RETIRED OPTOMETRIST

Likes what he sees in classics

By MYRNA SMITH

Retired—as an active Doctor of Optometry—but multi-talented James

D. Edwards has many interests and skills and his scientific and artistic mind will keep him from being an inactive retiree.

Dr. Edwards has an avid and fine interest in the performing and arts. His den walls feature many of his paintings, he participates in the Backdoor Theater in Wichita Falls, he is a musician and vocalist and displays skill in restoring antique cars. In addition he has an appreciation of and collects some other antique objects.

A native of San Antonio, Edwards dismisses with a flourish the fact that his family traces their bloodline back to Sam Houston.

Edwards received his O. D. degree from the University of Houston, College of Optometry. He said he started out to be a commercial artist, but his father persuaded him that optometry would be a good profession.

"I believe it was a good suggestion, I have enjoyed it and the eye is especially interesting to me," Edwards said.

Edwards moved to Iowa Park in 1978 when he was transferred to Sheppard Air Force Base. He retired with the rank of major in 1986 after serving 20 years in the Air Force.

He then practiced his profession in Wichita Falls seven years. In 1992 he moved his practice to Iowa Park.

"I knew I wouldn't make as much money here, but for the convenience of having my business where I want to live I was willing to sacrifice some," Dr. Edwards said.

"But, what was true for other businesses here was true of my profession," Edwards said. "It seems so many people feel they must go to a bigger town to get what they want, or for better service. It just didn't work out," he added.

In 1993 he leased office space next to Penney's Optical Co. in Wichita Falls and remained there until his retirement in April of this year.

Since he retired he has started playing golf more and has been working on his antique cars.

Man arrested, sent to jail

An arrest Thursday night that was initially for public intoxication turned into a much stronger charge which sent a 29-year-old man to the county jail.

An officer arrested Randy Hughes in the 300 block of East Highway at 10:42 p.m. But when Hughes' vehicle was searched, the officer discovered numerous loaded hand guns and rifles as well as other weapons.

Hughes was transported to the county jail at 3:25 a.m. Friday on a charge of unauthorized carrying of weapons by a felon, according to the police blotter.

