Decision is postponed on gas street lighting

The city council spent more of Monday night's meeting discussing the type of lighting they want on West Park Boulevard, but reached no decision and voted to table the subject until next meeting.

The discussion centered on whether to switch to natural gas lighting fixtures, a proposal suggested and strongly supported by Mayor Wayne House, who asked the council, "Do we want to dress it (the street's appearance) up a little?"

Alderman Bob Hamilton said he saw no reason to spend more money to make something pretty, and have less light along the street than is now there. During the early portion of the discussion, David Collins, of the public works department, explained how changing the light fixtures from mercury vapor to high pressure sodium could be accomplished.

He explained the change, which would cost $92 per fixture, would produce more light, and then told the council how fewer light fixtures per block would produce the same light as the old units now produce, but at less money.

Hamilton reminded the council that even if the gas lights were chosen, the standards would still require electrical service in order to utilize the Christmas decorations. That would add to the installation and operation costs, he said.

Lone Star Gas company, whose representatives told the council during the December meeting that they would encourage the changeover, promised to publicize Iowa Park throughout their territory.

The utility, since December, has figured a lower rate for street lighting. It does not now have a municipality using that type lighting.

Figures given the council last month was the annual cost for the three-block area would be $4,405 annually. New rate estimate proposed at Monday's meeting was $3,294.

Though the city would have to purchase the new light standards, should the council decide to switch to gas, installation of service would be done at no cost by Lone Star, Mike Greenwood said.

"We might have to spend some money to encourage businesses to start there," Alderman Johnny Crawford said.

Aldermen accepted the lowest of seven bids to construct two carports for police department vehicles. It was submitted by Weakley's Welding and Dozer Service, for $5,260, well below budget.

Other bids ranged from $7,459 to $13,791.

Also approved was a resolution to seek a grant from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept., for improvements to George Hammonds Park at Lake Iowa Park.

After considering a request from Cellular One of Wichita Falls, to allow the firm to install antennas atop the Johnson Road water tower and a small equipment shed below it, the council instructed Administrator Gary Jones to have a one-year contract drawn for consideration by both parties.

The company, in exchange for allowing the installation, proposes to install lights on the sign and pay utilities for the lighting.

After Administrator Jones gave his report concerning the city's landfill operation and its options for the future, the council instructed him to secure costs and related information to contract with a private firm to collect and dispose of the city's garbage.

Jones presented three alternatives to the future trash collection operation. His suggestion was to close the landfill, construct a transfer station and haul the garbage where ever it would be accepted.

Because garbage collection will become so expensive, due to regulations mandated by the Environmental Protection Agency, Jones said he could see where the city would eventually require roll-out containers throughout the residential community.

When asked why, he explained it would be the only way to regulate where trash comes from. He added that much of the trash in containers now in alleys comes from residents outside the city who pay nothing for its disposal.

The council went behind closed doors to discuss a claim filed against the city by Connie Laudermilk of the police department.

When members returned to open session, they voted to authorize the mayor, administrator and attorney, Jay Cantrell, to seek a settlement.

Also during the meeting, Mayor House announced that David Bolin, head of the street department, was the city's Employee of the Month for December.

Mitchell's contract extended

The Iowa Park School Board voted to extend Superintendent Glenn Mitchell's contract during a regular meeting held Monday night.

Trustees announced that Mitchell's contract would be extended through June 30, 1996, with an annual salary of $60,500 plus $3,600 in travel allowance, following an executive session that lasted about one and a half hours.

Four Bradford Elementary third grade students were recognized by the board for being named to the TAAS Student Academic Recognition Roster.

Ruth M. Fitzgerald, Bobbie L. Gilmore, Heather J. Moody and Mindy L. Reaves were recognized by the board and presented certificates.

Academic recognition is awarded to students who score on the highest level on the writing portion of the TAAS test, master all objectives on the test, and answer correctly at least 95 per cent of the items on each subject area test. The four were the only students in the district to be named to the roster.

Board members approved a revision to the school board policy concerning the community use of school facilities. The revision, added to the existing policy, reads "Facilities will not be rented or leased to an individual, groups, or businesses for the purpose of making a profit."

Randy Lovelady, junior high principal, asked the board to consider a $3,500 transference of funds from the junior high annual account to the general fund for purchase of equipment for a homework hotline.

Lovelady explained to the board that he felt the equipment, which includes a computer, telephone, hook up and service, would probably only cost $2,400, but asked for $3,500 just in case it ran more. After discussion, trustees approved $2,500 for the purchase.

Trustees reviewed enrollment trends in grades K through 12, as part of a goal set in August to complete permanent classrooms by August, 1995.

