Board nearer naming coach Superintendent's contract is extended

School trustees outlined times and procedures for naming a new head coach and athletic director, and also extended the superintendent's contract an additional year, during Tuesday's meeting. Board members are to begin studying the 84 applications thus far received, and plan to narrow those down to the ones they want to interview at a Feb. 4 meeting.

Their intention, according to the discussion, is to name a replacement for Len Williams, who has resigned, by Feb. 15, according to the discussion. Supt. Glen Mitchell's contract was extended an additional year, maintaining a three-year pact, with a new salary of $57,500.

Action on the contract followed a 25-minute executive session which was closed to the public.

Also concerning personnel, board members accepted the resignations of Connie Ginnings, Kidwell Elementary second grade teacher, effective Jan. 19, and Carolyn Hancock, Bradford Elementary special education teacher, effective Jan. 21.

They approved the hiring of Mary Wright to replace Mrs. Ginnings. Mrs. Wright has been working as a substitute teacher. She has 12 years teaching experience and holds a B.A. degree from Midwestern State Univ.

A bid submitted by Adkins House Moving Co. for $2,138 to move two of the temporary classroom buildings from Bradford to the Junior High School campus was approved.

The structures are not being used since the additional permanent classrooms were completed at Bradford, and will be utilized as an "extended living center" for special education students. They are expected to be ready for use before the end of the school year.

Bids were also approved to purchase library books, cafeteria items and maintenance/custodial supplies.

Also approved was a proposal to advertise for sale a lot at the corner of Clara and Third Street. The property was originally purchased for the school's vocational building trades projects and has never been developed.

A called meeting will be held at 9 a.m. Friday, but only to act on bids for teaching supplies.

Another informal meeting, to discuss the setting of future goals for the district, will be held sometime after Feb. 15, it was decided.

The board approved appointment of Randy Lovelady, junior high school principal, to serve as chairman for the Districtwide Educational Improvement Council.

Other members of the council are Vicki Johnson, Mary Helen Schell, Barbara Padgett, Ron Woods, Stanley Dillmon, Carolyn Richter, and Charles Anderson.

Also, Jo Ann Hale, Vickie Jordan, Galyia Kasperek, Kenneth Davis, Olivia Garcia, Jean Johnson, Dean Kirkpatrick, Richard Davis and Linda Gray.

Supt. Mitchell reported enrollment continues to increase over the same date last year. He said there were 1,932 students in the district, as compared with 1,855 at this same time last year.

Kidwell is now the largest campus in numbers of students, with 505. Bradford has 499, Junior High 424 and High School 504.

A continuing part of each meeting is to recognize staff and faculty members. Those appearing before the board Tuesday were Lee Ann Hardy, school nurse who pointed out this is School Nurse Week, and high school teacher Jim Gotcher.

Crime down 12% locally

While crime overall has decreased in Iowa Park by about 12 percent during the past year, there have been increases in burglaries and juvenile cases, according to a report released by Police Chief Wayne Parsons.

Crime in 1990, when compared with 1989, was down approximately 12 percent.

However, burglaries increased by approximately 50 percent, considering 47 were reported in 1990 and 31 in 1989.

And the department handled 205 juvenile cases in 1990, a 66 percent increase over 1989.

Parsons pointed out, however, that burglaries have declined significantly since the department instituted new patrol tactics the latter part of November. Not one case has since been reported, he said.

A review of the year includes:

AT CHAMBER BANQUET

Four awards to be presented

Interest in the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet has grown steadily since the organization began recognizing individuals for their contributions to the community, in the form of awards.

The announcements will be made again this year when the Chamber holds its big event Saturday, Jan. 26, in the high school cafeteria.

Tickets for the banquet are available at the Chamber office, Hughes Pharmacy, Parkway, K&K Food and Iowa Park Leader. They are available at $8 when purchased in advance, or $9 at the door.

Plaques will be presented to the recipients of the Outstanding Citizen, Outstanding Senior Citizen, Educator of the Year and Outstanding Agriculturist. Additionally, their names will be engraved on permanent plaques kept on display at the Chamber office.

Mrs. D.O. James was the first to receive the Outstanding Citizen of the Year Award, back in 1971. Others in that decade were Dr. Gordon Clark, Mrs. Frank Harlin, Ralph Beall, Wayne House, Darrell Dick, Lita Watson, Mrs. Charlie Lee and Bill Steger.

Recipients in the 1980s included Gordon Griffith, Buck Voyles, Bill J. Gilmore, H.M. Nipper, the entire Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Department, Grover Cleveland, Frances George, Dr. Erwin Soell, Robert Palmer and Bob Hamilton.

The Outstanding Senior Citizen Award was begun in 1976, and its first recipient was the late Fenton Dale.