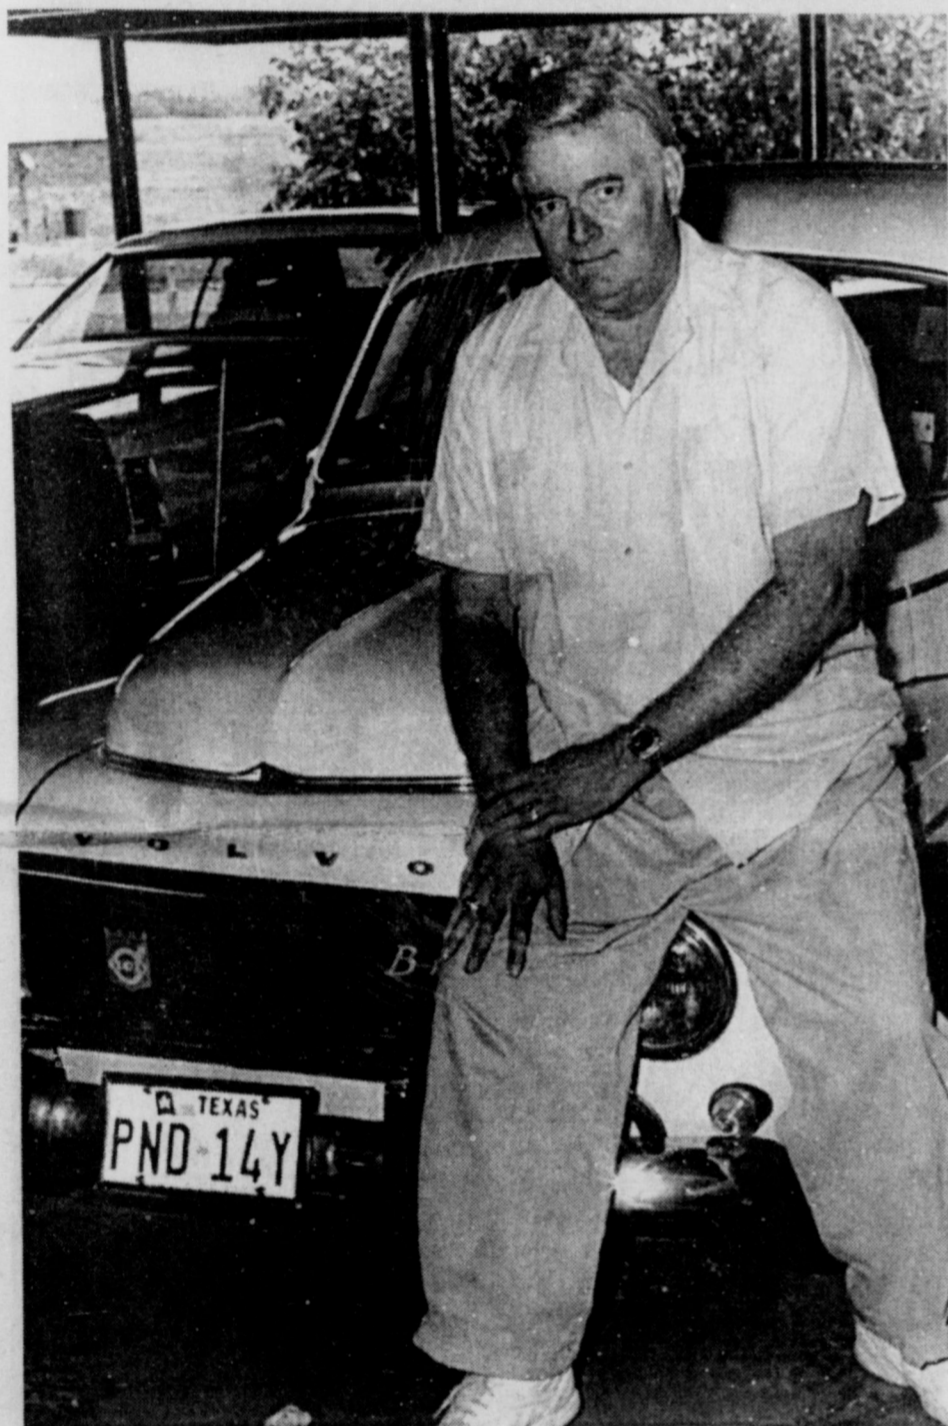

A resident on South Colorado told police early Sunday morning that someone had stolen a stereo system out of his pickup.

The complainant told officers he had parked his vehicle at 2 a.m., and when he got back into it at 2:30, the equipment was missing.

Police are investigating. Not all complaints police respond to are violations of the law, however.

A woman went to the police station at 6:31 p.m. Friday seeking help. She had a dog with her who had lodged its head inside a jar.

Officer Robert Johnson and animal control officer Eddie Browning responded to the radio dispatcher's call, and successfully withdrew the dog's head from its entrapment.

Trustees hear options on meeting space needs

Approximately two hours, of Thursday night's marathon school board meeting was consumed by a consultant making recommendations on how to improve campus facilities to meet current and future needs.

The meeting began at 6:30 p.m. and adjourned at 1:05 a.m.

In the latter part of the meeting, which was held in the junior high school library, two executive sessions were held. One was to hear complaints and requests from parents, and the other concerning personnel.

The consultant, Gary Keep, of SHW Group Inc., a firm of architects and engineers, offered five alternatives on how the district can increase its facilities to handle anticipated student enrollment.

According to his figures, there were at the end of the school year 1,990 students enrolled. Total capacity of the four campuses in the district is 2,008. And the anticipated increase in enrollment over the next five years is 2,341.

Despite having constructed additional classrooms at both the high school and junior high, both campuses are currently overcrowded, Keep told the board.

Iowa Park High School has 574 pupils with a capacity of 550, and the anticipated enrollment was put at 729.

The junior high has 493 pupils with a capacity of 480, and the five-year forecast is for 516.

