Trustees phasing out City View transfers

Despite a tearful appeal from a group of City View Junior High School students, Iowa Park school trustees approved a measure which eliminates future transfers attending classes here.

The board amended the district's transfer policy so that this year's freshman class transfers from City View will be the last to be accepted here, "except transfers may be accepted for younger brothers and sisters of transfer students."

Prior to voting on the proposed amendment, Misty Hall, a seventh grade City View student, read and presented a letter asking the board to continue to allow transfer students from City View.

She told the board she felt any change in the policy was a "major mistake," and explained she and her friends had been planning for several years on attending school here because they "want a better education."

Miss Hall was accompanied by four other girls and an adult.

The amendment that was later passed stated:

"Beginning on January 13, 1995, the Iowa Park CISD will no longer accept transfer students who are not enrolled in the Iowa Park CISD on that date, except transfers may be accepted for younger brothers and sisters of transfer students.

But, just because a transfer student is already enrolled here does not mean the student can come back next year, if they've been having problems during the past fall semester.

"Transfer students will be notified by January 17, 1995, that transfer requests for the 1995-96 school year will be denied for any student involved in any type of discipline or attendance problem during the remainder of the 1994-95 school year," stated another amendment.

A committee of administrators will review all transfer requests for 1995-96 who are currently enrolled, and is empowered to deny requests submitted by any problem students.

A major concern at the high school campus is crowded conditions, caused by growing enrollment. As of Jan. 12, there were 639 students on that campus, up from 572 at the same time in 1994.

Besides the per-student state funding the district receives, City View pays $1,700 annually to Iowa Park for each transfer student.

Following a closed meeting, during which trustees evaluated Supt. Glen Mitchell for the past year, trustees reopened the meeting and voted to extend his contract through June 30, 1998.

Bids to replace hail-damaged roofs at Bradford Elementary and Junior High were approved. Lydick/Hooks Roofing bid $137,436 to do Junior High and Menasco Roofing bid $105,214 at Bradford.

An additional cost of those projects was $2,500 for architect Don Daugherty to draft specifications for the work.

Bids also were approved for the purchase of band instruments, submitted by Sam Gibbs and Brooks Mays.

Board members approved a proposal to submit a textbook waiver to the Texas Education Commission which would allow use of a kindergarten textbook "Beginning To Read, Wright and Listen."

A revision to the district's tobacco-free campus policy that was approved last month was proposed and approved. It stated:

"Exception: Smoking and/or use of tobacco products will be permitted only in designated areas during athletic or other events. Signs will be posted to designate the areas where smoking and/or use of tobacco products is prohibited."

A proposal to purchase a 20-passenger bus, primarily for extracurricular use, was approved, as was a request

School's reports ready for public

The school district, in accordance with state law, will be presenting three reports to the public during the coming weeks.

The Academic Excellence Indicator Report will be available at the district office, as well as each campus office. It measures a wide variety of academic and economic categories.

The School Accountability Report, which measures campus and district progress toward the state standards, will be distributed throughout the community and also be available at the offices.

To be distributed by each campus to every parent will be the School Report Card, which gives a grade to the district.

Police make four arrests

Iowa Park police made four arrests during the past week, but three of them were for other agencies, according to the police blotter.

The local department was contacted by the Wichita County Sheriff's Office Wednesday afternoon of last week to pick up a suspect in a theft case and hold him.

Ronald Lee Forsgren, 24, was taken into custody at a residence in the 300 block of East Ruby and taken to the police station. A deputy later transported him to the county jail.

Forsgren reportedly is a suspect in the theft of some $10,000 worth of computer hardware and software from the Cryovac plant.

Nine hours later, officers arrested Michael Dean Cox, 19, on a warrant issued by the Department of Public Safety.

Cox, who was later transported to jail by a DPS trooper, was said to have outstanding warrants issued by the DPS for a total of $435 in fines.

Tuesday evening at the high school, officers took Pamela Kay Carlton, 37, into custody on an outstanding warrant issued by the sheriff's department.

Carlton was reportedly wanted on a theft by check warrant. She was transported to jail by a deputy, according to the police blotter.

The only local arrest on the blotter was entered at 1:38 a.m. Monday, when officers were called to a disturbance underway in the 900 block of South Wall.

Rhonda Kay Willis, 32, was arrested on a Class C assault charge, and released some three hours later after signing a promise to appear in municipal court.

Police are watching for a man who allegedly stole two shirts Thursday from a store in the 500 block of East Highway, and returned the next day wearing one of them.

The man left the business before police could respond, and officers were told more empty hangers were discovered after the man's departure.

Banquet audience hears growth plans at Cryovac

Besides the announcements of award recipients and an outstanding steak dinner, residents who attended Saturday evening's annual Chamber of Commerce banquet also were treated to information of expected growth of the community's largest employer.

Guest speaker Jack Powers, director of Human Resources for the Cryovac Division of W.R. Grace & Co., disclosed planned growth at the Iowa Park facility by the year 2000.

Recipients of the Chamber's annual awards went to: Louis Sefcik, Outstanding Citizen of the Year; Laverne Owen, Outstanding Senior Citizen; Jo Ann Hale, Outstanding Educator, and B&R Thriftway, Business of the Year.

In announcing the Outstanding Citizen award, George Bushfield pointed out that Sefcik has been an enthusiastic supporter of the community during his 40 years in business here.

