Make Iowa Park Safe For Children, Is Plea of Mayor Sewell

Lion Curtis Sewell, mayor of Iowa Park, took the floor for an appeal to fellow townsmen to clean up their premises, especially downtown, and try in every way possible to avoid a polio epidemic here. He pointed out that polio has again broken out in south Texas and spreading toward the north. As yet, he said, one case has been diagnosed in Wichita county.
Lion Kelly, chairman of the program for Tuesdays luncheon meeting had secured for speaker Prof. A. F. Edwards of the history department at Hardin college, Wichita Falls. Upon being introduced by Lion Austin, Mr. Edwards entertained with several well chosen anecdotes before going into an extremely interesting discussion on the meaning of our flag.
"The Stars and Stripes are the symbol of our free democracy," he said, "and make the only flag I know of which really stands for something. In other countries the flag has a minor role. The British honor the king, the Russians pay homage to Stalin, and other countries have some person or tradition they hold dear. All the spirit of America is wrapped up in our flag with its thirteen stripes and forty-eight stars.
In my history classes," he continued, "I try to bring home to students the sacrifices and hardships that have built this nation and build in them an intense love of their country, so they will give all they are and have preservation of our liberties and opportunities."
Mrs. John Mixon accompanied Lion Sweetheart Harriett Coppock as she sang for the men at their lunch. Other visitors were E. W. Lamb of Slaton and H. L. Yarborough of Wichita Falls.
President Sam Hill announced that the club would meet at the Christian church next Tuesday noon because of the night meeting to be held June 29.

Barnes Family Living In Iowa Park Now

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes and daughter Millie Jo arrived in Iowa Park, Wednesday noon to make their home here. Mr. Barnes will be resident pastor of the church here and will be head of the school of graphic arts and instructor in journalism at Hardin college. He began his duties with the college Thursday.
"We are certainly happy to be here among friends and hope the people will be as happy to have us with them as neighbors," stated Mr. Barnes.

YOUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE —

RUTH HILL YEARGAN
Well, Father is about to have his day, now that Mother has about recovered from having her day. It's a nice idea, this setting aside a day for Dad because pretty often he must feel that all he is good for is just to pay the bills; there's not only the expenses of keeping up the business, but the endless household expenses, and added to that the "gimme this" and "I want that" of the sons and daughters, large and small from the tiny youngster who just can't lip "I-squeem coone" to the university student who doesn't lip when he makes known his desire for a convertible.
We heard this one the other day: A man asked his son why he didn't want to go to a certain fine state university, and the son replied that he could not meet the requirements. Knowing his son to be among the highest seven in the high school senior class in which he had just graduated, the father was puzzled and demanded to know what the so-and-so meant.
"You've got to have a convertible to go there," replied the young fellow.
Of course, way down deep in his heart, Dad knows he is the most important person around the house: He is the Head of the house, because he has the brains, he's the Shoulders of the house, because he carries the burdens, he's the Hands because he alone can do many things for the family which no one else can do, and he is the stabilizing influence that keeps the family on an even keel.
Long before the parents think a child can think, he has already made up his mind about them—especially the Father. Unlike the Mother in the home, who is automatically accepted in her daily services to the family, the Father is set apart in the mind of the child as a very special somebody—with whom he, too often, is not very well acquainted.
Being a very special somebody, the Father is usually treated with entirely different technique to that accorded the Mother. The son does not blunder in on him with his complaints, he waits for a convenient time and then, when the stage is set, he advances cautiously turning over and over in his mind his opening speech.
Now this being a Dad is Big Business with Big Dividends. The biggest thing about it is being chosen to set an example of Good Citizenship to his children. For he will be largely responsible for the attitude his children will have toward the town and the county in which he makes a home for them.
And what better Dividends can a man receive than the knowledge that his son or daughter is a Good Citizen.
Your Chamber of Commerce will always be in need of more Good Citizens, those who have faith in their home town and follow up constructive criticism with a real effort to better conditions.

Health Clinic Checks Four in Iowa Park Well Baby Conference

Well baby clinic at the Christian church in Iowa Park on Tuesday of this week, brought several mothers of the area with their offspring for their monthly checkup. Mrs. Campbell of the Wichita County Health Unit and the consulting physician are gratified at the response to their efforts and invite all citizens of this area who qualify to take advantage of their services.
Mrs. Campbell also announced to parents of prospective students at Iowa Park schools that Friday, June 18, will be the next to last time she will hold immunization clinics at the high school gymnasium.
All families who receive the services of the Health Unit are notified to have their school-age children at the school for immunization, those under 12 for whooping cough, diphtheria and smallpox; those over 12 for smallpox.
Asked about a possible polio epidemic, Mrs. Campbell disclosed that one case in the county has been diagnosed. She suggested sanitation as the best means of avoiding spread of the disease.

