New students to register

Students who will be attending Iowa Park schools for the first time this fall, including pre-kindergarten, will be registered at their respective campuses every day of next week.

In addition, all sixth grade students are to report at the junior high building next Thursday, accompanied by one or more parent.

New-student registrations will be

Monday through Friday of next week, during the hours of 8 a.m. to 12-noon and 1-3 p.m.

Those registering for the first time are to have their immunization records, social security card and, if applicable, records from previous school.

To be eligible for pre-kindergarten, the child must be four years of age prior to Sept. 1, and must qualify for free or reduced lunches, which requires proof of family income. These classes are held half a day, and the parent or guardian must furnish transportation.

Permits drop during July

Building permits experienced a major slump during July, when compared with June.

Iowa Park city hall issued a total of $141,950 in permits during July. That was a 75% drop from the $489,242 reported in June.

However, 1994 still appears to be a banner construction year, with permits thus far totaling $1,599,516.

Part of the drop in permits during the past month was the fact that only one new home permit was issued.

Permits issued during July included:

M.L. Hodges, 404 E. Magnolia, storage building, $4,500; Valma Douglas, 1031 Feteley, roofing, $2,000;

Daniel G. Milner, 500 S. Bond, move carport, no value reported; Mike Lane, 1512 Karen, storage building, $4,000;

David Robnett, 602 W. Coleman, carport, $1,200; Pete Sims, 209 W. Poe, addition, $3,000;

Mickie Croxton, 202 E. Garden, patio cover, $1,250; Chet Adkins, 800 E. Park, carport, $4,000;

Carol Sims, 205 S. Jackson, new home, $73,000; Virgil Parks, 1110 Lincoln, carport, $300;

Paula Booth, 206 W. Crystal, swimming pool, $10,000; Eddie Jones, 604 W. Cornelia, enclose patio, $2,600;

Jeff Ratliff, 304 E. Crystal, building addition, $500; Gary Chandler Jr., 921 W. Smith, Mobile Home, $34,000;

Billy McNeely, 312 W. Clara, pigeon pen, $600; Irvin Onstead, 701 W. Texas, carport, $1,000.

LEADERS MEET - New head coach Weldon Nelms holds his first meeting with 24 seniors who reported Wednesday to begin two-a-day practices. He emphasized the importance of leadership from upper classmen. A like number of juniors also will be competing for starting positions. Workouts will continue at 7 a.m. and 2:30 p.m., working out in shorts through this week and in full pads starting Monday. An intrasquad scrimmage will be held Saturday, Aug. 13.

News Briefs

Community-wide garage sale set

The largest community-wide garage sale ever held in Iowa Park will take place Saturday, according to Susan Dillard, Chamber of Commerce secretary.

Dillard said 75 individual listings and two non-profit organizations are participating in the event.

The Chamber office will open at 7 a.m. Saturday to make maps of the community available to shoppers.

The event is sponsored by the Chamber, whose directors purposely set this week because it was believed it would be appealing as well as helpful for parents doing back-to-school shopping.

A complete listing of all the garage sale locations can be found on page 11 of this issue.

Immunization clinic Saturday

School nurse Judy Stevens reminds parents that pre-school immunization clinic will be Saturday at Kidwell Elementary.

Students of all ages will be able to update their immunization shots between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Students, accompanied by their parents, should bring their immunization records if available.

Cost of the shots will be based on family income, but the most that will be charged will be $8. However, no one will be refused shots.

Classes are to begin in all Iowa Park schools Aug. 18.

For additional information contact the school nurse at 592-4440.

School trustees to meet tonight

Iowa Park school trustees will hold a called meeting this evening in the junior high school library.

To begin at 6 p.m., trustees are expected to accept staff resignations and employ other personnel.

Also on the agenda is a provision to continue the board's study of the 1994-95 budget.

Junior high band sets practice

Pre-school practice for the Iowa Park Junior High band will be held from 9 to 11:30 a.m. Monday through Thursday of next week, according to Director Ed Hefti.

Members will both practice their music with their instruments, as well as march out of doors, Hefti said.

Bloodmobile to be here Monday

The Red River Red Cross Bloodmobile will be in Iowa Park from 4 to 6:30 p.m. Monday.

It will be stationed at the Optimist Club Building on the corner of West Highway and Magnolia.

One of 'those' weeks keep IP police busy

It was another one of "those" weeks for the Iowa Park Police Dept.

Among the 15 arrests reported during the past week, one solved the burglaries of four businesses, and nine were for public intoxication.

About the same time neighbors of Food Depot were calling the police station at 10 p.m. Wednesday of last week, another telephone call was received from a person inside the store.

After reaching the store's owner to unlock the building, they found a 14-year-old male who attempted to explain he had been in the restroom and was locked inside when the business was closed for the evening.

