Mrs. Mills Elected District President

Epsilon Sigma Alpha held the District VI meeting in Iowa Park school cafeteria Sunday, with Epsilon Eta chapter of Iowa Park as hostess.

Decorative theme was "April Showers" and small paper umbrellas were used to decorate the lunch tables. A large bouquet of daisies with umbrellas in it was on the speakers table. This arrangement was a gift of Berry's Drug. Favors at the plates were ball point pens, gifts of Park Pharmacy.

After a delicious lunch at 12:30, Mrs. Helen Roberts, local president, introduced Mrs. Homer Blacklock, who presented an interesting program concerning the "Tater family."

Mrs. Imelda Roberts of Abilene, district president, conducted the business session. Roll call was answered by 61 girls representing 7 chapters, and three guests were introduced.

Report on the Iowa Park project — a personal shower for a student nurse the chapter is sponsoring — was given. A total of $15 and many personal gifts were received.

Judging of scrapbooks and yearbooks brought by the different chapters was reported. Ribbons were awarded. Iowa Park won 2nd on scrapbook and 1st on yearbook. Miss Raydean Brown of Iowa Park was voted outstanding ESA girl of the district and will represent District VI at the state convention in May.

District officers elected were: Mildred Mills of Iowa Park, president.

Wilson Files for District Attorney

A native of Wichita Falls and a practicing attorney since 1950, L. T. (Tolly) Wilson has announced he will seek the Democratic nomination for District Attorney in the primary, July 28.

Wilson said: "I pledge that, if elected, I will devote my full time to the honest, impartial and vigorous enforcement of all matters which come within the jurisdiction of the District Attorney's office."

"I further pledge to extend the fullest co-operation of the District Attorney's office to the sheriff's office and police departments, as well as with the grand juries in their investigations of criminal matters in Wichita county."

Tolly is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilson of 2706 Tenth, Wichita Falls. Since 1950 he has been associated with his father in Wilson and Wilson, Wichita Falls law firm in the general practice of law. His father has been a practicing attorney 40 years. This is Wilson's first try for public office.

Wilson attended elementary and high schools in Wichita Falls. He graduated in 1941 and attended Hardin junior college one year.

He then entered the University of Texas at Austin. His college career was interrupted by three years' service in the army during World War II. He served in the 76th Infantry division, including 9 months overseas in the European Theater of Operations. He was in the Battle of the Bulge, the Battle of the Rhineland and the Battle of Central Germany.

Wilson is a member of the First Methodist church of Wichita Falls, the Blackstone Bar, the Wichita County Bar association, the State Bar of Texas, and the American Bar association.

He and his wife, the former Miss Joyce Morrison of Olney, reside at 1532 Malcolm Lane. They have one daughter, Laura Lee, 2. Mrs. Wilson's mother is Mrs. Laura Morrison of Wichita Falls.

Tolly returned to the University of Texas after military service, received a B.B.A. in 1949 and LL.B. in 1950. He is 32 years old.

Wilson has been active in Democratic politics several years.

Revival Planned at Faith Baptist

Revival services will begin April 15 at Faith Baptist church. Victor Nichols, pastor, and Lawrence Trustee, layman, of Westside Baptist church in Wichita Falls, are the visiting preacher and singer.

They will be here for both services Sunday. Week day services will begin at 9:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Cottage prayer meetings have been held this past week in the following homes: Orvil Deary, Joe Baxter, Fred Parkey, Jim Miller, Billy Joe Dickerson and Joe Price.

Response to the One Square Foot campaign for raising money for the third unit of the educational building has been good. George Shropshire reports. A $5 contribution will pay for a square foot of this new unit. It is hoped that all of the $5,400 needed to pay for this unit will be in and the unit completed by June 30.

Plans for Vacation Bible School are progressing rapidly. Mrs. Fred Hays, principal, has announced the school will begin Monday, June 4, and run for two weeks, ending on June 15.

Brotherhood under direction of Virgil Hill and Elmer Watts are making equipment for the nursery in the new educational building. The men have just finished the inside painting of the second unit.

Mr. Hill reports that 24 men and 10 RA boys attended Brotherhood meeting Monday night.