Stolen items recovered; two more businesses hit

Iowa Park police recovered items taken in a Dec. 15 burglary of a business during the past week, but now have burglaries of two other businesses to solve.

Chief Ray Smock said items taken almost a month ago from Jim's Conoco were recovered from a residence in Wichita Falls.

The items included a VCR, film projector and film. While several leads have been developed as to who might have committed the burglary, Smock said the person from whom the items were recovered claimed to have purchased them.

The two new business burglaries reported both were committed late last Wednesday or early Tuesday. Both were eating establishments.

An officer on patrol discovered the back door at Good and Plenty Restaurant on East Highway standing open, and reported the finding at 4:55 a.m.

Investigation determined the burglar had made a thorough search of the inside, but apparently took only money that was in the coin-operated machines.

Entry was through an air vent on the west side of the building, and exit was through the back door.

About an hour and a half later, an employee at Ray's Expressway Res-

... Hunt Avery (Entex), Dorothy Palmer, Virgil Woodfin, Sheri Kennedy, Gene Jordan.

Chamber honors citizens

The high school cafeteria was almost filled to capacity Saturday night, for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet.

Highlight of the evening traditionally is the announcement of recipients of the Chamber's annual awards.

This year's recipients included: Sheri Kennedy, Outstanding Citizen of the Year; Virgil Woodfin, Outstanding Senior Citizen; Gene Jordan, Outstanding Agriculturist; Dorothy Palmer, Outstanding Educator, and Entex Fabrication Inc., Outstanding Business.

Each recipient received a handsome personal plaque, and their names will be engraved on a permanent plaque that remains on display in the Chamber's office.

The banquet also marks the change of leadership in the Chamber organization.

Installed as 1993 president was Larry Dutton. Also, Kathy Riggins took the position of first vice president, and Glen McGee became second vice president.

Directors, whose terms will expire in 1995, are Joe Hughes, Gary Jones, Tommy Key, Derrell Monday, Glen Mitchell, Ruth Pirkle, Kathy Riggins and Philip Welch.

Outgoing president Gene Jordan reviewed most of the activities carried on by the Chamber during the past year, such as sponsoring the Whoop-T-Do, annual golf tournament, coordinating drawings during the holidays for hams and turkeys, landscaping the corner of the Chamber's office grounds, holding ribbon cuttings for six businesses, and welcoming five new business members.

Keynote speaker of the evening, Ron Hill, told the audience, "I believe that failure is the back door to success."

He explained that people get to where they are successful, because they learn from mistakes that cause failure.

Hill's recollection of his boyhood days in Floydada, and his situation earlier Saturday near Amarillo held the audience's attention.

He told the audience he had lived only a few houses away from Derrell Monday, and they attended school together.

But they didn't graduate together, because, Hill said, he became lazy and failed.

However, he learned from that failure, and went on to earn two college degrees as well as a Master's degree.

His episode earlier Saturday was about his driving a borrowed car to Amarillo for a meeting, and the car breaking down. In freezing temperatures, he hitchhiked his way back to Iowa Park, in time to make his talk.

But in his haste to return home, he had forgotten his brief case, notes and other important items, leaving them in the stranded vehicle.

Mrs. Kennedy was cited for her many years work with youth, and organizations dealing with youth, in the community.

Woodfin, for his many years service to residents and community with his knowledge of agriculture and horticulture.

Mrs. Palmer, for her state-wide recognition as an outstanding elementary teacher.

Jordan, for his work with youth and others in agriculture, as well as farming himself while not working as president of State National Bank.

Entex, for its continued growth in employment since locating here about a decade ago.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by the Show Choir of Iowa Park High School. The steak dinner was catered by the Iowa Park MuleSkinners.

Rev. F.M. Small, Church of God, gave the invocation, and Pastor Greg Hardin of the United Pentecostal Church the benediction.

Owens, Butler nuptials read Saturday in Seymour

Miss Sarah Elizabeth Owens became the bride of William Donald (Bill) Butler of Seymour in rites read Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Setting for the double ring vows was First United Methodist Church in Wichita Falls. Dr. Philip McLarty, pastor of Iowa Park Presbyterian Church and Trinity Presbyterian Church in Wichita Falls, directed the recitation.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Owens of Wichita Falls, formerly of Iowa Park.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Don Butler and Mary Jane Arrington of Wichita Falls.

Wrought iron spiral candelabra, white gladiolus, snapdragons, stock, clove and English ivy provided the decorations for the nuptial area. Four altar candles were lit by Morgan Vinson, acolyte.

Musical selections included Rhosymedre--Von Williams, St. Anthony Chorale--Hayden, the Processional-Fireworks Music--G.F. Handel and the Recessional-Praise the Lord With Cymbals--Karg-Elert.