That didn't set well with police, however, because they already were investigating other business burglaries which occurred under similar circumstances.

After some interrogation, the youth, who was in Iowa Park visiting with his grandparents, admitted he had burglarized Granny's Corner, Southern Gardens and on four different occasions Catlin Quick Change.

Total restitution of monies (some $600), property and damage was made, police reported, and the youth's stay here with his grandparents was ended.

When an officer stopped a vehicle at Colorado and Lafayette shortly before 2 a.m. Saturday, all four occupants were arrested on public intoxication charges.

They included Nina Kaye Watson, 29, Jerry Branton Hobbs III, 24, Jimmy Edward Crowder, 28, and Kevin Charles Capsel, 34.

When the subjects were taken to the police station for booking, officers found less than two ounces of marijuana on Hobbs, so he was also charged with possession.

Hobbs was transported to the county jail on the possession charge. The other three were released after signing personal recognizance bonds, which amounted to $81.50 for Watson and Capsel, and $280 for Crowder.

Shortly before midnight Saturday, police were alerted by a citizen that a man was passed out at "middle lake," which is Lake Iowa Park.

Upon investigation, the officer found an apparent party underway, and three males were arrested on public intoxication charges.

Jeremy Dewayne Stringer, 19, and Lonnie Don Tucker, 22, both paid fines of $81.50 and entered pleas. The third man, Mark Andrew Kennedy, 24, was charged with public intoxication and also resisting arrest, which resulted in his being transported to the county jail.

A resident in the 200 block of East Crystal called police at 5:24 p.m. Sunday about two suspicious persons sitting in a car.

Upon investigation, officers arrested William H. Rankin, 45, and Tommy Lee Brock, 51, on charges of public intoxication. They were released at 2:52 a.m. after signing promises to appear in municipal court.

Shortly before 1 a.m. Monday, a patrolling officer had a license plate check run on the state-wide computer network, and the return indicated the pickup had been reported as stolen out of Garland.

Garland police were contacted both by computer network and telephone, and received confirmation that the vehicle was stolen. In addition, photos were faxed to the local department from Garland of the two female suspects in the pickup.

The two, ages 24 and 22, were taken to the police station and then before Justice of the Peace Bill Robertson, who read to them their rights.

But then, a communication was received at 10:02 a.m. from Garland that the pickup's owner had refused to press charges. The owner came here to retrieve his pickup, and police said the two women left here on their own.

A resident of the 700 block of East Alameda contacted police at 7:32 p.m. Saturday, complaining that $125 in cash had been taken from a bedroom.

The resident offered the name of a suspect who had been in the home earlier, contact was made, and the money was returned. The suspect was then referred to juvenile probation.

STUDENTS AND LEADERS TAKE A BREAK FOR LUNCH AND REST ... in the shade of an 80-year-old tree.

Students dig for history

Thirty-six elementary, junior high and high school students experienced the lessons they had learned in regular classes extended Thursday, when they participated in a summer historical and archeological trip.

The event was originally planned by the Bradford Elementary Gifted and Talented Class, taught by Keven Robertson.

The students departed at 6 a.m. from Bradford and travelled to several historic sites near the Red River, northeast of Punkin' Center.

Their first stop was the historical marker located at Tenth Cavalry Creek. Students read and discussed the marker, which commemorates a campsite used by the Buffalo Soldiers in the mid-1800s. It also describes the battle fought with Indians just north of the marker. Casualties were buried in a common grave at the site.

Next they went to an old farm house two miles west of Tenth Cavalry Creek. The land is currently owned by Robert Palmer, assistant superintendent, who explained it was part of a land grant from the Republic of Texas, received by an elderly Scottish settler named Bateman.

In 1875, Bateman travelled to his land and built a half dugout house, which he later expanded to full size. In 1892 the house was abandoned and his descendants built another house just south of the original structure.

At the time Bateman built his house, Wichita County consisted primarily of Mabel Gilbert at what is now Burkburnett, the Banta family on Beaver Creek, Burnett land, and the Waggoner Ranch, located three miles west of Bateman's house.

The cook shack from the Waggoner Ranch headquarters is now part of the Ranch heritage Display at Texas Tech Univ. The post office for the ranch was named Toxana and was located between the ranch and the Bateman homestead.

At this location the students used their math skills to grid survey areas directly over the cabin site. The grid was measured and coordinated with a measuring wheel and compass to be precise with a survey marker located about 75 yards from the site. The survey marker was coordinated with a Supreme Court Bronze Bench Marker located on the south bend of the Red River, one mile north of the site.

