Gilmore kept eyes on goal

By MYRNA SMITH

Henry Ford said it, "Obstacles are those frightful things you see when you take your eyes off your goal!"

Evidently genial Iowa Park native Bill Gilmore has never taken his eyes off the goal. Work has never been a deterrent for him. He got his social security card at age nine when he went to work washing dishes for Metz Cafe.

Before that he mowed yards and took care of flower beds. Two yards in particular he remembers mowing were the Earle Dennys and Sam Hills. "I was making 25 or 30 cents an hour," Bill said.

He vividly remembers each fall when the Texas-Oklahoma Fair was held here that he and several others about his age would work setting up stands for the carnival. "I still have a lot of trinkets that I got at the fair," he said.

Bill also worked for Bud Black's Market and Kelly Ice House, among several other businesses. He recalls the family picked cotton and pulled bolls for the Spruiells, Koonce, D.O. James, and Claude Starr.

"My dad could pick a bale of cotton a day", Bill reflected, "he worked day and night." His daddy also worked for W. H. Hammond Oil Co. until about 1949. When he was injured and could no longer do oil field work he started nightwatching for Thompson Tool Co. Bill helped his dad there, cleaning up the building.

Gilmore's parents, James Emanuel and Erma Mae, had moved to Wichita County in the early 1900s during the oil boom. They bought a block of ground in the 700 block of South Park. All three of their children were born there and one son, James (Bud) still lives on the property, near the site of the original home place. Bill's sister, Veneta Glasgow, lives in Wichita Falls.

Gilmore also worked for Western Pipe Coating during his senior year while the company was coating pipe for Lake Iowa Park. While working for Dowell Chemical Co., of Wichita Falls, "I worked on the first well they sandtracked in Wichita County" he said. And, he also had a stint at rough necking and worked for a time at Sheppard Field.

Bill and his wife, Maryanne are both 1950 graduates of W.F. George High School in Iowa Park. They were married three months shy of graduation. He is looking forward to their 46th wedding anniversary on Feb. 19. Gilmore voluntarily remarked of their marriage, "I'd do the same thing all over again, I haven't regretted a minute of it."

His willingness to work, have a goal, and overcome obstacles, with his wife at his side, has paid off well for Gilmore.

Remembering the early years of their marriage, Bill commented, "The roughest year I've ever experienced was 1954".

That year he lost his dad. While working up north he wrecked his truck and the trailer he was pulling.

He "piled" all their belongings into another pickup (not his). It caught fire and burned, along with all their belongings.

He lost his car because he couldn't get it financed.

Probably the most memorable event of that year was the loss of a son. An identical twin to his son Kenny, the baby, named Kelly Lynn, lived only three days.

BILL GILMORE

... uses the golf cart to look over vast inventory.

Gilmore did contract work in South America, Canada, throughout the United States, and the Middle East.

A self-taught welder, he did contract work in Germany a year before he started welding for the public in 1958.

When he went on contract jobs they closed up their house and the family went along.

They had bought a home at 514 W. Washington that was in the country at that time.

The embryo of his present business, Gilmore Inc., located just north of 287 bypass, actually started in 1958 from the bed of a pickup truck backed up to his front porch.

He was tired of traveling, so in 1959, "I began going to work out my back door instead of my front door," Bill said.

He built a shop back of his house out of oil field pipe, except for the roof. That came off the old house that he tore down. Bill didn't buy his first new welding truck until 1965.

He had bought a barracks building and remodeled it for their home. They still live at the same location, but the house has undergone a lot of changes.

The less than sensational beginning of a business has evolved into a hub that provides bumper to bumper service for trucks and trailers.

In December 1969, Gilmore started out with five acres of land on the southwest corner of Bell Road and the access road just north of the 287 bypass.

Gilmore Inc. now utilizes 18 acres of ground. It has grown to include a welding shop, body shop, salvage operation, mechanic shop, office facilities, and yields an income for Gilmore and his four sons. They built all of their own buildings.

The operation is the only one between Amarillo and the Metroplex and Oklahoma City and Abilene that provides full service for trucks and trailers, including buying and hauling wrecked trucks and trailers for individuals and companies.

Gilmore's son, Cecil, operates the body shop, Kenny operates the welding shop and Billy is in charge of the mechanic shop and helps to run the overall business operation. The fourth son, Jimmy, has the dealership for Harley Davidson Motorcycles.

Gilmore said, "Jimmy worked long and hard for the dealership." He bought the area from his dad where the shop is located. It originally was built for Mrs. Gilmore's art and ceramic shop, which she formerly operated.

The Gilmore operation employs an average of 20 people. At one time, during the third oil boom in the 1980s, they employed 50 people. Gilmore has backhoes and eight welding rigs.

The 18-acre operation is traversed by the use of eight golf carts.

