Streets, closing landfill atop council's agenda

Plans for three major projects to be completed this summer will be considered during Monday night's meeting of the city council.

The meeting is to begin at 7 p.m. in council chambers.

Two of the projects include streets, while the third is the closing of the city's sanitary landfill by October.

Bids for the concrete work portion of opening Park West through the 400 block, previously part of the shopping center's parking lot, are to be considered.

The concrete will be used for curb and guttering the sides of the newly-developed street, as well as lining a narrow median on which a single light standard will be located.

Permits near $1/2 million

For the second consecutive month, building permits issued by city hall were in the quarter-million-dollar range, raising the total for the year to $498,676.

February's permits were almost exactly the same as March, $235,105.

The total for the first three months of 1992 was only $94,590.

IN FOUR ELECTIONS

Early voting opens Monday

Early voting will commence Monday for four different elections to be held May 1.

Besides the annual city council and school trustee elections, there are two special state elections, one to name a new U.S. senator and the other is three proposed amendments to the state constitution.

Early voting, to conclude April 27, polls are: at city hall for the city election; school administration building for the school election; and at the Wichita County Agriculture Building, 220 W. Park, for the state issues.

Additionally, Wichita County Clerk Vernon Cannon said a mobile early voting poll will be at three different locations Tuesday in Iowa Park.

From 8:30 to 10 a.m., the unit will be at Heritage Manor; from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., at the Friendly Door; and from 2 to 5 p.m., at Wal-Mart.

Two of the three alderman positions are being challenged this year. Places and candidates include: Place One, Virgil Woodfin and Mike Sellers; Place Three, Bob Hamilton and Chris Powell; and Place Five, Mark Raby.

Woodfin, Hamilton and Raby are all incumbents seeking re-election.

Neither of the school trustee incumbents are being challenged. They are Randy Catlin, in Place Six, and Keith Fisher, Place Seven.

There are 24 candidates seeking election to the U.S. senate post vacated when Lloyd Bentsen accepted appointment to the president's cabinet as treasurer.

The successful candidate is to serve until the next general election in November.

The list of senatorial candidates, in order as they appear on the ballot, include Jack Fields, Lou Zaeske, Clymer Wright, Roger Henson, Jose Angel Gutierrez, Thomas D. Spink, Rose Floyd, Charles Ben Howell and Billy Brown.

Trustees support amendments

Iowa Park school trustees unanimously approved a resolution in support of three proposed amendments to the state constitutional to be voted on May 1, in a regular meeting Monday night.

The board voiced support for the three propositions, which relate to public schools.

Trustees also took action to approve emergency repairs to the high school football stadium. Electra Construction Co. was given the go ahead to begin work Tuesday morning.

Damage to three towers was inflicted during a heavy storm two weeks ago, blowing one tower completely down, and severely damaging two others. The remaining towers were also damaged but are not perceived as an immediate threat.

Because of the immediate danger of the two damaged towers, the track has been determined unusable.

Cost of the project is just over $39,000, and after co-insurance, the school will be liable for $29,000.

Repair work on the remaining towers is being planned.

In an interesting sidenote, Superintendent Glen Mitchell said the school will receive an unexpected pro-ration check from the state for $41,000, which will more than cover the cost of the project, without using budgeted funds.

Trustees unanimously approved career ladder payments of $1,500 for teachers at level two and $3,000 for teachers at level three.

A request by Floyd Spencer of the Iowa Park Soccer Assoc. to use the junior high football field for soccer practice failed, but the board voted to allow the team to use the junior high football practice field.

Following discussion concerning the football field, trustees Sheri Kennedy and Martha Dudley voted to approve the request, and Wendall House and Randy Catlin voted against it, with Max Henderson abstaining. Henderson then withdrew his abstention and voted against the request.

Denny McCarthy addressed the board during the open forum session. Items of discussion concerned completion of a bus barn and the need of a more effective discipline program for bus students. No action was taken.

During the superintendent's report, Mitchell told board members that total enrollment is up 68 students from this time last year.