Three students were assigned to each grid. The students first did a surface survey. All items of historical interest were bagged and tagged by grid number for later identification. The students then began a subsurface survey by removing the soil one inch at a time. All items found during this search were also bagged and tagged.

During the fall the students will chart the items and provide a profile of the cabin site. All of the items will be on display at Bradford Elementary.

Among the items found were square nails, the door knobs to the house and various household items including dishes and pottery.

The grids outside the house area contained wagon parts and tools and various buckles and horse-related items such as shoes, nails and a rasp for shaping horse hooves.

The students moved to the Red

Vanbebber, Wells wed Saturday afternoon in double-ring ceremony

Kyle Wayne Wells and his bride, the former Miss Trisha DeAn Vanbebber of Archer City, are making their home in Iowa Park following their wedding and a honeymoon trip to Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Vanbebber of Archer City are parents of the bride and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rex Wells of Iowa Park.

The couple pledged double ring marriage vows at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in the chapel of First United Methodist Church of Archer City. Rev. Willie Johnson directed the recitation.

The arched wooden sanctuary altar was garlanded with fresh greenery and summer flowers. Four seven-lite candelabrum accented with tulle were flanked by baskets of fresh gladiolas, stargazer lilies and hot pink Lancome and fire and ice roses. The communion rail was draped in fresh greenery dotted by fresh flowers matching those at the altar.

Mary Lynn Beall of Archer City, pianist, played a medley of love songs while guests were being seated. Taped instrumental selection of "Forever n Love" was played while the mothers, grandmother and sister of the bride, Tammi Frank and her five-week old son Hayden, were ushered to their seats.

A taped rendition of "Your Love Amazes Me" was played preceding the exchange of wedding vows. Eddie Campbell of Wichita Falls operated the sound system. Prelude music and the traditional wedding march were played by Mary Lynn Beall at the organ.

The bride, escorted by her father, was attired in a gown of shimmering white satin that featured a princess waist adorned on the front by beaded Alencon lace.

The dropped shoulder scalloped neckline framed the back with a stand-up Queen Anne portrait look that was trimmed in lace and iridescent sequins. Triple satin bows highlighted with pearl drops crowned the long, beaded lace sleeves.

The elongated bodice was attached to a full flowing skirt with scalloped lace hemline, marked at the back waistline with a double satin bow and decorated sashes. The skirt floated into a cathedral length scalloped train accented with deep lace cut-outs.

The bride wore a halo of beaded pearls and satin rosettes, complete with a pouf of bridal illusion touched with scattered pearls. She carried a free-form crescent of Lancome roses and ivy, with pearl-tipped stephanotis for accent.

The communion table, draped in Battenberg lace, displayed the unity candle. Following the exchange of wedding vows, Dana Scott of Wichita Falls, soloist, sang the bride and groom's musical selection, "My Treasure" during the lighting of the unity candle.

Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Wayne Wells
(Miss Trisha DeAn Vanbebber)

Miss Gwen Cash of Wichita Falls attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a gown of shiny teal satin styled with puff sleeves and a shirred bodice that dipped into a tea-length skirt.

Karen Schreiber of Windthorst served as bridesmaid and was dressed identically to the honor attendant. Each carried a hand-held bouquet of fresh Lancome roses with pearled stephanotis and ivy.

The groom wore a black full dress tuxedo with tails and white accessories. His boutonniere was fresh Lancome roses and stephanotis.

The groom's best man was his brother, Kevin Wells of Iowa Park. Kregg Fehr of Wichita Falls was groomsman. Ushers were Greg Hastings of Kamay and Afton Pike of Iowa Park. They wore black tuxedos with teal accessories and boutonnières of Lancome roses and stephanotis.

Rachel Wells, niece of the groom, wore a miniature version of the bridesmaid's dress. She scattered rose petals in advance of the bride's walk down the aisle.

In her hair she wore a halo of fresh baby's breath with rolled hot pink rose petals and carried a basket of hot pink rose petals. She was escorted by her brother Kelly Wells, nephew of the groom, who attended as ring bearer. His attire repeated that of the other male attendants.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents hosted a reception in the church fellowship hall.

Focal point of the reception decorations was a round table displaying a tiered wedding cake on a mirror. It was decorated with teal rosettes and topped with a porcelain bride and groom. Fresh smilax surrounded the cake base and covered the table.

The table was joined on either side by serpentine tables swagged in teal and decorated with fresh flower arrangements and smilax. The tables featured silver and crystal appointments. Refreshments included a vegetable tray, strawberry fondue, a fruit tray, finger sandwiches and traditional punch, mints, nuts and coffee.

Reception assistants were Sandra Sheffield, Diane Deen and Kim White, all of Wichita Falls. Kathryn Carnes of Archer City presided at the guest book for the wedding and reception.