Recognize These Designs?

The roof line is often the clue to the architecture of a house. The "early English" house has an extremely steep-sloped roof. The eaves drop very low, often below the level of the first floor ceiling. The roof may have a number of small, sharply peaked gables.

The "contemporary" design has either a flat roof or a shed roof. The true "ranch house" will have a rambling, low-slope roof.

The "Cape Cod" has a steeply sloped roof, though not nearly so steep as the early English design. Sometimes the Cape Cod will have single-window dormers.

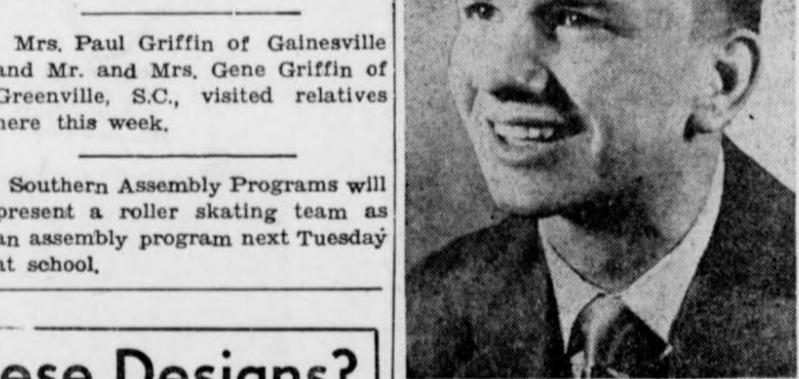

The most frequently seen "split level" has two roof levels, reflecting the two main living levels in the house. The roof levels, like the living levels, are less than a full story apart.

The "southern colonial" has a fairly steep roof. It also has a flat front porch, supported by stately columns.

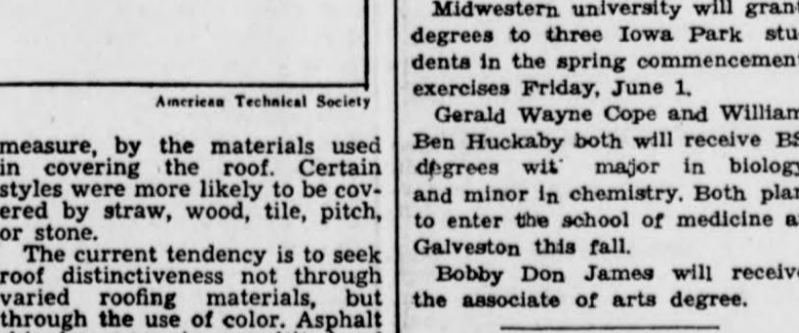

Years ago, it was possible to distinguish a house style, in some measure, by the materials used in covering the roof. Certain styles were more likely to be covered by straw, wood, tile, pitch, or stone.

The current tendency is to seek roof distinctiveness not through varied roofing materials, but through the use of color. Asphalt shingles come in a multitude of colors, suitable for any special preference. The darker colors of roofing generally are preferred for tall houses, the lighter colors for low, rambling dwellings. Early English houses, with a multiplicity of roof surfaces, usually respond best to the more subdued shades. Southern colonial houses also call for the darker colors, which help maintain the traditional aspect of statelyness.

A virtue of the lighter colors for one-story contemporary and ranch homes is that they attract attention, drawing the eye of the observer upward. The act of looking up gives the illusion of greater height and enhances the importance of the house.

Water Problem Affects All

By J. E. Sturrock
Texas Water Conservation Ass'n
Record lows in Texas streams, rains that didn't fall, steadily declining water storage in reservoirs, both underground and surface, cast a gloomy shadow over the state as spring moves toward summer.

In March the statewide average of rainfall was less than a fourth of normal. In the first ten days of April ominous clouds of toposoil swirled and drifted across Texas. Even the Neches river in East Texas flowed only 21 per cent of normal. In varying degrees it's the same from Amarillo to Brownsville, from Texarkana to El Paso. The streams are dry, or trickling toward dryness.