Bill bought one of the first motorcycles Jimmy sold after opening the Red River Harley Davidson business. He bought the first one sold in this area with a side car.

Bill and Maryanne have taken two vacations on the motorcycle, with Maryanne riding behind Bill. On their first vacation their dog rode in the side car....on their second they took both their dog and cat with them.

They are members of the National Harley Owners Group (HOG), and attended the National HOG anniversary meeting in Milwaukee three years ago.

The state meeting of HOG will be in Austin this summer and they plan to attend. They are hoping to take their 13-year-old granddaughter, Karlee, who lives with them on the trip. Mrs. Gilmore publishes the State HOG newsletter.

Bill assists with the Red River Harley Davidson April Fool Run each year that is sponsored by Jimmy and his wife, Vicky. He helps with the cooking for the event. Proceeds from the Run go to the Friendly Door.

A civic-minded person, Bill has always been interested in helping organizations. He has been a member of MuleSkinners 20 years and served as president two consecutive terms. He served as a volunteer fireman 25 years.

Man said he needed help when purchasing a dress

Police continue on the lookout for a man who allegedly exposed himself last week at a local business.

The man walked into a dress shop in the 100 block of West Park Thursday afternoon, and told the clerk he wanted to find a dress for himself.

After checking out the inventory, he reportedly picked out what he wanted, and asked to try it on in the dressingroom.

Soon afterward, the man called the clerk into the room, explaining he was needing assistance.

When the clerk entered the room, however, the man reportedly was standing there -- without the dress or any other clothing on his body.

He left the business soon afterward, but the clerk was so shaken, she waited a few minutes before notifying the police.

Officers were unable to locate a man with the description they were given, according to the police report.

Other cases on the police blotter seemed to appear in pairs.

Fights and arguments resulted in issuing warnings of criminal trespass in two separate instances last week.

The first, Thursday evening in the 400 block of West Clara, was brought to the attention of officers when two brothers were said to be fighting in the front yard.

Scott Green was issued the warning.

The other instance, on Friday, arose when two women were arguing at a residence in the 900 block of East Pasadena.

The subject of the argument reportedly was over the sharing of reward money, received for finding and returning a lost cat to its owner.

Both subjects were issued the warnings in that case.

Two theft cases were reported to police during the past week. A business in the 500 block of East Highway said a man carried off a black statue from its outside location Thursday, and a motorist reportedly drove away without paying for $20 worth of gasoline from a business in the 200 block of West Highway Sunday.

During an 11-minute period Friday, two men paid fines for outstanding warrants, after having been notified by mail of their status.

Timothy Raymond Sanderson,

38, paid a fine of $120, after having been cited for a safety belt violation/under four years, and Michael Joe Loyd paid a fine of $126 on a speeding ticket.

A semi-trailer truck reportedly struck the awning of a business in the 1400 block of Johnson Road Sunday morning, and allegedly drove away without reporting it.

An officer, with the assistance of a county deputy, stopped the truck east of the city on US 287. Driver Joseph William Smith, 28, could be cited for the damage, estimated at $1,500.

Police issued a citation for soliciting without a permit in the 200 block of Hope Lane Saturday afternoon. Paul Conner, 26, was released after paying a fine of $83.50.

David Conrad Wright, 36, turned himself in at the police station Wednesday afternoon of last week, on a charge of criminal mischief over $20.

Wright was taken before the justice of the peace and then transported to the county jail, where he was released after posting a $100 bond.

Trustees set Monday meeting

A special called meeting of the Iowa Park school board will be held at 6 p.m. Monday, in the administration building.

Trustees are to meet with Hank Wheeler, consultant with the Texas Association of School Boards, who has been contracted to conduct a search for a new superintendent.

The search was made necessary last month when Supt. Glen Mitchell announced he would resign at the end of this school year.

Also on the meeting agenda is a portion to be closed in executive session to discuss personnel, with a provision allowing action as a result of the closed session, if necessary.

NEWS OF THE IOWA PARK GENEALOGICAL & HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Were your ancestors among the Germans, Scotch-Irish or English who settled the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia and blended their families into a new culture of Americans?

If so, your German ancestors very likely came from the Palantine, a region that is now mostly in Western Germany.

Large families were use to living in small white washed stone huts with their cow and chickens brought in to shelter from cold weather.

If you are fortunate to be able to search for records of your ancestors in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia, take time to visit the Museum of American Culture, created by the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Information is available by writing the Museum, Box 810, Staunton, Virginia 24401. The early times of the Palentine Germans, English and Ulster Scots are recreated.

Use to a simple diet by necessity, they ate oatmeal with butter for breakfast, the national dish of Northern Ireland--colcannon made from mashed potatoes, scallions, milk, butter and kale for the noon meal. Supper was tea, scones or soda bread with butter.