Subsequent recipients included Mrs. W.F. George, Arch Hughes, Charlie Metz, Mrs. Bertha McDonald, Mrs. Otis Gay, Mrs. James Sewell, Lester Brooks, Riley Thompson, Olive Blalock, Pauline Singleton, Carl Sullivan, Ida Mae Lehman, Raymond L. Good and Tommie Smith.

John Sibley was the first to receive the Outstanding Educator Award, and that was for the year 1976.

He was followed by Miss Ethyle Kidwell, Linda Ayres, Bob Dawson, Earnie Reusch, Patsy Todd, Carol Edwards, Joni Whitis, Jim Gotcher and Helen Roberts.

Although the Chamber presented the first Outstanding Agriculturist Award in 1978 -- that was to Virgil Woodfin -- it has not been presented each year.

Following Woodfin were Loys Barbour, Ray Hicks, Rex Wells, Barry

Mahler, Louie McCarthy, Dewey Spruiell, Robert Wilcox, Stanley Williamson, Freddie Daume and Marvin Klinkerman.

No award was handed out last year, as the anonymous committee was unable to select someone members felt

Council business is routine

The city council Monday night approved payment for a sewer study, a resolution to the state legislature, and a formula for paying the former city administrator.

After receiving a study designed to meet the sewer needs of the city until the year 2005 at a recent meeting, aldermen approved payment of $35,000 to the engineering firm of Biggs and Mathews.

At the urging of county judge Nick Gibson, the council approved the same resolution as was passed by the commissioners court, asking the legislature to "...address the problem of diminishing highway construction funds and take such action as necessary to assure that sufficient funds are available over the next decade to meet the mobility needs of the people of Texas."

Aldermen Diane Robnett was the only council member to vote against the adoption.

She explained she was concerned about the term of "only" when it was used to state "...the legislature should especially consider the fact that only 9 1/4 cents of the 15-cents motor fuels tax goes to highway construction and maintenance...."

When former administrator James Barrington left his position Jan. 4, he had considerable leave time and other benefits due him, and aldermen decided the least expensive way of settling was to continue to carry him through the second pay period of the month, which was until Feb. 1.

In doing that, the cost to the city was set at $4,855. The alternative was to settle as of Jan. 18, which would have cost the city $5,029, according to a printout in the council's information package.

Mayor Wayne House asked the council to reconsider its previous action to pay for two vehicles and slurry equipment.

That decision was to finance the purchase with excess funds held in the water department, and pay it back with interest over a period of time.

House said that money very likely will be needed for repairs and improvements to both the sewer and water plants, and proposed the purchases be financed by the bank.

Thefts, arrests reported

Three thefts and three arrests for public intoxication were listed during the past week on the police blotter.

The first theft reportedly occurred sometime Friday night in the 1500 block of Rita Lane, when someone gained entry into a storage shed and removed $205 worth of electrical plug covers, ceiling tiles and a garage door locking mechanism.

An air compressor valued at $500 was reportedly stolen from another storage shed in the 700 block of East Park. The report was filed Sunday.

And an apartment resident in the 1000 block of Mary Drive told police someone had taken a Habachi barbecue grill valued at $100 sometime Friday night or Saturday.

Two of the arrests for public intoxication were motorists, while the third was approached while walking down the access road on US 287, at Johnson Road.

One motorist was Robert Lane, 21, who was taken into custody at 2:27 p.m. Sunday in the 200 block of East Bank, according to the blotter. He was released at 19:30 after paying a $227 fine.

Mark Elroy Tyree, 30, was not only arrested at 12:37 a.m. Tuesday in the 900 block of North Pacific, but while the officer was making a computer check on him, it was learned he had three outstanding warrants against him that were issued by the Wichita County Sheriff's Dept.

Tyree was released at 10:30 to a sheriff's deputy, after posting a $69 bond, and taken to county jail on two warrants for bond forfeiture for unlawfully carrying a weapon and another bond forfeiture for no insurance.

Gerald Kenneth Richardson, 52, was arrested on a public intoxication charge at 5:40 p.m. Tuesday while walking near the intersection of US 287 and Johnson. He was released at 10:15 after paying his fine, according to the blotter entry.

News Briefs

No classes slated here Saturday

While many institutions, including banks and governmental offices, will be closed Monday to observe Martin Luther King Jr. Day, that is not necessarily the reason classes of Iowa Park schools will not be in session.

There will be no classes, according to the school calendar, but it marked as an "in-service day," so teachers can complete grading of the fall semester and prepare report cards.

Friday will be the end of the semester, and tests are being administered this week.

1.68 inches moisture thus far

Iowa Park received 1.15 inches in moisture from the weather system that hung over the area last week.

Added to the .53 measured by Virgil Woodfin since the first of the year, the city's total for the year is 1.68 inches.

November good for sales taxes

Iowa Park's cash registers were ringing in November, as the state comptroller's office reports a 0.46-percent increase in sales taxes for that month over the same period in 1989.

The city received a rebate check this month for $11,671.03, for sales made in November and reported in December.