Underground storage is dropping at a crucial pace. Barton Springs at Austin had the lowest flow in 62 years of measurement during the month of March. Conal Springs at New Braunfels yielded less than a fourth of the average flow produced over the past 28 years, dropping sharply below its February measurement.

Water levels in observation wells throughout the state continued to drop. Texans cannot afford to ignore these warnings. Every gallon of wasted water is taking its toll. Conservation and productive use of water must be the prime concern of every citizen, or everyone is going to suffer.
True, it is a problem for government officials, for state agencies, for cities, villages, industry, agriculture. But even more surely it is a problem for every individual who washes a car, waters a lawn, takes a bath or installs an air-conditioner.
A city reservoir is reassuring just so long as it holds water. A well is only as good as the underground source supplying it.
The picture isn't pretty...but every Texan needs to study it... carefully.

Evening Lions had as guest speaker Tuesday, Bill McBride of the statewide Lions club camp for crippled children near Kerrville. He spoke on "What Lionism Means — We Serve."
The camp was opened in 1953 with 240 handicapped children enjoying the out of door activities. Last summer 603 enjoyed a stay at the camp. About 750 are expected this year.
There are 75 trained personnel in the camp. Each Lions club in Texas contributes to the camp and has the privilege of sending handicapped children for two weeks of camping. It does not cost the child anything for his stay there. The sponsoring club is responsible for transportation to and from camp.
Slate of officers for next year was read and the election will follow later. They included:
James Stewart, president.
George Trammell, vice-president.
Virgil Woodfin, 2nd vice-pres.
Bill Lane, 3rd vice-president.
Bill Christian, secretary.
James Todd, treasurer.
R. E. Waters, tall twister.
Wayne House, Lion tamer.
Otis Gay, Floyd Browning, Arch Hughes, Luther Skinner, directors.
Lions club pins were given to members and an honorary member pin was presented to Mrs. Hazel George.
A directors meeting will be held Friday, May 11 at the home of Otis Gay.
A candy sale is being planned to raise funds to send two girls to the summer Camp Fire girls camp. Arch Hughes and Jimmy Stewart offered their cars for transportation of the girls to Camp Letoil.

Mrs. Daniel Boone Muenster, secretary of the Wichita County Cancer Society, was guest speaker at Lions club Tuesday noon. Mrs. E. E. Johnson, assistant secretary, helped Mrs. Muenster in showing a cancer film to the men. A question and answer followed.
Al Reed reported the progress made on the campaign of Lester E. Brooks, candidate for district governor. Plans are being made to attend the district convention in full force in May.
Past District Governor Curtis Cryer of Borger spoke on "Why I Love Lionism."
Guests from Wichita Falls were Woody Featherston, Weldon Bailey, W. O. Kimmell, Pop Work.

Thurbers Observe 50th Anniversary

Friends called at the C. J. Thurber home on West Aldine, Sunday afternoon, April 8, when Mr. and Mrs. Thurber celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. They were honored with dinner and a reception by their children and grandchildren: Mrs. Marjorie Whitkers of Mineral Wells, Mrs. Jeraldine Massey of Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Freeman of Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Bing Ingram of Mineral Wells, Mr. and Mrs. George Thurber of Odessa.

Grandchildren present were: Stephanie Whitkers of Mineral Wells, Suzanne Freeman, Sheila and Gerald Massey, all of Wichita Falls, Mickey and Phyllis Thurber of Odessa.

The family attended services at the Methodist church Sunday morning. At noon they had a family dinner in Wichita Falls. Decorations for the openhouse included arrangements of yellow candles and yellow renunculus.

The refreshment table was laid with white over yellow and held an arrangement of a rainbow, gossamers, and pots of gold with "50 years" in gold in the center.

The yellow and white cake was in the form of an open Bible. Mr. and Mrs. Thurber were married in Fredonia, N.Y. They were both natives of Grand Valley, Penn.

They moved to Indiana and later moved to Indian Territory, now Oklahoma. In 1917 the family came to Iowa Park where Mr. Thurber is employed with the FW & D railroad.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Thurber lived in Henrietta for 14 years, moving back here four years ago. He is now depot agent for the railroad.

