Dutton, Williamson unseat school trustee incumbents

Two of the four incumbent school trustees seeking re-election were unseated by two newcomers in unusually heavy voting Saturday.

Because of the 109 early votes that had been cast, poll observers had predicted a heavy turnout. And it was, with 898 ballots in all counted.

In their first election as candidates, Larry Dutton defeated Wendall House for Place Two, and Bert Williamson defeated Sheri Kennedy for Place Three.

Dutton drew 536 votes to House's 352, and Williamson out-pollied Kennedy by a narrow 433-458 margin.

The voters returned Martha Dudley to Place One and Dennis Yeager to Place Five, however.

Dudley's margin also was narrow, edging challenger George Bushfield 420-384. The second challenger, Carmen Lozipone, received 78 votes.

resignation, and his election qualifies him to complete the term.

Of the 898 votes cast, 534 were counted in the Kidwell Elementary box, 204 at Bradford Elementary and 51 at the Valley View box.

Unlike the school board's election, none of the three candidates in the city election were challenged.

Wayne House was returned to his post as mayor, receiving 410 votes. That was the same count for Bud Mercer, who was returned as alderman.

The other incumbent alderman on the ballot, Johnny Crawford, drew 405.

Possibly because there was no competition in the city's election, only 17 early votes were cast before Saturday's election.

A total of 438 ballots were cast in the city's boxes, including 361 in Precinct 32 and 77 in Precinct 33.

Yeager led a field of four candidates for Place 5, and drew 375 votes. His closest challenger, Mike Swenson, was a close 238, while Pat Pelz and Mary Bidy finished in a near tie, with Pelz receiving 139 and Bidy 138, according to the final count.

This was Yeager's first victory at the polls, however. He had been appointed earlier by the board to fulfill the vacated seat left by Robert Cook's

Council delays action on proposed addition

The city council took no action Monday night on proposals requested by a developer of a planned new housing addition.

Richard Porter asked the city to furnish water, sewer, culverts and storm drainage, to his development, Highland Park Addition, which is north of US 287 and west of FM 368.

He also asked that the city allow him to use asphalt on the streets in the subdivision.

During Porter's discussion with the

DIE-HARD FANS had to cover up with umbrellas and jackets to stay for the completion of Tuesday's final district baseball game of the Hawks against Henrietta's Bearcats. Though light drizzle fell on the field and stands, the teams continued their play until it was called on the 10-run rule at the end of the sixth inning. A story on the contest is on page 13.

Changes highlight school board meeting

Monday night's school board meeting was one of changes, as two new board members were sworn in, a controversial change to the dress code was implemented and the resignations and hiring of three coaches were approved.

Two new board members and two incumbents were sworn in close to the end of the three hour meeting, after canvassing Saturday's election results.

Taking their oaths were place one incumbent Martha Dudley, who defeated Carmen Lozipone and George Bushfield in their bid for trustee; Larry L. Dutton, who defeated place two incumbent Wendall House; Bert Williamson, defeating Place three incumbent Sheri Kennedy; and place 5 incumbent Dennis Yeager, retaining his seat against Pat Pelz, Mary Bidy and Mike Swenson.

Organization of the new board followed with Keith Fisher elected as president, Dennis Yeager, vice president and Martha Dudley, secretary.

Superintendent Glen Mitchell presented Kennedy and House framed certificates in appreciation of their years of service to the school board.

In what some are calling a controversial move, the school board unanimously approved a suggested policy change in the junior high and high school dress code to allow the length of shorts worn to be no more than two inches above the knee when the student is standing.

Following two district dress code committee meetings, the policy for the two campuses stood firm, with the length of shorts worn being no higher than the top of the knee.

Many parents at the committee meetings expressed dissatisfaction with this part of the dress code, the main complaints being it was unreasonable and did not allow for growing room.

Late last week, at the request of a committee member, the entire dress code committee was asked to reconsider the vote to stay with the present dress code policy. By phone, the majority of the committee members voted to change the policy to allow the length of shorts to be worn at two inches above the knee.

Dennis Brooks, high school vice principal and member of the dress code committee, read a letter to the board signed by each member of the junior high faculty, supporting the original dress code. He said the committee is working on changing disciplinary action concerning violations of the dress code, and will present those to the board when they are complete.

Following a 45-minute executive session, board members accepted the resignations of coaches John Hoelter, James Skeeler and Rick Barker, and Kidwell Elementary cafeteria supervisor Edith French.

Three coaches, all coming from Wimberley High School, were then hired to fill the vacancies. Bruce Merrell, a coach and teacher of 17 years, with a masters of education was hired. His fields include history, physical education and health. Chris Ellis, a seven year veteran with a bachelor of science degree, was hired. His field includes history, physical education and geography. Dick Smith, a math and physical education teacher with nine years experience was also hired. He holds a bachelor of science degree.