C. W. Coppocks Are Honored with Party

The lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Horn was scene for a lovely surprise party last Thursday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Coppock. The occasion was the silver wedding anniversary of the honored couple and lovely gifts of silver were presented them.
Others celebrating their 25 years of marriage with the Coppocks were Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Womack, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson and son Edward, and Patsy Horn, daughter of the hosts.
Now this being a Dad is Big Business with Big Dividends. The biggest thing about it is being chosen to set an example of Good Citizenship to his children. For he will be largely responsible for the attitude his children will have toward the town and the county in which he makes a home for them.
And what better Dividends can a man receive than the knowledge that his son or daughter is a Good Citizen.
Your Chamber of Commerce will always be in need of more Good Citizens, those who have faith in their home town and follow up constructive criticism with a real effort to better conditions.

Farm Bureau Service Offered in New Drive

By Mrs. M. L. Hines
T. J. Pace and Loys D. Barbour were the Wichita County representatives who attended the statewide Farm Bureau service banquet in Abilene June 11, when plans were completed for the Texas Farm Bureau drive to promote the services of life insurance, Blue Cross, and automobile casualty to members of the organization.
Mr. Pace, with C. A. Morgan as assistant, and possibly others, will lead the project in Wichita county. He anticipates that an additional $50,000 life insurance will be sold in the county during the month of the drive, June 15 to July.
Each winner in the drive will be awarded a 17-jewel Elgin watch. To be a winner one must write $15,000 life insurance, secure a combination of 15 automobile policies and Blue Cross applications, and 7 new members in Farm Bureau, or a combination of 15 new and renewal members.
Harley B. West, Blue Cross enrollment director, of Dallas, was present for the banquet and stated that enrollments would be accepted during the month closing July 15 from all over the state as an aid to the drive, with July 15 as effective date.

CLASS OF '49

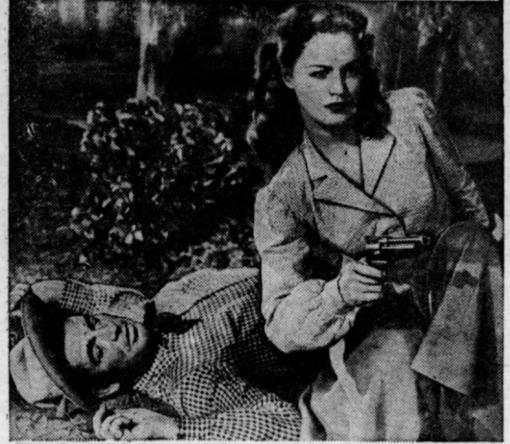

That class of '49 seems to be pretty busy this summer, with the notable exception of those that the love bug bit.
Jan is loafing around home, still going with her on eand only, Buster.
Carolyn, well, she is loafing at home and has a part time at Sam Hills store. Speaking of Carolyn, I wonder if she would write or phone in and let us know the latest about Frank.
I hear three of our Senior girls have sweet jobs at the hospital as attendants. Don't be surprised if Juanele, Billie Jean and Billie Joyce become nurses after graduation.
Kids, our star student, Kenneth Clements, glanced back over his credits and found he would like to return to school (summer school that is) and make a couple of credits just to be a senior.
Same news from Betty Wolfe.
Well Rahl! Rahl! With God's help and only he knows who else's, Delbert Catlin passed geometry. That calls for a celebration, don't you think?
Billy Gene House is learning the trade at the Rexall. I suppose he will be our town's future pharmacist.
James Roy has a steady job at John B. Barbour's. He has also become a house prowler. Better lock your houses when you leave!
I hear that until school starts Betty Via has her summer home in DeLeon. We will miss her at Berry Drug.
Opal Faye and I are grinding it out at summer home ec. Opal has a job at Mixon's Cafe.
More news next week. Bye for now. — Pat Trigg, reporter.

