This year they are planning to have real Arctic reindeer and a sleigh and Santa and a real Santa Claus Workshop where the children can visit with Santa and tell him their Christmas wishes.

There will also be a Santa Claus Letter Box in town for the little people who want to write to him before he comes, and there will be Christmas music in the air each Saturday evening.

Merchants will decorate their windows for Christmas and citizens who wish will decorate their homes for the joy of sharing the lovely Christmas season with those who pass by.

Turning on the Christmas street lights will mark the official opening of the Iowa Park Merchants Town Party.

DONT SHORT-CHANGE YOUTH
To our office this week comes a pamphlet addressed to all parents, teachers, counselors, principals, employers, public officials and community groups encouraging them to influence all school age youth to complete their education by not hiring them for any job that interferes with their school hours.

An accompanying letter from the U.S. Department of Labor says: "There are more employed youth than most people realize. In Oct. 1951 according to census estimates, almost 1 in 4 of the school enrolled youth 14-17 were employed. 1,613,000 children in this age group were carrying both school and job. Three-quarters of a million children 14-17 left school in 1951 for full time employment.

"Over a quarter of our 8,000,000 teenagers are working today; twice as many as in 1940. Most of these attend school. More high school age youths are applying for full time work permits today than at any time in the past five years. More are dropping out of school. In rural areas proportionately seven times as many children under 16 are out of school as in cities.

"Once out of school, the youth hates to go back, even if he loses his job or the job is a 'dead end' and he gives it up. Juvenile court records show the consequences of a long trail of boredom, idleness, drifting, bad companions. A waste of lives and of the nation's most precious asset: skilled workers and responsible citizens for tomorrow."

Iowa Park Man To Do Teaching Research For Ford Foundation

Randolph Duvall Clark, son of Dr. and Mrs. Gordon G. Clark, has won a Ford Foundation Fellowship Award. The fund for the advancement of education was established by the Ford Foundation in April 1951 for the purpose of improving formal education at all levels.

A major means of achieving this aim is to improve the quality of teaching. These fellowships were given to promising college faculty members in 1951 and gave them an opportunity to devote a year away from their regular duties on a program designed to enrich them as liberally educated individuals to make them more effective teachers. The response to this program has been enthusiastic and the results so encouraging that it is now being offered high school teachers.

The Fund has set up a program for 1952-53 of fellowships for 400 public high school teachers in the United States and its territories. This program will give Randolph and other recipients a chance to devote a year away from classroom to activities that will extend his liberal education, improve his ability as a teacher, and increase his effectiveness as a member of his school and community.

A minimum of two fellowships were awarded to each state and territory. No more than one fellowship is available within a school system. The fellowship recipient was selected on the basis of his personal qualifications and the specific program he proposes to undertake.

No individual can apply for a fellowship, only superintendents of school or the selection committee in a participating community. They were asked to select a classroom teacher without regard to race, sex or creed, who has the basic initiative, imagination, previous training and experience, the promise of future development in teaching.

The Dallas school system saw fit to choose Randolph. He is a teacher in the W. E. Greiner Junior high of Dallas, having taught there one year.

Randolph attended the Iowa Park schools until he was a junior in high school in 1944. He then entered New Mexico Military Institute and attended there during his junior and senior years and two years of college. He entered the University of Colorado in 1948 and was graduated from there in 1950 with a B.A. in Economics. He worked on the master's degree until the next spring, when he became a member of the Vernon school system. The next year he became a member of the Dallas school system.

In Iowa Park, Randy was active in Boy Scout work, summer recreation program, church activities and all youth work.

Young Clark will travel to 18 different cities of the United States visiting schools in rural and suburban cities. He will spend two to three weeks in each school observing social study in junior high schools.

He has a leave of absence for the next school year and the Ford fund will pay his salary and expenses.

Randy was in the University of Colorado working on his master's degree this summer, when he was informed he had been chosen to receive the fellowship award.

Mrs. Ella Lee White is spending the week with her two sisters Mrs. Nelson Johnson and Mrs. Clyde Hall. She will leave next Thursday for her home in Griffin, Ga.