Neither of the elementary buildings are overcrowded, according to his figures, but will be within five years.

Kidwell has 440, with a capacity of 461, but 569 are anticipated in his projections. Bradford has 483 pupils with a capacity of 517, but the projection in five years was set at 527.

Keep's five alternatives ranged in cost from $11,238,000 to $12,888,000 to increase facilities to meet future enrollment figures.

The consultant was employed to make his study and recommendations. He has done similar work for the district in the past.

Each of the campus administrators have earlier made their recommendations for campus improvements.

No indications have been forthcoming from trustees or administrators on what will be undertaken to increase facilities, nor has any time line been set to make a decision.

Following the consultant's presentation, Mrs. Rick Frazier approached the board with a request to install a hand rail between the high school main building and the "A" building to aid her daughter.

She said the rail, as well as the elevator in the main building which is part of Keep's recommendations, would meet the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Board chairman Keith Fischer told Mrs. Frazier that the board would take the request under advisement.

Following the board's first closed session, held with parents, trustees voted to take no action. Topics included a parent complaint and the other was a group of City View parents.

When the board reconvened in open session following the second closed meeting, the following actions were taken:

- * Accept the teacher resignations of Brett White, high school history/coach; Terry Johnston, high school computer science, and Sherry Ripley, Bradford fourth grade.

- * Approved employment of Fillmore Spangler, high school computer science; Vicki Lynn Adams, Kidwell counselor; Catherine Simek, functional living center, and David May, junior high science/coach.

- * Approved the reassignments of Janet Bowling, from Kidwell coun-

May disappointing for sales

May apparently was a "downer" for business in Wichita County, according to a report on sales tax collections.

All four cities in the county had lower sales taxes collected that month than in May of 1994, reports the state comptroller's office.

However, despite the fact that Iowa Park's sales tax rebate check dropped 5.95 percent, $17,462.82 as compared to $18,567.91 last year, this city still leads the other three in sales tax gain for the year.

According to the comptroller's report, Iowa Park has thus far received $143,855.12, which is a 10.81-percent gain over the $129,817.08 received at this time in 1994.

Wichita Falls' check this month is 2.67-percent lower than the same month last year, but for the year has a 2.66-percent gain.

Burkburnett's check was only .88 percent less than last year, but for 1995 is 6.77 percent behind last year.

Electra's check was 6.84 percent less than last year, but still has a 1.24-percent gain for 1995.

Holliday had a healthy gain, when May's collections last year and this year were compared. That city's tax rebate this month was 43.16 percent greater than last year, making its collections for the year 8.38 percent greater.

This month's sales tax rebates include taxes collected on May sales and reported to the comptroller in June by businesses filing monthly tax returns.

NEWS OF THE IOWA PARK GENEALOGICAL & HISTORICAL SOCIETY

This week I'm sharing a message written by John Chapman, first vice president/active president of the Iowa Park Genealogical and Historical Society, from the last newsletter.

"We can compare our society to the growing stages of a child. We were born out of the minds and vision of our neighbors. After our birth we began to grow. Did we have growing pains? Yes we did, we learned to crawl, finally we walked and now we are getting ready to run.

We have our first publication, "Happy Birthday, Iowa Park". Our first printing (at the time of this report) of 50 copies has been sold out.

Many people have asked for copies of our next printing, which has been ordered. Let us take pride in our effort. This our first book, will act as a reminder to the community of it's rich history.

Now we must look forward to future projects. Ideas have been presented, such as accounts of interviews with our long time residents, also there are home that were built years ago and stories concerning these homes might prove interesting. These are two possibilities and if we use our imagination there may be more.

A group has made a trip to the Fort Worth Archives, educational. Usually the first trip provides the basic knowledge of the data available and how to use the available equipment. Once one learns what is there, then research tends to move more rapidly, that is if a turtle's pace is rapid.

Most of us are particularly interested in our own family history, and rightly so. Genealogical study has always been an integral part of history. Individuals affect history and as we enumerate our early family members, we will find those that made changes.

When we find something interesting about an early family member it gives us a thrill. Genealogy has been and still is important historically, if you doubt that read your Bible".