Presented for marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal gown of white damask embellished with embroidered lace, pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of white bridal roses and English ivy.

Linda Gibbons of Wichita Falls served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Rani Williams of Austin and Mary Owens of Wichita Falls.

They wore identically styled tea length gowns of hunter green moire taffeta, fashioned with dropped waistlines and fitted bodices. Each attendant carried three long stemmed white roses and pink kalanchae.

Mark Montgomery of Seymour served the groom as best man. Groomsmen were Mark McDowell of Suffern, N.Y. and Kyle Balick of Wichita Falls. Richard Owens of Wichita Falls, Jon Fair of Abilene, Cary Waters and Clark Waters, both of Iowa Park, served as ushers.

Ring of the church bells ushered the bridal couple from the church at the close of the ceremony.

The bride graduated Iowa Park High School and Midwestern State University. Butler graduated Seymour High School and attended Texas Tech and MSU.

The reception was held in Fellowship Hall of First United Methodist Church.

Tables were arranged in the form of a cross. A large urn was filled with fresh flowers and English ivy.

Varied colors of candles provided illumination and English ivy added a decorative touch.

Michelle Nix presided at the bride's cake and the groom's sister,

Mrs. William Donald Butler (Sarah Elizabeth Owens)

Mary Kay Fair, served the groom's cake.

Eli Barnica secured signatures of guests for the bride's book.

Members of the house party were Kim Nicholson, Cristin Waters, Jamie Montgomery, Becky Gregg, Jamie Montgomery, Kelsey Snyder, Angela Snyder, Cathy Mas and Becky Mas.

For travel the bride chose a costume of navy, rose and white plaid. When the couple return from a wedding trip to Cancun, Mexico, they will make their home in Wichita Falls.

As I See It

By Bob Hamilton

When I read the report that Gib Lewis would not seek another term as Speaker of the House in Austin, and read the names of those seeking to succeed him, I felt I knew who would be selected.

No, I don't have a crystal ball or anything like that. But I've had a long history with that position.

It started out with Billy Clayton, of Springlake.

Having lived in that area several years, I had become acquainted with Billy. And during those years, I became aware of how effective he was in politics.

Only a few months after Dolores and I moved to Iowa Park and started the paper, Billy called me and asked me if I would serve as his public information officer. That was just after he was elected Speaker.

It was a challenge. But so was getting this publication off the ground. And besides that, I felt I had moved my family around enough, and had pledged this is where we would stay.

So I rejected his offer, and suggested a couple of friends on the Wichita Falls newspaper staff, one of which he hired.

Anyway, after a few years, it became clear to me that Billy was going to get out of politics, so I asked him who he felt would be his successor.

He told me Gib Lewis. And, sure enough, Gib was the man.

That list of aspirants for Lewis' job included another fellow I knew more than 25 years ago, Pete Laney.

Now, you want to know why I felt Laney would be chosen Speaker? Pete's cotton farm is about 35 miles from Billy Clayton's home.

I'll leave the rest up to your imagination.

The past few weeks have taken their toll of some of my oldest friends in the newspaper business.

The first was Tom Steely, former publisher at Paris. A gentleman's gentleman, Tom was a leader in state and regional press associations, as well as in Paris, until his retirement. He was also an example of what I feel a family man should be.

Then, just about a week later, the man who gave me my first job writing passed away. He was the dean of all sportswriters in Texas, and continued writing his column for the Amarillo newspaper.

Putt Powell hired me in the fall of 1949 to "string" for the paper. My job was to report on sports at Hereford High School.

Tuesday of last week, Ben Ezzell, publisher of the Canadian Record, died. Not to make light of one of my oldest friends, but he was such a newspaperman, I never thought he would let anything, even death, come the day before he was to go to press.

Ben, at age 75, still covered football games the way I learned: walking the sidelines with camera and notebook in hand. And if you missed it, he was in Hawk Stadium, working as usual, the night Canadian lost to Goldwaite.

I'm fully aware these three meant nothing to you living in Iowa Park. But there's nothing more personal than a man's newspaper column. So I reserve the right to express my feelings about these three very close friends, now departed.

They'll be sorely missed, by me and their respective communities.

Trustees

for kindergarten, trustees will vote to build those in December, 1994.

Temporary buildings are now being used at Kidwell Elementary to house kindergarten classes, which were extended to full-day classes this year.

Robert Palmer, assistant superintendent, gave a report on the exit level TAAS testing by Iowa Park High School 11th grade students, saying Iowa Park scored highest in the state in mathematics among schools this size.

The percentage of those meeting minimum expectations this year are 70 percent in math and 80 percent in reading, both up from the last school year. In writing, 81 percent met minimum expectations, down 7.9 percent from last year.