Also on the agenda during open session was "employee hearing." Following executive session, it was announced that the grievance hearing, requested by former athletic director Robert Clensay, was being postponed to give both sides further time to prepare.

The meeting began with a reception honoring "Friendly Door Readers," a group of senior citizens from Friendly Door who come to Kidwell Elementary on a regular basis and reading to the students.

Mrs. Patricia Costello, kindergarten teacher, headed up an impressive recognition ceremony for the readers, in honor of her grandmother, the late Ora Mae Cummings, who started the program a few years ago.

Recognized were the late Mildred Moore, Lucille Holm, Vivian Lily, Daphna Hodges, Eleanor Bell, Rowena and Gene Rice, Doris Broyles, Margaret Sheets, Friendly Door director Sherry Woods, drivers Linda Bowden and Florene Henderson, and the Friendly Door Board of Directors.

Mrs. Costello and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cummings, then presented Kidwell Principal Mike Hoover a plaque with the honorees names engraved on plates, as well as blank plates for future readers.

The proposed 1994-95 school calendar was approved with a 5-2 vote. Mrs. Linda Gray presented the calendar to the board, emphasizing that academics was the main consideration of the committee when making out the new calendar.

The most obvious change to the calendar was the Christmas holidays, which will begin Dec. 22 and end Jan. 9., which is later than in previous years. It was explained that the committee agreed to end the first semester with Christmas vacation, to reduce the failure rate at the secondary level. Balanced semesters are also on proposed calendar.

Linda Gray explained that the committee took the requests of the staff into consideration during the planning, but the main concern of the committee was how the calendar would affect the academic progress of the students.

Athletic Director Weldon Nelms addressed the board, asking that provisions be made in the latter part of that holiday to accommodate the girls basketball team, which will begin bi-district play Jan. 6. He said it would be difficult for the team to begin play competitively with that little preparation.

In other business, trustees recognized band directors Greg Miller and Ed Hefti for the band winning the Sweepstakes honor 11 consecutive years.

Trustees also approved use of the Iowa Park High School gym this summer by the Iowa Park High School Lady Hawks and junior Lady Hawks, who will be participating in the Wichita Falls Area Girls Summer League.

Iowa Park police recovered most of the interior of a customized Suburban from the room of a home at 403 E. Pecan Saturday evening.

And it all came about because of a telephone call to Wichita Falls police concerning an alleged assault underway.

The Wichita Falls dispatcher alerted the local police, believing the address given was in Iowa Park, not in that city.

When the local officer responded, he was greeted at the door by a woman with a surprised look on her face, and she explained no assault was taking place there.

Department procedure in such cases is to ask to check out the area, just to make sure nothing is wrong, and the woman reportedly agreed to the inspection.

When the officer entered one of

As I See It...

A woman was signing a check the other day and asked for the date. I told her, and she asked me "What happened to April?"

I told her not to worry about April, I'm still trying to figure out what happened to the past 62 years!

You think time doesn't fly? Try this. According to the school calendar, there are only eight more days of classes after today.

That's right. Classes are slated to meet Monday through Thursday the next two weeks. Fridays are "off" days for the students.

And graduation is only two weeks away.

I'm convinced that time passes slowly only for those who have the time to sit and wonder what they're going to do next.

If you keep busy you're left wondering how you're going to get all the things done you need or want to do.

There was an event I was really looking forward to attending, earlier this spring. Man, I couldn't wait. And the next thing I knew, it had passed, and I had been busy and overlooked it until a couple of weeks had passed.

I guess that's where the comment originates that I get from friends who have retired.

For months, and even years, leading up to their retirement date, they would tell me about how they were going to sit back and relax, once they didn't have their work to do.

But, it seems that those same friends have found so many things they wanted to do, they didn't have the time to sit back and relax.

"I'm working harder now than I was when I was on the job," several have told me.

That is probably the reason we are often told to not worry about things. Take them as they come.

My only problem is, there are too many things that come... and they all seem to be either at the same time or in such rapid succession that I don't have time to worry about them.

council, Mayor Wayne House said coordinating the drainage and other issues with the Department of Public Transportation was difficult, and asked him to do the coordinating himself.

House explained that the city is in the middle between the developer and the highway department, and actions and time expended could be simplified if Porter were to do it himself.

Though the plat contains 214 lots, Porter asked that the southern half of the addition be annexed initially.

He told the council the highway department was limiting the number of entrances off FM 368 to the addition to only three, instead of the six which were platted, and asked the city to provide those culverts.

The council had earlier verbally agreed, but not voted, to extend water and sewer to the development.

Because the total cost to provide those services by the city were estimated between $120,000 and $160,000, Alderman Bob Hamilton questioned the city's investment to a new development.

Hamilton asked how many homes would it take over a period of time for the city's investment to be returned. He also said the developers, not the city, had stood the expense of culverts to housing additions in the past.

Alderman Johnny Crawford said there would be no objections to using asphalt on the streets, as long as it was done to the city's specifications. He asked, however, that when Porter got bids for the street work, that an alternate of using concrete should be sought for consideration.

