Mean Green Marching Machine to state

Iowa Park's Mean Green Marching Machine will be competing Monday in the state University Scholastic League contest at Mesquite.

The unit was judged best among 17 high school bands in the UIL Area B contest held Saturday at Pennington Field in Fort Worth.

Jacksboro High's entry placed second, and also qualifies to advance to the state contest. Breckenridge placed third, and was designated as alternate to state.

The band qualified to advance to the Area contest by earning its 15th consecutive Division One rating in the district contest the previous week in Wichita Falls.

The Hawk Band will perform in the state contest's preliminaries at 10:30 a.m. Of the 14 bands from over the state that qualified in their area competitions, seven will be selected to compete in the finals Monday evening.

Residents who plan to follow the band to Mesquite have a choice of purchasing a ticket for both the preliminaries and finals, for $8, or a ticket for either the preliminary or final for $5.

Those planning on attending are cautioned that organizers are prohibiting any balloons in the stadium. They have been determined as being a problem for spectator viewing, as well as an environmental hazard.

Mesquite Memorial Stadium is located on Scyene Road, about three-quarters of a mile west of LBJ Freeway (I-635).

A huge radio tower is adjacent to the stadium and is visible from I-635.

Hawks hosting Henrietta in season's final home tilt

When you look at this Friday night's District 5-3A game between Iowa Park and Henrietta it looks like a major mismatch.

After playing in District 9-2A last season and struggling to compete, Henrietta gets tossed into this district with the top-ranked team in the state and as a result, the Bearcats are 0-8 entering this week's game against the Hawks.

Henrietta is among the 10 smallest 3A schools in the State and was only six students over the number required to move up to the 3A classification.

"They've really been outmanned against most of the teams they've played this season," said Iowa Park head coach Weldon Nelms. "Their kids have played hard all season long, it's just that they have been over matched competition-wise."

One of coach Nelms biggest jobs this week will be to convince his team not to look past Henrietta to the big game against Bowie in the final week of the regular season.

"I think the biggest thing for us to do is to play at our level of play and not to play at our opponents' level," Nelms said. "Our kids, especially our seniors, know that this will be their last home game and that should help keep us focused. But in the back of their minds, they know Henrietta is 0-8 and haven't had much success and we can't look past them. We still need to come out ready to play.

"That was part of our problem against Jacksboro last week," Nelms added. "We really were not ready to play and it showed in our slow start. We didn't get things going until the second quarter. It's always tough to get your kids fired up to play a game where you're a heavy point favorite."

About looking ahead to the Bowie game coach Nelms didn't think this week's game between Jacksboro and Bowie had any bearing on his team. "We still feel like we have to win out," Nelms added. "Should Jacksboro beat Bowie, there's no guarantee that they will beat Childress the next week. We want to win out so we feel like we deserve the right to advance into the playoffs."

Offensively for Iowa Park, through the Jacksboro game, the Hawks are averaging 25.3 points per game while allowing only 16. The Hawks are also averaging over 300 yards of total offense per game at 301.2 while giving up only 242 yards.

Brandon Brown leads the team in rushing with 605 yards on 110 carries for a 5.5 yard average. Brown also leads the team in touchdowns with nine.

Todd Yeager is second in rushing with 512 yards on 91 carries for a 5.6 yard average. Yeager has scored six touchdowns rushing and has thrown for three more scores and has passes for 549 yards.

Shawn Fuller has come on strong and despite missing the Vernon game, is third with 416 yards rushing on 62 carries for a 6.7 yard average. Fuller, who gained over 200 yards against Seymour, has also scored six touchdowns.

Defensively for the season, junior linebacker Brandon Holley is having a solid year. Holley has recorded 38 tackles, 50 assists, 2 interceptions and a fumble recovery.

Defensive end Jeremiah Love is also having a good year with 44

Stolen vehicle found

A vehicle reported as stolen here Sunday was found abandoned Tuesday in Wichita Falls.

The owner, a resident of Woodbriar Apartments, told police he had discovered it missing Sunday afternoon.

Wichita Falls police located the vehicle Tuesday morning at a motel on East Scott, and it was impounded. Another theft report was filed Tuesday, by a resident in the 1500 block of Douglas, who said his 30-30 rifle was missing.

The resident had discovered the gun missing Oct. 23, but waited to file the report until checking with family members. The rifle is valued at $300, according to the report.

Officers arrested Michael Riojas, 23, Wednesday evening of last week after determining by computer an outstanding warrant for his arrest had been broadcast by the Wichita County Sheriff's department.

Riojas was wanted for bond forfeiture DWI, with a bond of $3,000. He was released to a county deputy to be transported to jail.

A charge of driving while intoxicated was filed early Saturday morning against Kimbra Lyn Owen, 41.

According to the police blotter, an officer stopped her vehicle and suspected she was intoxicated. She was taken to the sheriff's department and, after refusing to take a breath test, was jailed on the DWI charge.

Saturday afternoon, an officer responded to the intersection of West Highway and Yosemite, where a minor collision involving three vehicles had been reported. There were

Local officers causing the most election interest

Eventhough residents will be casting their votes for the president of the United States and numerous other state and federal officials Tuesday, there is little doubt that three contested races here in Wichita County are attracting the most attention.

Those three include the Precinct 3 Constable, Precinct 3 Commissioner and County Tax Assessor-Collector.

General election polls are to open at 7 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. In this area, the polls will be located at:

Precinct 32 - County Sub Station, 400 North Wall;

Precinct 33 - Faith Baptist Church, 411 South Wall;

Precinct 34 - West Wichita Co-op Building, Valley View; and, Precinct 35 - Chaparral Baptist Assembly, 3784 Church Camp Road.

