, he has tried to do his share of civic work.

In earlier years he was a charter member and past president of the Jaycees. He was president part of the time the old RAC building was started by putting two barracks buildings together. He put in many hours of work on the building. A plaque was placed at the flagpole there in his honor.

As a Jaycee member he put in many hours in their booth at the Texas-Oklahoma Fair. They bought booth space and paid on it from their profits. "Just as we would have made a profit for the organization the next year, the fair closed," said Koonce.

He also served as a volunteer fireman, on the Water District Board and the Iowa Park Independent School District Board.

Pete has sponsored a Little League team since its inception and continues to do so. He is a charter member and past president of MuleSkinners. These constitute his only current civic activities. He and Margaret are members of First Christian Church.

Mrs. Koonce has been active in Epsilon Sigma Alpha, the Jayceeettes, PTA, and Iowa Park Garden Club. She served in several official capacities in each of the organizations and was a state officer while in Jayceeettes. Margaret also served as a volunteer with Bethania Regional Health Care Center Auxilliary.

She has a trip to New England planned for this week and when she returns she is scheduled to leave for England to visit their daughter and family.

Jill and her husband, Zack Guthrie, and their two children, Sam, 2, and Meredith, 1, live in Bedford, England.

Guthrie is a computer programmer with Geophysical Services in Marine Oil Exploration in the North Sea.

Jill already has sent her mother their itinerary and it sounds very exciting.

Koonce said, "We have been very fortunate to have had our health most of the time. We have had some bad luck and some sorrow and tragedy in our lives, but we try not to dwell on that."

The couple lost a son in a tragic accident when he was 10 years old. Margaret has none of her family left except aunts and an uncle.

About a year and a half ago Margaret was diagnosed as having breast cancer. She has had all of her treatments and has been doing good so they are very optimistic about the future.

Pete still has seven of his brothers and sisters and they visit as often as possible. One brother, Doyle who lived in Iowa Park, died in 1979.

James recently moved back to Iowa Park from San Francisco. E.C. lives in Pamon, Calif., and George is in Fort Worth.

His sisters Eba Lee Stevens lives in Wichita Falls, Juanita Boswell is in Fort Worth, Mary Eib lives in Bellflower, Calif., and Louise resides on FM 367.

Koonce has the philosophy "If there is no progress, it is a lost cause."

Someone has said, "If you're going to climb, you've got to grab the branches, not the blossoms," which seems to be what Pete has done.

Iowa Park School Counselors

TAAS Test

Iowa Park students at the third, fifth, seventh, ninth and 11th grade levels will be taking the new TAAS (Texas Assessment of Academic Skills) test Oct. 16-18. This test replaces the TEAMS (Texas Educational Assessment of Minimum Skills).

The TAAS program measures a broader range of essential elements than the TEAMS program. It also better addresses the academic goals of the 1990s which stress the importance of teaching students higher-order thinking skills.

For all levels the writing test will be administered Oct. 16, the reading test, Oct. 17, and the mathematics test on Oct. 18. No make-up sessions will be allowed for the TAAS test.

The TAAS test will begin during first period of the school day and will continue until all students complete the portion scheduled for that day. The test is untimed so that each student is encouraged to take the time necessary to adequately complete the test for that day.

Exit level exams will be given to all juniors and the Texas Administrative Code states that any individual must demonstrate mastery of each section of the exit level examination in order to receive a high school diploma.

Outstanding Students

Thirty-three seventh grade students at Iowa Park Junior High School have been identified as eligible to participate in a Talent Identification Program (TIP) sponsored by Duke University.

Eligible students must score in the upper three percent on the Comprehensive Test of Basic Skills (CTBS) taken in the spring of their sixth grade year.

This Talent Search for mathematically and verbally advanced students identifies highly able seventh-graders from a 16-state region in the south, southwest, and midwest. TIP, established in 1980, has provided thousands of students with information about their abilities and educational options.

