Iowa Park and County To Receive Publicity In National Magazines

Readers of such publications as Time, Manufacturers Record, Wall Street Journal and Business Week will soon have an opportunity to learn more about the activities of United Gas company, which serves Iowa Park and Wichita county. A two-color page advertisement July 11 in Time will mark the 10th anniversary of the United Gas national advertising program designed to stimulate the industrial development of the Gulf South area, which includes Iowa Park.
In 1948 United Gas began publicizing advantages of various individual sections of the Gulf South, including West Texas. This year, United will go even further by mentioning the names of towns it serves at retail or supplies at wholesale in various sections, including Iowa Park.
In addition to the national advertising program, United Gas has maintained institutional and merchandising programs in hundreds of daily and weekly newspapers in communities served by the company, including the Iowa Park Herald.

GEO. JONES TAKES OVER AS HEAD OF IOWA PARK LIONS

Combining ladies night and installation of officers, the Iowa Park Lions club had one of the best meetings of the year Tuesday night on the lawn of the Methodist church.
Featured speaker and installing officer was Paul King, Wichita Falls Lion and member of the Toastmasters' club there.
The president for 1949-50 is Geo. E. Jones, who replaces W. R. Pastusek. Other officers of the club installed Tuesday night were Scott Ralston, first vice president; W. A. George, secretary; E. E. Wallis, treasurer; Rev. Kirk B. Beard, clarinetist; Rev. M. C. Yeagan, Lion tamer; and Dr. Gordon G. Clark, Carl Walsh, Tom Covington, C. E. Birk and A. L. Reed, directors.

These ladies attend the weekly luncheons and furnish music before and during the luncheon. They also have been leading spirits in entertainment features of the Lions club. The minstrel shows put on during the past two years have been arranged and directed by Mrs. Coppock and Mrs. Tanner, with assistance from other women of Iowa Park.
In naming chairmen of the several committees, Presidents Jones called special attention to the Boy Scout troop committee, since sponsoring of the local Boy Scout troop is an outstanding Lions club project. Named to this group were E. E. Voyles, George R. Huckabee, Rev. Yeagan, Rev. Beard, Dr. Clark and W. A. George.
Other committee chairmen are: Carl Walsh, attendance; E. E. Wallis, finance; R. R. Brubaker, membership; A. L. Reed, program; W. R. Pastusek, United Nations; L. E. Brooks, Lions information; C. E. Terrapin Derby Gets Hold on Boys, Girls, Mothers and Dads

Interest is being shown among boys and their fathers in the Terrapin Race to be held in Iowa Park on Trades Day, August 6. And as the day of the race draws nearer—interest among girls and their mothers is growing.
Already a number of terrapins have been caught and penned up for safekeeping, and are receiving good care and a diet of bugs and dog food to keep them in top running condition to win the prizes.
One girl who was wondering just where to look for a terrapin, walked out the door one day to see a fast one moving into the yard. She captured him (her) and named him "Hope"—hoping to win the race with him (her).
Each contestant furnishes his own terrapin which may be painted if the owner desires. The racing animal must be of the two-shelled land variety of terrapin.
On the day of the race, August 6—Trades Day, Mrs. C. H. Barker will register contestants at the site of the event, the Park Hotel square; Doyle Koonce will paint the number on the terrapins' backs; and Scott Ralston, Clayton Baldwin and Clifford Roberts will be judges.
First prize for the terrapin which leads the parade out of the bull ring will be $7.50. Second prize is $5. Merchants will give special rewards for smallest, largest, slowest and other features they may decide on.

State To Provide Soil Conservation Equipment Funds

Loys Barbour, director of district three, Farm Bureau Federation, returned from Austin this weekend and reports that the Soil Conservation bill (H.B. 97) finally passed both houses of the legislature. It is now up to Governor Jester for signature to make it law.
The bill provides for $5,000,000 appropriation to be used by Soil Conservation Districts in purchasing machinery and engineering equipment. The Soil Conservation districts must charge not less than actual cost of operating the equipment, for maintenance, depreciation and replacement of equipment.
This bill was certified for payment ahead of the other big money bills. This means there will be funds to take care of Soil Conservation needs. Two years ago a similar bill was passed, but it was certified for payment after the big money bills were certified and there were no funds left for Soil Conservation. If Governor Jester signs the Soil Conservation bill, the much needed equipment can be purchased to assist farmers in conserving the soil.
Mr. Barbour will leave Iowa Park on Thursday, July 7, to attend the Southern Region Farm Bureau Training School which will be held in Augusta, Georgia, July 10 through 14. Thirteen Southern States and Puerto Rico will be represented.
The Junior and Intermediate Girls Auxiliaries of the Baptist church met Wednesday at 4:00 with Mrs. Lloyd Bell for an ice cream party given them by their sponsors. Twelve members were present and enjoyed the entertainment furnished by Mrs. Bell, Mrs. O. A. Schwalbe and Mrs. Nelson Johnson.

