Yarborough Files For Governor

Ralph W. Yarborough of Austin, pledging to "build a structure of morality" in state government, has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for governor of Texas.

Yarborough announced a platform "of progress including water conservation, drought relief, higher old age pensions, improved schools with adequate teacher pay and adequate retirement pay, adequate retirement pay, adequate classroom space, a youth development program, a juvenile delinquency program" based on "broad general humanitarian principles." He said he would take his campaign in person "to the people in every corner of this great commonwealth."

Yarborough made his announcement simply, to the press, in contrast to the statewide radio and television broadcasts of other gubernatorial candidates.

"Humbly I accept," Yarborough said, "the commission of duty you have given me in tens of thousands of messages . . . to lead the fight for the good name of Texas."

"The people of Texas want a new state government, free of entangling alliances and partnerships with the outgoing administration.
Texas wants a state government free of the policies of the past and capable of independent action."

Yarborough added: "I pledge the people of Texas the restoration of honor, integrity and dignity in their state government."

"To every one of the 683,132
Texans who voted and worked with us in the hard campaign of 1954, I extend my thanks and gratitude. I urge each of you, and all Texans who believe in the triumph of honesty and morality, to join us in this crusade for a new administration in Texas."

of Odessa visited her mother Mrs.
S. L. Denny and other relatives here last weekend.

Insurance Rates On Cars Drop

Residents of the smaller cities and towns and rural areas, as well as farmers and ranchers, grabbed a larger slice of the automobile rate reductions announced this week by the Board of Insurance Commissioners than did their city cousins, Morris Brownlee of Houston, a member of the board, said.

The new rates estimated to save Texas drivers a grand total of 9,500,000 will apply to policies effective on and after May 1st.

Attention was called to the fact that reduced insurance losses had made possible reductions totaling $21,000,000 in automobile rates in the past two years, and Commissioner Brownlee commented that the reductions announced this week indicated that rural drivers contributed greatly toward making these reductions possible.

All residents of 246 of the 254 counties, excluding 11 larger cities (Arlene, Amarillo, Austin, Denison, Laredo, Lubbock, San Angelo, Sherman, Texarkana, Waco and Wichita Falls) will secure the following reductions:

Private passenger car collision rates 9.8 percent; private passenger bodily injury and property damage 6.4 percent; classes 3, 4 and 5 commercial vehicles bodily injury and property damage 2 percent; farm and ranch vehicles with a registered gross weight not exceeding 6,000 pounds bodily injury and property damage 10 percent; class 6 commercial bodily injury and property damage 4 percent.

The 11 cities previously named, along with the counties of Harris, Galveston, Jefferson, Nueces, Bexar, El Paso, Dallas and Tarrant will secure generally lesser reductions and some increases, particularly in Harris County, where automobile liability increases will range from 1.2 percent to 25 percent.

The comprehensive coverage which covers any damage to an automobile except damage as a result of collision or upset) will be reduced 9 percent for the counties in the central portion of the state and 4 percent for the southern part of the state. However, the Panhandle and counties in the northwestern section of the state will face a 25 percent increase in this coverage, due primarily to windstorm and hail losses prevalent in that area.

Commissioner Brownlee called attention to the fact that the reductions prescribed for the rural areas were in addition to the 20 percent discount already applicable to bodily injury and property damages and collision coverages on private passenger automobiles owned by farmers and ranchers and the 25 percent discount allowed for farm and ranch commercial vehicles with a registered gross weight not exceeding 6,000 pounds.

Fire and theft and collision rates on commercial vehicles operating within a 50 mile radius of the place of principal garaging were reduced 20.1 percent and 12.8 percent respectively; fire and theft rates for commercial vehicles operating regularly or frequently beyond a 150 mile radius of the place of principal garaging were reduced 11.5 percent and the collision coverages for such vehicles were increased 2.3 percent. These changes apply in all sections of the state.

Commissioner Brownlee pointed out that the private passenger changes applied to all classes of drivers and that the 10 percent discount allowed for male and female drivers under 25 years of age who complete the driver education course approved by the State Department of Education was continued without change. He said that statistics were not yet available to indicate whether this discount should be higher or lower.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Denny had as guests last week her mother Mrs. Sue Mitchell of Amarillo, and their daughter and granddaughter Mrs. Aubrey Kelso and Melinda of Perryton. Mr. and Mrs. Denny accompanied Mrs. Kelso and Melinda home Sunday and returned to Iowa Park, Monday.