Following the reception, the newlyweds were taken through town and back to the bride's parents' home by horse and buggy, driven by Ben Buerger of Archer City. On arrival they found the groom's 4-Runner decorated and ready to leave on their honeymoon trip.

The catered rehearsal dinner the evening before the wedding was hosted by the groom's parents at First State Bank Community Room in Archer City.

In addition to the wedding party, guests were out of town relatives of the groom and local relatives of the bride.

Decorations carried out the bride's chosen color of teal and hot pink. The evening's entertainment included exchanging amusing anecdotes on the bride and groom by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Wells is a graduate of Archer City High School and received her BBA degree in Accounting from Midwestern State University in December 1992, and recently passed her CPA. She is employed by Wright Brand Foods in Vernon.

Wells is a graduate of Iowa Park High School. He received the Bachelor of Science degree in Biology, with a minor in Geology from MSU. He is employed by Texas Parks and Wildlife Department at Dundee State Fish Hatcheries and is also self-employed as Kyle Wells Taxidermy.

Neta Hughes

Neta Hughes and her husband, the late Pete Hughes, moved to Iowa Park from North Carolina in 1971, when he retired from the military.

Neta was born in Mountainair, N.M., and moved to Farwell, Tex. when she was young. She and Pete, who grew up in Farwell, both graduated from high school there.

Their children are Penny Hughes and Holly Sanders of Iowa Park, and a son, Randy, who lives in Childress.

The only time Neta has worked outside her home is when she worked briefly at the Iowa Park Junior High cafeteria. She is a member of First Baptist Church, where she is secretary for the Adult V Sunday School Department, and she serves as a volunteer for Hospice.

In her spare time, Neta enjoys sewing for her children and grandchildren, and she likes to travel. She and her sister just returned from a trip to Yellowstone National Park.

Most of the recipes Neta is sharing this week came from her friends and family. But the recipe for enchiladas is one she has been making since she was young, and Neta said she had to sit down and write out the recipe for us to use. The recipe for "Pineapple Casserole" was given to Neta by friends in Florida, and "Speedy Bread Sticks" is a recipe her son developed. The instructions for "Pistachio Dessert" came from her mother.

COOK OF THE WEEK

- Corn tortillas
- 3 cans tomato sauce

Chop the onions and grate the cheese; set aside. Heat the tomato sauce.

In a skillet, put a little oil and let it heat. Brown tortillas in the grease. Take tortillas from the grease to the tomato sauce. Take out of sauce and place on a pie pan. Put some meat, onion and cheese on the tortilla and roll up. Place in baking pan and repeat until pan is full. Sprinkle with extra cheese. Bake at 350 degrees 15 minutes or until cheese is melted. Serve with tomato sauce as a topping.

EDITORIAL

VANDALS CAUSED CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE over the weekend at the small city park on Valley Drive. Besides tearing down two recently-installed basketball goals, they apparently spent a lot of time and energy virtually wrecking the park's slide. Oddly enough, with all the homes in the immediate area, no one reported the incident. The fact that such damage causes everyone tax dollar losses, such activities should not, and cannot be tolerated. Anyone knowing anything about the incident is asked to contact city hall or the police department.

As I See It

By Bob Hamilton

If anybody in the United States should appreciate Bill and Hillary Clinton, it should be the students, administration and alumni of Texas A&M University.

Absolutely no one has done more to take the pressure of being the butt of jokes off the Aggies than the Clintons. Gosh, I haven't heard a new Aggie joke in the past two years.

You remember Aggie jokes, don't you? Like how many Aggies it takes to replace a light bulb?

Did you hear what you would have if you put Hillary and Ann Richards in the front seat of a new automobile:

"Dual airbags!"
How about the bumper sticker honoring a current president?

"If Clinton's the answer, it must have been a stupid question!"

I liked a headline I read recently in the Olaton Enterprise:

"Clinton Prescription: Health Care, making it a crime to stay healthy."

And then there's all these sheets that somebody dreams up about the Clintons, such as "Hillary Clinton's Definitions of Health Terms":

"Artery - Study of paintings"
"Bacteria - The back door of a cafeteria"

"Barium - What doctors do when a patient dies"
"Bowel - A letter like A, E, I, O, or U"

"Cat Scan - "Searching for Kitty"
"Cauterize - Make eye contact with her"

"Dilate - To live long"
"Enema - Not a friend"
"Fester - Quicker"
"Hangnail - Coat hook"
"Impotent - Distinguished, well known"

"Labor Pain - Getting hurt at work"
"Nitrates - Cheaper than day rates"
"Outpatient - A person who fainted"

"Pap Smear - A fatherhood test"
"Pelvis - A cousin of Elvis"
"Postoperative - A letter carrier"
"Rectum - Dang near kill'em"
"Seizure - A Roman emperor"
"Terminal Illness - Getting sick at the airport"

"Tumor - More than one"

"Urine - Opposite of you're out"
"Varicose - Nearby"
"Vein - Conceited"

Now, all you Aggies should sit down and write Bill and Hillary and express your appreciation for what they've accomplished in your behalf.