Following executive session, board members voted to approve the contracts of all of the school district's auxiliary employees for the 1993-94 school year.

In other business, board members *recognized the junior high CVAE class for building sandboxes for the kindergarten classes at Kedwell Elementary. Junior High Principal Randy Lovelady also commended the class for the numerous projects the students had completed at the junior high campus.

*approved the transfer of a kindergarten student from City View School District at regular tuition.

*approved the bids for varsity athletic equipment for the 1993-94 school year.

*approved band equipment bids for the 1993-94 school year.

*approved the bid of $2,922 from Douglas Floor Co. of Wichita Falls to carpeting in the school administration.

As I See It

By Bob Hamilton

When are we ever going to become aware of what we are doing to our community and area when we throw things out the window of our vehicles?

I realize I've written on this subject more than once. But every time I join with others as volunteers to pick up litter along streets in the city, my blood boils.

Every time I bent over and picked up a piece of trash Thursday afternoon, along West Highway from Third Street to Johnson Road, I got hot under the collar.

You won't find many aluminum drink cans, now that they've got some salvage value. Someone is already picking those up.

But if we could get people to just take their plastic and styrofoam cups, their empty snuff cans, which were the most common items I picked up, and put them in the trash wherever they are going, instead of tossing them out the window, our roadsides wouldn't be so ugly.

I feel anyone who has ever gotten out and picked up litter along a roadside would never do something like that again, if they have in the past.

I know it certainly changed me, when we started doing the clean-up project several years ago.

Each year, there are several groups of students who participate in the campaign. That's great. I just wish more would help.

That's not to say they are the major contributors, but they've got their whole lives ahead of them. And starting them out the right way, maybe we could grow ourselves out of the problem.

It appears there are certain locations where most trash is disposed of: at intersections with stop signs.

I figure that's because whomever is throwing stuff out do it when the vehicle is stopped. Otherwise, wind through the window of a moving vehicle might mess up the litterer's hair!

Most of us became aware of roadside littering back when Lyndon Johnson was president. No, it wasn't LBJ who aroused our awareness, but his wife, Lady Bird.

Mrs. Johnson launched a national anti-litter campaign that created an awareness to a problem that had gotten out of hand.

Things improved for a few years. People quit littering, as they had been in the past.

But now, we only have a once-a-year awareness campaign in Texas. And our roadsides show it.

Wish we could get Lady Bird back on her horse again.

Maybe then, my back wouldn't ache a whole week every spring, after we've had our annual clean-up project here.

Strongly supports Prop. 2

On Saturday, May 1, you have the opportunity to help solve the problems plaguing Texas public schools by voting "yes" on three proposed state constitutional amendments. As a school trustee, I support all three amendments, but I am particularly concerned about the passage of Proposition 2.

All three amendments are critical public education issues. Proposition 1, authorizing redistribution of ad valorem taxes, is the first step toward solving the school finance equity crisis. Proposition 3, authorizing $750 million in state bonds will help fund desperately needed facilities to accommodate the growing number of Texas school children. But Proposition 2, which prohibits future unfunded state mandates, is more than just an education issue; it's an issue of fairness.

As a local school trustee and fellow property taxpayer, I have experienced firsthand the financial effect of unfunded state mandates on our school district and property tax rates. For years, the Legislature has handed down rules and regulations to Texas schools without providing the necessary level of funding to pay for them. As a result, school trustees, like me, have been forced to turn to you, the local taxpayer, to foot the public education bill by continually increasing your property taxes.

Last year alone, Texas districts spent at least $1.5 billion on only eight of the hundreds of state requirements handed down by lawmakers, many of which were paid for by increases in your property tax. It's time to put a stop to this buck-passing. Texans cannot allow state lawmakers to continue passing mandates they believe are important enough to require but not important enough to fund.

Proposition 2 puts the burden of funding back where it belongs, on the Legislature in Austin. It will help ease the local tax burden by making the state pick up its fair share of the bill for public education.