BAPTIST REVIVAL TO OPEN SUNDAY, OSTEEEN TO PREACH

Rev. John H. Osteen, evangelist from Amarillo, will lead the First Baptist church of Iowa Park in revival services beginning Sunday morning, July 10, according to an announcement by Rev. James N. Easterwood, local pastor.
The services will continue thru July 24, with meetings daily at 10:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. The music will be under direction of an evangelistic singer whom Mr. Osteen is to bring with him.
A public address system is being installed in the church basement for the benefit of those not able to climb the steps to the church auditorium. Loud speakers will be placed in both the Junior Sunday School department and the Nursery department.
Mr. Easterwood is extending a cordial invitation to those of all church faiths in our town and community, and to those of no church affiliation, to come and share in the benefits of this series of services.
Special prayer services for success of the meeting are being held this week by the groups of Women's Missionary Union and other organizations of the church.

Rocky Point News

By Mrs. J. E. Penn
Joe Gallegos of Stockton, Calif.; Lynn Davis of Pocatello, Idaho; Jim Cook of Mill City, Oregon; and Gordon Young of Seattle, Wash., were visitors to the Rocky Point community Sunday, July 3. They were YMCA boys touring the country and visiting the most important places of interest. They visited President Truman and other interesting people and places in the East.
They had been traveling about 30 days. Gerald Crockett of Portland, Oregon, was their leader. The boys have seen a lot of country and declare that Texas was the best.
Pfc. James W. Byrd and Pfc. James E. Penn Jr. of Camp Hood, visited in the homes of their parents over the weekend.
Pvt. Don Ervi of Camp Hood visited his home in Electra over the weekend.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rowell and daughter Edna Mae are vacationing in Oregon and other points in the West.
Mrs. Steve Selv of Odessa was a recent visitor in the home of her daughter Mrs. J. B. Crain. Now Mr. and Mrs. Crain and family with Mrs. Selv are vacationing in South Texas.
Misses Wanda and Mattie Downs were weekend visitors in Saint Joe. The Mack Selfs have returned from a vacation trip to South Texas. Miss Frances Downs of Wichita Falls is visiting her parents in the Rocky Point community.
The Iowa Park school band met Wednesday with Don Hatch for another practice session. Parents of the musicians are very happy to have Mr. Hatch helping with the band and compliment him on the fine work he is doing.
Announcement has been made of an area PTA meeting to be held July 11, 8:30 a.m. at Hardin college. This will be an all day affair conducted by the state vice-president Mrs. A. W. Shackleford. Members from the entire 13th district are invited to attend.

Gus Weber Named Assistant Coach For Iowa Park Schools

At a recent board meeting of the Iowa Park Public Schools, Gus S. Weber was elected as assistant coach and teacher in the Iowa Park schools for the term of 1949-50.
Mr. Weber is a graduate of Silldell high school, a graduate of Texas Wesleyan college, and while in college was a member of the famous Texas Wesleyan basketball team for four years. However, at the end of his sophomore year, he was called to the Armed Services and served for two years.
After being discharged from the army, Mr. Weber returned and finished his college training.
He is 24 years of age, 6 feet 4 inches in height, 200 pounds. A member of the Baptist church, his hometown is Silldell. At present Mr. Weber is working at a Buick warehouse, but will come to Iowa Park in time for the fall session. This will be his first teaching and coaching experience.
Another action taken by the local school board was endorsement of personnel to work in the cafeteria. Women recommended by W. R. Bradford, superintendent, are Mrs. Charlie Lemond, head cook, with helpers, Mmes. Grace Chastain, Opal Holloway, C. C. Garner, Ruth Kooksey, Ruth Quaast.
School will open this fall on September 5, which is Labor Day. Due to provisions of the Gilmer-Aiken bills passed in this year's legislative sessions, Iowa Park expects to have a greatly augmented school program.
Application is being made at this time for Farm Shop Work to be offered here, and the necessary teacher for the course is being sought. Space for this program is not available in the present school buildings, but provision will be made somehow for this vital course.
Possibility of securing a special teacher for handicapped students is also being explored by Mr. Bradford. This work will be financed entirely from state funds.
A full time band director is also authorized for Iowa Park and Mr. Bradford is seeking a qualified man for this job.
Children must be six by Sept. 1 this year in order to start in the Iowa Park grade school. Another point to be remembered by parents is the necessity of having preventive inoculations for typhoid, smallpox, diphtheria and whooping cough in order to get the children in school.
On Tuesday of this week Mr. Bradford was in Graham where he received instruction on making a preliminary budget in accordance with provisions of the Gilmer-Aiken school program.

