You and your Congress

The business that was started many years ago by the rainmakers of Indian tribes may be the next major target of federal control.

Congress is now considering whether it should control those who seek to control the weather.

As always in these matters, two questions arise: Should control over weather controllers be left to the states or directed from Washington? Should controls be rigid or not?

The whole matter is uncertain at the moment, due to uncertainties involved in artificial nucleation—man made rain.

Last spring the cotton growers in Mississippi vainly searched the skies for signs of rain. They feared for crops in a drought that lasted 66 days.

They wondered whether the rainmakers in California and other western states might be depriving them of rain. They wondered what their chances were of getting relief by means of artificial nucleation.

The U.S. weather bureau had not been able to reach definite major conclusions on the subject.

Meanwhile the drought broke and the Mississippians fair for their crops because of the rain. They are wondering if rainmaking in western states have caused too much rain in Mississippi.

Rep. Frank E. Smith of Mississippi's 3rd district has introduced a bill calling for appointment of a special eight member House committee to conduct a full and complete investigation and study to determine the effects of artificial rainmaking on the various segments of the national economy.

Smith cited T. H. Evans, dean of engineering, Colorado A and M. Evans, who feels it would be dangerous to allow rainmakers to operate indiscriminately, favors a bill passed by the Colorado legislature which would impose moderate controls. It also calls for co-ordination of rainmaking study and information by a regulatory commission.

Meanwhile Senator Anderson of New Mexico, where some of the earlier non-Indian rainmaking was done a few years ago, has introduced S. 222, calling for rigid federal control of artificial nucleation. It would set up a weather control commission with rains held by the Secretary of Commerce.

Three subcommittees of the Interior, Agriculture and Commerce committees, with Anderson presiding, held hearings on S. 222. These were marked by conflicting testimony from the weather bureau experts regarding the dangers and benefits of artificial rainmaking. The Commerce subcommittee has held two closed-door sessions trying to decide whether to recommend the controls proposed by S. 222.

The disastrous, rain-made floods hit Missouri. Among other things, the floods stirred the suspicion that the excessive rain may have been induced by the cloud-milkers, who sow dry ice from airplanes or spray vaporized silver iodide into the atmosphere from the ground.

Rep. Richard W. Bolling of Kansas City has introduced a bill identical to S. 222. Both would license rainmakers and make the federal government liable for undue damage done by licensed practitioners of artificial nucleation.

But the question of state versus federal control remains unsettled. The existence of interstate involvements has not been established definitely. No one seems to know for sure whether every time you make rain over Colorado, for example, Nebraska and Kansas are sure to get showers, or are sure to be deprived of rainfall they normally would receive.

Mr. Love was born April 10, 1873, in Stanley county, N.C., and came with his parents to Texas in 1884. They settled at first in Hunt county, moving to Archer county in 1889.

In 1896 he moved into Wichita county. Here he met and married Miss Ora Powell in 1904. Their marriage rites were performed by Rev. C. C. Davis who is now retired and living at Iowa Park. They settled on the M. A. Love estate near Valley View. After the death of his wife Mr. Love maintained his home there.

Special Program Has Top Home Talent For Recreation Finish

The climactic point of the eight weeks summer recreation project sponsored by the Iowa Park Council of Church Women was reached Thursday evening in the closing program given on the lawn of the Methodist church.

The large group of children who have participated in the activities three days a week and the appreciable number of adults from the churches who have assisted with the recreation are in agreement with the council president Mrs. C. E. Birk, and the directors Mrs. Taylor George and Miss Ethyle Kidwell that the program this summer has been a great success.

In her remarks at the final program Mrs. Birk thanked everyone who had contributed in any way to the success of the summer program and presented program participants of the evening.

The Iowa Park Hawk band played several selections to commence the entertainment.

Cecil Marquart was emcee for a Veracity and Outcome contribution to the program. Volunteers from the audience took part in a honey-moon race, and a contest to untangle string without breaking it.

A group of high school girls accompanied by Mrs. Otis Gay furnished ukulele music.

Next part of the entertainment was devoted to stunts under direction of Miss Paula Ralston. These featured an ice cream contest by Joy Scott and Doyle Combs, an impromptu play and two funny contests.

"The Jewel," a playlet directed by Mrs. M. C. Yeagan, was presented by a cast composed of Jimmy Jinks, Marvin Richter, Sammy Shelton, Gordon Hair, Joline Cooksey, Ella Lou Van Horn and Mary Gayle Park.

One of the most amusing parts of the program was a reading "The Very Idea" by Lou Ann Duke. It featured the thoughts of Mrs. P. DeGoebgut while on the way to and attending church services.

Mrs. O. R. Owens and Mrs. Otis Gay led the group in singing "God Bless America" to bring the program to a close. Refreshments were then served.

