Retiring ... after half a century

By MYRNA SMITH

Missing!! One smiling face customers have become accustomed to associating with the pharmacy business through a half century—personable Louise Berry.

Many people have come to think of Louise as a permanent fixture in the pharmacy, that originally was opened by her late husband, Alan. Although it has been in three locations and had three owners since 1945, Louise has always been there. But, the close of 50 years in the business came July 1 for her.

Hughes Pharmacy will honor Louise at a reception Friday. Refreshments will be served from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The "drug" store business had seen a number of owners in Iowa Park since shortly after the town was settled in 1889. The early stores had mostly patent medicines sold over the counter. Then they were owned by early-day doctors who compounded their own prescriptions.

Alan W. and Louise Berry bought their store from I.W. Austin in 1945 after he had operated it 23 years. At that time the store was located on the south side of Cash Street. There was Metz Cafe on the corner of Cash and Wall Streets, next was Homer Blalock's Barber Shop, another building, Berry Drug, the Post Office and Bradford Hardware. The Berrys remained in that building 10 years.

Louise remembered her husband bought what would be an unusual array of items for today's modern pharmacies. One was a complete line of veterinary supplies, dehorners, and other instruments and supplies to fill the needs of the ranchers and dairy farmers in the area. Now these items have to be bought from a veterinarian supply company, or a veterinarian.

The mortar and pestle were necessary fixtures in those years when the pharmacist compounded most of his own medicines, mixing liquids and using the mortar and pestle to grind or pound the various ingredients to fill capsules.

Three doors down from the drug store was a Piggly Wiggly store. Piggly Wiggly then built the building where Food Depot is now located. When they moved the Berrys bought the building they had occupied from the late T.J. Pace.

Before they moved into the building a fire destroyed the pool hall, Frankie's Apparel and Black's Market, located across the street. Louise remembers that Forest Bates Barber Shop, Curtis Sewell Barber Shop and Pybus Cleaners, all located on the north side of Cash, had moved some things from their buildings into the vacant building the Berrys bought until they could make whatever repairs were needed to their buildings.

The Berrys moved into their building, modernizing their facilities and adding new lines of merchandise and new soda fountain. But the principal department continued to be the drug department, with Berry filling an average of 40 prescriptions a day, including refills. Berry Drug also served as the local bus terminal.

The grand opening in their new building was in 1956. Louise remembers the store was crowded throughout the open hours. "Lottie Lochridge played the organ for us," Louise recalled.

LOUISE BERRY

Berry died in September 1961. In June 1962, Louise sold the store to A.K. "Bumps" and Ina Settle of Wichita Falls. Berry Drug then became Settle Drug. He operated the store in the same location 10 years. Louise continued to work for him. In 1972 Settle built the building at the present location of the store, 120 Park Ave. Louise moved with him.

When he sold the store to Joe Hughes in 1986, he told Hughes, "Louise goes with the store."

Louise said, "I guess Joe took him seriously because I worked for him almost 10 years." She worked full time for Settle and has worked part time for Hughes. The name was changed to Hughes Pharmacy in October 1990.

Louise is a native of Graham, as was her mother before her. She graduated Graham High School and attended TWC a year and a half and then at mid-term, Dec. 25, 1936, she married a young registered pharmacist from Coleman, and she never returned to college.

Louise and Alan were married in Graham and lived there until 1942. Alan took a job as pharmacist for Miller Drug Store in Archer City where they lived three years before moving to Iowa Park.

In Archer City the Berrys also operated the old Royal Theater, which has been commonly known as "The Last Picture Show", since it was popularized as such by Archer City native and novelist, Larry McMurtry in both book and film.

"When we moved here there weren't any street signs," Louise said, "people would come in the store and ask where someone lived. If we could find out who they lived near, we could send them in the right direction."

She continued, "When we moved here there was only one law officer. That was Bill Detliff. After him there was Henry Jones, still only one." She added, "There have been a lot of changes in the 50 years since we moved here."

They came to Iowa Park and took their place in the activities of the town. Alan was a gregarious, civic minded individual. He was commonly known as "Doc" as are many pharmacists. The little children knew him as "Pappaw" because that is what he called himself to them.

Louise worked most of the time and hasn't had a lot of time for social activities. But, she has been ready to help in activities for the good of the town. She was always ready and willing to help with school functions when her two sons were in school. She served as a room mother 12 years.

Louise always helped at the Texas-Oklahoma Fair. She remembers picking, shelling and canning blackeyed peas and making squash relish to exhibit in the Women's Division. And she always worked in the junior and senior booths.

She is an inactive member of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, and an active member of First Presbyterian Church. She does a lot of visiting at the nursing homes and hospitals, and checks in on people she knows are ill.

Louise is sure she will be doing more of that and more church work in the future.

"I plan to do some of the things I haven't had time to do and work. I

CROWDED CONDITIONS were obvious along the shoreline of Lake Iowa Park on the afternoon of July 4th, with boaters, swimmers and picnicking families.

Fireworks problems numerous

Had it not been for fireworks, Iowa Park police wouldn't have had many entries on their blotter the past week.

There were 14 complaints turned in to the department since Wednesday of last week, all relating to persons violating the city ordinance prohibiting the setting off of fireworks inside the city.

At least three warnings were issued to persons who had repeat contacts for the violation.

The radio dispatcher also sent Iowa Park and West Wichita volunteer firemen to at least six grassfires, all resulting from fireworks.

Four arrests were included in the week's police blotter, however none of them related to fireworks.

When called to a minor accident at Lake Iowa Park shortly before midnight Friday, officers arrested Kurt William Helwig, 18, on a charge of public intoxication.

Helwig was released at 7:01 a.m. Saturday after paying a fine of $280.

