Trustees employ firm to find superintendent

In a called meeting Monday night, Iowa Park CISD Board of Trustees voted to enter into a contract with TASB Superintendent Search Services to assist in finding a replacement for Supt. Glenn Mitchell who is retiring at the end of the school

The service will cost approximately $5,500 plus expenses.

Hank Wheeler, director of Superintendent Search for the Texas

Association of School Boards, had presented an outline of his firm's pro--cedures in a called meeting Thursday evening.

He said over the past nine years they have placed 150 superintendents in school districts ranging in size from El Paso to the King Ranch. He said their success is built on matching up candidates with the school and the community.

The consultant will work with school and community groups in building a profile of the new superintendent. Then they send applications and brochures to all persons contacted and those requesting to be a candidate. The firm receives and processes all applications, and selects the most qualified candidates for the board's review and evaluation.

If the process goes according to schedule, the board of trustees should be voting on a new superintendent in

When asked by a board member how many candidates there would be to choose from, Wheeler said between 40 and 50. Then the board has the opportunity to select the 10 or 12 individuals they want to interview. The trustees went into a closed session with Mr. Wheeler, but no action was taken when the meeting reopened.

Supt. Mitchell said he had talked with board members and school personnel in several districts that have used TASB, including Azle, Stephenville, Glen Rose, Kaufman and Dimmitt, and they were all highly pleased with the service.

Following Thursday evening's special session, held in the school administration building, board members went across the street to the junior high library for a regular meeting.

During this meeting, trustees voted to have an architect, Don Daugherity, draw up plans and specifications for an elevator at the high school.

They approved a request by the Wichita Falls Southwest Basketball Officials Association to use the junior high gymnasium for a tournament on Feb. 15 and 17. The FFA Booster Club was given permission to use the junior high gym on Jan. 20 for a donkey basketball game.

In the superintendent's report, Glen Mitchell said the schools had gained 20 students over this time last month. This number includes seven at Kidwell, five at Bradford, one at the junior high, and seven new students at the high school. The 2,159 students currently enrolled in Iowa Park schools is a gain of 51 students over January, 1995.

The board again went into a already unusually busy for Iowa Park police and radio dispatchers -- with routine business and an unusual number of fire reports and people needing assistance to unlock their vehicles -- they were asked if anyone had turned in $1,100 in small bills.

A man walked into the police station just before 8 a.m. Friday, told them he had lost the money in the area of West Pecan, and asked if anyone had turned it in.

"No," was their response.

However, a short time later, the Wichita Falls resident called the dispatcher with the information he had found his money. He didn't explain how or where, however.

Another unusual event of the week was a report of finding a deer Friday night that had been gutted at the Lake Iowa Park boat ramp. The area game warden was alerted to the find for investigation.

Barry Kent Hatton, 30, was taken into custody Thursday morning on two outstanding warrants that had been issued locally.

Hatton was released Friday morning after paying a $91.50 fine for driving without a drivers license, and $8.50 toward his fine for operating a vehicle without insurance. He also signed a personal recognizance bond to appear in court, according to the police blotter.

When an officer stopped a vehicle with an expired license in the 700 block of West Magnolia Friday afternoon, a computer check indicated he was wanted in Bexar County.

A proposal was made recently by Sheppard AFB officials, pointing out that many young airmen with families are usually low-paid and have little available for expenditures such as meter deposits.

November sales good here

Iowa Park business community enjoyed a healthy run in November, when compared with the same month in 1994, according to sales taxes collected.

The city received a check this month for $18,992.25 from the state comptroller's office. It was for sales taxes collected in November that were reported to the Austin office in December.

The check was a 13.95-percent increase over the $16,666.70 the city received in January of 1995, according to the report.

For the first time in several months, Burkburnett's sales tax collection increase over the previous year was greater than Iowa Park's, percentage-wise.

Burk's increase was 25.86 percent, and Wichita Falls had a gain of 12.84 percent. Electra, however, experienced a drop of 4.79 percent.

Holliday and Archer City were the only two communities in Archer County showing a gain. Holliday's increase was 28.01 percent and Archer City 20.11. The other four communities were all negatives, according to the report.

Merklin, Slack vows recited in Christmas Eve ceremony

Laura Lynn Merklin and Joe Gowdy Slack, Jr., were united in marriage Christmas Eve in First United Methodist Church of Archer City. Rev. Willie Johnson, pastor, officiated.

Parents of the bride are Darlene Merklin of Iowa Park and Johnnie Merklin of New Jersey. Parents of the groom are Joe Gowdy Slack, Sr., and LaRue Bedford, both of Wichita Grandparents of the groom are Jimmie and Opal Wineinger of Wichita Falls and Joe Slack and the late Margaret Ellen Slack of Archer City.