Twenty-six percent mastered all objectives in writing, up 3.8 percent from last year; 34 percent mastered all objectives in reading, up 12.2 percent; and 18 percent mastered math, down .5 percent.

Palmer said 11 students still have not passed exit level testing, which is necessary for graduation.

High School Principal Richard Davis recommended to the board that three math and three English teachers already teaching in our system be hired to teach one additional period after school each week to help teach students who have failed the exit level TAAS tests.

The board approved the actual per period rate for all six teachers of $1,301.94 total to teach remediation in those areas.

In other business, trustees *approved student transfer requests for two ninth grade students residing in City View.

*approved a request by the Wichita Falls Southwest Basketball Officials Assoc. to use the junior high gym for a tournament Jan. 30.

*approved permission to sell various pieces of equipment and vehicles at garage sales, auctions or through sealed bids.

*Approved additional hours for the district's speech therapist, in order to serve newly-identified students as well as complete paperwork. Pam Innis, therapist, currently works two and one-half days a week.

1993 CHAMBER OFFICERS were installed during Saturday's annual banquet. They include: from right, Susan Dillard, secretary; Larry Dutton, president; Kathy Riggins, first vice president, and Glen McGee, second vice president.

President appreciative

Dear Iowa Park Athletic Boosters:
As one of my last official acts as the 1992 Iowa Park Athletic Booster Club President, I would like to thank everyone who assisted in making this past year a success in many ways for the Booster Club. First of all, I would like to thank the merchants who purchased ads on the Football Schedule Poster and those who paid to have football pictures displayed in their windows. Contributions by Entex and Armie's Body Craft Supply made it possible to refurbish all the "Home of the Hawk" signs. Saying "Thank You" cannot begin to express my gratitude to all these people.

Generous merchants are vital to this organization; however, it is the individuals who are the real backbone of the Booster Club. No matter who else is mentioned, I must thank those members and volunteers who worked in the concession stands, blew up balloons, cooked chili, video taped, sold t-shirts and did whatever was asked of them to make our programs successful. No matter how large or small the contribution whether it was money or time, everyone was important.

The coaches, athletes and school officials also played a big part in making this an outstanding year. They helped a "rookie" through their guidance, patience and understanding. Though it was often hard work or time consuming, I feel that I have come out the big winner in the end by having an opportunity to know more about our athletes and our athletic system. I wouldn't have missed this for anything.

A special thank you goes to the current officers. They were always there to help and always had good advice to offer. Honestly, I would have never survived without their assistance.

The official change in leadership will occur at the Football Banquet on Saturday, January 16. I would encourage anyone interested in the football program to attend to show their support for our team. Dennis Parker, Head Football Coach at the University of North Texas, will be the guest speaker and it promises to be an enjoyable evening.

For those I have forgotten to mention, please understand that it was not intentional. In closing, I want to wish the 1993 officers the best of luck for an even bigger and better year and I wish our athletes and coaches lots of victories in the future. Go Hawks!

Sincerely,
Billy McNeely

ARCHIE LAYFIELD AND LEWIS SKINNER ... honored at annual fireman's banquet.

Firemen recognized

Two members were recognized and new officers installed, during the annual banquet held Saturday night by the Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Department.

Archie Layfield received the "Fireman of the Year" award, and Lewis Skinner the "Special Service" award.

Layfield was installed president of the organization, Lee Uhren vice president, Lewis Skinner secretary/treasurer, and Greg Wood, Bob Kenedy and Daniel Lightsey trustees.

There was no change in the positions of chief and assistant chief. Danny Skinner, who has served as chief 14 years, was returned to that position, and Charles Wright returned as assistant chief.

Installation of the officers was done by Richard Harmon of the Cameron

Girls' coaches are needed

Helpful Facts

The city's Board of Adjustments meetings are at 6:15 p.m. on Mondays when there is an agenda, in Council Chambers, 103 North Wall. Public notices for all Board of Adjustments meetings are published two weeks in the Iowa Park Leader, and are open to the public.

Gardens VFD.

Chief Skinner pointed out that 1992 was an unusual year, in that volunteers answered more medical calls, 203, than fires, 177.

That fact was borne out, while members, wives and guests were forming the buffet serving line. An emergency medical call was toned, and the members immediately left the First Christian Church Fellowship Hall, site of the banquet. They returned in about 30 minutes.

The meal was catered by the Iowa Park MuleSkinners.

Mrs. Wayne Snyder

Lana (Mrs. Wayne) Snyder has fond memories of growing up on her family's farm on South Peterson Road. She is the daughter of Wilma and the late L.J. Lane.

She said, "When I was small, everyone who lived on a farm had cows, chickens, sheep, horses and gardens. Now, people who live 'out on the farm,' as a rule, don't have livestock. They just like being out in the country." She said that her mother always canned and put food in the freezer. Lana has done some canning also, but thinks it is becoming a lost art.