Absentee voting will continue through Friday at the county substation here, and hours will be 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Turnout of absentee voters has been unusually high, according to election officials. Locally, 558 votes had been cast by early Tuesday afternoon, and a short line was waiting when that count was taken.

The three most talked about and most advertised contested campaigns are seen as a major reason for the large absentee voting turnout, and promise to attract even more voters at the polls Tuesday.

Newcomer Alton Yeakley, a Republican, is challenging incumbent Sam Fairchild, a Democrat, for the office of Precinct Three Constable. Fairchild is seeking his second full term in the office.

Precinct Three commissioner incumbent Gordon Griffith, a Democrat, is being challenged by Mary Ward, an independent. Griffith is a resident of Iowa Park, and Ward resides at the intersection of US 287 and Wellington.

Neither candidate for tax assessor-collector has ever served in an elected office. Republican Clay Glasgow and Democrat Lou Murdock are the candidates.

Several options offered goblins

Tonight is Halloween, and local youth will have numerous alternatives to the traditional canvassing of their neighborhoods while trick or treating.

Numerous churches and organizations are offering alternatives to the door-to-door visitations in search of goodies.

The alternatives include:

* Volunteer Fire Department on South Texowa, 6-9 p.m.

* Police Department, pavilion behind city hall, 7-9 p.m.

* Heritage Manor, 1109 North Third, starting at 6:30 p.m.

* First Baptist Church Annex,

6:30-8 p.m.

* Faith Baptist Church, starting at 6 p.m.

* Kamay Baptist Church will hold a carnival.

Lakeview Church of God held its Halloween carnival last evening.

Residents should leave their porch lights on while receiving the trick or treaters, and turn them off when not receiving.

Drivers are cautioned to be extremely cautious, especially in residential areas, because some of the younger children might be excited and dash into an oncoming vehicle's path without any notice.

Trustees have busy session

During a called meeting Thursday, Iowa Park school trustees approved bids on computers for the high school and window repair at Kidwell Elementary, appointed three trustees to be on a Facility Task Force, and named a representative to serve on the Wichita Appraisal District board of directors.

The meeting began at noon in the high school library.

The bid from Monarch for the purchase of 30 computers at $997 each was accepted. The computers will replace the outdated equipment presently used in the high school Computer Science room.

In the approved budget for 1996-97, $54,000 had been allocated for the purchase of computers. Since the bid price for the 30 computers was lower than expected, the board agreed to a request from the school's technology committee for additional computer needs at the high school.

The committee's request included nine computers for the library, six computers for TAAS Math, six computers for TAAS English, four printers for the Word-Processing class, and software for Computer Math.

Cost for these additions, plus the 30 original computers, would come within the amount budgeted.

The nine new computers for the library will be connected to the existing Local Area Network (LAN).

They will be accessible to every student and staff member. One will be utilized to handle the catalogs and databases provided by the companies the school deals with. For this reason and because of the media widely used, a CD-ROM drive will also be purchased, as well as a networkable printer to be utilized with the computers.

The 12 computers to be used in TAAS Math and TAAS English, and four printers for the word-processing class will replace obsolete equipment now being used.

The old equipment in the Computer Science room will be used to replace outdated computers used in the Computer Math program, making it necessary to purchase the new

Couple marry in afternoon ceremony

Miss Kerri Ina Dorner became the bride of Jason Dean Vajnar in double ring wedding rites performed Oct. 12 in an afternoon ceremony at Christ the King Catholic Church. After a wedding trip to Orlando, Fla., the couple will be at home in Kamay.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Dorner, Sr. of Iowa Park are parents of the bride. The groom is a son of Jerome Vajnar of Gridley, Kans., and Mrs. Flo Rahn of Hillsboro, Kans.

Marriage vows were directed by Rev. Mr. Patrick Burke, pastor of Christ the King Catholic Church, and Rev. Christopher Davis, O.S.B.

A large arrangement of white peonies and baby's breath were placed in front of the altar. White bows marked the pews.

Cindy Idell, vocalist, sang "The Wedding Song" and "El Shaddai".

The bride was given in marriage by her mother and father. She was attired in a gown of bridal satin designed with a short sleeved fitted bodice with off-the-shoulder neckline and straight skirt. The bodice and sleeves were embellished with seed pearls and clear iridescent sequins. The gown featured a chapel length train. She wore a beaded headpiece that held her white veil.

Her bouquet was a cascade design of white roses with accents of red sweetheart roses and gypsophelia.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Courtney Cummings of Dayton, Ohio. Bridesmaids were Gina Inman of Burkburnett, Angie Lindsay of Ardmore, Okla., and Amy Vajnar of Emporia, Kans., sister of the bridegroom.

Their sheath dresses of hunter green lace were styled with short sleeves and knee length skirts with scalloped hemlines.

Each one carried a single long stemmed white rose with burgundy satin streamers.

Kayla Strange of Electra was flower girl. She wore an ankle length dress of hunter green, designed with long sleeves, and empire waist with off-white lace collar and a full skirt.

Nathan Brunner of Tampa, Kans., was ring bearer. He wore a black tuxedo, white shirt, hunter green bow tie and cummerbund that matched the attire of the groomsmen.

Best man was Curt Vajnar, the groom's brother of Hays, Kans. Serving as groomsmen were Matt Vajnar of Timken, Kans., brother of the groom, Leonard Jirak of Hartford, Kans., and Arlin Funk of Kirkwood, Mo.