Car Fire Victim Is Buried Here

Funeral services were conducted for Richey D. Bonds, 19, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in the church of Christ, with Leon Odum, minister, officiating. Burial was in Highland cemetery under direction of Tanner Funeral Home.

Palbearers were L. A. Sims, Norman Lee, James Cates, Douglas James, Buck Voyles, Bob McManus.

Rickey died early Tuesday in the Sheppard AFB hospital from burns suffered in an automobile fire late Saturday night in Wichita Falls. He had received second and third degree burns over most of his face and body when the 1941 Plymouth car was destroyed by fire. When found Bonds was sitting upright in the rear seat.

Rickey had received his discharge from the army at Ft. Ord, Calif., last Thursday and had returned to Wichita Falls, Saturday afternoon only a few hours before he was found in the burning car. Officers are investigating the cause of fire and why he was in the back seat.

Rickey attended school here in 1953 and entered the army March 29, 1954.

Born in Hugo, Okla., July 15, 1937, he is survived by his mother, Mrs. Fannie Mae Bonds; a brother, Berry O. Bonds; three sisters Mrs. Irene Carter, Mrs. Zelma Bryan and all of Wichita Falls, and Mrs. Henry O'Brien of Iowa Park.

McKinney Clan Holds Reunion

Descendants of W. T. and Henrietta McKinney held their 3rd annual family reunion at the Valley Farms Community House last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinney were pioneers of this area and were known to many as Grandpa and Grandma McKinney. While living they were faithful to their church and their community.

Saturday evening a picnic supper was enjoyed. After a delightful breakfast most of the group attended churches of this area. At noon they reassembled at the Community House for dinner served by a caterer.

Among those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McKinney of Iowa Park; Mr. and Mrs. S. E. McKinney of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. N. E. McKinney of Abilene; Mrs. C. L. McKinney and Milton of Pampa.

Mrs. Helen Vick of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney McKinney, Mack and Don of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Herman McKinney and Dawn of Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Frost, Debra and Sandra of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Husted, Roy Allan, Cynthia and Terri of Webb City, Okla.; Mrs. Mona Estes and Barbara of Wichita Falls; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Simpson, Sammy and Jimmy of Wichita Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Jefferies, Cathery and Carolyn of Wichita Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simpson of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Williams, Rhonda Gayle and Larry Dale of Wichita Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Williams of Iowa Park.

Messrs. and Mmes. R. A. Williams, W. A. Scott, Geo. A. Lewis, Oral Williams and Glen and Lena Darlene and Diane, Glenn Scott and Stevie, all of Iowa Park; and Joyce Stephenson and Joan Calloway of Iowa Park.

Bob Birk received his discharge from the army at Camp Chaffee, Ark., Thursday, March 29 and has returned to Iowa Park. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Birk and a graduate of Iowa Park and Austin college, Sherman.

Dan Clark, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Clark of Valley Farms received serious chest injuries Monday morning when a swing broke and fell on him. He is receiving treatment at Wichita General hospital.

INDEPENDENTS TO OPEN SEASON HERE SUNDAY; WILL FACE HAWKS

The crack of bats and thud of ball in gloves will be heard in Iowa Park again Sunday afternoon when the Independents pry the lid off the 1956 season at 2:30.

Competition will be the high school team, which goes into district play later in the week in a game at Electra.

Fans of both clubs are invited to show up for the game.

Health Men Tell of 'Fall-Out'

AUSTIN, April 5—Ever heard of the expression "fall out" in connection with this atomic age? Ever wondered what it's all about? State Health Department radiation experts say fall out is nothing more than particles of matter in the air, made radioactive by nuclear or thermonuclear explosions. When an atomic or hydrogen bomb is exploded close to the ground, thousands of tons of atomized earth, building materials, rocks and gases are sucked upward — like soda being sucked through a straw. Sometimes they reach a height of 80,000 feet—15 miles or more—helping to form the awesome cloud always seen after one of these explosions.

Larger radioactive particles spill out over the immediate area of the explosion soon after it occurs, but others—the lighter particles—may be wafted about by the upper breezes for hundreds of miles. Sooner or later they settle to earth. This is fall out.

Many people think radioactivity is something new, a product of modern life like the Bikini bathing suit. That isn't true. Radiation experts say the whole world is radioactive, but normal amounts are not dangerous. It is only when radioactivity is present in highly concentrated amounts that it becomes dangerous.

