Vol. 22, No. 14 IOWA PARK, WICHITA COUNTY, TEXAS 76367 Thursday, December 20, 1990

LITTLE-KNOWN FACT:

City is bird sanctuary

By Myrna Smith

Iowa Park was designated a bird sanctuary 22 years ago, however, the casual observer, or anyone passing through town would hardly notice.

Only two small signs are posted in the city to attest the fact, and these are at both approaches to Iowa Park on Loop 370.

Mrs. Sam Hunter, Mrs. Erwin Soell and Mrs. James A. Sewell, who were members of the Iowa Park Garden Club, were the initial instigators to have Iowa Park ordained a bird sanctuary.

It was at the Sept. 23, 1968 meeting of the city council that the entire area embraced within the corporate limits of the city be designated as such.

Present for that meeting were Dr. Erwin F. Soell, mayor, H.M. Mahler, Gerald Cormaday, Taylor George, Bill G. Robinson, and Charles H. Bentley, aldermen, and Dosia S. Smith, city secretary.

Others at the meeting were city secretary-elect K.G. Wilks, O. N. Newman, city attorney, Raymond C. Shook, fire marshal, Mrs. Betty Aull and two friends and Mrs. Soell, community service chairman and Mrs. Sewell, conservation chairman of Iowa Park Garden Club.

Several members of the club, as well as others in town were interested in birds and wildlife, and thought it would be good to have a bird sanctuary so residents would take care of the birds as they migrated.

At the meeting of the city council the ordinance was passed and approved that "it shall be unlawful to trap, hunt, shoot or attempt to shoot or molest in any manner any bird or wild fowl or to rob bird nests or wild fowl nests."

Perhaps the most difficult aspect of the sanctuary responsibility is accepting grackles and starlings. Their presence at the feeding stations can be more tolerated by supplying cheaper foods, such as cracked corn, tossed on the ground some distance from regular feeders.

"This method seems an easier solution than being constantly on the alert to frighten them away, and, after all, they are hungry too," Mrs. Hunter said.

A provision was made in the ordinance that "if starlings or similar birds are found to be congregating in such numbers in a particular locality that they constitute a nuisance or menace to health or property in the opinion of the proper health authorities of the City of Iowa Park, then in such event said health authorities shall meet with representatives of the Audubon Society, Bird Club, Garden Club or Humane Society, and as many of said clubs as are found to exist in the City of Iowa Park, after having given at least three days actual notice of the time and place of said meeting to the representatives of said club."

According to the ordinance, "If as a result of said meeting no satisfactory alternative is found to abate such nuisance, then said birds may be destroyed in such numbers and in such manner as is deemed advisable by said health authorities under the supervision of the Chief of Police of the City of Iowa Park.

"Anyone violating the provisions of this Ordinance shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $100."

Mrs. Hunter said, "In about 1968 several Iowa Parkans were interested in organizing a bird club. They liked to feed them in winter and watch them

Major sewer project is facing city council

The results of a six-month study of the city's sewer transmission system was presented to the city council Monday night in the form of a 141-page book and reviewed by engineer Kerry Maroney.

Overflowing manholes caused by heavy rains last spring prompted the council's call for the study, as well as recommendations for remediation.

In his recommendations, Maroney proposed a three-phase program. The first would care for the present to the year 1995; second phase, 1996-2000, and third phase, 2001-2005.

Bottom line for the 15-year project, which took into consideration increases in population, was $1.45-million.

Mayor Wayne House told the engineer the council would take all the proposals under consideration for further study, but directed him to begin at once drafting plans on one of the plans in phase one.

The Texas Water Commission has directed all municipalities to begin next summer removing chlorine from water being released from waste water treatment plants.

Maroney reported the most economical method for dechlorination is to inject sulphur dioxide. And, because that process completely removes all oxygen from the effluent, it would have to be reintroduced into the water by means of aeration.

When asked why chlorine was harmful to anything in streams where the effluent was released, if humans needed it in treated water, Maroney said he had no explanation. "It's just the rule the commission has put into place."

To accomplish all that, a facility and equipment will cost an estimated $90,000, Maroney told the council.

Cost figures on the three phases include $1,050,000, including the dechlorination/recreation facilities, for phase one; $150,000 for phase two, and $25,000 for phase three, according to the report presented council members.

The mayor told Maroney to do what was necessary to keep the city out of trouble with the water commission.

LENGTHY MEETING

Because Monday's meeting was the only one scheduled in December, instead of the usual two each month, there were more subjects to be covered.

It was also the last meeting ever for City Administrator James Barrington, who has resigned to accept a similar position in Florida. His last day on the job here will be Jan. 3.

Barrington was presented a plaque in recognition for his work and effort during the past eight years he has worked for the city.

Alderman Diane Robnett made the presentation.

Tammie Lalk was recognized as the city's Employee of the Month.

Topics covered during the balance of the meeting were purchases of equipment and repairs, a policy concerning old tires at the landfill, a grant from the state to be used at Lake Buffalo, and contracting dirt work at the water plant.

Aldermen voted to accept a bid on a one-ton truck for the street department that was submitted by Ron Roberts Ford, for $13,916.