Wichita Falls had a minus 0.97-percent, but Burkburnett and Electra were both on the plus side, reporting gains of 2.65 and 18.56-percent, respectively.

Holiday showed a major gain, 116.11-percent, when its November sales tax was $6,789.45, according to the report.

Alyce Bondurant is program speaker for Iowa Park Garden Club

Alyce Bondurant, local attorney, spoke on "Legal Advice for Women" and new officers were elected when Iowa Park Garden Club met Friday morning at the TU Reddy Room.

Twenty-one members answered roll call with plans for the new year. Mrs. Gene Young gave the thought for the day, "1991--Wonderful, Wonderful, Fortunate You."

Mrs. John Clapp presided during the business session when Mrs. W.A. George, community service chairman, thanked members who helped put up and take down Christmas trees at Tom Burnett Memorial Library.

Mrs. George said that the Garden Club has furnished decorations for the interior of the library, the garlands on the fireplace mantel and staircase, and furnished and decorated the artificial Christmas trees for the past five years. Mrs. George commented that the library was "simply beautiful" this year and she thanked members for their support of this project.

A "President's Garden" at the new RAC building was suggested by Mrs. George for the club to consider constructing. She said this landscaping project could be an on-going one for several years.

Mrs. Vern Mikkelsen, social committee chairman, announced that the annual Valentine Social to be catered by the MuleSkinners will be Friday, Feb. 8, at the Mule Barn.

Also during the business session Mrs. Jim Gilmore announced that the first grade classes at Kidwell Elementary School will be doing conservation posters again this year for club members to judge and display. This year's theme for the poster contest is "Recycle, America!"

Mrs. Billy C. Gilmore showed a Chinese Evergreen plant as the horticulture display. She stated that several indoor plants such as the Chinese Evergreen are clean air machines.

Mrs. Gilmore said these plants remove noxious gases from indoor air and convert it into pure, fresh, healthy air. She added that research conducted by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration shows that you may clean the air you breathe just by placing live plants throughout your home and office.

Officers elected for the coming year were Mrs. Clapp, president; Mrs. Billy C. Gilmore, vice president; Mrs. B.J. Gilmore, recording secretary; Mrs.

Ray Copening, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charlette Kennedy, treasurer, and Mrs. Kay Cole, historian. They will be installed in May.

Miss Bondurant, who practices Family Law, works with the Child Welfare Board and with First Step, and also is involved with women's issues of today.

She makes several trips to Austin to keep in touch with legislature and the issues and bills coming up that involve women. She addressed several topics concerning women's rights and fielded questions from the floor.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Billy C. Gilmore and Mrs. Jim Gilmore.

The centerpiece for the serving table was a basket filled with fresh multi-colored pansies.

County Agent presents Amity Club program

Mark Terning, county extension agent for horticulture, gave a slide presentation for members of Amity Study Club when they met Monday in the home of Marilyn Hale. Gail McIlroy served as co-hostess.

Preceding Terning's presentation, Laura Thames opened the program with Joyce Kilmer's poem, "Trees," and spoke on Arbor Day.

Mrs. Thames stated that most states in the United States and most of the provinces of Canada celebrate Arbor Day as a time set aside for planting trees. She added that in some states it is a legal holiday and many other countries have days or weeks for tree planting.

She gave some historical facts about Arbor Day, saying that it first was celebrated in Nebraska April 10, 1872. "From ancient times people have planted trees in religious ceremonies," Mrs. Thames said, and added that some people planted trees when children were born.

Slides of 20 trees were shown by Terning, as he gave information about each. He told club members that selection and installation of plants and trees which are research-proven for survival in this area will save time, energy, dollars and water in the years ahead. He reminded the group that landscaping improvements also enhance property values.

Among trees and plants adaptable to the Wichita County area discussed by Terning were Bradford Pear, Redbud, Magnolia, Burr Oak, Shumard Oak (Red Oak), River Birch, Live Oak, Cedar Elm, Water Oak, Chinese Pistache, Purple Leaf Plum, Yaupon Holly, Crape Myrtle, Water Lovers, Weeping Willow, Bald Cypress, and new plant introductions, the Firebush, Mari-Mum, and Bluebonnet color variant.

Terning said the Bradford Pear, generally fruitless, is ornamental with white flowers in early spring and offers attractive fall color. The wood is tough and the tree is very tolerant of compacted soils and urban conditions.

He termed the Redbud a good tree to plant. It has very showy flowers in clusters along the stem in spring before it leafs out. The Alba has white flowers, the Oklahoma has very glossy, ripple-edged leaves with deep purple flowers and the Forest Pansy offers very purplish foliage, turning more green as it matures.

The extension agent told club members that the Chinese Pistache is a much underused tree. It is an insect and disease free tree with extremely durable wood. The tree offers spectacular fall color and is ideal for many landscape uses. It is drought tolerant, deep rooted, and transplants well in the spring. He said it does well in most urban situations where soil is abused and compacted.