But during the past year, he was a key worker in the construction of the nearly-completed youth gymnasium which is an Optimist Club project next to the Recreational Activities Center.

Sefcik served his civic organization as the general contractor for the construction, requiring untold hours of effort on a daily basis.

Mrs. Owen was recognized for her constant work with the United Way, Friendly Door, Meals on Wheels, and church.

In making the presentation, Larry Dutton said she has followed that same path of volunteer community work during her 43 years of residency here.

Mrs. Hale's work with students is documented by their achievements in academics, Pat Cravens, Bradford Elementary principal, pointed out.

After leasing their present location for a number of years, B&R this year purchased the site on Park West and undertook a major renovation of the building, Ken Via told the audience.

Powers reminded the audience that this is Cryovac's 20th anniversary in the community, and said a special observance is planned in May.

The plant's employee count is to be increased from the present 709 count to 942 by the year 1999, Powers said. To provide space for those people to work, the plant has grown continuously over the past 20 years, from the initial 168,000 square feet to the present 536,000.

To date, $100-million has been invested in the plant, not including inventory, Powers said. An additional $138-million in expenditures will be made by the turn of the century.

"We're glad to be here," Powers said about locating the plant in Iowa Park. "We made the right decision. This community is made up of more givers than takers."

The local plant is part of a network of Cryovac North America, said the native of North Carolina. He proudly pointed out that Cryovac has just completed its 32nd consecutive year of continuous sales growth.

As to his responding to the Chamber's invitation to be this year's

November good for business

November was a good month for business in Iowa Park, according to the sales taxes collected.

The city has received a sales tax rebate check this month from the state for $16,666.70.

According to the state comptroller's report, that is a 14.43-percent increase over the $14,564.30 rebate check received in January of 1994.

The percentage of gain led all cities of Wichita County. In fact, two of them, Burkburnett and Wichita Falls, actually had decreases.

Electra was a plus 13.45 percent, while Burkburnett's rebate check was 12.98 percent less than last January, and Wichita Falls a minus 3.23 percent.

Holliday also experienced a disappointing November in business, down 52.31 percent from the year before.

Sales taxes collected on December sales are scheduled to be returned to local cities Feb. 10.

Lura Peevey

"Working in the medical profession runs in my family," said Lura (Mrs. Arthur) Peevey, an LVN with Park Home Health. Her daughter, a sister, and an aunt are also nurses, and several of her cousins are medical doctors.

Lura and her daughter Amy went to nursing school together, and both graduated in 1991. Lura worked at Wichita Falls State Hospital 18 months before coming to Park Home Health where she has been employed for the last 18 months.

Lura grew up in Ardmore, Okla. She related a story about a time when her father, Lloyd Light, lived in California. He was a guide for Ronald Reagan, who was then governor, his wife Nancy, and three others on a week's camp-out in Yosemite National Park. Following this, Reagan sent her father inscribed gold cuff links, which bore the governor's seal of California, an autographed picture, a personal letter and $100. Later, when Reagan was elected president of the United States, Light received an invitation to the inauguration. When her father passed away, Lura inherited these things.

Lura and her husband Arthur met and married in Wichita Falls, where she worked 18 years at Sprague Electric as a quality control supervisor. Arthur, a native of Madill, Okla., was a deputy with the county sheriff's department. They moved to Iowa Park in 1978, because his job was to work this part of the county. On Feb. 2, they will celebrate their 34th wedding anniversary.

Their daughter Amy is an LVN with Special Nurses in Wichita Falls. She has two children, Anthony 10, and Julie Ann, eight-years-old.

For hobbies, Lura likes to sing, and loves to read, especially books with a historical background. She also said that she has an interest in astrology, a subject she used for a term paper in high school.

Lura and Arthur like to go to Las Vegas, and they both like to fish.

Lura said she has always liked to cook - her mother started teaching her when she was seven or eight years old - she just doesn't like to wash dishes. Most of her recipes were given to her by co-workers when she worked at Sprague Electric, but the Apple Cake recipe came from her grandmother.

One of our subscribers called last week to say that she had misplaced a recipe for "banana bread cooked in fruit jars" that had been in the Leader a few months ago. She asked if we might re-run the recipe.

We checked back and found that it was one of the recipes Kathy Riggins brought for our Cook of the Week column on Oct. 20, 1994. So, in response to the request, we are running the recipe again.

As I See It... By Bob Hamilton

Over a period of time, subjects that bother me come to the boiling point.

So this week, my subjects will be the U.S. Postal Department, seating of fans at the high school gymnasium, and drivers ignorant about how to take turns at 4-way stop signs.

As it has always been in the past, when I comment on postal problems, those comments have nothing to do with our local post office and its staff. I have no problem with these folks and their service at all.

I've always believed when I wanted to make more money, I would have to work harder to earn it. Our "equal opportunity" employees in the Postal Service apparently feel just the opposite.

This latest increase in postage -- in case you didn't know it, the hike wasn't only for your letters -- is costing us in the newspaper business a bundle.

What brought this comment about was a telephone call we had Monday from Joe Owen in Middleton, Calif.

Subscriber Joe wanted us to know that he had just received two issues of the newspaper: Jan. 5 and Dec. 15. But he still had not received the Dec. 22 or 29 issues at that time.

I guess they're still sitting on some dock somewhere. Sorry, Joe. We've got more than 30 cents postage already invested in each of those copies. And since the service has been paid for, I feel you should have your papers.