Flower arranging topic of Garden Club meeting

When Tami Witherspoon was a senior in high school, she worked in the afternoons for Danny Parkinson in his flower shop. She had no idea that 10 years later she would own the shop.

Mrs. Witherspoon presented a program on flower arranging for the Iowa Park Garden Club when they met last Friday.

She said that she uses the triangle method in her arrangements. This was demonstrated by Tami using two long-stemmed snapdragons as the high point, and pink carnations for the other two points, then filling in to make a beautiful arrangement.

Bonnie Illingworth was the recipient of this bouquet of fresh flowers.

In her arrangement of permanent flowers, Tami arranged three large burgandy magnolias close to the bottom, with eucalyptus for the high points.

Mrs. Witherspoon said that most of her flowers are from Columbia, South America, and arrive here just three days after being cut. She also said that we should appreciate any roses we receive for Valentine's Day, as they have tripled in price since last year.

During the business meeting, led by Mrs. Illingworth, Nina Robinson was accepted as a new member.

A large Cyclamen plant was shown as the horticulture display.

Members were served from a colorful table of refreshments by hostesses Jo Gilbert and Evelyn Thompson.

You and Your Medicines

As a healthcare consumer, you have a right to information — in language you can understand — about your prescription drugs and over-the-counter medications.

- Being instructed on how to properly use your medications is a basic part of good healthcare provided by your pharmacist.
- Many people hate to bother their doctor or pharmacist with "dumb" questions; but there are no "dumb" questions when it comes to understanding your medications.
- Your pharmacist and doctor want you to get well, and answering questions is a part of their job.
- Before you take a drug (or any type of treatment) you should know its pros and cons, and what will happen if you don't take it.
- Your doctor or pharmacist wants to know if you like tablets better than liquids, or if you prefer one large tablet rather than four smaller ones.
- You must communicate fully with your healthcare professionals. Tell your pharmacist or physician if you experience side effects while taking a medicine, or if it makes you feel worse. Tell them exactly how you feel, when side effects occur, and for how long.
- Be completely honest. If you have not been following instructions exactly, say so. This could have a bearing on how you feel.
- Know exactly how to follow the directions on the label; the name of the medicine and what it is supposed to do; what foods, drinks and other medicines or activities to avoid while taking it.
- You must do your part too. How well your medication works is not just up to your pharmacist or doctor, it's up to you too.

For more information about taking your medicines — Ask your pharmacist.

As I See It...

By Bob Hamilton

Don't ask me to mourn the death of Ralph Yarbrough, who died Saturday at the age of 92.

I disliked the man when I first met him in the late 1950s, and after a stunt he pulled on me and others in the mid 1960s, I despised him.

You may remember the name. He was a U.S. senator representing Texas. And he was one of the most liberal Democrats I've ever known. I worried constantly during the three tries he made at being elected governor, because I was afraid he might win.

During the 1960s, we lived in Plainview and published a weekly newspaper, The Plains Farmer, that concentrated on irrigation farming in a nine-county area of the South Plains.

It was during that time a fellow named Billy Sol Estes was developing a hold on grain storage elevators and selling anhydrous ammonia fertilizer. His elevator at Plainview was one of my largest advertising customers.

Estes, who lived in Pecos, was working on becoming a common name among politicians, primarily because the federal government was controlling everything relating to agriculture, such as acreage allotments and supplementing grain storage payments.

It was also during that time Estes designed a plan to get major amounts of cash to finance some of his ventures.

What he did was to get farmers to use their good credit and names to finance the building of anhydrous ammonia trailer tanks. But the major portion of all the hundreds of tanks that were financed actually were never built. He used a scheme of swapping identification tags from tank to tank.

Estes was later found guilty in court at Plainview and elsewhere on the charges and served prison time.

Anyway, one of our good friends in Plainview was a contract pilot, who often times flew Estes people, and politicians, around the country on business and trips.

My friend confided to me once that Estes was holding a super big event at his Pecos home, and a lot of big names -- including Yarbrough's - were there. In fact, the senator was one of those he had flown.

Well, I used that information in a column in my paper. It was a flagrant attempt to increase Estes' political power and connections, and I told of that.

Less than a week later, a couple of men came to our home's front door late one evening. They announced they were with the FBI and wanted to talk with me about the column.

Being a fairly young fellow and admittedly very limited in such things, I invited them inside, without even asking for some sort of identification.

They questioned me about my information, where and from whom I had gotten it, and before leaving told me flatly that the senator had not been at that festive occasion in Pecos.

I had given them the name of my pilot friend. And in a very short time, he and his family left Plainview.