He said the Red Oak is tolerant of poor urban soils and performs well if fertilized and mulched.

Roll call was answered by naming a favorite tree. Meditation was given by Cheryl York, entitled, "Plant a Tree," written by Lucy Larcom. Dorothy Palmer led members in the Pledge to the American flag.

Mrs. Hale reminded members of the Spring Conference to be held March 16 at Iowa Park First United Methodist Church.

Club members will plant a tree Friday at Tom Burnett Memorial Library in observance of Arbor Day.

Mrs. Roy Ressel

Julie Ressel's interests are many faceted. Not only does she love to cook, she loves antiques, loves to restore antique furniture, she loves old houses, old cars and old mirrors.

But, Julie is a modern young woman. After graduation from Iowa Park High School in 1974 she attended Midwestern State University. Before completing her hours she took up another interest and got her real estate license.

For six years she was in property management and real estate in Dallas. She has kept her license current and may again sell real estate. She is a member of the National Realtors Association and the Texas Association of Realtors.

You might say, in a sense, Julie is still associated with that business. However, she laughingly commented, "Now, I'm a plow hand, a housewife, and a part time farmer and rancher."

Julie and Roy Ressel soon will observe their first wedding anniversary. They have farms and ranches across Red River in the Randlett and Devol areas of Oklahoma. They raise cows, cotton and wheat, and the petite young matron is sometimes a "plow hand", driving their John Deere tractor.

Her husband has been with the Wichita Falls Health Unit for 20 years and is president of Animal Control.

Since their marriage her husband has become interested in antiques and they make antique sales together.

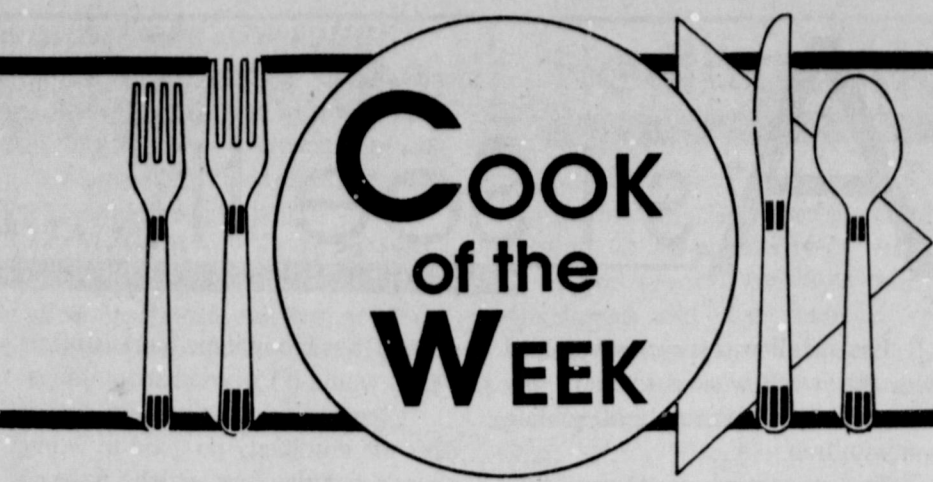

Their newest antique acquisition is a Victorian sideboard. They are planning a trip to Nashville before long and Julie is excited that she will get to see the beautiful furniture at the Hermitage. More than likely they will look for some antique pieces in Tennessee.

The couple is in the process of doing a lot of things to their home in Pleasant Valley Estates that is full of antique furniture. Julie is using some of her collection of wood framed mirrors to line either side of the hallway. The mirrors have mahogany, walnut and oak frames.

Another interest shared now by Julie and her husband is hunting. They have a deer lease in Mason County and Julie bagged her first deer this year. Her husband sparked her hunting interest.

She likes all kinds of music, and another of her hobbies is plants. "My house looks like a tropical forest. Roy told me 'You can't have any more plants,'" she said. But, she will buy a plant that looks sick just for the challenge of seeing if she can make it well, and she usually does.

Their pets include a white Persian cat named "Lexy," a Boston terrier that answers to "Spunky" and a Longhorn calf in their back yard that they gave the name of "Teddy" for Julie's dad.

Cook of the Week

She is the daughter of Peggi and Ted Anderson who live across the road from them. Both her mother and daddy are good cooks and they have been attending gourmet cooking classes. She also has a brother, Denny, who recently moved to Dayton, Ohio, and he is becoming interested in cooking.

Ressel likes to make Breakfast Tacos when they go hunting and he also makes a good stew. Julie's favorite thing is making desserts and her husband likes to eat them.

The Ressels are members of Iowa Park First United Methodist Church.

They especially like these easy-to-make cookies.

Coconut Chocolate Chip Cookies

- 1 cup white sugar
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1 tsp. baking soda
- 1 cup pecans
- 1 cup shortening
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 2 cups flour
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1 small pkg. chocolate chips
- 1 cup coconut

Cream together sugar, shortening, vanilla and eggs. Add to dry ingredients. Drop by teaspoonful on cookie sheet. Bake at 350 degrees.