CITY ADMINISTRATOR JAMES BARRINGTON
... with plaque presented before departure.

Also approved was a bid on slurry equipment submitted by ScanRoad for $82,113.25. Financing will include a downpayment from current funds and the balance borrowed from the city's long-term investments.

A bid of $6,000 for lights to be installed at the senior Little League ballfield, submitted by CED/United Electric was approved.

The city's policy of not accepting discarded tires at the landfill unless they are split, quartered or shredded will be continued, as determined by the unanimous vote of the council.

Because the city is unable to construct a boat ramp at Lake Buffalo, since the existing ramp is approximately 120 feet from the present water's edge, the council voted to release its grant from the state.

Public Works Director Mike Price

explained workers were unable to build the ramp extension, because rains last spring had raised the lake's level. That came just before the state approved a grant for improvements at the lake.

Price said the state wanted the project completed, or the grant released, this calendar year.

Another application will be submitted for the 1991-92 year.

Aldermen voted approval of hiring Gary Crawford, local contractor, to do work at the water treatment plant.

Eventhough Crawford is the son of Aldermen Johnny Crawford, his hiring is legal, according to legal counsel, because he had been working on jobs for the city several years before his father was elected to the council.

Alderman Crawford stepped down from the council table during discussion and did not participate in either discussion or voting.

News Briefs

Area residents welcome rain

It wasn't much, but it was a lot more than had been received through the first 14 days of December.

The slow drizzle that moved into the Iowa Park area Saturday night and continued through Tuesday deposited .70 of an inch precipitation, according to Virgil Woodfin.

Homeowners as well as farmers said it came at the right time.

Leader deadlines are changed

Today is the deadline for all news and advertising for next week's issue of the Leader.

Because of the Christmas holidays, next week's edition will actually carry a Dec. 25 dateline. It will be printed Friday afternoon and be distributed to subscribers, as well as be placed on the newsstands, Monday.

The paper's office will remain closed until Thursday morning, at which time the staff will commence working on the Jan. 3 issue.

Deadline for news and all display advertising for Jan. 3 will be 4 p.m. Friday, Dec. 28.

Classified advertising deadline for the Jan. 3 issue will be 12-noon on Wednesday, Jan. 12.

The Christmas issue will contain Letters to Santa from approximately 1,000 local youngsters.

No trash collections Tuesday

The city's trash trucks will be making their regular routes Monday, Christmas Eve, but will stay in their barn on Christmas Day, according to Mike Price, public works director.

Tuesday's collection routes, including roll-outs, will be picked up on Wednesday.

Christmas trees will be burned on New Year's Eve, a tradition observed locally over the past several years.

Residents wishing their discarded trees to be picked up should place them at the curb in front of their homes, and call Public Works office, 592-2642, to be carried away.

Those wishing to haul their own trees should take them to the vacant area north of the Will Burnett ball park on East Texas, where a place will be marked for their deposit.

Chamber banquet tickets are put on sale this week

Tickets for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet, to be held Jan. 26 at the high school cafeteria, have gone on sale at the Chamber office.

Cost of the tickets, directors decided at their regular monthly meeting Monday, will be $8 when purchased in advance and $9 at the door.

Besides the brisket dinner, cooked and served by the Iowa Park MuleSkinners, those attending will be the first to know the names of this year's award recipients.

Entertainment at the banquet will be provided by the North Texas Men's Choir, many of whom are Iowa Parkans.

Other topics of business covered during the directors' meeting were the 50th anniversary of Sheppard Air Force Base to be observed in 1991, reports of the Chamber's part in attracting three state high school football playoff games, and a donation to the organization.

Glena Via, who is serving on the celebration committee, displayed several different items that are for sale to publicize the event.

She left at the Chamber jackets, sweat shirts, t-shirts, caps, coffee mugs, window stickers and towels, all with a distinctive design commemorating the base's 50 years.

The design includes the names of Iowa Park, Burkburnett and Wichita Falls.

Because all costs involved in the programs sold by the Chamber at the playoff games are not yet completed, President Harold Smith said a final report on profits would be made in the future.

Smith acknowledged, however, that restaurants and gasoline stations had all profited from hosting the games here and expressed appreciation to school officials for their assistance and use of the facilities.

Smith said a committee would be named before next fall to work out details for financing trophies presented to winners of playoff games held here.

Larry Dutton announced he was donating the plaque that marks the city's time capsule which is located on the Chamber's lawn.

Dutton also recognized the work of David Collins in improving the surface of the concrete stand on which the plaque is mounted.

Police welcome break in criminal activities

The past week was an unusually quiet period for the Iowa Park Police Dept.

One theft report was filed, when a resident of the 300 block of East Washington told police someone had stolen items valued at $250.

Reported at 7:45 p.m. Wednesday of last week, the complaint listed two men's jackets and a lady's gold ring. No signs of forced entry into the home were detected, according to the police blotter.

Late Friday evening, residents in the 100 block of North Hawthorn heard a loud noise in front of their home, they told police.

When they went outside, about 10:18 p.m., they found windows of their parked vehicle had been broken.