Register

from pre-kindergarten through second grade. Bradford Elementary classes are third through fifth grades. Junior high classes are sixth through eighth.

Sixth grade students should make plans to go to their campus, with a parent, between 9:00 and 11:30 a.m. or 1:30 to 3:00 p.m. next Thursday.

Students will pick up their locker numbers and lock combinations, practice opening locks, and place their supplies in their lockers at that time.

If schedules are available at that time, they will be distributed to the students at that time so they can walk through their scheduled classes, according to Principal Randy Lovelady.

The school day at junior high will begin at 8:05 a.m. and end at 3:10 p.m. Tutorials will be available between 7:45 and 8 a.m. and 3:10 to 3:30 p.m., if prior arrangements are made with the needed teacher.

Home room lists for junior high students will be posted by 4 p.m. Friday, Aug. 12.

All Iowa Park schools will begin their 1994-95 year on Thursday, Aug. 18, according to the school calendar.

Maybe "Aggie Jokes Volume III" won't ever be published -- or at least not for another two years!

Police

Two arrests were made Thursday, but on different situations, according to the police blotter.

At 8:11 a.m., officers took Paul Anthony Carter, 27, into custody in the 200 block of West Highway. Carter had outstanding warrants issued locally for capias pro fine, no motor vehicle inspection and no motor vehicle registration. He was later released after paying $100 toward his fines.

Shortly after 8 that evening, officers responded to a disturbance call in the 900 block of South Wall, and there arrested Earl Wayne Wilson, 30, on a Class C assault charge. He was transported to the county jail.

The final arrest of the week took place late Monday evening in the 200 block of West Highway. Christy Marie Bowen, 19, was taken into custody on a warrant for forgery issued by the sheriff's department. She was transported to the county jail under a $5,000 bond.

Police and volunteer medical personnel responded to an attempted suicide in the 300 block of East Lafayette at 4:44 a.m. Monday. They had to make a forced entry, and then a female was transported by ambulance to a Wichita Falls hospital where she was revived.

Council sets meeting

A meeting of the city council will be held at 7 p.m. Monday in council chambers.

Four of the nine-item agenda topics concern growth and improvements within the community.

A public hearing will be held concerning submission of an application to the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs for a grant under the Community Development Program.

Authorization will be considered for the administrator to advertise for proposals for the maintenance of the city's water and sewer system.

The administrator could be authorized to negotiate a contract for the first phase of looping the new elevated water tower with existing water lines.

And, following an executive session, the council could possibly take action on obtaining additional property for the girls' softball complex.

The contracting of maintenance on the sewer and water lines came about when the council decided to abolish that four-man department, and contract the work.

Though there was actually no vote held on the change, it was developed during the budget workshops. Out of the workshops, funding was not provided for the four employees, three of whom were absorbed into other departments and one quit, and contract labor was increased in the new budget.

Another issue which could affect next year's budget is a possible contract with Wichita County for funding of rural firefighting.

Though a resolution concerning such a contract is on the meeting agenda, the commissioners court has yet to take any final action on requests from both Iowa Park and Burkburnett to have rural fire fighting funded above the annual $14,400 now paid all volunteer departments in the county.

In their fourth and final workshop on the 1994-95 budget, aldermen finalized a $2,828,050 budget, which is based on a one-cent tax reduction of 79 cents per $100 valuation.

The tentative balanced budget calls for expenditures of $1,754,450 in the general fund and $1,082,600 in the water and sewer fund.

A public hearing will be held on the budget later this month, before a final vote is held by the council.

Reck is graduated

Navy Airman Cody R. Reck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy D. Reck of Iowa Park, recently graduated the Basic Avionics Technician Course.

During the course at the Naval Air Station at Memphis, Tenn., students receive technical instruction on the fundamentals necessary to perform job-entry level aviation electronics maintenance tasks.

Reck joined the Navy in June of 1993.

Correction

The Leader incorrectly reported the age of Christopher Brian Jolly the July 28 edition as being 17.

Jolly, who was arrested on a charge of driving while intoxicated following a two-vehicle accident July 20 on South Texowa, was in fact born July 31, 1977, and was in fact 16 years of age at the time.

We regret the error.

River to eat lunch, which was served beneath a giant elm tree measuring 16 feet around the trunk and 90 feet from leaf tip to leaf tip. It was planted around 1914 by Palmer's grandfather. Students also took time out to take a short hike along the river bluff beneath the native forests that line the river area.