A year or so later, I got word from a mutual friend that the pilot had relocated three different times in states to the west. And each time he had settled down to work at his trade, some visitors would come around and ask questions of anyone who dealt with him. He would immediately move again, I was told.

I lost track of my friend, never hearing of him again. But in my mind, I'm convinced Yarbrough had his henchmen -- and I really don't believe they were FBI agents -- hounding him.

Oh, by the way. I now claim to be the only active newspaper publisher left holding unpaid advertising accounts from two former grain elevator operators -- Billy Sol Estes and Bobby Johnson.

Gilmore

Gilmore was a member of the Iowa Park City Council from 1971 to 1982. In 1982 he was chosen Citizen of the Year by the Chamber of Commerce. He was a charter member of the Rotary Club and has sponsored Little League teams.

President of the Highland Cemetery Association seven years, the pavilion was built during his tenure. Some changes were made on the grounds and Mrs. Gilmore started Babyland. She also spent a lot of time organizing the records in a more orderly fashion.

COOK of the WEEK

Dot Van Speybroeck

"Most of all I like to work," said Dot (Mrs. Robert) Van Speybroeck when asked about her interests and hobbies.

"This is no hobby, but it's what I like most - to work with the public," said the 33-year veteran of the restaurant business.

Dot first started to work in 1963 for Pioneer Restaurants in Wichita Falls. She moved to Iowa Park in 1974, and has worked the last 11 years for Ray Copening, owner of City Cafe.

When asked what her job title is, she replied "cook and general flunkie." "I also do catering through the restaurant and enjoy cooking for all those people, making lunches and different desserts every week," Dot said. Some weeks she does three or four caterings on top of her regular job.

Dot grew up in the Riverland Community near Henrietta. She went to a one-room school until the sixth grade when she began attending Henrietta schools.

She is married to Robert Van Speybroeck who drives for John Ray Trucking.

Dot has three daughters and three sons: Brenda, Connie, Robert, Daryl, Christy, and Bobby. Her daughter, Brenda (Britt), works with her at City Cafe, and has worked for Copening 13 years.

Away from work, Dot enjoys Saturday rides on a motorcycle with her husband. On some weekends she gets to keep one of her granddaughters and spend some time with her. "I guess you always like kids even though you had a house full yourself," she said.

"I also enjoy teaching the young girls I work with how to cook, so when they go on their own they will know a little of life and not be surprised as to what is out in the world," she commented.

There is no doubt that the recipes Dot is sharing this week are some that she has prepared many times, and received numerous requests on how to prepare them.

Bread Pudding

- 16 slices bread
- 1/2 cup melted butter
- 1 1/3 cup brown sugar
- 2 tsp. cinnamon
- 1 1/3 cup raisins
- 12 eggs, slightly beaten
- 1 1/3 cup sugar
- 4 tsp. vanilla
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 10 cups (scalded) milk

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Butter pan. Take crust off of bread and arrange in pan. Pour butter, brown sugar and cinnamon over bread; sprinkle on raisins. Blend eggs, sugar, vanilla and salt. Gradually stir in milk and pour over bread. Place in 1-inch hot water in baking pan. Bake 65-70 minutes or until knife inserted comes out clean. Makes 24 servings.

Grandma's Orange Carrot Cake

- 1 cup Grandma's molasses
  - 1 cup butter
  - 4 eggs
  - 1/2 cup orange juice
  - 1/2 tsp. salt
  - 2 cups shredded carrots
  - 1/2 cup chopped walnuts
  - 1 cup flour (white)
  - 1 cup whole wheat flour
  - 2 tsp. baking soda
  - 1 tsp. cinnamon
- Frosting:
3 oz. pkg. cream cheese
2 Tbsp. margarine
1 1/2 cups powdered sugar
1 tsp. grated orange peel

In a large bowl, combine molasses, butter, eggs and orange juice; mix well. Stir in both flours, baking soda, cinnamon and salt; mix well. Stir in carrots and walnuts. Pour into 2 greased 8 or 9-inch round cake pans. Bake 30-35 minutes at 350 degrees. Cool 15 minutes; remove from pan and cool completely.

In a small bowl, combine all frosting ingredients. Beat until smooth. Spread one layer with frosting. Top with second layer and frost it. Then top with grated orange peel and walnuts.

Dot's Liver & Onions

Salt and pepper the pieces of liver, then roll them in flour and brown in skillet with shortening in it. When liver is browned a little, put in a baking dish and saute onion rings in shortening. Arrange onions on top of liver. Take flour and brown it in the shortening, adding water to make gravy. Pour gravy over top of liver and onions and put in the oven to bake about 1 hour to get done.

Creamed Chicken with Mushrooms

Arrange chicken pieces in a baking dish with water and butter and bake at 350 degrees about 30 minutes.

Pour 1 large can of cream of mushroom soup over chicken with salt and pepper and return to oven about 1 hour to make sure chicken is done.