Crawford asked that Porter consider limiting the city's total investment for the subdivision to $110,000, and Porter countered that $120,000 would be his lowest asked.

Porter agreed to coordinate with the highway department on drainage requirements. Most of the platted area drains to the southeast, passing underneath US 287 and into Gordon Lake.

Other business of the council's during the evening included:

- * approving a resolution authorizing Lifeline Emergency Medical Services to assign the ambulance contract service to Careline, Inc.;

- * approved a resolution authorizing the mayor to execute a $32,677 loan from State National Bank to purchase a truck chassis and cab for the fire department;

- * named Tammie Coats as the city's Employee of the Month;

- * heard a proclamation by the mayor designating May 15-21 as Optimist Bicycle Week in Iowa Park;

- * and, agreed to hold budget work sessions on three future Mondays, including June 6, 20 and July 18.

Two men were arrested on charges of public intoxication Friday evening in the 300 block of North Yosemite.

They were Joel C. Duran, 32, and Israel Alvarez Lespron, 36. Both were later released after paying their fines, according to records.

An officer was called Friday night to Woodbriar Apartments, where an argument was reportedly underway between two women.

The result was the arrest of Linda Marie Duffy, 30, on charges of disorderly conduct and assault. She was released after paying fines on both charges.

One theft over $200 complaint was received by the department during the past week. A student at the high school told police Friday afternoon his bicycle had been stolen from where he had parked it on the campus.

Plant cotton next Monday

Monday, May 16, has been recommended by the Wichita County Extension Field Crops committee members as the 1994 cotton planting date.

"Uniform planting dates have worked for several years here," says County Agent David Finley. "I would urge producers to keep the May 16 date."

BRADFORD

Students to attend history fair at junior high

All Bradford students will attend a history fair at the junior high school today.

The fair called "Yore Rendezvous II - a blast from the past," is being put on by the eighth grade Challenge History Class and the Speech Class. This is the second year for the junior high to host this event.

Second Grade to visit

Second grade students from Kidwell Elementary will visit the Bradford campus next Monday.

The pupils will walk through and receive orientation in preparation for attending school here next year.

Hawaiian Luau

Students are asked to wear bright-colored shirts to school next Tuesday in preparation for a Hawaiian Luau.

In keeping with the theme, they will eat sack lunches outdoors.

G/T students to visit Oklahoma City

The third and fourth grade Gifted and Talented students will take a field trip Tuesday to Oklahoma City.

They will visit the Kirkpatrick Center for the same type of "camp-in" that the fifth grade had in April, but this group won't stay overnight.

Jazz Band to play for assembly

The high school jazz band will play Tuesday morning at 8:30 for an assembly of Bradford students.

In addition to playing good music, the band members will describe their instruments, and give examples of how they are played.

Track and Field day

On May 19, the students will participate in Track and Field Day at Bradford.

The competition will take place outdoors, and parents are welcome to bring their lawn chairs and watch.

KIDWELL

Teacher of the Week

Yeada Gunter, remedial reading and math teacher, is recognized as Kidwell's Teacher of the Week.

A native of Waco, she received her degree from Midwestern State Univ. She has taught at Kidwell two years.

Mrs. Gunter has a daughter, Tracie Williams. Tracy and her husband, Tommy, have two children, Sheldon, 2 years old, and Macy, six months old.

In her spare time, Yeada enjoys horseback riding, watching rodeos, reading, working the yard and babysitting her grandchildren.

Jazzy Day

The Iowa Park High School Jazz Band came to Kidwell Tuesday. They played for the students and taught them about instruments.

Blast from the Past

The entire Kidwell student body will visit the junior high Thursday for Pioneer Days.

During the days, the children will learn about the way things used to be done, including making soap, home-made bread and laundry washing.

Pre-K Enrollment

Kidwell is ready for Pre-Kindergarten enrollment for the 1994-95 school year.

To be eligible for this class children must be four years old by Sept. 1, 1994, and be eligible for free or reduced lunches.

Parents who are interested in placing their children in Kidwell's pre-kindergarten class should go to the Kidwell office where they will need to fill out forms, show proof of income, shot records, social security card and a birth certificate.

History fair at junior high today

"Yore Rendezvous II - a blast from the past," will be held from 8 a.m. - 2 p.m. today on the practice field at the junior high school.