After lunch the students visited two native American campsites where they did surface surveys. Items found also will be on display at Bradford during the coming school year.

The trip was planned by Bradford teacher Keven Robertson, with assistance from Palmer, Sherry Fougerar and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dillard. Tim Stewart provided school transportation.

Special consultant for the trip was former school principal John Sibley, who has participated in several Caddo Indian digs with his son-in-law from Sam Houston State Univ.

GARDENING HINTS

By MARK TERNING, COUNTY AGENT - HORTICULTURE

Few plants provide the outstanding durable color of the Crape Myrtles during our hot summer months in Texas.

Crape Myrtle (botanical name: Lagerstroemia Indica) was introduced in the United States from China in the 1800s. In China, the Crape Myrtle is called Pai Jih Hung (Hundred Days Red) because of the extended season of flowering. Crape Myrtle is a member of the ioosestrife family which is made up of over 50 species of trees and shrubs.

Even landscapes which receive little to absolutely no special care will harbor beautiful Crape Myrtle specimens. This is an excellent example of the plant's adaptability and strength within our region.

Crape Myrtle will normally bloom from June until early fall. The summer-long color is available in red, white, pink, lavender, and even bicolor. Sizes range from dwarf (less than three feet), semi-dwarf (three-six feet), medium (six-12 feet), to standard (12 feet or more).

There is a size suitable for any landscape. Apartment dwellers should consider using the dwarf or semi-dwarf type Crape Myrtles as flowering container plants. The medium and standard forms are brilliant, large shrubs or small trees for use as accent plants, property line screens, and even min-shade trees on smaller urban lot.

Selecting your Crape Myrtle during the summer months will allow you to get the exact color you desire. Garden centers and nurseries will often times have special sales during the summer.

Remember, container-grown plants can be planted at any time of the year. Regular watering will be necessary when planting during the summer season.

Many different cultivars are available. Some are actually hybrids which were developed primarily by Dr. Donald Egolf of the U.S. National Arboretum.

These hybrid cultivars are more resistant to powdery mildew. Check with your local nursery professional for various Crape Myrtle cultivars which are available.

Crape Myrtle Planting and Care:

- * Plant in full-sun areas for best results.
- * Soil area should be well-drained. Clay soils can be slightly elevated to improve drainage.
- * Space plants generously to allow for good air circulation. This reduces disease occurrence.

* Mulch with several inches of organic matter (compost, bark mulch etc.)

* New plantings will require regular irrigation, however, once established, they require watering only when completely dry.

* Use a 3-1-2 or 4-1-2 ratio slow-release nitrogen fertilizer in spring when the plants begin to grow. Avoid late summer or fall fertilizer applications which increase the chance of freeze damage.

* Watch for aphids and powdery mildew and treat as needed with an appropriate fungicide and/or insecticide. Many homeowners use Orthene for these problems.

* Allow Crape Myrtle to enter the fall season without fertilizer applications and heavy watering so that the plant will not be a susceptible to winter injury.

* Follow all label directions when using pesticides or fertilizers.

Card of Thanks

How do you find the words to describe or to say thank you to so many friends and loved ones. Webster defines "friend" as a person whom one knows well and is fond of; to support or sympathize. These words fall far short to describe the many loved ones who have shown so much concern and compassion during the past few days for the Brooks family as we adjust to the loss of Mary. A special thanks to the Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Department for their fast response when summoned, and all the doctors who worked so hard to help Mary, but also to so many people from our community that came to the hospital and then to our home to express their love for Mary. A special thanks for the great concern shown by Barbour Trucking. Each and everyone of you will be in Roy's and my prayers.

Methodist youth 'fools for Christ'

By MYRNA SMITH

"Bring In the Clowns" --and you will see a performance by 16 junior high and high school age young people, who with the use of theatrical greasepaint have white faces, exaggerated red or yellow mouths, and eyes that look out from heavily black painted eyebrows.

Although they wear the makeup and costumes of a clown, there is a difference in clowning and the Clown Ministry which this group represents.

Rather than playing the clown in the true sense of the word,-- "fool", an incompetent, with little or no common sense,-- they are being "fools for Christ" as stated in 1 Cor. 4:10.

The young people are from First United Methodist Church and perform under the direction of Stephanie Roberts, FUMC Youth Director.

It is the consensus of the group that "It makes you happy, to make other people happy."

The goal of Clown Ministry is to portray a Christian message through the use of skits with music, or mime techniques, depicting the parables, such as the Good Samaritan, or other topics with Biblical background of grace, stewardship, forgiveness, etc.

Stephanie first became interested in the Clown Ministry program when she spent a week at Perkins School of Youth Ministry in Dallas and saw a performance by a Clown Ministry group.