Proposition 2 is also a step toward future education equalization and only affects mandates enacted after December 31, 1993. It is not retroactive, and mandates such as class size limits and the teacher salary schedule will not be affected.

Proposition 2 will help ensure that the basic needs of all Texas schoolchildren are adequately funded. School districts will still be required to comply with federal health and safety requirements, such as those concerning special education and environmental hazards.

Proposition 2 is your opportunity to stop the Legislature from passing the tax buck back to the local property taxpayers and to send lawmakers a message: Texans will not perpetuate inadequate school funding and increasing property taxes. We will not allow the state Legislature to continue adopting rules without bearing the responsibility of finding funds to help pay for them.

Don't misunderstand me. I encourage our lawmakers to continue exploring ways to enhance the quality of Texas public education. And I believe that many legislative mandates are important. All I am asking is that the Legislature give us a way to pay for them.

As a school trustee, I encourage you to vote "yes" for all three constitutional amendments May 1. But proposition 2: Funding Future State Mandates is especially critical to increasing the state's funding of our public education system and decreasing your local property tax burden. Stop footing the bill for new state mandates with increases in your property tax, and help the state take the first step toward education equalization. Vote "yes" on Proposition 2.

Stewart, Louie C. Davis, Don Richardson, and Lottie Bolling Hancock.

Also, Kay Bailey Hutchinson, James Vallaster, Richard Fisher, Stephen Hopkins, Chuck Sibley and Robert (Bob) Krueger.

The three proposed amendments to the state constitution all relate to public education. They are:

Proposition One - "The constitutional amendment allowing limited redistribution of ad valorem taxes for schools, authorizing the legislature or local districts to set a minimum tax rate in county education districts, and placing a cap on the ad valorem tax levied by county education districts."

Proposition Two - "The constitutional amendment exempting a school district from obligation to comply with unfunded state educational mandates."

Proposition Three - "The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of $750 million in state general obligation or revenue bonds to assist school districts in partially financing facilities, authorizing the state to forgive payments of loans made to a school district for partially financing facilities, and repealing the authorization of $750 million in state revenue bonds guaranteed by the permanent school fund."

City

A priority list of proposed asphalt over-lay, slurry, valley gutter and alley return projects to be undertaken this summer will be considered.

The council has the past two years established priorities on street projects, and that list is followed until either the budgeted funds are expended or winter weather sets in.

Aldermen have indicated they have no alternative than to close the city's landfill, because of vastly-increased costs involving trash disposal requirements mandated by the Environmental Protection Agency.

Those regulations, which were passed through the Texas Water Commission for administration, will go into effect Oct. 9.

In order to meet all requirements of "Sub Title D," Iowa Park's average cost of burying a ton of trash would increase from $8 to $112, according to an engineer's study.

Negotiations continue between the cities of Iowa Park, Burkburnett and Vernon, to form a cooperative and establish a landfill operation to the west of Burkburnett.

Attempts to organize a regional landfill operation, to include all counties included in the Nortex region, have failed, and most smaller communities have turned to private companies for that service.

The only other items on the city's tentative agenda include: re-appointment of Don Kirkham to the Nortex 9-1-1 board of managers; authorizing the city administrator to advertise and accept bids for the sale of surplus equipment, and recognizing the city's Employee of the Month.

A reminder from this newspaper and the Treasurers of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Mrs. Bryan Ezzell

Lisa (Mrs. Bryan) Ezzell is a collector of cookbooks, but seldom goes by a recipe when she is cooking. Because of her busy lifestyle, Lisa cooks things that are quick and easy, and her microwave oven gets a lot of use.

She does a lot of experimenting in her cooking. In fact, her husband says they had been married five years before he had the same thing twice. Lisa said that "Lisa Hut Pizza," named by a friend, was a result of her experimenting and has become a family favorite. Also "Mexican Chicken" is a recipe she prepares often.

Lisa grew up in Iowa Park and graduated high school here. She attended Cisco Junior College, San Antonio College and Midwestern State University.