Now, I mentioned the seating in the high school gymnasium for fans.

The District 3-AAA committee has decided that fans should be separated by the playing court, in order to avoid any conflicts like happen from time to time.

I can't really disagree with that. It makes sense.

But, at least in our case here at home, it also means Hawk and Lady Hawk fans have less room to sit than do the visiting fans.

The reason is, almost the entire front row is taken up with players and coaches of the two teams, as well as the time keeper and scorers.

In other words, Iowa Park loses approximately 10 percent of its allotted seating because of the arrangement. And common sense will tell you that there normally will be more local fans than visiting fans.

Maybe we should reverse the sides, as long as the rule is in place, and let the visitors sit on the side with all the players and other personnel, and let our fans sit on the side with more available seats.

Stopping at 4-way signs, especially at Yosemite and West Highway during the pre-school morning rush, is an exercise in frustration.

Why? Because many drivers either don't know the ethics of such a situation, or they want to act like big city folks and do as they wish.

Folks, it's just a simple procedure of taking turns. After east-bound and west-bound vehicles in the front row pass through the intersection, the north-bound and south-bound traffic get their turn.

And for some of the more ignorant, if a west-bound needs to turn south and waits for the on-coming traffic to pass through the intersection, the north-bound and south-bound traffic is to allow that turning vehicle the opportunity to continue.

Also, those vehicles stopped in the second row at the intersection are to stop and allow other traffic to proceed before they go. Just because the vehicle in the front row passes through the intersection does not mean that the driver in the second row can gun his engine and follow directly behind.

In that case, the second-row driver is ignoring the stop sign.

I've been known to flash my lights and blow my horn, when someone does that when I'm at an intersection.

Now that we've covered that chapter in the Driving 101 manual, in the near future we will be discussing the use of turning signals.

Worth Quoting

You know you're working at a small-town newspaper when:

* A caller tells you to join the 20th century because you don't have a modem to travel the information highway.

* A teenager drops off 50 cents because he accidentally got two newspapers out of the rack.

* Readers call to find out if it's raining in your part of town.

* Readers call you requesting answers to questions upon any topic and you suggest they try the town's library.

* The same person calls you every press day and asks, "Well, is it finished yet?"

* Someone calls to let you know he lost his dog and you're able to tell him who found it.

* You take a classified ad and hear all about the customer's heart by-pass surgery.

* Directions for an interview include: "Go past the old Spinks place; take a left past the house that was a church (you know the one that burned down and has been restored); then go past the old Gerauld farm site, and it's about a mile from there."

* You're don writing for a day and you're asked to help distribute the latest paper to the paper racks in three communities.

* You take a subscription order while shopping for groceries, attending a council meeting or photographing a local parade.

* You are the writer, photographer, typist and layout artist.

* You pull up to the news rack and not only is there a crowd waiting for you but one of them has left a phone number with the store manager to call when the latest edition arrives.

* Cattle theft or elementary school door decorating contest is a front-page story on a slow news week.

* A reader bakes you cookies because she likes your work.

* You run a story about Susie's seventh birthday party.

* The advertisers you call on invite you to have a can of pop (or soda) with them.

* The most serious crime listed on the weekly police report is a mass trampling of pansies.

* People ask you "Where's your camera?" even when you're at the movies.

* People call you 10 minutes before an event to take a photograph and expect you to be available.

* You consistently receive calls on where to vote and you have the answer at your fingertips.

* You're expected to have the latest election results before anyone else.

* A reader calls you to ask on what page of the paper a certain item of interest might be found.

* You sell circus tickets for the chamber of commerce.

* Readers call in "personals" about their children's latest achievements or to correct you when you misspell their kids' names on the honor rolls.

* You recognize almost all of your callers by their voices.

* You love your job and wouldn't want to work anywhere else!

LINDA BROWN
Canby Herald

Politicians, pollsters, and pundits will be dissecting the results of Tuesday's election revolution for weeks and months.

To us, the sweep by Republicans of state houses, the U.S. Senate and House was more than just a Republican victory.

It was a people victory. The people took their country back from the politicians.

The people finally rose up and declared they were tired of a government in Austin and Washington that ignored the wishes of the majority -- a Big Brother that continued to kowtow to wants and whims of tiny but vocal minorities.

It was a government that couldn't deliver the mail on time but could deliver condoms in the classroom.

It was a government that insisted in throwing millions of dollars at 19c problems.

It was a government whose practitioners thought Uncle Sam had the answer to every problem and insisted on poking a regulatory, investigative, condemning nose into private, family lives -- yet ignored the moral degeneration of its own members.

It was high noon time -- and time to show who this country belongs to.

From a local standpoint, we thought the sweetest victory of all came when Beaumont people ousted Senator Carl Parker from the state senate.

Parker, you may recall, was chairman of the Senate Education Committee and as such, author of the two so-called Robin Hood bills that Texans and the Supreme Court rejected.

Parker was the veteran politician who once remarked to his fellow senators to "forget about West Texas -- there's nothing out there of any value anyway!"

And while they were at it, the Beaumont folks defeated Texas' longest serving congressman, Jack Brooks.

With those two gone along with Bib Mama and her many appointments, we go along with the old boy who said:

"It just doesn't get any better than this!"