Serving as ushers were Ed Dorner Jr. of Wichita Falls, brother of the bride, Jeremy Jirak and Daniel Jirak of Hartford, Kans.

Mr. and Mrs. Jason Dean Vajnar
(Kerri Ina Dorner)

Male attendants wore boutonnières of a white rose with gypsophelia.

The mothers and grandmothers corsages were white fringed carnations.

The reception was held in the Parish Hall of the church.

The registry table was draped with white satin and lace overlay. The couple's engagement portrait, a candle holder with burgundy and mauve flowers and an angel that was a gift of the matron of honor decorated the table. Amy Denny, the bride's cousin, registered guests.

On the gift table a burgundy basket with green and burgundy velvet bows was filled with greenery. The table was draped with a white cloth with lace overlay.

An archway backing the bride's table was decorated with white dogwood and white bows.

The bride's cake was a four tiered white almond butter cake. A crowning touch was petite burgundy rosebuds. The table was laid with white lace with hunter green velvet bows and complemented with silver serving pieces. A kissing boy and girl angel completed the decor.

Linda Jirak and Rita Brunner served at the bride's table.

The groom's table was draped with white satin and appointed with hunter green velvet bows and burgundy roses.

His chocolate fudge cake featured a rainbow trout jumping out of the water. Jeni Schlaud presided at the table.

The bride is a graduate of Iowa Park High School and Midwestern State University.

The groom graduated Hillsboro High School and Kansas State University.

As I See It... By Bob Hamilton

I knew, just as soon as I saw the headline of a story released last week by the Associated Press concerning salaries paid head coaches of the state's larger schools, that there was going to be a lot of moaning and groaning, and misunderstanding.

The story concerned the salaries paid to the head coaches of all Class 5-A and 4-A coaches in the state. And it gave the average salaries of those coaches and the average salaries of all classroom teachers in the state.

It did not, however, give any information as to what the salaries were for the assistants to all those head coaches. In fact, it was the most misleading article I've ever seen from the AP.

And, right off the bat, representatives of teacher groups, especially those who demonstrate union idealism, became very vocal.

Don't get me wrong. I'm not saying anything about the level of pay classroom teachers receive. I just want to explain things that were not said in discussion of large school head coach salaries.

Head coaches are, in fact, administrators who have staffs which can, in the larger schools, run well into the dozens. Therefore, those folks are in fact administrators, and part of those salaries reflect that.

The article did not say anything about what the "above-base" salary paid a head coach. By that, I mean the salary paid that is above his regular base salary, which is set by the state. Nor did it address years in education, which also has to do with base salary.

The article said nothing about how many hours, days and weeks coaches work that are not included in the 185-day classroom schedule of school.

One could easily be misled into believing that all those coaches who serve under the head coaches were paid similar salaries.

And when attempting to compare the salaries of head coaches with those of classroom teachers, there's one point that was never mentioned: those football programs were not all money out-going, and did not reflect any receipts the school might receive from ticket sales.

As anticipated, the first article and following articles just had to quote one guy I like the least among educators.

He's Richard Kouri, president of the Texas State Teachers Association. I'm not sure he didn't receive his training from a school offered by the AFL, CIO.

He's complaining that the teachers in Texas should be paid at the average paid to educators over the nation, which is almost $8,000 more.

Well, because the majority of educators are where the kids are, which is in the big cities, let me point out that the cost of living in a big city is greater than living in Holliday or Iowa Park.

Union spokespersons always want to demand salaries of their people be equal to somebody else's.

I suggest that if Mr. Kouri is so unhappy with his salary -- which was low when he got into education, and he knew it -- he should get out of his line of work and find something more to his liking.

I'd give him a job, right off the bat, and see what he thought about living on the salary of a weekly newspaper person.

TO THE EDITOR

Program needs support

Dear Mr. Hamilton & Citizens of Iowa Park,
Back on Sunday, August 18, 1996, I was moved by the title of an article in the editorial pages of the Times Record News. The article had something to do with the traffic patterns in Wichita Falls, something totally irrelevant with what the title did for me. Yes, these following six words are so appropriate to our situation that I cut them out and saved them as a reminder for a letter like this. Hopefully, as I reveal the six words of mystery they will strike a cord with you as they did for me. They are: Money's got to come from somewhere.

This topic of money and where it comes from has been on my mind for quite some time. As you may already know, CIA is the leading local volunteer organization that, in partnership with the community, rehabilitates the houses of low-income homeowners, particularly the elderly and disabled, so that they may continue to live in warmth, safety and independence. We started here in Wichita County in 1984 and are nine houses away from having repaired one thousand homes.

The repairs are made by volunteers and the materials are purchased with donations. Fortunately for the past several years, we have applied and have been awarded funds in Wichita Falls under the community Development Block Grant program. However, those funds are restricted for purchasing building materials and can only be used on homes within the city Wichita Falls. Any and all work in surrounding communities, like Iowa Park, must come from donations, mostly donations from Wichita Falls. Unfortunately, for the past 4 years, the donations from the community of Iowa Park have not been there. I say unfortunately, because the future for the Christmas in April program in Iowa Park looks very grim. Unless the community pitches in and contributes financially to the Christmas in April program, there will be no other choice left but to remove Iowa Park from the program. That's a sad fact to face, but from a business standpoint it's necessary.

Here are the facts & figures from the past four years:
1993 - worked on 5 houses, spent $1796.94 for materials and received $321 in donations.
1994 - worked on 9 houses, spent $504.98 for materials and received $425 in donations.
1995 - worked on 8 houses, spent $3443.74 for materials and received $312 in donations.
1996 - worked on 6 houses, spent $6328.97 for materials and received $217 in donations.