Taxpayers encouraged to check W-2 forms

Taxpayers are encouraged to be sure their Social Security number and name is correctly shown on the W-2 form (statement of earnings) your employer is required to have given you by the end of January.

District Social Security manager Greg White says, "Compare the number and name shown on the W-2 with the information on your Social Security card. Report any discrepancies to your employer and local Social Security office right away. "The name and number on your W-2 must match your Social Security record so that your earnings will be credited to the correct Social Security record," he said. Should a problem be detected, persons can call Social Security's toll-free number of 1-800-772-1213. Retirement, survivors and disability benefits are based on an individual's earnings record. Uncredited earnings could adversely affect future eligibility for benefits, as well as the benefit amount.

Lady Hawks split outings

The Iowa Park Lady Hawks split a pair of district games this week, beating Bowie for the third time this season by the score of 63-54 Friday night before falling at Jacksboro 72-60 on Tuesday night.

Iowa Park, 14-12 overall and 3-5 in district play, trailed for much of the game against Bowie as the Lady Hawks had to rally for a 63-54 win.

The Lady Rabbits led 13-10 at the end of the first quarter as Iowa Park had trouble getting started, shooting only 4-of-12 from the floor while turning the ball over nine times.

Wendy Bridwell gave her team a 20-18 lead with 4:30 remaining in the first half on her 15-foot jumper from the baseline. Bridwell scored 10 of her game-high 21 in the second quarter, and thanks to 8-of-15 shooting from the floor, the Lady Hawks erased the 3-point deficit and held a 30-27 lead at the half.

Bowie took a one-point advantage into the final eight minutes of play with a three-pointer with 3 seconds remaining in the third to take a 42-41 lead.

Bowie led 49-46 with 5:16 left to play before Iowa Park went on a 10-0 run to go on top 56-49. The run was sparked by 8 straight points by Julea Ricks.

The Lady Hawks scored their final seven points from the charity stripe to post the 63-54 win. Iowa Park was led in scoring by Bridwell with 21 followed by Randi Tigrett with 14 and Dusti Welch with 13. Ricks added 8 points, all coming in the final quarter.

Things didn't go as smooth Tuesday night against Jacksboro as the Lady Hawks fell 72-60 to drop to 1-1 in the second half of district play.

Iowa Park opened with a 15-14 first quarter with Welch scoring 8 of her 17 points in the period but Jacksboro came back with a 21-12 second quarter to take an 8-point-half-time advantage at 35-27.

Jacksboro extended it's lead to 11 at 57-46 heading into the final eight minutes of play. The Tigeretts also won the final period 15-14 to post the 72-60 win.

Bridwell led Iowa Park in scoring with 19 points, 13 of those coming in the second half, while Monica Merrell added 8 points for the Lady Hawks. Jacksboro was led by Stacy Lowrance with 21 followed by Leann Hanson with 19 and Kaci Duke with 17.

The Lady Hawks will travel to Bridgeport to take on the No. 7 ranked Sissies Friday night, trying to avenge a 55-50 loss at home in the first half. Iowa Park will then play host to the Lady Lions who lost 79-77 to Iowa Park in the first half.

The JV Lady Hawks split a pair of district contests this week losing to Bowie on Friday night 49-39, then pounded Jacksboro 49-26 on Tuesday to move to 15-8 overall and even their district mark at 4-4.

Iowa Park fell behind 12-6 after the first and 28-23 at the half. Bowie increased it's lead to 36-28 heading into the final quarter of play which the Lady Rabbits won 15-11 to take the 49-39 win. Amanda Roberts led Iowa Park in scoring with 9 followed by Lori Wiggins who finished with 8.

The Lady Hawks jumped out on top 10-5 and never looked back against Jacksboro. Both teams scored 14 in the second quarter before Iowa Park put the game away in the second half with a 12-3 third quarter and an 11-4 fourth to post the 49-26 win.

Summer Sternadel led all scorers with 18 points followed by Roberts with 13.

Powerlifters win 1st meet

If the results from the Hawks' first powerlifting meet are a sign as to how the team will do throughout the season, head coach Steve Stewart needs to get on the phone and make his reservations for the State Meet right now.

The Hawks, competing in the Howe Invitational Meet, the first meet of the season, finished second overall behind Sanger but set 11 new school records in the boys' divisions.

Jeremy Tatom finished first in the 114's and set three of those records with a squat of 250, a bench of 155 and a total of 655. Shane Bagley, lifting in the 148's, set new records in the squat with a lift of 410, the bench with 250 and a total of 1070 to win that weight class.

Tyson Spruiell won the 242's with records in the bench with a lift of 280 and a total of 1170. Keith Hoover placed second in the 275's and set three new school records along the way: a squat of 475, a bench of 290 and a total of 1225.