1952 Hawks Open Season at Munday Friday Evening

The Iowa Park Hawks will go to Munday, Friday night to take on the Munday Mongrels at 8:00. Munday will go into the contest as a slight favorite because of their experience and weight advantage, and also the fact that they will be playing on their home field.

Probable starting Hawk lineup is Mickey Sewell LE, Jean Paul Moore LT, Joe Don Boren, LG, Dale Girard C, James Fenner RG, Jimmy Martin RT, Clayburne Lindley RE, Lee Roy Weiss QB, Larry Lee LH, Howard Klinkerman RH, and James Williams FB.

Other boys expected to see action are Bill Brubaker E, Clyde Hurt E, Leonard Luckett T, Jackie Sampson G, Loyd Coleman G, Buddy Johnson G, George Clements E, Frankie Spradlin E, and Clayton Boyd B.

The inexperienced Hawks go into the season opener with only three starters from the 1951 team and six other lettermen.

A good clean scrimmage was enjoyed last Saturday night with the Bowie squad. The Jackrabbits have a powerful ground game and put over 4 touchdowns. The Hawks struck twice through the air and twice through the line. The Hawks made many mistakes last Saturday which Coaches Averitt and Corbett hope will not be repeated Friday night.

M.U. Continues Classwork Here

S. F. McDonald will again be in charge of extension classes of Midwestern university to be conducted in the Iowa Park high school building. Enrolment for the work will be made at 2:00 Saturday afternoon.

Subjects to be offered will be determined by the requests of those who want the graduate work. Mr. McDonald said this week he expects to enrol students from Valley View, Electra and Burk Burnett, as well as several Iowa Parkans.

Many Donors Make Scoreboard Possible At Valley View H.S.

Business firms of the Valley View school district which contains the Valley View, Kamay and Kadane Corner communities, along with a group of merchants at Electra, have contributed money enough to buy an electric score board for the Warrior football field.

Wendel G. Jones, Jack Forbes and O. R. Moore took the initiative in raising the $1,265 necessary to purchase the gift for the school. H. G. Mann of the Wichita River Oil company, donated and installed the uprights on the north end of the field. The board was purchased from the Electric Score Board Co. of Webster City, Iowa.

A crew of workmen from the factory is due to install the board before the first home football game on Sept. 19. This game is with Iowa Park.

The following made contributions: Louis Boniol, R. C. Brewer, W. C. Burk, Bungee Cafe, John Birdwell Well Service, A. L. Chambers, Cicero Smith Lumber Co., Coy's Welding Works, W. T. Davis, Effie Fraker Beauty Shop, Jack Forbes, Hardy Gage, John Gully, C. L. Haeker, Joe Hunt, Walter Lavender, Lingle Station, Paul Lipe, O. B. Lawter, O. R. Moore, Joe Poyler, Potter & Potter Well Service, Producers' Supply Co., Raymond's Welding Shop, G. C. Richards, Sargent Station, Lucy Stewart, C. D. Shamburger Lumber Co., Simmons Store, Sears Roebuck & Co., H. E. Talley, Thomason Grocery, Joe Woodward and W. G. Jones.

Electra contributors were B. J. Biddy, Buddy Brown, Darter Furniture Co., Dickey & McGann Insurance Co., Edwards Time Shop, Electra Furniture Co., Eli Morgan & Co., Inc., Reynolds Motor Co., and Texas Hardware & Supply Co.

The Warriors play Holiday there Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Griffis moved to Houston last week.

Mayor Explains Dump Ground Difficulties

Iowa Park is a small town. People in a small town usually feel that everyone should be able to do just as they please regardless of their neighbors or the trouble they may each other.

You don't mind, I am sure, if I, your mayor, undertake to inform you at times of our problems and at the same time get something off my chest.

I feel somewhat overburdened this morning with the problem of our dump ground for trash and garbage. As you know, lots of people haul their own trash, which is all right as far as it goes, but why do so many people want to take advantage of a situation by dumping trash in roads and fields just as soon as they come in sight of the Wichita River?