Purposes of the program are to help academically bright students develop their special abilities, to assist schools in working with these students, and to understand the nature of exceptional mathematical and verbal ability.

IOWA PARKAN RONALD CUNNINGHAM CHECKS EQUIPMENT
... aboard guided missile destroyer USS Berkeley.

USS BERKELEY, NAVY'S GUIDED MISSILE DESTROYER

Local couple's son knows Middle East

By JEFFREY PERRON
SAN DIEGO - Each day new events unfold in the latest Middle East crisis. Whether hostages are being released, ships are being boarded and searched, threats are being made or money is being pledged in the fight to stop aggression, it's a tense time for the American military.

Ronald D. Cunningham, the 23-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Randal Cunningham of Iowa Park, is a petty officer second class aboard the guided missile destroyer USS Berkeley homeported here. Cunningham knows what sailors in and around the Persian Gulf area are going through.

"A deployment is a trying time for everyone," he said. "When you spend six months looking at the same faces, you need to get a release. The Indian Ocean can make some spaces on the ship feel like a small, non air-conditioned shack in the middle of the desert."

U.S. naval participation in Operation Desert Shield has included 65 Navy ships and 35,000 sailors and Marines (afloat).

The Berkeley is similar to the guided missile destroyers currently deployed in the Gulf. It is 437 feet long, has a crew of 355 men and carries two five-inch gun mounts, a guided missile launcher system for standard missiles, an anti-submarine rocket launcher and Mark 46 torpedoes.

Modern destroyers are called upon to perform primarily in a battle force combatant role. These ships operate in support of aircraft carriers and battle-ship battle groups. Their primary responsibility is anti-submarine warfare. They are also capable of anti-air and anti-surface warfare.

"The ship's personnel are its greatest asset," said Cunningham. "The officers and crew are always on call and serve as the backup system when automatic systems fail or malfunction."

Although the ship was deployed earlier this year, should there be a need for them to return to the region, the ship and its crew are prepared.

"If I had to go, I would readily participate knowing that I am trying to aid other people in the world to achieve a more free and stable environment," said Cunningham.

It isn't known how long the sailors in the Gulf are going to remain, although being separated from family members is common for sailors who make six-month deployments regularly.

"Not only are we trying to protect American interests aboard, but we are trying to protect the interests of many nations," he said.

As events unfold between Saddam Hussein and the rest of the world, U.S. sailors will continue to do what they are trained to do: keep the world's sea lanes open, enforce the United Nations blockade and be prepared to defend against Iraqi aggression.

QUARTERBACK ROBERT DENTON, 10, had his best night of the young season Friday against Clyde. He completed five passes for 98 yards, led the team in rushing with 67 yards, and scored the only touchdown on an 18-yard scamper.

9-0 FIRST VICTORY OF SEASON

Hawks overcome obstacles, Clyde

Iowa Park's Hawks overcame a number of obstacles Friday night ... two turnovers, a highly questionable penalty, an unexpected aerial assault, and, most of all, the appearance that they couldn't hold their defense together in the fourth quarter ... and earned their first victory of the season: 9-0 over Clyde.

One of the turnovers was a fumble in the first quarter, when the snap between center Lewis Skinner and quarterback Robert Denton failed to connect. The other was one of Denton's 11 pass attempts being stolen in the fourth period.

Of the nine penalties called against the Hawks, one for roughing the passer in the fourth period drew the most ire of Iowa Park's coaching staff. Two plays after Denton's interception, Todd Pulley made a spectacular interception of his own. The call not only nullified Pulley's effort, but gave the Bulldogs a first down on their own 27 yard line. A study of the game film later convinced the Hawk coaches they were correct in their argument, and the Clyde quarterback's arm was in the motion of throwing when he was hit.

In their three previous games, the Bulldogs had depended on their running offense. But, when the Mean Green defense shut that down, Clyde turned to its aerial game, attempting 20 passes. Nine were completed, but three were intercepted, one each by Bryan Luney, Greg Steger and Chad Reis.