Sorry folks, but we cannot continue at this rate. I also need to point out, that since October 1 of this year, we have received 7 requests for applications for our 1997 repair program and I expect that figure to climb especially as the weather gets colder. In closing, I think you all will agree that Iowa Park needs a program like Christmas in April, but the choice of keeping it lies in the hands of the community. For those of you who have supported us in the past I thank you so very much. And the two businesses that continue to show their appreciation by sponsoring our volunteer T-shirts, I salute you. But, for the rest of the community as hard as it may be to accept reality, the bottom line is: the money's got to come from somewhere.

Sincerely,
Hank Grieb, Executive Director
Christmas in April Wichita Co.

Donations needed

Christmas in April is a non-profit organization that helps low-income or disabled residents weatherize their homes and basic repairs. I have applied for this help because both my invalid mother and I need help to be warm this winter. However, my application is most likely to be rejected. Iowa Park and Burkburnett were helped last year. Christmas in April spent over nine thousand dollars helping folk here and in Burk. But only about $200 in donations were forthcoming from our citizens. The volunteers must have help in buying supplies to continue to help people in need. Why can not folk here see that in giving a tax-deductible donation to these good people, the benefits are returned to our own community?

Questions qualifications

Dear Sir:
A couple of weeks ago, the Times Record News printed articles regarding the race for candidates for the position of constable in Precinct 3; several of the facts they set out were incorrect. I wrote a letter to the Editor, but did not receive any response, nor did they correct the errors which they printed. The following states the errors printed in the Times Record News and my opinion concerning the candidates.

In the 1996 Voter's Guide, Fairchild states he has completed 450 hours of peace officer's training at VRJC and 80 hours of civil process training; while the Times Record News gives him credit for having completed 1,250 hours of training. The Times Record News further stated that the voters of Precinct 3

"have every reason to re-elect the four-term official" is incorrect in that Fairchild has only served only one full-term as constable. He was appointed to complete the final months of his predecessor's term, and was elected to the office of constable in 1992.

Furthermore, Fairchild appears to be unaware or unconcerned with the regulations and requirements governing the office of constable; in that a constable must be certified by TCLEOSE within 2 years of his service in office as constable. Fairchild served almost all of his 4 year term uncertified. Only recently did Fairchild comply with regulations and obtain certification.

As a legal secretary, on occasion I have requested Fairchild to serve documents. Due to his lack of knowledge regarding service procedures and legal instruments, he has contacted me with such basic questions as who received which copy, who should the completed return should be sent, etc. Never has any constable from any precinct contacted me with such basic questions regarding procedures.

In my opinion, Fairchild's 530 hours of class room training is not equivalent Yeakley's 28 years of actual law enforcement experience. Yeakley is the better qualified candidate and he would be a credit to the voters and citizens of Precinct 3 in the professionalism he would bring to the office of constable.

Sincerely yours,
Cynthia Nichols

Supports candidate

Dear Mr. Hamilton & Citizens of Iowa Park

As we all know, Tuesday, November 5, is the day to cast your vote for the 1996 General Election. Included on this ballot is the election for the Constable of Precinct 3.

We as citizens of Iowa Park have the responsibility to vote for the man who will do the best job for the people of our hometown. I believe Sam Fairchild is that Man.

Sam has served as Constable for the precinct for the last four years. He has done so professionally and with great pride.

If you were to ask anyone in Iowa Park if they know Sam Fairchild, their response, without a doubt would be yes. He has made Iowa Park his home for the past 34 years, owning and operating Sam's Body Shop in the same location for 30 years.

Sam takes pride in the Iowa Park community. He constantly supports local business, as well as civic, school and church organizations and groups. He takes special interest and pride in the youth of Iowa Park, supporting them and the programs they participate in.

Sam has worked hard and has completed ALL the training and ALL the classroom courses required to fulfill his duties as the constable. He keeps his civil process training up to date by taking the continuing education classes offered to him.

Sam views the position of Constable as an opportunity to serve the citizens of Precinct 3, and will continue to devote the maximum amount of time required to fulfill the duties of the Constable office.

Let's band together as citizens of Iowa Park and vote for the man that has proved his abilities and loyalty to serving the citizens of Precinct 3.

Vote for Sam Fairchild.
Thank you,
Linda Frazier

Husband misses spouse

Mr. Hamilton,
I enjoy the Iowa Park Leader very much and look forward to it every week.

Now more so than ever. My wife, Stephanie, passed away Sept. 30 and was laid to rest the 3rd of October at 10 AM. She was born Aug. 12, 1922 near Beeville, Texas. She was 74 years old. She was buried in IOOF Cemetery in Rockdale.

I miss her very much. She was sick almost one year with cancer, so you know the loneliness I will be going through.

Some of my friends there knew her.

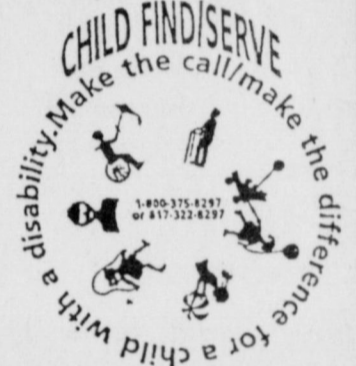

Enclosed is my one year subscription and thanks again for the Leader.

Dudley talented in many areas

By MYRNA SMITH

Describe Martha Dudley with one adjective?—you can't. You can say she is a multi-talented person—but that still would be an incomplete description of the lady.