The City of Iowa Park pays for a lease on the dump ground for the use of its citizens. The City also has to hire equipment to keep trash pushed into the river. Lately people have been dumping so far from the river that it is almost impossible to handle the situation properly. We have been getting numerous complaints from this action.

The only alternative to this is that the City may be forced in self-defense, to institute a compulsory trash pick-up and disposal system, whereby supervision can be maintained over the dump ground.

R. E. Van Horn, Mayor.

Thomas J. Voyles, 82, Claimed by Death

Thomas J. Voyles, 82, died Thursday night, Sept. 4, at his home on the Iowa Park road where he had lived the past 18 years in the Pleasant Valley community. Funeral services were held Saturday in Wichita Falls with Rev. C. H. Balthrop, pastor of the Black Flat Baptist church, in charge. Interment was in Highland cemetery, Iowa Park.

Mr. Voyles was born in 1870 at Mount Ida, Ark. In 1884 he was married to Miss Parthenia Broden at Poolville, Texas, who survives him.

Other survivors are their son Ennis of Wichita Falls, a daughter Mrs. Dollie Hicks of Hollister, Okla.; a brother John of Tahoka and sister Mrs. G. C. Stratton of Poolville.

His five grandsons and one friend were pallbearers: Vernie Voyles, Gene Voyles, Phillip Capps, Calvin Courtney, Gene Perry and David Mundt.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere thanks to the Iowa Park Volunteer Fire department for saving my barn from burning down last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Lydia J. Hudson.

Horace Lashlee of Lovington, N. M., brother of Mrs. Ernest Grundy, is visiting here this week. He has been here with Herbert Lashlee, who lives south of town near Holiday. Herbert was in a truck accident three weeks ago in which he received head injuries, broken collar bone and bruises. His condition is good and he has gone home from the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hatten visited her parents in Chico last weekend. While there they attended a community reunion.

Texas Farm Bureau Federation, working in co-operation with other groups such as county judges and commissioners association and rural letter carriers, saved millions of dollars for rural road building purposes in Texas for the years 1951 and 1952, through a vigilant and active program of work carried on while the 1951 state legislature was in session, according to T. H. Eckelkamp of Electra, president of the Wichita county unit.

Legislation was introduced that would have taken from the counties every penny of the road bond assumption money, which is expended by the Commissioners in the counties, and would have discontinued the appropriation provided under the Colson-Briscoe Act, which is used by the state highway department to build farm to market roads. The movement led by the Farm Bureau specifically saved $7,300,000 in road bond assumption money for the State of Texas each year, and $15,000,000 Colson-Briscoe funds.

"Let's see what this means to Wichita county," Eckelkamp said. "We will get $35,420.84 road bond assumption money in 1952 and also in 1953. We will get 7.2 miles of farm to market roads each of these years, built with Colson-Briscoe funds. Conservatively speaking, it costs about $10,000 a mile to build these farm to market roads, and this will mean about $72,258.51 a year that this county will receive from this source.

"If these groups had not fought the battle that saved this road money, it would have been necessary to raise taxes in Wichita county to build the roads, if we had any roads built."

Certain groups have an eye on this road money and another fight will be waged in the next legislature if this money is retained for rural roads, Eckelkamp predicted.

Delbert Todd Trains At Sheppard AFB

Asc Delbert William Todd, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Todd, has finished basic training at Lackland Air Force Base and has been transferred to Sheppard. Delbert was graduated from Iowa Park High School in May and entered the air force in July. He took part in the winter senior play and was one of the managers of the Hawk football team.

Revival Continues Through Sunday

The stewardship revival at the Methodist church has been well attended this week. It started last Sunday and will continue through next Sunday evening.

Dr. Harrison Baker, superintendent of the Dallas district, has done the preaching and Bob McDonald of the Vernon church has led the singing. The visitors have been active in the community as well as at the church, appearing in a chapter program at school, and at the Lions club luncheon.

Rev. Guy Perdue, pastor, urges all members to attend the closing sessions of the revival, and invites the public to participate also.