Lana's mother use to sell eggs. One day, wanting to cook like her mother, Lana gathered all the eggs and used them to make mud pies. Needless to say, her mother was pretty upset.

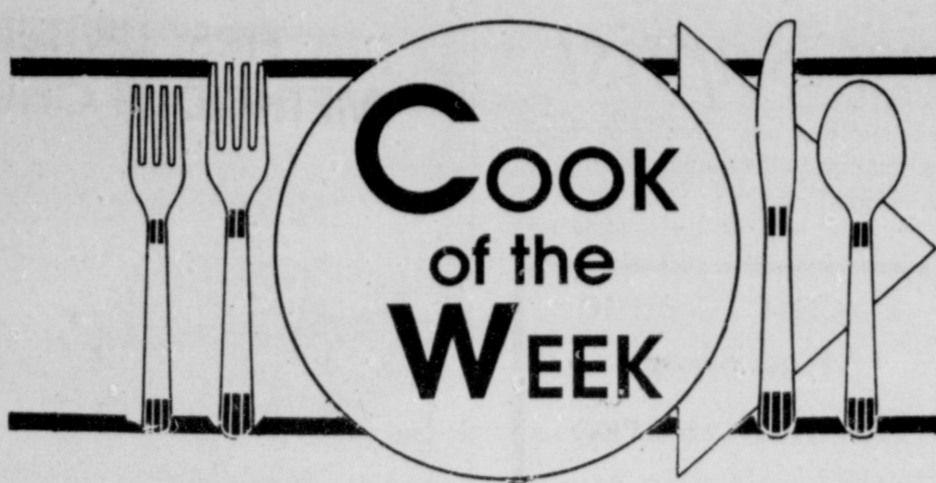

Lana didn't learn to cook until she got married. "I use to get so mad because I couldn't learn to cook from my Mom," she said. "She'd say, 'I just put in a little bit of this and a dash of that,' and she didn't use a recipe," Lana said. "Now," she said laughing, "I cook mainly the same way."

Lana is a graduate of Iowa Park High School and Carter's School of Beauty. She keeps her beauty license current, but, for the past 10 years, has been the owner of First Class Cleaning Service. At one time, she and her mother prepared meals for the Iowa Park Rotary Club.

Lana and Wayne, a realtor with Century 21 Gold Coat, have been married 16 years. They lived in Iowa Park eight and a half years, but following the death of her father, they moved back to the farm to be of help to her mother. They have a 12-year-old daughter, Laci, who is in the seventh grade at Barwise Junior High in Wichita Falls.

Lana's hobbies are trying out new recipes, collecting cookbooks, traveling and writing poetry. In 1985, one of her poems, "Someone at My Door," was published in American Poets & Their Poems, and is in schools and libraries across the country. She has been writing poetry off and on since she was in the first grade.

The family enjoys going to Red River, N.M. every summer. Lana's husband and mother like to fish for trout, and she and Laci take in the sights, relax, and cook. They are ham radio operators, and are members of Southside Baptist Church in Wichita Falls. Lana said that most of her recipes are fairly quick to cook and don't keep you tied up in the kitchen for very long. "Since it's soup and stew weather, I'm submitting some that may be new to folks, but my family enjoys them," she said.

'Eye of the Storm' to show Sunday at First Baptist

Eye of the Storm, a new dramatic movie produced by World Wide Pictures will be shown at First Baptist Church Sunday at 6 p.m.

Eye of the Storm addresses vital, timely issues very relevant in today's society.

Dr. Derrell Monday, pastor, says families will be captivated by this contemporary story of what faces many single parents and their children as careers are juggled with personal relationships.

The movie stars Jeff Conway as Tom Edwards, an award-winning TV journalist returning home from covering the Persian Gulf War, Connie Sellecca as Patricia "Pete" Peterson, his producer, and Deborah Tucker as Tom's daughter, Jill.

Tom and "Pete" are given the task of "keeping ratings high." This puts them at odds, since Tom feels the best "story" is one which would trash the faith of returning servicemen and women.

"The war is over, what role does God play now? Is He out in the open or has He been put back in the closet?" Tom asks in his TV interviews. "Pete" urges him to let God "speak" for Himself.

Tom's real war is at home with his daughter, Jill, and within his own heart. In the wake of his wife's death, Tom immerses himself in his work, leaving his daughter hurt and alone. Their struggling attempts to reach out to each other serve only to widen the gap between them.

Through the moving stories of soldiers from Operation Desert Storm and the faithful support of his co-worker, "Pete", Tom comes to experience genuine peace in the midst of the storms that engulf him.