Others lifting for the Hawks included Cody Russell, 8th in the 132's, Jackie Miller 8th in the 148's, Jimmy Fallon 10th in the 165's, Brandon McLemore 8th in the 181's, Richard McCann 6th in the 181's, Reece Williamson 5th in the 242's and Brian Casey 8th in the 242's.

"I was pleased," Stewart said. "Very pleased. I definitely did not think we would set 11 new school records in our first meet. I thought we had some pretty good numbers on the board. I think we have a real good chance at breaking all these and maybe a few others in our next meet."

The Hawks' next meet will be Feb. 10 in Ft. Worth at the Cedar Hills Invitational. "The Cedar Hills Meet will be a lot tougher competition," Stewart added. "It will help us to lift against tougher competition and will increase our totals in preparation for the Regional Meet. It's going to be a huge meet with well over 300 lifters."

Stewart was just as proud of the accomplishments of his Lady Hawks who, if they had been lifting in their weight classes, would have won the meet. "They only lifted in two weight classes," Stewart said. "They divided the girls into two classes from 132 down and 132 above. Most of my girls fall in the 148's and were forced to lift against much bigger girls, but I figured it up after the meet and if we'd have lifted in our weight class, we would have won the meet by 4 points over Celina.

"I was real pleased with the way our girls performed," Stewart added. "I've got a number of girls who should qualify for the State Meet if we just stay after it."

Baseball season nearing

It doesn't feel like it right now, but baseball season is right around the corner.

The 1996 Hawks took the practice field for the first time this season Monday despite the cold temperatures with the hopes of defending the district title won last year.

Head coach David Fuhrman will once again field a potent lineup including several starters back from last year's 16-10 district championship team that lost to Aledo in the playoffs.

Back are seniors Dusty Owen, who led the team at the plate hitting .396 with 20 stolen bases, in the outfield. Owen was also named to the First Team All District squad as a Utility Player.

Chris Norris returns as the team's leading pitcher with a 6-5 record. Norris was the District 3-3A Most Valuable Player last season hitting .368 to go along with his success on the mound.

Corky Petty, last year's First Team Designated Hitter, returns hitting .256 and is joined by Second Team outfielder Clancy Lalumia who hit .314 with 10 stolen bases for the Hawks.

Two other returning seniors include Honorable Mention infielder David Waterbury, who hit .262, and Robert Klinkerman also an infielder who hit .283 last year.

Fuhrman will be looking for some help to fill the shoes of Clint Scobee and Rudy Hawkins who graduated last season leaving holes at catcher and shortstop.

Leading candidates for those spots are Matt Strange, Zack Burroughs, Dusty Crawford and Kevin Brazile at catcher and possibly Jake Dillard and Todd Yeager to help fill in on the infield.

Others that will be counted on to provide some help will be Chad Wright, Waylon Stewart and Jonathan Clubb.

Joining Norris on the mound this year will be Petty and possibly Crawford, Clubb and Lalumia with others being added to the list as practice gets further along.

Once again the Hawks will have their hands full in District as Graham returns all nine starters from last year's State semi-finalist team. Vernon returns seven starters and the two best athletes in the district according to Fuhrman in Phillip Bell and Clint Kiescheck. Bridgeport also returns seven starters.

"We're going to be strong with our first nine," Fuhrman said. "Real strong. We still need to find a No. 2 pitcher. The problem is that everybody in our district is going to be just as strong. It ought to be quite a race."

The Hawks will get their first look at opposing pitching in a scrimmage Feb. 16 at 4:30 p.m. against Burkburnett which, according to Fuhrman, will give many of the kids some much needed playing time while some of the other players are still playing basketball.

Then Saturday the 17th the Hawks will be playing a 100-inning game to raise money to help buy equipment like a portable pitching mound that can be used inside the gym to allow pitchers to get their work in, even in bad weather.

The Hawks will open the season at home against Burkburnett on Feb. 23 at 4 p.m. then play Holliday on the 27th.

Iowa Park will play in the Childress Tournament Feb. 29-Mar. 2 and will play in the Wichita Falls Classic Mar. 7-9. Tournament action will continue in the Boomtown Classic Mar. 14-16 with the first District game scheduled for Apr. 2 at Vernon.

Hawk JV

The JV Hawks, thanks to a pair of free throws by Waylon Stewart with 15 seconds left in Friday's game against Bowie, are the first half district champs finishing with a perfect 5-0 mark.

Iowa Park, 13-3 overall, trailed 15-12 after the first and 24-22 at the half before going on top 34-33 heading into the final quarter. The Hawks won the final period 11-10 to seal the win. Jonathan Horton led the Hawks with 10 points followed by Bobby Fisch and Clint Mathis who each finished with 6 points.