Sunday evening, officers responded to a disturbance call at 700 West Highway, where two females were fighting.

Shafai Marie Blair and Jessica Lynn Benson, both 21, were taken into custody and charged with disorderly conduct.

The two were released some two hours later after pleading guilty and paying fines of $81.50 each, according to the police blotter.

William Perry Roberts, 61, was arrested Monday afternoon at 408 E. Jefferson on a Class C assault charge. He was released Tuesday morning after paying a fine of $130.

Two thefts were included on the week's blotter.

Police are investigating the theft of some building material, valued between $20 and $500, from 807 E. Texas. The theft was reported Thursday morning.

Two revolvers were recovered from two male juveniles, reportedly taken Tuesday from a residence in the 800 block of North Jackson. No charges had been filed by Wednesday.

A resident informed police Wednesday evening of last week that he had seen three male juveniles breaking out windows at the Texaco station on the corner of Pacific and US 287.

Police responded and observed the damage that had been inflicted, but were unable to locate the juveniles.

Streets top topic for city meeting

Street improvements will be the major topic of Monday night's regular meeting of the city council, according to the tentative agenda released Wednesday.

The meeting is to begin at 7 p.m. in council chambers.

Administrator Mike Price will ask the council for authority to implement improvements in the downtown business area.

Besides the overlaying of the old, cracked concrete surfaces, some plans for installing lights on the east side of the 300 block of North Wall will be considered.

At the council's last meeting, Mayor Wayne House pointed out he felt the need of the lights, not only to improve the appearance of that block, but also to better designate lanes of traffic and parking.

The mayor also asked aldermen to allow installation of gas lights there, as an extension of similar lights which were placed in the median of West Park.

A list of streets to receive an application of slurry this summer also will be considered. Suggestions have been entered earlier by council members, and Monday's action will finalize that plan.

A second public hearing required on a grant application will be held, and if no opposition is expressed, that will be followed by adoption of a resolution.

Funding through the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs Texas Capital Fund Infrastructure Grant Program is being sought

Unusually wet beginning for July

The month of July normally isn't as wet as preceding months, but Iowa Park gardeners have had some relief to yard watering this week.

Virgil Woodfin said he measured .11 after a shower Sunday morning, and an additional .05 late Tuesday evening, for .16 of an inch.

IOWA PARK FIREMEN begin collecting their gear after extinguishing a fire Wednesday afternoon of last week, at 123 West View, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Justus.

Stephens, Kellogg wed June 23 in Archer City

Danny Frank Kellogg and his bride, the former Tiffany Ann Stephens are making their home in Iowa Park following their wedding June 23 and a honeymoon trip to Disney World and points of interest in the Orlando, Fla., area.

The bride is a daughter of Brandon and Glenda Brosch of Wichita Falls and the late Doug Stephens. The groom is a son of Tom Kellogg of Iowa Park and Freda and Don Wells of Saginaw.

Spur Hotel in Archer City was scene of the double ring wedding ceremony performed by Rev. Larry Washburn, a retired minister.

Providing decorations for the improvised altar were two fig trees with attached bows. Pews were marked with iridescent purple and white bows. A southwest decor with a Disney theme was used in other areas of the room.

Recorded music included "Keeper of the Stars" by Tracy Byrd, "Can You Feel the Love Tonight" by Elton John and "When you Say Nothing at All" by Alison Krause.

The bride was presented for marriage by her step-father. She wore a diamond white raw silk gown with chapel length train. The gown was styled with a scoop neckline, long lace sleeves with intricate beadwork and pearls on the front of the bodice. The back bodice and long sleeves had silk covered button closure.

She wore a "borrowed" headpiece and veil belonging to her aunt, Tina Peet. "Something old" was a handkerchief handed down three generations, "something blue" was a guardian angel bow, and "something new" was her wedding gown.

She carried a cascade bouquet of mixed daisies, roses, and wild flowers with pearl trim.

Ashlea Thames of Wichita Falls, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor. She was attired in a purple taffeta tea length gown designed with puff sleeves and rhinestone covered bodice. She carried a cascade bouquet of mixed flowers.

Flower girl was Megan Thames, Wichita Falls, the bride's sister. She wore a tea length, tier-styled gown of lilac trimmed in lace. She carried a basket of mixed flowers.

Billy Don Armstrong of Wichita Falls was ring bearer. He wore a tuxedo identical to the groom's.

The groom's father served as best man. Ushers were Matt Kellogg of Saginaw, the groom's brother, and Brady Taylor of Iowa Park.

A reception was held at the Spur Hotel. Decorations included the southwest decor and Mickey and Minnie Mouse figures in wedding attire.

The registry table held a white plume pen and bride's book. It was centered with a basket filled with fresh wildflowers. Kelly Levasseur registered guests.

Judy Strickland and Dawna Crudington presided at the bride's table that held the bride's three tiered, heart shaped cake.

The groom's heart shaped chocolate cheesecake was served with mints, nuts, M&Ms and champagne punch.

For travel on their wedding trip the bride wore a white shorts set with rhinestone covered bodice.

A graduate of Iowa Park High School, the bride attends Midwestern State University. The groom also is an Iowa Park High School graduate.

The bride was honored at a pre-nuptial shower hosted by Judy Strickland, Ashlea Thames, Robin Studdard and Sharon Kelso.

Haynes, Cline vows read

Kristy Malinda Haynes became the bride of Rodney Louis Cline Tuesday in a 6 o'clock ceremony read in the home of the bridegroom's parents, Elaine and John Kent of Wichita Falls.

The bride is the daughter of Wilma and Joe Haynes of Iowa Park.

Sandra Leach of Burk Burnett was matron of honor and Gary Cline of Wichita Falls, brother of the groom, acted a best man. Brian Wilson was ringbearer.

A reception was hosted following the ceremony.

The bride is a 1990 graduate of Iowa Park High School. She is employed at Day's Inn in Wichita Falls.

Cline attended Hirschi High School and is employed at Clean Car Wash in Wichita Falls.

They will establish residence in Wichita Falls.

Maryjane Tiffany Gray and Jon Christian Thompson

Announce engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Gray announce the engagement of their daughter, Maryjane Tiffany, to Jon Christian Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Thompson of Woodland Hills, Calif.

The bride-elect is a 1989 graduate of Iowa Park High School and a 1994 graduate of Midwestern State University with a B.S. nursing degree. She is presently employed at George Washington Medical Center in Washington, D.C.

After graduation from Woodland Hills High School Thompson served a two-year mission in London for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

He returned to attend Dartmouth College in Hanover, N.H. and graduated in June 1994 with a BA in Biology. He accepted a commission as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army. He is now attending the School of Medicine at the Uniform Services University in Washington, D.C.

The couple will be married July 29, in Los Angeles at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints Temple.

Cemetery Assoc. slates meeting

Highland Cemetery Association will meet Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Iowa Park Recreation Center when future expansion of the cemetery will be discussed.

Work will begin soon on clearing the land south of the present cemetery which was donated by the children of W. F. and Nellie George as a memorial to their parents.

Don Daugherty, architect, donated his time to create a blueprint for the future expansion on this property.

The blueprint includes an ornamental gazebo and parking spaces at the entrance. Areas also are designated for trees and beautiful garden spots. An appropriate memorial will be erected to Mr. and Mrs. George.

An attractive iron fence will be constructed along the south boundary of the property, adjoining the expressway service road. Entrance to the cemetery will be from this service road. Cemetery spaces have been platted.

Individuals, families and organizations will be given the opportunity to donate memorials. Engraved bricks already paid for and others available for sale will be used in the garden area. These bricks are $25 and can be purchased through the cemetery office.

Leverne Owens is chairman of raising funds to insure that Highland Cemetery becomes one of the most beautiful cemeteries in the area. Designate your donations to Highland Cemetery Expansion Fund. A chicken spaghetti supper is planned to kick off fund raising. Time for this will be announced later.

Ten acres of the property purchased from the Lehman estate, north of the present cemetery, will be developed and platted for cemetery lots.

Members of the board of directors have been working hard to maintain and expand the cemetery property for present and future generations.

Yard of the Month

Yard of the Month for July is that of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, 611 Manes. A yard is selected each month by the Iowa Park Garden Club.

Although located outside the city limits, the committee also calls attention to the rose garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Miller. The home is located on the north side of Old Iowa Park Road a short distance west of FM 369.

Pharm/alert Health Tips

EIGHT WAYS TO PREVENT SKIN CANCER

The American Academy of Dermatology recommends the following precautions to lessen the chance of developing skin cancer.

- ✓ Minimize Sun Exposure, especially during the peak sun hours of 10:00 AM and 2:00 PM when the sun's rays are the most intense.
- ✓ Apply a Sunscreen liberally and frequently, and reapply every two (2) hours when working, playing, or exercising outdoors. Sunscreens with a Sun Protection Factor (SPF) of at least 15 are recommended for protection against skin cancer and premature aging of the skin. Even on cloudy days, these precautions should be followed.
- ✓ Wear Appropriate Clothing during prolonged periods in the sun, including a hat, long-sleeved shirt and pants.
- ✓ Beware of Reflective Surfaces. Sand, snow, concrete, and water can reflect up to 85 percent of the sun's damaging rays.
- ✓ Avoid Tanning Salons and Sunlamps since the ultraviolet rays emitted by these artificial sources are similar to those in sunlight and can cause sunburn, premature aging, and increased risk of skin cancer.
- ✓ Protect Children by keeping them out of the sun or minimizing sun exposure and applying sunscreens beginning at six months of age.
- ✓ Teach Children and Teenagers sun protection, since sun exposure damage accumulates over the course of a lifetime. One severe childhood or adolescent sunburn will double the risks of developing skin cancer.
- ✓ Examine Your Skin and your children's regularly for any changes in moles, freckles, or skin discoloration.

As I See It... By Bob Hamilton

With all the residential construction underway in Iowa Park, it's well worth noting that three properties of long-time Iowa Park families have recently been put up for sale.

Do the names of George, Crawford and Van Horn sound familiar?

Mrs. W.A. "Dutch" George recently had a for-sale sign placed at the driveway of her home, and it is likely to garner considerable attention, as will the other two places.

The George land encompasses almost all the land bounded by US 287, Texas Ave., Bell Road and Victoria, leaving out only the old red-brick home now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Mark Toby, which faces Texas.

The western portion of that property, in case you haven't heard, was once a nine-hole, sand-green golf course.

The W.T. Crawford residence should be familiar to everyone, especially if they've ever attended a football game at Hawk Stadium. It's located directly across Johnson Road from the stadium's east ticket office.

Then, in that same neighborhood, the old Van Horn place has gone on the sale block. That's all the virgin land between Johnson Road westward almost to the creek, with the railroad on the south and US 287 on the north, except, of course, the school district's land.

I don't have all the details of when these families purchased the properties, but I think I would be safe in saying that, combined, the total years would be very near 200.

Things change, but some more slowly than others.

Helpful Facts

Yearly permits to keep animals (except dogs and cats) on your property are available for $5 at Iowa Park City Hall.

Letters to the Editor

Asks city for help

Mr. Hamilton,

I am prompted to write in response to your article last week on the beauty of our city. I have been a resident of Iowa Park for over forty years, and our family has been very happy growing up and raising our children in the warmth and comfort of small town living. There are many lovely, well-kept homes here that speak of the home owners respect and responsibility for their homes and neighbors. However, it only takes one eye-sore to spoil a whole neighborhood, and I have been the one to be saddled with this next door to our home.

I have spoken to city officials for ten years concerning the property directly behind me with absolutely no response. This property is littered with brush, mesquite trees, rusted barrels and huge tractor tires. It has been a breeding place for skunks, possum, rats and many other unwanted pests. I have come to accept the fact that no one is interested enough in the well being of residents surrounding this area to do nothing. This land is unoccupied and no one is available to contact personally. This has been written off as a lost cause never to be corrected.

However, about two years ago new neighbors moved into the home adjacent to our's. Since that time, they have accumulated twelve automobile hulks in the backyard. The front driveway is littered with two to four inoperable autos at different times. My privacy fence has been weakened and begun to sway due to tires, wheels, milk crates, bricks, doors and car hoods strewn against it. How am I to replace this fence with no room for workers to work, and the fear that a new fence will be treated in the same manner; or to be painted with graffiti as threatened. These same neighbors have a small rental house at the rear of the property. These renters have now deposited a couch, love seat and cushions along the alley.

The rains during the past months have been a God send to our lawns and flowers, unless the neighbors mow only once since last summer.

I have to question the responsibility of our city officials to allow this to continue. I have personally contacted Mr. Lytle twice and Mr. House once. I was assured that it was unlawful for inoperable automobiles and junk piles to exist on property within the city limits. What has been done about it? Let me extend a personal invitation to each city council member, or other official, to take thirty minutes to take a scenic tour of this property at the corner of Rebecca and Pacific Avenues. I wonder what visitors passing through town might think of this mess.

I truly hope that the golf course becomes a reality for our town, and the new additions become a beautiful extension of our city. But please, do not become so wrapped up in these projects that existing problems go unattended. We have paid taxes into this system, and will continue to do so for many decades to come.

I hope you will print this as a cry for help for something to be done immediately. Maybe this will get someone's attention.

Thank you,
Jackie Young
505 W. Rebecca

Tourney slated

A four-man golf scramble benefitting the Iowa Park Athletic Booster Club will be played July 29 at River Creek Golf Course near Burk Burnett.

Entry fee will be $35 per person, which includes green fee, golf cart and a hamburger feed, according to Carmen Lozipone, who is coordinating the event.

All proceeds will benefit activities sponsored by the Booster Club.

At least one Iowa Park coach will be playing with each group. This will give some players an opportunity to meet or become better acquainted with the coaching staff, Lozipone said.

Prizes will be awarded to the top three teams, as well as for the longest drive and closest to the pin.

Students with high school eligibility remaining can compete, but cannot accept any of the prizes.

Entry fee and player's average score can be mailed to Lozipone at Box 186, Iowa Park.

Winning team

Three players from Iowa Park were members of the junior high girls' division championship team which competed in the Greater Wichita Falls area.

Helping the Blue Devils achieve a perfect, 10-0 record were Erin Foster, Cari Hogan, Amanda Reed and Meagan Smith, all of Iowa Park.

League games were played here, Vernon, Hirschi, Burk Burnett and Notre Dame.

John Chapman

Life has not slowed down for John Chapman since his retirement in 1982, after working 30 years in civil service at Sheppard Air Force Base.

Some of his activities include being a member and senior tournament director of the Wichita Falls Chess Club; member and Worshipful Master of the Iowa Park Masonic Lodge; a director on the board of the Recreational Activities Center (RAC); member of the RAC Bridge Club; member and first vice president of the Iowa Park Genealogical & Historical

COOK OF THE WEEK

Society; and a member of the MuleSkinners.

He also enjoys working with ceramics and china painting. Sandwiched in between all of these activities, John reads an average of 200 books a year.

Born in Okmulgee County, Okla., John later moved with his family to Wheeler County in Texas. He graduated in 1943 from McLean High School, and said that was the last year for classes to graduate under the 11-year system in Texas.

John earned a degree in mathematics at West Texas State Teachers College in 1949. His class was the last to graduate while the school was under that name. The school, located in Canyon, is now known as West Texas A&M University.

John and his wife Etoy have lived in Iowa Park 34 years. They have four children: John II, Brent, Kent, and JToy, and seven grandchildren.

John likes to cook, and has definite ideas about procedures, conserving time, and keeping it simple.

The following recipes and comments are in John's own words:

"To start, a Cordon Bleu cook I am not. Practical cook, I am. Two of the following food formulas are my design. If fancy food is required, then I look through 12 feet of cook books. My motto is to keep it simple and use the least time necessary - you see I am lazy. Let's look at a Sunday Dinner, the noon meal at my house is always dinner. The amount of food you prepare will depend on how many hungry people you expect at the table."

Menu - Sunday Dinner

Roast Beef Tossed Salad
Potatoes Bread - Rolls
Carrots Dessert - Ice Cream

Drink of Choice

Note: Red potatoes are best because white potatoes tend to turn to mush.
Beef: Brown in an oven-proof pan with just enough oil to brown.
Potatoes: Peel and quarter lengthwise and put into the pan with the beef.

Carrots: Peel and cut in half and put into the pan with the beef.

Chop a medium onion, 1/2 bell pepper and 1 or 2 cloves of garlic; toss into the pan. Add 1/2 cup water. If you want gravy, add a package of brown gravy mix - it works.

Set oven temperature to 350 F. and set the timer to allow for 90 minutes of cooking. Put a lid on the pan and set it on the middle shelf. When you get home from church, remove the pan, it's ready to eat.