Radioactivity is sometimes highly concentrated in fall out, say the experts. It can settle anywhere. You can't see, hear, taste, smell or feel it. Yet, if you're exposed to it long enough it can be lethal.

Fortunately though, there are various mechanical devices available which are capable of detecting incredibly small amounts of radioactivity. Some are so sensitive a tiny bit of luminous paint on the face of a wrist watch will cause the indicator needle to jump clear off scale.

Teaching the proper use of these instruments to people in cities and towns and industries throughout the state is now a major function of the State Health Department's industrial hygiene section. The reason: so they'll be ready in case of industrial accidents. Or in case of "fall out."

Serious radioactivity contamination may extend 200 miles downwind from the point of a bomb explosion, and vary in width up to 40 miles. That's an area as large as from Fort Worth to San Marcos, taking in everything in 20 miles on either side of the line—Waco, Temple, Taylor, Lampasas . . .

Living a small, non-target town is no longer insurance against the distress of bomb blast radioactivity. So what do we do about fall out?

The Federal Civil Defense Administration says being inside an ordinary house will cut radiation danger in half. An underground shelter will give almost complete protection.

It's The Law In Texas

HOMESTEAD MAY BE SOLD FOR TAXES

Many Texans have the mistaken impression that their homestead cannot be seized and sold for delinquent taxes. In many cases, this idea has led to considerable grief and monetary loss which could have been avoided. A homestead should be rendered to tax assessors like any other property, and taxes assessed against it should be paid as faithfully as those on any other taxable property.

In a previous column, it was indicated that the deadline for rendered property for taxation is April 1, so far as most city taxing agencies are concerned. The last date for rendering real and personal property for state and county taxes is April 30. State taxes are collected by the County Tax Collector.

Under the Texas Constitution, each family is entitled to claim one piece of real property as their homestead. This claim must be established by an affidavit filed with the county tax assessor on or before April 30, each and every year. This affidavit must be filed by the owner himself. A lending agency cannot do so, even though it may actually pay the annual taxes thereon from a fund created by the owner's monthly installments.

When the homestead affidavit is properly filed, the owner becomes entitled to an exemption of State taxes up to the value of $3,000, or 200 acres in the case of farm lands. This is an exemption from PAYMENT, not a complete exemption from rendition and assessment. There is no similar exemption with reference to county or city taxes.

The homestead claimed for tax purposes need not be the property which is actually occupied by the owner as his residence.

When the homestead affidavit is not filed by April 30, the taxpayer loses his right to the $3,000 or 200-acre exemption, and consequently becomes liable for more taxes than he would otherwise be required to pay.

Property taxes are assessed against the person who is the record owner of each piece of real and personal property on the first day of January of each year. Individuals purchasing property during the year should make sure that the taxes for all previous years have been paid. Otherwise, the purchaser may be forced to pay hundreds of dollars in delinquent taxes to protect his property. Unpaid taxes create a lien against the property which can be enforced regardless of change of ownership.

One also should keep in mind to make some agreement for the previous owner to pay his pro-rata share of taxes for the current year. Otherwise, the buyer may find it necessary to pay the entire taxes for that year.

When taxes are not paid by the deadline prescribed for the particular taxing unit (city, county, State, or district), monetary penalties and interest are added from month to month. In addition, the property becomes subject to seizure and sale to satisfy the tax lien. This lien applies to all property, whether homestead or not.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts because the facts may change the application of the law).

CARD OF THANKS

I sincerely appreciate the consideration I received Tuesday from the voters of Iowa Park, and pledge to give all citizens the best service, as city secretary, I can. If at any time you have any suggestions to improve the city's service to the citizens, they will be graciously received.

Soil Conservation

Stubble mulching is receiving increased interest among Wilbarger-Wichita SCD Cooperators, according to Fenton Dale, Chairman of the board of supervisors.

Stubble mulching is defined as a farming method in which all of the tillage, planting, cultivating and harvesting operations are performed in such a manner and with such equipment as will keep most of the crop residues on the surface of the soil. Stubble mulching is a year around system of maintaining a stubble mulch on the surface to aid in the control of wind and water erosion, prevent surface blowing, soil sealing, improve water intake, reduce surface evaporation, and help maintain organic content in the soil. This definition is from the Texas Section of the National Catalogue of Conservation Practices of the Soil Conservation Service.