In their first two games this season, the Hawks held the scoring lead going into the fourth quarter. And of the 71 total points scored against them, 49 were racked up in the final period.

But that was not the case at Clyde, as the Hawks marked up their first shutout of the season.

Pulley lit up the scoreboard first, early in the second quarter, with a 25-yard field goal. Key play in the drive was a 31-yard run by Denton to the 'Dog 11.

Denton scored Iowa Park's touchdown late in the third period, from 18 yards out. He had rolled out looking for a receiver and, unable to find one, tucked the ball and split the surprised defense.

For the evening, Denton carried six times and led the Hawk carriers with 67 yards.

Clyde's main scoring threat was late in the second quarter, following Pulley's field goal. The Bulldogs mounted a drive from their own 20, with most of their gains by passes.

The Bulldogs picked up a first down on the Hawk 10 yard line. On the next play they gained two. But that was it. Linebacker Gary Green made a tackle on the 10, and teamed with Luney to break up the third down pass attempt. On fourth and goal, Clyde completed a pass, but Green tackled the receiver on the four, ending the drive with 1:03 remaining in the period.

Fullback Johnny Duggins was the workhorse of the night for Iowa Park. He carried the ball 13 times for 48 yards, and caught three passes for 33 additional yards.

Mark de la Rosa gained 21 yards on seven carries, and Pulley gained 23 on six totes.

Steger and Jason Young both caught a pass; Steger for 39 yards and Young for 26.

Besides Green, big defensive plays were credited to Luney and Robert Cargal.

Cheerleaders' Point of View

This week we will be playing at home against Childress. We had a great win last week and hope to see lots of people cheering the Hawks to another victory this Friday.

We encourage you to attend the game and pep rally.

This week's theme is teach the Bearcats a lesson. Students are asked to dress like a teacher. You can dress the image of a "teacher" or imitate a specific teacher.

Let's show a lot of "Hawk Spirit" this Friday so the Bobcats will know the Hawks are #1! Go Hawks, Beat Childress!! The Boys Are Back!

TOP 'O TEXAS FOOTBALL

PEE WEE HAWKS 22 HOLLIDAY PEE WEES 6

On the first play from scrimmage, Bryan Miller ran 54 yards for a touchdown and Johnny Dillard followed with a two-point conversion run.

After that, the playing of the game was much closer because of all the hard hitting and running by both teams.

With five seconds remaining in the first half, Toby Williams scampered 16 yards to make the score 14-0.

Johnny Dillard scored from six yards out late in the third quarter, and Troy Tatum ran for the two-pointer.

Holliday narrowed the margin with a 56-yard touchdown pass with 2:19 remaining in the game.

Offensive standouts for Iowa Park were Mason Adams, Justin Denton, Perry Hack and Brandon Lewis.

Defensively, Casey Evans, Clinton Ashford, Jacob Perkins and Joey Butler were recognized by the coaches.

Next game will be at 6 p.m. Saturday against the Sheppard Pee Wees at Sheppard AFB.

Hawks meet Bobcats

The 220-pound runningback with 4.6 speed carried for more than 1,200 yards in both his sophomore and junior seasons, and is well on his way to exceeding those years before this one is over.

While Hopkins is the only back on the Bobcat roster in the 200-pound range, there are four linemen in front of him as large or larger.

The largest of those linemen is the only sophomore on the varsity squad, 260-pound tackle Otis Garcia. Troyce Keeling usually anchors the other side of the line with his 250-pound bulk.

Johnston doesn't use all his big linemen all the time, however. The Hawk scouting report indicates smaller players are in the lineup, but they are both strong and very quick.

With their depth, only one player, Clint Coley, is called upon to play both offense and defense. He's the team's quarterback and doubles as a corner back.

In their game last week against Randall, the Bobcats gained 201 yards rushing and added 45 more passing. But they also turned over the ball three times, once on an interception and twice on fumbles.

Their defense stole three of Randall's 16 pass attempts.