The Hawks started where they left off Tuesday night by opening the second half of district play with a 55-38 drilling of Jacksboro.

The Hawks won the first quarter 14-8 and led by the score of 26-22 at the half. Iowa Park won the third 12-6 and the fourth 17-10 to take the 55-38 win. Chad Graham led the Hawks with 12 points followed by Horton and Colby Bobbitt with 8 points each.

Hawks beat Bowie, but lost to Jacksboro

The Iowa Park Hawks put an end to their two-game losing streak Friday night by coming from behind to beat Bowie to finish out the first half of district play. The Hawks then tried to start the second half off on the right foot Tuesday night, but were upset by Jacksboro.

Bowie jumped out to a 7-2 lead and led 15-10 with 1:39 left in the first quarter before David Waterbury, who finished with a game-high 19 points, hit a three-pointer with 49 seconds remaining, then stole the ball and converted the layup to tie the game at 15-15 heading into the second quarter.

The Hawks went on top 23-18 with 4:37 remaining in the first half but Bowie went on a 12-0 run to take a 30-23 lead with 1:47 left. Again Waterbury came up big in the final seconds hitting a pair of free throws with 54 seconds remaining and a six-footer just ahead of the buzzer to pull Iowa Park to within three at 30-27.

The Jackrabbits opened the third quarter with an 8-0 run to take an 11-point lead at 38-27 with 4:30 left in the third before Iowa Park got on track. The Hawks pulled to within four at 44-40 with a 13-6 run to end the period with Waterbury scoring seven in the spurt.

Hawk Frosh

The freshman Hawks dropped a pair of district games this week losing 55-33 to Bowie at home Friday night, then to Jacksboro on the road on Tuesday by the score of 65-58.

In the Bowie game the Hawks played the Rabbits evenly in the first quarter at 14-14 but the second and third quarters combined to spell doom for the Hawks as Bowie won the second 14-3 and the third 17-2 to take a 44-20 lead into the final period. Iowa Park won the fourth 13-11 but lost the game.

Clayton Sayles led the Hawks in scoring with 6 points followed by Johnny Dilard who finished with 5.

In the Jacksboro game the score didn't reflect just how close the game really was. Iowa Park held a 1-point lead late but fell 65-58 to the Tigers after turning the ball over twice in a row down the stretch.

Iowa Park trailed 14-13 after one and 36-27 at halftime. The Hawks won the third quarter 12-11 and the fourth 19-18. Tommy Duerson led Iowa Park in scoring with 10 points followed by Jon Thomas with 8.

final quarter scoring 10 straight points to put the Hawks on top for good with back-to-back three-point bombs, a 10-foot jumper and a layup to give Iowa Park a 52-46 lead. The Hawks led by as many as nine late in the game before Bowie hit a layup and a three-pointer at the buzzer to make the final 63-59.

Joining Waterbury and Black in double figures for the Hawks was Rylan McNeil who finished with 10 points. Bowie was led by Aaron Tefertiller with 16 followed by Wes Thomas with 12 and Cody Wadsworth with 10.

The Hawks finished the first half of district at 3-2 while Bowie finished at 1-4. Graham won the first half with a perfect 5-0 mark and Bridgeport finished second at 4-1.

The Hawks were looking to start the second half strong against Jacksboro, a team they had beaten 84-59 in the first half, but some very questionable fouls forced Waterbury and Shaun Campbell to the bench and gave the Tigers a 70-56 win.

