"We need to make the Graham game look like a home game," Nelms said. "We are on the verge of making the playoffs for the first time since 1987 and if we beat the Steers, we're in. That's coming a long way from 0-15 and I couldn't be happier for all of these kids. So make plans to get to Graham Friday night and pull for the Hawks because these kids and this town deserves it."

The game pits two teams headed in different directions as the Steers enter the contest 3-5 overall and 1-2 in District 3-3A play while Iowa Park is coming off an impressive win over Bridgeport leaving the Hawks (2-1 in district), in the drivers seat for the second playoff spot.

In Graham's last two games against Bridgeport and Jacksboro, the Steers are averaging 255 yards rushing and 86 yards passing while giving up only 50 yards rushing and 175 yards passing. Leading the way for the Steer ground attack is senior tailback Ryan Kelly who rushed for 244 yards in the Bridgeport game but missed the game against Bowie and is scheduled to be back in the lineup against the Hawks. James Coleman filled in for Kelly in the game against the Jackrabbits and rushed for 116 yards on only 8 carries. In the passing department, the Steers are led by senior quarterback Dan Robertson and junior flanker Lance Cauthen.

"We'll have to shut down their running game," Nelms added. "Kelly is a good back with good speed and acceleration that likes to get outside and break the long one on you. If we keep him contained, we should be in good shape."

"Last week's game was a huge win for us," Nelms said. "It was a game that had a lot of meaning and I thought our kids played exceptionally well in all facets of the game. I thought it was the best effort by far as a team since I've been here. Graham has been down a bit but last week was a big win for them to keep them alive. They feel like they can get right back in the race by knocking us off and we can't let that happen."

Nelms has said all along that if you work hard and give it all you've got, good things will happen and that was the case Monday when senior running back Corky Petty was named as the Channel 6 Athlete Of The Week for his performance in the Bridgeport game.

Petty had an interception, threw a 37-yard touchdown pass off a fake punt and scored another touchdown on a 3-yard run to pick up the honor. But Petty wasn't taking credit for the honor by himself.

"It's an individual award but it says a lot about the whole team," Petty said. "This couldn't have happened without the entire team's effort. I don't know why they picked me, they said I was everywhere on the field."

Some of the help Petty was talking about came from the offensive line that opened holes that led to a 330-yard rushing performance by the Hawks, as Dusty Owen and Shane Bagley each rushed for over 100 yards.