John Chapman
First Vice President

Sandy Koonce, Ina Beth Jacques, Shirley Banks and John Chapman accompanied Fillmore Spangler on the field trip to the Dallas Library July 11. they were impressed by the wealth of research material available and are learning how to use it, an enjoyable trip was had by all.

Petersen, Pike nuptial vows exchanged in candlelight ceremony

In a candlelight setting punctuated with arrangements of summer flowers and greenery, Rebecca Ann Petersen of Austin and Afton Earle Pike, Jr. of Lindale exchanged matrimonial vows July 1 at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Background for the altar in Our Savior Lutheran Church in Austin included candelabra intertwined with garlands of ivy. Candelabra on each side of the altar and an altar arrangement of mixed summer flowers completed the setting.

A focal point in the area was a quilted wedding banner designed by Evelyn Berning, a friend of the bride's family. Large baskets of ferns were placed at the entrance to the sanctuary. Pews were draped with ivory tulle and bows.

Officiants for the ceremony were Rev. Robert Petersen of Carlos, Minn., uncle of the bride, and Dr. Kenneth Dickson of Dallas, a friend of the groom's family.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs.

Marilyn Petersen and the late Victor Petersen of Houston. Mr. and Mrs. Afton Pike, Sr., of Lindale, formerly of Iowa Park, are parents of the bridegroom.

Pre-nuptial music included, "Sheep May Safely Graze," "Amazing Grace," and "Let Us Ever Walk With Jesus."

"Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring"--Bach, was played during the seating of the parents. Processional was "Canon in D"--Pachelbel, and "Trumpet Voluntary in D"--Purcell was played during the bride's entrance.

Other musical selections included the congregational hymn of praise, "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee"--Beethoven, "I Was There to Hear Your Morning Cry"--Ylvisaker, during the lighting of the unity candle, "Go, My Children, With My Blessing"--Pelz, as the hymn of blessing and "Trumpet Tune in D"--Purcell for the recessional.

Charlotte Albers of Austin was organist. Vocal selections were by The Oakwilt Boys from Concordia College, and Jim and Dorothy Menke, who rang the bells following the seating of the parents. Fred and Dorothy Maass were wedding hosts.

Miss Petersen was presented for marriage by her brother, Matthew Petersen. She wore her mother's wedding dress which was made by the bride's grandmother.

Made of ivory Alencon lace, it was styled with a scoop neckline and short sleeves. The scalloped chapel length train of satin was attached with a matching bustle bow.

Her headpiece was a garland of rosebuds and pearls with a short tulle veil. She carried a bouquet of pink and ivory roses, magnolias, purple statice, and English ivy.

The bride's matron of honor was Elizabeth Landfried of Austin. She wore a princess style knee-length dress of navy, accented by a deep ivory lace collar.

Bridal attendants were Kristy Alexander, of Austin, Michele Snow of Houston, Lori Petersen, sister-in-law of the bride of Austin, Adriana Besteiro of Brownsville, Kianna Cody of Wichita Falls, and Rita Galloway of Harlingen. They wore dresses styled identical to the honor attendants'.

Laura Beth Landfried served as junior bridesmaid. Her navy tea-length dress was designed with a wide collar accented with ivory trim.

Flower girl was Heidi Menke of Pflugerville. She wore a tea length dress of ivory with matching headband. All bridal attendants carried arrangements of magnolias, accented with tulle bows.

Ring bearer was Thomas Landfried of Austin, Godchild of the bride. He wore a black tuxedo.

David Pike of Dallas, acted as best man for his brother.

Groomsmen were Scott Winn of Garland, Russell Shoemaker of San Antonio, Charles Gilstrap of Plano, Mark Schonefeld, Kingsville, Kyle Wells of Iowa Park, Ronald Pappas, Wichita Falls, and Matthew Petersen, the bride's brother.

Serving as ushers were Philip Davis of Euless, Van Hedrick, Gainesville, Bob Mason, Killeen, Darrell Scheidt, Fredricksburg, and Billy Yaklin of Corpus Christi.