The couple attend the Methodist church, where she is active in local and district work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Birkman-Storm

Miss Evalyn Frances Birkman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Birkman of Iowa Park, became the bride of Robert Carl Storm in a ceremony read by Rev. H. R. Frerking of St. Paul Lutheran church of Wichita Falls, Saturday evening in Trinity Lutheran church of the Clara community.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Storm of Lincoln, Nebr., are parents of the bridegroom. E. C. Gutz, organist, and J. B. Featherston, vocalist, both of Wichita Falls, provided music.

Lee Roy Weiss of Sherman was the best man. Ushers were Sal Panico and Rufus Wilson of Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Lee Roy Weiss was matron of honor for her sister. Her dress was of deep pink taffeta with fitted bodice and full skirt. She carried a cascade bouquet of white daisies.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of eggshell tulle and lace. The fitted bodice held a bouffant skirt accented by lace inserts. The veil of French illusion was gathered to a lace crown sprinkled with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and feathered carnations atop a white Bible.

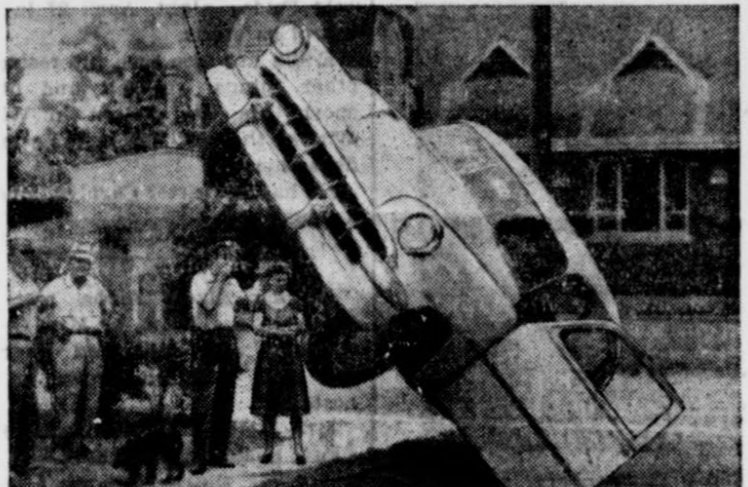

The bridal party stood before an archway of greenery flanked by large baskets of white majestic daisies and illuminated by tapers in Swedish steel candelabra. A reception was held in the parlor of the church. Members of the house party were Misses Caroline Egenbacher, Mary Nunn, Vesta Smith, Marilyn Birnbaum; Misses Edith Manfolk, Helen Truitt, Irma Kiesling, Clara Klinkerman, B. A. Dorland.

The bride is an IPHS graduate and also of Wichita General hospital school of nursing. She was employed at the hospital. The couple left this week for Lincoln, Nebr., where they will establish residence.

The groom was in the air force. The couple left this week for Lincoln, Nebr., where they will establish residence.

Getting Up In The World

IT WAS A WOMAN DRIVER! Kennett, Mo., policeman holds chin in disbelief as Mrs. Harrison Clay, Flint, Mich., explains how she drove car up guy wire where it hung at this precarious angle. Damage to car—bent hub cap.

STILTED CONVERSATION—These two carnival performers make sure they have no "eavesdroppers" while relating some tall tales on a London street corner. The occasion was a festival in Soho, a famed quarter of London. (World Wide Photos)

EASTER LILY BERMUDA STYLE—Susan Selley, 19-month pretty youngster looks up to this giant Easter Lily. Susan would have to travel up 6 ft., 7 in., to reach the top of this stalk which grew wild in sunny Bermuda.

HEAVY ALTIITUDE PUSH—These two operators of International TD-24, 200 hp, 20-ton bulldozers, seem to be trying to out-punch each other. Actually, they are helping to build a road on top of a mountain for the U. S. Marine Corps near Camp Pendleton. Over 65% of the 320,000 cu. yds. of material being moved is rock, but it is child's play to these two giants.