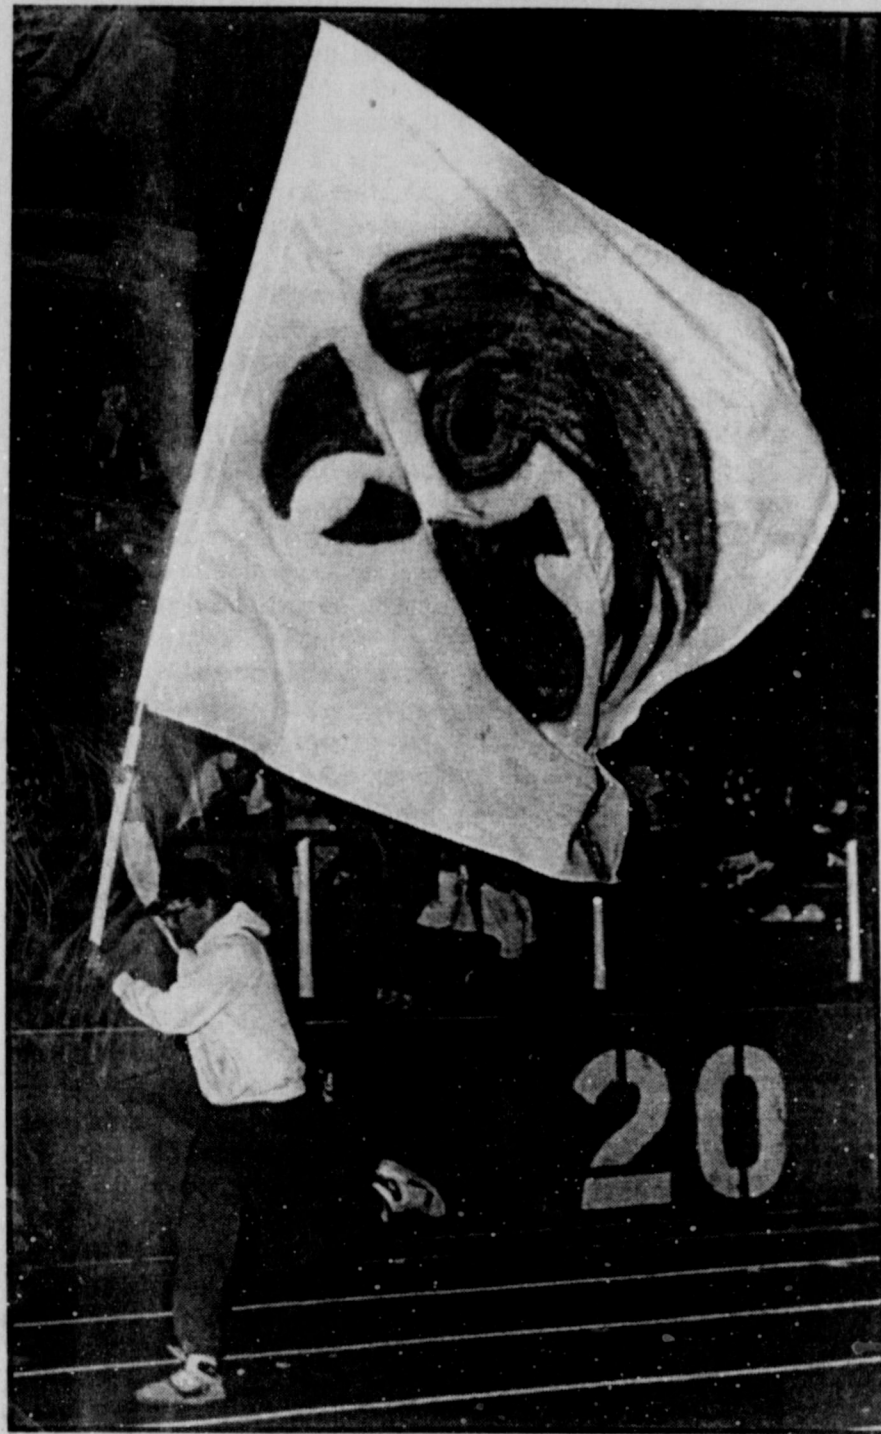

Owen finished with 129 yards on 26 carries that included a 78-yard touchdown romp with 5:54 left to seal the win over the Bulls. Bagley added 108 yards on only 9 carries.

"Our offensive line opened some huge holes," Bagley said. "The lead reverse worked real well with Tyson Spruiell and Keith Hoover throwing some key blocks."

Graham has a big strong defensive line," Bagley added. "But they get discouraged easily if you keep pounding on them."

After losing starting quarterback Todd Yeager to a shoulder injury in the Vernon game, Nelms turned to Brandon Campbell who was coming off a knee injury to fill in and got a solid performance out of the senior in his first start of the season.

"One of the greatest compliments I can pay this team is that when someone goes down there is always someone that steps in and gets the job done," Nelms said.

HAWK SUPPORTERS ARE REAL FLAG-WAVERS
... duty shared by fans and students.

"I thought Brandon stepped in and did a great job of leading the offense," Nelms added. "He hit a couple of big passes in key situations that kept drives alive and that should give him some confidence heading into our last two ballgames. You have to admire a kid that steps in and performs like he did with all the pressure he had on his shoulders. My hat's off to him for the job he did out there."

Campbell admitted he was a bit nervous before his first start. "I've never been so nervous in my whole life," Campbell said. "Things settled down after the first series and we did a good job of running the ball which

Athletic field problems result in five arrests

While almost everyone was well behaved Halloween night, such wasn't the case at athletic events over the weekend, according to this week's entries in the police blotter.

Three arrests were made during the varsity football game in Hawk Stadium Friday night, and warrants were issued for two adults following Saturday night's Top Of Texas games at Griffith Field.

Two junior high students learned a public facility was not the place to take their toy guns.

The youths carried extremely realistic looking toy hand guns to Hawk Stadium, and wound up at the police station, charged with disorderly conduct.

Each was turned over to his mother, who had to sign juvenile release forms and be informed of the date their sons were to appear in municipal court.

One officer described the toy guns as being so realistic, had one been pointed at an officer during a traffic stop, he could have been shot in self defense.

