Trustees plan to study needs to handle growth

Enrollment in Iowa Park schools continues to increase, so the school board has slated a work session for next month to look at expansion needs.

After hearing the enrollment this year had risen to 2,102, as compared to 2,024 at this time last year, trustees decided at their meeting last Thursday night to hold a planning meeting.

The meeting is tentatively set for the morning of Saturday, Oct. 22.

The high school is showing the greatest gain over last year, with 656 students, as compared to 575 on Sept. 9, 1993, Supt. Glen Mitchell reported.

The junior high has increased in its number of pupils from 484 to 499.

However, both elementary schools report slight decreases: Bradford down from 499 to 483 and Kidwell from 466 to 464.

One of the reasons for the major increase at the high school is the number of transfers from the City View district, which has reached 84. Their cost to the Iowa Park school district is offset both by state funding, and also City View paying $1,700 annual tuition.

During the reports of the four campus principals, ISS (in-school suspension) was mentioned by both Richard Davis, high school, and Randy Lovelady, junior high.

Davis commented that an unusual number of students had been sent to ISS -- unusual for so many and in the early start of the year -- and also problems of students complying with the district's dress code.

Lovelady said the board's allowing of ISS on his campus, instead of sending the students to the high school as had been the policy before, was appreciated.

The junior high principal also said school bells were not ringing for classes any more. And as a result, students were arriving at classes earlier than in the past, by not waiting for bells to signal the start of another period.

Kidwell principal Steve Moody said the initiation of a new math program, called the John Saxon Program, was producing outstanding results among the students.

The Saxon Program is being used for all grades one through five.

Moody also pointed out that Kidwell will observe open house on Tuesday, Sept. 20.

Assistant Superintendent Robert Palmer reported that approximately 1,100 students were being transported daily aboard the district's school buses.

Prior to the business session, the board recognized students, all of whom were enrolled in Vocational Agriculture and band, who competed on the state level last spring.

Also recognized were nine teachers who attended the Successful Teaching Methods academy recently held at the Region Nine Education Center.

All proposed student field trips, for all grade levels, were approved, as were student fund-raising activities.

WELL ON THE WAY - Workers of the city's street department began this week clearing out the old pavement on Douglas so it can be resurfaced. The pavement was destroyed when a long-needed underground storm drain was installed at the intersection of Mary Drive, to carry the water to the Access Road. Work completion is expected within the next few weeks.

City leads rest of county

Iowa Park is once again leading all four cities in Wichita County in percentage of gain of sales taxes collected.

The city's check this month was for $15,171.05, a 5.20-percent gain over the same month last year.

That elevated the total thus far this year to $175,186.97, a 6.11-percent increase over the $165,086.06 in 1993.

By contrast, Burkburnett suffered a month's decrease of 23.30 percent in comparison to last year, and for the year shows a gain of only 0.31 percent.

Electra's check also was less than last year's, a minus 12.65 percent, but still has an increase of 4.42 percent over 1993.

Wichita Falls is second-best to Iowa Park in percentage of increase for the year, with 5.57 percent.

This month's payments include taxes collected on July sales and reported to the state comptroller in August by businesses filing monthly tax returns.

Holliday's check this month was for $4,237.27, a 2.67-percent increase over the same month last year. But for the year, that city has received 12.38 percent less than at this time in 1993, according to the report from Austin.

News Briefs

The .33 of an inch raised the total thus far for August to .48 of an inch.

Open house Tuesday at Kidwell

Kidwell Elementary will host its annual open house Tuesday night, according to Steve Moody, principal.

The schedule for each grade level is as follows:
6:30 - 7:00: Kindergarten, Early Childhood and Morning Pre-Kindergarten.

7:00-7:30: First Grade, S/PH, Afternoon Pre-Kindergarten.

program will be offered the third six weeks through the sixth grade science classes.

The abstinence based program has been used for three years and is recommended by Dr. James Dobson. Parent booklets that can be used in conjunction with the program may be ordered at the meeting for a cost of $8.95.

Rain total up to .48 for September

U.S.D.A. food commodities will be distributed between 3 and 6 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 22, at the First Christian Church Fellowship Hall.

On this month's list are butter, pinto beans and apple sauce.

Time to reserve Whoop-T-Do booths

Reservations for booths at this year's Whoop-T-Do are now being accepted at the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce office.

Organizations have until Sept. 20 to make reservations for the same activity as last year. Others who did not have a booth or wish to change have until Oct. 13.

Basic fee for organization booths is $25, while arts and craft booths are $15, both to be paid in advance.

Whoop-T-Do will be held Saturday, Oct. 15.

Hawks seek first win

The Hawks will be looking to break into the win column for the first time this Friday night when they travel to Hamlin to take on the 1-1 Pied Pipers in a non-district game scheduled to kickoff at 8 pm.

The Pipers opened the season with an 18-14 loss to Abilene Wylie and followed it up by beating Clyde 15-0 last week to even their record at 1-1.

Hamlin is led offensively by senior quarterback Eric Brown. Joining Brown in the backfield are senior tailback Bruce Cooper and Sean Bolden, a 180-pound senior fullback. Splitting time at the tailback spot with Cooper is Kendrick Woodard a 160-pound junior.

The Pipers run multiple offensive sets that could give some problems to the Hawks, but head coach Weldon Nelms is looking at the positive side.

"They run out of a lot of different sets, but they are predictable in that they only run certain plays from certain sets," Nelms said. "That could be a plus for us in our preparation for the game. It will force our kids to be more focused to recognize what is going on. We'll watch more film on them this week than we did against Burk or Electra because they don't have what you call a base series of plays. Their skilled people allow them to turn a busted play into a big gain because of their team speed so we have to stay focused on defense and not relax until the play is over."

Hamlin, a perennial 2A powerhouse, has lost in the regional round of the state playoffs the last two years. The Pipers return five offensive and four defensive starters from last year's squad.

"They're definitely a big play oriented team," Nelms added. "We need to make them drive the ball to score on us. They've shown that they are prone to turning the ball over with 10 fumbles in their first two games so maybe our time is coming. Again, I think the winner of the game will be the team that makes the fewest mistakes."

"We have to get mentally prepared to play the first quarter," Nelms said. "We can't be starting our drives at our own 10 yard line and expect to win."

"We've got to get off to a better start than we have in our last two games. If we come out ready to play and play well in the first quarter, I think we can play with anybody."

On defense, the Pipers gave up 233 total yards to Wylie in their season opener with 145 of that coming on the ground.

"Defensively, they're quick and react to the ball real well," Nelms said. "We are going to have to mix things up and keep them off balance to be successful. The main thing is we have to hold on to the football."

"We can't get down on ourselves after just two games," Nelms added. "Vernon is 0-2 and they're not packing their bags yet and neither are we. We have to recognize that there is a lot of football left to be played and our goals are still the same as they were when the year started. . . to get ready for the real season that starts against Jacksboro."

The Hawks got their passing game going last week against Electra by hitting on 12-of 20 attempts for 147

Water, sewer maintenance turned over to contractor

The City of Iowa Park is turning over the maintenance of its water and sewer lines to a private contractor, starting Oct. 1.