Both young and old can identify with very human hurts and find hope in very real answers.

World Wide Pictures is the motion picture ministry of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association. Dr. Monday and members of First Baptist Church invite everyone

IS THE BIBLE OUR ONLY RULE?

Dear Sirs: You always talk about the Bible, but never about the role the Catholic Church had in giving it to us. If the Bible is to be our only rule, why did Christ allow people to go without the Bible for 1400 years? Why was it 400 years after the church was established before a complete copy of the Bible was ever put together?

With regard to Christ allowing people to go without the Bible for 1400 years, let me suggest some things to consider. There has never been a time since the revealing of the New Testament in the first century by the Holy Spirit that God's Word has been taken from the world. "When he the Spirit of truth is come, he shall guide you into all the truth...Sanctify them with the truth, thy word is truth...His divine power hath granted unto us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that called us" (John 16:13; 17:17; 2 Peter 1:3). It is true that prior to Tyndale's English New Testament and the invention of the printing press in the early 1500's, the circulation of the written word was far from widespread. This was due mainly to the slow, tedious job of writing by hand each copy of the bible. In 1382, when Wycliffe turned out his translation of the New Testament, historians tell us that it took ten months to write just one copy which sold for $200.

To make the statement it was 400 years after the church before a complete copy of the Bible was put together is historically inaccurate. Jerome's Latin Vulgate has been pronounced authentic by the Roman church, and it was translated in 385 A.D. Jerome said that he used a Greek Bible that belonged to Origen, a man who lived in the early 200's. Origen, who lived from 185 to 254 A.D., listed all the New Testament books in his works. The Syriac and Coptic versions were translated from the Greek language in the second century, within less than 100 years of the times of the apostles. You will find most of this information in any good Bible encyclopedia, as all church historians know these truths.

Mosheim, the dean of religious historians, said, "before the middle of the second century, the greatest part of the books of the New Testament were read in every Christian society throughout the world and read as a divine rule of faith and manners" (Book 1, page 31). This means that before the year 150 A.D. the books of the New Testament were recognized, read, and followed. In other words, the "canon" of the Bible was established and followed within 50 years of the death of the apostles.

Our thanks to Gospel Minutes for allowing us to use the above article which appeared October 30, 1992, written by Johnny Ramsey.

Hawks open district Friday; Lady Hawks 2-0 in league

When the varsity basketball teams travel to Vernon Friday night, the Hawks will be playing their first Dist. 4-AAA game, and the Lady Hawks will be trying to extend their conference record to 3-0.

The Hawks dropped their final non-conference contest 77-61 Tuesday to Wichita Falls Hirschi, the same night the Lady Hawks were knocking off Henrietta 61-34.

The boys enter the Vernon tilt with a 7-13 season record, while the girls stand 18-7 for the season.

Tuesday, Bowie comes to town, and their girls' team was ranked ninth among AAA teams in the state by the Texas Sports Writers Association.

The Hawks outscored the Huskies in the second half of their contest here Tuesday, but couldn't overcome Hirschi's 38-18 halftime lead.

Ken Cooper led Iowa Park scorers with 17 points and Michael Stanford had 14.

Hirschi also won the Junior Varsity game, 61-45, but had to break open a 28-28 halftime tie. And the visitors' Freshmen edged Iowa Park 53-49.

The Lady Hawks completely dominated Henrietta Tuesday, outscoring their hosts in every quarter. They led 28-18 at the half and finished with a 15-5 fourth period.

Misty Cook led with 13 points, Gina Inman followed with eight, and six each were credited to Cheri Halady, Mandy Threet and Christi and Dusti Welch.