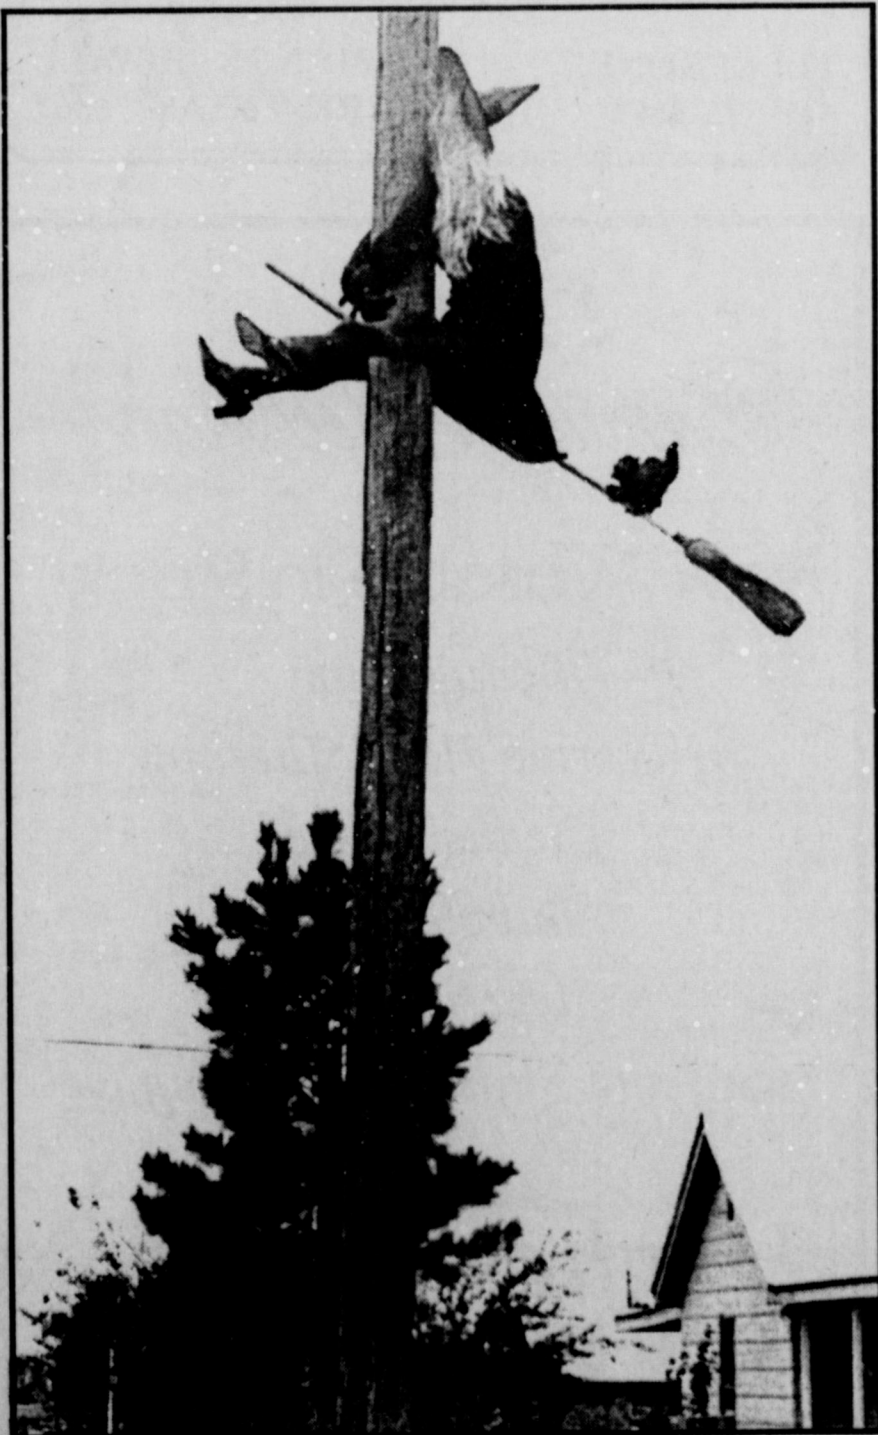

Less than an hour after the youths were taken into custody, a charge of possession of alcohol on school property was filed against Terry Wayne Wakefield, 36. He later paid a fine of $83.50, according to the blotter.

The result of a confrontation with an officer Saturday night at Griffith Field was a charge being filed against a man and his wife.

A charge of resisting arrest was filed Monday against Ronald Boren, 40, and interfering with public duties against Victoria Boren, 36.

The two turned themselves in at

Constitution changes facing voters Tuesday

If Texans are staying away from the polls in this year's state constitutional amendment election the way Iowa Parkers are, a scant portion of citizens will be making the decisions on the 14 proposed changes.

Early voting was begun Wednesday, Oct. 18, and as of noon Monday, only 34 ballots had been cast at the local poll.

However, there's still time to vote.

Election day is Tuesday, Nov. 7, when voting hours will be 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The early voting poll, which is located in the Wichita County annex building at 400 N. Wall, will remain open from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. today.

The 14 proposed amendments to the state constitution include:

#1 - Bonds for college student loans.
#2 - Property tax exemption for certain charitable organizations.

#3 - Bonds for Texas agricultural products.

#4 - Home equity loans.

#5 - Bonds for veterans housing assistance.

#6 - Homestead exemption passed on to surviving spouse.

#7 - Eliminator of bonds for the Superconducting Super Collider.

#8 - Abolition of office of constable in Mills, Reagan and Roberts counties.

#9 - Investment in South Africa and Namibia.

#10 - Abolition of State Treasurer's office.

#11 - Tax appraisal of open-space land.

#12 - Property tax exemptions for certain low-yield properties.

#13 - Property tax exemptions for shrimp and fishing vessels.

#14 - Increase in limits of property tax exemption for disabled veterans.

NEWS BRIEFS

Second shower of month is welcomed

Rains were several days in between during October for Iowa Park. The only measurable amounts were reported on the first and last days of the month.

Rains, accompanied by lightning and thunder, moved over the city about three hours before the end of the month (Tuesday night), and deposited 2.20 inches of moisture.

That, added to the .58 measured the first day of the month, brought October's total to 2.78 inches, according to Virgil Woodfin.

Taylor, Pustejovsky nuptials exchanged

Terry Lynn Taylor and Benedict John Pustejovsky were married Aug. 26, at Faith Baptist Church in Iowa Park. Dr. Greg Ammons, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Taylor of Iowa Park and Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Pustejovsky of Abbott.

A gold archway and two seven-branched candelabras, garlanded with ivy and accents of purple, and floral arrangements of purple jute and fresh flowers decorated the altar area. A white unity candle, accented with flowers, rested on a stand decorated with greenery and a white bow. The pews were marked with white bows.

Selected wedding music was provided by Linda Burgone, pianist, and Dennis Neal, vocalist. During the ceremony, a reading from the Old Testament was given by Agnes Timmons, sister of the groom.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin designer gown. The gown was princess cut with a sweetheart neckline and short caplet sleeves embellished with small bows. The gown was heavily adorned with pearls, sequins and schiffli lace. A candy box bow, edged with pearls, accented the back of the gown. The skirt and train were edged with scalloped lace. The long skirt swept into a semi-cathedral train, which later bustled for the reception and dance.

Her tiered rolled-edge veil, which was made by the bride and the groom's sister, was held by a headpiece of roses, lace and pearls.

To compliment her gown, the bride wore a pearl necklace, which was a gift from the groom.

She carried a cascading bouquet of purple and white roses with mini-orchid carnations and baby's breath with ivy and purple satin and lace streamers.

In keeping with wedding traditions, the bride carried her great-aunt Pauline Ford's hand embroidered blue handkerchief; her bridal gown and veil as something new; her maternal wedding band (which belongs to her mother) as something borrowed; her garter for something blue, and carried a lucky six pence in her shoe.

Tracy Van Winkle, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Janece Cearley, the bride's cousin, was the maid of honor.

They wore tea-length dresses of purple taffeta, fashioned with short puffed sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. To compliment their gowns, the attendants wore pearl accessories, and carried bouquets of long-stem carnations, daisies and baby's breath with white streamers.

