School's centennial promises busy weekend, huge crowds

Homecoming weekend in Iowa Park has always produced some of the largest crowds seen in the city during the year. But this week's activities promise to break all the records.

The Iowa Park Consolidated Independent School District is observing its 100th anniversary, and committees have been working for months now to make it an event everyone will want to attend.

Everything kicks off this evening, with the traditional bonfire at 9:00. It will be located just west of the high school, so plenty of parking space will be available.

One of the largest homecoming parades in the district's history is to get underway at 4:30 p.m. Friday. Coordinated by the High School Honor Society, theme of this year's parade is "Learning from the Past, Challenging the Future." The parade's route will be through the downtown business district.

Prior to the homecoming football game in Hawk Stadium, the Homecoming queen will be crowned. That pageantry is to start at 7:00 p.m., with the football game between Iowa Park and Henrietta kicking off at 7:30.

Saturday is likely to be the biggest day, crowd-wise, of the weekend. Besides the traditional Whoop-T-Do, the school district has arranged to erect a huge tent on the grounds of the First Christian Church. Throughout the day, artifacts, photos, yearbooks, and documents assembled over the year will be on display.

And for the first 3,000 persons gathering at the tent, the school district will serve them cake and drink, in recognition of the district's 100th birthday.

Kicking off Whoop-T-Do will be the traditional Turtle Trot, with the "starting gun" sounding at 9:00. Entertainment is to follow throughout the day, including the choirs of Bradford and Kidwell elementaries, Showstoppers by Michelle, Whoop-T-Do King and Queen; Top of Texas Cheerleaders; Rockin' Hawkettes, and the Iowa Park Junior and Senior High choirs. The Hawk Band could possibly perform about 9:30 that morning, but because that group has qualified for the Area marching contest, it was unknown at presstime whether its appearance would be possible.

A total of 39 non-profit organizations will have games and booths of all kinds throughout the day. All the events will be in the streets around city hall.

In addition, at least 25 arts and crafts booths will be on the sidewalks in the same area.

The annual Ex-Students Association banquet will be held at the high school, beginning at 5:00 p.m. Saturday. Registration is to commence at 4:30, and a program will follow at 7:00, in the school's auditorium.

Hawks hosting Henrietta 17TH CONSECUTIVE Hawk Band does it again!

By DON YOUNG

Everyone knew it but no one was going to say it, but last week's game against Bowie was a must-win game for the Hawks.

Had the Hawks fallen to 0-2 to start the district with Vernon and Graham still left to play, things wouldn't have looked too good for the Hawks.

Iowa Park's 21-14 win over the Rabbits put the Hawks in a three-way tie for second place in District 5-3A, following last week's action.

The biggest surprise in week two was the Childress upset of Vernon at Vernon. The Bobcats handed the Lions their first district loss since Iowa Park beat Vernon back in 1993. That leaves Childress alone atop the standings at 5-2 (2-0), followed by Iowa Park 5-2 (1-1), Vernon 5-2 (1-1), Bowie 4-3 (1-1), and Graham 2-5 (1-1). Henrietta is at 0-5 and 0-2 in district play.

This week's pairings include a big game between Bowie and Childress and a battle of second place teams in Vernon-Graham, while Iowa Park plays host to winless Henrietta Friday night for Homecoming. Festivities are scheduled to start around 6:30 p.m. with the kickoff at 7:30.

Henrietta is coming into tomorrow night's game still looking for its first win of the season after dropping its first seven games by a combined score of 286-118.

A former Bearcat, Steven Magers, who transferred to Holliday for his senior season, had a big night for the Eagles last week, rushing for 242 yards and four touchdowns against Olney.

Henrietta could have used Magers' big night on the ground.

Against Graham in last week's game, the Bearcats rushed for only 38 total yards in a 54-41 loss to the Steers. Quarterback Jim Walker completed 18-of-31 passes for 389 yards and four touchdowns, including two to Kyle Jeffries and one each to Colin Craft and Eric Wyrlic. The Bearcat

The Hawk Band earned a Division One rating for the 17th consecutive year Saturday.

The Mean Green Marching Machine overcame adverse weather conditions in Wichita Falls' Memorial Stadium while competing in the Regional University Interscholastic League marching contest.

Iowa Park now advances to the Area competition, which will be held Saturday at Pennington Field in Fort Worth.

Though the marching contest is scheduled to begin at 10:30 a.m., the Hawk Band will not take the field until 3:15. Results should be announced about 4:30.

"We are very pleased with the students' performance and the way in which they reacted to adverse weather conditions," said Head Director Greg Miller.

"They did a terrific job of staying focused. We have made tremendous improvements in both our playing and marching since in early August. The students are to be commended for their efforts and performance."

Other bands advancing to Area from Music Region II include Gainesville, Childress, Graham, Merkel, Breckenridge, Eastland, Colorado City and Abilene Wylie.

Some of the judges' comments included:

"Nice, exciting show, good entertainment. Auxiliary line adds to your performance. Good Job!" - Jeff Comp, Round Rock.

"A very musical performance. I really enjoyed the show. Great attention to detail." - Ray Lashaway, Lubbock.

"Yeah! Good sounds, blend, balance. Congratulations to you." - Randy Jones, Powderly.

HOMECOMING QUEEN NOMINEES anxiously await coronation ceremonies to be held at 7:00 p.m. tomorrow night in Hawk Stadium. Nominees are (front row) Dena Brown, Alisha Clements, Stacey Hester; and (back row) Danielle Grant and Heather Little. Homecoming queens are selected by a vote of the student body.

Education is subject of study club meeting

Education was the theme for a meeting of Twenty-three Study Club, held Thursday in the home of Frances Park. Joyce Rentschler served as co-hostess.

Lita Watson and Helen Dale Roberts told about plans for the 100th anniversary of the Iowa Park School System.

Mrs. Watson, noted community historian, outlined the history of the establishment of the school system in Iowa Park, beginning in the late 1880's with a small school building three blocks south of the railroad tracks.

The first Independent School was in 1899, and the first school board minutes found were from 1910. Watson outlined the growth of the schools, naming early pioneers responsible for establishing the school system, early educators, and showing old pictures of some of the early facilities.

Mrs. Roberts told of the celebration plans for the weekend of Oct. 24, and noted that a historical marker will be placed in front of the School Administration Building in the Spring of 1999, which will be the official anniversary.

She said one of the junior high classes received a grant for working on the history of the school system. They mailed questionnaires to former students and are now working on plans for a museum to house artifacts relating to the history of the school system.

Mrs. Roberts reported that 95 percent of the questionnaire responses praised the teachers and administrators, and that a number of graduates have become distinguished in their respective fields.