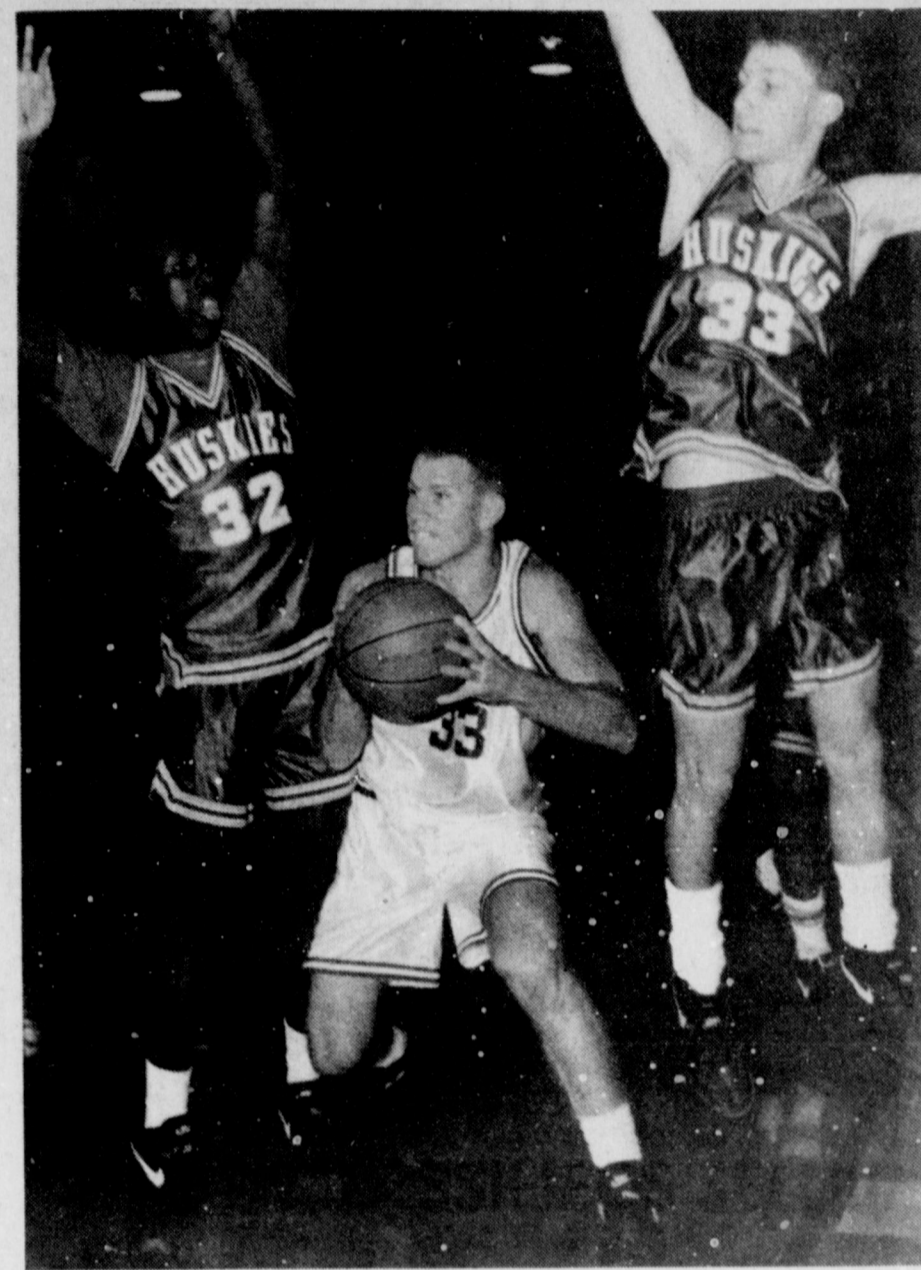

Their game Tuesday was not nearly as thrilling as Friday's conference opener here with Graham, won by the Lady Hawks 52-50.

Iowa Park was down 49-44 with less than a minute to play, and freshman Dusti Welch got the hot hand.

She narrowed the different with a soft two-pointer.

When Graham took the ball down court, Halady stole it and scored on a layup to make the score 49-48.

Iowa Park was forced to foul in an effort to get the ball back, and Graham sank one of two free shot attempts to extend its lead to two points.

Welch scored another short jumper to tie the score at 50-50. And on Graham's in-bound pass, the player was called for walking, giving Iowa Park the ball with 11 seconds remaining in the game.

Cook took a pass, but was too far under the basket for a good shot. Her desperate attempt bounded off the rim, but freshman Welch was in good position, got the ball and put it up. As the ball arched toward the basket, the final buzzer and light went off. But Welch's shot was good, and Iowa Park had its victory.

Those six points in the final minute gave Welch 11 points for the game, just behind Inman's 15.

Cook had nine points and seven rebounds, while Michelle Robinson had six points and nine rebounds.

The JV drubbed Graham 50-39, but the Freshmen had to go into over time to earn their 36-33 victory.

In Tuesday's road game, the Lady Hawk JV won 51-33, behind 14 points by Jayne Roberts and 11 by Jodi Young.

Junior high teams compete

Iowa Park Junior High basketball teams won three of four games Thursday with City View, and almost won that fourth contest.

It was their first competition since Henrietta Dec. 14.

The Eighth Grade Hawks wound up in a 51-51 tie after regulation play. But a fifth personal foul and an ankle injury sent the team's two high scorers to the bench, and City View finished with a 61-55 win.

Nick Black had scored 15 points before he drew his fifth foul with 4:30 remaining in overtime. And Shawn Campbell injured his ankle with about three minutes left, and was sidelined with 13 points to his credit.

In the game before the Eighth Graders', the Seventh Grade smothered City View 46-12. Todd Yeager racked up 11 points and Chad Wright had 10.