The Amarillo Conservation Experiment Station has found that sweep type implements do the best job of stubble mulching. Plows designed for stubble mulching should meet these requirements: First, be capable of operating at fixed depths; second, have adequate strength for penetration and operation under difficult conditions; third, be equipped with rolling coulters to cut residues and weeds ahead of sweeps to prevent clogging; fourth, effectively cultivate the soil to kill weeds and volunteer crops.

Effective stubble mulching will leave maximum residues on the surface with as many cultivations as necessary to kill weeds and prepare suitable seedbed.

We Give S & H Green Stamps

MY TRIP, by Johnny Christian

Last Wednesday morning Mrs. Roby's 3rd grade class went on a trip. We went to the post office. At the post office we saw Mr. Floyd May sort the mail. Mr. May let the class see stamps. We were surprised to see one dollar stamps. Mr. May told us they handled 100,000 pieces of mail a month. From the post office we went to the newspaper office. Mr. Huckaby showed us the big machines. We saw him print a paper. We got to see how the paper was folded. Mr. Huckaby showed us how lines of words are made. Before we went back to school he printed us a paper.

A TRIP by Sharon Adams and Roy Childers

One day last week Mrs. Roby's class went to visit the Iowa Park Post Office. We also went to visit the Herald office. First we went to the post office. Mr. May was waiting for us when we got there. Mr. May showed us a little machine that puts the date on the letters and cards. Then we found our boxes. We saw how the mail is separated. We also saw dollar stamps and half-dollar stamps. In the back of the post office there is a little cage to put the mail sacks in after the mail has been separated.

Then we went to the Herald office. There we saw how papers are printed. Mr. Huckaby gave each one of us a paper to take with us to school.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Runco arrived here Sunday after he received his discharge from the air force in the state of Washington. Pete did 18 months duty in Japan, returning to the States in November. He plans to enter college next fall. Mrs. Runco is the former Miss Naomi Baxter.

Lloyd Lewis, Texas Tech student, visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis during the Easter recess.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Hines of Lubbock visited with their daughter Mr. and Mrs. John Mixon and children over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Son Bell and daughter of Abilene visited in the John Bell and L. A. Teal homes during the Easter holidays.

Ikard says Brotherhood

By Congressman Frank Ikard

We continue to hear a great deal about the development in various scientific fields, particularly those concerned with atomic energy; however, few of us realize the day-to-day job that the scientist does for each of us.

Recently I had occasion to visit with Mr. Frank Tuton of the Research Division of the Department of Agriculture. In our discussion, he pointed out to me some of the things that are just around the corner and that will soon be available to all of us as a result of scientific research working to develop new uses and new markets for agricultural products. For instance, he told me of garden hose, rain coats, kitchen aprons, and gloves of high quality that were now being successfully made of inedible animal fats. Formerly this fat was sold to the soap manufacturers, but with the advent of detergents, it is now "going begging" on the market. These new uses for this product should again create a good market for it. We also saw wrinkle-resistant fabrics that can be used for women's clothes which is made exclusively of short staple cotton. The acceptance by women generally of these fabrics should stimulate the market for this type of cotton. I was also interested to learn that within a short time there will be on the market a type of orange juice that will be in a powder form and will require no refrigeration whatsoever. This type of orange juice will keep for an indefinite period in either extremely hot or extremely cold climates, and its quality is equal to that of fresh orange juice. Believe it or not, these Department of Agriculture scientists are also using chicken feathers to make fibers that can and will have many uses. They have developed means of making blood plasma, serums, bandages.

Then we went to the Herald office. There we saw how papers are printed. Mr. Huckaby gave each one of us a paper to take with us to school.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Hines of Lubbock visited with their daughter Mr. and Mrs. John Mixon and children over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Son Bell and daughter of Abilene visited in the John Bell and L. A. Teal homes during the Easter holidays.

State Church Organization Adopts Two Important Resolutions

Dear Editor:
The General Assembly of the Texas Council of Churches at its annual meeting held recently in San Antonio adopted unanimously two statements. One of these was entitled "On Integration" and the other was on the timely subject of restoring integrity in state government.

The texts of these resolutions are enclosed for your information and for whatever use you care to make of them.

HAROLD KILPATRICK,
Executive Secretary,
Texas Council of Churches.

ON INTEGRATION

A majority of church bodies comprising the Texas Council of Churches and others have taken strong positions against racial discrimination and in harmony with the Supreme Court's decision of May 17, 1954:

African Methodist Episcopal Church.
Congregational — Christian — General Council.

Czech Moravian Brethren.
Disciples of Christ (The Texas Convention of Christian Churches).

Episcopal Diocese of Texas.