Christmas program given by 23 Study Club members

"Christmas in Many Lands," was the program given Thursday afternoon for the 23 Study Club annual Christmas meeting.

The meeting at Tom Burnett Memorial Library was hosted by Mmes. Howard Marler, Jim Medlinger and E. F. Soell.

Program theme was "Building Bridges Among Nations." The appropriate quote with the theme, "Blessed is the season which engages the whole world in a conspiracy of love," suggested how Christmas opens the greater narrative of Christ's life, ministry and legacy to the whole world.

Mrs. Riley Thompson gave "A Christmas Meditation" to introduce the program directed by Mrs. John Rentschler.

A study of Christmas customs around the world was given by Frances Park and Mmes. John Clapp, Keith Aulds, Medlinger, D.O. James, Joe Singer and Homer Blalock. Countries included Sweden, Denmark, Philippines, Bulgaria, Poland, Switzerland, Greece, Sicily, Italy and America.

Special music heightened interest in the program. A vocal quartet composed of Mmes. Charles Harrell, Warren McDonald, Aulds and Singer sang "Angels We Have Heard On High," a French carol, and "Joseph Dearest, Joseph Mild," a German carol. They were accompanied by Mrs. Medlinger, who also presented a keyboard solo, "Christmas Island."

Mrs. Singer contributed "Buon Natale" for a vocal solo, and Mrs. Aulds provided piano accompaniment for her vocal rendition of "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing." Mrs. Harrell led group singing of two carols, "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem," and "Joy to the World."

In keeping with the Texas Trivia planned for each program of the year, Mrs. C. L. Metz told interesting facts about Snyder which is famous for its Witness Tree, once used for making boundaries.

The meeting was climaxed with the exchange of gifts, after each member had given her monetary gifts to Girls Town, and the serving of Christmas delicacies during the social hour.

Mrs. Soell presented each member with a 1991 "Bless This House" calendar, as has been her custom for many years.

Decorations at the library, both inside and out, bear wishes for the merriest of Christmases, and were beautifully carried out in the room where the meeting was held.

Mrs. Decker hosts Christmas luncheon

Iowa Park Garden Club members met for a Christmas luncheon Friday in the home of Mrs. Don Decker, and officers to serve the next two years were nominated.

Mrs. John Clapp, president, conducted a short business session. Thought for the day, "My Christmas Wish," was read by Mrs. Gene Young. Members answered roll call with a Christmas tradition observed in their homes.

Mrs. Billy C. Gilmore, chairman of the nominating committee, presented names of the following members nominated to serve 1991-93:

Mrs. Clapp, president; Mrs. Billy C. Gilmore, vice president; Mrs. Bill J. Gilmore, recording secretary; Mrs. Charlette Kennedy, treasurer; Mrs. Ray Copening, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Kay Cole, historian.

Officers are elected in January and installed at the last meeting in May.

Mrs. Jim Gilmore announced that club members had been notified by the district scrapbook awards chairman that the 1989-90 scrapbook had been judged at the district level and was found to qualify for state competition.

The scrapbook was compiled by Mrs. Deryl James. It scored 98 out of a possible 100 points.

Mrs. Gilmore also announced that the club's observance of Arbor Day, scheduled for the middle of January, will be postponed until the new RAC is ready for landscaping. Each year in January Garden Club members plant a tree in a public area in observance of Arbor Day.

During the business session, members voted to make a monetary contribution to the Friendship Garden in Washington, D.C. It is a newly constructed area in the National Botanic Gardens which is sponsored by garden clubs across the USA.

Mrs. Billy C. Gilmore displayed a Norfolk Island pine as the horticulture exhibit. She stated that the pine in its natural habitat can reach a height of 200 feet.

Following the business session Mrs. D.O. James, Yard of the Month Chairman, presented a plaque to Mrs. Lucy Price for the Yard of the Year. Mrs. Price resides at 36 Surrey.

Following the presentation members exchanged plants.

Foreign missions reviewed

Mrs. S.B. Reaves continued the review of a foreign missions newspaper format, prepared by Irma Duke, assistant vice president for the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board's Department, for a meeting of the Thelma Smith Baptist Women of First Baptist Church held Monday at the Church.

The format describes some of the ways Southern Baptists are performing in five Middle East countries, and Yemen was the country focused upon during the review. Mrs. Reaves said witnessing about Christ is prohibited in Yemen because of the Muslim belief and that Christians have to find different ways to minister. She discussed the Baptist Hospital at Jibla, Yemen as one of the greatest ways Southern Baptists have to minister.

The Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board appropriates some $170,000 to cover annual expenses that the patients cannot meet. It is an 80-bed facility which employs 150 Yemens, 14 international workers and 19 Southern Baptists representatives.

Mrs. Reaves called attention to the work that has been done there by Dr. Martha, a physician, Bill Koehn, hospital administrator, and an Australian-born midwife, which is making an impact on the country. She discussed the hospital's vaccination program which accounts for 45,000 vaccinations annually, the efforts expended to improve sanitation, decrease mortality among children, home delivery, prenatal care in addition to the normal service and care the hospital provides.