In the girls' games, the scores were almost identical: Seventh Grade 32-16; Eighth Grade 30-16.

Jennifer Nicholson led the Seventh Graders in scoring with 11, and Amanda Roberts had nine.

Lori Wiggins led the Eighth Grade team with 11, and Randi Tigrett had eight.

The girls' B teams are entered in a tournament Saturday at Holliday.

Monday, the boys' A and B teams will travel to Graham, where the first game is scheduled to begin at 4 p.m. The girls' A and B teams are to host Graham the same day, but the first game is to get underway at 5 p.m.

Lewisville coach Ronnie Gage says he sees a lot of similarity between this year's Southlake Carroll state championship football team and the Hawks of old. In a recent article in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, Gage said "They remind me of the old Iowa Park teams of the late '60s (which won state championships in 1969 and '70). They may be the greatest Class 3A team I've ever seen."

Camp Fire candy sales to begin Jan. 22

Hundreds of Camp Fire girls and boys will be knocking on doors in their neighborhoods beginning Friday, January 22 when the annual Camp Fire Council of North Texas Candy Sale begins.

For the fifth consecutive year, candy sellers will be offering three kinds of Brown & Haley Chocolates - Almond Caramel Clusters, Almond Roco, and Chocolate Covered Mints. They will also sell Almond Nuts in jars and a low calorie fruit candy named Natural Fruit Delights. Each kind sells for $3.00.

Candy Sale chairman for Iowa Park is Carla Dennison. Camp Fire leaders were instructed on details of the sale at a luncheon and dinner held in Wichita Falls last week. The sale ends on Feb. 7.

Camp Fire leaders will receive a t-shirt if their club averages 50 boxes sold for each registered member. The club will also earn money for their own group treasury and each area district.

Bettye Ricks, council executive director, said, "This sale is our one council-wide fundraiser. Besides helping the council in a monetary way, children are taught to approach the public, make and close sales, accomplish goals and manage money."

BROWN-CAVETT BACK & NECK CHIROPRACTIC

ARTHRITIS

Degenerative arthritis of the spine is one of the most common disorders that occurs, limiting function in persons over 50 years of age. Approximately 300,000 persons over 65 years of age are limited in their activities because of it. If everyone lives long enough, so it has been said, everyone will get degenerative arthritis. Degenerative arthritis however, does not have to mean a hopeless and ongoing painful condition.

While degenerative arthritis of the spine cannot be cured, the pain that accompanies it can often be improved with chiropractic treatment. Older Americans have learned this and have a very high rate of usage of chiropractic services. Researchers at the University of Iowa School of Medicine in a 1985 study of spinal pain of the 65 and over population, found that 75% had sought chiropractic treatment. In male subjects, more had seen chiropractors than medical doctors.

Chiropractic treatment seems to be effective for two reasons. The first is its ability to correct the spinal joint misalignments that are often the cause of pain. Degenerative arthritis weakens the spinal soft tissues that maintain joint alignment, causing frequent misalignment to these persons. The other reason chiropractic treatment is often helpful in degenerative arthritis, is that it is effective in regulating spinal pain. In a 1984 study in the American Journal of Physical Medicine, researchers reported a 140% improvement in spinal pain tolerance following chiropractic manipulation. In a related study, chiropractic manipulation was also found to elevate circulating level of endorphins, a powerful pain blocker released from the brain.

For many suffering from degenerative arthritis of the spine, chiropractic treatment can provide relief. No one should "just have to live with it" until they have tried chiropractic.

Oil Bowl to have Iowa Park flavor

Eventhough none of the players have yet been named, this year's edition of the Oil Bowl will have a distinct Iowa Park connection.

Among the four Texas coaches announced Friday will be former head coach Tommy Watkins and former assistant coach James Ivy.

Another coach is well known to Hawk football fans. He's Bill Froman, now an assistant at Rider High, but whose teams at Burk Burnett and Mineral Wells all competed against the Mean Green.

The fourth coach is Homer Johnson, athletic director for the Garland school system, where Watkins has been the head mentor of Lakeview Centennial the past six years.

Ivy is the head coach at Sanger.

While none of the Texas all-stars has been announced, an unofficial report has it that the son of a former Hawk will be asked to participate.

During an announcement meeting held in Wichita Falls Friday concerning the 57th Oil Bowl, which pits Texas and Oklahoma players, it was emphasized that the date has been changed.

Instead of being held in August, this year's contest will be played Saturday, June 19, in Memorial Stadium.

The charity all-star game is sponsored by the Maskat Shrine Temple. Watkins coached Iowa Park 12 years, winning the state championship in 1969 and sharing the title in 1970. He also coached six years at Andrews and six more at Uvalde.