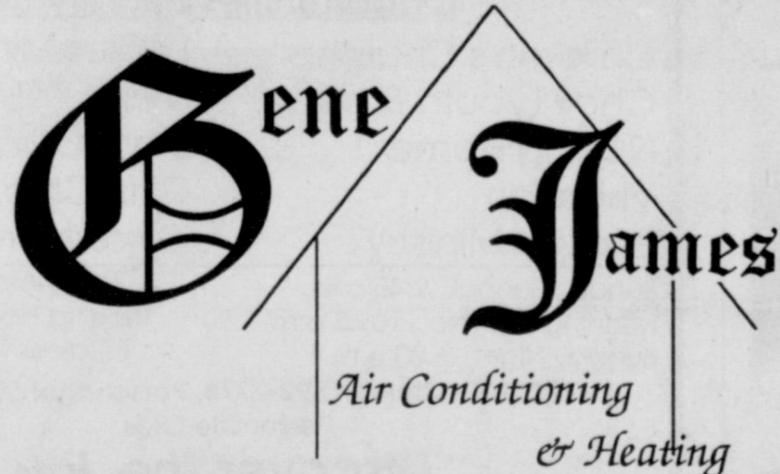

This will be the second year for the event, put on by the eighth grade Challenge History Class of Sheila Gholson, and the Speech Class of Joni Woods.

A sampling of the booths include: Jan and Art Bitner with an antique tractor exhibit; Dairy school from Stephenville; Ronny Wells, horsehoecing; North Texas Mountain Men; Midway Fish Farm and Texas Parks and Wildlife will have a booth with the emphasis on fishing, and Jack Stevens, Karen Foster and Edward Myers will provide carriage rides.

LIBRARY NEWS

LIBRARY TOURS

Kidwell Elementary first graders will be taking a tour of the library Monday morning.

If your child does not have a library card, we ask that you take a few minutes to stop by and fill out an application card, using the parent's drivers license number and date of birth on the reverse side. Your child will receive a card that will last for three years. Just imagine how many hours of enjoyment they would receive.

"FAMILIAR FACES & FAR AWAY PLACES"

This is the theme for this year's summer reading program. We will start this summer's busy schedule with registration begin held Thursday, June 2, from 10 a.m.-12 noon.

Begin the summer with us, as we enjoy a special program presentation with Gerald Edmondson sharing with us how "Reading is Magic", at 10 until 10:45 a.m.

He will help the children understand that reading is the way to knowledge and a source of life-long enjoyment. Come and enjoy as he takes us "Around the World with Magic".

This is a magical travel log with magic and sleight of hand performed from the mystical lands of China, India and Japan. He will share with us how to travel anywhere you wish and never leave your own home.

We will combine our "School's Out" party and the Summer Reading Registration. Following our program we will provide FREE hot dogs, chips and beverages.

Our first week will find us visiting with Familiar Faces, as we have invited Mr. Woods and McGruff, DPS Robot, and Laura Perkins and Ray Smock to share information Tuesday, June 8, and Thursday, June 10. A summer schedule of events will be available for this program at registration.

Make plans to come and participate, with the program ending Aug. 1

BOOK SALE BENEFITS

If you have not been in the library in the past week or so, we invite you to come and check out the new free-standing globe located in the reference area. Also a new tape player was purchased for Storytime purposes.

Both of these items were made possible because of the success of the book sale.

READERSAURUS CERTIFICATES

Please come in and pick yours up if you have forgotten about them.

SPORTS TRIVIA

Why is the seventh-inning stretch held in the seventh inning?

The practice, which takes place before the home team comes to bat, became popular in 1860 because the number seven is considered lucky.

Where and when was the first recorded baseball game?

On June 19, 1846, at Elysian Fields in Hoboken, N.J., the New York Club beat the Knickerbockers, 23-1. On that date, another baseball tradition began: The New York Club pitcher, James Whyte Davis, was fined six cents for swearing at the umpire.

VIDEOS

The library has purchased a new video with patron donations. The title is "Skylark" and is the sequel to "Sarah, Plain & Tall."

NEIGHBORS

A&C SHOW IN HENRIETTA

The Henrietta Volunteer Fire Dept. will sponsor an arts and crafts show Saturday, May 21, at St. Mary's Parrish Hall, located on Highway 82.

Youth to lead worship Sunday at First United Methodist Church

"Reach Out and Touch Someone" is the theme of the youth-led worship service at 10:40 Sunday morning at First United Methodist Church.

"Clowns for Christ", a new youth ministry of the church, will be in charge of the entire service. This group is composed of 14 junior and senior high school students. However, some who will be performing for the service are not in the Clowns for Christ group.

Included on the program will be the junior and senior high handbell choir and a trumpet solo. A band ensemble will present prelude music and a choral ensemble will sing, "Lean On Me" for the anthem.

The youth will present the children's sermon as well and the regular morning sermon.

The entire program will be in charge of Stephanie Roberts, youth director, assisted with the Clowns for Christ group by Linda Merrick and with the music by Rex and Vickie Seigler.

The public is invited to attend and encourage the young people in their efforts.

Mrs. Ernest Ferguson

Our featured cook this week, Bernice Ferguson, and her husband Ernest have lived in Iowa Park nine years. They own and operate Ebo Electronics, a TV and VCR repair shop.

Between them, they have eight children and 17 grandchildren. Two daughters, a son, and seven of their grandchildren live in Iowa Park.