Yeagan Waterbound At Kerrville

While his family and friends are home slugging it out with an unprecedented drought, and drinking gyp water, Rev. M. C. Yeagan is attending the Synod of Texas of the Presbyterian church at Kerrville. A rainfall between 15 and 20 inches in two days at Brady has swelled the Guadalupe river and Mr. Yeagan is stranded on the MO ranch. If things don't lighten up pretty soon there won't be much Presbyterian preaching in Wichita county next Sunday, because he is accompanied there by the pastors of two Wichita Falls churches, and it is possible there are more from this area attending the synod.

Iowa Park Bank Shows Gain While County Average Falls

Officials of the State National Band of Iowa Park can point with pride at their statement of condition dated September 5, 1952. Our local bank continues its growth at a time when no other bank in Wichita county has that distinction.

While the three banks of Wichita Falls were recording a loss of more than $5,000,000 in three months, the Electra bank was losing about $74,000 in deposits, and the Burk bank was losing almost $200,000 in deposits, the State National attained an upward surge of more than $78,000 in deposits.

"We can't trace any economic causes for this growth in business for Our Town's financial institution - Maybe it's because folks like to do their banking business here!"

★ SCHOOL NEWS

Box seats and reserved seats are being sold this year for the football season by a committee headed by Mrs. M. J. McDonald. The committee will try to see each person who bought such tickets last year and give them first chance to buy tickets for the 1952 season.

There are a few box and reserved seat tickets for sale, so if you wish to buy them, contact Mrs. McDonald. If you bought last year and have not been contacted, call or see Mrs. McDonald.

There are four home games, so season reserve tickets are $4 and box seats $4.80 for each seat or $28.80 for a box for the season.

Since September 17 is Citizenship Day, a program will be given in the school auditorium at 9:00 a.m. that day by members of the American history class and the band. This program is being sponsored by the 23 Study club.

The first chapel program was held Thursday morning in the high school auditorium. Dr. Harrison Baker gave the devotional and Bob McDonald sang several songs. They are conducting a stewardship revival at the Methodist church this week.

Assignment of seats for each class was made by W. D. Jeter, principal. He also read the rules and regulations for the school year. There are more than 200 enrolled in Iowa Park High School.

The state highway patrol will conduct a drivers demonstration for high school students next Tuesday morning at 9:40. The patrolmen will meet students and interested adults in the school auditorium for a short lecture and then will select 6 or 8 students to drive in the demonstration.

The demonstration will be conducted on Cash street directly in front of the school. Three students will be chosen to represent reckless driving, and three for conservative driving.

Everyone is invited to attend the program and observe the demonstration on stopping a car.

The MYF and the Woman's Society of Christian Service honored the young people of the Methodist church who are leaving for college, with an ice cream social on the church lawn Thursday evening, Sept. 4.

Soil Conservation

Plans were made for the W-W Soil Conservation District to sponsor the annual grass judging contest at the Texas-Oklahoma Fair. Approximately $50 in awards will be given to winning teams and individuals. Coaches of teams in this area spent Thursday afternoon collecting grass samples and studying identifying characteristics of the grasses included in this year's contest. Vincent Duval of Midwestern university led in the conference.

The board set the rental rate on the new inter-row legume seeder at 35 cents an acre. Fifty cents an acre is the rate to be charged for use of the fertilizer drills.