She met Bryan, a native of Rising Star, while she was attending college in Cisco. After their marriage, the Ezzells moved to San Antonio where they lived 10 years. When their two children reached school age, the Ezzells decided they wanted them to get their education in Iowa Park.

Lisa owns Financial Advantages, a financial service company, and Bryan is employed at Entex.

They have a 10-year-old son, Tiger, who is in the fourth grade at Bradford, a member of the Cub Scouts, and plays soccer. Their daughter Gynnalyn is a nine-year-old third grade student at Bradford. She plays softball and is a member of Camp Fire. Both children are involved in Bible Bowl at their church.

The Ezzells attend church at Loop 11 Church of Christ in Wichita Falls, and teach the junior high Bible class.

Lisa says that she loves to read, and likes to cook. She also does counted cross stitch and enjoys working with her computer. Bryan is a member of the Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Department and is studying to be a paramedic at Vernon Regional Junior College.

Quickie Mexican Chicken

- 4 cans white chunk chicken
- 8 oz. sour cream
- 1 can each:
 - cream of chicken soup
 - cream of mushroom soup
 - cream of celery soup
- 1 - 4 oz. can chopped green chilies
- 1 can Rotel tomatoes
- Flour tortillas
- Cheddar cheese, shredded

In medium size mixing bowl, combine drained chicken, drained chilies, sour cream, soups and Rotel tomatoes. Mix well.

In large microwave safe bowl (at least 2-quart) place just enough chicken mixture to cover bottom. Tear several tortillas into small pieces and layer on top of chicken mixture. Cover tortillas with a layer of cheese. (We prefer a thick layer of cheese). Continue to layer chicken, tortillas and cheese. On the last layer do not use tortillas. Use a thin layer of chicken and top with cheese.

Place bowl in microwave and cook on high for 3 to 4 minutes. Rotate bowl and continue to cook on high at 2 to 4 minute intervals until cheese has melted throughout.

Lisa Hut Pizza

Use any commercial (thick) pizza crust. Place thin layer of shredded Cheddar and Mozzarella cheese on bottom of crust. Spread a thin but solid layer of favorite pizza sauce on top of cheese. Cover this with your favorite pizza toppings (we like pepperoni or Canadian bacon with pineapple). Cover the toppings with another layer of pizza sauce and then both Cheddar and Mozzarella cheeses. Bake for appropriate time and temperature indicated on pizza crust instructions.

This makes a very thick pizza pie that requires a fork and lots of napkins.

Cheese Ball

- 16 oz. cream cheese
- 1/2 cup celery
- Seasoned salt to taste
- 1/2 cup pecans and/or 1/2 cup ham optional
- 1/2 cup bell pepper
- 1/2 cup purple onion

Mix all ingredients and form into ball. Refrigerate until ready to serve with chips, vegetables or crackers.

This has never made it to the "ball" stage at our family gatherings. We love it straight out of the bowl!

Bebaw Dogs

- 1 pkg. wieners
- 2 cans ranch style beans
- Hamburger buns
- Sauerkraut
- Mustard/Miracle Whip/horseradish sauce

Heat beans and sliced wieners until hot. Prepare hamburger buns with the condiment of your choice. Top with heaping spoonfuls of wiener and bean mixture. Top beans with spoonful of (hot or cold) kraut. Sandwich can be served either open faced or closed.

My family prefers "boring" Bebaw Dogs with mustard or Miracle Whip and no sauerkraut. However it is truly best with horseradish and sauerkraut. It is an acquired taste.

Poor Boy Sandwiches

At least 1/4 lb. of each:

- Pastrami
- Swiss cheese
- Smoked Turkey
- Smoked ham
- All sliced very thin.
- Shredded lettuce (must be shredded)
- Sliced tomatoes
- Chopped onion
- Italian dressing
- 1 loaf French bread

Slice loaf in half lengthwise. On bottom half, layer slices of emats and cheese, overlapping the individual slices. Cover with lettuce (don't squeeze moisture from the lettuce, it's "juiciness" adds lots of flavor), tomato slices and onions. You may also want to include black olive bits. Just before serving, drizzle dressing thickly over entire sandwich and top with top half of loaf. Slice diagonally to serve.