A salad supper preceded a business meeting directed by Mrs. V.I. Woodfin and missionary birthday calendar of prayer by Mrs. E.T. Patterson.

As I See It

By Bob Hamilton

I've heard the bicycle riders in neighboring Wichita Falls are planning an evening tour of that community's Christmas lighting.

That's great, but I hope the riders observe the law better than they do out on our rural roads. Otherwise, someone could get hurt.

I'm sure they've all read page 77 of the Texas Drivers Handbook, which states:

"Every bicycle in use at nighttime shall be equipped with the following:

"a. A lamp on the front which shall emit a white light visible at a distance of at least 500 feet to the front.

"b. A red reflector on the rear of a type approved by the Department of Public Safety which shall be visible from all distances up to 300 feet. A red light on the rear visible from a distance of 500 feet in addition to the red reflector may also be used."

I'm not picking on bicycle riders, but I feel they should abide by the law just like those of us who have to dodge them on the roads.

And if those who will be on the tour in Wichita Falls don't pay any more attention to the law than some of our local riders, including youngsters, then the outcome could be bad.

Speaking of Christmas, I hope you find the time to read all the 1,000-plus Letters to Santa we'll have in next week's edition.

We've had a blast setting the type for them. They're great, and some will tug at your heart strings.

And, speaking of heart strings, those who may be affected by federal government funding cutbacks next year should be aware that the cost of our congress in 1991 will be $2.2-billion.

That is up $500-million since 1985, and nearly $2-billion more than in 1970.

Besides having to make do with free gymnasiums, swimming pools, saunas and masseurs in their respective buildings in Washington, D.C., those poor congressmen are in for tough times financially.

Cong. Bill Sarpalius and all the others in the House will have to make do with only $125,100, because they refused to raise their own salaries any more from this year's $96,600.

And the senators really held the line on their salaries, raising them to only $101,800 from the current $98,400.

Of course, senators can keep $23,837 they receive from making speaking engagements. That kinda' makes things better.

And while all of us at home are facing medical insurance increases up to 50 percent this year, our elected officials in Washington have a full health clinic in the capitol, as well as the use of Walter Reed Hospital and other military hospitals around the country.

Maybe we should send care packages to them all this Christmas.

The North Texas Bird and Wildlife Club was finally organized in the early 1970s, with Mrs. Hunter as the first president.

For many years Mrs. Hunter had given programs and taught young people about natural resources and habitats for birds and wildlife. She continues to be a frequent speaker at clubs, youth clubs and organizations concerning native habitats in Wichita County, how to provide for the bird population and on birding in general.

Mrs. Hunter knew an avid birder she asked to come here and assist in organizing the Bird Club. At one time there were 100 members from a 50-mile radius.

Now there are members in Iowa Park, Henrietta, Archer City and Wichita Falls. They meet each third Tuesday night of the month. Purpose of the club is to educate people on habitats, environments and preservation.

The North Texas Bird and Wildlife Club is affiliated with the National Society, which includes the Americas, West Indies and Canada.

Mrs. Hunter said Bird Club members have a field trip once a month if there are rare or unusual birds in the area. They also go to the Wichita Mountains for birding and to identify birds.

Each year around Christmas interested birders have a bird count. There will be a count Dec. 15. This helps to give them the number of permanent resident birds. Birders start very early in the morning as soon as they can see and do not quit until it gets too dark to count.

The annual count is done by birders everywhere and is published once a year in the American Birding Association Magazine. This will be the 91st annual bird count.

Last year counters here saw 36 white fronted geese, 350 Canadian geese, many ducks and an unusual bird, a LeConte's sparrow.

Mrs. Hunter explained that birds are an excellent environmental barometer. If the bird population is dwindling, it is an indication that their habitats are being destroyed, they are illegally killed, or may be dying because of chemicals that people and industries are using.

She added that most states are in the process of sustaining a project of monitoring two or three times a week. The migrant population is changing so much because so many things are affecting the population, such as when so many Purple Martins were killed in South America, she continued.

"Birding is not all fun and games, and it isn't just for the 'little old ladies in tennis shoes,'" emphasized Mrs. Hunter. She said there are some very prominent people who maintain an interest in birding. Birders run the gamut from housewives, salespeople, surgeons, pediatricians, retired newspaper publishers and government employees.

She recently returned from a tour in California with some of these people for the express purpose of birding.

"We saw the most western birds, both migrant and permanent residents. I saw about 40 species of birds I'd never seen before. And we saw a lot of wildlife, even to a humped-back whale that gave me a thrill," said Mrs. Hunter.

It has been argued that birds should not be fed or they will forget to go south in winter. But, regardless of the cause, there is a large number of year-round avian residents here.

Purple Martins come to the Iowa Park area about Valentine Day and chickadees can be seen the year around, she said.

Other birds frequently sighted here are American goldfinches, kinglets, and flickers, all interesting to watch. There are many birds that congregate in Oscar Park around Gordon Lake north of town, Mrs. Hunter says.

"Many people call us when they see an unusual bird," she continued, "a bald eagle was seen Dec. 2 on Peterson Road and an evening grosbeak was seen recently on Yosemite Street, only three blocks from downtown. They have been known to breed in the city park."