Evangelical and Reformed Church, Texas Synod.
Methodist Church — Central Texas Conference.
Methodist Church — Northwest Texas Conference.
Methodist Church—North Texas Conference.
Methodist Church — Southwest Texas Conference.
Methodist Church—Texas Conference.

Presbyterian Church, U. S.—Synod of Texas.

Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.—General Assembly.
United Church Women of Texas.

The Supreme Court decision declared "racial discrimination in public education is unconstitutional." It was a unanimous decision.

Compliance with the decision was not immediately mandatory, but in the words of the Court "The burden rests upon the defendants to establish that such time is necessary in the public interest and is consistent with good faith compliance at the earliest practicable date."

Nearly two years have elapsed since the decision was handed down.

We rejoice that there are in the state of Texas many communities which have gone on a completely integrated basis, with no difficulties arising.

We have been disturbed by certain recent trends indicating opposition to compliance with the Supreme Court ruling.

Therefore, be it resolved that the Texas Council of Churches and the United Church Women of Texas go on record as follows:

1. That we assert our conviction that racial discrimination is contrary to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

2. That we recommend to our constituent church bodies that they caution their members to think carefully before joining or giving endorsement to any type of councils, by whatever name, which have as their purpose the circumventing of the Supreme Court decision on segregation in public education.

3. That they urge their members to oppose all legal subterfuges, such as interposition, nullification, secession, etc., which seek to evade compliance with the Supreme Court decision.

4. That they urge their members to practice Christian patience and forbearance and pray daily for God's guidance as we deal with this difficult problem in human relationships and move forward to a higher plane of Christian democracy.

ON MORAL TURPITUDE IN GOVERNMENT

The Texas Council of Churches in annual meeting assembled in San Antonio on March 8, 1956, issues the following declaration:

We have shared the humiliation and concern of all honest citizens during the past year over the lack of integrity on the part of some officials in our state government.

We recognize that they have been a part of the lethargy and indifference which has made such a condition possible. We recommend those in authority who have had the courage to bring to the bar of justice those who have been guilty of moral turpitude in administration of governmental affairs and we commend the vast majority of government officials and employees who are serving with integrity and good faith.

We call upon our fellow Christians in the denominations constituent to the Texas Council of Churches, and the United Church Women of Texas to think clearly of their responsibility as Christian citizens to see that persons of integrity are elected to positions of authority; to urge upon our representatives in the State Legislature the passage of necessary legislation to block the loopholes in present laws and administrative procedures that open the way for weak officials to succumb to temptation; that a copy of this resolution be sent to the administrative head of each denomination holding membership in the Council; and that a copy be released to the press.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Birk and son Bob and daughter Beverly spent the weekend in Laredo visiting Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Hansen and children Marian and Sharyl. Mrs. Hansen and children returned to Iowa Park with the Birks to visit for several weeks. She is the former Bettye Birk.

Easy way to build chicks' immunity to killer coccidiosis...

Coccidiosis is generally recognized as the poultry raiser's Enemy Number One. It lurks in the brooder house and attacks pullets on range. Now with life-saving Livium in Nutrena Chick Starter and Nutrena Pullet Grower you get help against serious outbreaks of this costly disease.

The life-saving ingredient in Livium attacks these germs and keeps them from multiplying to the outbreak stage. Only by carrying a usually unnoticed low infection can chicks build natural immunity. It's that simple.

preventing costly outbreaks of dreaded Coccidiosis.

With Coccidiosis under control, the nutritional ingredients in Nutrena Chick Starter and Nutrena Pullet Grower can be even more effective.

So start your 1956 Chicks with "that confident feeling," knowing they're getting protection from coccidiosis plus safety levels of nutrition for a strong start.

Happy Ending With A "Familiar Ring"

Buck Howell says he and his Missus had quite a time at the Stockman's Convention in Chicago. But for a while they had a "breakdown in communications."

The phone bell in their hotel room was pitched so low they often didn't answer their calls. "Never knew if it was for us or not," Buck said, "always sounded far off—like it was ringing in someone else's room."

Finally, Buck hit on the obvious solution. He just made a deal with the hotel switchboard operator that whenever she called them she'd use two long rings and a short—their party-line signal back home.

From where I sit, our own familiar routines tend to make other ways of doing things seem strange. That's natural. For instance, if you've always had ice water with your meals, you might think it's odd that lots of us prefer a bottle of beer at dinner-time. I say you've a right to your own customs... but don't call mine wrong.