The groom wore a white full dress tuxedo with satin lapels, white wing-tip shirt, white satin cummerbund and bow tie.

Ernie and Ed Pustejovsky, brothers of the groom, served as best men. They wore black classic tuxedos, white wing-tip shirts, black satin cummerbunds and bow ties.

Clayton Wade Van Winkle, nephew of the bride, served as ringbearer. He carried a pillow that was sewn by the bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Avie Taylor, and Ms. Wright, a friend of the family.

Ushers were Andy and Bobby Pustejovsky, brothers of the groom. Candlelighters were Bryan Taylor, brother of the bride, and Dale Pustejovsky, nephew of the groom. Joe Van Winkle, brother-in-law of the bride, and Charlie Pustejovsky, brother of the groom, seated the mothers.

The mother of the bride wore a teal-green, short-sleeved dress, embellished with bead work and appliqued ribbon, and the mother of the groom chose a teal-blue, short-sleeved dress with lace trim around the collar.

At the reception which followed, the bride's wedding colors of purple and hunter green were used throughout the fellowship hall of the church.

White lace over dark purple covered the bride's table, which held a three-tiered cake, decorated with nosegays of purple roses and carnations, baby's breath and touches of pink. Crystal pillars, beads, white satin bows and ribbon adorned the strawberry-flavored confection.

An engagement portrait and gold candleholders, a wedding gift, completed the table appointments.

The groom's table, draped with a hunter green pleated cloth, held a chocolate cake which was decorated to depict a plowed field scene with antique tractors. A dried flower and wheat arrangement and a miniature antique tractor completed the table decorations.

Guest tables were covered with white, and centered with variegated ribbon and confetti.

Assisting during the reception were Annemarie Walsh, a friend of the bride, and Kathy, Snelly and Wanda Pustejovsky, all sisters-in-law of the groom.

Janine Owens, cousin of the bride, presided at the registry table. The table featured a flower basket from when the bride was a flowergirl, and was filled with flowers when she had been a bridesmaid in previous weddings. The table also held a vase of flowers which was a gift from the groom on their first year "dating" anniversary.

Nick Pustejovsky, brother of the groom, was videographer for the wedding.

The bride is a graduate of Iowa Park High School, Midwestern State University and Texas Woman's University. She is employed by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service for Hill County.

Mrs. Benedict John Pustejovsky
(Terry Lynn Taylor)

The groom is a graduate of Abbott High School and Texas State Technical Institute. He is employed by Sykora Family Ford in West.

Following a honeymoon to Cancun, Mexico, and a dinner and dance celebration in West, the couple is at home in Hillsboro.

The bride's parents prepared and hosted the rehearsal dinner of steak, sausage and the trimmings in Iowa Park.

Wildflowers program topic

An informative program on "Wildflower Conservation" was given for the Friday meeting of Iowa Park Garden Club members.

Carolyn Cookingham introduced the guest speaker, Peggy Nunn from Wichita Falls.

The speaker displayed two arrangements of fresh flowers, and the other a dried arrangement. She asked members to identify the flowers used in the arrangements.

Mrs. Nunn said she felt closer to God while working with her flowers. She encouraged members to visit the Texas Wildflower Research Center in Austin.

Mrs. Nunn closed her program by showing a video, "Wildflowers With Helen Hayes," and gave seeds to each one present.

Bonnie Illingworth, president, presided during the business meeting. Joyce Short gave the "Thought for the Day" and also reported that the Garden Club flower show was a success.

Kim Cox reported that the Garden Club flat also was a success. Frances George brought the horticulture exhibit, a beautiful ivy plant.

Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Illingworth were hostesses for the meeting.

Cook of the Week

Mary Wright

Mary (Mrs. Jim) Wright has had the opportunity to live in many different places while growing up and after she was married. She said that the places in which she has lived have influenced the way she cooks and the recipes she likes to use.

Mary was born in Wichita Falls, but with her father being in the military, the family moved a lot. After he retired from the service, her father went to work for Gulf Oil and the family settled in Odessa. Later he was transferred to Wichita Falls, and Mary was in the last class of seniors to graduate Wichita Falls High School while it was still the only high school in town.

Following high school, Mary went to Baylor University where she graduated with a degree in elementary education.

Mary's husband Jim is Minister of Music and Education at First Baptist Church in Iowa Park. He grew up in Wichita Falls and graduated WFHS a year before Mary. He was a student at Midwestern State University for a while before joining the Army. After he and Mary were married, they moved to Germany where he was stationed. When he completed his time in the military, Jim went back to MSU to complete his work toward a degree, and later entered New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary.

Mary has taught school 18 years. She taught first and second grades at Holiday and Olney in Texas, and at schools in Louisiana, Arkansas and Indiana.

Since they moved to Iowa Park from Indiana five years ago, Mary has taught first and second grades, and currently is in her second year as reading room teacher, at Kidwell.

The Wright's daughter Karie, 25, was born while they lived in Germany. She is an accountant and lives in Colorado Springs, Colo.

In her spare time, Mary likes to read, and she also collects recipes and butterflies.

Mary is active in the First Baptist Church, where she sings in the choir, helps with the children's division, is a substitute Sunday School teacher, and a member of the Baptist Women.

Mary said because of the spiciness, Jim developed a liking for Cajun food while they lived in Louisiana. The "Opelousas Sunday Pot Roast" is one of his favorites.

The "Crazy Chocolate Cola Cake" is a recipe that Mary and a friend came up with while she was living in Germany.