BOND VOTE SETS STAGE FOR WATER DEVELOPMENT

By a vote of 211 to 24 citizens of Iowa Park approved the proposed $350,000 bond issue for the Wichita County Water Control and Improvement District No. 3.
P. E. Hill, election judge, reports that only one of the 236 ballots cast Friday, July 1, was mutilated.
Site for the proposed dam on Stevens creek has been staked and many interested residents of Iowa Park have journeyed out to the location for a preliminary look at what some day will be a huge reservoir of soft water for Iowa Park.
Iowa Park citizens are congratulating themselves and each other on the single-minded way in which their efforts to secure an adequate source of soft water have been concentrated. Usually when faced with a program which calls for a bond issue of such magnitude, organized opposition grows to sufficient size to seriously threaten the program. Not so in Iowa Park. Of course, the voting shows that there was opposition, but advocates of the water program believe it stemmed from an honest difference of opinion on the need for the water and the way in which it was to be obtained, with no effort being made to marshal a showing of strength against the proposition.
The history of the present effort to obtain water for Iowa Park goes back less than a year, when the West Texas Chamber of Commerce offered a free survey of the possibilities of obtaining relief from our present hard water supply. This offer was accepted by the mayor and the city council, and when engineers of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce came here to read their report, the city officials invited all interested residents to hear a public presentation of that report.
At that time the Stevens creek project was recommended. The proposed plan of financing the project has been followed exactly by Iowa Park, and today we stand on the threshold of having an almost unlimited supply of good soft water.
A. L. Reed, secretary of the water board, said this week that the bonds will be issued as soon as possible, plans will be rushed to completion, bids will be sought, contracts made, and actual construction of the dam and other items will be started as soon as possible.

Mounted Square Dancing

Approximately 1400 spectators witnessed the mounted square dancing presented by the Boomtown Mounted Square Dance Club of Burk Burnett, Texas. The show opened at 8:15 pm with a barrel race against time, when the riders raced around barrels used as markers. Six of the contestants finished the course between 21 and 28 seconds. After the barrel race they began a square dance on horseback. This is one of the most intricate of all stunts using horses and also one of the most beautiful, according to fans of the mounted dancing. Last on the program was a figure eight executed by the mounted men and women. Twenty riders participated in the show.