Traditional prelude wedding music was provided by Phillip Lemond. Wagner's "Wedding March" from the Opera Lohengrin, marked the entrance of the bride and her attendants.

The bride and groom chose "Keeper of the Stars" recorded by Tracy Bryd to be played during the ceremony.

The bride's chosen colors of red and green were carried out in the church, with poinsettias, ivy garlands and wreaths surrounding the altar.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She chose a gown of raw hand-woven ivory silk. The satin bodice had an overlay of lace encrusted with pearls that formed the sweetheart neckline and Juliet sleeves, and met at the waist with pearls cascading down the cathedral length train.

The bride's waltz length veil was supported by a Juliet cap of ivory applique accented with pearls. She wore her mother's ring for "something old", a friend's earrings for "something borrowed', satin slippers for "something new" and a satin garter programmed to play "Here Comes the Bride" for "something blue".

Her bouquet consisted of red roses and small white carnations, baby's breath and English ivy.

Mrs. Joe Gowdy Slack, Jr. (Laura Lynn Merklin)

The groom wore a black tuxedo, ivory shirt, tie and cummerbund. He wore a red rose encircled by baby's breath and a sprig of holly in his lapel.

Shea Chambers, sister of the groom, served a matron of honor. She wore a full length red velvet gown featuring a scooped neckline. The front was trimmed in Venetian lace and accented with a bow where the back came to a V at the waist. She carried a bouquet of small white carnations, baby's breath and English ivy.

Kyle Cheek of Dallas served as the groom's best man. He wore a black tuxedo, ivory shirt, black tie and cummerbund, and a red rose in his lapel. Jeff Merklin, brother of the bride, served as usher and was dressed identical to the best man.

Meghan Turner, ring bearer, and Jenna Turner, flower girl, were dressed in identical ivory lace gowns, white stockings, white satin slippers. They wore red velvet bows in their

The reception was held in the home of Joe Slack, grandfather of the groom. Assisting the host were Mary Webb, the groom's aunt, Sue Deen and Judy McLemore.

The bride's table was covered with a white cloth offset with garlands of holly and red berries, red and white candles, green napkins, embossed with "Laura and Joe - One love that is shared by two". The bridal bouquet served as the centerpiece.

The bride's three tiered wedding cake decorated with red roses and green leaves was designed by Kathy Hicks of Iowa Park and was served by Melinda Morris.

The punch, provided by Sue Deen, was served by Laurie Turner. Christmas candles, poinsettias, garlands of greenery and a gaily decorated Christmas tree completed the decorations.

The couple departed the church under a shower of rice, popcorn, pinto beans and black-eyed peas for a honeymoon at Miss Mollie's in the North Fort Worth Historic District.

After their honeymoon they left for Gothenburg, Nebr., to make their home where the groom is employed by Midstates Irrigation Company.

The bride is a graduate of Iowa Park High School, Bauder School of Fashion and Design and is a beautician and beauty consultant.

Slack graduated Iowa Park High School and Midwestern State University. The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at the home of Joe Slack, the groom's grandfather. Tables were decorated with green cloths, red placemats, green napkins and red wreathed candles. Poinsettias, holly and red berry garlands, along with traditional Christmas decorations added to the festive atmosphere. Guests, in addition to the wedding party, included parents of the bride and groom, Rev. Willie and Brandon Johnson, Shawn Chambers, Melinda Morris, Bo Rinard, Lena Merklin, Jim Slack, Jack Slack and DeeDee Sanders.

As much as I like Danny Taylor, superintendent of schools at Burkburnett, I'll take issue with a statement attributed to him during the annual meeting of that city's Chamber of Commerce.

Taylor, completing his year as president of that Chamber, is quoted as saying, "We have to face the fact that we have become a bedroom community to Wichita Falls."

That's from a city of 10,145 population.

Hogwash! That's exactly what the businesses and leaders of Wichita Falls want us to think. Fact is, a lot of people living over there wish they lived here, and by golly, many of our newer residents moved here because they wanted out of that city.

And, I know, some of our local residents also often refer to Iowa Park as a bedroom town. But in that case, I've felt they were only giving our geographic location with a possibly better-known entity.

Is Denison a bedroom town to Sherman, or visa versa? Is Arlington a bedroom town to Fort Worth?

I think not. And in my mind, I know it isn't true, that we are a bedroom town to Wichita Falls.

To do this is to give up one's identity and pride, as far as I'm concerned. And I'm just not ready to do that yet.