Arkansas Deer Camp Barbecue Sauce

The original recipe makes 8 qts. This reduced recipe makes 2 qts. This is a no-fat sauce to put on meat during the cooking process.
2 cups water
1/3 cup brown sugar
1/3 cup Worcestershire sauce
1/3 cup yellow mustard

1 cup ketchup
3 cups red wine vinegar
1 cup apple juice
1/4 cup salt
2 Tbsps. cracked black pepper
2 Tbsps. dried red pepper flakes
Mix in large non-aluminum saucepan. Bring to boil and simmer covered about 30 minutes. Keeps for weeks in the frig.

Karie's Quick Pizza

Dissolve 1 pkg yeast in 1 cup water
Add 2 Tbsps. oil
Mix:
2 1/2 cups flour
1 tsp. sugar
1/4 tsp. garlic salt
1/2 tsp. Italian seasoning
Add to yeast mixture and beat vigorously 20 strokes. Let rest 5 minutes.

Spread out on pizza pan or cookie sheet with hands. cover with tomato or spaghetti sauce. Add toppings and cheese to taste. Bake 15-20 minutes at 425 degrees.

Opelousas Sunday Pot Roast

3 to 5 lb. pot roast
1 Tbsp. brown sugar
2 tps. Tony Chachere's Creole Seasoning
2 garlic cloves, sliced
1 tsp. olive oil
Hot water
Peeled potatoes
2 small or 1 large onion
Peeled carrots

Cut 2 or 3 1/2-inch slits on top and bottom of roast. Fill each slit with Creole seasoning (or red pepper) and a garlic slice. (This step is optional but good if you like hot flavors.) Rub brown sugar and Creole seasoning thoroughly on all surfaces of the roast. Sear on all sides in hot oil in non-stick pan. Cover with hot water. Cook at low boil for about 1 hour. Add whole vegetables around sides and on top of roast. Simmer on low 2 to 3 hours until fork tender.

Crazy Chocolate Cola Cake

1 stick margarine, soft
1/2 cup applesauce
1 cup water
4 Tbsps. cocoa
2 cups sugar
2 cups flour
1 tsp. cinnamon
1 tsp. baking soda
1 cup cola (any flavor soda)
2 eggs
1 tsp. vanilla

Bring first 4 ingredients to a boil in a small saucepan. Set aside. Mix dry ingredients in large bowl and add boiled mixture. Add cola, well-beaten eggs and vanilla. Mix well. Pour into a greased and floured 11x16 pan. Bake 20 to 30 minutes at 400 degrees. While cake is still hot, cover with Cola Icing.

Cola Icing

1 stick margarine
4 Tbsps. cocoa
6 Tbsps. cola

1 box powdered sugar, sifted
1 tsp. vanilla
1 cup pecans, finely chopped (opt.)
Just before cake is done, make the icing. Bring to boil margarine, cocoa and cola. Pour into bowl of powdered sugar and mix until all the sugar is dissolved. Add vanilla and pecans. Spread over cake while it is still hot. Let cool before cutting.

Black-eyed Pea Relish

We like this relish with sandwiches or as a dip with fat-free chips.
2 (16 oz.) cans black-eyed peas, drained
1 (16 oz.) can diced tomatoes (or tomatoes and green chiles)
1 med. green pepper, diced
3 stalks celery, diced
2 Tbsps. picante sauce (hot or mild to taste)
1 tsp. red pepper sauce
3 cloves garlic, minced
1/2 tsp. dried cilantro
1/2 cup chili sauce
1 Tbsp. cornstarch
1 Tbsp. hot water
Green onions, chopped

Combine vegetables and sauces in large saucepan; cook over medium heat for 30 minutes. Dissolve cornstarch in water and add to vegetable mixture. If additional liquid is needed, add drained juice from the peas or more picante sauce. Cook until slightly thickened. Chill overnight. Add chopped green onions just before serving. Makes 5 cups.

Pharm/alert Health Tips

Dealing With The Common Cold

Each winter, millions of people suffer from the unpleasant effects of "colds".
Despite popular opinion, you do not get colds from sitting in a draft, getting wet feet or staying outside too long in bad weather.
The common cold is a viral infection which is found in the respiratory system (the nose, throat and lungs).
Colds can last for just a few days or as long as a couple of weeks.
Colds are spread through the air or by contact with hands.
You can help keep your cold from spreading to others if you are careful to cover your mouth when you sneeze or cough.
Colds are spread when a healthy person makes hand contact with a sick person or touches contaminated objects, such as doorknobs.
One of the best ways to reduce your risk of catching a cold or spreading colds to others is to wash your hands frequently.
There is no "cure" for the common cold. The best way to treat your cold is rest, drink plenty of liquids, and take proper medication to relieve your cold or cough symptoms. Your pharmacist or doctor can recommend the best medicine for you.
If your child has a cough or a cold be sure to ask your doctor or pharmacist about the amount of medicine to give your child.
Remember a cough can be serious. If your cough lasts longer than 10 days or is accompanied by a fever of 102 degrees or higher for more than three days, see your doctor.

For more information about taking your medicines — Ask your pharmacist.

As I See It...

By Bob Hamilton

Eventhough I'm just three months away from qualifying for Medicare, all the talk about budget in Washington isn't causing me concern.

Frankly, just the topic of health care that's carried in the national news media is enough to bother me to no end.

I don't like what I read and see. It appears that the economic future of health care is lined with dollar signs.

I find nothing settling in references such as "health care provider," and "managed care." When and if I get sick, I want a doctor, not a "provider."

But that's not all. It seems that any reference to health care has to do with "provider." Shucks, I don't want to go to the pharmacy to get my prescription filled by a "pill provider." Nor do I want to receive a flu shot from a "shot provider."

The next thing you know,

Wichita General will be called the county's "bed provider."