Baked French Toast

This is great for a brunch and can be made ahead of time.

- 8 slices bread, cubed
- 2 (8 oz.) pkgs. cream cheese, cubed
- 12 eggs
- one-third cup maple syrup
- 2 cups milk

Place one-half of the cubed bread in a 9x13-inch, lightly greased, or use Pam. Layer small cubed cream cheese over bread. Layer other half of cubed bread over cream cheese. Beat the eggs, adding the syrup and milk, and when thoroughly mixed, slowly pour over bread and cream cheese mixture. Refrigerate several hours or overnight.

Bake at 350 degrees 45-55 minutes. Serve with additional heated maple syrup, or sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Variation: If desired, you may add cooked ham, bacon or sausage, finely diced, layered on top of the cream cheese.

King Ranch Casserole

- 12 corn tortillas
- 1 chicken cooked, cooled and cubed (three to four cups) reserve chicken broth
- 1 large onion, chopped
- 2 c. grated Cheddar cheese
- 1 can cream of mushroom soup
- 1 can cream of chicken soup
- 1 can Rotel tomatoes
- 1 cup reserved chicken broth
- Grease 9x13 casserole dish. Line bottom of dish with six tortillas, torn into bite size pieces. Spread one-half of chicken over tortillas. Spread one-half of onion over chicken.

In large bowl, combine soups, tomatoes and reserved chicken broth and mix well. Pour one-half mixture over onion. Spread one-half of cheese over soup mixture. Start process over with remaining ingredients, except cheese.

Bake 30-35 minutes at 325 degrees. Sprinkle remaining cheese over casserole and bake until cheese melts and turns golden brown, about five to 10 minutes.

Julie has had many compliments on her German Chocolate Cake. She says she has been told by several people that it is the best they have eaten.

German Chocolate Cake

- 4 oz. Bakers sweet chocolate
- 2 and one-half cups cake flour, or 2 and one-fourth cups all purpose flour, sifted
- 2 cups sugar
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- one-half cup boiling water
- 1 tsp. baking soda
- one-half tsp. salt
- 1 cup butter
- 4 eggs, separated
- 1 cup buttermilk

Melt chocolate in boiling water; cool. Sift flour with baking soda and salt. Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Add egg yolks, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Blend in vanilla and melted chocolate.

Add flour mixture alternately with buttermilk, beating well after each addition until smooth. Beat egg whites until they form stiff peaks; fold gently into batter. Pour into three 9-inch layer pans that have been lined on the bottom with waxed paper. Bake in preheated oven at 350 degrees for 30 to 35 minutes. Cool in pans for 15 minutes, then remove onto wire racks and continue cooling, then frost.

Coconut-Pecan Frosting

- 1 cup evaporated milk
- 3 egg yolks, slightly beaten
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 1 cup chopped pecans
- 1 cup sugar
- one-half cup butter
- 1 and one-third cups coconut

Combine milk, sugar, egg yolks, butter and vanilla in saucepan. Cook over medium heat until thickened, about 12 minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add pecans and coconut. Cool until proper spreading consistency is achieved.

Spinach Pasta with Salmon Cream Sauce

Julie says this recipe is mouth-watering and if you ever make it once, you are sure to make it again.

- 2 cups heavy cream
- 4 Tbls. sweet butter
- 7 teas. salt
- pinch of freshly grated nutmeg
- 1 lb fresh spinach pasta, narrow
- 1 Tbls. grated parmesan cheese
- 1 and one-half to 2 cups flaked poached salmon

one-third cup chopped fresh dill

Bring cream, and one-half of the butter to a simmer in a small saucepan. Add 1 tsp. of the salt and the nutmeg, continue to simmer until cream is reduced by about one third.

Bring 4 quarts water to a boil, add remaining 2 Tbls. salt and drop in noodles.

Meanwhile, stir parmesan cheese, then flaked salmon and one-third cup dill into the cream, and remove from heat.

Drain pasta (cook two to three minutes) return it to the hot pan and toss with remaining butter until it melts. Spoon salmon cream sauce over hot pasta.

Parents and sitters, please make plans to bring your children as these will be great learning experiences for them and also very entertaining. As some of the classes will be held away from the library, please check the schedule prior to your class time.

Thanks

Members of the Storytime classes would like to extend a very gracious thank you to Tony, Gloria, and Cheryl at the Bake Shop for the wonderful tours of their facility. We had a really great time and your generosity was very much appreciated. Thanks also for your continued support of all our programs.

Letters to the Editor

Let's help each other

As I write this letter the date is Jan. 15th. It seems very close to war at this time. Our son Brad has been in Saudi Arabia for 3 months. He called last Sat. and said he was being moved within 9 miles of the Kuwait border. We are very concerned and we know that other families in Iowa Park have loved ones serving in Operation Desert Shield so we felt at this point that maybe you would like to talk to someone who knows what you are going through. My husband and I invite you to call us and maybe we can all help each other. We are still hoping and praying for a peaceable solution. No one likes war. Brad has always told me that this is his job just as mine is taking care of the people at the nursing home.