Don Crites jr. Goes to London for Summer Work in East Side

Don Crites jr., nephew of Mrs. Tirzah Portis and Miss Hazel Crites, sailed June 2 from Newark, N.J. bound for London. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Crites of Houston and is a pre-law student at the University of Texas.
Don will be one of 18 Winant Volunteers selected from the United States to go to England this summer to lead boys' organizational activities in the slums of London.
The Winant Volunteers were established to follow in the footsteps of the late U.S. Ambassador John Winant, who showed a keen interest in boys' activities on London's East Side.
One thing, he said, was the veto to remain affiliated with the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. There was agitation to withdraw but the faction which wanted to co-operate with the other major denominations pushed thru a victory.
The question of merging the Northern and Southern branches of the Presbyterian brotherhood did not fare so well. When the matter was brought before the Assembly, it was decided to postpone the merger for a period of five years.
In the absence of Rev. M. C. Yeargan, who is serving at counselor at a youth conference in the camp at Kerrville, Mr. Bob Lowrance presided at the morning worship service of the church.
Miss Frances Park led the discussion at Youth Fellowship, Sunday morning.
There was no evening service at the Presbyterian church and the members attended union services on the lawn of the Methodist church.

Baptist Young Folk Enjoy Sand Beach

The Y.W.A. of the First Baptist church were entertained Monday with an informal evening of skating and swimming. The affair took place at Sand Beach and hostesses for the occasion were members of the Sallee-Morgan circle of the Women's Missionary Union.
The evening was climaxed with a delicious picnic supper served to Misses Martha Kate Hudson, Rebecca Shaw, LaCreta Jackson, Betty Denny, June Robinson, Dorothy Sewell, Hazel Roby, Frances Bell, Opal Patterson, Bobbie Brubaker, Patsy Rogers and Mmes. J. A. Berg, F. W. Bell, E. W. Sumrall and J. C. Roby.
Mr. and Mrs. James Sewell visited Perkins Reservation, Tuesday evening where Troop 37 of Iowa Park is in camp. The boys are enjoying camp life and are reported to be doing nicely. Miles Thompson and Tom Huckaby are looking after the boys.
Mrs. Sam Jacks returned Tuesday from oona after a few days spent with her sister Mrs. J. E. Whyte and Mr. Whyte.

With Bruce Cabot out of action Dorothy Hart blazes away in an exciting scene from "Gunfighters," a Zane Grey story starring Randolph Scott. This is the feature attraction at the Parkway theater next Wednesday and Thursday, June 23, 24.

Rev. Beard Begins Duties Here in First Methodist Church

Having served since fall of 1923 as minister in various Methodist churches, all of them in the North Texas conference, Rev. Kirk M. Beard and his family have come to work with the First Methodist church of Iowa Park almost with a feeling of being with home folks.
Mr. Beard, in preparing for the ministry attended Austin college at Sherman, which institution awarded him both the B.A. and M.A. degrees. He has also attended Southern Methodist University at Dallas.
His most recent charges have been Cochran's Chapel at Dallas, First Methodist at Cooper, and First at Bowie. He came here from the Dallas church, having exchanged with Rev. Floyd Uvare.
Mr. Beard, besides his work with local churches is also chairman of the Board of Accepted Supply for the North Texas Conference.
Mrs. Beard, while her principal interest through the years has been the raising of the children, has been interested in the women's work of the various churches. She is greatly interested in art.
The mother's interest in art has been transferred to both the Beard children. Miss Tommie Annell Beard attended Texas State College for Women at Denton and for the past school term has been an instructor in art at Kingsport, Tenn., a large industrial center in the northeast part of that state. She came home for the summer just in time to help her parents with their move. Miss Beard will probably spend the summer in Iowa Park and will make a welcome addition to the younger set here.
The son Bobby Beard also is interested in art and at present is a student in the Institute of Design at Chicago. His interest runs toward commercial art.
During the war young Beard was in the U. S. Air Forces.

Archer City Man In Iowa Park Pulpit for Assembly Report

In reporting the General Assembly which was held at Atlanta, Ga., recently, Mr. Graham Purcell of Archer City brought out too many points for the members of the First Presbyterian church of Iowa Park last Sunday.
One thing, he said, was the veto to remain affiliated with the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. There was agitation to withdraw but the faction which wanted to co-operate with the other major denominations pushed thru a victory.
The question of merging the Northern and Southern branches of the Presbyterian brotherhood did not fare so well. When the matter was brought before the Assembly, it was decided to postpone the merger for a period of five years.
In the absence of Rev. M. C. Yeargan, who is serving at counselor at a youth conference in the camp at Kerrville, Mr. Bob Lowrance presided at the morning worship service of the church.
Miss Frances Park led the discussion at Youth Fellowship, Sunday morning.
There was no evening service at the Presbyterian church and the members attended union services on the lawn of the Methodist church.