It's also unsettling to me, the way all the hospitals are "merging" around the nation. They are going into those mergers similar to the way banks are being merged, which are usually smaller ones with larger groups.

Even the doctors -- notice I'm consistent with the use of that term, rather than "health care provider" -- are merging into groups. There's been a lot about that recently around Wichita Falls.

I don't know if the general public is being approached by all these health insurance companies, but I'm getting no less than one and as many as five solicitation calls each week on the telephone. And that's not counting those that are mailed.

I've begun to feel that people working in financial departments of major corporations are coming up with these terms "health care provider." I say that because the cost of health care seems to be going up all the time.

Gosh, when an aspirin administered in a hospital costs between $1 and $2, we're talking about big money.

Speaking of all the dollars involved in health care, somebody's making big money. And a lot of times, it's not who you might think.

For instance, if you join a managed health care group, you may feel you are paying plenty for prescriptions. But those folks who fill the prescriptions are getting less than what they did before the care groups were organized.

Therefore, there are some middle folks really cashing in.

And, like gambling, labor or any other thing where there's big money, you may find, or will eventually find, organized crime.

No, I'm not saying organized crime is involved yet. But folks, the money and the opportunity are certainly there.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Appreciates article

Dear Ms. Smith,
Mr. William Lane sent me a copy of the October 19 Iowa Park leader, which contained the story you wrote, featuring me and my Dad. Thank you very much. That story was very well written. I appreciated the skill you showed in mingling quotes from my little family history, together with excerpts and with bits of information that you got from other sources.

My Father was a great man, and I'm glad to see him recognized. He's been gone for 25 years now, but I'm sure there are a number of people left in Iowa Park who remember him.

I also appreciate your including the part, near the end, about my interest in God's Creation. You mentioned my upcoming book, Compare: Creation vs. Evolution. It's scheduled for release next summer, and should be available in most bookstores. I think it's an important subject, with information not commonly known by most people today.

Thank you again. I thought your story was exceptionally well put together.

Very truly,
Curt Sewell
P.S. if you should receive inquiries from anyone who might want to correspond with me, I hereby grant permission for you to give them my address, as shown in the letterhead above.

Fears missing issue

Please excuse the lateness of my check. I hope you will not skip me a week because of it. I would hate to miss the issue that tells all about Homecoming week. I was unable to attend this year because of scheduling, but I sure want to hear all about it. I loved the last edition with all the "Where are they now?" news. I graduated in '51, so the closest you got to that was '56 and Bruce Hughes. Of course I knew him when he was doing some great tap dancing. I also enjoyed your "As I see it" in the same paper. Very interesting. You state that almost 20 percent of the professional faculty was graduated from IPHS. Sounds like they loved school so much in Iowa Park that they just found a way to keep going to school there.

I loved the story Myrna Smith did on Taylor George. I would have hated to miss that one. I thought I knew him pretty well. I went through school with his daughter, Jimmy. We were in the Camp Fire Girls, IPHS band, attended the same fun slumber parties at Wilma Thompson Spruiell's, and doubt I dated some.

Myrna's story told me some very interesting things. I hope she has more stories like that one in the near future.

Thanks for keeping me in touch.

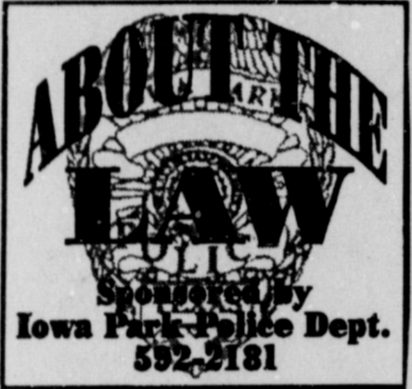

Always,
Lucille Wesley Holman

Supports car show

Iowa Park Leader Editor:
I would like to comment on the First Annual Show and Shine that was held October 28, 1995 at the Iowa Park Wal-Mart. I feel that it was a great event in that it gave something not only for the adults, but also for the teenagers of Iowa Park to focus on. I also feel the cause of the event, to raise funds for the Iowa Park senior citizens center, to be a worthy one.

Rather than always going to Wichita Falls, we had something right here in Iowa Park. It was an excellently organized event. My hat's off to the Iowa Park police department for their sponsorship. It was a job well done. Hopefully this car show will encourage other similar events to be held in Iowa Park.

Sincerely,
Bennie R. Brashear

TEEN DRIVERS

The leading cause of teen deaths and injuries is the auto accident, especially when alcohol and drugs are involved.

Every 15 minutes, alcohol contributes to an accident involving a teenager, and every half hour, someone dies in a teen-driver accident.

Teen drivers are involved in more accidents than adults for several reasons: using alcohol or drugs, lacking experience, driving too fast, using poor judgement and being unaware of other drivers.

Because of this teen drivers can face substantial consequences for poor driving habits such as: death or injury to themselves or others, loss of driver's license, higher insurance premiums and expenses for legal fees, court cost and fines.

NEWS OF THE IOWA PARK
GENEALOGICAL & HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Due to unforeseen circumstances last week's Iowa Park Genealogy and Historical Society's column wasn't printed, and the reminder of the North Texas Genealogy Seminar and the "Beginning Genealogy" presentation by Leta Watson, Continuing Education MSU, was missed.

Several attended the Fall Genealogy Seminar, conducted by the North Texas Genealogy Association at First Christian Church, Wichita Falls, and found the sessions most helpful. The information was presented in a very interesting way by enthusiastic genealogists.

Belonging to our local society stimulates our interest to participate in workshops and seminars presented in our area.

The next meeting of the IPGHS will be Saturday, Nov. 11, at 2 p.m. at Tom Burnett Memorial Library. Come join with us in learning and sharing an interesting avocation.