Chili Relleno Casserole

- 24 oz. chopped green chilies
- Monterey Jack cheese, shredded
- 1 1/4 cup milk
- Dash of salt and pepper
- 5 eggs
- Cheddar cheese, shredded
- 1/4 cup flour

Place half of chilies in the bottom of 9x13 pan. (Whole green chilies can be used. Be sure to rinse out the seeds). Cover with a layer of Monterey Jack cheese. Top with balance of chilies. Place the rest of the Jack cheese and all of the Cheddar cheese on top of the chilies. Mix eggs, milk, flour, salt and pepper until well blended. Pour mixture on top of chilies and cheese. Bake in a 350 degree oven about 45 minutes or until knife inserted comes out clean.

If you like a tomato flavor, spread a small can of tomato paste on top of chilies before you add the last layer of cheeses.

WHO'S HANDICAPPED?

I have been a volunteer for Special Olympics for several years and it was my privilege to be present for the area wide competition this past weekend at Shepherd Air Force Base. The athletes who participate face either a mental or physical handicap or both. Yet I wonder in another sense, who really are the handicapped?

The love these special people have for all is a pure genuine love. It is a love without hypocrisy. The love they possess is the love in action Paul describes in 1 Corinthians 13. The love in action culminates in a lot of hugs at Special Olympics and in their lives each day.

Joy at each accomplishment in life and especially at Special Olympics where the motto and practice is "Let me win, but if I cannot win, let me be brave in the attempt." The smiles, the laughter, the joy of a face that is all aglow and happiness beyond description manifest in the enthusiasm that demonstrates the zestful approach to life, whether at school, recreation, or work.

The forgiveness they are willing to extend to others when others either by accident or design are unloving in their actions toward them is something to behold. When an individual says those magic words, "I'm sorry and I want to be your friend," the "handicapped" extend the grace of forgiveness.

On and on I could go about these wonderful people we call "handicapped." As I observe the interaction among people, I wonder who the real handicapped truly are. These special folks are God's children who will enter the kingdom of heaven. (Matthew 18:3). By contrast, people many times forget about Christ-like attitudes. Think about it. Who are the real handicapped?

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Twenty-four candidates, representing six political parties, beat the March 31 deadline to qualify for the May 1 special election for the U.S. Senate.

Considered the front-runner is interim incumbent Bob Krueger, who was appointed by Gov. Ann Richards to the Senate seat vacated when Lloyd Bentsen became President Clinton's secretary of the treasury.

Krueger will face four Democratic opponents, 10 Republicans, six independents, one Libertarian, one member of the Socialist Workers Party and one member of the People's party.

School Finance Suit

Meanwhile, state Rep. John Culberson, R-Houston, announced he will file a lawsuit to nullify the results of the school finance proposition, contending that the measure deceives voters by not telling them that passage would allow the state to set local tax rates.

Supporters of the amendment, Proposition 1, denied Culberson's interpretation and decried his plan to take the issue to court.

General counsel John Tunnell of the secretary of state's office said his agency believes "the proposed ballot language is clearly sufficient. This has come up before on other amendments."

Culberson said his lawsuit would not affect Proposition 2 and 3, which deal with unfunded education mandates and funding for school facilities.

Chuck McDonald, the governor's deputy press secretary, called Culberson's threatened lawsuit "really ridiculous."

"The people of Texas are tired of lawsuits on school finance. It is incomprehensible to me that anybody would want to start a new round of legal action before we can even have the election," McDonald said.

Culberson said it was too late to stop the election, but he said he will seek temporary and permanent injunctions to keep the ballots from being tabulated and the election results from being certified as valid.

SOS raises $191,100

Save Our Schools, the group organized to pass the "share the wealth" school finance amendment also on the May 1 ballot, has raised $191,100 — almost 34 times the amount raised by the opposition.

"We're right on target," said Margaret Justus, spokeswoman for Save Our Schools. She said polling in March showed Texans support the school finance constitutional amendment by a 6-point margin.