Tossed Salad:

Tear up a whole bunch of lettuce (do not chop) and place in a zip lock bag. Dice some tomatoes; place in zip lock bag.

Slice a cucumber; place in a zip lock bag.

Dice 1-2 stalks celery; place in a zip lock bag.

Chop some radishes; place in a zip lock bag.

Chop some onion; place in a zip lock bag.

Stick all the zip lock bags in the ice box. When you get home from church, dump the contents of the bags into a bowl and toss by hand - wash your hands first.

Bread - Rolls

Just follow the directions on the package. Of course, I could have prepared homemade rolls, but I was doing something else on Saturday.

Now if you have used your time well you would have set the table before you left for church. When the rolls are browned, put it all on the table and proceed.

For dessert, ice cream in a bowl with chocolate syrup, or caramel, or butterscotch, or all three - the kids will like all three - makes a good finale for dinner.

You will surely have noted it isn't fancy, but it works. If you prefer a pork roast, just substitute pork for beef.

Dinner during the week, the noon meal, is spaghetti topped with meat sauce, salad and garlic toast. If you don't know how to prepare spaghetti, then read a cook book. The meat sauce is my own formula - it's pretty good. Time to prepare the sauce is about 20 minutes, then allow about two hours to simmer.

Meat Sauce

1 - 1 1/2 lbs. hamburger
1 medium onion
1/2 bell pepper
1-2 cloves garlic
3 - 8 oz. cans tomato sauce
1 - 14-16 oz. can stewed tomatoes

1-2 stalks celery
4-6 fresh mushrooms
Optional: 8-10 chopped black olives, also 1 - 6 oz. can mushrooms can be used instead of fresh mushrooms. Fresh is best.

Procedure: Dump the tomato products, chopped black olives, and canned mushrooms into a 4-6 quart stock pot or any other lidded pot. Set on the burner and adjust the heat to medium; stir once in a while.

Select a skillet larger than necessary to brown the hamburger, cause you are going to add more stuff. Heat the skillet; add about one tablespoon of oil; toss in the hamburger; break it up; spread it out; then turn down the heat to medium, stir once in a while.

Get out your chopping board and chef's knife and chop up the celery and bell pepper - do a good job. By the time you finish chopping the celery and bell pepper, the meat should be browned. Remove to a bowl lined with paper towels and park it somewhere to drain. Load the celery and bell pepper into the skillet and stir them around. While the celery and bell pepper are sauteing, chop up the onions, garlic and fresh mushrooms. When the celery and bell pepper are about done, toss in the onions, garlic and mushrooms; stir the whole mess until done. Now locate the browned meat and get it back into the skillet; mix it all together.

Oops, almost forgot the condiments. You will have to pick and choose to suit your taste buds. I use black pepper, red pepper, cumin, curry, basil, marjoram and Italian seasoning. If you use red pepper, go easy with the curry - unless you eat jalapeno peppers raw.

I put my condiments in a small bowl, mix well, and sprinkle over the mess in the skillet. After the condiments have had a chance to blend, then dump the whole thing into the tomato mixture; put the lid on; reduce the heat to low, and it will be ready in an hour or two. Oh, stir it once in a while. In deference to those who have dinner at the evening hour, this is o.k. to use.

My family likes a salad (see the Sunday Dinner Menu) and garlic toast made from French bread.

Garlic Toast

Lay slices of French bread on a cookie sheet; smear each slice with margarine and sprinkle with garlic powder. If you are smart, you will have set your oven rack at the top, and set the temperature at 450-500 F to heat while you are messing with the bread slices. Now that the oven is hot, slide the pan into the oven, takes 6-8 minutes to brown. Watch carefully - you want toast, not charcoal briquets.

Recently I planned this meal, but found that French bread was priced equal to the cost of two loaves of regular bread - I was horrified. I grabbed a package of hot dog buns, split them, and pretended each half was a slice of French bread. It worked out pretty well.

Please note in this menu there is no dessert. If you have pigged out on pasta, sauce, salad, and garlic bread, there isn't any room.

This final offering, Chapman Slumgullion, is my very own. This was worked out when I was a Boy Scout. Back packing does not allow for a lot of cooking equipment. This is a type of omelet. The following should suffice for four people.

Chapman Slumgullion

8 slices bacon
2-3 medium potatoes, diced or sliced
1 medium onion, chopped
Optional: 1/2 bell pepper, 2 stalks celery, 2 cloves garlic, all diced
5 eggs - (note there is one more egg than people). Beat the tar out of eggs. Cast iron skillet, 10-12-inch size
Paper towel lined bowl
8-inch plate covered with a paper towel (a paper plate is o.k.)

Procedure:
Cook the bacon well done, not burnt. Place on the 8-inch plate and crumble when cool.

Saute the potatoes, stir them once in a while to keep them from scorching.

While the potatoes are sauteing, chop the onion, garlic, bell pepper and celery.

When the potatoes are done, remove to the paper lined bowl; set out of the way. Dump the bell pepper and celery into the skillet and saute; stir them around a bit. When the pepper and celery are about done, add the onion and garlic and stir real well. When the veggies are cooked, then get the bowl of potatoes and dump them back into the skillet.

Pour in the well-beaten eggs and stir to mix well. When they are done, it's time to eat.

This omelet is not pretty, just close your eyes and enjoy. It works well for a cook-out at the lake side, and even sometimes for supper.

The formulas and procedures shown are practical and not time consuming. It's the grub we want to consume, not the minutes on the clock.

Baked Chicken Breasts

A quickie for those times when kin folks drop in unexpected.

Pre-heat oven to 350 F.