Vermillion flycatchers were first sighted in the county near Wichita Falls. Woodcocks and tundra swans also have been seen in this area.

Mrs. Hunter said one of the most unusual birds that had been seen here is the rare alert. "People from all over came to see it," she added.

"We wish more people would call us if they see an unusual bird or other wildlife," Mrs. Hunter said. People may call her, Peggy Kasper, Erna Kibler or Gerry Thurlo.

As the days grow colder, not only is it necessary to feed the birds, but also to provide some protection from the weather as well.

This is mostly accomplished with evergreen trees, shrubs and bushes, but the addition of ledges under sunnyside eaves will provide welcome shelter from the elements. Dense shrubs also afford them protection from predators.

Those who enjoy watching birds in the spring and summer should put out shrubs and other plants that will furnish them shelter, and plant things they like to eat.

The winter diet for birds should contain plenty of suet, which will aid in their growing a fatty insulation, while providing much needed energy. Although there are commercial suet feeders on the market, a mesh onion bag serves well.

Also, Iowa Park residents are reminded to keep the ice cleared in birdbaths, unless you wish to invest in one of the heating devices designed for this purpose.

In the spring, your enjoyment in watching the nesting process can be increased by placing bits of colored yarn or string on limbs, or on the ground, where birds will pick them up to use in nest construction.

The colors will help you spot a nest that otherwise might be camouflaged with earth tones. Also, the lint from your dryer filter might provide the finishing touch to luxury nests.

Mrs. Hunter says they have had numerous requests for bluebird houses south of Iowa Park.

Several years ago bluebirds were becoming so endangered that there were many people who had never seen one.

Now there are bluebird trails around the Iowa Park area. A bluebird trail usually consists of about 50 houses, according to Mrs. Hunter. There is a trail on the Hunters' farm in the Valley View area, one at Chapparel Baptist Assembly, south of town, one on the grounds of Wichita Falls State Hospital and some in Burkburnett.

Mrs. Hunter has given many programs for Boy Scout groups and the Boys Club on specifications for bluebird houses. Some groups have made and sold them for fund raisers.

Anyone who is interested in bluebird houses should contact Mrs. Hunter.

She especially enjoys working with young people, and told of one time she showed some boys a raccoon track who had never seen one. "It gives me personal satisfaction when I can teach young people about our natural resources and the need for conservation," Mrs. Hunter said.

She explained the importance of feeding the birds, especially if we have a bad, cold winter. She said birds will not freeze if they can have food, but they will freeze swiftly if they do not have anything to eat.

She said it also is good if you can put out warm water for them when the weather is extremely cold. And it is important to continue feeding birds in the spring until the insects and berries come out. She says she has seen as many as 200 birds at one time on her Waxwing Pyracantha.

Mrs. Hunter acquired her love of birds and nature from her mother, who was a nature lover and could identify birds by their call.

She encourages anyone with an interest in birds or wildlife to explore the possibilities of birding. One of the best things about birding, she says, is that "you never even have to leave your room, because you can bird right out of your window. And, this proves so beneficial for those who are lonely, or who are handicapped and cannot get outside very much," she added.

Worth Quoting

Syndicated columnist Walter Williams has been taking his lumps lately after writing a column about how money is spent by the nation's largest health charities. Williams cited statistics to show that most of the money does not go for research and treatment of various diseases but goes to support fat salaries and lifestyles of the principals who run the organizations.

All of us who have received requests, mainly by mail, for funds to support these worthy causes have wondered just how much of our money goes to those who operate the organization. Well, Walter Williams reports that the American Lung Association spends only four percent of its budget on research. The American Cancer Society spends 26 percent and the American Heart Association spends 30 percent. These organizations seem to be more concerned with fund raising, lobbying, asset accumulation and high executive salaries than in medical research.

Some of us can remember the March of Dimes which raised millions of dollars to fight the dread disease of polio. The March of Dimes was supported strongly by President Franklin D. Roosevelt, himself a polio victim, and each year there were fund drives and March of Dimes dances and local March of Dimes organizations across the land. When Jonas Salk developed a vaccine which has effectively wiped out polio as a dread disease, the March of Dimes organization was devastated. The revelation by Dr. Salk that the March of Dimes did not contribute to his research did not help the organization.

Yet the march of Dimes had built quite an organization with headquarters in Bethesda, Maryland and its president, Basil O'Conner, had a nice salary that he did not want to give up. So the March of Dimes cast about for something else that they could substitute for polio. They hit upon birth defects. After all, pictures of children with birth defects carries a powerful emotional appeal and people want to help them. So the shift was made and the March of Dimes carries on.

However, the organization prefers to concentrate on fund raising rather than disclosure of where the money goes. The march of Dimes, which formerly had a vast network of local fund raisers, now relies primarily on the mail.

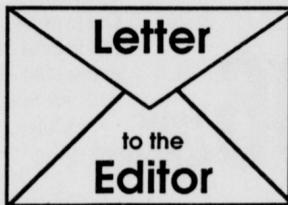

The American Heart Association raises a lot of money and in this community has a number of workers dedicated to its programs. Yet if only 30 percent of the income goes for heart research, donors have a right to question where the rest of the money goes.