She explained that two of the major themes in this type of ministry is an understanding of the word, "servanthood", and of being vulnerable, "You give away your power in order to raise others to a position of worth," she said.

The term "clown ministry" was used for the first time in 1968 as Floyd Shaffer, who is regarded as the founder and leader of the clown ministry movement, prepared his church newsletter.

He later was asked the question, "What is a Christian clown?" To which Shaffer replied, "It depends on who is under the makeup."

The main difference in clowning and clown ministry is understanding the purpose and function. The participants use common, everyday experiences to illustrate the parables in simple, childlike ways.

One symbol of clown ministry is a red dot on the cheek, called the "mark of the clown". According to the founder, "the chief task is to be childlike, to give of oneself, and communicate clearly to others that they are loved".

Before starting the Clown Ministry in January of this year, the young people went to a Youth Workshop in Dallas, learning how to put on their clown makeup and about their costumes, etc.

During school the clown group meets Wednesday night of each week, or as needed.

They gave their first performance in March, the first of five since the program began. The group meets once a week to practice.

They have performed at Wichita Falls State Hospital, Burkburnett United Methodist Church, and conducted a youth service at First United Methodist Church here.

This summer they performed a children's program at Nueva Esperanza United Methodist Church, a Hispanic congregation in Dallas. They mimed one skit, did one to music, and one of the clowns gave the sermon.

They were in Dallas on a three-day mission trip, where they worked through the Wesley-Rankin Center. They painted the interior of the home belonging to a homebound member of the Dallas congregation.

Stephanie served as co-director of the Wichita Falls District Junior High Summer Camp in Bridgeport this year and the local Clown Ministry performed the closing night of the camp.

Members of the Ministry bake cakes for the Wichita Falls State Hospital once a month and every six to eight weeks they bake cookies and take them to homebound members.

The "Clowns for Christ" are Amanda Thompson, Clint Thompson, Ashli Thomas, Jon Thomas, Amanda Marchand, Tammy Scharlach, Joey Gauthier, Dusti Welch, Chris Sutton, Geri Merrick, Heather Dorzab, Jenni Jensen, Whitney Richter, Will Richter, Glen Blackmon Jr., and Derek Blackmon. Linda Merrick volunteers with the group.

Stephanie complimented the Clowns for Christ for their hard work as a group and said, "Their desire is to achieve excellence in performing their ministry."

This is only one part of the active youth program at First United Methodist Church.

Miss Roberts, daughter of John and Fern Roberts of Iowa Park, has served as youth director since June 1993.

She graduated Iowa Park High School in 1991 and is a senior at Midwestern State University majoring in Special Education. When she graduates there her plans are to enter Perkins Seminary to earn her Master degree in Youth Ministry or Christian Education.

PRACTICE SESSIONS for both the varsity and junior varsity Iowa Park High School cheerleaders got underway this week, in preparation for the football season which starts the first week of September.

SPORTS

Shorts

The "experts" aren't giving this year's Hawks much respect in the pre-season ratings. For instance, according to IHS graduate Buck Cargil, sports editor for the Hood County News and creator of IBC Pigskin Prep, Iowa Park should win only two games this season. Buck's power rating for Iowa Park is 124.17, below that of Southlake Carroll, 162.57; Springtown, 127.42; Burkburnett, 152.05; Verman, 161.92; Graham, 138.84; Bridgeport, 135.62; Rowle 130.22, and even KA Hamlin, 125.55. Only Lakeside and Electra have lower ratings of 116.90 and 112.54, respectively.

*****

A meeting of the Athletic Booster Club will be held at 7 p.m. next Wednesday in the field house, according to Randy Scobee, president. The purpose of the meeting is to continue plans for the upcoming season, and discuss the season's football programs.

Season tickets on sale Monday

Season tickets for all four Hawk football games to be played at home this fall will go on sale Monday at the principal's office.

Ticket sales will be from 8 a.m. until 12 noon, and 1-4 p.m. Those who had season reserved seat tickets last year will have until the first home game (Sept. 2 with Burkburnett) to renew their options on the same seats again this year.

A book of tickets is $20. Reserved seats, after the first game, will cost $5 per game. No reserved seats will be sold at the gate.

General admission this year will be $2 for students and $4 for adults, if purchased before game time. All general admission tickets sold at the gate will be $5.

Junior high players to receive equipment

Iowa Park Junior High football players are to be issued their equipment the week that school starts.

Eighth grade players will get their equipment on Monday, Aug. 15, and seventh graders on Tuesday, Aug. 16.

The players are to report to the dressing room at IHS campus at 5:30 p.m. on those respective dates.

Regular school classes are to start on Thursday, Aug. 18.