Council members accepted the only bid received from a contractor, in response to the city's advertisement and personal contacts.

The successful bidder is Monty Britt Plumbing Co., which submitted a bid of $75,000. The council had budgeted $76,000.

All council members except Bob Hamilton voted in favor of contracting the maintenance work. Hamilton explained his negative vote "was not personal, but because I am against the program."

The city has had four employees in the water and sewer maintenance department. One of those has quit and the others have been reassigned to other departments, it was earlier explained.

A request from developer Bill

Swan to replat two lots he owns in the Texas Addition was approved. Swan plans to construct 16 single-family homes in the block between Magnolia and Aldine, with Third Street on the west side.

Swan already has built three homes on the north side of Aldine. He had considered constructing a senior citizen residence on the other block, but because of government policies, has changed his plans and will instead build the single-family structures.

The council agreed to submit a grant application for two different projects in the south part of the city.

The request will include replacing a four-inch sewer line in Garden Valley with a six-inch line, and also completing Valley Drive from Wall to

Women have problems holding on to money

Two women had problems holding onto their money during the past week, according to reports from the police blotter.

A total of $6,506 was lost and not found.

The first report was filed with police at 8:20 p.m. last Thursday, when a woman told police she had lost a money order for $6,000, and also a Lotto ticket worth $6, somewhere in the area of Lakeview Church of God.

After a lengthy search of the area, a notice was filed with the business where the money order was purchased to notify police if someone attempted to cash it.

Three days later, a woman told police she had cashed a $500 check at a Wichita Falls bank, and after driving directly here and stopping briefly at two businesses, she could not find the white bank envelope when she returned home.

Police inquired at both businesses to see if the money had been turned in, and then assisted the woman in searching the neighborhood of her home, but neither the money nor the envelope were found.

Two young men were transported

BRADFORD

ACROSTICS!

Fourth grade hall is lined with samples of Acrostics, poems written by students using the letters in their name to begin each sentence.

Some samples include:

Err, leave me alone
Robert, Robert
That's me

Joyful
Understanding

Savings begun

Fourth graders made their first deposit Wednesday of money they earned doing chores at home.

The students will continue through Christmas to bring money for deposit at State National Bank, and watch their money grow. They will withdraw their savings before Christmas to buy gifts, if they wish.

Fifth graders 'hit the books'

Fifth graders have had a heavy load this week.

Wednesday the students turned in their first written Newberry book reports.

By Friday, the students should have memorized the first and last verses of "The Star Spangled Banner."

KIDWELL

SHARKs are coming!

Kidwell's second graders will begin the S.H.A.R.K. (Super Happy Accelerated Reading Kids) program Sept. 26.

In the S.H.A.R.K. program, the students are required to read books and take tests each week.

The program's goal this year is to read more than the 6,830 books, the number second graders read last year.

Tacos are a hit with first graders

First grade students made and ate tacos Friday morning as they finished the book, "Paco and the Taco."

First grade teachers want to express their appreciation to the parents who sent ingredients for their "taco feast."

Senior helper gets help celebrating birthday

David Ivey, Mrs. Jensen and Mrs. Costello's Iowa Park High School senior helper celebrated his birthday Friday with a little help from his kindergarten friends.

Since his favorite color is orange, the classes presented him with homemade orange birthday cards.

Ivey said he plans to be a teacher.

Kindergartners study letter 'T'

This week, kindergartners are studying the letter "T."

Each Monday, teachers send a "sound sack" home for students to fill with objects beginning with the letter of the week.

Special events this week include Thursday being T-shirt day, and each class making "Texas Trash" this Friday.

Appreciates volunteers

Mrs. Costello expressed appreciation on behalf of all Kidwell teachers for the senior helpers and volunteer help the classes receive from within the community.

Aside from senior helpers from IPHS, members from the Friendly Door Senior Citizen Center come to the school to read to the children each week.

Mrs. Kay Fisher is Mrs. Costello's volunteer community helper and reads to the class each Tuesday.

Each Friday, Barbara Ashton and Cassie Fisher assist Mrs. Costello with cooking activities.

Mrs. Costello will address Friendly Door members Tuesday at 11:30 a.m. about setting up a reading schedule for the teachers.

At noon, she will introduce a new talent program and invite members to share a creative craft, hobby, job or life-long talent they have with the students.

She invites anyone interested in participating in either program to attend the meetings, or to contact Sherry Wood, 592-9311 or Mrs. Costello 592-4322.

Mrs. Costello said the programs are vital to the students and it is an excellent opportunity for contact between the two generations.

Margaret Sheets, Friendly Door Reader

In the following weeks we will profile several Friendly Door volunteer readers who give of their time each week to read to all of the classes at Kidwell Elementary.

This week's featured reader is Margaret Sheets.

Mrs. Sheets was born in rural Marron, Ind., June 18, 1918. She attended a country school in Bethel through the third grade and then attended McCullough School, where she graduated junior high in 1933. She went on to Marron, Ind., High School where she rode a street car each day to get to school. She graduated there in 1937.

As a child in Indiana, she attended the Second Friend Quaker Church.

Following high school graduation, Margaret worked in a radio factory, but didn't care for it and began house-keeping and babysitting for money. She then went to work at Delta Electric, a company that made flashlights for bicycles.

She worked at Delta until 1942 when she married Noel Sheets. The couple had one daughter, Becky. Noel died in Dec., 1990.

Mrs. Sheets' family grew as Becky had five daughters, and between them Mrs. Sheets now has two great-granddaughters and four great-grandsons.

Mrs. Sheets said she is fortunate that Becky and her husband, Ronald Davis, live right next door to her.

In October, 1984, Mr. and Mrs. Sheets moved to Iowa Park, and according to Margaret, never regretted the move. "I'm just blessed with everything," she said, "I wouldn't live anywhere but Iowa Park."

Each year she sees her brother and sister who still reside in Indiana.

It appears she stays very busy with civic and volunteer work in the community.

She reads to Mrs. Costello's kindergarten class the first and third Thursdays of each month, and attends special occasion parties the class holds.

This is her third year as a Friendly Door Reader.

Margaret is also very active in the Friendly Door. Each day she helps pick up the meals at the Red Door in Wichita Falls and delivers four on the way back to Iowa Park.

Margaret goes to the nursing home every Wednesday afternoon with the Friendly Door for visitation, Bible Study and Prayer. She also participates in Friendly Door's Tuesday Bible Study held at Daphna Hodges' home.

Dominoes is among her favorite activities she participates in at the center.

She is an active member of Faith Baptist Church in Iowa Park, and worked in the church nursery for a few years.

Mrs. Sheets is excellent at crocheting, and also enjoys painting and making bradied rag rugs.

She says her all-time favorite book is "Three Little Pigs."

Davis awarded master's degree

Terry Earl Davis was awarded his Master's of Education in administration during summer commencement exercises last month from Texas Woman's Univ.

Davis, who is physical education teacher at Kidwell Elementary, is a graduate of Iowa Park High School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Davis, also of Iowa Park. His father is a retired school administrator.

He and his wife, Amber Gale, reside at 209 East Garden.

More than 480 degrees were awarded during the exercises, including 227 undergraduate and 257 graduate degrees.

Junior high students recognized

Eighteen seventh grade students at Iowa Park Junior High School have been identified as eligible to participate in a Talent Identification Program (TIP) sponsored by Duke University. Eligible students must score in the upper three percent on the Texas Assessment of Academic Skills (TAAS) taken in the spring of their sixth grade year.

This Talent Search for mathematically and verbally advanced students identifies highly able seventh-graders from a 16-state region in the southern and midwestern United States. TIP, established in 1980, has provided thousands of students with information about their abilities and educational options. The purposes of the program are to help academically bright students develop their special abilities, to assist schools in working with these students, and to understand the nature of exceptional mathematical and verbal ability.

The top students include Corlissa Adams, Robert Antones, Jodi Beason, Kristal Black, Jennifer Cole, Toby Duck, Aubrey Ehling, Erin Foster, Tara Godwin, Dalena Gruber, Crystal Hoffman, Ryan Huff, Lisa Nichols, Karen Schell, Dustin Shierry, Cody Smithson, Jeremiah Stevens, and Corey Wilson.

The primary goals of TIP are the identification and development of this group of extremely able youths. Eligible students may take the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or the ACT Assessment (ACT) later this year. These tests are normally administered only to high school junior and seniors. The higher scoring students are sent invitations to recognition ceremonies in their states where they receive Certificates of Distinction. The top scoring students are also invited to a Grand Recognition Ceremony at Duke University in June.

Leard on Dean's Roll

Iowa Parkan Matthew Aaron Leard is listed on the Dean's Honor Roll for the summer quarter at Texas State Technical College Waco.

Leard, a student in the Auto Collision and Management Technology program, is the son of John T. Leard.

The Dean's Honor Roll recognizes the scholastic achievement of students with a grade point average between 3.5 and 3.9.

Williams, Huff exchange wedding vows Sept. 3

The sanctuary of Faith Baptist Church was the setting for the Sept. 3 wedding of Mistie Leigh Williams and Jeffrey Allan Huff. Following a wedding trip to the Fort Worth area, they are currently making their home in Iowa Park.

Donna Higgins of Iowa Park and Jerry Williams of Azle are parents of the bride, and the groom is a son of Johnny and Kathy Huff of Iowa Park.

Dr. Greg Ammons, pastor of Faith Baptist Church, directed the couple in the recitation of their matrimonial vows. They stood before an arch punctuated by side arrangements of greenery wrapped spiral brass candelabrum holding ivory tapers. Each candelabra was tied with burgundy bows. Arrangements of burgundy magnolia blossoms and greenery flanked the platform.

Pews were marked with burgundy, gold and hunter green bows.

As guests were seated, selections of instrumental love songs were played. "Canon in D"—Pachelbel, was played as grandparents of the couple were seated.

Parents of the couple entered the sanctuary to the strains of "Household of Faith". Mothers of the bride and groom walked to the front of the altar and each lit one side of the unity candle.

As the bride entered with her father, "The Wedding March" was played.

A sentimental and unique prelude to the ceremony was performed by the groom's father. Immediately after the bride and her father approached the altar, but before he gave her away. David Collins, the bride's uncle, sang a song that he and the bride's father wrote especially for the occasion. Also, parents of the couple had written letters to their children that were read during the first part of the ceremony.

Adding to the program of music, "How Beautiful" and "The Wedding Song" was played during the ceremony, and "I Will Be Here" was played as the couple lit the unity candle.

The bride wore an elegant gown of candlelight satin brocade embellished with iridescent sequins and ivory seed pearls that extended down the front of the gown. It featured a high wedding ring collar and long sleeves with insets of lace embroidered with iridescent sequins and ivory seed pearls.

The open back of the gown terminated with a large bow across the back at the waistline. The train was accented with motifs of iridescent sequins and pearls. Her veil of net illusion was caught to a crown of seed pearls and iridescent beads with a pouff of illusion.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of ivory roses.

Nikki Williams, the bride's sister, was her honor attendant. She wore a sleeveless gown of hunter green with brocade roses in a deeper shade of green.

Flower girl was Daniell Williams of Corsicana, cousin of the bride. Her dress of floral print featured a lace collar and burgundy satin bow.

Ryan Huff was his brother's best man. Ushers and groomsmen were Jimmy Duggins of Wichita Falls and Jay Young of Iowa Park, cousins of the bridegroom.

A reception was held in fellowship of the church.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth that was caught up at the corners with burgundy and hunter green bows. The crystal punch bowl accented one extremity of the refreshment table.

Centering the table was a five branched candelabra holding green and ivory tapers. It was encircled by greenery and ivory silk roses. The arrangement formed the background for a bride and groom figurine of ivory bisque porcelain, a gift to the couple.

At the opposite extremity of the table was a four tiered wedding cake. Each tier was supported by columns and cherubs. Dark and light burgundy roses cascaded from the top tier down to the bottom tier where cherubs held burgundy ribbons that streamed from the top tier.

The groom's table was laid with a hunter green cloth and held a chocolate cake, covered with chocolate dipped strawberries. Chocolate dipped strawberries also surrounded the base of the cake.

The table held a silver coffee service and Precious Moments figurines given to the couple by Nikki Williams, sister of the bride, and the bride's stepmother, Ginger Williams.

Serving at the tables were Helen Nix, Marcia Spears, Jo Farr, and Deanne Schram.

The gift table held an arrangement of burgundy carnations and green eucalyptus. A hunter green willow basket held bags of bird seed and a bride's book for signatures of guests.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Iowa Park High School. The bride is attending Midwestern State University and the groom is a MSU graduate.

For travel on their honeymoon, the bride wore a 40s style dress of ivory brocade.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Allan Huff
(Mistie Leigh Williams)

As I See It . . . By Bob Hamilton

Do you have a time in your day to sit back and do absolutely nothing but relax, and maybe reflect on your thoughts, without any interruptions?

Some may count on the period between lying down on the bed at night, before they go to sleep. Others possibly use the time of relaxing after a meal.

I've found my time for it. I look forward to getting my cup of coffee and going out on our patio early in the mornings. Everything's quiet. There's no confusion. No noise, save for a few loud trucks passing though on the highway.

Actually, I started it years after being told that was the best time of the day -- that time before sun up. And I really didn't want to do it.

You see, after my stroke in March, I began going to bed early in the evening, and I couldn't sleep as late as I always had.

I've always been a night person, staying up until I couldn't see and dreading going to bed, then wanting to sleep as late as I could. The late bed time was part of my training, because I have so many night meetings during which I had to stay awake.

When I got home from the hospital, I was waking up at 4 a.m. or shortly after, and having nothing to do except wait for my morning newspapers to arrive.

Then, as summer temperatures made it more comfortable to go out on the patio, Dolores and I began our morning ritual. It is, however, a little later than 4 a.m. More like 5 or 5:30, now. Partially because we're both trying to more fully awaken, we have very little to talk about. Actually, we both have become addicted to experiencing the quietness and peacefulness of that time of day.

Then, as the sun begins to turn the darkness of night to daylight, as people start driving to work, as the birds start flying overhead, and those danged flies begin pestering, we gather our cups and go to the diningroom for our morning newspaper reading. And the day has begun.

Oh, in this space last week when I was commenting about no longer being a "newcomer" to Iowa Park, I only mentioned one neighbor next to our first home on Magnolia.

I talked about the future mayor of our city being on one side.

I failed to mention that on the opposite side lived an agriculture teacher who would one day become the successor of Bob Dawson as principal of Iowa Park High School: Richard Davis.

City

Texowa.

Mayor Wayne House explained the completed street, if constructed with concrete, would serve to relieve flooding which occurs at Valley and Wall, because of difficulties in getting the water to flow in dirt ditches.

The two projects are estimated to cost $105,000, of which Iowa Park would commit $31,000 with either funds or in-kind labor.

Mayor House told the council and audience of his efforts in working with Decatur automobile dealer Karl Klements to re-open a Ford dealership in Iowa Park.

He explained that Klements wants a temporary location he would use approximately two years, and then build a permanent facility after that.

The dealer asked that the city provide him a letter he could forward to Ford Motor Co. which stated the city would grant in lieu of taxes for seven years.

Klements reportedly plans to build a $2-million facility and employ 25 people.

Council members agreed to have the letter written, recognizing the need for such a business in the community, as well as its future effect on the tax base.

Aldermen also concurred with the mayor's appointment of city administrator Mike Price to the newly-formed Wichita County Subdivision Organization committee.

The committee is to work in conjunction with developers on housing projects in the rural area, which could eventually be annexed into one of the cities and would need to comply with city regulations.

Two men at the meeting requested water service outside the city limits, but neither's request could be acted on because they were not on the meeting agenda.

H.K. Gregg said he needed raw water from the transmission line between the lakes and the city, to replenish his stock tank.

He explained the line crosses his property, and when he initially granted the easement to lay the line across his land, he was told he could have water should the need every arise.

Steve Moody told the council he plans to build a home on Harmony Road, and would like to extend a treated water line to his site.

After hearing an appeal from Randy Gibson, who was seeking a waiver of the Standard Plumbing Code concerning lawn sprinkler systems, the council instructed Administrator Price to prepare a revision for action at the next meeting.

Gibson said he wanted to install a certain type of sprinkler control system and he had been told was not permitted by the city's adopted code, yet numerous larger cities such as Wichita Falls and Amarillo had no problem with them.

The city's code reportedly requires controls to be elevated above the highest sprinkler head, to prevent any backflow contamination of the water system.

Gibson claimed his dual valve system prohibited backflow, but could be installed below the surface of the ground, instead of an elevated box which he described as being unsightly.

Alderman Johnny Crawford said he had made a study of Gibson's proposed system and strongly supported changing the requirements allowing it.

The mayor said all sprinkler systems in the city should be treated the same, including those with no such controls.

Lynn Stone was recognized as the city's Employee of the Month.

'Just doing his job'

To Mr. Hamilton & the townspeople of Iowa Park,

We've all heard the other side of the shooting incident. I would like to try to add a little input for the officer's side.

I am Sergeant Jack McGuinn's sister-in-law.

Jack has been an officer of the law for sixteen years. When he was in the Air Force, he served as a canine military police officer.

This man has been through tremendous amounts of police training. He has been taught all the different maneuvers of subduing suspects. Believe me, if he couldn't subdue Mr. Swanson, which he couldn't, then Jack was in danger.

The only way Jack would ever draw his gun on someone is if his life was in immediate danger. Obviously it was.

I've heard that it was JUST a little stick. People get real! This was something that my brother-in-law saw as life threatening to himself. Is a switchblade or a butcher knife just little knives? Is a .357 just a little gun? No. These things are life threatening. It was the weapon Mr. Swanson acquired.

Our police officers go out on the road and risk their lives daily for our protection. Let's appreciate them for that.

Jack McGuinn was doing his job. That's what the city of Iowa Park hired him for 2 1/2 years ago.

Let's show support for him. Not our butts with the idiotic writing on windows.

I'm behind my brother-in-law 100 percent.

If he hadn't done what he had to, my sister would have either been at the hospital with all five of her children visiting her husband, or at the morgue.

I wish none of this would have happened, but in the end, Jack McGuinn was "Just doing his job!"

Business should reopen

To the editor,

I am writing on behalf of George Roy. He HAD his recycling business here in Iowa Park across from Pizza Hut, until he was closed down by the city.

I guess maybe someone called the city and complained about his business property looking messy. For one -- it was far from messy. I thought he kept his business site looking well organized. And two -- I think we should all be grateful to him for putting in all that time and energy just so we wouldn't throw cans, bottles, appliances, bikes, cardboard, etc., in the garbage which would go to the landfill and take up space which one day there will be no space left for us to dump our garbage.

I don't think George Roy was doing this for the money at all. I believe he is an individual trying to help out this old world.

I'm hoping he will be back to the recycling business soon. We need it!

Here's just another example of government squeezing the life out of small businesses.

If you are disappointed about George Roy being shut down and if you want the recycling to start up again, I say call the city and tell them how you feel about this.

Thank you,
Sandra Simmons

Crime Prevention Tip from the Iowa ParkPD

The fine for speeding is greatly increased if the offense occurs in a school zone.

Observe school-zone speed limits.

It is also a violation of the law to sell cigarettes or tobacco products to minors. This includes the sale of tobacco from vending machines.

to the county jail after commitment orders were filed against them for not having paid traffic fines.

Michael Dean Cox, 21, was taken into custody Tuesday morning during a session of municipal court, when he told the judge he could not pay a total of $365.50 pending on four tickets.

Wednesday, John Paul Houston was taken into custody for outstanding warrants against him. Houston, 19, apparently chose to sit out $999 in fines that have been levied for five traffic tickets. He was taken to jail later the same day.

Paul Anthony Carter, 28, was arrested late Tuesday evening in the 200 block of Johnson on an outstanding warrant. He was released Wednesday after paying $60 toward a $104.50 fine for running a stop sign.

Three persons were arrested during the week on charges of public intoxication.

Regina Pamela Brumley, 37, was taken into custody at 12:05 a.m. Friday in the 600 block of Rebecca. She was released at 5:54 after paying a $130 fine for public intoxication, according to the blotter entry.

Bryan William Davidson, 36, was arrested in the 200 block of west Highway at 9:51 p.m. Friday on a public intoxication charge. He was released five hours later after paying his $130 fine.

Police arrested 50-year-old James Willard Howlett in the 500 block of West Highway at 1:13 a.m. Sunday for public intoxication. He post a cash bond of $280 at 8:20 a.m. and was released.

An investigation continues into the theft of two dozen CD discs in a black cloth carrying case, taken some time between 10:30 and 11:19 p.m. Friday in the 200 block of North Yosemite.

The owner told police someone broke out a window of her vehicle during the time she was in a business at that location, and took the discs.