All male attendants wore black tuxedos with white shirt, brocade bow ties and cummerbunds.

The dinner-dance reception was at Pflugger Hall in Pflugerville. Focal point of the decorations was the bride's table. Laid with a lace cloth tied with navy bows, the table was placed against a background of trellises draped in ivory tulle and rose garlands.

The bride's three-tiered cake was on footed pedestals and surrounded with miniature cakes. The groom's cake was German chocolate.

Members of the house party included Susan Bundy, Evangeline Domel, Linda Hunt, Donna Millhorn, Roseanna Rawlins and Suzan Winkelman.

The bride is a 1982 graduate of Eisenhower High School in Houston and a 1987 graduate of Concordia Lutheran College in Austin. She is an elementary school teacher.

Pike is a 1983 graduate of Iowa Park High School and TSTI in Waco. He received Associate degrees from Richland College in Richardson. He is employed by Northern Telecom.

The couple took a wedding trip to Maine. They are making their home in Lindale.

Guests for the wedding from Iowa Park were Jimmy Collazo, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gilstrap, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Hale, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Wells and Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Wells.

Educators attend annual conference

Three classroom teachers from Iowa Park, Barbara Padgett, Debbie Lytle, and Betty Cash attended the annual leadership conference of the Association of Professional Educators (ATPE) held recently in Austin.

Rep. Paul Sadler, chairman of the House Public Education Committee, spoke to the group of some 600 educators from across the state who serve as district and local leaders of ATPE.

In addition to workshops about the new Educational Code, educators attended training sessions to help them in the classroom and as ATPE leaders.

With more than 70,000 members, ATPE is the largest educators' group in Texas. It also is the largest such non-union group nationwide. ATPE's membership consists of classroom teachers, administrators, paraprofessionals, college students, and retired teachers.

As I See It. . .

By Bob Hamilton

I guess there are good and bad parts of everything, including bicycle rides.

I've complained about these events in the past, because they cause problems for lots of people, especially those who live or need to travel the routes the rides take.

Wichita Falls gets a lot of mileage with its Hotter 'n Hell Ride. National publicity is received. . . and warranted. But our communities that are burdened with the hundreds of riders who pass through are not able to share in all that national publicity.

Routes through Iowa Park cost our taxpayers, because our police department is obligated to provide traffic control.

Yet, Iowa Park is never mentioned in all that publicity.

And just try to get from point A to point B in the country, if your route is being used by a bicycle ride.

Wichita Falls got even more publicity last week by hosting a national junior competition. But you know what? Only one day's competition out of four was held inside the Wichita Falls city limits.

The rest was out in the rural areas, and people in those areas never know what days the competition would be held. They were never warned.

Also, those adults who came in their cars to watch were never instructed that they shouldn't park in the drive-ways of residences.

I know of one man who had to park his car on the roadside when he got home, and wait until the owners of two vehicles returned to drive away that afternoon.

Now we've got a new bicycle ride scheduled for the area. It will be the "Holliday Heat Stroke Ride" on July 29.

And guess what? The only way you can find out if your rural road will be a ride route is to contact the sponsors.

Their advance publicity states that there will be three routes available, from 95 K to 24 miles.

But, if you want to know where their routes are, you've got to participate and that information will be in your packet.

People who like to ride bicycles get a lot of good exercise from the activity. Communities or organizations that sponsor the events get a lot of publicity.

But residents along the routes, and people who have to travel those routes, get the bad part to which I earlier referred.

Edwards

Edwards took an art course at the University of Houston. He has beautiful artwork hanging in his den that he has done, including landscapes and still life in acrylics, water colors, oils, and some charcoals. "I work at my art in spurts," Edwards commented. He has sold several paintings in the past.

Other indications of his sensitivity to aesthetic values are a number of icons he found while in Egypt during his time in the Air Force. He is very interested in Egypt, its background and culture. While in service he was stationed in Laredo, Colorado and overseas.

Also he has a grouping of comedy and tragedy masks indicative of his love for drama. These he bought in Japan and are called Noh. They are used in a classic form of Japanese drama with choral music and dancing, using set themes, simple symbolic scenery, elaborately masked and costumed performances and stylized acting.