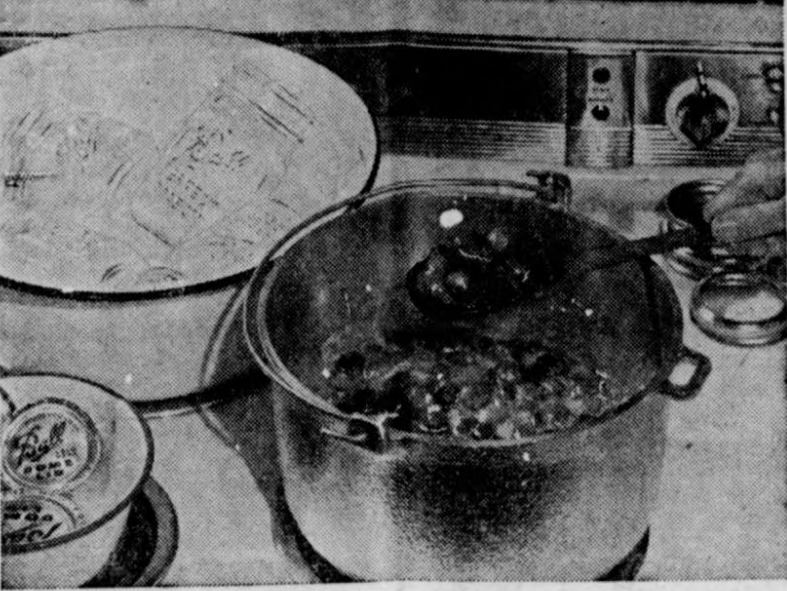

A resolution of sympathy for the family of the late Arthur Ramming was extended by the board. Arthur was chairman of the board of supervisors until his death. It will now be necessary to elect a successor to Mr. Ramming for the subdivision of the district located near Burkburnett. Farmers should begin to consider whom they want to represent them on the board from that area.

One subdivision of the district elects a supervisor each year. This year subdivision 4 located around Electra will choose a supervisor. Jack Walser is the present supervisor. Elections will be under the supervision of Joe Bradley, Wichita county agent.

Attending the meeting were T. J. Pace of Iowa Park, acting chairman, and members G. A. Shivers of Thalia, and A. M. Bourland of Vernon. Elvy Sargent represented the Soil Conservation Service.

The following farmers in the Iowa Park work unit area had conservation plans approved: Albert Brockriede, H. H. Begeman, and Raymond Haynes, all of Electra; J. D. Kirkpatrick and J. E. White of Wichita Falls; Edgar Sibes of Burkburnett; W. T. Miller, K. T. Goetze, Earle L. Denny, George L. Grohn and L. L. Sternadel of Iowa Park.

OLD FASHIONED PRESERVES

A dish of your own home-made strawberry preserves is the surest way in the world to bring a gleam into the eyes of the lucky people who sit down to your table. The story is wonderful from beginning to end—the making of the bubbling sirup filling the kitchen; the sight of the rich red fruit and sirup in Ball Jars on your shelves; and, finally, the serving of the preserves, perhaps with hot, flaky biscuits.

The strawberry season will be upon you before you know it, so have your Ball Mason Jars and Ball Dome Caps ready to use the first day you see strawberries suitable for preserves in your garden or on the market. The season is all too short and you might wake up to find you've waited until too late.

For preserving, strawberries should be of medium size and firm-ripe. Preserves should be cooked in small batches, not more than two or three quarts at a time. A recipe for Old Fashioned Strawberry Preserves from the Ball Blue Book calls for 2 quarts of hulled berries and 7 cups of sugar. Mix berries and sugar and let stand overnight in a cool place. Bring slowly to boiling, then boil rapidly until berries are clear and sirup thick. Skim and pour into hot Ball Jars. Seal while boiling hot with Ball Dome Caps.

In home-canning tomatoes, the utility or regular pack, in which the tomatoes are pressed down tight, is all right for most purposes, but a few whole packed tomatoes come in handy. When chilled and cut in quarters, they add much to tomato aspic and other congealed salads.

Regardless of how you are going to pack tomatoes, use only clean, fresh, sound, firm, red-ripe tomatoes for canning. Every tomato should be washed, rinsed, and drained before scalding. To scald tomatoes without over-cooking, put 6 to 8 in a square of cheesecloth or wire basket and hold in boiling water about one-half minute. Dip in cold water and drain before putting into the jar. (Cut deep enough to get it all.)

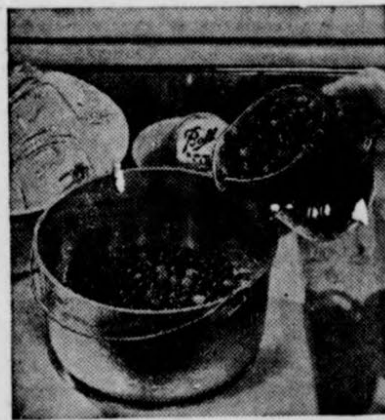

After the core is out, slip off the skin and drop tomato into a hot Ball Mason Jar. If whole tomatoes are wanted, pack them closely without crushing and add hot tomato juice or water to cover. If using utility pack, press the tomatoes down tight until juice runs from them. One teaspoon salt is usually added to each quart of tomatoes, although tomatoes keep as well without salt.