COOK OF THE WEEK

The beginning of school signals a change in the schedules of most families. Football, soccer, band, choir, club meetings and other activities increase and demand more of our time.

With the onslaught of activities, appetites also seem to increase. Preparing and serving meals that are nutritious and appetizing, and also fits the schedules of the family members is important.

Today's cooks are fortunate to have microwave ovens, crock pots, freezers, and other appliances which make it easy to prepare meals ahead of time - or in a short length of time.

One way to make headway with hectic weekday meals is to move some of the preparation to weekends. Many recipes can be prepared, frozen, and re-heated later for a fast meal.

The recipes this week are ones that can be prepared ahead of time, or take very little effort and time to prepare.

Creamed Chicken over Cornbread

- 2 Tbsps. butter or margarine
- 2 Tbsps. flour
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 3 cups cubed, cooked chicken
- 1 can cream of mushroom soup, undiluted
- 1 - 2 oz. jar diced pimiento, drained
- Cornbread (recipe follows)
- Cheddar cheese, shredded
- Green onions, chopped

Melt butter in a heavy saucepan over low heat; add flour, stirring until smooth. Cook 1 minute, stirring constantly. Gradually add milk and cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture is thickened. Stir in chicken, mushroom soup and pimiento; cook, stirring constantly, just until thoroughly heated.

To serve, slice cornbread rectangles in half horizontally; spoon on chicken mixture. Sprinkle with cheese and green onions.

Cornbread

- 1 cup yellow cornmeal
- 3/4 cup flour
- 2 tsps. baking powder
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1 cup milk
- 1 egg, beaten
- 1/4 cup vegetable oil

Combine first 4 ingredients in a bowl. Combine milk, egg and oil; add to cornmeal mixture. Stir just until dry ingredients are moistened. Spoon batter into a greased 8-inch square pan. Bake at 425 degrees 20 minutes or until lightly browned.

Easy Beef Tips in Mushroom Sauce

- 2 lbs. lean chuck cut into 1 3/4" pieces
- 1 pkg. onion soup mix
- 1 can cream of mushroom soup
- 8 oz. canned or fresh mushrooms
- 1 cup 7-Up

Place meat in a 2-quart casserole dish. Do not season. Add mushrooms; pour soup and soup mix over the meat. Add the 7-Up. Cover the casserole dish and bake 4 hours at 275 degrees. During cooking, do not open the oven door! After 4 hours, remove from oven and let stand 30 minutes before serving.

Grilled Oriental Mustard Chicken

- 2 lbs. chicken breasts
- 1/4 cup soy sauce
- 2 Tbsps. prepared mustard
- 2 Tbsps. brown sugar
- 2 Tbsps. vinegar

Rinse chicken and pat dry. Combine with soy sauce in bowl. Marinate in refrigerator 30 minutes longer. Drain, reserving sauce. Combine soy sauce with remaining ingredients in saucepan. Bring to a boil. Place chicken on grill. Grill until done, basting with sauce.

Microwave Toffee

- 1 cup chopped pecans
- 3/4 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine, cut in chunks
- 1/2 cup semi-sweet chocolate chips

Spread pecans evenly in buttered 8x8 dish or pan. In 2-quart casserole, combine sugar and butter. Microwave at High 4 1/2 to 8 1/2 minutes, or until sugar is dissolved, stirring after 2 minutes then every minute. Do not overcook.

Spread mixture over nuts in dish. Sprinkle with chocolate chips. Let stand 20 seconds until chocolate is melted. Spread chocolate over candy. Cool and break into pieces.

Easy Chicken Pot Pie

- 1 can cream of chicken soup, undiluted
- 1 - 16oz. can mixed vegetables, drained
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/4 tsp. pepper
- 1 can refrigerated tender-layer butter-milk biscuits

Combine first 5 ingredients, mixing well. Spoon into a lightly greased 10x6x2" baking dish.

Separate biscuits and place on top of pie. Bake 20 minutes in 450 degree oven, covering loosely with foil after 12 minutes.

Beef Stroganoff

- 1 lb. boneless round steak, cut 3/4" thick
- 2 Tbsp. margarine, divided
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1 can cream of mushroom soup
- 1/2 tsp. paprika
- 1/2 cup sour cream or plain yogurt
- Hot cooked noodles
- Chopped fresh parsley for garnish

Slice beef across the grain into very thin strips.

In skillet over high heat, in 1 Tbsp. hot margarine, cook 1/2 the beef and 1/2 the onion until beef is no longer pink and onion is tender; set aside. Repeat with remaining margarine, beef and onion.

Return meat mixture to skillet. Stir in soup and paprika. Heat through, stirring occasionally. Reduce heat to very low. Stir in sour cream. Gently heat through. Serve over noodles. Garnish with parsley.

Red Cross offers volunteer training

Learn how you can help others in time of disaster as an American Red Cross volunteer.

The Fall Disaster Training for 1994 will begin Thursday, Sept. 22, with an introduction to Disaster Services, a prerequisite for all disaster training. The meeting will be from 6:30 to 10 p.m.

Mass Care is scheduled Saturday, Sept. 24 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. This session prepares volunteers to set up emergency shelters and handle mass feeding operations.

Disaster Damage Assessment will be Thursday, Sept. 29 from 6 to 10 p.m. Volunteers will be trained to do Red Cross damage assessment immediately after a disaster occurs.

Saturday, Oct. 1 from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m., Emergency Assistance to Families will be the subject. This enables Red Cross volunteers to work directly with those affected by disaster through the interviewing process.

There is no charge for these classes.

The American Red Cross has been assisting disaster victims since the Michigan forest fires of 1881. Wichita County Chapter of the American Red Cross is there whether the disaster is a single family fire or a natural disaster like the tornado that occurred in the county in 1979.

Those wishing to participate should call the American Red Cross at 322-8686 to sign up.

Red River Optimist Club finish summer program

The Red River Optimist Club has completed their summer programs. Included were activities with First Step children. They went fishing, had picnics and a watermelon feed. Also, a carnival with the balloon jump and a Mexican Fiesta.

The club contributed supplies for the children to begin school with.

The final summer project was a wiener roast for the children at the State Hospital.

Garden Club begins year

The Iowa Park Garden Club met Friday morning at the Recreational Activities Center for the first meeting of the club year.

During the business session, Norma Fortner, president, read notes from Pam James, vice president, and Gala Mikkelsen-Pinnex, treasurer, saying they were going inactive for the year. It was decided that Freddie Skinner would be vice president, and Marie Wooten would take over the duties of treasurer.

Mrs. Skinner distributed year-books and reviewed the coming year's programs for club members.

Carolyn McCullough announced that the yard of Allen Gilstrap, Jr., at 1600 Yucca was selected Yard of the Month for September.

Flower Show Chairman, Louise Clapp, reported that the Flower Show will be Saturday, October 15, in conjunction with Whoop-T-Do.

Stormy Mikkelson, Community Service chairman, said the city wanted to do some work on the flower beds at the RAC, and the members voted to let the city care for them as they see fit. It was mentioned how nice the flower beds that the Garden Club arranged around a rock at Kidwell Elementary were looking. The Garden Club asked Kidwell PTA to take care of the beds a year ago.