Shower Given for Bride-elect

The Harrel Sullivan home on West Washington was scene of a bridal shower honoring Miss Essie Caldwell, bride-elect of Roy Johnson, Friday evening, April 6.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Sullivan were Misses Orange Lester, Lloyd Waldroup, B. L. Bradford, L. L. Smith, Charlie Brown, Gilbert Steele, A. O. Beall, W. B. Shook, George Lofland, Leon Odum, Homer Mulkey, T. J. Pace, M. J. McDonald, Herman Mahler; Misses Shirley Lowrey and Raydean Brown.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Pace and Mrs. Steele secured signatures for the bridesbook. Alternating at the refreshment table were Misses Odum, Waldroup and Lester; and Misses Brown and Lowrey.

The other hostesses assisted with the gift display. The honoree was presented a yellow renunculus shoulder corsage and the mothers, Mrs. K. P. Caldwell and Mrs. Nell Johnson, were given white carnation corsages by the hostess group.

Guests called between 7:30 and 9:00 p.m.

Mrs. O. R. Owens, Mrs. Ed Watson, R. E. Waters and Floyd White were in Wichita General hospital this week. Floyd was dismissed Wednesday.

Camp Fire

Wednesday morning, Miss Jordan met with the Blue Bird and Camp Fire girls leaders association. Women attending were Mmes. Hadley, Roach, Scott, Keeter, Bean and McMullen.

Discussion centered on the coming Fly Up. The Lions have voted to furnish a birthday cake to be served after the Fly Up. Leaders are inviting everybody to attend this service on Sunday, April 15, at the Methodist church from 3:30 to 5:00 p.m.

Second and third grade Blue Bird leaders will take care of the tea, with Mrs. Lowrey in charge.

Plans were made to hold Day Camp this year at Harrell Park in Wichita Falls. Dates will be June 25-28, with Camp Fire girls staying overnight and returning on the 29th.

We plan to have swimming as part of the program. Camp registration will be the last of May. Fees this year will be $1.50 for Blue Birds and $1.75 for Camp Fire. All girls will get a notice and more information the last of May.

We will need adult helpers if we are to have a successful Day Camp. If you can or would like to help, whether or not you have a girl in Camp Fire, please get in touch with Mrs. Hadley.

After the meeting, all of the leaders held a cook out. It was enjoyed by all.

Baptist News

Nine Mary Ruth Carney circle members met at the home of Mrs. Floyd Browning Tuesday morning for mission study.

Mrs. E. E. Voyles, community missions chairman, reported that during March lunch was served to a bereaved family, a purse was sent to a small girl in Round Rock Children's Home as an Easter remembrance, and patterns, material and trim for three girls' dresses were purchased. Other activities included serving refreshments to all Sunbeam Bands and presentation of the monthly WMU program.

Study of a new mission book entitled "The Tribes Go Up" was led by Mrs. Malcolm Mills. Since a mission field of some 93,000 Indian Americans lies only across Red river, all were made aware of the fact that many opportunities for Christian service at home are yet untouched. B. Frank Bevin, the author, opens many interesting realms of Indian culture to his readers.

Refreshments of cherry tarts, coffee and soft drinks were served to those mentioned and Mmes. Joe Johnson, W. D. Watson, Ray Watson, Perry Blaylock, Noah Guthrie Jr. and Leslie Clapp.

HAPPY BLUE BIRDS

Wednesday after school Diane Watson treated the Happy Blue Birds to snowcones. The girls met with Mrs. Scott's Camp Fire girls and Mrs. Roach's Blue Birds at the Christian church to practice on their coming Fly Up. It was discovered that church would be too small for the girls and their families, so the Fly Up will be held at the Methodist church Sunday from 3:30 to 5:00.

Girls attending the practice were Beverly Birk, Judy Callaway, Sally Garrison, Karen Keeter, Barbara Hadley, Mary Helen Wallis, Donna Stockton, Barbara Thompson, Nancy McMullen and Diane. Leaders were Mmes. Keeter, Wallis, McMullen, Hadley.

Lone Star Gas company added 42,600 new customers to its lines in 1955.

Camping Gear Used in Home During Storm

A "weather emergency kit" for the home is being adopted by many families. They find it worthwhile to keep on hand equipment and supplies to make living as comfortable as possible during a flood or when a hurricane or other severe storm blows power lines down.