Book markers were distributed to those present to help them remember their association with the Iowa Park School System. Members then displayed memorabilia from their own school days, and reminisced about interesting events from those days.

At the beginning of the meeting, Joyce Rentschler, program leader, led the pledge to the American Flag and reading of the Club Collect.

Frances Park gave the Federation Counselor's Report which dealt with the memorial erected to honor the women who served in World War II. She reported that GFWC contributed largely to the project, helping it to be completed.

Then, Miss Park introduced her guest, Carol Phillips, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, who gave the meditation using "Bees" as her theme. Mrs. Phillips said that Christians and bees have many characteristics in common, including the fact that they are everywhere and both are communal creatures, who live in order to serve.

Patsy Todd led the singing of the IPHS school song and "School Days," accompanied by Joyce Rentschler at the organ.

President Margaret Soell presided over the business meeting in which Wanda Singer reported on the Santa Rosa District Meeting, held Oct. 3 in Iowa Park. She also told about progress made on the new GFWC signs being placed on the community welcome sign boards on East and West Highway entrances to town.

Patsy Todd installed three new members, Jo Ann Hale, Paula King, and Evelyn Skinner, using the theme, "The Miracle of Friendship." She concluded by reading "I Will Do More," author unknown, with copies of the reading given to those present.

Members were reminded of the Nov. 2 joint meeting with Amity Study Club to be held at Camp Chaparral.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses following the meeting.

Monica Morgan and Franklin Banks

Engagement announced

Monica Morgan and Franklin Banks will exchange marriage vows, Nov. 14, at the Harrison House Bed & Breakfast in Wichita Falls.

Their parents are Randy and Kathy Morgan of Wichita Falls and Frank and Gwen Banks of Iowa Park.

Monica, a graduate of Rider High School in Wichita Falls, is an LVN at Presbyterian Hospital in Greenville.

Franklin is a graduate of Iowa Park High School and Midwestern State University. He is an RN at Presbyterian Hospital in Greenville.

IPHS Alumni Assoc. urges participation in homecoming

The Iowa Park High School Alumni Board is urging all ex-students to participate in this weekend's homecoming and 100th anniversary celebration.

Alumni Board members, Jeff Watts, president; Patsy Roy, treasurer; and Judy Reid, secretary, met recently to finalize plans for homecoming weekend.

They are hoping every graduate will send in a reservation for the festivities which will begin with a bon fire and pep rally Thursday at the high school. The parade will start at 4:30 p.m. Friday.

Board members are urging all alumni to register Friday night at the football game.

The Whoop-T-Do on Saturday will be larger than usual this year. The 100th anniversary tent will be located on the north side of Cash St. next to the First Christian Church.

There will be a cake-cutting ceremony at 10 a.m. in the tent. Memorabilia and other surprises will be displayed, along with many items that can be purchased.

The Alumni Banquet will be held at the high school cafeteria, with registration at 4:30 p.m., and the meal starting at 5 p.m. The business meeting will follow the meal.

Alumni officers ask that if you are unable to attend homecoming and have moved in the past 12 months, please send your new address to: IPHS Alumni Assn., P.O. Box 614, Iowa Park, Tx. 76367.

As I See It...By Bob Hamilton

I've been looking forward to this week for months. And I know just as soon as Saturday evening rolls around, I'm going to be ready for it to end.

All the time I was looking forward, I was forgetting how much work would be involved.

Besides getting out a special edition in observance of the school's centennial, it has occurred to me that I just belong to too many active organizations. And all of them are deeply involved with all the activities.

What I'm particularly interested in is getting to see so many people who have graduated Iowa Park High during these past 30 years, but people I've only seen once or twice, if ever, since they received their diplomas.

I've got a deal planned that just might get them to our Leader office on Saturday. It's not new, but it's always popular. I didn't do it last year, and got some folks upset with me.

I'll have old pictures pasted up in the front windows. Come look at them. If you find one with you in it, just come in and it's your's.

Really, I should't complain about having to work with the organizations during Whoop-T-Do. I realize that those activities provide a lot of fun for everyone who attends.

And there's another sign of relief on the horizon: it'll be at least another 100 years before the school observes its second centennial.

Anyway, I hope you all join everyone else in celebrating the school's 100th birthday. It'll be a lot of fun and you'll have memories for years to come.

Everyone has helped

Thank you Iowa Park! We would like to express our heartfelt thanks to the numerous individuals and organizations who have assisted over the past year with the many preparations for our school's centennial celebration and homecoming.

It seems as though for every stumbling block that we have experienced, Iowa Park students, organizations, community members, and businesses have appeared on the scene to assist in every way possible. This community effort indicates a true "Hawk Spirit" and continues to promote excellence in our school system. This past century of success would not have been possible without all of you.

We sincerely hope that you are able to enjoy the week's events. We extend a special invitation to you to share the memories of the past by visiting the memorabilia display in the tent at Whoop-T-Do. A birthday cake ceremony will take place at 10:00 a.m. in the tent, with cake and drinks available to the first 3,000 persons. Also available will be a variety of centennial merchandise, including a booklet about the history of our school system.

We also hope that you will celebrate with us again in the spring as we dedicate the historical marker depicting the founding of our school system. We look forward to the next 100 years of continuing Hawk Pride, knowing that the best is still yet to come. Thank you again for your wonderful community support during all the centennial preparations!

The Iowa Park Schools Centennial Committee

Mother returned book

Dear Bob Hamilton,

I did return the book Twice Taken back to the school. I also filled out the paper work on it. I kept the book with me until the school board meeting so I could show them the book I was talking about. I had no intention of keeping this book. I would like to see it go through the proper channels and get it out of our children's library. That was my goal to begin with. I was just concerned for the children of our school system.

Thank You,
Susan Carroll

Help appreciated

Mr. Hamilton,

On behalf of the Centennial Committee, I would personally like to thank several of the local organizations for participating in our efforts to decorate the town. As visitors arrive in Iowa Park, they will be greeted with streamers hanging from the sign posts, signifying that our 100th birthday is a very special event in the history of our school program.

Special thanks go to the following organizations for donating the materials and time to help us get ready for our homecoming celebration:

- Iowa Park Athletic Booster Club - High School, Johnson Road, and the Iowa Park Highway
 - Band Boosters - Pacific Avenue and the access roads on Hwy 287
 - FFA Booster Club - Iowa Park Highway and the Middle School/ Administration Office area
 - Chamber of Commerce and IPHS Chamber of Honor Society students - downtown
 - Bradford PTA, Miss Woods & the 5th Graders - Bradford School area
 - IPHS Cheerleaders - High School - halls and parking lots
- I would also like to take this opportunity to thank you, Mr. Hamilton, for the extensive newspaper coverage during the past few months. Thanks to the Iowa Park Leader, the community has been continually informed of the upcoming events, and I know that everyone has enjoyed the articles about former teachers and students. We truly appreciate your support.
- Sincerely,
Susan Tigrett

Students assist with Centennial celebration

By WADE BUSBY
IPHS Journalism Student

This year the Iowa Park School District celebrates its 100th birthday, creating an exciting year for teachers, students, ex-students, and Iowa Park citizens alike. But unlike most big community events, organizers have turned over many of the preparations to the students of the school district. Every campus is involved in the preparations for the homecoming weekend.

Under the direction of Sheila Gholson, eighth grade history teacher, students received several Learner and Serve grants that have helped to fund many of the activities.

For the past two years, eighth graders have been working to collect memorabilia from ex-students and teachers to display in the archives tent at Whoop-T-Do. Last spring students collected addresses of former students and mailed out questionnaires, asking about their memories of high school. Much of this information has been compiled into a booklet to be sold on Saturday. Eighth grader Stormi Raines was also recruited to write a poem about what it means to be a Hawk. Her poem, "Hawk Pride" is published in the booklet.

Additionally, a professionally produced hardback book about the history of the Iowa Park School District will be published in the spring.

The questionnaires developed by the students will also be available at Whoop-T-Do for alumni and visitors to read about their former classmates.

The eighth grade students were also involved in the renovation of a concession stand at the junior high school to house a permanent archive for the school.

The local school board granted their request and adopted the name, "W.F. George Middle School" after the old W.F. George High School which was previously housed on the campus. Mr. Bowling's Introduction to Vocational Courses class landscaped the area around the new sign in front of the middle school.

While the middle school students planted the seeds for the project, the high school students have become involved more recently. The home economics students are baking 160 cake mixes and decorating the birthday cakes to serve over 3,000 guests at Saturday's festivities. Mrs. Batson, high school home ec teacher, has enlisted the help of local cake decorator, Kathy Hicks, to teach students the best methods of professionally decorating cakes. These home ec students and members of the Future Homemakers of America have volunteered to help serve the cake, beginning at 10 a.m., and to assist at the Alumni Banquet Saturday evening.

High school horticulture and ag students are also very busy this week. Students are putting the finishing touches on the official homecoming float for Friday afternoon's parade. Mrs. Meadow's horticulture students are making mums for the homecoming queen coronation to wear during the queen coronation. Students in Mrs. Dillard's Introduction to Business are assisting the horticulture students in preparing decorations and balloons for the archives tent.

High school art students, under the direction of Carolyn James, have been busy for weeks painting murals of the past Hawk mascots. The 4'x8' murals will be displayed in the archives tent.

Band and choir students have also been enlisted to perform during the weekend, with the Acapella choir performing the National Anthem before Friday night's game. The Mean Green Marching Machine will get one last practice for Saturday's area competition in Fort Worth as they perform at half-time Friday night before the homecoming crowd.

Student Council members will be active as they sponsor the parade and the crowning of the queen. High school members will also be pinning ex-students with ribbons at the homecoming game. This past weekend, National Honor Society members assisted the Chamber of Commerce in decorating the downtown area.

The centennial committee has even kept the elementary school children busy. Third and fourth graders have been rehearsing to sing at Saturday morning's cake celebration, while fifth graders were active in decorating their campus with ribbons and streamers. Third and fourth graders were also treated last week to a presentation by storyteller Shirley Banks, who explained the history of the school district.

Even the pee wee and midget cheerleaders will be in on the action. They will join the high school and middle school cheerleaders in a performance to kick off the pregame activities beginning at 7 p.m.

Learner and Serve coordinator Sheila Gholson commented about the students' involvement, "We could never have accomplished so much without the help of all the students and organizations. The sponsors have also been terrific to help us, and the kids have all worked so hard. This has been a great opportunity for the students to contribute something back to the school district and the community. Hopefully, they have gained additional respect for their school and its history. It has truly been a learning experience for all of us."

City aldermen facing lengthy agenda Monday

Members of the city council face a lengthy agenda for their regularly-scheduled meeting, which is to begin at 7 p.m. Monday in council chambers.

Included on the tentative agenda which was released Wednesday are:

- * swear in Police Officer Sheria Fowler.
- * hear a public appearance by Jamie Fulton, requesting permission for Boy Scouts to place handbills at residences which solicit food donations for the Iowa Park Food Pantry.
- * consider approving appointment of Charles Seets to the Planning and Zoning Commission.
- * consider approving the Mayor's appointment to the Wichita Appraisal District board of directors.
- * consider approving appointment of Eddie Sasser as an alternate to the Board of Adjustment.
- * consider resolutions authorizing the City Administrator to purchase an emergency warning siren; two video cameras for the Police Department's patrol vehicles; and entering a contract with Biggs and Mathews Consulting Engineers for a

Under the topic of bid action, aldermen will consider purchasing a one-ton cab and chassis truck for the Parks Department; advertising for bids to purchase a 10-wheel dump truck and pup trailer for the Street Department, and advertising to purchase a backhoe/loader for the Street Department.

Police

The driver, Benjamin DeLanore Byrd, 27, was transported to a Wichita Falls hospital, at the direction of a Ronald Eugene Neal, 33, a passenger in the vehicle, was taken into custody on a charge of public intoxication. He was released at 11:05 a.m., after signing a promise to appear in municipal court, according to the police blotter.

Happy Birthday, Iowa Park Schools, and our warmest thanks for providing an outstanding education to Iowa Park Students.

The Iowa Park Leader has covered the news of Iowa Park Schools, a school system we are proud of, the past 30 years.

We hope that since we've been here, students, parents and graduates who have moved away (and those who have stayed) have come to rely on the Iowa Park Leader to keep them informed on the Iowa Park community.

So, it is with our sincere, heartfelt wishes, that we at the Leader say

Happy 100th Birthday!

Many things have changed in that time, but one thing has remained constant...the excellent education our children receive.

We believe that Iowa Park has not only the best schools in the state, but in the world! That is why although some of our alumni go on to other places, they leave their hearts in Iowa Park.

defense couldn't stop the Steers' offensively, allowing Graham to rush for 353 yards and gave up another 189 through the air for a total of 542 yards of offense allowed.

Henrietta's seven losses have come to Pilot Point 42-21, Lake Worth 43-13, Holliday 42-13, Celina 49-6, Boyd 21-10, Vernon 35-14 and 54-41 to Graham last week.

The Bearcat offense, led by senior quarterback Jim Walker, has had most of its success through the air. Henrietta threw for almost 400 yards last week and for the season, Walker has thrown for 1248 yards. He has completed 69-of-150 passes, including nine touchdowns.

His leading receiver, Jeffries' hauled in a pair of TD's last week and now has five for the season. Jeffries, a 183-lb. senior tight end, is averaging just over 17 yards per reception.

The Bearcat ground game is in the hands of tailback Lee Adkins and fullback Brady Allen. Up front along the offensive line for Henrietta, the Bearcats are averaging right at 220-lbs per man. Offensively, Henrietta is averaging 16.8 points per game, and if you take out last week's offensive explosion against Graham, the Bearcats are scoring just over 12 points per game.

Defensively the Bearcats are averaging 230-lbs per man along the front line in their five-man front. But despite having good size, Henrietta has yet to stop anybody as the Bearcats are giving up almost 41 points per game.

Iowa Park will be looking to make it another very long night for the Bearcat defense.

The Hawk offense, led by running backs Tommy Duerson, Bryan Miller, Chase Wright and Tyler Pulley, are coming in on a roll after another big night against Bowie, where they combined to pick up 271 yards rushing. The week before, Iowa Park showed that it could get the job done through the air as well, picking up 152 yards through the air.

One of the big concerns for the Hawks is not to look past the Bearcats to next week's big game against rival Vernon.

An Iowa Park win this week, coupled with a Vernon win over Graham, would set up a big game with playoff implications in Vernon next week.

In the other District 5-3A game this week, Bowie travels to Childress to take on the top team in the standings. A win by Childress almost assures the Bobcats of a district title, as their two remaining games are against Graham and Henrietta. A Bowie win creates a whole new picture that could have four teams tied for first with only two games remaining, and only three teams making the playoffs.

SPORTS

Results of games played last week by teams on Iowa Park's schedule include:

Childress 28, Vernon 14
Graham 54, Henrietta 41
Holliday 34, Olney 13
Gainesville 27, Lake Dallas 7
Hirschi 44, Wichita Falls High 25
Denton 31, Burkburnett 6

Bowie ties

The 8th grade Hawks played another very tough game this past week against Bowie, with the game ending in an 8-8 tie.

Cody Penn scored the Hawks' touchdown on a 15-yard run. Jeremy Fulfer then tossed the two-point conversion pass to Ryan Shierry.

Outstanding players included Adam Arredondo, Chase Wilson, K.P. Rains, David Clubb, Daniel Bess, Gerred Vernon, B.J. Adams, Matt Pulley, Heath Gholson, Michael Yoder and Greg Wishard.

The Hawk record is now 2-3-1, with Iowa Park playing host to Henrietta here today at 5 p.m.

Lady Hawks lead 5-3A standings

The Iowa Park Lady Hawks grabbed the top spot in the District 5-3A volleyball standings with a big road win over the Henrietta Lady Bearcats.

The win lifts Iowa Park's record to 15-10 overall and 2-1 in district play. Vernon is 1-1 and Henrietta is 1-2. Iowa Park will play Vernon on today.

With a win over Vernon, Iowa Park could clinch the District title. A loss would force a playoff on Saturday.

It's possible that it could end in a three-way tie and have a playoff to determine the two teams that would advance to the playoffs.

Iowa Park beat Henrietta 2-15, 15-8, 15-12.

"Henrietta played well in the first game," said head coach Brenda Hodges. "We just didn't get any breaks. We didn't play bad, we just couldn't seem to finish off the points."

"I told them that they had me worried after the first game," Hodges added. "But they came back and played well in the final two games to get the win."

Standouts included Randi Nelms, Carrie Evans and Lacy Downs.

In JV action, Iowa Park won 10-15, 15-4, 15-9 with standouts including Kacie Howard and Jenny Pack.

The freshman Lady Hawks also won 15-7, 8-15, 15-5. Standouts included Blythe Esterline and Domonique Clynych.

JV now 2-0 in district

The JV Hawks remained perfect at 2-0 in district play with a thrilling 22-18 home win over Bowie last Thursday night.

Iowa Park had to come from behind to earn the win over the Rabbits, as Bowie jumped on top 6-0 to start the game on an 87-yard touchdown run.

The Hawks came back to tie the game at 6-6 in the first quarter, on a Jimmy Wilson 40-yard touchdown run.

The next scoring came late in the second quarter, with under a minute to play in the half. Mitch Singleton intercepted a Bowie pass on the Hawk one. Two plays later Nathan Creekmore broke free for a 83-yard run to give the Hawks the lead. Cody Thompson then hooked up with Alex Quick for the two-point conversion pass to make the score 14-6.

On the first play following the kickoff, Bowie scored on a reverse pass to cut the Iowa Park lead to 14-12 at the half.

Iowa Park came right back in the third quarter, scoring on its first play from scrimmage on a 62-yard run by Wilson. Creekmore added the two-point run to make it 22-12. Bowie scored late in the third to make the final 22-18.

Other offensive standouts included Tommy Taylor, Justin Phillips, Colby Rusk, Heath Hodges and Ashton Jones.

Defensive standouts included, Bubba Beebe, Jamie Eaton, Chase Simpson, Larry Lane and Aaron Clubb.

The Hawks, now 4-3 overall and 2-0 in district play, will travel to Henrietta today to take on the Bearcats at 7 p.m.

Bell's recycling plant open for business

The undisputed North Texas regional recycling king showcased his company's newest crown jewel to move more than 100 friends and customers Wednesday of last week, at the grand opening of the Bell Group's Material Recovery Facility on the southwest edge of Iowa Park.

Bell Group Chief Executive Officer Lavonne Bell personally lead tours of the new multi-million facility at Bell Group's Iowa Park landfill, where visitors had the rare opportunity to glimpse into the future. City council members, county officials and other business associates who attended the grand opening represented customers from across the Bell Group service area, including the cities of Iowa Park, Vernon, Burk Burnett, Electra, Henrietta, Petrolia and Archer City.

"Everybody from the beauty shop to city hall likes to talk about how we ought to do more recycling to conserve our natural resources and protect our environment for future generations. This recycling facility will allow us to recycle like nobody else in this area has ever been able to before," Bell said, explaining why his company spent so much money on what is a very rare facility in this region of the country.

"Burying recyclable materials in a landfill is like burying money you can never dig up. This new recycling facility will help us find the money we need to meet the recycling goals here in our part of the state now and for decades to come.

"And some day, we'll be able to pick other things out of household trash that will conserve other resources. We're ready for that day right now," Bell said.

Picking aluminum cans, cardboard, newsprint and ferrous metals out of garbage sounds simple, but visitors at Bell Group's new Material Recovery Facility (MRF) will see that to pick through a dozen tons of trash an hour it takes a very elaborate facility, one that will add about 20 new jobs to the area job market.

Housed in a building that could enclose five basketball courts or all but 50 feet of a football field, the process begins with a tipping area where trucks dump their loads of household garbage, explained Ron Hite, general manager of Bell's Municipal Solid Waste Division. A loader operator pushes the material that obviously doesn't contain any recyclable materials straight to a conveyor that feeds one of the biggest trash balers made anywhere in the world, the second of two such balers now owned by Bell Group.

"Material that contains recyclables goes onto a conveyor that feeds the elevated mouth of a huge trommel, which is a large rotating steel drum with teeth inside that tear open trash bags and screen skins that sift out the dirt and grass trimmings as it turns. One conveyor beneath the trommel moves the dirt that falls through the screen outside the building and deposits it into large containers," Hite said.

Another conveyor at the bottom of the trommel carries the garbage past a double line of pickers who remove the aluminum cans, newsprint, cardboard and ferrous metals and drop those recyclables into large bins below the picking line.

At the end of the picking line, yet another conveyor sends the remaining garbage on to the trash baler.

David DeLong has been the project leader for the two-year planning and construction phase that produced the state-of-the-art recycling facility. DeLong is president of Wichita Recycling, one of the Bell Group which includes the recycling plant and trash baler at Iowa Park; another trash baler and transfer located on the main scrap yard facility in Wichita Falls; and two landfills, the one in Iowa Park and the Bell Landfill on Barnett Road on the east edge of Wichita Falls.

"There's not another one like it anywhere close, and that's a long way in a state the size of Texas," DeLong said. "And, when you think about it, this is the recycling that society demands today. We are the recyclers of North Texas and, on behalf of all of our customers, we are going to recycle everything we can to help meet our state's goal of reducing the waste stream in Texas by 40 percent by the year 2000. This gives us the tool we need to make that statement."

Bell has been in the recycling business for more than 50 years, starting with his first scrap yard in Wichita Falls. Bell Group now owns and operates scrap yards in four Oklahoma cities -- Duncan, Chickasha, Lawton and Altus -- and three in Texas including the scrap yard on Old Burk Burnett Road in Wichita Falls, one in Borger that buys almost all the scrap materials from the Phillips Petroleum plant there and several hundred other customers in the Borger area, and a third scrap yard in Graham.

The full scope of operations for the Bell Group covers just about every avenue of the recycling industry in the Texas-Oklahoma region serving more than 70,000 customers. One division of the Bell Group collects the garbage in 21 communities mostly in Texas in an area that ranges from Paducah and Chillicothe on the western edge, over as far east as Muenster, and south to Bowie and Newcastle. The City of Wichita Falls takes care of its' own garbage, but Bell Group takes care of the rest of Wichita County's city and rural trash customers, as well as those in all of Wilbarger, Clay, Archer, Young and Montague counties.

Another division of the Bell Group sells, leases or rents, and installs trash compactors and cardboard balers throughout North Texas clear to the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex, in most of West Texas from Amarillo down through Abilene and out to Brownfield, as far east to Tyler, and north to Tulsa, across Oklahoma to the Oklahoma Panhandle and on up into Kansas. One fleet of 18-wheelers does nothing but pick up the baled cardboard from customers throughout that vast area.

DeLong is Bell's son-in-law. He's married to Vonda, one of Bell's twin daughters. The other twin, Wanda, works with her father at the main Bell yard in Wichita Falls. As her father's executive assistant, Wanda is the guardian of Bell's hectic schedule and his right hand contact person for the exhausting list of friends, customers and business associates who keep the switchboard operator busy just about all day, every day.

Bell's son Dewayne supervises the scrap yard in Wichita Falls, the maintenance and repair facility which services a fleet of more than 70 trucks; more than 100 loaders, forklifts, cranes and shears; almost 100 trailers; and close to 200 cardboard balers and trash compactors. Dewayne also supervises the repair and refurbishment operation for thousands of trash collection containers and scrap boxes.

Bell's third daughter, Paula, is married to Dennis Holobaugh, who oversees the financial and accounting department and brokers the various scrap iron and metals products from bell Group's scrap yard operations.

"To Save a Generation of Young People"

"By rewriting our juvenile justice code and making it one of the country's toughest, we're sending our children this message: 'We love you, but discipline and love go hand in hand.'"

"We now have places to send violent juveniles and disruptive students."

"And the juvenile justice system has changed from one that says to young offenders, 'it's really not your fault' to one that says 'you are going to be held accountable for your behavior.'"

"As a result, the juvenile crime rate is down."

"There's more to do."

"We should give police permission and new technology to track gangs across county lines."

"Juvenile offenders caught with guns should get automatic jail time."

"And to focus on the 6% of juvenile criminals who commit half the juvenile crimes, we should hire more probation officers and pair them with police in high-crime areas to stop and search violent juvenile offenders on probation and parole."

Hawks outrun Jackrabbits, 21-14

The old saying that when the going gets tough, the tough get going was never more true than Friday night in Bowie.

Iowa Park, after an upset loss to Childress in week one of district play, was once again on the road against one of the top teams in the district, facing an uphill battle should the Hawks fall to 0-2 to start their real season.

The tough got going.

The Hawks used a strong ground game and played mistake-free football for the most part in their 21-14 win over the Jackrabbits Friday night to climb back into a tie for second in the District 5-3A race. Iowa Park's win coupled with Vernon's loss to Childress left the Hawks, Lions and Graham all tied at 1-1.

Iowa Park opened the game on defense and held the Rabbits to three and out on Bowie's first possession, forcing a punt.

The Hawks took over for the first time at the Bowie 41 following a 27-yard punt. Six plays later, Tommy Duerson had the Hawks on the board following his 11-yard touchdown run. Ross Dillard came on to kick the point after to make the score 7-0 Iowa Park with 7:52 remaining in the opening quarter. Other big plays in the Hawks' scoring drive included a 21-yard run by Duerson, a 15-yarder by Bryan Miller and an 11-yard scamper by Tyler Pulley.

The Rabbits hopped back in the game and tied the score at 7-7 with 3:20 left in the first, going 66 yards in 11 plays ending in a Dustin Hunter two-yard run. In the drive, Bowie converted three third-down conversions, including a 29-yard scramble by quarterback Jeremy Richey on a third-and-12.

Iowa Park regained the lead at 13-7 on it's first possession of the second quarter when Chase Wright scored from five yards out with 9:19 left in the half. Wright's score capped a six-play 38-yard drive. The Hawks started the drive in Bowie territory after the Rabbits were forced to punt from their own end zone.

Iowa Park took the second half kickoff and looked to be on the way to putting the game out of reach when Malcom Wise returned the kick 57 yards to the Bowie 38. Four plays later, Iowa Park faced a fourth-and-10 from the Rabbit 38. A fake punt by Scotty Mitchell covered 17 yards, moving the ball to the Bowie 21, only to see the drive stall, turning the ball back over to the Rabbits at the 30 following a pair of losses by the Hawks.

TYLER PULLEY PICKUP BIG YARDAGE AGAINST BOWIE

Toby Williams came up with a pair of big plays in the third quarter for the Hawks, intercepting a Richey pass intended for Doug Evans with 4:51 left in the third, then recovering a fumble by Hunter on the final play of the quarter giving his team excellent field position at the Bowie 26 to start the final quarter of play.

It took only three plays for the Hawks to punch it in, with Miller scoring the touchdown on a 15-yard run with 11:00 left to play in the game. Duerson added the two-point conversion run to push the Iowa Park lead to 14, at 21-7.

Bowie quickly answered with a 30-yard touchdown pass from Richey to Evans with 8:08 left in the fourth to pull to within seven at 21-14. The big play of the drive was a 42-yard scramble by Richey on a third-and-seven from the Iowa Park 22. Richey's run moved the ball to the Bowie 36. Three plays later Richey hooked up with his favorite receiver for the score.

The Rabbits tried an onside kick following the touchdown, which was recovered by Carl Morgan for Iowa Park.

The Hawks moved the ball to the Bowie 25 where the drive stalled when Dillard's 43-yard field goal attempt sailed wide left, giving Bowie one final shot at a comeback.

The best the Rabbits could do was to move the ball to their own 49, when a fourth-and-10 pass fell incomplete. The Hawks then ran out the clock for the win.

Offensive leaders for Iowa Park included Miller who rushed 17 times for 109 yards, Duerson who carried 13 times for 76 yards and Wright who carried five times for 28 yards. Pulley picked up 25 yards on 10 carries. All of Iowa Park's 271 yards of offense came on the ground as the Hawks were 0-for-2 in the passing department.

For the Rabbits, Richey led all rushers with 119 yards on 10 carries while Hunter, who had rushed for over 200 yards in the opener, was held to only 46 yards on 22 carries. Bowie completed 11-of-21 passes for 112 yards with eight of the completions going to Evans who finished with 87 yards receiving and the other three to Dylan Stark who finished with 25 yards.

Iowa Park High School students, Chad Bauer and Leya Jacobson, were recognized as Rotary Students of the Month at a meeting of the Iowa Park Rotary Club last week.

Chad, the son of Michael and Nancy Bauer, has been active in several organizations during the last four years. He has been active in football, golf, basketball, Senior Class and Prom Committee, and is parliamentary for his senior class.

In competitive events, he won third place in the Wichita SWCO Essay Contest. His name has been on the A honor roll the last four years.

Youth delegates present program

Dustin Hicks and Jon Thomas, youth delegates to the 1998 Rotary Camp Ryla, presented the program last week, at a meeting of the Iowa Park Rotary Club.

They told of their leadership training experiences at the camp, held at Camp Amon Carter. The one-week camp was filled with a number of activities that dealt with self-motivation, self-reliance, team work, building personalities, and cordiality.

The two boys heard several noted speakers from around the state who participated, and met with the youth during their various activities.

They kept busy during their stay at Camp Ryla with activities that included aerobics, square dancing, climbing tall poles, ice cream socials, skits and essays.

Both delegates agreed that it was a learning experience and an honor to have been chosen for the camp.

NEWS OF THE IOWA PARK GENEALOGICAL & HISTORICAL SOCIETY

A family genealogist becomes interested and at times obsessed with family names, relationships and dates. This leads to research to fill in the missing blanks. Along the way we learn more about history and geography. Traditions become a very important element in our family stories and histories.

This coming weekend Iowa Park continues its traditional Whoop-T-Do. This is a fun time, with a great parade on Friday and the Homecoming football game and celebration. Saturday is a great time to be down town and enjoy the many activities, food, craft booths, games, Mule Skinner Barbecue, and the Iowa Park Garden Club's "Centennial Bloom" Flower Show. The highlight of this year Whoop-T-Do is the celebration of the Iowa Park School's 100th birthday.

After visiting with friends and reminiscing, stop by the Iowa Park Genealogical and Historical Society's booth and say hello.

If you don't have "Happy Birthday Iowa Park," the compilation of everything in the Centennial edition of the Iowa Park Leader, this may be the last chance to buy one. This very attractive edition in perfect binding is $25 including tax, and contains histories and pictures of pioneers, churches, schools in Iowa Park, and even the advertisements for the week the Centennial edition was printed.

Amity has program on defense

Amity Study Club members met October 12, in the home of Mary McIlroy. Annetta Reusch served as co-hostess.

A program on self defense was given by Mike Phillips, a Wichita Falls police officer. He told the group one of the most important things to remember about self defense is to be aware of your surroundings.

The October project is the Whoop-T-Do. The club will have the pencil pull and the toilet paper shoot booths.

President Annetta Reusch conducted the business meeting. Evelyn Ward gave the meditation, titled "Today." Mary McIlroy gave the federation report.

Congratulations!

Elgin Denny recalls early days in area

By SHERRIE WILLIAMS

Elgin Denny celebrated his 90th birthday July 22. He has seen many changes in his lifetime, many of those in Iowa Park and the surrounding area.

As Denny told of life in the early 1900's, his most vivid memories were of "the first" of many things.

The first radio Denny recalls, he made himself. He said he and his mother really enjoyed that radio. She would sit up late at night listening to it while Denny studied. He said she was amazed that the noise could come through the air. He added he still enjoys radio.

First peace officer was, Bill Dudlef. And one of the first arrests the officer made was a horse thief.

A man on horse back had spent the night with the Denny family. The next morning Mr. S. L. Denny recognized the horse and knew it did not belong to his house guest. He contacted the peace officer. The horse thief was caught at the Red River.

The first drug store Denny recalls was Killtree Drug. There was a hospital above the drug store. According to Denny surgeries were done there but most were to have appendix removed. The nurse was Ms. Enlow.

The first doctor was Dr. Dooley, followed by Dr. Joe Frank Clark. Dr. Clark traveled all over the Iowa Park area and came to town twice a year.

Dr. Dooley also had the first car that Denny recalls.

John Pace had the first car Denny recalls riding in.

The first car Denny's father had was a 1914 Dodge. The people they bought the car from stayed with the Denny family on the farm for two weeks, teaching them to drive.

Elgin's first car was a Model T. He paid $325 for. He said he could have bought a new one for $500 but $175 was a lot of money those days. He borrowed the money and worked at a tailor shop to repay the loan.

His first job was at a tailor shop owned by a couple fellows name Stewert and Taylor. He explained the way he landed the job. He had some cleaning done and offered to pay by sweeping floor and cleaning up around the shop. They took him up on his offer. He said he was just a kid and worked before and after school and on Saturdays. He added when he left three years later he could have operated the business by himself.

The first dentist was Dr. Deacon. Denny recalls if you went to the dentist with a toothache he pulled the tooth.

He received his first hair cut from Sam Williams at a cost of 25 cents.

The first hardware store was Tanner's Hardware. They also sold the first gasoline in Iowa Park.

He said that the phone was a crank type phone and you called central and the operator would connect you with whom you wished to speak. Telephone and telegraph service was installed in 1911. The first phone that wasn't a crank type phone that he recalls having was after he moved to his present address around 1970.

The first fire alarm was at the old fire garage. A call would go to the operator at the central phone office, located at the Park Hotel across the street from the fire garage. She would sound the alarm, then run across the street to tell a fire fighter where to go.

Before there was a fire department, in the event of a fire, people would shoot their guns to draw their neighbors' attention and the neighbors would go fight the fire.

The first weeney sausage (hot dog) Denny had he traded tea cakes for at school. When he got home he told his mother he had a weeney sausage, she said, "a what!?"

Sewer and running water were installed in about 1920. The water came from a couple of wells south of town, from a place called the "Harris C" place. "The water was good water until the salt water broke through," Denny said. After that the water came from the irrigation. Before city water, some people had well water but most had a cistern.

When electricity first became available in 1925, it would sometimes go off for no apparent reason, and would be the next day before it came back on.

During the first World War, there was a shortage of sugar, so for sweetener they used corn sugar. He said it was in a ball and tasted awful. Also during that time the east area of Iowa Park was a tent city. Denny said there were tents as far as you could see. "We were having an oil boom here," Denny said.

The first paved road from Iowa Park to Wichita Falls was opened in 1921.

Mrs. S.L. Denny organized the first Sunday School in the Denny Community in 1907. They used the school as a meeting place and church services were held once a month.

The first preacher Denny recalls was Ike Crutchfield. He was followed by Brother Davis and Brother Johnson.

Denny recalls his dad telling of when he "first" came to the Iowa Park (Daggitt Switch) area and how the Denny Community came about.

Elgin Denny's father, S.L. (Babe) Denny, uncle L. C. Denny and his wife Eliza Katherine "Kate" came to Daggitt Switch in 1887, and bought adjoining land southwest of town, about nine miles.

The area became known as "The Denny Community," now known as Valley View.

After other farmers settled in the area it was decided that there was a need for a school. The farmers built a one-room school.

Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Putman had settled one mile east of the school, and Mrs. Putman arranged for Bonnie Eloise Perry to come from Chico, Texas to organize and teach school in 1897. She taught the school two years and then married S.L. Denny, May 23, 1899.

They had four children, three daughters, Emma Jane, Mildred Elizabeth and Mary Louise, and a son, Elgin Woodall.

Denny talked of life before the modern day conveniences and some of Iowa Parks history.

Denny told of making their own lye soap and bathing in a #3 wash tub. In the summer they would put the laundry rinse water on the West side of the house to warm for bath water.

Grocery shopping was done by phone. One would call in their grocery order and they were then delivered to their house.

For most of us a trip to Wichita Falls we think nothing of. It only takes a few minutes. Denny recalls a trip to Wichita Falls being an all-day affair.

Before the Denny's got a car they made their trips to Wichita Falls in a "hack." This was slow traveling so they would get up early when there was a need for a trip to Wichita. Denny added they did not go often.

He recalls during the trips to Wichita while walking down the street when they got near a saloon his mother would walk the kids across the street. He said, "she feared trouble would break out in the saloon."

Iowa Park had its own saloon many years ago. A man named Lightsey ran the saloon before 1917. Also, a man name Snort Beasley had a place that sold liquor, according to Denny.

He stated Iowa Park was a busy town during the oil boom.

A large oil refinery was located where Wal-Mart is now located.

On Saturdays Iowa Park would be cram packed with people. Denny said if you wanted to get a parking place you had to get to town early. Besides tending to business, people would hang around, walking up and down the street, visiting.

There were a couple of dance floors in and around Iowa Park and Tom Burnett held rodeos at his ranch for entertainment.

People were not the only ones roaming around town. According to Denny, the cattle would roam around loose and sometimes you might see one staked out under a tree in a vacant lot in town.

One of the Burnett rodeos was the only rodeo he ever attended. "It seemed so brutal I never attended another," he said.

He told of the Indians coming to the Burnett Ranch. He said when Mr. Burnett held rodeos at the ranch the Indians would come watch.

He said, "It was quite a sight to see the women walking into town with big blankets wrapped around their heads." He added that when he saw the Indians they scared him to death.

Denny recalls Iowa Park missed becoming county seat by one vote. The story goes that one of Mr. Burnett's men had told Burnett that if he would let him go to town he would be back to vote. However he did not make it back in time to vote so due to that missed vote Wichita Falls is our county seat.

He also recalls Roy Rogers visiting Tom Burnett.

The holidays were quite different in those days. Most gifts were homemade and the tree was not a Christmas tree as we know it today.

Denny has a fond memory of having their own Christmas tree and the way it came to be.

Christmas trees were made from mesquite trees. There were no fir or spruce trees so the ladies would twist and tie cedar all over a mesquite tree. The trees were then decorated with stringed cranberries and popcorn.

He said when they lived on the farm he did not especially want to go to town. At that time he had two older sisters and they found their own entertainment.

For other pastime and entertainment he enjoyed hunting and fishing. He said, he and his horse and dog were inseparable. He added that he still has his dad's gun that he bought when he first came to this part of the country.

Denny was also a Boy Scout. He said he never got to be an Eagle, he only went to the second class. His scout master was Barney Bradford.

The Denny School only went through nine grades and those wishing to continue school had to go to Iowa Park. This is the reason he and his family moved to Iowa Park in 1917, he was nine years old.

School and studies were quite different in those days.

The first school Denny remembers was a little red brick school located on the west corner, where the W.F. George Middle School is now located.

During his days of school the students wore what they had. There was no dress code, but the girls most all wore dresses made from flour sacks or cotton material, and the boys wore jeans and cotton shirts, made from flour sacks. Their underclothes were made of flour sacks. A lady named Alma Lee made the Dennys' clothes.

Denny studied by a coal oil lamp and he used a piece of slate for a writing tablet.

Lunches were taken to school in syrup cans and they ate behind the school. Students that lived near the school went home.

If one got in trouble they went to the superintendent's office and most often received a whipping. Mr. Bradford used a board, however Mr. Tyson used a strap.

He remembers the star football player was Edwin Davis.

Some of the students he remembers K-Pace and a boy name Hodges.

The superintendents Denny recalls were: Mr. Nicholas, Mr. Edwards, Mr. J.B. Tyson, Mr. W.R. Bradford and Mr. R.E. Brewster. Due to problems when Brewster was in the position, Mr. Bradford returned to get it straightened out and stayed a few years.

Denny recounted this story of R.E. Brewster.

When Brewster was superintended Denny was staying with Brewsters' parents in Denton going to collage. Brewster began bringing things like sewing machines, typewriters and other office supplies and machines to his parents' home in Denton. Denny would help him unload these items. Unknown to Denny, these items were stolen from the Iowa Park School District. Denny said he was participating in a crime and did not know it until later. It was after this that Mr. Bradford returned to the school district to straighten out the mess, according to Denny.

After the oil boom, it was decided that because of the shortage of jobs there could only be one breadwinner in a household, so teachers that were married were not allowed to teach if their husband had a job. According to Denny some of the teachers went to other communities to teach. Two of the teachers he recalls leaving were Mrs. Reaves and Mrs. Hines. They went to Valley View.

Denny graduated Iowa Park High School in 1924. He recalls there were 13 boys and 13 girls in his class.

After graduating he attended Wichita Junior Collage, majoring in chemistry. He then went to North Texas State Teacher Collage in Denton one year and returned to Iowa Park.

He and Mary Louise George were married July 27, 1930. J.N. George was her father. He was the brother of W.F. George.

Denny went to work for Mr. John B. Barbor in the services department. He worked there four years.

He then moved on a farm that his father had bought in 1904 from some people from Kentucky. His father bought the land from a family named Brubaker. The family from Kentucky lived there for two years and it did not rain, so they decided that was enough and went back to Kentucky.

Denny raised wheat and oats on the land. He said that he made his living off the dairy and when the crops came in he had that money clear. He said, "Those cows is how I put my daughter through collage."

In 1970 Denny sold the farm, retired and moved to town.

Elgin and Mary Louise had one daughter, Elga Ann. She was born in 1933.

She graduated from Iowa Park High School in 1950. She then attended Texas Western in Denton where she graduated and went to work at Sheppard Air Force Base, where she retired as a computer specialist after 32 years. She lives at home with her Dad.

The Denny Community farm has been sold but the Dennys maintain the mineral rights. Denny told a story of how it came about that they keep the mineral rights.

Many years ago Denny's sister, Mildred, went to a fortune teller in Dallas. The man was a fireman in Wichita Falls. While telling her fortune he stated, "Your dad owns some land and there is oil there. Lot's of oil." He then drew her a little picture of the land where the creek came across.

Later Denny's wife, then his fiancée, went to the same man and she was told, "You are fixing to get married?" Yes, she replied. He then said, "The man you are going to marry, his dad has some land that has oil on it. Lot's of oil." She went back and relayed this story to Denny and his family. It was then decided that they would keep the mineral rights. And the man was correct.

Denny now spends almost every day at the Friendly Door, playing dominoes and visiting. He says the Friendly Door is a great help to him.

He the biggest change that he likes in these modern days is radio. He also enjoys watching television. Wheel of Fortune being his favorite show.

When I asked if he enjoys being retired, he replied, "I have to enjoy it. I am too old to do anything else."

Frosh win 3rd straight

It's official now. You can call it a winning streak.

The freshman Hawks won for the third time in a row last Thursday night by beating Bowie 18-6, and improved to 4-2 overall and 2-0 in district play. The Hawks will be looking to continue their winning ways today when they travel to Henrietta to take on the Bearcats at 5 p.m.

Iowa Park scored on its first play from scrimmage on a 46-yard touchdown run by Bryan Swenson. A huge cut-back lane was opened by the offensive line and backs, including Jason Vanek, Justin Martin, Nick Kennedy, Michael Hopper, Aaron Haws, Brad Reynolds, Kyle Young, Kyle Chaney and Andy Simpson. The two-point conversion failed leaving Iowa Park on top 6-0.

Bowie answered back to tie the score at 6-6 in the first quarter.

In the second period, Kennedy recovered a Bowie fumble of an Iowa Park punt, giving the Hawks excellent field position.

Running behind the blocking of Brandon Cox and Martin, the Hawks were able to add to their lead. Jeremy Wilson led the Hawks to paydirt scoring on a quarterback sneak to make it 12-6 at the half.

In the third quarter, for the third week in row, Hopper recovered a fumble at the Bowie 34. Iowa Park moved the ball to the three, where the drive stalled.

On Bowie's first snap after taking over on downs, Wilson recovered another Rabbit fumble and this time the Hawks made Bowie pay for the mistake. Wilson scored on another sneak to make the final 18-6.

Coming off the sideline and playing well for the Hawks were Anthony Fairchild, Robbie Vann, Jeff Ervin and Neil Henderson.

SENIOR CLASS PRESIDENT HONORS will be held by two students this year, Dustin Hicks and Alisha Clements. After an election for class officers resulted in a tie for the position, the two agreed to serve together. As far as anyone can remember, this is the first time the office has been held by two seniors.

Junior High Roundup

Offensive standouts for the Hawks included Jeff Catlin, who led all rushers with 55 yards on only five carries, with a big run of 35 yards. Other standouts included Andy Garcia, Troy Williams, Ryan McLaughlin, Steven McGwire, Chris Wise, Terrance Oster, Cameron Walls, Jamie Lucas, Josh Miller and Eric Young.

Defensive standouts included, McLaughlin, McGwire, Oster, Catlin, Wise, Williams and Young.

Following a scoreless first half, Iowa Park got on the board in the third quarter on a Justin Doverspike 45-yard touchdown run.

In the fourth quarter, Iowa Park made it 12-0 on a Brady Rusk to Lance Morton 22-yard touchdown pass. Earlier in the drive, Rusk threw to Grant Gibson for a 25-yard gain that moved the ball to the Quannah 22.

Clay Billingsley led the Hawk defense with 11 tackles, followed by Matthew Gaiten with seven, Gibson and Rhyann Anderson each had six tackles.

Other standouts included Ryan Beard, Toby Brown, and Tyler McKnight, Beard also picked off a pass for the Hawks in the win.