BRADFORD

Over $5,000 raised

Bradford jump ropers raised $5,151.92 for the American Heart Assoc. during their jump rope-a-thon held recently.

All students participated, and those who wished to, collected donations for the Heart Assoc.

Pie Sales

There's still time to order pies and French braids from Bradford students for the PTA's major fundraiser of the year.

Deadline for ordering is tomorrow, and if a Bradford student has not asked for an order, people are asked to call Bradford's office if they wish to order a pie.

The French Braids, which come in country apple, cherry, and sweet cinnamon, are selling for $7 a piece.

The pies being offered are apple, peach, pumpkin, strawberry rhubarb, cherry, pecan, lemon meringue, chocolate chip and French silk, and are selling for $7 to $10 each.

Money raised will go to buy needed items for the school. In addition, for every five pies a student sells, he or she will receive $1.

Money will be due at pickup.

which will be Tuesday, Nov. 21, from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. in the Bradford cafeteria.

Bach to the Future

Fourth graders will present their musical program, "Bach to the Future," at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the high school auditorium.

A meeting of the Bradford PTA executive board will be held at 6 p.m.

Hats off to these winners

With Red Ribbon Week being described as a success by Bradford Principal Pat Cravens, several students were deemed winners by their classmates for their inventive headwear.

Each homeroom class voted on the best hat during "Put A Cap On Drugs" day last Wednesday.

Third grade winners were Grant Miller, Ben Trotter, Heather House, Noel Walker, Kimberly Miller, Zachary and Brandon.

Winners in fourth grade included Whitney Cole, Stephanie Wirmel, Chris Mathews, Sandi Jordan, Clare Carrillo-Miranda and Brittany Panter.

Fifth grade winners were Julie Brown, Katie Albus, Felicia Hoffman, Jarred Horsky, Kristen Garcia, Jenny York and Breann Hrcirik.

Each winner earned a T-shirt donated by the Southwestern Bell Pioneers.

Picture retakes

KIDWELL

Second graders have the spirit

Kidwell's second graders will travel to the high school Friday to participate in the pep rally prior to the Iowa Park-Graham football game.

The first grade classes will attend the pep rally next Friday.

Math Tourney concludes

The last game of the math baseball tourney was played last Friday.

The Wilson Wildcats had the advantage with two wins, while the Bauer Bosses had only one.

After several innings the Bosses came up with a 58-49 victory over the Wildcats. The tournament ended with each team having two wins.

This was a fun, yet great motivator to get the students to memorize their math facts.

Picture Re-takes

School picture retakes will be November 9.

Swap meet Friday

The second grade classes have been reading "Junk Day on Juniper Street" this week, and will end the week with a swap meet Friday.

The story is about a neighborhood who decided to clean up by getting rid of all their junk. By the end of the story the students realized that one person's junk could be another's treasure.

On Friday, the students will get to bring one item from home to place in the swap meet, with the chance to trade for something else.

That time already

Today marks the end of the second six week grading period, with report cards to be handed out next Thursday.

Jennifer Spruiell receives $2,000 Grace scholarship

An Iowa Park High School graduate has been selected to receive a $2,000 scholarship from the Grace Foundation.

Jennifer Spruiell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Spruiell, was chosen with nine other applicants from among all W.R. Grace & Co. employee dependents world-wide.

Miss Spruiell entered Texas Tech Univ. at Lubbock this fall on the scholarship, where she plans to major in pre-med/medical technology.

Therefore, the amount awarded to the recipients over a four-year period may be as high as $8,000.

Miss Spruiell was graduated ninth in her class last May. During her four years at IPHS she was selected Who's Who Among American High School Students, National Honor Society, was enrolled in band and went to the state UIL contest all four years, All-District four years,

GARDENING HINTS

By MARK TERNING, COUNTY AGENT - HORTICULTURE

Late October through November are key times for planting cool-season color in your home landscape.

Follow this garden checklist to keep your landscape and garden in prime condition during the fall months.

Fertilization:
* Fescue lawns can be fertilized with 3-1-2 or a 4-1-2 ratio lawn food.
* Use a water-soluble plant food for newly-planted pansies and other cool-season bedding plants.

Pruning:
* Cut caladium foliage back once temperatures fall into the 50 degree zone. Store tubers in a cool, dry area for replanting late next spring.
* Remove dead tree limbs while they can still be identified before leaf drop.

Planting:
* Complete overseeding and warm-season lawns with ryegrass for a lush, green lawn all winter! Establish fescue lawns from seed by early November.

Insect, Disease & Weed Control:
* The majority of wildflower seed including bluebonnets should be planted now.
* Establish cool-season cover crops for wildlife. Winter wheat, Austrian Winter Peas, cereal rye, oats, among other crops help deer and other animals survive the winter months.

* Select tulip and hyacinth bulbs at local nurseries while supplies are good. Refrigerate tulip and hyacinth bulbs for 45 days at 45 degrees prior to planting. The crisper bin of the refrigerator works fine.
* Sow Elbon rye as a cover crop in vegetable gardens. Only Elbon rye is effective for reducing nematode populations.

* Broadleaf weeds such as henbit or chickweed in warm season lawns can be controlled with a broadleaf herbicide such as Wipeout or Weed-Be-Gone.
* Check houseplants for insects before moving indoors. Treat as needed prior to moving in the home.
* Apply a copper fungicide to peach trees to prevent peach leaf curl.
* Utilize Fall leaves in compost piles.

CORKY PETTY AND MICHAEL FALLON PUT END TO BULL'S RUSH

Hawks de-horn Bulls

Friday night's game against Bridgeport was the biggest game the Hawks had played since 1987.