She is an artist, an organizer, a good conversationalist, has spent several years in three different career fields, and does beautiful crafts. Most of these she does out of her own creative imagination.

She does pyrography which uses hardwood. Martha saw pictures of some finished products in a crafts magazine and decided "I can do that". She has some beautiful pieces she has finished, including egg-shaped pieces, a portrait of a Victorian lady and some Victorian boxes.

Martha had the same attitude about flower arranging. She went into a florist shop and saw an arrangement that appealed to her and she said, "I can do that". An example of her talent for that may be seen in the picture accompanying this story.

Many other arrangements followed the first. She has made floral wall hangings, window sprays, wall and window swags, in addition to formal and seasonal arrangements, and mantel arrangements. Most of her wall pieces are sold in Lubbock. Some of her crafts are also at the Little Red Schoolhouse in Iowa Park.

She started crafting seriously in 1969 and used to make the different crafts shows, but she said that became too much of a hassle.

Another of her crafts that has been very popular, particularly in this age when so much recognition is given angels. Her angels are beautifully dressed in white net or tulle, enhanced with seed pearls, sequins and tiny rosebuds, and are complete with lace wings.

Most of Martha's angels are sold in Dallas and some are sold in Georgia.

The only special training she has had in her multi-faceted crafts or hobbies was several lessons in painting in oils and acrylics.

Martha, originally from Sweetwater, has lived in many places since her marriage to her late husband, Charles, who was raised in Floydada. He worked with the Alcoholic Beverage Commission.

But in each place they lived Martha carved a niche for herself. When they lived in Fort Worth she worked for the Fort Worth National Bank, when they lived in San Antonio she worked in the Trust Department of The National Bank of Commerce, in Abilene and in Seymour she was employed in the Trust Department of The First National Banks.

When the Dudleys moved to Iowa Park from Seymour, Martha went to work as secretary in the school superintendent's office where she worked seven and a half years.

She next went to work for Cryovac in the accounting department, working up to buyer of raw materials and production supplies. She worked there 15 years, retiring in 1994 because of her husband's illness.

Martha has served a total of 17 and a half years on the Iowa Park School Board.

A little over 12 years ago Martha used her innate ability to draw the plans for their beautifully appointed home in Quail Valley.

Before they started construction of the house, Charles insisted she pick out the living room furniture she wanted first. They shopped until they found the couch and love seat and other pieces of furniture they wanted, using it as a guide to decorate and select other furnishings for the home.

Their daughter, Marty Maxwell, helped them decorate the house and their son, Charles Jr., who works for Cryovac, installed the plumbing.

Charles and Martha did a lot of the finishing work themselves.

The living room is all cedar with the exception of the brick fireplace. A unique cedar entertainment center takes up one wall of the room.

Currently Martha is still trying to adjust to her husband's death that ended 47 years of a good marriage. The adjustment has been difficult for Martha and their two children. His influence is still with them all in many ways.

Martha says, "The loneliness of not being able to discuss plans and ideas with someone, who's been there for you 47 years, and especially the loneliness of going places by yourself where you used to go as a couple is hard to get used to".

But, Martha is staying busy with her crafts and does some traveling. She is a member of the Iowa Park Arts and Crafts Association and a member of Loop 11

Martha Dudley

Church of Christ in Wichita Falls where her son-in-law, Max Maxwell serves as a deacon.

Marty and Max of Wichita Falls have a 15-year old daughter, Monica, and a seven-year-old son, Mitch.

Charles Jr. and his wife of Iowa Park have two sons, Jason, 22, and Justin, 14.

SANTA AND MRS. CLAUS were among the costumed characters portrayed Friday night by members of Iowa Park High's marching band. Besides having fun, they were saving their uniforms for Saturday's big Area Marching Contest.

Jennifer Hinrichs

Jennifer and Russell Hinrichs both grew up in military families where moving quite a bit is often an accepted way of life.

Jennifer was born in Alamogordo, N.M. Her family moved to Spain when she was 13 years old, then to Texas, where she graduated from Del Valle High School in Austin.

Jennifer and Russell met when she started working for him at the Army-Air Force Exchange Service at Bergstrom AFB where he was a civilian manager.

They moved to this area from San Antonio in 1993 when Russell was transferred to Sheppard AFB. He is sales and merchandise manager at the main exchange.

Jennifer said they chose to live near Iowa Park because of the schools. Because she and her husband had to change schools often while they were growing up, they wanted their two children to start and finish their schooling with the same friends. Also, they wanted the children to grow up in the atmosphere of a smaller town.

Their daughter Joanna is nine years old and in the fourth grade at Bradford Elementary. She is a Top of Texas football cheerleader.

William, their eight-year-old son, is a third grader at Bradford. He plays soccer, baseball, and plans to play football next year.

Jennifer doesn't work outside the home, but is kept busy being a homemaker and keeping up with her children and their activities. When there is time, she likes to read and sometimes does needlework.

She is on the board and fundraiser chairperson for Bradford PTA, and director for the Hawkettes drill team.

When they have a chance, Jennifer and Russell like to go dancing. They also enjoy taking trips back to Alamogordo, where all of her family live, or Alexandria, La. to visit Russell's parents. Other travels take them and the children to Six Flags, Fiesta Texas, or Sea World.

Jennifer and Russell breed and show Kuvaszok, which are large dogs, originally from Hungary, that are used to protect herds of sheep, goats, cattle, and other livestock.

Jennifer said the full-grown male Kuvasz is 32 inches tall at the shoulder, and weighs around 135 pounds.