1/2 chicken breast per person. Skin it and smear both sides with margarine. Sprinkle on some Italian seasoning, garlic powder, pepper (red or black).

Place breasts in a pyrex dish; set on middle rack of the oven; turn after 30 minutes.

After 20 more minutes, turn back over and sprinkle a little Parmesan cheese on each breast and cook an additional 5-10 minutes.

Remove from the oven and you have your meat course. If you have a microwave, bake a few potatoes, throw together a salad, and sit down to eat.

A nice aspect of this chicken thing is that your total worktime preparing and turning the breasts should not exceed fifteen minutes. The salad maybe 10 more minutes, and washing the potatoes and turning them in the microwave, five more.

Obituaries

Mildred M. Raines

Mildred McMahan Raines, 79, sister of Nova L. Anderson of Iowa Park, died Monday in Dallas.

Berry retiring

have no particular hobbies, but I love to read and visit friends," Louise said. She mentioned she has many boxes of pictures she plans to finally put in albums.

She also plans to visit a friend in Comfort. They were in college together and have kept in touch through the years, but have not seen each other. She isn't planning any long distance traveling.

Louise lives in the same house she and Alan purchased 45 years ago, and it has beautiful antique and sentimental pieces that bring back pleasant memories of the passing years.

Her father worked for Morrison Funeral Home in Graham as a bookkeeper. She grew up with two brothers, but she is the only one left of her family.

When her parents built their home they added a special room on the house so their only daughter could have a room just to use for her playhouse.

She still has several of the dolls she had when she was a little girl and they are in mint condition. She has had new dresses made for some of them.

In the den Louise has a secretary filled with tea sets and dishes and other pieces she used in her playroom. Surely, Louise must have been the envy of every little girl who had the privilege of playing with her. She likes antiques, if they are something handed down in her family, and she has some beautiful pieces. A china closet showcases some pieces she is especially proud of--china and glassware that belonged to her mother. Many of the pieces were wedding gifts to her parents when they married in 1908.

Louise plans to visit her sons who both live in the Metroplex area. She said, "At least I can visit them longer than overnight, if I want to and they want me to."

Malcolm is a registered pharmacist, but is now administrator of North Texas Rehabilitation Hospital in Arlington.

Ronnie lives in Fort Worth and is warehouse foreman for Coors Beer.

Louise has one grandchild. She had three, but lost a grandson and granddaughter in a tragic accident a few years ago. They were Malcolm's children.

"I know I am really going to miss seeing people," Louise said about retiring, "but I am looking forward to getting to do some things I've wanted to do for a long time."

In retrospect, she added, "There have been lots of changes in my life through the years--there have been tragic times, but there have been a lot of pleasant years also. And the people have been wonderful to me."

NEWS OF THE IOWA PARK GENEALOGICAL & HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The U.S. Federal Census was first taken and recorded in 1790. It has become one of the most important historical records of great significance in our country.

These records in the government archives contain much information about ordinary citizens in 1790 and each census since that time has provided a wealth of information.

The information not only has provided us a view of the past but has influenced our way of life.

To genealogists the early censuses give us a general view of our ancestors' household. They list only the name of the male head of the family, followed by the number of male and female members in age groups: under 10 years, between the years 10-16, 16-25, 25-45.

This gives some idea of the number of children in the family. However, one needs to bear in mind each member of the household may not be closely related. They may be cousins, hired help and at times other kin or friends.

William Thorndale and William Dollarhide have published three important works that have been reprinted and two are in paperback. Valuable reference books for libraries, both public and private, are must for some genealogists.

"The 1790 Census" is a 12 volume set and can be found in libraries that have a colonial research section. The individual volumes vary in price according to size, such as Rhode Island, 71 pages to Pennsylvania, 420 pages. The complete set is in the range of $250.

"Managing a Genealogical Project" by William Dollarhide, is a help in getting started, organizing and has a chapter on genealogical software, price range $15 plus postage.

These books are available from the Genealogical Publishing Co., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD. 21202-3897, 800-296-6687. The books will be available at some libraries in the genealogy section.

Having genealogy project problems? Come to the meeting Saturday, July 8, at 2 p. m. at Tom Burnett Memorial Library.

The July newsletter will be available at the meeting. Also plans for the research field trip with Fillmore Spangler to the Dallas Library the week of July 9 will be finalized. Join us.

FFA News

FFA Members to help with Annual Tractor Pull

Iowa Park FFA members will be helping the Wichita County Young Farmers this year with the Truck and Tractor Pull on Friday and Saturday nights.

Students are to be at the rodeo grounds each night between 6:00 and 6:30 p.m., and will help park cars and sell caps along with other activities.

The Wichita County Young Farmers host this event each year for the enjoyment of the community. The money made each year from this event is returned to the community through their youth programs.

Students who have questions can call any FFA officer, Mindy Atchley, Amber Brandt, Alora Foster, Clint Witherspoon, Jamie Gholson, Clint Myers, or advisors Ray Dillard and George Martin.

NEIGHBORS

BRUSH POPPERS RODEO

The annual Brush Poppers Regional Ranch Rodeo will be held July 14-15 at the Tex Rickard Arena in Henrietta. Other events will include a dance, trade and craft show, barbecue, and cowboy poetry gathering.

Major All Stars win first outing

The Iowa Park Major League All Star team opened play in the Area Tournament at Sheppard Air Force Base Monday night with a narrow 4-3 win over the Sheppard All Stars. The win, along with Wichita Falls 7-5 win over Burkburnett in the night cap, set up a Wichita Falls - Iowa Park showdown Wednesday night.

Burk was to play Sheppard at 6 p.m. Wednesday in an elimination game. The winner of that game will play the loser of the Iowa Park game on Thursday with the Championship game scheduled for Friday night at 7 p.m. with the if-necessary game on Saturday.