Austin Notebook

Senator Tom Haywood
District 30

On the desk in my new Capitol office is a plaque I keep to remind me why I am here each day. It is inscribed with a famous statesman's familiar words, "Ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country." To me, these words are the embodiment of what you've sent me to Austin to do. I'm not here for the greater glory of being a senator or to advance the cause of any special interest group or even to represent a political party. I'm here to ask on a day-to-day basis what I can do for Texas -- and more specifically, for you and your hometown.

Now, I'm sure that you are thinking that you hear that speech from every politician that comes along and that "politics as usual" will never change. But as many of the visitors to my office can attest, the character of the Texas Legislature has taken a turn for the better. Under the leadership of Lieutenant Governor Bob Bullock and Speaker of the House Pete Laney, we have begun a new era of state politics. My colleague, Senator David Sibley, expressed it best when he said that the focus now is to "get something done and have a cohesive group." We are all eager to be team players, to cooperate and compromise, to do whatever it takes to get the job done.

I was fortunate to see firsthand that this new attitude toward governing "for the people" really does work. An emergency bill to temporarily halt the new Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) auto emissions testing was introduced this week by Senator John Whitmire, a Democrat from Houston. This bill, Senate Bill 19, will put a 90-day hold on testing in Texas and give our counterparts in Washington a chance to re-examine the program and

Council facing lengthy agenda

A slightly longer agenda faces the city council Monday night, because two regular meetings are being crammed into one.

The regularly-scheduled second Monday of the month meeting was cancelled when the mayor declared there was no quorum. Only two of the five aldermen were present, and three are required along with the mayor to constitute a quorum.

Monday's meeting is to get underway at 7 p.m. in council chambers.

While most of the agenda topics deal with grants and related topics, the council also will consider acceptance of the new water tower from the contractor, an ordinance granting a waiver for soliciting permits, a contract for ambulance service, advertising for the purchase of a truck, and an executive session.

Aldermen will consider authorizing the city administrator to enter into a contract between Wichita County and the cities of Iowa Park, Burkburnett, Wichita Falls and CareLine Co. for ambulance service.

Another resolution, if approved, would be the final move on the new water tower and would authorize final payment to the contractor.

If approved, an ordinance amendment would allow granting of waivers of soliciting permits for new businesses. The council was approached on this issue during its December meeting.

Administrator Mike Price will discuss the possibility of purchasing property in the Garden Valley Subdivision.

The council is to meet behind closed doors with the city's attorney to discuss pending litigation concerning the E.E.O.C. vs. the city. Action following the closed meeting could be taken, according to the agenda.

from the Southwest Basketball Officials Association to use the junior high gymnasium Feb. 9 and Feb. 11 for a tournament in which 11-12 year olds will participate.

Trustees agreed to a tentative date of Jan. 23 to hold a planning meeting. The Iowa Park district has been named recipient of a $50,000 technology grant, Lee Pelz informed the board.

Pelz assisted Robert Palmer, assistant superintendent who was ill and unable to attend the meeting, in drafting the grant application.

Iowa Park is among 45 districts across the state to qualify for the grant, and the only district in Region Nine, trustees were told.

The funds are to be used to provide enhanced communication systems within the district, distribute information and computing resources, and facilitate the development of a local telecommunications infrastructure, Pelz said.

The grant will enable the district to connect directly to the Texas Education Network (TENET).

A total of 135 districts filed grant applications.

Leona Moore gives Eggerly program

Leona Moore was guest speaker for the Jan. 13 meeting of Iowa Park Garden Club in the home of Frances George. Freddy Skinner was co-hostess.

Mrs. Moore presented the program on Eggerly Art. She said she became interested in Eggerly Art about 15 years ago. She attends conventions, orders materials such as different kinds of jewels, special tools and hinges.

For her art she uses eggs ranging in size from ragu, emu and goose, to pigeon and turtle eggs.

She explained that she first selects her egg, then blows and cleans it, and creates her own design. The speaker displayed about 50 eggs she had made.

One of the special eggs that she showed was one divided into four sections connected by hinges. Each section was painted to represent a different season.

Other guests at the meeting were Emily George, Mrs. George's granddaughter, Nell Copening, Pam James and Margie Faulkner, who was reinstated a member. She had been a member of the club 14 years ago.

The nominating committee's slate of officers for 1995-96 were elected by acclamation.

Those elected were Bonnie Illingsworth, president; Freddy Skinner, vice president; Louise Clapp, recording secretary; Reba Snow, corresponding secretary; Rete Spruiell, treasurer, and Kim Cox, historian.

Jo Gilbert brought the horticultural display, a staghorn fern. It was given as a door prize and was won by Denise Gilmore.

Card of Thanks

Thank you is not enough to say when so many friends and church members expressed their love and support for the Adams Family and the Conrow Family, when we lost Mary Conrow on Dec. 25, 1994. All the cards, prayers, visits and food were deeply appreciated, and our feeble attempt to let you know just how we all feel after receiving your gracious outpouring of love and support for us. A very special thanks to the congregation of the First United Pentecostal Church, and to Rev. G.K. Harden and Sister Harden for all they did for us and giving of their time so freely.

We would also like to thank the Iowa Park Police Department and the EMT personnel who responded to quickly and professionally.

God Bless each and every one of you.

Bank of America collects toys, gifts for local kids

Iowa Park's branch of Bank of America joined with 240 other such branches across the state during the past holiday season which collected 38,495 toys and gifts for youngsters in Texas.