They enter their dogs in shows within a 500 mile radius of Iowa Park, and one of them, named Zoldar, was an AKC champion.

Jennifer's recipes are from a cookbook that was put together by the Hawkettes drill team. "Green Chili Chicken Enchiladas" and "Mexi-Dip" are ones that she contributed to the book.

Jennifer said she likes to use recipes that she can make up ahead of time and then re-heat. Her children like to help with the cooking, and she lets them help with the "Mini Cheesecakes" and "Easy Peanut Butter Cookies."

Mexi-Dip

1 lb. ground beef
1 small onion
1 cup sour cream
1 large can refried beans
1 cup guacamole
1 large tomato
Lettuce, shredded
Cheddar cheese, shredded
Brown ground beef with onion. Add salt and pepper to taste. Warm refried beans. In 13x9 baking dish, begin layering all ingredients. Layer in this order: beans, ground beef, guacamole, sour cream. Top with lettuce, tomato and Cheddar cheese. Serve with tortilla chips.

Easy Peanut Butter Cookies

1 cup crunchy peanut butter
1 cup sugar
1 egg
1 tsp. vanilla
Mix ingredients in order given. Roll in balls the size of walnuts and place on greased cookie sheet. Bake at 350 degrees until edges begin to brown. These are good for "little cooks" to bake.

Green Chili Chicken Enchiladas

1 whole fryer (cooked, deboned)
2 jars of Arriba green chili (hot or mild)
1 can cream of chicken soup
Cheddar cheese, shredded
18 corn tortillas
Tear deboned chicken into small pieces and set aside. Mix chili and soup together, heat until smooth. Lightly fry tortillas in oil, only until moistened. (Do not overcook.) In 9x13 dish, layer ingredients. (Put a little chili on the bottom to prevent the tortillas from sticking.) Layer in this order: 6 tortillas, thin layer of chicken, chili over chicken, and a layer of cheese over chili. Repeat starting with tortillas. (3 layers in all.) Bake at 350 degrees until cheese has melted, (approx. 30 minutes.) Cut into squares and serve with your favorite side dish.

Broccoli and Rice

1 - 10 oz. pkg. frozen, chopped broccoli (with cheese sauce)
2 Tbsps. butter or margarine

1 cup rice
1 can cream of mushroom soup
1 can cream of chicken soup
1 small jar Cheese Whiz
Chopped onions
Preheat oven to 350 degrees.
Cook broccoli in one pan and 1 cup of rice in another. Saute butter and onions. Mix soups and Cheese Whiz. Add onion, broccoli and rice to mixture. Put in greased dish and bake until bubbly.

Ham and Potatoes Au Gratin

2 cups diced, cooked ham
3 potatoes, diced, cooked
1/4 cup mayonnaise
1 cup shredded cheese
1 cup milk
1/4 cup green pepper, chopped
1/4 cup green onion, chopped
2 Tbsps. melted oleo
1 Tbsp. flour
Dash of pepper

Saute green pepper and onion in oleo. Stir in flour and pepper; cook until bubbly. Add milk gradually. Cook until thickened. Remove from heat and add cheese and mayonnaise. Stir until cheese is melted. Stir in potatoes and ham. Spoon mixture into a greased, shallow casserole dish. Bake at 350 degrees 30 minutes or until hot and bubbly.

Mini Cheesecakes

12 vanilla wafers
2 - 8 oz. pkgs. cream cheese, softened
1/2 cup sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
2 eggs
Line muffin tins with foil liners. Place one vanilla wafer in each liner. Mix cream cheese, vanilla and sugar on medium speed until well blended. Add eggs; mix well. Pour over wafers, filling 3/4 full. Bake 25 minutes at 325 degrees. Remove from pan when cool. Chill. Top with fruit preserves, nuts, or chocolate. BE CREATIVE!

software.
A bid of $5,235 from Great Plains Siding to repair the windows on the north side of Kidwell Elementary was accepted.

For some time, the windows have caused a problem with heating and cooling in classrooms located in the north wing. The Great Plains proposal involves covering the windows with two-inch foam and using Alcoa exterior siding to match the building.

Trustees approved a request by Supt. Mike Caplinger to form a task force of community members and school personnel to study and make recommendations on school facility needs.

Keith Fisher, board president, appointed Martha Dudley, Jeff Watts, and Dennis Yeager to represent the trustees on the task force.

Following is a proposed agenda of study as presented by Caplinger:

A. Form committees to consider individual campus needs.

1. Develop a uniform time line for completion of committee work.

2. Visit each campus to determine current student needs related to space for the present and for the future.

3. Meet with campus teaching and administrative personnel to solicit their input on facility needs and possible technology needs.

4. Review the new Education Code (SB-1) for state curriculum changes which will affect future additions in classroom space.

5. Consider alternative uses of existing space to better serve students. (Example: Unused closet space that could be converted to classroom use, portable classrooms that could be renovated to a media area, etc.)

6. Review the Iowa Park CISD Action Plan for targeted needs and future plans.

7. Review the Facility Study completed by SHW Group, Inc. in July, 1995.

8. Determine possible recommendations to the entire Task Force to meet campus needs of student growth.

B. Present committee recommendations to the Task Force for study and review by the entire Task Force. Question needs and offer alternative suggestions.

C. Review state funding allocations and the local tax rate. Make possible yearly projections for the funding of Iowa Park CISD debt service.

D. Determine what recommendations can reasonably be presented to the Board of Trustees. Consider the estimated cost of each recommendation and the tax rate necessary to generate the revenue to support the recommendation.