Iowa Park's coaching staff was visibly concerned after last week's game at Clyde over the physical condition of two starting linemen, Robert Cargal and Cory Bridwell.

Cargal suffered a shoulder injury and Bridwell's knee was packed in ice. However, both are expected to be at full speed tomorrow night.

While Iowa Park has won only one of its four games this season, the team has shown marked improvement each Friday.

Childress will be the last of the Hawks' non-conference opponents. The following week, which will be homecoming, Iowa Park opens Dist. 4-AAA play against Graham.

Building permits are needed any time the property owner is covering square footage of the property and/or when repairs change the physical appearance of a structure. Minimum charge is $10. Permits are available in the Public Works office at Iowa Park City Hall.

JV, Frosh sweep Bowie

Iowa Park's Freshman and Junior Varsity football teams swept Bowie here Thursday night.

The Frosh game was no contest. Iowa Park built a 36-0 lead through the first half and used mainly reserves the second to win 49-0.

The JV game was closer, but a win none the less, 14-6.

Justin Goodknight lit up the scoreboard first, on a three-yard run, and Patrick Kennedy caught a pass for the two-point conversion, to give Iowa Park an 8-0 lead at the half.

Chris Williams scored in the third, on a five-yard run, to account for the other Hawk points.

Bowie managed a 30-yard touchdown pass with three seconds remaining on the scoreboard clock.

Both clubs are to travel today to Childress, where the Frosh kickoff is set for 5:30 p.m. and the JV at 7.

FFA Boosters to feed fans

A combread and bean supper will be fed to the public between 6 and 8 p.m. Friday at the Vocational Agriculture building, just north of Hawk Stadium.

Prices for the all-you-can-eat meal are $1.50 for children under 12 and $2.50 for adults.

The meal is sponsored by the FFA Booster Club, and all members are reminded to bring their servings of combread and desserts.

Donna Moore

Donna Moore, our featured cook this week, has been employed at City Hall two years, and has been assistant to the City Administrator since January.

She grew up near Chicago, Ill., and moved to Wichita Falls six years ago. Her two children are Beverly, 10, and four-year-old Jerrod.

Donna's hobbies include knitting, crocheting, sewing, and playing the piano. She likes to make afghans and sweaters, and before starting to work, took a class in quilt making.

She takes an active part in the activities of her church, the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Donna and some of her friends in the church sent their favorite recipes in to a publishing company and had their own cookbook printed. The recipes that she has submitted for this week are taken from that cookbook.

BROCCOLI CASSEROLE

1 pkg. chopped broccoli (frozen)
1/2 can cream of mushroom soup (undiluted)
1/2 cup sharp Cheddar cheese (grated)
1 egg
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1 tablespoon chopped onion
1/2 cup cracker crumbs
Salt and pepper

Mix all together and bake, in covered casserole, 45-60 minutes at 450 degrees.

HAM AND POTATO CASSEROLE

1 med. onion
3 tbs. flour
1 green pepper
1/4 cup butter
2 cups milk
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
3 cups ham
4 cups cooked and cubed potatoes
1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese

Cook onion and green pepper in butter until tender. Stir in flour. Add milk, salt and pepper. Cook, stirring constantly until thickened. Add ham and potatoes. Stir well. Sprinkle cheese over top. Bake at 350 degrees 30 minutes.

HAMBURGER PIE

Cheddar cheese, shredded
1 lb. ground beef
1/2 onion, chopped
2 cans tomato soup
1 can green beans
6 potatoes
Butter
Salt and pepper

Sprinkle ground beef with salt and pepper. In a skillet, brown together ground beef and onion. Drain. Add tomato soup and green beans. Heat through. In another pan, boil potatoes until soft. Drain water. Mash potatoes, adding butter, salt and pepper to taste. Pour hamburger mixture into a serving bowl. Spoon mashed potatoes over top. Sprinkle with cheese.