Reluctance to disclose financial information keeps this organization, as well as others, out of the United Way fund raising effort. The AHA raises considerable money in this community because the fund raising drive is headed by dedicated workers, most of whom have had heart surgery and are determined to do their bit for heart research.

We get a lot of requests for contributions in the mail. We are told of the plight of starting children in Ethiopia. We learn of the plight of Indians in Alaska who are cut off from federal funds. We have Christmas Seals, homes for unwed mothers, church related colleges and nursing homes. There are plenty of opportunities to give, along with the United Way and local charities here at home.

The average person with something to give wants to be sure that his contribution is used wisely and for the purpose intended. If Walter Williams is correct in his report about the three leading health organizations of this country, then perhaps we should ask more questions before parting with our money.

Spruiell in Scotland
Dear Bob Hamilton,

This letter is to notify you of our address change. As you can see up above we have moved to Scotland. Do we need to pay an additional amount to continue to get the Leader? If so please send us a bill and we'll pay it. We miss our "hometown" paper and all the news of Iowa Park.

Jeff is working in the North Sea now on a semi-submersible rig, the Sedco 706. He is the rig engineer. I think he is in for a cold winter on the rig. It will be drilling fairly close to the Arctic Circle. Presently the rig is at Iwergordon undergoing changes to get it fit for North sea work. His rig was in the Gulf of Mexico. Jeff's office is actually in Aberdeen. Newtohill is a small village just south of Aberdeen.

Well, I gotta run. Please let us know if we need to pay you some more money. Take care and we hope you and your family have a very Merry Christmas!

Sincerely,
Donise Spruiell

NOTE: I have used this recipe for 38 years. Our oldest son told the teacher I would bake heart shaped cookies for Valentines Day for the whole class. My only rolled cookie was very delicate and would have been a box of crumbs by the time they arrived at school. I found this recipe in a Woman's Day magazine a long time ago. Even the kids can roll it and cut it and frost it. It became our project with the children every Christmas, and I can tell you we have had some real strange looking cookies to eat when they got done. Now my married kids use this same recipe, with their kids helping. I would not venture a guess as to how many times I have baked this cookie and sent it to school. Four kids kept me busy.

THE CHRIST HAS COME!

In this holiday season when the world celebrates the coming of Christ into space, time and history, I am reminded of an incident that took place during World War II. Some American infantrymen were pursuing a group of German soldiers, and chased them into a farmhouse. The family who lived there, hearing the approaching soldiers, had fled to the barn. Suddenly as the American and Germans were firing on each other across the open field, the family's little two year old girl broke away from her mother, ran out of the barn, and started running across the field. Soldiers on both sides saw the little child and immediately screamed to cease fire. All shooting stopped instantly and all was quiet until the child was safely back in her mother's arms inside the barn. What all the world leaders, generals, and diplomats had been unable to do, a small girl had accomplished; that a child had brought peace in the midst of a war. In a sense, that's what Christ did. He entered the world as a baby to announce that all hostility had ceased. He made peace when peace seemed impossible. Further, He opened the way for us to God; but it cost Him His life. We who were sinners, enemies of God, may now be reconciled to God because of the work that He accomplished. Let's remember in this holiday season as well as the new year, that the greatest wonder of all is His love for us, the magnitude of the sacrifice He made, and the debt we owe to Him.

Area Oil & Gas News

A 2,000-ft. developmental bid is planned in the Wichita Regular Field by J.F. Hood, independent operator from Fort Worth.

The well is designated as the No. 4 Marlborough-S&J. It is in the Moses Roberts Survey A-246, about 1.5 miles north of Kamay.

Tom Swanson, independent operator from Electra, has slapped the dry hole label on an unsuccessful developmental venture in the Wichita Regular Field, six miles southeast of Electra. The well was known as the No. 2 Cato "C." It was taken to total depth of 1,970 feet with no commercial shows in the H&TBRR Survey A-131.

A Dallas operator is preparing to make hole for a trio of developmental wells in the Wichita Regular Field from six to seven miles north of Iowa Park.

With Exmoor Oil and Minerals as the operator, the wells are designated as the Nos. 184 and 185 Ruyle Unit "E" and the No. 9 C.N. Prothro "E."

They came in pumping 18 and 19 barrels of oil per day, respectively, along with 37 and 30 barrels of salt water.

Production will range from 1,226 to 1,230 feet into the wellbore.

Pumping 27 barrels of oil per day, the No. 1 Munger "B" has been brought on line in Wichita County Regular Field, about one mile northwest of Kamay.

The well will produce at 1,746 to 1,748 feet into the wellbore. Don R. Talley of Holliday is the operator.

Water production totaled 10 barrels per day.

J.F. Hood of Fort Worth has posted first production figures for two new producers in the Wichita Regular Field, showing combined ability to pump 30 barrels of oil per day, the wells will be known as the No. 2 Kemp and No. 23 Marlborough.

They potentiated at 16 and 14 barrels of oil per day, respectively.

Production is from perforations ranging from 1,575 to 1,582 and 328 to 336 feet into the holes, respectively.