Lone Star Santas is one of the largest toy drives in the state.

"It is such a warm feeling to see the way people respond to this program and get involved," said Melinda

Gonzales, local branch manager.

"We couldn't do this without the generosity, kindness and spirit of caring from the people in this community," she said. "On behalf of the children, I want to say 'thank you' to everyone who helped us bring Christmas into the lives of these children."

Toys collected in Iowa Park were given to children served by the Ministerial Alliance.

Dealing With The Common Cold

Each winter, millions of people suffer from the unpleasant effects of "colds".

Despite popular opinion, you do not get colds from sitting in a draft, getting wet feet or staying outside too long in bad weather.

The common cold is a viral infection which is found in the respiratory system (the nose, throat and lungs).

Colds can last for just a few days or as long as a couple of weeks.

Colds are spread through the air or by contact with hands.

You can help keep your cold from spreading to others if you are careful to cover your mouth when you sneeze or cough.

Colds are spread when a healthy person makes hand contact with a sick person or touches contaminated objects, such as doorknobs.

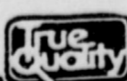

One of the best ways to reduce your risk of catching a cold or spreading colds to others is to wash your hands frequently.

There is no "cure" for the common cold. The best way to treat your cold is rest, drink plenty of liquids, and take proper medication to relieve your cold or cough symptoms. Your pharmacist or doctor can recommend the best medicine for you.

If your child has a cough or a cold be sure to ask your doctor or pharmacist about the amount of medicine to give your child.

Remember a cough can be serious. If your cough lasts longer than 10 days or is accompanied by a fever of 102 degrees or higher for more than three days, see your doctor.

For more information about colds—
Ask your pharmacist.

Did you know in 1867, there was a law in the state of Kansas that said that not everyone needed a marriage license to become one in holy matrimony?

According to "The Modern Light" in June 1903, Page 2, Col.3, the law only applied to members of the Quaker Church. And it only applied where they were married under the law of the church, with the publishing of the names in the church a month before the ceremony, and with the appointment of a church committee who would first sanction the marriage.

The 1901 General Statutes of Kansas based on the General Statutes of 1866. Chapter 61--Marriage--An act in relation to marriage too effect May 27, 1867, Paragraph 4015, entitled, "Perform Ceremony st10"

Lois Keller-Furrh

Services for Lois Keller-Furrh, 78, former teacher in Bradford Elementary School, were at 10 a.m. Monday in Wichita Falls First Baptist Church Chapel. Rev. Howard Chapman officiated.

Graveside services were at 2:30 p.m. in Haskell Cemetery under direction of Owens & Brumley Funeral Home.

She died Saturday in a Wichita Falls hospital.

Mrs. Keller-Furrh was born Nov. 23, 1916, in Haskell. She graduated Haskell High School and attended Hardin-Simmons University. She graduated Midwestern State University with a degree in elementary education.

She taught in Haskell County in 1936-38 and in Bradford Elementary School in Iowa Park 14 years, from 1968 until May, 1982. She retired from teaching in 1983.

Mrs. Keller-Furrh owned Keller's Sportswear, a ladies retail shop in Wichita Falls, many years and had been a resident of Wichita Falls 44 years. She was a member of First Baptist Church 40 years. She was a member of Order of the Eastern Star Chapter No. 488 and the Retired Teachers Association.

She was married to Harvis Furrh Feb. 7, 1984.

Survivors include her husband; three daughters, Joy McGue of Newnan, Ga., Mary Gage of Wichita Falls and Ann Parks of Canyon; three brothers, Thomas Mapes of Ventura, Calif., Charles Mapes of Euless, and Donald Mapes of Abilene; one sister, Mildred Collins of Crestline, Calif.; six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Helen S. Reed

Services for Helen S. Reed, 84, were held Wednesday afternoon at First Baptist Church with Dr. Derrell Monday, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery under the direction of Dutton Funeral Home.

She died Monday in Iowa Park.

Miss Reed was born Dec. 6, 1910, in Wilbarger County. She spent her early years on W.T. Waggoner ranches, where her father served as foreman 40 years. At an early age her family moved to the well-known Zacaweista Ranch near Vernon.

She graduated Vernon High School in 1929 and Waggoner sent her to college in Denton. She attended there three years and decided she wanted to go to McMurry College in Abilene, but Waggoner didn't approve, so she taught with a teaching certificate. Her first school was at Rock Crossing. When she was hired in Iowa Park in 1949, she completed work for her degree at the University of Boulder and also studied at Midwestern State University.

She taught fourth grade and art in the fifth and sixth grades. She always preferred to teach fourth grade so she would have longer to watch her pupils go through high school and see them grow up to young men and women.

She retired from the Iowa Park Independent School District in 1976, but never lost her interest in school and the new methods of teaching. She took continuing education courses at MSU after her retirement.

She had commented that the only thing she ever wanted to do was teach and draw. She became even more interested in art following her retirement from the schoolroom. Miss Reed was a recognized artist and received several honors in art shows that she entered.

She was a member of First Baptist Church and the Thelma Smith Baptist Women, Iowa Park Arts and Crafts Association, the Modern Music Study Club, Texas Retired Teachers Association, a lifetime member of the Parent-Teachers Association, the Friendly Door Senior Citizens, and a dedicated lover of animals and birds.