E. Consider that individual campus needs may be modified to meet the district-wide financial contracts.

F. Keep in mind that the Board of Trustees has authorized the Task Force at the request of the superintendent. Understand that the Board may choose one of our recommendations, all of our recommendations, or none of our recommendations. They must consider this issue during a difficult financial time for the school district.

Other action taken by the board included:

- * appointing Freddie Daume to serve on the Wichita Appraisal District Board of Directors;

- * approving a request by representatives of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service for approval of 4-H as a sanctioned extra-curricular organization; and

- * approving the 1996 school tax roll.

Wichita County 4-H members and leaders are preparing to trace the heritage of their county 4-H program - the first 4-H club, charter members, as well as contest and event participants, award recipients and supporters throughout the years.

These individuals and businesses will be saluted during the "4-H Heritage Search" reception to be held Sunday, Nov. 17, from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Iowa Park RAC, 806 N. Third.

There will be a presentation at 3 p.m. of former 4-H Gold Star recipients, the older 4-H member and club and volunteers and other supporters with the longest service. 4-H alumni from other counties and states will also be recognized.

"This provides us the perfect opportunity to recognize the founders of our county 4-H program and rejuvenate interest in 4-H opportunities," said Laura Avara, County Extension Agent - 4-H and Youth. "At this point, I do not even know the year in which 4-H got its start here in the county. We do know that Texas' first 4-H club began in Jack County in 1908, so we might figure Wichita County was not far behind."

The "4-H Heritage Search" reception is a come and go event and refreshment will be served. Those planning to attend should call in reservations, 716-5580, or stop by the Wichita County office of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Hawks start slow, win big

Even a slow start couldn't stop the Iowa Park Hawks Friday night as they continued their march to the playoffs with a 28-7 win over the Jacksboro Tigers at Hawk Stadium.

Iowa Park improved its overall record to 6-2, and 2-1 in District 5-3A while Jacksboro fell to 3-4-1 overall and 1-2 in league play.

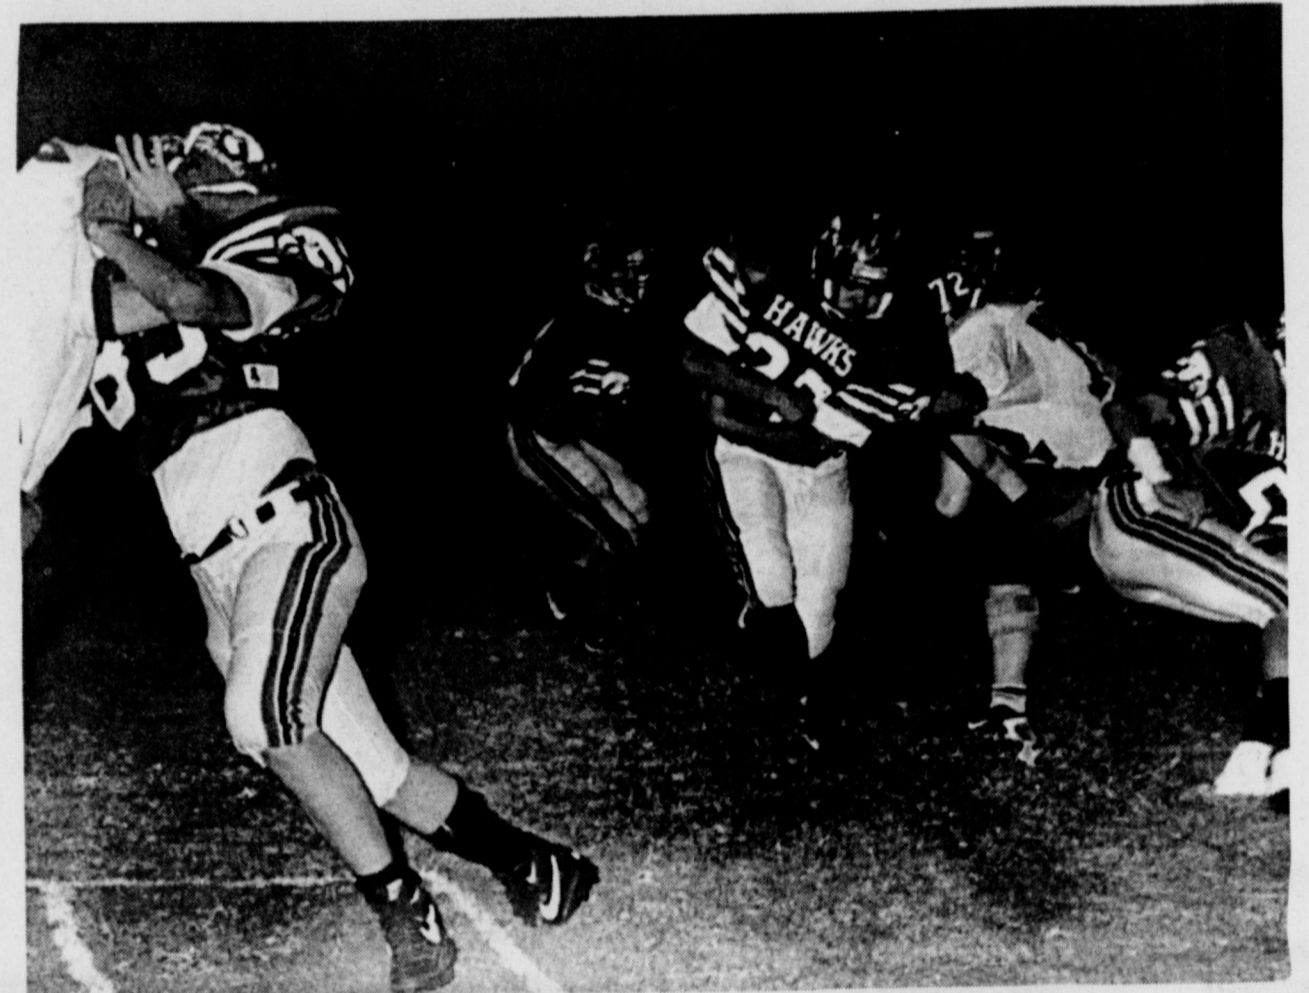

The win, coupled with Bowie's loss to top-ranked Vernon, leaves the Hawks and Jackrabbits tied for second place at 2-1 in the race for the runner-up spot.