We have to support him and the other troops.

Thanks to everyone for your concerns and your prayers. We appreciate everything.

Thank you Mr. Hamilton for printing this.

Our phone number is 592-9389. If we're not home please leave message and we will return your call.

Reader disagrees

Dear Mr. Hamilton,

I am writing in response to your "As I See It" column in last weeks (1-10-91) issue of the Leader.

You seem to be concerned that our President might be embarrassed by some Democrats that are trying to delay the deaths of American soldiers. Why are you, and many of others, in such a hurry to sacrifice American kids for Kuwait. Will you still feel the same way when they start digging holes in our cemetery for Iowa Park kids? I don't care if our President is embarrassed or not as long as it delays the deaths of American kids.

You refer to Saddam Hussein as a "bluffing bully" and are willing to bet American soldiers lives that you are right. You must be a brave man.

You want to use the "big stick" (read that American soldiers) to teach Hussein a lesson. Why are you willing to give up on the embargo so easily? You must stop looking at everything in two party political terms and look at the big picture.

No I don't have all the answers and no I'm not coward but I'm not in any hurry either. I feel sorry for the people of Kuwait but I also feel sorry for a lot of other people too, why must we police the whole world. Cheap oil is not cheap when bought with American lives.

I am not trying to convince you that all the "talk by the Democratic leadership" is not "a concerted attempt to embarrass the Pres.", but I would like to convince you it serves other more important purposes. Most people say they support the President in this situation but you will see a drastic change when the first boys are killed. Why must we wait until they are dead before we start to question the President?

Our disagreement may be mute by the time this issue is printed but hopefully not. In any event we must support our troops.

Sincerely,
Lester Rose

'Big oil is the object'

Dear Bob Hamilton:

I read with interest the remarks made in your editorial in the last issue of the paper. Usually we are in agreement, sometimes we are not, and that is to be expected. This is one of the times, even more so.

I agree with your presentation of the bully that has to have his case worked with the stick. That is as it should be; but the thing that sticks in the craw with this example, is that the one with the stick is so careful of which bully that he would like to go to work on.

When Russia was raping Afghanistan just a few short months ago, the one with the stick put it in his hop pocket and looked the other way. Of course there was nothing of value in Afghanistan, just people. But now when the bully is in control of a large portion of the worlds oil -- well now that is different; lets get the stick and work his case.

Not being a democrat, I hope there are a few of them that can recognize the difference between the object and the issues. BIG OIL IS THE OBJECT - people is the issues.

Respectfully yours,
W.D. Vestal, Jr.

As I See It... By Bob Hamilton

It seems almost everyone I've talked with this week wanted to know my thoughts on the apparently impending war with Iraq.

The questions were generally whether I thought war would actually break out, who would fire the first shot, what effect it would have on us both as a community and as a nation, or if Hussein would pull out of Kuwait.

My responses were, in general, I really had no idea, but usually I would explore different potentials.

And, after thinking more about it all, I've come to the conclusion that I should not worry about anything, until it happens.

That attitude, about everything in and the financing period will be over four years.

The council was presented an in-depth study of security procedures, concerning who had keys to buildings, knowledge of all department passwords for the computer and the combination to the safe.

Though the mayor indicated an interest in changing the locks each time someone of responsibility left the employment of the city, no action was taken and aldermen agreed the information was good to have.

Donna Koehler was recognized as the city's Employee of the Month.

Though additional applications are being received in response to advertisements for a new city administrator, no cutoff date has been set before the council narrows its lists for interviews.

Mayor House said the Texas Municipal League's publication had just been published, and that was the major media for reaching potential applicants from within the state.

A "target date of Feb. 1" had been discussed as a cutoff time for receiving applications, but it was never formally adopted.

general, has brought me more comfort than it would if I worried about things.

I learned a long time ago, that it does me absolutely no good to worry about something over which I have no control or effect. Take it when it happens and then try to make it better.

Don't get me wrong. I'm as concerned as anyone over the prospect of another war. I'm seriously concerned over the prospect of anyone being killed and families torn apart.

War, as I've learned after having lived through three of them, is never kind.

If and when war does come, I will do whatever I can to support my nation.

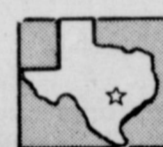

And I'll pray a lot for those with loved ones in the line of fire, that they will return home alive and well.

Heritage Manor Activities

This has been a quiet week at Heritage Manor. Everyone is concerned about the possibility of war. We've had several churches and organizations hold prayer sessions.

Our prayers are with the troops serving our country and their families. Special prayers are being said for James Allen, Sherry Macchler and Brad Williams who are relatives of staff members.