Bonnie Illingsworth provided the Horticulture Display, a Copper Leaf plant that grows outside, or in containers.

Refreshments were served by hostesses Jimmie Ashton and Marie Wooten.

Pharm/alert Health Tips

Living with Allergies

- Each year, more than 40 million Americans suffer from allergies. Millions suffer from allergic seasonal rhinitis, also known as hay fever.
- Symptoms of a stuffy head and watery eyes can occur one or more times a year, or they may last all year around.
- Normally harmless substances can cause allergic reactions in sensitive people. These substances, called allergens, can include: pollen from plants, dust, mold, foods, and dander (skin particles) from animals.
- Allergens affect different parts of the body. Some of the most common allergy symptoms are:
  - eyes - itching, tearing, reddening or swelling
  - nose - sneezing, itching, congestion or runniness
  - skin - a rash develops that is almost always itchy and consists of spots that are raised, flat, red or white or hive-like
  - digestive tract - nausea, vomiting, cramps or diarrhea from eating a particular food.
- Americans spend an estimated $500 million each year on allergy treatments. Although there is no cure, there are a number of ways to fight allergies.
- Over-the-counter medications and prescription medicines can provide temporary relief and are the most common forms of treatment. Immunotherapy (allergy shots) is both expensive and time-consuming, so it is generally used only in severe or chronic situations.
- Avoidance is the simplest therapy. Once an allergen has been identified, the sufferer can try to avoid it.

For more information on allergies—ask your pharmacist.

Miscues lead to Hawks' second loss

On paper, Friday night's contest between Iowa Park and Electra was won by the Hawks.

Iowa Park had more first downs, more yards rushing and more yards passing. The Hawks finished the game with 242 total yards to the Tigers' 170.

But football games aren't played on paper. Things like field position, momentum and turnovers all play a big role in the outcome of most games.

That was the case Friday night as the Hawks handed Electra a 47-15 victory before a packed Tiger Stadium on homecoming night.

Iowa Park started off slowly for the second game in a row and was forced to punt after running only three offensive plays. On fourth down, Electra broke through the line and blocked Jason Young's punt to give the Tigers excellent field position at the Hawk 23. Richie Hernandez scored from 7 yards out to make the score 6-0 with 8:22 left to play in the opening period. Layne Holmes tacked on the first of his four extra points to make the score 7-0.

On Iowa Park's first play after the Tiger touchdown, the Hawks coughed up the first of their nine fumbles on the night and Joe Coffey for Electra scooped up the loose ball and raced 26 yards for the touchdown to make the score 14-0 just 17 seconds after the previous TD.

The Hawks looked like they would cut the Tiger lead in half on their next drive when they moved the ball to the Electra 16 before fumbling it away to the Tigers again. This time it was Hays Lowe who grabbed the ball and 79 yards later the score ballooned to 21-0.

Electra had only 15 total yards in the first quarter but had 21 points to show for it thanks to the miscues by the Hawks.

Iowa Park trimmed the lead to 21-7 with eight seconds remaining in the first quarter when Young connected with Corky Petty on a 14-yard scoring pass that capped a seven-play drive that started on their own 28 yard line.

The score remained 21-7 until the 3:43 mark of the second quarter when the Tigers scored on a 15-yard run by Lowe following an un-successful fake punt by the Hawks to make it 28-7 at the end of the first half.

"You can't put the football on the ground and be successful," Hawks' head coach Weldon Nelms said. "It wasn't a case of not so much what they did to us but rather what we did to ourselves. Right now we're doing the little things wrong and that's what's keeping us from being a sound football team. We've got to stop beating ourselves."

The Iowa park defense held the Tigers on their first possession of the second half only to see the offense turn the ball back to Electra on another fumble. Eleven plays later, Josh Morgan dove over from the one to make it 34-7 with 1:39 left to play in the third quarter.

CORKY PETTY SCORES

The Hawks fumbled the ensuing kickoff but the defense didn't allow the Tigers to make a first down and forced them to punt the ball away. Iowa Park couldn't handle the punt at their own 10 yard line as Electra recovered the loose ball and three plays later scored to make it 40-7 with 10:37 left in the game.

Chad Simpson scored the Hawks' final touchdown of the night when he plowed over from the three. Oddus Merrifield caught the two-point conversion pass from Young to make it 40-15 with six minutes left in the contest.

The Tigers added the final points of the game when Lowe picked off a pass and returned it 30 yards to make the final score 47-15.

One of the bright spots for the Hawks was the improvement in the passing game. Young connected on 12-of 20 passes for 147 yards and one touchdown. Young also led the team in rushing with 34 yards followed by Petty with 31 and Simpson with 29.

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams & Ed Sterling
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — GOP gubernatorial nominee George W. Bush has agreed to debate incumbent Democratic Gov. Ann Richards in Dallas on Oct. 21, but that's a long wait for Texas voters who had hoped to see campaign coals turn cherry red from frequent debates.

The Richards-Bush confrontation — only 18 days before election day — will be piggybacked with a separate debate between Republican U.S. Sen. Kay Bailey Hutchison and her Democratic opponent, Richard Fisher.

According to a report in The Dallas Morning News, the two debates will be fueled by selected residents and reporters who will ask questions of the candidates. The debates will be broadcast across Texas on television and radio stations.

The Hutchison-Fisher debate will take place in the first hour and the Richards-Bush debate will take up the second hour of the forum that is billed as "The Texas Debates: The People's Agenda."

According to the Morning News report, Richards was the first to agree to participate in the Dallas debate. She made her intentions known last month, saying, "The format allows regular folks to ask questions directly of the candidates."

Richards also has agreed to debate Bush on Sept. 22 on CNN's "Larry King Live" television show. Bush has not decided whether to do the Larry King show.

Bush Blasts New Penal Code

From the office of Travis County Sheriff Terry Keel, a Republican, Bush accepted the terms of the Oct. 21 debate forum while calling the new state penal code "misguided public policy."

Bush said he is looking forward "to looking Ann Richards right in the eye," and pointing out what he considers faults in the penal code that went into effect Sept. 1, such as automatic probation for first-time nonviolent offenders.

Congressional Lines OK'd

Texas' Nov. 8 election can proceed with the current congressional districts but the Legislature must redraw three districts next year, a three-judge federal panel ruled last week.

The same Republican-appointed judges ruled last month that the three districts were drawn unconstitutionally only to increase minority representation.

A lawsuit filed in January claimed the odd-shaped districts amounted to "racial gerrymandering." The GOP plaintiff hoped lawmakers would be forced to draw new boundaries in a special session this fall.

U.S. District Judges David Hitner and Melinda Harmon and 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals Judge Edith Jones gave legislators until March 15 to submit a new plan.

Redrawing boundaries for the 18th and 29th districts in Houston and the 30th in Dallas could affect as many as half of the state's 30 congressional districts.

Texas Attorney General Dan Morales said the "court acted properly in not disenfranchising the voters, and in not disrupting the coming elections."