Iowa Park will play winless Henrietta Friday night at home while Bowie has to travel to Jacksboro. The two teams will square off in the regular season finale in Bowie in what could decide a playoff berth.

In the Jacksboro game, it was all Tigers in the first quarter as Jacksboro took the opening kickoff and picked up four first downs and controlled the clock for much of the quarter. Iowa Park's defense, as it has done all season long, rose to the occasion and prevented the Tigers from reaching the end zone when Travis Johnson came up short on a fourth-down run with 3:50 left in the first.

Iowa Park took over and couldn't manage a first down and had to punt. The Hawks ran only five offensive plays in the quarter and failed to pick up a first down as the period ended scoreless.

The Iowa Park offense got on track early in the second quarter when Todd Yeager capped a 61-yard, 9-play drive with a 4-yard run on the Hawks first drive of the quarter. Keith Trammell remained perfect on his point after attempts, kicking the first of his four in the game to give Iowa Park a 7-0 lead with 9:01 left in the half. The big play in the drive was a 30-yard completion from Yeager to split-end Nick Black. Shawn Fulfer also had an 11-yard run to help keep the drive alive.

Jacksboro tied the game at 7-7 with 4:02 remaining after partially blocking an Iowa Park punt with 5:40 left on the clock.

The Tigers started their scoring drive at the Iowa Park 30. Three plays later, Johnson found Jeremy McCann in the end zone for a 20-yard touchdown as the ball just got over the head of Fulfer, who was defending on the play. Joe Borjon's kick tied the game at 7-7.

Iowa Park quickly answered the challenge as the Hawks marched 82 yards in 11 plays, capped by Calvin Galliton's 2-yard plunge with 1:11 left to play in the half. Brandon Brown and Fulfer were the workhorses on the drive. Brown had runs of 18 and 7 yards, while Fulfer had runs of 15 and 14. Yeager added a 10-yard scamper to help in the drive as the Hawks went back on top 14-7.

The Hawks looked like they would blow this one open when Brandon Holley covered a fumble on Jacksboro's first play following the kickoff giving Iowa Park the ball at the Tiger 27 with 64 seconds left. Iowa Park moved the ball to the 11 with 4 seconds left before Yeager had the ball knocked loose to end the threat.

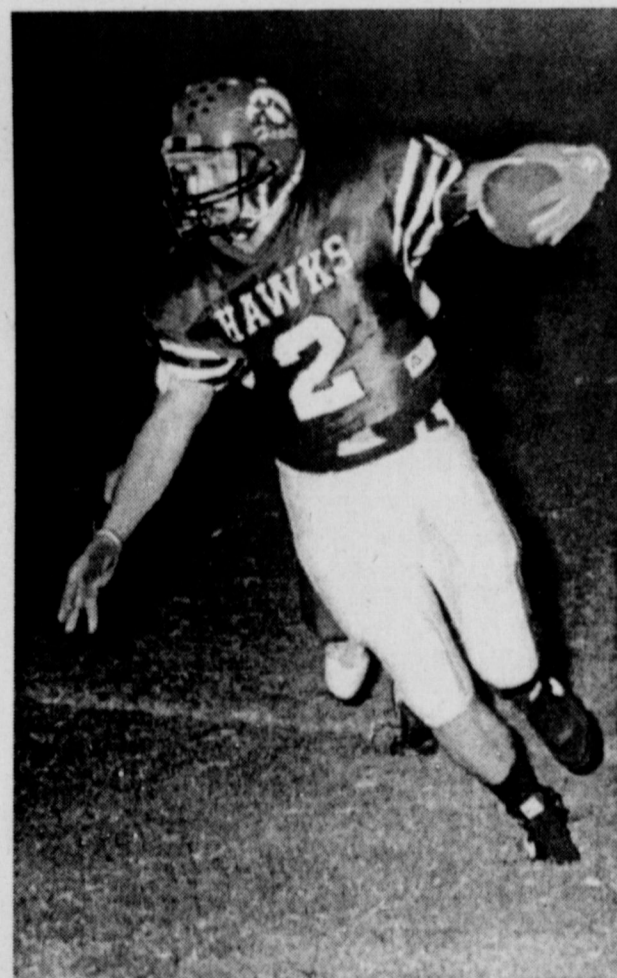

The third quarter, much like the first, saw Jacksboro control the ball and the clock as Iowa Park couldn't manage a first down in the quarter. Jacksboro's best opportunity to get on the board came on a fourth-and-6 play from the Iowa Park 27 when Johnson's pass, intended for McCann, was broken up by Chad Wright at the Iowa Park 15 with 3:50 remaining in the third quarter.

The fourth quarter was all Iowa Park as the Hawks scored twice, the first, a 4-yarder by Yeager with 8:37 left and the second on a 40-yard reverse to wingback Michael Swenson with 6:28 left in the game.