Emergency lighting is the first need. One or more Coleman lanterns, preferably at least two, are recommended. These are available to burn different fuels—white gasoline, a canned gas, or kerosene. A flashlight is desirable as supplementary lighting.

Cooking equipment is necessary if the kitchen range is electric. A gasoline-pressure stove of the Coleman type performs like a kitchen range and is as safe and as simple to operate.

At the first sign of a severe storm, the bath tub and several other large containers should be filled with water if the regular water supply depends upon an electric pump. An emergency supply of canned food is recommended. Food that requires little water or none in cooking is best.

A refrigerator will stay cold for several hours if the door is opened only when absolutely necessary. If the power stays off longer and if ice is available, use a portable picnic cooler as an indoor icebox. A refrigerator will serve as an icebox, too. Put ice in it in pans.

An additional reason to own lanterns, a gasoline-pressure stove, and a picnic cooler is that they needn't be reserved for emergencies alone. There's no reason not to take them on picnics, vacations, and other outings if they are promptly brought back to the house and if a supply of fuel is kept for emergency use.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Huckaby and Mrs. Carroll Duke visited Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brune and daughters in Alice recently.

Eddie Whittenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Whittenberg, won 1st place last Saturday in the second annual tractor driving contest sponsored by the Wilbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District, T. J. McGill, supervisor in charge of the contest, announced.

Represented in the contest were FFA and 4-H clubs from Wichita, Clay, Wilbarger, Foard and Harde-man counties.

Eddie started in FFA in 1951 as a high school freshman. He served as vice-president of the Green-hand club that year.

He was a member of the farm demonstration team from Iowa Park that won district and area and went to state.

As a sophomore, Whittenberg was FFA reporter. He was on the dairy judging team that won 2nd in district, 4th in area, and went to state. He received the chapter award and farm safety.

As a junior, Eddie was secretary of the local FFA chapter. He was a member of the livestock judging team, chapter conducting team, and received the City National Bank achievement award and won a trip to Kansas City, Mo.

He was selected as Lone Star Farmer and was given a trip to Houston to the state convention. Eddie won the Wichita County Farm Bureau award that year and was selected the Star Farmer in Iowa Park chapter.

Eddie is a senior and plans to enter college this fall, majoring in agriculture. He will be speaker for the annual FFA banquet to be held Friday night, April 27 in the school cafeteria.

Eddie has also been interested in other things: football and other sports. He was chosen in Who's Who as the best boy in the science department.

He has one sister Carolyn, who is a sophomore.

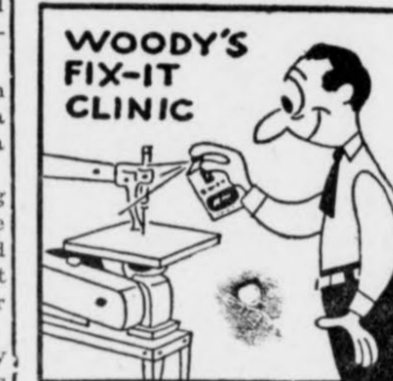

Epsilon Sigma Alpha met recently in the home of Mrs. C. W. Coppock with Mrs. Ted Overbey and Miss Raydean Brown as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Rollin Roberts conducted a short business session, when officers for the coming year were nominated.

The social hour was highlighted by a surprise kitchen shower honoring Miss Essie Caldwell, bride-elect of Roy Johnson. Appropriate games were enjoyed.

Mrs. John Mixon Jr. provided several organ numbers.

Refreshments were served to 29 members and the sponsor, Mrs. Coppock.

A light film of lubricating oil will protect power and hand tools against rust during the warm weather months when the lure of the outdoors may keep you out of the workshop. A rust-preventive household lubricating oil now comes in a pressurized container that makes it easy to spray an even film of the oil over metal surfaces.

To prevent rot from developing in a crack in a porch column or other outdoors woodwork, fill the crack with Plastic Wood, a little more than full. If crack is wide, build in from the sides with layers of the Plastic Wood, allowing each to dry before the next is applied. Sand flush and smooth after 24 hours. Touch up with paint to match. (ANS)