Top 'O Texas registration is scheduled Saturday

Sign-up of youngsters to play in the Top 'O Texas football program this fall will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday at the ASICS building on the corner of Wall and Bank.

Interested parents who have questions are encouraged to attend the sign-ups. There is no sign-up or registration fee involved.

Any youngster unable to attend the registration period can contact Griffith by calling 592-4840.

Practice is to begin on Monday, Aug. 15, with players working out in shorts.

Finnell lambasts federal wildlife department

State Rep. Charles Finnell has lambasted the federal intervention of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service in proposing that 33 central Texas counties be designated as "protected natural habitat" for the golden-cheeked warbler, at the expense of taxpayers and their livelihood.

"The bird is not the problem... it's the hollow-headed bureaucrats in Washington D.C. - the same folks who have trampled for years on rights of property owners in northwestern states in the name of the spotted owl," said Finnell, vice-chairman of the Texas House Committee on Agriculture and Wildlife Management.

"Just because the 13 counties of our district were spared this time is no reason to relax. Texas property owners in the counties contiguous to our own Jack and Young counties are under the gun at this time. If the federal agency fiat proves successful, property owners of our counties could be the next target of environmental extremists acting under this or another federal pretext.

"I believe this is a governmental power-grab which must not go unchallenged. I'm urging rural Texas property taxpayers, the real endangered species, to contact their U.S. Congressmen immediately urging active intervention to rescind this proposal and to restrain the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service from its present unbridled course of action," said the state legislator from Holliday.

Letter to the Editor

Concerned about education

Dear Mr. Hamilton,
Enclosed is a lengthy letter from James Dobson of Focus on the Family, which I meant to bring to you as soon as I read it, but . . . while cleaning out my "things to do" file - there it was! I hope you can use all or part of it to inform the public what is being taken from them.

I know the Iowa Park school system is one of the best, but it seems our elected board members and faculty are being bound and gagged. We have a son who will be graduating this year from IPHS, however, we made the decision on 11/3/92, (our daughter's 9th birthday, as well as election day) to begin home educating her the following school year. We knew the lengths this administration (federal level) would go to get control of our children's minds.

The paragraph I've highlighted makes my stomach churn. The government can ask whatever they want on the tests given for funding, which means of course it will have to be taught in the first place. What kind of social issues do you suppose will be addressed?

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
Laurie Murray

(Editor's Note: The paragraph to which Mrs. Murray referred states:

"With passage of Goals 2000, the control of education in the United States moves to the federal level and beyond the grasp of parents. That is a very dangerous development. Once the camel's nose is under the tent, there will be no keeping the beast out in days ahead. The National Education Association, which supports every anti-family cause from homosexual activism to abortion and condom-mania, has finally achieved the prize it has pursued for decades: control of the nation's children. To compound the problem, the U.S. Department of Education, which was created by President Jimmy Carter as a payoff for the political support of educators, has become a bloated bureaucracy that further undermines the influence of parents.

"Curricula will now be influenced by bureaucrats and professional educators in the nation's capital. For example, H.R. 6 makes it mandatory that local schools and states submit their content and performance standards to Washington in order to receive federal money. Few will have the resources or the resolve to refuse it. The Secretary of Education will then establish criteria for testing at the local level, which will shape the curriculum. The legislation also specifies that 'all' students 'will' participate in community-service activities as approved by Washington. Goodbye, local control. Hello, Big Brother."

Pharm/alert Health Tips

Dangers of Secondhand Smoke

You don't have to be a smoker to suffer the ill effects of smoking. Exposure to secondhand smoke is a very real health hazard.

Secondhand smoke is a combination of the smoke from a burning cigarette and the smoke exhaled by the smoker.

It contaminates the air and lingers in clothing, curtains and furniture, but most importantly, it contains at least 40 different chemicals found to cause cancer.

Every year more than 3,000 non-smokers die of lung cancer and 36,000 from heart disease linked to secondhand smoke.

Secondhand smoke is dangerous to everyone, but infants and children are at the greatest risk because it causes damage to developing organs, such as the lungs and brain.

Smoking during pregnancy may cause birth defects and low birth weights.

Secondhand smoke triggers or worsens asthma attacks. It also increases the number of children's colds, sore throats, and ear infections.

There are several steps you can take to lessen your or your child's chances of being exposed to secondhand smoke:

- Stop smoking, if you do smoke. Talk to your doctor. There are a variety of pharmaceutical products available that can help you quit.
- If you have household members who smoke, help them stop. If it is not possible to stop their smoking, ask them, and any visitors, to smoke outside of your home.
- Do not allow smoking in your car.
- Be certain that your children's schools and daycare facilities are smoke free.

For more information about ways to stop smoking—ask your pharmacist.