The teams are playing for the right to advance to play in the District Tournament next week in Graham. The winner of the Area Tournament will advance and will have to take with them any losses they have in this tournament which will mean the first time they lose in the District Tournament they would be eliminated.

Iowa Park took a 1-0 in the bottom of the third when Jon Jordan singled to start the inning. Center fielder Bryan Swenson, who made a spectacular diving catch in the top half of the second to rob Sheppard of a run, reached base on a fielders choice when Jordan was thrown out at second. After Steven Gray grounded out to the first baseman for the second out of the inning, Chase Wright slapped a single just out of the reach of the Sheppard first baseman to drive in Swenson for the game's first run.

Sheppard came right back and tied the game at 1-1 in the top of the fourth but Iowa Park answered with a run of its own to retake the lead at 2-1.

Ryan Bess led off the bottom half of the fourth with a single and came around to score on Zac Miller's RBI single to left-center to give the Hawks a 2-1 lead.

Sheppard answered with a run in the top of the fifth to knot the score at 2-2 before Iowa Park took the lead for good in the bottom of the fifth.

With one out in the inning, Gray singled up the middle and scored when Wright blasted an 1-0 pitch well over the fence in straight away center field for a two-run homer to give Iowa Park a 4-2 lead.

But the Sheppard team didn't quit as they rallied in the top of the final frame to score a run and have the run that would have tied the game at 4-4 thrown out at the plate in the top of the sixth.

With two runners on base, a Sheppard hitter singled to center field to score the runner from second base. The throw to the plate by Swenson was cut off at the mound by Bess who threw to third trying to get the runner coming from first but the throw got away and went into left field. The runner from third tried to score the tying run but Gray, who was backing up the play from his shortstop position, threw a perfect strike to Chris Simmons who was catching for Iowa Park. Simmons caught the ball up the line and tagged the runner out to end the game.

"I was surprised they played us as tough as they did," manager David Wright said. "They played great defense. Every time we hit the ball on the ground they caught it and threw us out.

Their pitcher kept us off balance all night. He did a good job spotting his pitches and had good control. He only walked one hitter all night and that was the leadoff hitter of the game."

Iowa Park also got strong pitching performances from two of its pitchers. Jordan started the game and went three innings striking out three and only giving up two hits and no runs. He walked four and picked up the win. Bess came on in the fourth and struck out five and allowed only three hits and walked three for Iowa Park.

The Hawks were led at the plate by Wright who went 2-for-3 with 3 RBI's and a run scored.

Both Iowa Park and Wichita Falls were expecting to meet each other in Wednesday's game as both teams held back their best pitchers.

"This was Wichita Falls' first year to play Little League and they've done a great job," Wright said. "Watson's the ace of their staff and he throws the ball real well for them."

Two of the players on the Iowa Park team have played with some of the players on the Wichita Falls team in tournaments in Oklahoma City earlier this season. Both Wright and Bess have played with the tournament teams in Wichita.

But going into Wednesday night there wasn't any question which team they would be pulling for as Iowa Park wanted to remain undefeated going into the Area Tournament.

Tournament teams see competition

Three of Iowa Park's tournament teams traveled to Oklahoma last weekend to play in the Frederick Tournament with the 12-year old team, the Rangers, finishing third and the 11-year old team, the Sox, finishing fourth. The 9-year old team played in a different division and finished with a 1-1 mark, splitting a pair of games against Altus and Frederick.

In the Major League Division, the Sox opened play Thursday night against the hometown Frederick Cubs and fell 10-5 as Frederick jumped out to an 8-1 lead, then held on as Iowa Park rallied to score four runs in the bottom of the sixth to trim the Cubs' lead to only 8-5.

Freddie Simmons led the Sox at the plate going 3-for-3 and scored a run while Jared Davis went 2-for-4 with an RBI and a run scored. John Schram also drove in a run with a single in the second inning to tie the game at 1-1.

In Friday night's game the Rangers beat the Burkburnett Black Sox 14-8 as Iowa Park raced out to a 8-0 lead.

The Rangers scored a pair of runs in the first inning when Brandon Lane and Colby Rusk both scored after reaching base on walks.

Iowa Park scored six more runs in the second to blow the game open. Michael Horton pitched the game for Rangers and picked up the win for Iowa Park. Burk got on the board in the third when they scored five runs to cut the lead to 8-5 but Iowa Park answered with two runs to take a 10-5 lead. Burk added three runs in the fifth but once again the Rangers came back with four more runs to make the final 14-8.

Burk's loss to the Rangers pitted them against the Iowa Park Sox Saturday at noon with the Sox coming from behind to take a 12-11 win in extra innings to remain alive in the tournament.

Burk jumped out to a 4-0 lead after the first inning but Iowa Park scored a pair of runs in their half of the second to trim the lead to 4-2. Andy Simpson led off the inning with a double to left and came around to score on Nick Kennedy's RBI ground out.

Dane Minderman reached on a fielders choice then came around to score on Jeremy Wilson's RBI single to cut the lead to 4-2.

Burk added three runs in the bottom of the second to extend its lead to 7-2. Both teams scored two runs in the fourth to make the score 9-4. Iowa Park's runs came in when Simpson, who finished the game 3-for-4 with an RBI and three runs scored, led off with a single and came around to score on a passed ball. Kennedy followed with a walk and scored on Kyle Young's RBI ground out. Young finished the game 2-for-4 with two RBI's.

Iowa Park added three more runs in the top of the fifth to make the score 9-7 as Joel Sanchez, Davis and Schram all scored thanks to three walks and an RBI single by Sanchez. The Sox scored once in the top of the sixth to pull to within one at 9-8 before Burk looked to have put the game away with two runs in the bottom half of the inning to take an 11-8 lead heading into the seventh.