TRAINING COURSE FOR SCOUTERS TO BEGIN FRIDAY, 7:30

Pat Pastusek, commissioner for the Archita District of the North Texas Council of Boy Scouts, has completed plans for a Scoutmaster's Training Course which will be offered here in Iowa Park the next six Friday nights. The plans were worked out last Friday night in a staff meeting attended by men from Electra, Burkburnett, Kamay, Wichita Falls and Iowa Park.
In issuing the call for all young men and men who would stay that way, Pat says: "Learn to play the game his way. Scouting is a boy's game, an adventure into a new world of making things, doing things, having fun. It is a game with a purpose—one that develops character and trains for citizenship. To accomplish this purpose, Scoutmasters must know what appeals to the boy.
"Make your leadership more effective," Pat goes on. "The purpose of this Training Course is to show you HOW to lead a troop of Scouts. It has been planned to give you confidence and satisfaction. It means better scouting for you—and your scouts.
The following subjects on successful troop and patrol leadership will be fully described and demonstrated.
"The patrol method — and how to use it. Throughout the course the patrol method of scouting will be explained, discussed and practiced.
"Your troop staff—and how to guide and advise your leaders. A scoutmaster's job is not to run his troop, but to train boy leaders to run their own troop.
"Troop and patrol programs — and how to develop them. Considerable time will be devoted to developing this important subject.
"The advancement program — and how it works. Records and finance — vital to good troop management.
"Outdoor activities — and how to plan them.
The men who take the course are to be placed in patrols just as a troop is organized and will learn by doing, all the time tested methods of managing a troop of boy scouts.
Mr. Pastusek will serve as scoutmaster and direct the course, which will be handled by J. A. Renfro of Electra in his capacity as Senior Patrol Leader.
The first session, scheduled for 7:30, Friday, July 18, at the Fair Park Auditorium in Iowa Park, will be opened with a simple troop flag ceremony, followed by greetings and instructions. John McKelvey of Electra will then give a short talk on the nature of the boy and why and how Scouting appeals to him.
Following patrol meetings in which each group organizes, and learns a few tenderfoot knots, the troop will reassemble for contests and dramatizations.
At some convenient time during the summer, Mr. Pastusek says, the men will take an overnight camping trip, probably to Perkins Reservation.
Any man over 18 years of age is welcome, Pat says, and will have the time of his life, not only while taking the course, but later if he should ever become a scout leader.
Men who are interested in scouting in this area who were present in the Texas Electric company office last Friday night for the planning meeting were as follows:
J. C. Stevens, Electra.
Chauncey Weller, Iowa Park.
Fred Hunt, Burkburnett.
B. O. Willis, Burkburnett.
Tandy Jackson, Kamay.
Ed Forbes, Electra.
J. A. Renfro, Electra.
Milton R. Wyratt, Wichita Falls.
Robert L. Hurst, Wichita Falls.
George R. Huckaby, Iowa Park.
W. R. Pastusek, Iowa Park.

PERSONNEL AND PROGRAM SET FOR SUMMER'S PLAY

From day to day more organizational work on the summer recreation program in Iowa Park is being done.
Mrs. Homer Bialock as president of the Council of Church Women and Mrs. Taylor George as chairman of the program, with the assistance of George Koonce in his capacity as director, have secured the services of local people who are giving unsparingly of their time and talents to make the recreation program one which will draw youth of the city, no matter what their interests might be.
Mrs. Louis Quick has accepted leadership of the dramatics. Her assistants will be named later.
Mrs. O. R. Owens will be leader of choral singing. This group will meet each Monday evening at 8:00 for practice.
Miles Thompson will be in charge of senior boys softball and hopes to assemble enough boys to have several teams.
Mrs. Herman Mahler and Mrs. Bialock with other workers, met Tuesday afternoon of this week with Mr. Koonce and assembled the equipment on hand, determining the shortages which will be ordered.
Story hour for the younger set will be headed by Mrs. I. A. Campbell, and she will be assisted by Miss Cecelia Yeargan, Mrs. M. C. Yeargan and Mrs. Rollins Woodall.
Sports activities of the girls will come under supervision of Miss Polly Faye Clark with the assistance of Mrs. George.
Rev. James N. Easterwood and Billy Gene House were in charge this Tuesday of junior boys sports.
The town is especially indebted to the following persons and firms for donations and assistance:
J. A. Tanner and Son donated paper cups to be used by the participants in the summer activities.
Thompson Tool company manufactured and installed a special hoop for post basketball. This piece of equipment is made to order and can better be understood by visiting the playgrounds.
Miles Hines used a pickup to haul water barrels from the school house.
C. M. Miller Lumber company has donated sawdust for filled sacks at the bases of the ball grounds.
More than fifty enthusiastic children attended Tuesday's session.