Music plays a big part in their lives. They are members of the Church of the Nazarene in Burkburnett and play in the church band. Ernest plays bass guitar, Bernice plays drums, a daughter plays the flute, and another daughter plays the fiddle. Bernice's mother-in-law plays the organ. Sometimes the family plays special music for the services, and Ernest and his two daughters also sing.

The Fergusons like to square dance, and belong to the Boomtown Yellow Rockers square dance group, and Ernest is a member of the North Texas Men's Chorus.

In addition to the family business, Bernice works at Kings Kids Christian Day Care. She is also church secretary and teaches a pre-teen group at the Church of the Nazarene.

Bernice likes to sew, do craft work, and is a collector of carousels. She is a member of the TOPS Club in Burkburnett.

In addition to all of these activities, they are planning to build a new home this summer, and next fall, Bernice will enroll at Midwestern State

COOK OF THE WEEK

University and begin work toward a degree.

Ernest will graduate from MSU Saturday evening with a BA degree in Applied Arts and Science. Next fall he will begin work on his masters degree.

Bernice said the recipes she brought in are ones that they fix most frequently, and many of them were included in their church cookbook that came out several years ago.

Old Valley Farms Community House site becomes Cowboy Church

By MYRNA SMITH

You like country? Plain country? How about country gospel music?

You can find it all in the Cowboy Church of Iowa Park that currently is meeting at the Wichita County Mounted Patrol Arena, but soon will be meeting in a new building.

Since Easter 1993, five to eight of the members have been volunteering their work every Saturday, or as they can, to constructing the building on a historical site.

A number of unusual circumstances have occurred, beginning with purchase of the site. When the building is completed, it will look very similar to the original structure, former location of the Wichita Valley Farms Community House that was constructed about 1936.

A lot of history went up in smoke when the building burned to the ground Aug. 28, 1988, with only the foundation and brick chimneys at each end of the building left standing.

In 1934 the 91-unit farm community was built on 5,543 acres of land southeast of Iowa Park by the Roosevelt Federal Emergency Relief Administration. It was an experimental relief measure for deserving tenant farmers to get a fresh start after being pushed off the land during the depression.

The 5,090 square foot wooden frame structure had a covered porch with white columns and was built on 1.6 acres of ground to be utilized by the families on the 91 farms. There also was a community store, frozen food lockers, a cotton gin and a house for the supervisor.

Farmers contributed $5 each and bought the community house from the government.

The extra buildings had been gone several years, but the community house remained and was used for social events, as well as business meetings for farmers, home demonstration club meetings where women of the community met to quilt, make rugs and mattresses, reupholster furniture and hold showers.

Also reunions of the original and current Valley Farms dwellers were held there. A lot of middle aged former Iowa Park students can remember dances there and class reunions. And, it was used for slumber parties for 4-H and Girl Scouts, volleyball games and all night parties.

In later years it was used for dances by various organizations and at one time one end of the building was a club where alcoholic beverages were served.

In 1987 the community house was turned over to the Farmers Home Administration. In 1988 FHA sold the property by sealed bid. It was purchased by Monte Beasley Real Estate.

It seems an interception came at this point. Beasley received the deed to the building on Friday before the building was burned Saturday, possibly by arsonists.

This historic site and a portion of the original building will now be used for an entirely different purpose than it ever was before, for a church.

The Cowboy Church of Iowa Park first began meeting at Blackwell's Indoor Arena with services twice a month. Later they were meeting each Sunday.

Then a number of the cowboys began meeting at the Mounted Patrol Arena. Sometimes in summer they would meet under the trees by the river, near the rodeo arena.

When they first began meeting at the arena, about 30 attended. Now there are 60-70 in regular attendance each Sunday. May 1 there were 175 in attendance.

The preacher is Ricky Allen, a cowboy, who shoes approximately 30 horses a week. His wife, Jody, is a barrel racer, rodeo performer and country gospel singer. For a pulpit, Allen uses one made of horseshoes welded together.

The Allens live in Saint Jo and come to Iowa Park each Sunday. Jody leads singing for the Sunday meetings.

One Sunday when he came he told the men they needed to start looking for a place to build. He explained he "had a vision" that it was time for them to build a building.

Mike "Booger" Walsh, a member of the Cowboy Church, thought about the burned down community house and suggested they check about that location. A group of men went over to check out the site and pray about it. They began to check to see if they could buy it. At Easter time 1993 the deal was closed for a price of $10,000.

Even to their own amazement, the property was paid for in six weeks.

Walsh said, "From then on it seems that everything just falls into place once we've decided what to do."

"For instance," Mike continued, "the building has 10-foot ceilings. We went to the lumber yards to buy 10-foot siding, only to be told they couldn't remember when they had had any 10-foot siding. In a day or two, Bryan (Choate) got a call from one of the lumber yards that some 10-foot siding had come in and he didn't know why, he hadn't ordered it."