A win would bring them one step closer to a playoff spot in District 3-3A while a loss would leave them on the outside looking in.

As head coach Weldon Nelms has said ever since he started, "If you work hard and put forth the effort, winning will take care of itself."

In what Nelms said was "the best effort by far as a team I've seen since I got here," the Hawks moved to within a single win of the playoffs by beating Bridgeport 27-18 behind a strong ground game that churned out 330 yards.

Iowa Park opened the game with an onside kick recovered by Keith Norris but failed to put points on the board when Brandon Campbell, who was filling in for injured Todd Yeager, failed to connect on a fake punt at the Bulls' 32.

Three plays later, the Hawks had the ball back after Corky Petty, who was named the Channel Six Athlete Of The Week, stepped in front of a Jacob Allen pass and returned it 17 yards to the Bridgeport 35.

But for the second time Iowa Park failed to score when the Hawks came up short on a fourth and 3 from the 5.

Seven plays later, Clint Witherspoon recovered a Bulls' fumble giving the ball back to the Hawks with 2:25 left in the opening period. Iowa Park picked up a first down on a 12-yard run by Shane Bagley, who finished with 108 yards rushing for the game, but stalled after that facing a fourth and 2 from the 37. Petty dropped back in punt formation and noticed Bridgeport had left uncovered the two outside Hawk receivers. Petty lofted a 37-yard touchdown pass to Michael Fallon with 3 seconds left in the first quarter to give Iowa Park a 6-0 lead. John Woods added the point after to boost the lead to 7-0 as the Hawks would never trail in the contest.

Bridgeport answered with a Michael Odom 1-yard run with 8:35 left in the first half but the two-point conversion pass fell incomplete leaving the score 7-6.

Iowa Park scored on a 3-yard plunge by Petty to bring the score to 14-6 at the half. Petty's score was set up by a 47-yard dash by Bagley.

Following a scoreless third quarter,

Bridgeport's Paul Raby hauled in a 5-yard scoring pass from Allen on the first play of the fourth quarter, but following another pass attempt for two failed the score remained 14-12.

Back came the Hawks with a 20-yard run by Witherspoon at the 8:28 mark to boost the Iowa Park lead to 20-12 after Woods' PAT sailed wide left.

Two minutes later, Odom scored his second touchdown of the game to pull his team to within 2 at 20-18. On the two point conversion pass, Raby looked to have made a nice catch of Allen's pass but Michael Fallon drilled the receiver and jarred the ball loose to help his team maintain the slim lead.

The Hawks took the ensuing kickoff at their own 22 yard line and on the first play from scrimmage, Dusty Owen, who finished the night with 129 yards rushing, broke up the middle for a 78-yard run, breaking two tackles along the way, to give Iowa Park a 26-18 lead with 5:54 remaining. Woods' extra point gave the Hawks some breathing room as the lead grew to 27-18.

J.W. RILEY-CORLEY
Riley-Corley receives Eagle Scout

James Wesley (J.W.) Riley-Corley returned to his former home of Iowa Park Oct. 1 to receive the Eagle Scout award.

The Court of Honor was brought to order by Scoutmaster Richard Hicks, who welcomed the audience, and the pledge of allegiance was led by Scott Davis.

Former Scoutmaster Tim Hunter served as master of ceremonies. Ross Embry, J.W.'s cousin, lighted candles, and an honor guard consisting of Eagle Scouts Ky Hunter and James Kaspar escorted J.W. before the court.

Miles Thompson, Troop 37 Scoutmaster from 1940 through 1960, presented the recipient with the Eagle badge, as well as a miniature pin for his mother.

Special communications were presented by Wesley Davis, the recipients grandfather; Richard E. Corley, his father, and Grover Cleveland, former Scoutmaster.

David Tipton, a 1959 Eagle Scout from Troop 37, gave the Eagle Scout charge to his nephew.

Only two of every 100 Scouts ever receive the rank of Eagle Scout. The recipient was a Cub Scout in Saint Jo, and later joined Iowa Park's Troop 37.

Besides earning 21 badges toward the Eagle rank, his Eagle project was conducting a book drive for the Saint Jo school district, which resulted in more than 140 books for the school library.

This past summer, he was a staff member of the Cub Scout summer camp and weekend camp for Scouts at Camp Perkins. At the end of the camp he was tapped out at an Order of the Arrow ceremony.

The youth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Corley of Saint Jo, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Riley of Wichita Falls.

Police

the county courthouse Wednesday, under $1,000 bonds.

A student at Iowa Park High School reported the theft of her purse Thursday from the varsity girls' locker room.

Police are investigating the complaint, which alleges the student had 13 pieces of jewelry in the purse valued at approximately $1,000.

Two junior high students admitted to authorities Wednesday of having accidentally set fire to the official scorers booth atop the concession stand at the old ball field recently.

The students agreed to make restitution of some $1,800 to repair the roof of the concession stand.

When an officer stopped the driver of a vehicle in the 400 block of East Highway Saturday night, for speeding, it was determined the driver had an outstanding warrant for his arrest which had been issued locally.

Evert Lee Blevis, 20, was detained two hours before being released after paying $30 on his fine for driving without insurance. Another similar charge was added, as well as one for speeding, according to the blotter entry.

The only problem reported Halloween night was an old problem, eggs being thrown.

Two instances involving egg throwing included a home in the south part of the city being hit, and a vehicle on Johnson Road as well.

Police were told the eggs came from an unidentified white pickup.

Singers selected to Region Choir

The Iowa Park A Capella Choir placed the most members of all participating 3-A schools in the Regional Choir, during auditions October 14 in Abilene.