'51ers
Well, folks, I bet you didn't expect this. Neither did I. Just a word to let you know what the '51ers are doing during these hot typical Texas days.
Don't get the idea that you can drive through town and see all the kids, because you can't. It is an accident if you see more than two or three. Now if you go to the Rexall, which you probably will, at the right time, you may be handed an ice cream cone by none other than Billie Brubaker. She has been working there most of the time since school closed.
Then as you wander on down the street you may see Lou Ann Duke sitting behind a typewriter in the Duke Insurance office. If she isn't there she is probably somewhere else. Probably, you know Lou Ann is still thrilled over her trip to the altar. She hopes next time she will be the bride instead of bride's attendant. Can't blame her.
As a whole most of the '51ers are working around home or have gone visiting.
Now take Eva Nell for instance. She is doing all the house work (she says she is anyway). But she has surely been making a lot of clothes for herself and sisters. She was one of the '51ers that attended State 4-H Roundup at College Station. Others were Eugene Parish, Shuman Lewis, Page Morgan and James Dairymple. You probably read all about them in every paper in this county. It really makes them sound great. Several of the boys in the class of 51 are now entering the 4-H contests. Good luck, boys.
Eva Nell, Ella Lou, Carol Sue, Wanda, Lucille and Wilma earned an easy half credit by taking summer home ec. They came home smelling of paint, varnish, soap, and floor wax, but it was fun. A swimming party and picnic was enjoyed by the girls on the last Tuesday of June. After the swim and eats the girls went broke feeding the juke box so they could square dance. Did they have fun!
On Monday, Thursday and Friday nights you will see several of the '51ers if you go to the Methodist church play ground. The summer recreation program draws quite a crowd. Come by about 8:00 on these evenings and, by the way, bring your tennis rackets and stay a while.
Bobby Pace is plowing wheat fields for his dad. Do a good job, Bobby.
Carol Sue is very busy working of her new bedroom. If you have time, drop in at her residence and I'm sure she will be very happy to show you her pride and joy. If you act real nice she might play you a tune on her little accordion.
Eugene Parish just really goes the limit to get a little attention. He ran over himself with the tractor and broke his pelvis bone. He is now in his home recovering. If you have time, go by and see him. Gene just loves company.
Don't we all wish we could take life as easy as Sandra Stermer does. She sits at home by day and runs around by night. Some of the time she sits at home at nights too but she usually has at least one boy friend then to keep her and her mother company. I don't think the boys are calling during the day anymore since Mrs. S. put one to washing windows. She has the lawn mower setting on the front yard ready for the next victim.
Take heed! Don't try to get a suntan by chopping cotton from about 8 to 1 in shorts and halter, unless you have a control of the temperature. Lucille tried it. The morning was Saturday, July 2. The place was in her daddy's cotton patch. The sun was hotter than she thought. She didn't even look pink until she came to the house for lunch at 1. Then she looked R E D. This week she hasn't been able to put anything over her shoulders and can hardly move her arms; therefore she is staying at the house now instead of making money chopping cotton. She had much rather chop cotton than sit around with a stiff neck while the water blisters pop up all over her back and shoulders.
Ella Lou is getting nice and brown while plowing for her daddy.
Mary Ella, Patsy Mitch, Ella Lou, and Lucille have been taking baton lessons at the school house. There are many other '51ers, too numerous to name, taking band lessons. You know that band is really good. The Hawks are going to have music and cheering to boost them over the goal line next season.
That is about the list. Of course there are many more—but dig up a nickle, after all, you can't expect to borrow the paper every time, and you will have more next week.
Reporting on '51ers.—ME.

YOUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE —

RUTH HILL YEARGAN

At the November meeting of the Board of Directors of the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce, the president was requested to appoint a Program of Work committee.

Within a week a small group of men sat around a desk in the office of our discussing the needs of our town. These men formed the Program of Work committee and it was their assignment to present a list of undertakings for chamber of commerce action during the coming year or years until such projects become realities.

To the question: "What is Iowa Park's greatest need?" the unanimous answer was WATER. But even as the committee discussed possibilities of getting it there was some wondering in the minds of one or two if it were not just another pipe dream. It was a good subject and easy to talk about. What couldn't Iowa Park do with good water? Visions of new industries, new businesses, new homes loomed large on the horizon.

The meeting adjourned on this thought: It was a long-time project it might take years to realize, but until the town got an ample supply of soft water, soft water would remain the town's greatest need.

That was seven months ago. On July 1, the water bond election carried 211 to 24. But before this date many hours of work were given by men dedicated to their task. Men with an ample supply of good common sense, and foresight, willing to work hard, think hard through the detailed study necessary for the common cause of obtaining good water.

Several hurdles have been cleared but there remains the actual work on the water and sewerage plants and the necessary rainfall, which calls for more sense and devotion to the cause of city planning and city building.

Ever since we've been here we've heard: "We can't do anything here in Iowa Park WITHOUT soft water."

Well, what will Iowa Park do WITH soft water?

Among our acquaintances is the society editor of a newspaper with a very large daily circulation. A smart woman, attractive, delightful, informed and with more ability and sense in her fingers than many people have in their heads. For years she has promised herself a year's vacation to write. Recently we received this card: "At last I am taking my year's vacation to devote to free-lance writing. Six months have passed and I have not written anything yet, and I used to think it was my job that kept me from getting anything done!"

Iowa Park has wonderful possibilities without soft water—but WITH soft water her possibilities will be unlimited.

New York, N.Y.—The influx of the zipper and snap fastener, as well as the safety pin, has apparently not hurt the button business in the U.S. There are about 10 billion buttons manufactured annually here. This would be comparable to 70 buttons for every man, woman and child in the nation.