Walsh has owned horses since he was two years old. He rode bulls in rodeos about 10 years, worked on ranches, and broke horses since he was 13 year old, for himself and other people.

He still breaks his own horses and owns several registered Quarterhorses from three top bloodlines. Walsh serves as an elder of the Cowboy Church of Iowa Park. His wife Carla is secretary-treasurer.

Walsh said Choate, a Wichita Falls building contractor and a bull rider, has been the main one to tell the volunteers what to do, in addition to volunteering his work. He also has let them borrow some of his power tools to work with, and has been responsible for getting some of the lumber.

When the first part of the building is finished, it will have 16 ceiling fans, and a baptistry will be built in the south wall. Flooring is nearing completion.

May is month to salute nation's senior citizens

"This May, as we observe Older Americans Month, we salute the contributions of the nation's senior citizens and commit ourselves to enhancing their quality of life," said Greg White, Social Security manager in Wichita Falls.

The theme for each year's observance is chosen by the Administration on Aging, and this year the theme is "Celebrating Long Life and Good Health."

Older Americans Month has been celebrated each May since the passage of the Older Americans Act in 1965.

Government agencies and community and civic organizations that provide services for the elderly traditionally use this occasion to increase the public awareness of the services they provide for older persons.

"One of the most important links that older Americans have to their government is Social Security," said White.

"Retired workers and their spouses can depend on Social Security for a steady monthly income. Here in the Wichita Falls service area, senior citizens, age 65 and older receive $15,354,000 each month in Social Security benefits.

"Medicare also helps protect them against the high cost of health care. And Social Security survivors insurance provides monthly benefits to older widows and widowers, as well as to young families of deceased workers," White added.

He noted that today, people 65 and over account for an increasing percentage of the U. S. population, having grown at a rate more than twice the rate of the general population during the 1980s.

The trend will accelerate as the "baby boom" generation begins to reach retirement age in the early part of the 21st century.

State Capital

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams and Ed Sterling
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — State money taken away from wealthy school districts could be used to help poorer districts build classrooms, according to Sen. Bill Ratliff, chairman of the Senate Education Committee.

At a meeting last week, Ratliff, R-Mount Pleasant, said $65.4 million from the Available School Fund could be retargeted from Texas' wealthiest districts to poorer districts.

But the state constitution would have to be amended for the fund to be redistributed, requiring two-thirds approval by the state Legislature and voter approval on a state ballot.

Ratliff said the idea is an option being considered by the committee, which is under a court order to find a fair way to finance the building of schools by Sept. 1, 1995.

Earnings from the state school trust fund and motor fuel taxes go into the $1.2 billion Available School Fund, which is distributed to school districts by the formula of $335 per student. Monies allocated from the fund are used for school construction and to pay for textbooks.

State District Judge Scott McCown, who oversees the ongoing battle over school funding, has said that money from the Available School Fund that is sent to rich districts has a "disqualifying" effect on the use of state funds.

Drug Questions Irrelevant
Republican gubernatorial candidate George W. Bush said last week questions about whether he had ever used illegal drugs are irrelevant.

Bush, who was campaigning on criminal justice issues in Lubbock, said his past personal life makes no difference in his campaign to unseat Gov. Ann Richards.

"What I did as a kid? I don't think it's relevant, nor do I think what Ann Richards did as a kid," Bush said. "I think what matters is my view on prisons, welfare reform and education."

At a stop at the Lubbock County jail to promote his plan to build prison tent camps to help ease jail crowding, Bush fielded questions about drug use after a report in the Houston Chronicle in which he declined to say whether he had ever used illegal drugs.

"Maybe I did, maybe I didn't. What's the relevance?" Bush told the newspaper in an interview published early last week.

"Did I behave irresponsibly as a kid at times? Sure did. You bet."

Bush has acknowledged that he drank too much. But has said he did not have an alcohol problem and quit drinking in the mid-1980s.

He said what matters in the gubernatorial race is how the candidates behave as adults.

"I'm not going to make it an issue with Richards," Bush told the newspaper. "She did not answer the question last time, and I understand."

Richards, a recovering alcoholic, refused to say in the 1990 governor's race whether she had ever used illegal drugs.

Presidential Insights
Meanwhile, spokeswomen for the gubernatorial candidates tossed out insults about presidents — past and present.

Responding to reports that President Clinton would appear at a Washington fund-raiser for Gov. Richards last week, Bush spokeswoman Deborah Burston-Wade said the governor should invite Clinton to Texas to campaign so Texans "can see who her friends are and how little they agree with mainstream Texas."

Richards' spokeswoman replied that unlike Bush — whose father was defeated by Clinton — Richards "doesn't need to campaign on the coattails of any president — former or current."

State Begins A&M Audit
State Auditor Lawrence Alwin has mustered the troops for an audit of management controls of the $1 billion Texas A&M University and A&M System.

Alwin is responding to a March 31 request by Sen. Carl Parker, D-Port Arthur.