Memorials may be made to Friendly Door Senior Citizens Building Fund or Hospice of Wichita Falls.

John Z. Dunn

Memorial services for John Z. Dunn, 92, of Byers, were at 11 a.m. Monday at Davis Funeral Home in Henrietta. Charles Olson of Wichita Falls officiated.

Mr. Dunn, father of Jim B. Dunn of Iowa Park, died Friday in a Wichita Falls hospital.

Born Nov. 12, 1902, in Byers, he had lived most of his life in Clay County. He was married to Bertha Irene Posey July 1926. She preceded him in death in 1978.

He graduated Byers High School and attended Clarendon Junior College before attending North Texas State College, where he received his masters degree. He taught school in the Clay County area many years.

Mr. Dunn became a civilian instructor in 1942. He retired from Sheppard Air Force Base in 1967. He owned and operated farms in Clay and Wichita counties 50 years.

Survivors in addition to his son include a daughter, Jonnie Marie Bumpas of Lubbock; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

DONATES TO BUILDING FUND - Ray Youngblood, center, manager of the Iowa Park Cryovac plant, presented the first of five $2,000 checks to the Friendly Door Building Fund, during a luncheon meeting Friday to Tommy Key, left, and Larry Dutton, members of the senior citizen board. He explained that his company would make the five donations for a total of $10,000 to help build the new senior citizen building on Third Street, next to the Recreational Activities Center.

Catholic Church 15 years strong

Christ The King Catholic Church is celebrating its 15th year in Iowa Park with special activities planned for the coming months.

The first Mass was celebrated on the Feast of the Epiphany, Jan. 1, 1980, at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church. Reverend David Johnson was the first pastor of the church.

During Johnson's pastorate, and with the assistance of many of the parishioners, a multi-purpose building was erected, that served as a church, parish hall and religious education center.

Rev. Patrick Burke was appointed Pastoral Administrator of the church parish on Jan. 1, 1984. During this time the church continued to grow, bringing a need for a larger church.

A new church was built and dedicated in honor of Christ The King on Dec. 17, 1988, by Rev. Joseph P. Delaney, Bishop of Fort Worth. The former church building now serves as parish hall and religious education center for parishioners.

A cookbook, entitled "Family Favorites," has been published in honor of the anniversary.

The cookbook, selling for $6 each, features over 450 recipes from Christ The King Catholic Church members, friends and family.

Published through the efforts of the Ladies Group and parishioners, Reba Catlin served as editor. Profits generated from cookbook sales will be used to renovate the kitchen facilities at the church to an institutional grade.

Those wishing to order a cookbook may call 592-2802 and leave a message, or mail a check to "Christ The King Cookbooks", P.O. Box 239, Iowa Park, Tex. 76367. Cookbooks will be delivered.

Other activities planned to commemorate the anniversary include a Feb. 26 Mass, conducted by Bishop Delaney of Fort Worth. In April, a priest from New Orleans will conduct a preaching mission.

Lady Hawks lose more than games

The Iowa Park Lady Hawks lost more than a pair of games last week. They may have lost their leading scorer in junior post Dusti Welch.

Welch, averaging 29 points a game in district play, had to leave the game against Jacksboro Friday night early in the second quarter with a knee injury and is scheduled to have a MRI later this week to determine the extent of the injury that could force her to miss the remainder of the season.

The Lady Hawks fell behind early against the Tigerettes 19-9 in the first quarter and never got back into the game as Jacksboro handed Iowa Park its third straight district loss, 60-40.

Jacksboro went on a 12-0 run to build a 23-9 lead with 6:24 remaining in the first half before Iowa Park got things going. The Lady Hawks cut the lead to 30-19 at the half when Briana Stalker, who finished the game with 15 points, hit a 10-foot jumper with 2 seconds left on the clock.

Stalker scored the first 4 points of the second half to pull the Lady Hawks to within 7 at 23-30 but that was as close as Iowa Park managed to get the rest of the game as Jacksboro scored 11 of its final 17 points from the free throw line to close the game out. Jodi Young scored 10 points for Iowa Park.

The Tigerettes, 14-7 overall and 2-1 in district play, were led in scoring by Stacy Lowrance with 25 and Ginger Turney with 16.

"Jacksboro played well," head coach Ronda Havins said. "You've got to give them credit, they came out and really got after us."

In Tuesday night's game against Vernon, Young scored 10 of her 14 points in the first 5 minutes of the game but it wasn't enough as the Lady Lions edged Iowa Park 71-65 to improve to 13-10 overall and even its district record at 2-2 while the Lady Hawks fall to 11-13 and 0-4.

With the game tied at 18-18 with 7:16 left in the first half, Vernon scored 8 straight points to take a 26-18 lead with 5:47 left to play in the half. The two teams played evenly for the rest of the half with Vernon leading 33-26 after two periods of play.

Freshman post Wendy Bridwell, in only her second game on varsity, scored 10 of her 14 points in the third, her 10th giving Iowa Park the lead at 42-41 with 3:49 left in the period.

Vernon answered with a 6-0 run to lead 47-42 with 2:42 still showing on the clock. But Stalker, who finished with 11 points, brought Iowa Park back with a pair of three-point bombs sandwiched around a Monica Merrell 6 foot jumper to give the Lady Hawks a 50-49 lead with 56 seconds left in the third. Merrell finished the game with 14 points.