Don't forget to leave almost 1/4 inch of headspace when filling the jar. Run a knife down between the tomatoes and the jar to bring up air bubbles. More liquid may be needed to fill space left when the bubbles are removed from jars of whole packed tomatoes. Don't bother to add more to the utility pack.

Wipe tops and threads of jars clean. Then apply your Ball Dome Caps according to instructions printed on the box. Process tomatoes in a boiling water bath, 35 minutes for whole tomatoes and 45 minutes for a utility pack.

How to Can Cranberry Sauce

1. Examine jars. Tops and edges must be smooth. Get jars, lids and everything else ready. Wash and stem cranberries. Put 4 cups sugar and 4 cups cranberries in large kettle. Boil 5 minutes. Add 2 quarts berries. Boil without stirring until skins of berries burst.

3. Put hot Ball Dome Lid on jar. Screw metal band tight to hold lid firmly against jar. Band must be down evenly all the way around. Use ordinary hand strength. A tightly folded cloth will help to hold the hot jar steady.

2. If jellied sauce is preferred, boil about 3 more minutes. Pour boiling hot sauce into hot Ball Mason Jars. Fill almost to top. A funnel will make filling easier. Wipe off anything spilled on jar. This is open kettle canning, so work fast!

OUTDOORS

WITH Russ Forbis

Each day some new proposal of the Army Engineers or the Reclamation Bureau makes the headlines, and each time such a proposal is advanced it reflects the shortsighted thinking of those two departments.

In 1917 Elephant Butte dam was completed 150 miles south of Albuquerque and immediately there began a silting in at the inlet of the reservoir. Marshes and lakes formed slowing the water and steadily increased the silting process until by 1936 the riverbed had risen 13 feet. San Marcial 20 miles upstream was forced to evacuate its population; land on either side of the river was abandoned due to the waterlogged condition of the soil, and the riverbed at Albuquerque is now four feet higher than some sections of the city.

The Army Engineers and the Reclamation Bureau now propose to alleviate the problem by cutting a ditch through the silted section speeding the flow of water into the Elephant Butte reservoir—all of which means that the silt can now flow in and fill the reservoir at the rate of 23,000 acre feet a year. It might also be pointed out that continuous dredging will be necessary to maintain a clear channel.

All this is typical of the thinking of the two bureaus. While the good farm land washes away into the rivers they wait below with walls of concrete to stem floods which would never have occurred had they begun the flood control project where they should, back on the land where it fell. It seems they prefer to treat the symptoms rather than what causes them.

Oak wilt, for which there is no known cure, is sweeping the Eastern states. Such an epidemic destroyed most of the American chestnut trees some years ago.

Juniors

Welcome, pigeons, to the junior year of this '54 class. It's hard to believe we're juniors, but we are certainly enjoying it.

Our room mothers are Mesdames George Lewis, Jeff Lindley, E. A. Moore, J. A. Sewell and C. H. Adams. Our officers are Mickey Sewell, president; James Williams, vice-president; Beverly Talley, secretary; Sue Geisert, treasurer; and Tena Adams, reporter.

Everyone in the junior class is in some activity band, cheerleading or football. In fact we have quite a few boys playing on the team. We hope you'll be at Monday, Friday night helping us cheer our boys to victory.

Juniors and seniors are mixing pretty well this year. Jimmy and Dale could tell you about that. Claburn and James are still being seen with their majorettes June and Maxine. Jean Paul has another change since last year. Mary Gayle could tell you more than I can.

Monday evening Claburn had Mr. Corbett honk in front of the D. O. James house. We have a new junior, Bossie Newton.

Be at the ball game Friday night, and don't say Hi or Hello, say Beat Monday! —Tubba.