We may not have all the convenient big stores that Wichita Falls has. And it's true that a lot of our residents either have jobs or own businesses there.

wanted for contempt of court for child support violation, and to be held under a $5,000 cash bond. He was turned over to a sheriff's deputy to be transported to the county jail.

Three cases of criminal mischief were included on the week's police blotter.

Someone reportedly threw a chunk of concrete through a back storm door at a residence in the 1500 block of Karen: a window in the 1000 block of East Highway reportedly was damaged by a BB, and a name was scratched on a table at a business in the 300 block of West Bank.

The driver of a vehicle that collides with and damages an unattended vehicle must immediately stop and attempt to locate the driver or owner of the damaged vehicle and give him/ her your name and address.

If unable to locate the owner, securely attach in plain view a written notice giving your name, address do. It's the law. We all make mistakes or do things we didn't mean to do. That's why we call them accidents. Be responsible and own up to your mistakes.

Depending on the amount of damage to the vehicles involved, a violator can be charged with a Class C misdemeanor up to a Class B misdemeanor.

Political Calendar

The following candidates have filed for election to the respective political positions, and have authorized this newspaper to report their candidacies.

Charles Finnell State Representative, 68th District

Okay, it's a fact that Wichita Falls has automobile dealerships and we have none. They have golf courses, steak houses, clothing stores -- and we have none.

We should have all of them. We have the market for them.

We need to remember, that every dollar we spend in Wichita Falls helps finance that city. Not one cent comes here, to help finance our city, to pay salaries, nothing. It's just gone.

Nope, I totally reject any claim or thought that a smaller city must give up its identity, pride and everything else just because of its close proximity to a larger city.

Burkburnett may be a bedroom town to Wichita Falls. Iowa Park is not!

But as to Iowa Park depending on our larger neighbor as a bedroom community would, I refuse to accept Actually, what is a bedroom town? I would suppose that it is one where the people all commute to their places of employment.

If that's true, then Wichita Falls could be termed as a bedroom town to Iowa Park.

Just check out how many employees at the Cryovac plant reside in Wichita Falls, by golly!

Teri Muse

Teri (Mrs. Dean) Muse said she began cooking when she was young. and has always loved to cook and try out new recipes.

A native of Spanish Fork, Utah, Teri and her husband, Dean, were married in Iowa Park in 1983 and moved to Colorado where they lived 10 years. They moved back three years ago and live at Valley View.

Teri and Dean have three sons. and she has a daughter and two sons by a former marriage. Her daughter, Melissa, lives and work in Iowa Park, and the two older sons, Jake and Aaron, live with their father in Wyoming. The three younger boys, who live at home, are Luke, 11, Zac, nine, and Colter, five-years-old.

Dean is a mechanic, and Teri is working toward an associate degree in nursing at Vernon Regional Junior College, where she is a member of Phi Theta Kappa honor society.

Teri said probably because of the influence of her father, who is an antique dealer, she likes to browse through yard sales looking for antiques and furniture to refinish. She also likes to cook, sew, work in the garden, and spend quality time with her husband and children.

Last-second win

The Iowa Park freshman B team Lady Hawks got a taste of exciting basketball this week with a last-second win over Seymour.

Iowa Park trailed 12-10 at the half but outscored the Lady Panthers 12-3 in the third to take a 22-15 lead into the final period of play.

But Seymour fought back to take a 25-23 lead with just 7 seconds left to play in the contest. Iowa Park's Amanda Sheppard, who finished with tied the game at 25-25.

Just seconds later, Teri Goin stole the ball and layed it off the glass as time expired for the two-point win at double figures for Iowa Park with 12 27-25. Goin finished with four points to help pace Iowa Park.

Lady Hawk JV

The JV Lady Hawks split a pair of games this week beating Jacksboro 37-33 Friday night before losing to Vernon Tuesday.

Summer Sternadel and Jodi Henderson each scored 6 points to lead Iowa Park while Lori Wiggins, Sara Shook and Sharla Hughes all scored 5 points.

In Tuesday night's game against Vernon, the Lady Lions took a 6point halftime lead at 27-21 and extended that lead to 20 at 49-29 with a 21-8 third quarter before Iowa Park came storming back.

The Lady Hawks trimmed the lead to only two late in the game thanks in part to the three-point shooting by Geri Merrick who finished with 17 points and four three pointers, three of those coming in the fourth quarter, and by Jodi Henderson who also nailed a pair of three-point bombs in the final period.

Iowa Park won the final quarter 10 points to lead the Lady Hawks, 29-15 but it wasn't enough to overcome the 20 point lead to make the final score 64-58.