According to campaign finance reports, Texans Against Robin Hood Taxes, which opposes the measure, has raised $5,685, largely from individuals.

The group call the amendment "Robin Hood" because it would shift $400 million annually in local tax revenue from property-rich districts to property-poor ones.

Trucking Compromise

Legislation aimed at stimulating trucking competition and make it easier for women- and minority-owned businesses to enter the industry has passed the Senate.

The action comes after the Senate, under pressure from Lt. Gov. Bob Bullock, drafted compromise legislation between trucking companies and shippers who contend more competition would lower their costs.

The bill, authored by Sen. Teel Bivins, R-Amarillo, would encourage competition by allowing more flexibility in rate-setting and shipping restrictions.

Health Bills Passed

Gov. Richards has indicated she will sign recently-passed bills that:

- Require hospitals and physicians to immunize children who have not been vaccinated for diseases such as measles and polio.

Richards said the bill would result in "a serious reduction in the number of childhood diseases."

- Authorize the Texas Department of Health to investigate possible environmental health threats, such as the concentration of birth defects in Cameron County.

Hawk game called for darkness

The Hawks opened their Dist. 4-AAA baseball campaign Tuesday at Vernon, but they still were unsure of the outcome Wednesday afternoon.

Despite having an extra hour of sunlight, after Daylight Savings Time went into effect Sunday, the game was called by officials because of darkness in the eighth inning.

When time was called, Iowa Park was leading 18-16, but there were two Lion runners on base and only one out.

Coach David Furhman said yesterday he was still unsure of how the called game would be ruled.

One University Interscholastic

League rule says the called game would be declared a half-game win for each team. But there could possibly be a local district rule for the situation.

But Furhman said he was checking with Dist. 4-AAA officials to see if the game can be resumed, at the point when it was called.

Vernon, like Iowa Park, does not have lights for its playing field.

Vernon jumped out to a 10-1 lead in the first inning, added two more in the third, three in the fourth, and a lone run in the fifth.

But the Hawks came clawing their way back, scoring four in the third, seven in the fourth, tying the score at 16-16 in the seventh, and adding their two cushion runs in the top of the eighth.

Neither team's pitchers had good control, Furhman said, as numerous batters walked for both sides.

Iowa Park's third pitcher, Jason Young, was working when time was called. He had followed starter Brent Brown and reliever Chad Thompson.

The Hawks are scheduled to play their first home game since Mar. 9, when they host Bowie Friday at 4 p.m. Tuesday, Breckenridge is slated to play here. In their final non-conference game of the season, Friday at Holliday, the Hawks suffered their fifth loss of the season, 8-3.

The Eagles, ranked second among AA teams in the state, out-hit Iowa Park 11-5, finding the range on pitches of Brown and Thompson.

Two of Iowa Park's hits were off the bat of Tony Lozipone, who collected a single and double.

Coach Furhman later pointed out the loss was the fourth suffered when senior center fielder Jason Miller was not in the lineup. Miller was on his way to the state powerlifting meet at Texas A&M Friday.

Going into Tuesday's game at Vernon, the Hawks' record was 7-5.

PLACES SECOND - Iowa Park High senior Jason Miller placed second Saturday in the 132-pound division of the state powerlifting meet, held at Texas A&M Univ. His total lift was 1,075 pounds, 20 less than first place. Two of his three lifts, 415 in the squat and 425 in the dead lift, were personal bests. Miller placed fifth in the meet last year, the first season Iowa Park participated in the sport.

District junior high meet held at Graham

The Seventh Grade Lady Hawks finished the highest of Iowa Park's four teams in Saturday's Dist. 4-AAA junior high track and field championship meet, held at Graham.

That group garnered 93 points to place third behind Vernon and Graham.

The Seventh Grade Hawks wound up in fifth place in the six-team field, and both Eighth Grade teams finished in sixth place.

The meet was to have been held in Hawk Stadium. But after a recent storm felled one of the light towers and flooded the track, it was moved to Graham.

Iowa Park placings in the meet included:
