YOUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Are you just a citizen? or are you a progressive citizen? To be just a citizen usually takes very little effort on the part of a man; he is born into the community, or circumstances place him here, or he chooses it because he can find a place to live - or can he?

But to be a progressive citizen, a man must be a citizen who is doing all he can to promote his town as he promotes his own interests for "progressive" means "steadily moving forward, making progress, improving on the old."

A person who is just a citizen does not care. He is quite satisfied with the town as it is and business houses can stay vacant forever and ever as far as he is concerned.

COUNTY SHERIFF SEEKS NEW TERM

Sheriff Hammett Vance issued a formal announcement of his candidacy for re-election to a second term Monday as follows:

"In order that you may know your sheriff better, I want to give you a brief background of my life. I am 37 years old. When I was a small boy, I crossed Red River in a covered wagon with the late Judge and Mrs. W. T. Vance, and moved into the city of Burkburnett in 1914.

"I became a member of the Texas Highway Patrol where I attended schools on traffic and criminal investigation, conducted by the Department of Public Safety and the FBI. I attended a number of schools pertaining to law enforcement work.

"In 1942, I joined the United States Marines as a private and went to Quantico, Va., where I attended school and was later commissioned a lieutenant. After serving overseas in Espirito, Santo, Guadalcanal, Bougainville, Guam, Emir, I was discharged with the temporary rank of major. My training was in military intelligence, military tactics and many other courses, all of which, I feel, have better prepared me for the work of sheriff.

"During my 17 months in office the sheriff's department filed and handled 1,306 cases of which 434 were felony cases, and collected $14,591.69 in 1947, which included fees both civil and criminal, feeding of prisoners, transporting lunacy cases to state hospitals here and at Terrell and Rusk, Texas; transporting both mental and other patients to veterans' hospital at Waco, Texas; apprehending persons wanted by other towns and states.

"All of this is among regular duties of the sheriff's department. We have attempted to Mr. Gordon Duvall Clark son of Dr. and Mrs. Gordon G. Clark of Iowa Park.

Important Items on Fair Officials Agenda Friday

Notices were put in the mail this week calling all officials of the Texas-Oklahoma Fair to a meeting in the Fair Auditorium at 8 p.m. Friday, July 9.

In making the call, Dr. Gordon G. Clark, fair board president, asked especially that all members of the executive board, board of directors, committee chairmen and committee members be present to consider a group of important matters.

All committee chairmen are expected at this time to make reports on plans of their various departments.

Among other important items on the agenda are a plan to increase premiums to be won by exhibitors in the Women's Department and in the Sheep Division. Mrs. Homer Blalock and Mrs. Sam Hill head the women's department and Gale Lowrance is chairman of the sheep division of the fair.

Jack Austin, manager of the fair, has been very busy the past few weeks leasing, setting up and bringing back to Iowa Park the seats belonging to the association. Many outdoor affairs are going on all over North Texas and South Oklahoma and demand for the seating arrangements has been heavy.

Along with this work, Mr. Austin has been busy preparing copy for the fair catalog and premium list, which he says will be turned to the printers in about two weeks.

Program Selection Started by 23 Study Club Committee

Work on the 1948-49 programs for the 23 Study club was begun Tuesday evening when Mrs. L. E. Brooks, president, met with her program committee to outline plans and the course of study for the current year.

The committee is composed of Mrs. R. A. Tanner, James Sewell and Homer Blalock. These members are faced with the task of planning timely and flexible programs in the midst of unpredictable world conditions, but indications are that the yearbooks will be ready for distribution at the first meeting of the new club year, which will take place the first Thursday in October.

In describing her experiences and discussing the choir clinic, Mrs. Sewell had only high praise for Mr. Williamson and the work he is doing. "Never," she says, "have I seen or heard so much fine music or studied under such inspiring conditions as was this course. I would not have missed it for anything."

Numbers presented by the Clinic Choir of which Mrs. Sewell was a member are: Exultate Deo (Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina). O magnum mysterium (Ludovico Tommaso da Vittoria). All breathing life, sing and praise ye the Lord (Johann Sebastian Bach).

Bugs and Food Keep Party in High at Taylor George Home

The Taylor George home at 621 North Yosemite was the scene of lots of fun and excitement at a party there Monday night. As the guests arrived they were each given a name placard, and everyone was expected to use only given names in addressing other guests. If someone forgot and used a "Mr." or "Mrs." he had to wear Taylor's fire hat until someone else made the same mistake. Buddy Tanner seemed to have a monopoly on the cap most of the evening. A hot contest with the game of "Bugs" was climaxed when high-scoring Mrs. Magdalena Mahler received a bug-bomb. As a consolation for her low score Mrs. Ira Campsey was given a bottle of bugs. Home-made cake and ice cream were served the following: Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Thompson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mahler, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Campsey, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Pastusek and children, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Huckaby, Mr. O. R. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor George and Jimmie Joy.

Robbie Starr Marries Kenneth Watts in Iowa Park Ceremony

In a lovely informal ceremony read by the pastor, Rev. James N. Easterwood, at the First Baptist church Friday evening at the twilight hour, Miss Robbie Starr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Starr, became the bride of Kenneth Watts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Watts.

A background of greenery against the altar space afforded a fitting setting for the beautiful arrangements of pink and white gladioli and daisies. The scene was illuminated with the soft light from white tapers in four tiers of candelabra. A musical accompaniment for the event was provided by Miss Betty Jo Hatten at the organ as she played the traditional marches and by Halie Chastain and his sister Miss Betty Chastain, in a vocal duet, "Always."

Mrs. Eugene Watts, sister-in-law of the groom, was matron of honor. Dean Jackson attended as best man. Ushers were Gene Jackson and Johnny Cole. Misses Retha Starr and Wanda Jean Mansell, as candle-lighters, added to the soft colorfulness of the occasion with their crowns of pale blue and pale pink.

The bride wore a creamy white sheer crepe, with beaded yoke, and carried white carnations on a white Bible. The matron of honor's costume was of pale pink, with a bouquet of pink carnations.