A DIFFERENT PEA SALAD

1 small jar diced pimentos (undrained)
3 stalks celery (2 cups) chopped
3 green onions, chopped
1 green pepper, chopped
2 carrots, diced
1 (16 oz.) can English peas, drained
1 (16 oz.) can shoe peg (white) corn, drained

Combine ingredients and set aside.

DRESSING

Mix together:
3/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup white vinegar
1/4 cup salad oil
1 tbs. water
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. black pepper

Bring to boil, then let cool completely. Pour over vegetables. This salad is better if left in refrigerator for a few hours or overnight. When ready to serve, stir and drain.

CHICKEN ENCHILADAS

1 can green chilies, chopped
1/2 cup chopped onion
2 tbs. butter
15 oz. can tomato sauce
1 cup chicken stock
1 tsp. chili powder
1 tsp. cumin
1 tsp. sugar
1/3 cup light cream
8 oz. cream cheese
2 cups cooked chicken, cut in strips
3/4 cup onion, chopped
12 flour tortillas, soft
Butter, as needed
1 1/2 cup Cheddar cheese, shredded

For the sauce, saute 1/2 onion and green pepper in butter. Stir in tomato sauce, chicken stock, chili powder, cumin, sugar, and pepper to taste.

Bring to boil; simmer 15 minutes, stirring occasionally. For the filling, in a mixing bowl, gradually add cream to the cream cheese, beating until well blended. Stir in chicken and 3/4 cup onion.

To assemble enchiladas, lightly brown each tortilla on both sides in a lightly buttered skillet, over medium high heat. Brown until heated through and softened, but not crisp. Dip each warm tortilla in enchilada sauce. Spoon 1/4 cup filling over each tortilla and roll up. Arrange enchiladas, seam side down, in a 13x9 inch baking pan. Cover with remaining sauce. Cover with foil and bake in preheated 350 degree oven 15 to 20 minutes. Remove foil; sprinkle with cheese and bake an additional 3 minutes.

CHERRY TOPPED CHEESECAKE

1 pkg. yellow cake mix
2 tbs. oil
2 pkg. (8 oz. each) cream cheese, softened
1/2 cup sugar
4 eggs

1 1/2 cup milk
3 tbs. lemon juice
3 tsp. vanilla
1 can (1 lb. 5 oz.) cherry pie filling

Preheat oven to 300 degrees. Reserve 1 cup of dry cake mix. In large mixing bowl, combine remaining cake mix, 1 egg, and oil (mixture will be crumbly). Press crust mixture evenly into bottom and 3/4 way up the sides of a greased 13x9x2-inch pan. In same bowl, blend cream cheese and sugar. Add 3 eggs and reserved cake mix. Beat 1 minute at medium speed. At low speed, slowly add milk and flavorings mix until smooth. Pour into crust. Bake at 300 degrees for 45 to 55 minutes until center is firm. When cool, top with pie filling. Chill before serving.

Ducks Unlimited opens southern office

Recognizing the need for a concentrated effort to combat the loss of wetlands in the lower Mississippi Flyway and Gulf Coast, Ducks Unlimited has announced the opening of its Southern Regional office in Jackson, Miss.

The historic move is in conjunction with DU's current decentralization of its overall operations, an initiative designed to more directly address regional wetland requirements and better serve its members.

The Southern Regional office is the third such facility established by DU. The first, the Great Plains Regional office, is headquartered in Bismarck, N.D. The Western Regional office, located in Sacramento, Cal., opened in 1987.

"Our Southern Regional office staff is an extremely talented and dedicated group," Connolly continued. "Their collective expertise will undoubtedly produce positive results. The expansion of our operations and the deployment of these people to staff this office underscore DU's commitment to the lower Mississippi Flyway."

The Southern Regional office will work closely with representatives of federal and state wildlife agencies and private landowners to implement its habitat enhancement, maintenance, restoration and acquisition programs.

States included in this region are Alabama, Arkansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas and the southern portions of Illinois, Indiana and Missouri.

Future plans call for additional offices in the Minneapolis area and in the Atlantic Flyway.