But once again, the Lady Lions ran off 6 unanswered points to take a 55-50 lead and that proved to be enough as Iowa Park could get no closer than 3 down the stretch.

The Lady Hawks finish out the first half of district play tomorrow night when they travel to Bridgeport.

With the district being divided into two halves, Iowa Park still has a chance to make the playoffs by finishing either first or second in the second half. Should the Lady Hawks win the second half, they would automatically qualify for the playoffs and if they finish second, they would have a playoff game against the second place team from the first half which will probably be Graham to see which team represents the district runner-up.

Packed house predicted for Hawk-Steer clash

It doesn't take a rocket scientist to see what's coming in the very near future for the Hawk basketball team.

A Tuesday night showdown with Graham, the No. 1 team in the state in class 3A basketball.

And if the Hawks continue to play the brand of basketball they've displayed over the last 14 games, it should be one you don't want to miss.

Iowa Park ran its winning streak to 14 in a row during the past week and improved to 19-3 overall and 2-0 in district play following a pair of wins over Jacksboro and Vernon.

Last Friday, Iowa Park traveled to Jacksboro and got more than they bargained for as they edged the Tigers 61-56 in the district opener in a game that was much closer than the score indicated.

The Hawks used a 10-1 run midway through the first quarter to climb back from an 8-3 deficit to take a 13-9 lead when Michael Fallon, who finished with a game high 18 points, hit a three pointer with 2:27 left in the opening quarter. Iowa Park built its biggest lead of the game at 26-19 with 3:33 left in the half when Rylan McNeil connected on a 6-footer from the baseline. McNeil finished the game with 14 points.

But the Tigers fought back. An 11-3 run over the remainder of the period gave Jacksboro a 30-29 half-time lead.

With the Tigers leading by as many as 5 points in the third quarter, Nick Black, who finished the game with 15 points for Iowa Park, scored the final 10 points in the third quarter including two three-point bombs to pull Iowa Park to within 2 at 46-44 heading into the final 8 minutes.

After knotting the score at 46-46, Iowa Park never trailed but also never led by more than 3 as both teams traded baskets down the stretch.