Former SA Man Indicted

A former San Antonio man is free on a $50,000 bond after being charged in a federal indictment with funneling $11,000 in illegal contributions to 10 current or former congressmen, including seven from Texas.

The 10-count indictment handed down by a San Antonio grand jury accused Leslie Alfred Tabor, 62, now of Georgetown, Tenn., the former president of Sherwood Van Lines of "causing the concealment by scheme and device."

Citing the Federal Election Code, the indictment alleged that Tabor disguised political contributions during the 1990 campaign to hide the fact that the money came from Sherwood Van Lines.

The indictment said Tabor used his wife, Ilene Tabor, "as a conduit" to funnel Sherwood money to the political campaigns of the 10 House Democrats, including former Rep. Albert Bustamante of San Antonio.

The other Texas lawmakers mentioned in the indictment were Reps. Greg Laughlin of West Columbia, Chet Edwards of Waco, Charles Wilson of Lufkin, Bill Sarpalis of Amarillo, Pete Geren of Fort Worth and Jim Chapman of Sulphur Springs.

Other Highlights

■ An insurance industry group proposed a 17.7 percent increase in the standard rates for automobile coverage and Farmers Insurance Group recommended an average 12.5 percent rate boost. The proposals by the Texas Automobile Insurance Service Office and Farmers were the only rate recommendations filed by the industry before the Sept. 27 public hearing on auto insurance rates.

■ Former base closure chairman Jim Courter turned down a $75,000 offer to help protect San Antonio's five military installations during the next round of cutbacks. J. Tullio Wells, incoming chairman of the Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, said Courter was fearful such a deal would be improper, considering his previous service as head of the federal commission studying base closures.

■ In a memo distributed to more than 10,000 Texas A&M University employees, 15 top A&M officials, including the chancellor and president, pledged "unwavering support" for 10 employees recently charged with falsifying records to disguise alcohol purchases.

■ Teresa Doggett, Republican candidate for state comptroller, says she is having trouble raising campaign funds and has delayed paying her political consultants. In June, Doggett, who faces incumbent Democrat John Sharp in November, said she considered dropping out of the race because of the state GOP's internal feuding.

Vitamin A 'surrogates' aid in cancer fight

Vitamin A "surrogates" are the newest therapeutic force in the war against prostate cancer, according to a researcher at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

Using their own mouse model genetically programmed to develop prostate cancer, a team of Baylor scientists are testing synthetic Vitamin A-like agents known as retinoids thought to halt cancer growth by boosting the immune system's response to the disease.

"We have tested one promising retinoid that appears to suppress cancer progression," said Dr. Timothy Thompson, an associate professor of urology and cell biology at Baylor. "By testing a live animal model, we can tell if the drugs are effective and how they work."

Prostate cancer is the leading cause of cancer death in American men. Approximately 38,000 die from the disease each year. African-Americans have the highest rate.

In comparison to natural Vitamin A, which can lose its beneficial effects once inside the body, synthetic retinoids may be more potent.

Thompson hopes their findings will result in safer drugs for treating both early and advanced prostate cancer.

"We hope this research will have an impact on how new drugs will be used in humans," said Thompson, who is also director of research for Baylor's Matsunaga-Conte Prostate Cancer Research Center.

The research team is also testing retinoids in combination with conventional therapy as well as new gene therapy approaches.

"It is unlikely for one agent alone to kill a cancer cell because the cell is constantly evolving," Thompson said. "Most of these agents work better in combination because they hit the cancer at different levels of growth. As the cancer progresses we add another level of treatment."

In recent years, retinoids have been used to treat acne and skin damaged from sun exposure. They have also been tested in people with other types of cancer such as lung and breast cancer.

Once the research team understands how retinoids work, Thompson says more effective tests in humans may be on the horizon.

"By applying new techniques in drug and gene therapy, we can see how prostate cancer is affected," he said. "How these therapies will be used in people remains to be seen."

Martin nominated for honor

George Martin, agricultural education instructor and FFA advisor at Iowa Park High School, has been nominated to receive the Honorary American FFA Degree.

He was nominated by the Texas FFA Association, which was approved by the national FFA board of directors at a recent meeting in Virginia.

The Honorary American FFA Degree is the highest honorary award presented by the FFA.

This year 69 teachers of agricultural education were nominated to receive the degree during the 67th national FFA convention in Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 10-12.

Martin has been at Iowa Park High School 10 years. During that time he has had one student to earn the American FFA Degree, 40 received the State FFA Degree, and 60 who have earned state proficiency awards.

Also during those same 10 years as advisor of a the successful Wichita County Young Farmers Chapter, that organization won numerous state awards.

Each year at least 50 of the 11,200 agricultural education teachers in the nation are awarded the Honorary American FFA Degree. It is presented on the basis of points earned by a teacher.

Teachers are awarded points for each student they have supervised who has earned state or national FFA awards. Additional points are earned when teachers serve as officers and committee members of the National Vocational Agriculture Teachers' Association and for participation in national FFA and other professional association meetings.

GARDENING HINTS

By MARK TERNING, COUNTY AGENT - HORTICULTURE

Hot, dry conditions have placed our Texoma lawns, landscapes, and gardens under considerable stress.

Leaf drop, leaf scorching, lawn yellowing, and premature pecans shedding are direct results of our drought stricken summer.

Proper watering is very important as we move into the fall period. Follow this garden check list for September to reduce plant damage, prevent weeds, and minimize drought stress.

Watering and Fertilizer:

* Lawns should receive an inch of water every five to seven days in the absence of rainfall. Most hose and sprinklers will need to run four hours to deliver one inch of water.

* Established shade trees require a deep watering every 10 days. Water at a dripline of your trees (the area where branches extend out to), not at the trunk. Sprinklers may need to run for six to eight hours to effectively irrigate feeder roots.

* Leaf drop and leaf scorching (browning of the leaf edge) are signals of drought stress.

* Apply a 3-1-2 or 4-1-2 ratio lawn food to warm-season lawns by September 15 as your last fertilizer application.

* Cool-season lawns such as fescue can be fertilized about Sept. 15 using 3-1-2 or 4-1-2 ratio lawn fertilizers.

* Container plants and hanging baskets may need to be watered every day. Check soil moisture daily.

Planting:

* Watch for special end of year sales at Texoma nurseries and garden centers.

* Plant containerized trees or shrubs.

* Over-seed warm season lawns with annual rye in late September.

* Plant Elbon Rye in vegetable garden areas as a cover crop. Elbon Rye also helps control root knot nematodes.

* Establish fescue lawns in the late month.

* Plant garden chrysanthemums for cool-season color.

* Wildflower seed should be sown in the fall.

* Establish cool-season cover crops for wildlife.

* Finish warm-season turf plantings by early September.

Weed and Pest Control:

* Apply a pre-emergent herbicide to established lawns for cool-season annual weed control.

* Lawns which were confirmed as having Take-All Patch disease should be treated with Rubigan or Bayleton 25 fungicide.

* Treat peach, plum, apricot trees with Dursban for borer control. Treat base of tree up to the first scaffold limbs.

* Crickets invading homes are in search of moisture. Lights also attract these insects. Treat indoors with an approved indoor use pesticide.