The Kemp well is two miles north of Kamay, while the Marlborough is 1.5 miles north of Kamay.

Freddie Crampton of Holliday has filed for permit to drill the No. 85 Waggoner "D" in the Wichita Regular Field, eight miles southeast of Electra. It will be a 2,000-foot test with drillsite in the W.F. Smith and GH&HRR Survey A-748.

Don R. Talley of Holliday has staked location for two 1,999-ft. developmental wells in the Wichita Regular Field. Both wells are just under one mile northwest of Kamay. They are designated as the No. 2 and No. 3 Munger "B". They are in the KWVFL Survey Block 25, Lot 15.

Ray Craighead of Wichita Falls has staked drillsite for the No. 18 Mrs. E.D. Collett "C" in the Wichita Regular Field, five miles south of Electra. Carrying permit for an even 2,000 feet of hole, it is in the GC&SFRR Survey A-767.

ERICA KNIGHT BATTLES ARCHER CITY PLAYER FOR BALL

Lady Hawks win, Hawks lose

The Lady Hawks won their two games played during the past week, but the Hawks lost both their's.

Both will see action again tonight at Holliday, and then are entered in the Archer City tournament Dec. 27-29.

After jumping out to a 11-1 lead by the end of the first quarter, the Lady Hawks easily handled Holliday here Friday night by a 52-33 margin.

Then, Tuesday night at Archer City, Iowa Park had to fight off a determined rally by their hosts. Despite the fact they had beaten the Lady Wildcats by 20 and 30 points in two previous meetings, they managed only a 55-45 decision.

Melody Gray and Kerri Dornier each had 10 points in the Holliday game. At Archer City, Dornier led Iowa Park with 14, and Erica Knight followed with 11.

The Hawks led Holliday 35-32 at the halftime of their game Friday, but the Eagles outscored Iowa Park 27-18 in the second half to take home a 59-53 victory.

Scott Skinner produced 22 points in that contest and Brent Wineinger had 12.

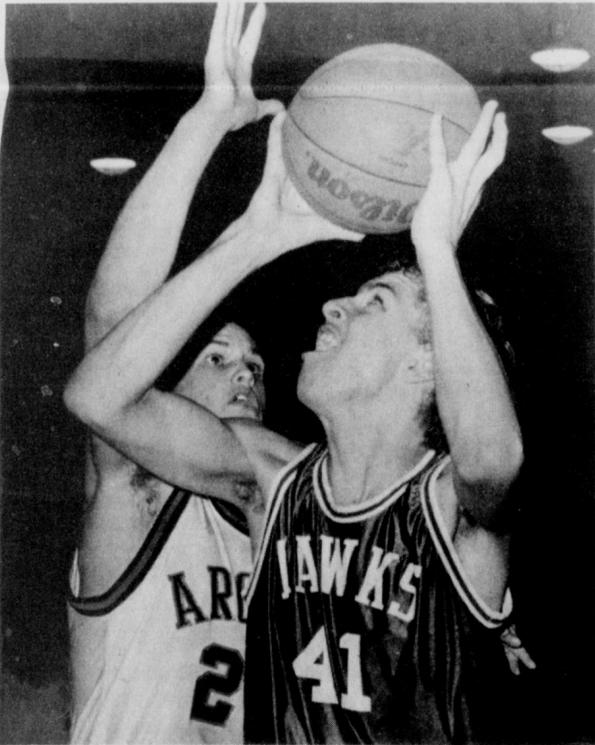

Midway in the third quarter of the boys' game at Archer City, the Wildcats held a 36-18 lead. But the Hawks put on a rally, and though it fell short, finally lost by only 10 points, 55-45.

Jeremy Carroll was the only Hawk to finish in double digits, scoring 13. Archer City also won the JV game, 46-38.

When they return from the Christmas holidays, the Lady Hawks will begin district play Jan. 4 when they host Breckenridge.

The Hawks will not begin district until Jan. 11.

BRENT WINEINGER TAKES AIM AT BASKET

Lady Hawk JV loses 1st game

The Lady Hawks Junior Varsity suffered their first loss of the season Saturday, when they were edged 26-23 by Seymour in the championship contest of Seymour's tournament.

But the team rebounded Tuesday to humiliate Archer City 30-10.

In the first round of the tournament Iowa Park knocked off Olney 45-19, and then advanced into the finals with a 51-32 win over Archer City.

Laura Davis had 18 points against Olney, 17 in the tournament game with Archer City, and 11 against Seymour.

Christie Catlin led scoring Tuesday with 10 points.

In Tuesday's game, the JV defense was so determined, they allowed host Archer City only two field goals the entire game.

Iowa Park's record is now 13-1.

Christmas is just around the corner and we really appreciate all the nice gifts.

Faith Baptist GAs made a Texas size Christmas card, the First United Methodist Ladies Auxiliary brought handmade ornaments to the residents and Christ the King Church brought gifts for all the residents.

Helen Stewart, daughter of Minnie Smith, brought a large tin of mixed popcorn and homemade peanut butter. All Occasions florist sent a beautiful poinsettia and the Optimist Club brought fruit sacks. Kathy Whitt made swan planters and filled them with aloe vera plants or fruit.