"In light of recent revelations of alleged wrongdoing, I formally request that you undertake immediately an audit of all Texas A&M University support facilities and auxiliary services," wrote Parker.

Audit Manager Cathy Smock of the state auditor's office said the audit was expedited at Parker's request and because of "other concerns."

Nine months ago, Texas Rangers began a criminal investigation into allegations that A&M regents Chairman Ross D. Margraves Jr. and other administrators may have used their positions for personal gain or to benefit their businesses or political associates. Margraves denied wrongdoing and resigned in April.

An audit of A&M's food services department has been under way for months.

Other Highlights

■ Max Sherman, a former state Senator and current dean of the LBJ School of Public Affairs at the University of Texas, has been named to the Texas Board of Human Services. Gov. Richards picked Sherman to fill the unexpired term of Cassandra Carr of Austin, who resigned.

■ President Clinton has declared the tornado-ravaged areas of southern Dallas County and Gainesville federal disaster areas. The action enables residents and business owners in the affected areas to apply for grants and low-interest loans.

■ Exports from Texas rose 4.6 percent in 1993 to $52.2 billion, with the total going to Mexico rising 8.2 percent to $20.4 billion, the Texas Department of Commerce reported. Shipments to Mexico now account for 39.1 percent of total Texas exports.

GARDENING HINTS

By MARK TERNING, COUNTY AGENT - HORTICULTURE

Recent rainfall and warmer weather are signals to begin establishing warm-season lawns, and colorful landscapes.

May is a perfect month for planting warm-season flowers for color all summer. Follow this garden check list for your garden activities during the month.

PLANTING

* Establish warm-season lawns from seed, sod, plugs or hydro-mulching.

* Plant warm-season annuals for summer color. Local nurseries have excellent supplies of plants. Sun areas: Penta, Marigold, Copper Plant, Lantana, Geranium, Verbena, Firebush, Petunia, moss rose, zinnias. Shade areas: Coleus, Caladiums, Impatiens, Begonia.

* Use tropicals for color in containers or beds. Try bougainvillea, hibiscus, mandevilla, and many others.

* Establish ground covers in heavily shaded areas. Try mondo grass, ajuga, English Ivy, vinca minor, and asian jasmine.

* Plant warm-season vegetables such as tomato, pepper, vine crops, okra, and southern peas.

* Install container grown trees and shrubs for landscape improvement and shade.

FERTILIZERS

* Use slow-release fertilizers such as Osmocote in container potting mixes.

* Apply a 3-1-2 or 4-1-2 ratio slow-release nitrogen lawn fertilizer to warm-season lawns in late May. This same plant food is excellent for trees, shrubs and groundcovers.

* Fertilize tomato plants when first fruit is about the size of a dime. Use a 21-0-0 fertilizer at a rate of one teaspoon per plant. Water after the application. Repeat the application every two weeks.

PRUNING

* Prune climbing roses after their main flush of blooms this spring.

* Mow warm-season lawns every five to seven days.

* Pinch-prune chrysanthemums every month to maintain a well-shaped plant.

WEED, PEST CONTROL

* Control broadleaf weeds in lawns with a broadleaf weed killer such as Wipeout or Weed-B-Gone.

* Fleas and ticks in yard areas can be suppressed with applications of diazinon, dursban, or Yardex.

* Elm leaf beetle can be controlled with Sevin, Dursban, or Orthene. (Do not apply Orthene to American Elm.)

* Unusual galls or swellings on oak trees and pecan trees are caused by certain insects. There are no control applications which will eliminate these galls at this time of year.

* Pecan nut casebearer sprays should be applied between May 25 and June 5. Malathion is an appropriate product for homeowners.

Note: Follow all label directions and rates when using any pesticide or fertilizer.

There's a thief hiding in your yard.

It's called inefficiency. And every year, it robs homeowners of thousands of dollars in energy costs. Whether it's a heating and cooling system, refrigerator or water heater, the fact of the matter is, if your equipment is inefficient, it's costing you money. And it's no wonder. After all, newer models have a much higher efficiency rating.

Hawks return to playoffs

Victories earn second place in District 4-AAA

Coach David Fuhrman's Hawks are returning to the state baseball playoff scene once again.

But which school, when and where that first game will be will remain a question until this weekend.

Iowa Park closed out its regular season with a pair of shutouts, and earned the Dist. 4-AAA runner-up position.

The Hawks blasted Graham, last year's district champion, 8-0, Friday on the Steers' home field, and then closed out the schedule with a 10-0 revenge victory over Henrietta Tuesday.

So now, it's a wait-and-see situation on who the next opponent will be.

Brownfield is leading its district with a 7-1 record. The Cubs are to face one of the conference's lesser clubs Friday, and then play a major make-up contest Saturday against Denver City, which holds second place at 6-2.

Saturday's game will decide which team will take on Iowa Park.