We would like to thank the Church of Christ for the monthly birthday party. The refreshments were really good. Sue Wynn provided entertainment. She played the accordion and the residents loved it.

We would like to express our sympathy to the family of Frankie Anderson on the loss of their loved one. She will be missed by all.

Our bingo winners last week were Cora Lewis, Roberta Spears, Omie Clifton and Troy Robinson.

We would like to welcome Dicie Taylor to our facility. She moved here from Davidson, Okla. She is friendly and loves to talk.

First United Methodist Church gave fruit to the residents for a special treat and provided the sermon on Sunday.

We would like to invite you to visit us Thursday at 3 p.m. This is our Popcorn and Etc. afternoon. Different treats and entertainment are provided.

IRAQ AND JESUS

The crisis in the Middle East has been dominating American and world thought for several months. It has also begun to dominate a great deal of religious thought. Many people believe the book of Revelation predicts a Middle East war that marks the beginning of the end of our present age, climaxing in the battle of Armageddon. Let us note briefly two observations and put "Armageddon" in perspective.

First the book of Revelation states that it is about things which would soon take place and that time is near when they will happen. (Revelation 1:1,3). To speculate about the Middle East today from the book of Revelation is to miss what the book says about itself. The true message of the book was to comfort and strengthen Christians of that day in the face of the severe Roman persecution which was coming soon.

Second, the passage in the book of Revelation which mentions "Armageddon" is a highly figurative one. The term Armageddon refers to a final battle before the end of the world because that is not even the subject under discussion in Revelation 16.

The term "Armageddon" is only used twice in the entire Bible. In 2 Chronicles 35:22 it is used as the location for a strategic battle. In Revelation 16:16 the name is an apocalyptic symbol - the battle is to take place at Rome, which will result in her downfall. (see also Revelation 19:11-21). "Armageddon" is not at all a reference to a cataclysmic war over the Middle East which will bring on the end of time.

Green named 'outstanding'

Three-year starter Gary Green was named recipient of the Outstanding Hawk Award, during the annual football banquet held Saturday night in the high school cafeteria.

Other annual awards presented included: Best Hustler, Todd Pulley; Ball Hawker, Brian Luney and Charles Jolly; David Ross Memorial Fighting Hawk Award, Scott McNeely, and Jackie Denton Memorial Award (to a non-varsity player), Joey Boyd and Mark Tatum.

Most Valuable Player awards included: offensive lineman, Lewis Skinner; offensive back, Johnny Duggins; receiver, Jason Young; defensive lineman, Robert Cargal; line-backer, Green, and secondary, Greg Steger.

Varsity letters were presented by Head Coach Len Williams to 34 players, including eight seniors, 19 juniors and seven sophomores.

Williams expressed appreciation to his coaching staff, administrators, chain crew, cheerleaders, band, booster club ("the best organized I've seen in my 17 years coaching"), and players for their support during the past year.

Guest speaker was former high school principal Bob Dawson, who used the banquet theme "Pride in Tradition" as his topic.

Dawson stated tradition is both winning and losing, and suggested "Iowa Park has been doing too much living in the past."

He said he no longer cared for either professional or college football, stating "High school football is the last bastion of amateurism," and, therefore, is his favorite sport.

A staunch supporter of green and white as school colors, and opponent of using black -- he once had published a letter to the editor in the Leader stating his opposition -- Dawson referred to that subject several times during his presentation.

He suggested the cheerleaders next year collect "all the black stuff" used for school colors and use it to start next year's homecoming bonfire.

Of the 1990 Hawks, Dawson said,

"There have been teams around here with much better records, that didn't put out half the effort this team did."

Next year's Booster Club president Jim Bob Merrick, who served as master of ceremonies, goodnaturedly presented Dawson with a black Hawk t-shirt prior to his speech.

But when he was about to be seated, Merrick withdrew the original shirt and handed him one of green and white.

The Booster Club sponsors the football banquet each year.

Next year's officers with Merrick are Gary Steger, first vice president; Billy McNeely, second vice president; Sherry Rose, secretary; Linda Merrick, treasurer, and Shirley Bridwell, parliamentarian.

Bobby Davenport, who was unable to attend the banquet, is the outgoing president. Bob Luney has been vice president, Mrs. Merrick secretary/treasurer and Mrs. Bridwell parliamentarian.

Lady Hawks lose 1st loop game

Graham handed the Lady Hawks their first loss in Dist. 4-AAA play here Tuesday night.

The win put Graham in the driver's seat with one more first-half game remaining on the schedules for district teams. However, should the Lady Hawks defeat 1-3 Bowie and Bridgeport be able to repeat its non-conference win over Graham, the first half of round robin play could wind up in a three-way tie for Iowa Park, Graham and Bridgeport.

Prior to the disappointing 53-43 loss Tuesday, however, the Lady Hawks Friday night extended their season record to 17-6 and district record to 3-0 with a 50-42 victory at Bridgeport.