The Red Cross transported 12 residents to the "Fantasy of Lights." They really enjoyed the trip.

Myrtle Carter returned from the hospital. Everybody is glad to see her back.

Troy Robinson and Annie Johnson are in the hospital. We wish them a speedy recovery.

We would like to express our sympathy to the Cecil Chowling family on the loss of their loved one. He will be missed by all.

K-G Studio, three to five year old dancers entertained us last week. They were really cute and did a great job. Thank you, little ladies.

We heard some beautiful Christmas music this week. The Iowa Park High School Choir and First Christian Church carolers filled our halls with music.

The residents got a nice surprise last week. Bill Cornwall returned to call Tuesday bingo. Everybody was glad to "hear" him back.

Walmart gave the residents a nice Christmas party. Santa Claus had a gift for everybody. Carolers sang and the refreshments were great. It was really nice. Thank you, Walmart.

Mae Raglin will be celebrating her 97th birthday this week. Her children all came in to help her. Her son, Hubert Raglin, her two daughters and their husbands, Charlene and Marvin Parks, and John and Dorothy Chandler.

Also her grandchildren, Johnny and Teresa Chandler, Debra and Terry Roberts, Renae and Jesse Roberts. Mary Parks and her children, Wandean and Elzie, also will join the celebration. There will be a special cake, balloons, gifts and other surprises. Happy Birthday, Mae! Go for 100!

The residents' Christmas party was a great success. Santa Claus and his elf, Lil Cornwall, distributed gifts and candy.

Mary Moree, Leola Dodd's daughter, won the beautiful centerpiece door prize. Resident door prizes went to Cora Lewis, Margie Lewis and Billie Hogan.

Mrs. Don Lewis led the caroling and, as usual, our dietary department did an excellent job with refreshments.

We would like to wish everybody happy and safe holidays. Thank you for all of your help and support you've given us this year. This home wouldn't be as good as it is without your help. God bless you all. See you next year.

Information about your changing telephone service from Dan Adams, Area Manager

PUC approves landmark $1.2 billion consumer package

On November 28, the Texas Public Utility Commission approved an agreement between Southwestern Bell Telephone and 24 other parties which will boost the Texas economy and provide customer benefits worth more than $1.2 billion during the next four years.

Originally called Texas First, the negotiated settlement was the culmination of nearly two years of intense discussion among PUC staff, Southwestern Bell and the 23 intervening groups. It represents a turning point for telecommunications in Texas.

A Win for Texas

Under the terms of the settlement, our Texas customers will receive the largest telephone rate reduction in the history of the PUC. This agreement benefits every telephone customer in every community of Texas. It also provides us an incentive to modernize our statewide network without increasing your basic telephone costs.

Highlights of the agreement

- ▶ A one-time credit to all residential and business customers beginning with bills received in December.
- ▶ A four-year cap on basic local telephone service rates.
- ▶ Rate reductions on several monthly service items, including Touch-tone.
- ▶ Reduction in residence service connection charges.
- ▶ Reductions in Southwestern Bell's long distance, WATS and 800-service rates.
- ▶ Reduced access charges to long distance companies, with flow-through of resulting savings to many long distance customers.
- ▶ A Lifeline program for eligible low-income customers providing a $7.00 monthly discount.
- ▶ Elimination of party-line service with no associated rate increase for existing customers.
- ▶ Elimination of monthly mileage charges now paid by rural customers who live outside the base rate calling area.
- ▶ Expanded optional toll-free calling to 32 cities around Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio.
- ▶ A flexible earnings range for Southwestern Bell in Texas.
- ▶ Opportunity for customers to share in profits earned by the company over the next four years.

When do benefits begin?

The benefits of the agreement have already begun! The one-time credit should appear on your December bill. The reduction in Touch-tone monthly charges and long distance should begin in days. And, you can count on your basic local service rate not to increase for the next four years.

Other more complex changes will, obviously, take a little more time to complete. The elimination of party-line service and mileage charges for customers outside the base rate calling area as well as installation of new central office equipment will take place throughout the next 48 months. Don't worry. We'll be providing you specific information well before the effective dates.

What does this plan mean to our community?

The agreement gives our community an even stronger sense of certainty. We know that we can count on the benefits of the approved program and plan accordingly. That goes a long way in helping us compete with other areas for new businesses. After all, with a first class telecommunications network in place, we increase the opportunities for economic development and jobs creation.

In these times of fluctuating economic conditions, residence and business customers can receive the benefits of low telephone rates and count on four years of basic local telephone service without an increase in rates. For our eligible low-income customers, a new Lifeline service could provide a $7.00 monthly discount.

Thank You

The Public Utility Commission took a giant step forward when it approved this landmark case. And, I'm sure their actions were in no small way due to the overwhelming public response throughout the entire two-year process. Through literally thousands of letters, calls and resolutions, communities all over Texas made it clear they wanted this enlightened plan implemented.

Bringing modern telecommunications to all communities of Texas is a job Southwestern Bell proudly accepts. We intend to keep you posted as we move further into the implementation of the program. And, if you need more information — Let's Talk!