Edwards has performed in 23 productions at the Backdoor Theater in Wichita Falls. He enjoys playing the flamboyant, pompous type, possibly with some singing. He especially likes to portray English characters.

While he was taking drama courses at UH some others in the class were Peter Breck and Elmore Torn, who were in movies on television and Lany Harris who played in Hogan's Heroes. "But I did it mostly as a hobby. I never thought I wanted to make a career of acting," Edwards said.

Dr. Edwards is a member of the North Texas Men's Chorus that was organized with 10 members as a Barbershop group and developed into a chorus of about 50 members. He does the bass-baritone lead and also sings tenor.

The group practices once a week, and performs twice a month for private groups, nursing homes, and special organizations in North Texas and Oklahoma. They recently performed in Granbury and have performed in Dallas at the Galleria. They take a break during the month of July, but will start again in August.

Edwards also plays the guitar and accompanys himself as he sings folk, western or popular music. During his college days he performed in variety shows and did gigs in Houston night clubs.

Edwards has 19 antique cars of different styles, including some high performance and some in between. His oldest is a 1939 LaSalle. He has a 1941, a 1950 and 1967 Cadillac, and a 1967 Mercedes. He also has some models from the 1970s and '80s.

He likes to collect cars that are designer, or limited edition. He has three classic cars, one Cadillac, a Mark II Ford Continental, and a Jaguar.

He says all of the cars are drivable. Edwards does the detail work and minor mechanic work, but if it is anything major he hires it done. He spends about 100 hours on a car.

GARDENING HINTS

By MARK TERNING, COUNTY AGENT - HORTICULTURE

The heat of July is here for Texoma gardeners. Plant care and maintenance is critical during the summer months.

Texoma residents have asked the following questions during the past week.

Q. Where in the world is the Wichita County Extension Office?

A. We recently moved our office location to the Galaxy Building in Wichita Falls. Our exact address is 4309 Jacksboro Highway, Suite B. Our phone number has remained the same 766-0131.

Q. I have an automatic sprinkler system for watering my lawn. How often should I water the lawn to keep it green and healthy? The system will deliver a half-inch of water in 30 minutes.

A. You are one of the smart few who actually has measured how much water your system delivers. Most people never measure water output and run their sprinkler system on a hit and miss basis. Warm-season lawns will normally require about one inch of water every five or six days through summer. Adjust your system so that water is applied efficiently. Apply enough water to penetrate the soil without creating run-off. Remember to adjust your system according to seasonal rainfall patterns also to avoid wasting water.

Q. My twelve year old Red Oak is yellowing and some of the branches are dying back. Another Red Oak planted at the same time in my back yard in Wichita Falls looks great. What is the problem?

A. The leaves you mailed are a text book example of iron deficiency. Yellowing leaf tissue between green veins are the classic symptoms. If you look around town, you will see other Red Oaks with iron deficiency. Treating the trees with an iron fertilizer in a chelated form will provide the best results.

Products such as Lib-Fer Fe or Spring 138 have given good results on iron deficient trees. Check with a garden center or chemical distributor for iron fertilizer.

For your information, most of the red oaks which are severely iron deficient are crosses of Pine Oak and other non-adapted oak species. Shumard Oak and Texas Red Oak are the only oaks which will tolerate alkaline soils without iron deficiency problems.

Q. I have three apple trees planted in an Iowa Park landscape. The trees are three years old and now all of the leaves are turning brown around the edges. Is this an insect problem and how can I control it?

A. The problem is not a result of insect damage, however, heat and lack of adequate water will cause leaf scorching. Browning or scorching of leaf edges is a signal to increase your watering program. The recent triple digit temperatures with no rainfall have caused many plants to leaf scorch and defoliate. Regular deep watering at the dripline of trees will reduce the stress of a blistering hot Texoma summer.