If Brownfield wins, Fuhrman says that club doesn't want to play at Hardin-Simmons Univ. field in Abilene, because of previous losses. Another site would have to be decided, including flipping for here or Brownfield.

Should Denver City win the district's title and become the Hawks' opponent, the H-S stadium would be likely.

Whichever, Iowa Park's next game most likely will be next Thursday.

Fuhrman was working on scheduling a practice game with Holliday for this weekend, but no details were available at presstime.

Tuesday's regular season finale with Henrietta was called after six innings on the 10-run rule. And the weather didn't inspire playing any longer.

The Bearcats, who came from behind in the April 22 meeting to win 6-5 at Henrietta, didn't have a pitcher with any control in their game Tuesday.

That was evident by the fact that the Hawks had only four hits.

Catcher Clint Scobee had two of those hits, also, including a two-run double in the third inning that gave the Hawks some breathing room with a 3-1 lead.

The other two hits were off the bats of Brent Brown, who pitched most of the game, and Rudy Hawkins.

The win gave Iowa Park a season record of 16-8, which is an improvement over the Hawks' 14-7-1 slate at the end of last year's schedule.

Iowa Park continued in the '93 playoffs all the way to the state tournament, where they finished in a tie for third place among AAA schools.

Vernon earned the conference championship with a 9-0 record this season. The Lions are 15-7 on the year.

Graham's home field didn't prove any better for the Steers against the Hawks than when the two teams met here earlier.

Iowa Park dumped Graham 8-0 to keep in the playoff hunt.

Jason Young went the distance on the mound for the Hawks, giving up only two hits.

Five of Iowa Park's eight hits off Steer pitching were by three players. Brown had a pair, including his fourth homerun of the season.

Charles Bradberry had a couple, which credited him with a pair of RBIs, and Jason Maxwell one.

Section of seats reserved for Iowa Park at Oil Bowl

Possibly for the first time since the Oil Bowl has been played in Wichita Falls, Iowa Park football fans will have an opportunity to set together this year. Seven rows in one section have been reserved until June 2 for Iowa Park, and those tickets are available at four locations here.

Besides watching some of the best graduated high school players Texas and Oklahoma had this school year, Hawk fans will have the opportunity to watch one of their own.

Brent Brown was named to the Texas roster of the June 18 game.

Tickets for Section W, which is on the west side of Memorial Stadium, are available at $9 per person at Scobee's, K & K, Iowa Park Leader and Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce.

Any remaining unsold tickets will be returned to Wichita Falls after the June 2 deadline.

LEGAL NOTICE

COMBINED NOTICE
NOTICE TO PUBLIC OF NO SIGNIFICANT IMPACT ON THE ENVIRONMENT and
NOTICE OF INTENT TO REQUEST RELEASE OF FUNDS

TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, GROUPS AND PERSONS:
On or about May 29, 1994 the City of Iowa Park intends to request the Texas Department of Housing & Community Affairs to release Federal funds under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-383) for Project No. 703371.
Project Title: Sewer System Improvements
Purpose of Project: The purpose of the project is to replace a substandard and undersized sewer trunk line.
Location of Project: A target area located in the southern portion of Iowa Park, Texas
Estimated Cost of Project: $110,000.00 (TCDF) & $59,350.00 (Local Funds)

FINDING OF NO SIGNIFICANT IMPACT
It has been determined that such a request for release of funds will not constitute an action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and accordingly the City of Iowa Park has decided not to prepare an Environmental Impact Statement under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (P.L. 91-190). The reason for such a decision not to prepare such a Statement is based upon the fact that all environmental concerns could either be minimized or mitigated.

An Environmental Review Record for the proposed project has been made by the City of Iowa Park which documents the environmental review of the project and more fully sets forth the reasons why such Statement is not required. This Environmental Review Record is on file at the City Secretary's office, 103 N. Wall, Iowa Park, Texas 76367, and is available for public examination and copying upon request during normal business hours.

Public Comments on Finding
All interested agencies, groups, and persons disagreeing with this decision are invited to submit written comments for consideration by the City to the address as set forth above. Such written comments must be received at the address specified within sixteen (16) days after this publication. All such comments so received will be considered and the City will not request the release of funds or take any administrative action on the project prior to the date specified in the preceding sentence.

RELEASE OF FUNDS
The City of Iowa Park will undertake the activities described above with Community Block Grant Funds under Title I from its Program Year 1993 under grant numbered 703371 from the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974. The City of Iowa Park is certifying to TDHCA that Wayne House, in his official capacity as Mayor, consents to accept the jurisdiction of the Federal Courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to environmental reviews, decision-making and action; and that these responsibilities have been satisfied. The legal effect of the certification is that upon its approval, the City of Iowa Park may use the Block Grant funds and it will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969. TDHCA will accept an objection to its approval only on one or more of the bases and the procedures described in 24 CFR Part 58.75. Objections are to be addressed to the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs, P.O. Box 13941, Austin, Texas 78711.