In Memory of Mark Swanson

Oh heaven open your doors
For you and I know his time is up
He is through with his chores.
His life was hard
Now it's through
He has gone to a better place
He is now with you.
My mind was slowly eased as he was put to rest
Because Lord he is with You
You will give him the very best.
He is now with his sister
And Heaven is now their home
Their minds are put at ease
And they will not be alone.
Family and friends dry your tears
End your worries and stop your fears
As it seems that our lives are forever apart
Mark and Susan will always fill us with love
And be in our hearts.
So please remember they won't be alone
For Heaven opened its doors
And is now their new home.

TOP OF TEXAS FOOTBALL

The Pee Wee East Hawks evened their record at 1-1 Saturday night by edging the Holliday Eagles 14-12 in their conference opener.

Ryan Shierry scored the first of his two touchdowns in the first quarter on a 35-yard run to put the Hawks on top early. Zack Newman ran in for the point after to make the score 8-0.

The score held until the third quarter when the Eagles found the end zone to cut the Iowa Park lead to 8-6. Shierry answered with his second TD, this one a 40-yarder to boost the Hawk lead to 14-6.

On the ensuing kickoff, Holliday found a crack in the Iowa Park defense and returned the kick for a touchdown to cut the lead to 14-12. But the Hawk defense rose to the occasion and stuffed the Eagles on the point after attempt to preserve the win.

Offensive standouts for the Hawks were Jeff Henderson, Newman and Shierry. Also credited with a good game was the entire right side of the line.

On defense, Luke Ermis, Taylor Goodman, Brady French and Henderson all had solid games.

The Midget East Hawks ran into another tough opponent last week in Holliday. The Eagles downed Iowa Park 30-8 to improve to 2-0 while the Hawks fell to 0-2 and 0-1 in conference play.

It was the Hawks that jumped out on top when K. P. Rains stepped in front of a Holliday pass and returned it 60 yards for a touchdown to give the Hawks a 6-0 first quarter lead. Micha Bosley connected with Jimmy Miller for the two point conversion to build the lead to 8-0.

It was all Holliday after that as the Hawks were unable to stop the Eagles offense.

On the offensive side of the ball for Iowa Park, Bosley, Miller and Bryan Swenson all did a good job running the ball.

Defensively, along with Rains, Bosley, Swenson and Jerry Kirkhart all had solid games.

The Hawks will be looking to crack the win column Saturday when they take on Henrietta at 8 p.m.

*****

The Pee Wee West Hawks suffered their second straight heart breaking loss Saturday when the Seymour Cougars scored with 1:31 left in the game to come from behind to win 12-6.

Iowa Park got on the board first when Jeremy Fulfer tossed a 25-yard touchdown pass to Jack Scholl to put the Hawks on top 6-0 in the first quarter.

Seymour tied the game at 6-6 midway through the second quarter on a 15-yard run and took the lead for good with 1:31 left in the game when they scored on a 30-yard run.

Offensively for the Hawks, Jarred Horsky led all rushers with 45 yards on 7 carries while Fulfer added 34 yards on 8 tries. B. J. Adams was credited with a solid game as an offensive lineman.

On the defensive side of the ball, Adams, Fulfer and Horsky all had fumble recoveries for the Hawks and Jason Stevens recorded six unassisted tackles.

The Hawks next action will be Saturday night at 6 p.m. when they travel to Holliday to take on the Eagles.

*****

The Midget West Hawks remained undefeated by beating Seymour 14-6 Saturday night in the conference opener for both teams.

Chase Wright scored a pair of touchdowns as the Hawks put together 292 total yards with a balanced attack. Iowa Park picked up 174 yards rushing and another 118 through the air with Wright accounting for all 118 yards in the passing department and 89 of the rushing yards.

The Hawks got on the board first when quarterback Chris Simmons, who connected on 7-of-12 pass attempts, found Wright for a 25-yard touchdown. The duo hooked up again on the point after to make the score 8-0.

The Hawks scored their second TD when Wright scampered 52 yards to make the score 14-0. Seymour added a touchdown late to cut the lead to 14-6.

It could have been worse if Iowa Park hadn't lost three fumbles, two of them coming at the Cougar goal line.

Joining Wright with a solid game on offense was Brandon Criswell who picked up 52 yards on 10 carries.

Defensively, Joel Sanchez had two interceptions to lead the team while Andy Simpson and Jarred Davis both had outstanding games for the Hawks.

Iowa Park will hook up with the unbeaten Eagles in Holliday Saturday night in a non-conference game at 8 p.m.

Questions son's handling

Dear Parents and Students,
All of us are asked to sign and return a form at the back of the various student handbooks of each campus. The schools are required to have the signed forms on file.

We sign that we understand and agree to expected behaviors and consequences outlined. The handbook does not say that superintendents, principals, vice-principals, and teachers can arbitrarily change the stated consequences we understand to ones we may or may not agree to.

In my son's case, detention was the stated consequence in the handbook for his behavior. However, the consequence he received was ISS. The situation escalated to the point I was notified at work that my son had been suspended for 2 days. A teacher had decided he should go to ISS, and the principal has assured me the consequence was acceptable. The offense was non-violent, non-serious by the handbook codes.

As a taxpaying, voting parent, I signed the form at the back of the handbook. I also marked out the "and agree" as well as wrote a statement on the blank portion at the page bottom.

Parents, we must be very careful what we sign. The best interests of our children may not be served.

Also, we as parents need to familiarize ourselves with the new ISS rules passed recently by the school board, just in case. They are posted in the ISS building over the supervisor's desk.

Thank you,
Joanna C. Honeycutt

County's hay show entry deadline near

By DAVID FINLEY

Hay season is beginning to slow down and the Wichita County Hay Show will be here soon. We are looking for it to be bigger and better than last year's.

Entries for the show are currently being taken at the County Extension office in Wichita Falls, or they can be dropped off at Texoma Agricultural Products or Fox Feed & Seed in Iowa Park, K & K Grain in Electra or Berend Brothers in Burkburnett.

Entries must be at one of these locations by Nov. 1.

Round and square bales may be entered in the show. Those producers that have round bales will need to bring a sack of hay from the interior of the bale. This is what the protein samples will be taken from.

All samples entered in the show will have a protein analysis run. This will be done courtesy of Ralph Harvey and Texoma Ag Products of Iowa Park and Burkburnett.

The protein score will then be coupled with the physical score of the sample. Both added together will give the total score that determines the winner.

The show will be held later in November at the 4-H Complex. We will also have a program on Bermuda Grass Management at the show. This event will begin at 7 p.m.

Classes of hay that may be entered include coastal bermuda, other bermudagrass, forage sorghums, alfalfa, small grains and native grasses. Entries from the show will also be taken from residents of Archer and Clay counties as well.

Last year's show was won by Delbert and Brent Catlin with an entry of Coastal bermuda. It later received a blue ribbon at the state hay show. Six of our county entries were sent on to the state hay show and all received blue ribbons.

As was the case in 1993, all top entries and class winners will again be sent to the state show. These will represent the best from this area.