Using their commanding height around the basket, plus pinpoint long range shooting, Graham outscored the Lady Hawks in every period except the 15-12 second period.

Adding to their problems, Iowa Park was in foul trouble almost the entire contest, sending Graham to the charity line for bonus shots as early as six minutes into the first quarter.

Erica Knight and Melody Gray were the only Lady Hawks to finish in double digits, scoring 14 and 10 points, respectively.

It was just the opposite at Bridgeport, however, as the Lady Hawks outscored their hosts in all quarters except the 12-6 third stanza.

Knight finished with 15 points, while Gray, Kerri Dornier and Marci McCarthy each finished with 10.

The Junior Varsity shot down Bridgeport 41-21, but had to pull from a 16-point first-half deficit in Tuesday's game with Graham for a 43-42 win, and extended their record to 20-2.

Christie Catlin led the JV in both games, scoring 12 against Bridgeport and 17 in the Graham game.

Iowa Park will host Bowie at 6:30 p.m. Friday, and travel Tuesday to Breckenridge.

ERICA KNIGHT GOES FOR TWO OF HER 14 POINTS ... here Tuesday against Graham.

Hawks 1-1 in conference

Though their season record is only 5-12, Iowa Park's Hawks are 1-1 in Dist. 4-AAA competition.

They blasted Bridgeport 58-36 Friday on the road, and returned home Tuesday where they lost 77-59 to Graham's Steers, who also are 1-1 in conference play.

The Hawks extended their 12-9 first-quarter lead over the Bulls to a commanding 30-14 advantage by halftime.

Brent Wineinger led Hawk scorers with 15 points. Jeremy Carroll had 12, including a trio of three-pointers and three of four free shots. Scott Skinner canned 10.

The Hawk JV also won over Bridgeport, 65-58, and the Freshmen overcame a six-point deficit with only 45 seconds remaining to win their game by a narrow, 56-55 margin.

Iowa Park outscored Graham in the first and third quarters, 19-17 and 18-15, but the Steers overcame those with 16-11 and 29-11 scores in the second and fourth periods.

Four Hawks finished in double scoring figures. J'Bill Merrick led with 12, while Carroll and Jon Hankins each had 11 and Skinner had 10.

The Hawks will tip off here Friday at 8 p.m. against Bowie, and travel Tuesday to Breckenridge.

LEARNING INDIAN LORE - Chris McRae and Lacey Slack, both Bradford Elementary fourth graders, tried on Indian costumes provided by Ann Huskinson, executive director of the Red River Valley Museum at Vernon, Monday. The speaker explained this was the first of five trunk showings being developed for free showings to groups and organizations within a 60 mile radius.

Wichita Falls team wins

Wichita Falls First Baptist won the first annual Iowa Park Optimist Club Men's Basketball Tournament held Saturday at the Iowa Park Junior High gymnasium.

The champions never lost a game in the seven-team, double elimination meet, but they had to defeat the same club, the Wichita Falls Rainmen, twice.

First Baptist knocked the Rainmen into the losers' bracket in the first game of the tourney, 67-58, and again, 79-61, in the championship contest.

Two of the teams entered were made up of local players. They were the Iowa Park Sonics and Iowa Park Hoopsters.

The Sonics, playing in the meet's second contest, bested Holliday First Baptist 61-28. In the next game, the Hoopsters beat Golden Fried Chicken of Wichita Falls 70-41.

The Sonics and Hoopsters played in game six, with the Hoopsters edging the Sonics 61-52.

But before those two played, the Wichita Baptists beat Certainteed Lakers 71-52, and Holliday Baptists eliminated Golden Fried 48-37.

Certainteed then was eliminated by Holliday Baptist 58-56.

The Rainmen eliminated the Sonics 72-54.

Iowa Park Hoopsters were sent into the losers' bracket by Wichita Falls Baptists 52-50, but they had to come from behind to do it.

The Hoopsters jumped out to an 11-2 lead and maintained a 27-16 cushion going into the third quarter, which was a period in which the Iowa Parkans couldn't get anything going score-wise.

With five seconds remaining in regulation play, the Hoopsters held a three-point lead, but the Baptist center hit a three-pointer to knot the score at 50-50.

Wichita outscored Iowa Park 4-2 in overtime, and went on to take the meet title.

To reach the final game, the Rainmen defeated Holliday 70-38 and the Hoopsters 75-68.

Sweep Notre Dame

Iowa Park Junior High basketball teams swept three games Monday with Notre Dame.

In the two girls' games, the Eighth Grade won 35-16 and the Seventh Grade "A" 33-13.

The Seventh Grade boys won 31-14.

Neither of the girls' teams playing Saturday in the Holliday tournament fared well.

The Eighth Grade won its first game, defeating Seymour 45-19, but then was blown out 41-19 by Windthorst.

The Seventh Grade "B" lost 27-7 to Seymour and 21-10 to Holliday.