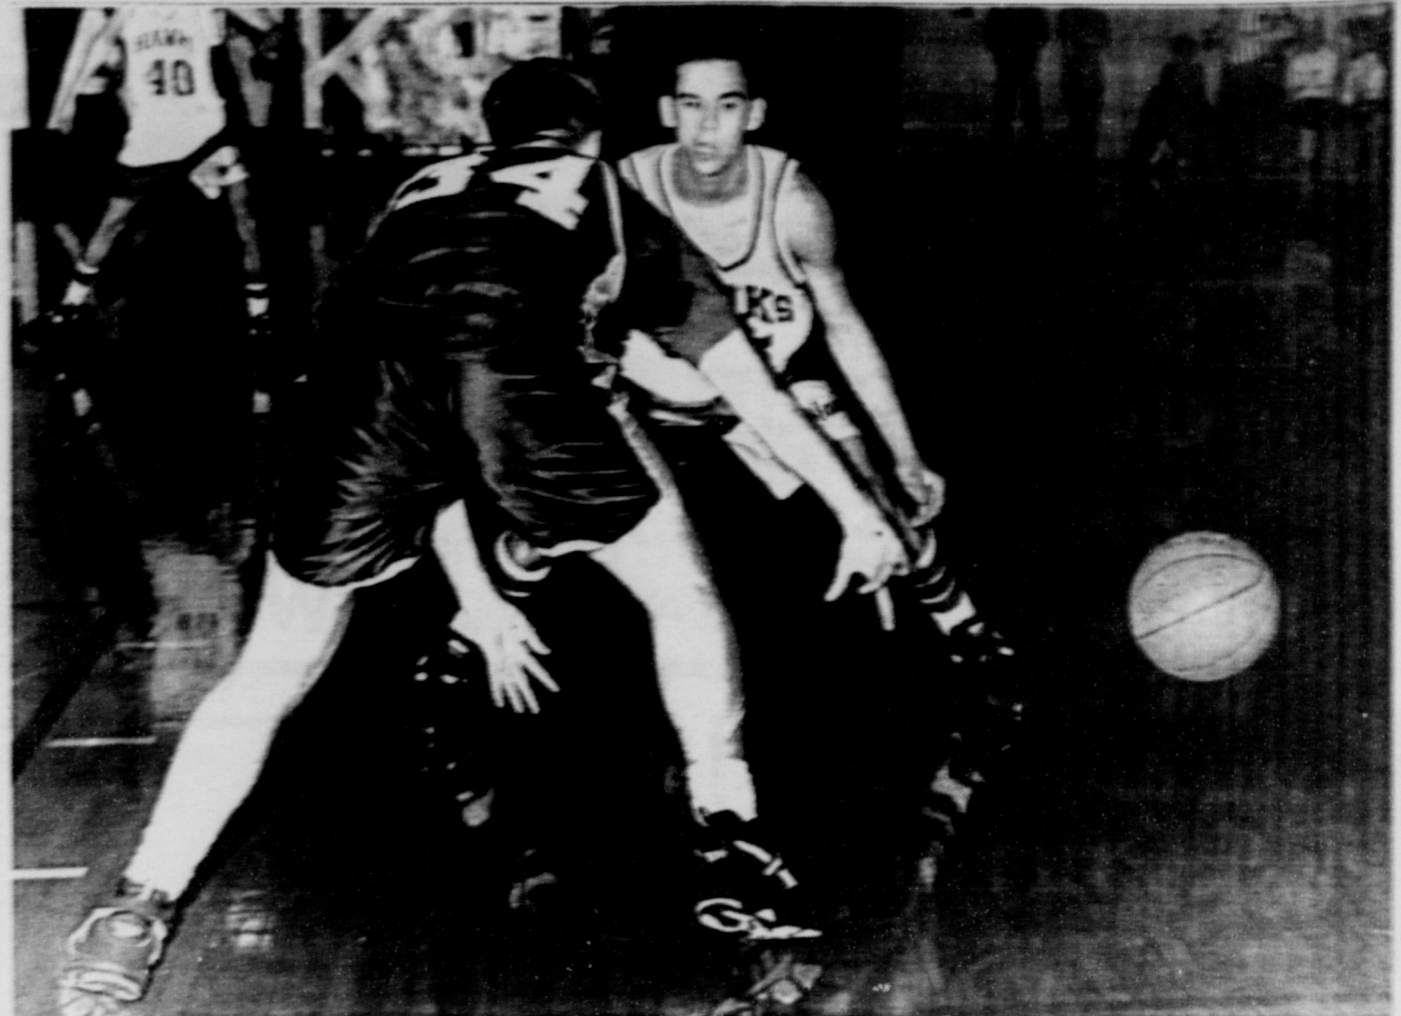

With Iowa Park leading 56-53 with 1:02 remaining following a layup by Fallon, the Tigers connected on a long three-pointer from the top of the key with 16 seconds left to tie the game at 56-56. The Hawks brought the ball down the floor and got it inside to McNeil who hit what turned out to be the game winner, a 6 foot jumper in the lane to put his team on top 58-56 with 5 seconds remaining.

A botched inbounds pass and a steal made the final score look larger than it should have at 61-56.

"We didn't play very well and we were real fortunate to come away with a win," coach Tim Clark said. "But any time you can go on the road and win a district ballgame, that's a plus."

In Tuesday night's game against Vernon, the Hawks needed every fan in the gym. Not the fans in the overflow crowd that were treated to a 94-71 blow-out win over the Lions, but the air conditioning fans and even they were no match for the red hot shooting Hawks.

Iowa Park opened the game shooting 83 percent from the floor in the first quarter hitting on 10-of-12 shots including a remarkable 6-of-7 from behind the three-point stripe as the Hawks opened a 28-18 first quarter lead. Seven of Iowa Park's first 11 field goals were three-pointers. David Waterbury canned 4, Fallon had a pair and Corky Petty came off the bench and hit his first shot of the game, a three-pointer from the wing as Iowa Park finished the night 10-of-14 from long range for 71 percent.

The Hawks outscored Vernon in all four quarters including 18-6 in the second and 19-17 in the third.

Iowa Park put the game away by hitting 15-of-17 free throws down the stretch including 6 in a row by both Waterbury and Rudy Hawkins.

McNeil led five Hawks in double figures with 22 followed by Waterbury with 20 and Fallon who finished with 15. John Lucas and Hawkins both added 12 points apiece for Iowa Park who will be looking to pick up its 20th win of the season tomorrow night when they travel to Bridgeport, a team the Hawks beat by 24 points earlier this year.

Vernon, 6-12 overall and 0-2 in district play was led in scoring by Brandon Favors who finished with 25 followed by Jeremy Cox with 17 and Kyle Williams who added 13 for the Lions.

"We were definitely hotter than a pistol out there tonight," Clark said. "I think this was the biggest win of the season so far. Vernon played well last week against Graham and they were a lot bigger than we were so we knew coming into the game we were going to have our hands full against them.

"We've got to get ready for Bridgeport now," Clark added. "Even though we beat them by 24 at their place in their tournament, we're going to have to go down there and play well. The score is 0-0. You don't get to carry any of those points over to this game. We don't want to look ahead to Graham. We don't even want to talk about Graham right now."

Powerlifting meet here Saturday

The Iowa Park Invitational Powerlifting Meet will get underway at 6:30 a.m. this Saturday at the High School gymnasium with between 15 and 20 teams scheduled to compete including competition in both boys and girls divisions.

The weigh in will be from 6:30-8 a.m. with the actual lifting to start around 9 a.m. There will be a one dollar admission charge for adults and fifty cents for children at the door. The awards presentation is scheduled for around 4 p.m.

"There will be between 15 and 20 schools, maybe more," said Steve Stewart who is the meet director and also the Region 6 Division II director. "I'm surprised we didn't get more schools but there are some bigger meets closer to the Dallas area that will draw some of the teams that are closer to the Metroplex."

Both the boys and girls will lift at the same time and there will be trophies and medals awarded to the top three teams and individuals.

Overflow crowd expected Tuesday

Those fans planning to attend Tuesday night's varsity basketball game here against Graham might want to get to the gym early as seating will be on a first-come first-serve basis, according to Iowa Park High School principal Richard Davis.

With an over-flow crowd expected, close circuit TV monitors will be placed in the cafeteria to accommodate those fans not able to find a seat in the gym.

There is a new District rule this year that says that the home team's fans must sit on the home side and the visitors must sit on the visiting side. No Iowa Park fans will be allowed to sit on the Graham side of the gym Tuesday night as a result of the new rule.