Narrow Town—Broad Outlook

The wife's cousin Ben, and Belle his bride are back from honeymoon in the Rockies. Took them to dinner last night at the Garden Tavern. Ben told about the trip:

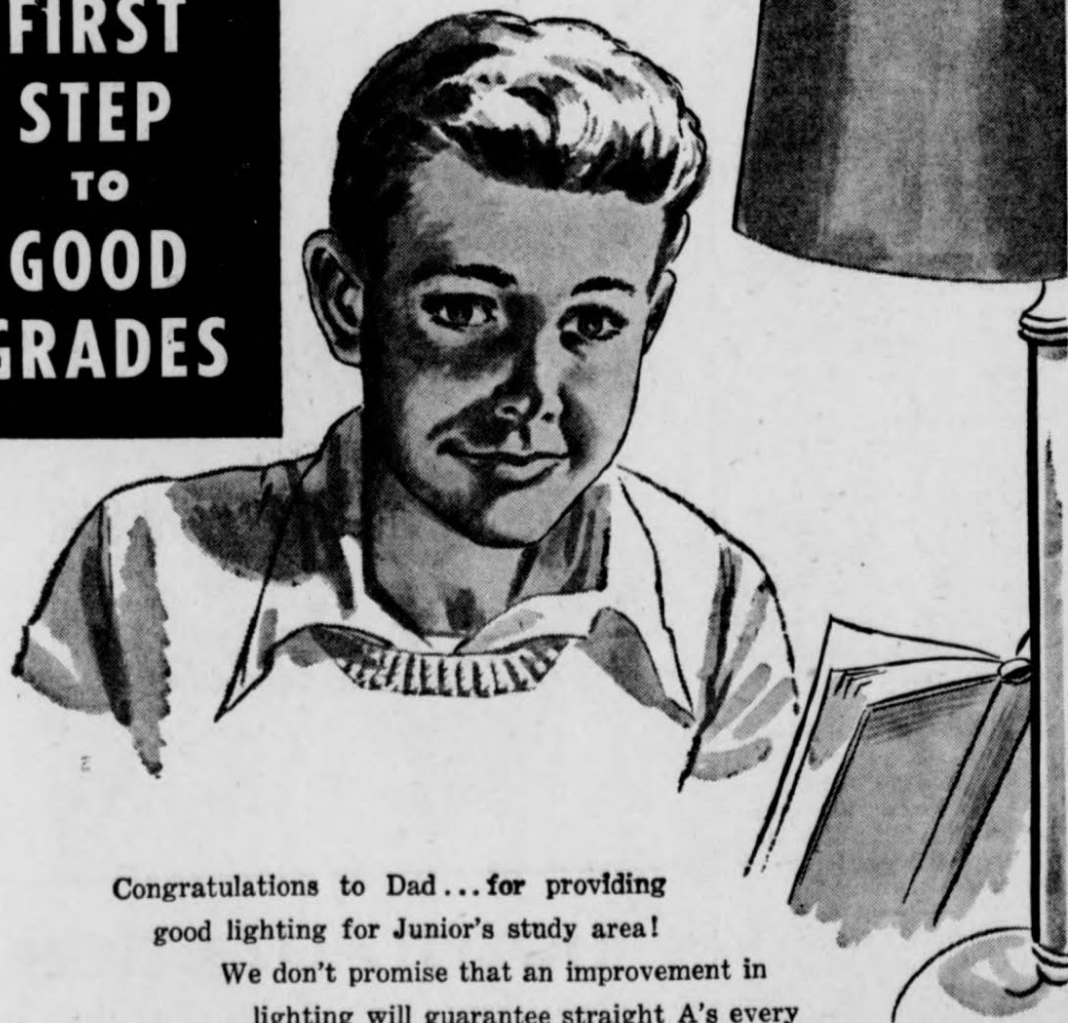

"Went through a town in Idaho that was only 100 feet wide. No kidding! Built into a long, narrow canyon. And it shares those 100 feet with a railroad track that runs right through the hotel!"