Iowa Park scored three runs to tie the game at 11-11 in the top of the seventh. Simmons reached on an error, Simpson walked then Young delivered an RBI single to score Simmons. Minderman also walked and came in to score on Wilson's RBI single.

The Sox held Burk scoreless in the bottom of the seventh then scored the game winner in the top of the eighth when Sanchez led off with a single and scored on Simpson's RBI single to make the final 12-11.

The Rangers' second game was against a tough Lawton Reds team that finished second in the Lawton tournament the week before. Iowa Park fell 18-8 as the Reds came from behind to win.

Derrick Carlton led off the game with a single followed by walks to the next three Iowa Park hitters with Josh Moer picking up an RBI on his walk. Damon Fox followed with a single up the middle that scored two runs as Iowa Park led 4-2 after the first inning.

The Rangers scored three more runs in the top of the second when Rowdy Hebel led off with a single followed by a single to Carlton and an RBI single by Moer to give Iowa Park a 7-2 lead.

It was all Lawton from that point on as the Reds scored nine runs in the second, two more in the third and five more in the fourth to take the game 18-8.

The Sox got a chance to play Frederick again but fell behind 10-1 after the first inning and 16-2 after the second inning before losing 18-5. Simmons led the Sox at the plate going 2-for-2 with an RBI and two runs scored.

The Rangers then played Frederick and after trailing 8-7 after two innings lost 18-9 to finish third. Iowa Park was led at the plate by Horton, Carlton and Heath Hodges.

In the 9-10 year old division, Iowa Park opened with a 15-12 win over Frederick as Cory Bosley led Iowa Park at the plate going 4-for-4 with two homers and four runs scored and four RBI's. Other leading hitters were Derek Vann, Michael Fulkerson and Dakota Patterson. Iowa Park trailed 4-3 after one but took the lead for good in the second when they scored three runs to take a 6-5 lead then went on to win 15-12.

In their second game the Hawks lost a tough one to Altus by the score of 11-7. Iowa Park trailed by the score of 2-1 after 2 1/2 innings but gave up nine runs over the next two innings to fall behind 11-3. The Hawks scored four runs in the fifth but it wasn't enough to overcome the eight run deficit.

Iowa Park's 8-year old tournament team traveled to Graham last week and finished the tournament with a 2-1 mark. The Hawks beat Graham 15-6 in the opening game then downed Jacksboro 15-1 in the second game

W.F. George High School Class of '45 reunites

Twenty-two of the 39 seniors who graduated W.F. George High School on May 18, 1945, attended their 50-year class reunion, held here on June 23 and 24.

Classmates came from Missouri, New Mexico, California, as well as across Texas. Of the 39 graduates, 30 are still living.

Activities began with a catered dinner on Friday, June 23, at the Recreational Activities Center.

Johnnie Ozee, class president, served as the master of ceremonies and Donald Hill gave the invocation.

After the welcome and recognition of special guests, a sing song was led by the "Glee Club" (class members), who sang "Deep in the Heart of Texas," "Ham & Eggs," "Ting-Ling-Ling," and "The Eyes of Texas."

Poetry recitations presented by class members included: "Nursery Rhymes for the Tenderhearted" by Jim Medlinger; "Purple Cow" by Bennie Mills; "The Marble Statue" by Betty Davis Wilson; "George's Favorite" by George Koonce; and "The Pioneer Woman" by Frances Bell Davis.

Other entertainment was provided by The Sauerkraut Symphony, a rhythm band made up of class members, and a skit, "The Class Clowns," put on by Frank Smith and George Koonce, assisted by Peggy Smith and Joan Koonce.

A memorial service honoring deceased class members and sponsors was directed by Johnnie Ozee, and following the benediction, the group sang "God Bless America."

Door prizes were presented throughout the evening by Wayne House and Donald Hill.

On Saturday morning a breakfast was served in the Evelyn Miller Fellowship Hall at First Presbyterian Church. Evelyn Miller, the class salutatorian, died in 1950, and the fellowship hall was built in her memory.

The hall was decorated with red schoolhouses, yellow school buses, slates, and flags.

Each class member was presented with a Senior Memory Book, which included photos and momentos from 1945 class activities, photos of other reunions, and recent letters from class members and sponsors.

The group traveled in a school bus on a tour of the city, guided by Wayne House, a class member who is now mayor of Iowa Park. Richard Davis, high school principal, led the class members and guests through the high school. Other points of interest on the tour included Tom Burnett Memorial Library, Kidwell Elementary School, Bradford Elementary School, junior high school, city hall, Chamber of Commerce office, Cryovac, Lake Iowa Park, Gun Club, and the Optimist Club Gym.

Lunch was served at the church following the tour.

On Saturday evening the group met at the Wichita Club in Wichita Falls for dinner and a photo session.

The Reunion Committee included Johnnie Ozee, Jim and Bonnie Medlinger, Mary Guthrie, Wayne House, Bettye Hansen, Norma Jean Fox, Betty Hall, Donald Hill, Alene Onstead, and Bennie Mills.

Class Officers included Johnnie Ozee, president; Jim Medlinger, vice president; Marie Scott Manes, secretary; Norma Jean Brown Fox, treasurer; and Modine Owens Whitson, reporter.

Faculty Sponsors were Mary

Frances Reaves Farris, Nadine Ford, Mary Belle Coon, G.W. and Helen Tillerson.

Mrs. L.F. Miller, Mrs. Johnnie N. Ozee, Sr., Mrs. A.A. Spence, and Mrs. D.O. James were Room Mothers.