Q. My eastern red cedars in Devol, Oklahoma are rapidly turning brown and dying.

A. There are several possible problems with your cedars. Lack of water, twig blight, and more commonly spider mites can cause the type of damage you have described. Spider mites have been all too common on tomatoes, marigolds, and evergreens this year. Check for these very small, reddish insects by shaking several branches over a piece of paper. Look for these tiny moving insects on the paper. You can also in severe infestations find webbing in the plant foliage. When spider mites are a problem the product Kelthane will provide good control.

First Aid

We currently have eight names on the list for a first aid class at the RAC. In order to secure an instructor, we need at least ten. If you would like to take this course, or need a renewal in the near future, please call the RAC at 592-4471. Cost for the course is expected to be $12.50 per person.

Volleyball

Registration for summer volleyball at the RAC sand courts is still open. We don't yet have enough teams to start the league, so come join us! Entry fee is $100 per six-player team (roster limit: 10).

C & W Dance

The regularly scheduled monthly dances at the RAC will be cancelled due to the loss of our band. Because of uncontrollable circumstances, the Over the Hill Gang will no longer be available to play at the dances. We appreciate all of you who supported this event, and look forward to hosting it again some day. If you would like to see another band play for the dances, please call the RAC and let us know. . . we want to offer what you want to attend!

Bridge

There were three tables in play this week at the Monday bridge club. High score was reported by Louise Helms with 5090 points. Second high went to Kay Cole with 4910 points. Only nine players have registered for next week.

Wednesday bridge club had three tables last week, and there are four tables scheduled this week. If you would like to join either club, please call the RAC at 592-4471. Advanced players play on Monday afternoons at 1:00 and beginners play at 1:00 p.m. on Wednesdays.

Lost & Found

We have found a camera tripod at the RAC following recent reunions and also a Shriner's cap was found in the parking lot. If you have lost either of these items, please stop by the RAC office at 806 N. Third to claim.

Thanks

Thanks to all the patrons who responded so generously to our requests for additional craft supplies! Also to the volunteers who assisted with our Ice Cream Day special and other activities this month. Your continued support is much appreciated!

ROBERT SUMNER, retired longtime IPHS auto mechanics instructor shows the catfish he snagged June 22 at Miller Creek near Munday. The larger of the two is a 34-lb. catfish caught on a trolline.

Vicky Merrell

Vicky and Bruce Merrell moved to Iowa Park from Wimberly last year when he was hired as defensive coordinator for the Hawk football team, and head girl's track coach at Iowa Park High School.

Vicky was employed as a resource aide at the high school and, when school starts next month, will begin her second year in that capacity.

The Merrells have three daughters. Monica will be a senior, and Stephanie a sophomore at Iowa Park High School, and Jennifer will enter the fifth grade at Bradford this year. All three girls are involved in sports.

Vicky and Bruce both grew up at Claude, located in the Panhandle near Amarillo, and are graduates of Claude High School. Vicky was on the girls basketball team from there that made it to the state playoffs in 1970 and 71.

Bruce went to Eastern New Mexico State Univ. on a football scholarship, but later changed to West Texas State Univ. where he graduated. He earned his masters degree at Wayland Baptist Univ.

Vicky said she and her family really like living here. It's much closer to their hometown, where her parents still live, and the people and size of Iowa Park are more like the town in which they grew up.

The Merrells are a close-knit family. They like to spend as much time together as possible during the summer months since family time is limited after football begins in the fall.

Vicky likes to water ski and swim, and travel with her family. She has been a member of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority about 15 years, and the family attends First Baptist Church.

Vicky said they eat out a lot during the school year because of all the athletic events. The family likes spicy foods, so when she prepares meals at home, Vicky leans toward recipes for Mexican food or ones that call for stronger spices. The "Cheese Ball" recipe is one Bruce likes to make, and Vicky says it is great for parties and get-togethers.

Trivia

Why is the head groomsman at a wedding called the best man?

The phrase "best man" is of Scottish origin and recalls the days when a bridegroom simply kidnapped the woman he wanted as his bride. To help him in that task, the groom enlisted a cadre of friends. The toughest and bravest of these groomsmen was the best man. Had women kidnapped men, they might have needed best women.