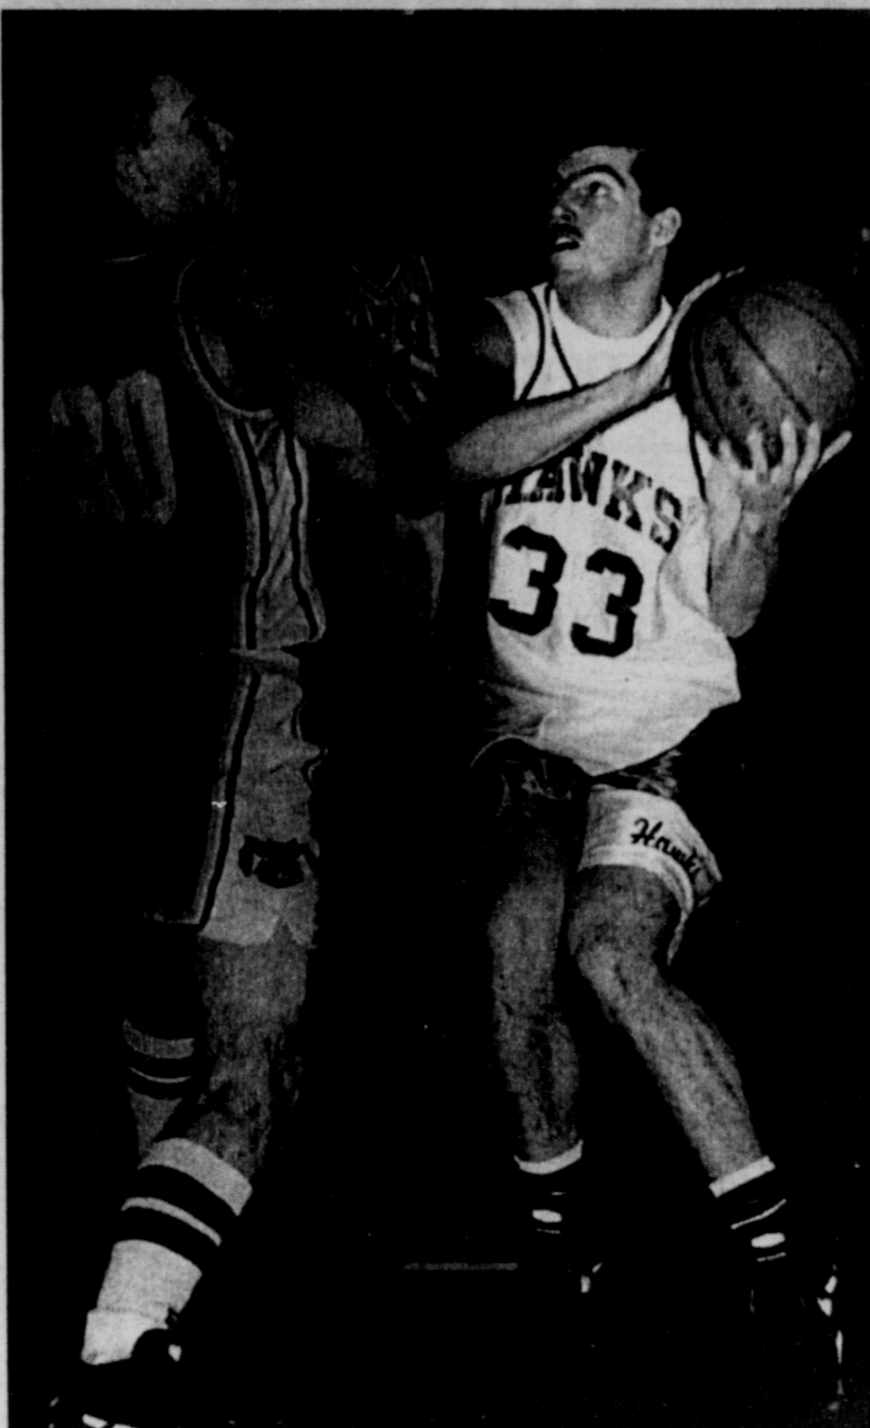

Both Waterbury and Campbell picked up two early first-quarter fouls and were forced to watch while Iowa Park held a slim advantage at 11-10 heading into the second quarter. Waterbury picked up his third foul early in the period and had to watch the rest of the quarter with no points while Iowa Park, which had led by as many as three, found themselves down by the same margin heading into the locker room at halftime at 29-26.

The Hawks fell behind by seven at 44-37 with 3:10 left in the quarter on a short jumper by Stewart Chalmers before Iowa Park fought back to retake the lead at 45-44. A layup by McNeil sandwiched between two three-pointers by Waterbury gave the Hawks a 1-point advantage with 1:29 left in the third. Jacksboro added a basket to take a 46-45 lead into the final eight minutes of play.

The Tigers scored the first five points of the fourth to take a 51-45 lead but a 9-2 run by the Hawks gave Iowa Park the lead at 54-53 with 4:01 remaining.

That's when things turned for the worse.

Jacksboro's Todd Besselaar was fouled on the floor but the officials allowed his shot to count, gave him a free throw and called a technical all in a matter of seconds. Besselaar made the free throw, Jacksboro got the ball back and then the officials called the fifth foul on Waterbury. When it was all said and done the Tigers were on

A three-pointer by Besselaar, who finished with 16, and a pair of layups by Ryan Geer, who finished with 22, gave Jacksboro a 65-54 lead with 1:51 remaining as the Tigers went on to win 70-56 to go 1-0 in the second half and 16-11 overall while Iowa Park fell to 16-8 and 0-1 in the second half.

The Hawks are very much still alive for a playoff spot following Bowie's upset win over Bridgeport Tuesday night and Iowa Park will travel to Bridgeport Friday night in a crucial district game. The Hawks will return home to take on Vernon on Tuesday. Iowa Park lost at home to the Bulls in the first half 102-82 in a game that was much closer than the score indicated. The Hawks beat Vernon 60-48 at Vernon earlier.