LIONS CLEAN AND PAINT CITY STREETS

The Whitewing Brigade of Iowa Park Lions club hit town Tuesday night with scrapers, brooms, scoops, paint buckets, brushes, trucks and the county's road sweeper.

Hats off to the Lions — and may the next 13 weeks find them ready to have it at again!

IOWA PARK, TEXAS

Iowa Park Herald

Published Thursday of each week at Iowa Park, Texas. Entered at the Postoffice at Iowa Park, Texas, as second class matter under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Do you know a girl who graduated from high school this spring who has not yet definitely decided what she wants to do? If she is between the ages of 18 and 30, has graduated in the upper half of her high school class, and can pass a pre-test in nursing she has an opportunity which is unexcelled by any other profession.

She can become a student in a school of nursing where, in three years time, she will have a profession that will make her economically secure, give her the opportunity to be of service to her community, and a profession that will prepare her for a challenging and satisfying work. There is no better preparation for marriage and home-making than nursing.

The beginning salary now paid to a registered nurse in the Dallas hospitals is $175. She has the opportunity to advance rapidly. A registered nurse may choose the type of special nursing she desires to do, because there are so many different opportunities in the nursing profession. Positions are available in hospitals all over the country; public health nursing agencies, large industrial plants, private duty care of critically ill patients, as well as assignment in one of the many Veterans hospitals and the Army and Navy Nurse corps. An American trained nurse may secure employment in practically any country in the world and demand good salary for a position held.

Parkland Hospital School of Nursing offers many advantages for the good prospective student. Parkland Hospital is the 422 bed general hospital of the Dallas City-County hospital system; it is affiliated with and immediately adjacent to the Southwestern Medical College. The laboratory facilities of the Medical College are available for student instruction. Members of the full time faculty of the Southwestern Medical College participate actively in the student's educational program. The nursing students and medical students learn side by side through the instruction of staff and resident physicians at Parkland Hospital.

Parkland Hospital School of Nursing desires to attract well qualified young women for the September class. A scholarship of $20 per month is given for the first two years of the nursing student's experience and $30 per month is provided for the third year. The student is provided complete maintenance throughout her course of study. In a great many respects, life in a school of nursing is like that in a college or boarding school. Students live in a dormitory. They have roommates and friends with whom to share joys and sorrows, qualms about examinations, trepidations about that breathless first day in the wards. They have lounges where "dates" are entertained and parties and dances are held.

The above described plan which is no woffered by Parkland Hospital School of Nursing makes it financially possible for any good prospective candidate to enroll.

Interested persons should write immediately to the Director of Nurses, Parkland Hospital School of Nursing, Dallas. All applications for the September class must be cleared by July 1.

An urgent call for delayed contributions to the American Cancer Society's fund campaign in Texas was made by former governor W. P. Hobby, state chairman of the cancer control drive.

"There are many people in Texas," Hobby said, "who have decided to give to this drive, but have put off their contributions. I want to urge them to wait no longer.

"Although 55 counties have gone over their goal, we are still about 25 per cent short of the money needed to insure an adequate and increased program of education, research and service in the coming year.

"In every county I am sure there are those who still want to give. If they can't find their county chairman, I hope they will immediately send the gift to state headquarters in Houston."

The former governor said that comparatively few people have donated to the total of $341,101 so far received. When cancer control means so much to so many people, Mr. Hobby added, this is a difficult fact to understand.

Workers will continue their efforts until the goal has been attained. "Because this is the only way in which the ambitious Texas Division program can be realized."

Mr. Hobby reminded workers that 60 per cent of all money collected is used in Texas for facilities which will soon cover all of the state's counties, and that 25 per cent is used in research projects which he is convinced will someday determine the cause and cure for all cancer.

Splicing telephone cable

TO SERVE WAITING CUSTOMERS

"I'm a cable splicer for the telephone company.

"I splice every one of the hundreds of wires in one section of telephone cable to its mate in the next section.

SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

"All of us cable splicers are busy these days helping put new cables into service so that people waiting can get telephones.