"To get gas there we had to park right on the tracks. Suddenly Belle screams—'there's a train coming!' But the gas fellow just laughs and says we were there"

We don't promise that an improvement in lighting will guarantee straight A's every time...but it is true that proper lighting helps Junior get homework done more easily, more thoroughly, and more pleasantly. And especially important, it protects your youngsters from eye fatigue and other eye troubles caused by poor lighting.

Kill Those RATS & MICE

On Monday, October 6, we are going to do something about getting rid of rats all over the county and we need your co-operation.

The Wichita County Farm Bureau is directing this drive with the co-operation of all Chambers of Commerce, 4-H Clubs, Veterans Ag Classes, FFA Boys, Demonstration Clubs and County Agents.

The Warfarin-treated Rat and Mouse Bait will be made available during the campaign at a non-profit price of 25 cents per pound. This poison comes to us through the facilities of the Rodent Control Service of the Texas A & M College System and its preparation is supervised by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. This is an excellent opportunity to get good results in controlling rats because the bait has been specially blended for use in this part of the country. Furthermore, best results are obtained when everyone puts out bait at the same time.

For your convenience the ready-to-use bait will be available at several points over the county.

"Well, we're back at the prison for another nine months of liquidated humdrum," quoth one of my Jr buddies. Of course the Srs don't share the same feelings, because we've waited 11 years to be where we are now, and it is wonderful. When our rings arrive, we'll really feel important.

If you hear anyone quoting anything that sounds like Shakespeare, you'll know they're a Sr. We've been reading "The Tragedy of Macbeth" in English since the first day of school, and it is pretty hard to get off our minds. (If you can ever get it on your mind, that is.)

We have had two class meetings, the first was to elect officers, room mothers, class colors and the like. Our president is Howard Klinkerman; vice-president, Bill Brubaker; secretary, Mary Gayle Park; treasurer, Naomi Baxter; and reporter Ruth Mary Dale. Our room mothers are Mesdames Mundt, Klinkerman, Padgett, Lambert and Goff. Our colors are maroon and gold.

Before the next meeting we found out that Mrs. Owens and Mrs. Welser are to be our teacher sponsors. We all are so glad, because we really had fun with them last year. Tuesday morning we had another meeting in which we talked about the Sr stand and how to run it.

We have such a large class it really won't be too much work for any one person—except Mr. Bradford. We are grateful to him for consenting to work with the Srs again, because his job is something no one else could do so well, we think. All are looking forward to working in our stand, and we're counting on you to eat with us.

We have a football game this week at Munday. It is far over there but the boys are anxious to get into their first game. There are eight Srs playing this year: Howard Klinkerman, Larry Lee, Joe Boren, Buddy Johnson, Bill Brubaker, Clyde Hurt, Jackie Sampson and Lee Roy Weiss. They have been working out since Sept. 1 and I think they've all had "trolley horses" (as Wennie says) since the first workout.

It's a shame French isn't offered here. We have thought of some wonderful uses for it. Maybe the Srs could even go to Paris. (Big Deal.)

If I'm not mistaken Linda Coats got married during the summer.

Jackie and Clyde seem to have fun during 7th period study hall and they make it interesting for the rest of us. If we tire of study, we can always watch them.

Do you count atoms in your sleep and mumble about molecules all night? Do you ask for hydrochloric acid for breakfast? If so, you really are enjoying chemistry. It probably is an enjoyable subject—but who can understand it?

Who is the rat who threw the ink bottle across study hall Monday morning? I heard some poor girl scream, a crash, a thud, and then the bottle was sent back to the other side. More fun!

We had poor Mr. Davis so confused today he said "All right! Turn around and stop that studying!" "Ollie ollie, ollie ollie, very go yuck go"—my Jr interpreter tells me this is African for "so long."

P.T.A. NOTES:

Mom and Pop are going to school. They may not be fully aware of it, but they will rise and shine with their children. There'll be none of this: "It's up to the teacher," and forget about the school.

Of course the parents won't go through the same routine as the children, but they will go along mentally with both child and teacher. Today parents and teachers are becoming aware of the need for a close relation between school and home.

With this in mind let us fall in line with the first step of our new formula, a successful school and PTA year, by being present at a special PTA meeting Wednesday, Sept. 17 at 3:00 p.m. in the high school.