"Cable and wire tie together the parts of the telephone system. To serve a new customer we need not only a telephone instrument and room on the switchboard, but also there must be a pair of wires to connect the two. Right now, most of the wires in telephone cables are in use.

"That's why we're putting in new cables as fast as the factories can deliver them—and the factories are turning out twice as much as they did before the war.

"To you people waiting: We want you to know that we're doing everything we can to get you a telephone—just as soon as we can."

Champion Quarter Horse to Win Saddle At Stamford Reunion

A handsome saddle will go to the grand champion quarter horse in the new performance class at the meeting of the American Quarter Horse Association in connection with the Texas Cowboy Reunion at Stamford, July 2, 3 and 5. Other prizes will also be offered.

The saddle will be presented by the AQHA. Two performance classes are being added to the quarter horse show this year for the first time when those entered will perform under saddle. Only the finals, with four animals competing, will be shown in the arena when grand champion and reserve champion will be named. This will probably be held on July 5. Mr. Roy Arledge, chairman, said this week. The same judges who decide the cutting horse contest will judge the winners in this new contest.

Two new halter classes have also been added to the show at Stamford this year, making 10 in all.

These plans and others were discussed recently by Arledge and two American Quarter Horse Association officials, Raymond Hollingsworth of Amarillo and Bob Hooper of Plainview. The Association is furnishing trophies for the grand champion stallion and grand champion mare, Mr. Arledge said.

How to Live Longer

Someone asked Pappy Miller last week how he stayed so spry at ninety. Pappy told him:

"Well, sir—when I work, I work hard. When I set, I set loose. When I think, I go to sleep."

According to Doc Hollister, that formula isn't far amiss. "Hard work," says Doc, "never wore out anyone before his time, providing he knew how and when to relax."

Doc himself works overtime, with his daytime patients at the office, and his evening calls. And when he gets home he takes it easy with a mellow glass of beer and chats with the missus until it's time to go to bed.

From where I sit, relaxing is a fine art—especially in these tense, fast-moving times. And there's nothing like a temperate glass of beer—enjoyed with pleasant company—to restore that easy frame of mind that one needs after a hard day's work.

Cotton Research Congress To Be in Dallas July 22-24

Opportunities for cotton in world trade, domestic markets, technical research, improved production and mechanization will be discussed by outstanding authorities on these subjects at the ninth annual Cotton Research Congress at the Baker Hotel in Dallas, July 22-24. "Cotton Counts Its Opportunities" will be the theme of the 1948 meeting. Burris C. Jackson, general chairman of the Statewide Cotton Committee of Texas, has announced. The program and exhibits will present the latest developments of the cotton world, including the largest display of mechanical equipment for cotton farmers ever assembled in the Southwest, Jackson said.

Speakers will include world trade authorities, representatives of research institutions, banks, cotton industry organizations and other agencies from Texas, Tennessee, Virginia, Mississippi and other regions. Leaders of the industry from all cotton states and several foreign countries will attend. Business sessions and exhibits will be supplemented by a luncheon session and two night sessions, including a style show of the latest cotton fashions, arranged by the National Cotton Council, at which prizes of cotton and cottonseed products will be awarded to ladies attending.

The final session will move to the State Fair of Texas in order to accommodate extensive displays of mechanical equipment exhibited by more than fifteen of the nation's leading implement manufacturers. Speakers will discuss the use of machinery shown, ranging from tractors and fertilizers to mechanical pickers and harvesters, and visitors will have opportunity to examine each machine. All sessions and exhibits will be open to the public.

HOT WEATHER BRINGS DANGER TO INFANTS, SAYS HEALTH OFFICER

Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, has issued a warning to parents that this is the season for an increase in dysentery, diarrhea and summer complaint.

The chief causes of these intestinal diseases are contaminated milk, water or food; allowing the child to get overheated or exhausted; excessive sugar in the babies' formulas; and improper amount of food, Dr. Cox says. "All foods should be fresh and clean, and leftovers should be refrigerated to prevent spoilage." Dr. Cox urges extreme care in the preparation of a feeding formula for infants. He said it should be prescribed by a physician, and that cleanliness and refrigeration are absolute essentials. Babies should be fed at regular intervals and on a definite schedule, since their stomachs should be upset if fed irregularly or whenever they are fretful or restless.

The state health officer declared that dysentery is transmitted by flies and said every home should be well-screened and free of flies. "If dysentery or diarrhea develop, consult your physician at once," Dr. Cox advises. "This so-called summer complaint can be a very serious menace to your baby's health, if not an actual threat to his life."