During the last week of the project, workers have been supplied by several churches. Those assisting included Messrs. and Mmes. Rollins Woodall, Fred Veasley, Johnnie Cole, Chester Gleason, Wayland Jinks, Ernest Lee, Miles Thompson, M. C. Yeagan.

And Mmes. A. H. Estes, Gale Lowrance, Pearl Jinks, King Abernathy, George Richter, Carroll Duke, Joe Johnson, George Pennington, Gayle Park, O. R. Owens, R. B. Slak, Gilbert Steele, Dave Harbour, J. K. Bradshaw.

And Messrs. A. L. Reed, Rollin Roberts, Justin Butts.

During the eight week period of the project, Mrs. Birk has been on the playgrounds each Tuesday afternoon and evening; Mrs. Gordon G. Clark, immediate past president of the council, has been there on Mondays; and Mrs. Homer Bialock, first president of the council, has assisted on Thursdays.

On Monday afternoon this week Miss Kidwell served refreshments during the afternoon hours to the story hour group and junior age children.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Martin and daughters Patricia, Barbara and Marilyn Jo left Tuesday for their home in Lake Charles, La., after a vacation visit in the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Brubaker.

A. M. Bowles and daughter Benney Ann were downtown shopping one day this week. Mr. Bowles suffered a fractured pelvis two weeks ago in a tractor accident. He is able to be about some now.

Tests Show Iowa Park Lake Water Softest, Best in North Texas Area

Wichita Falls, Texas
July 28, 1951

Mrs. Ruth Hill Yeagan
Manager, Chamber of Commerce
Iowa Park, Texas

Dear Mrs. Yeagan:

I have been out of town for more than a week on some other work, and am sorry to have missed your calls.

The last laboratory test I had made on the Stevens Creek water showed it to have a hardness of 1.8 grains per gallon, which is an extremely soft water. Only traces of sodium chloride, calcium bicarbonate, and magnesium bicarbonate existed.

According to this test, and to the best of my knowledge, this Stevens Creek water is of better quality and softer than any other water source in this entire area.

Yours very truly,

E. L. ANDREWS
Consulting Engineer

Using the statement by Ernest Andrews, Wichita Falls expert on municipal engineering, as basis for our claim that Iowa Park now has the best source of the best water in North Texas and probably of all Texas and possibly in the whole world, citizens of the Town of Friendly Living are preparing a month from today, Labor Day, to throw a big celebration and start using water from Lake Iowa Park.

Plans are brewing for a gala time with speaking, picnicking and a great time to be had by all.

For years Iowa Park has been well and unfavorably known for its supply of water — so now it is our privilege and duty to brag to the whole world that we have done something about it.

City officials, water board members and Chamber of Commerce directors are all alert to the present opportunity to offset past unfavorable notice Iowa Park's water supply has merited and received.

When Ted Overbey, chairman of the committee for Labor Day's celebration, buttonholes you to discuss this deal, don't throw cold water on it! Them that kin brag without lyin' LET 'EM BRAG!

Milk Order Election Due Friday, Aug. 3

A date was announced by U. S. department of agriculture officials this week for a special election that will either approve or reject federal regulation of milk marketing conditions in two north Texas areas.

Separate elections will be conducted August 3 among Grade A milk producers in the 16 counties composing the Dallas-Fort Worth milk shed and in the five counties in the Wichita Falls milk shed.

In each area, a two-thirds majority of the producers must approve the federal milk order before it may go into effect. It has already been approved by the department of agriculture. The balloting places for the Wichita Falls milk shed will be the PMA offices in Wichita Falls, Childress and Decatur.

Approval came after lengthy hearings in Dallas several months ago before USDA officials. In granting the order, officials ruled, in effect, that milk producers in each area were not getting fair treatment from distributors in the marketing of their milk. The government found that testimony at the hearings upheld the producers' allegations of inaccurate butterfat tests, unjustified low prices to producers, inconsistent prices to producers for the same quality milk, and lack of good faith on the part of the distributors in bargaining with the producers.

Effect of the federal milk order, if approved in either or both areas, will be to assign a federal marketing administrator to that area. He will act as a sort of referee—overseeing all phases of the marketing process. The only actual price regulation involved will be the setting of a price "floor" . . . minimum prices paid to the producers for Grade A or "fluid" milk and for Grade B or "surplus" milk (which goes into cheese, butter, ice cream and other manufactured products).

An important provision of the order is that best interest of three groups be taken into consideration in setting these floor prices. The producer, the distributor and the consumer will all be represented at regular hearings to reset these prices. Without a federal order, the consumer has no direct voice in such matters.

Both the Dallas-Fort Worth area and the Wichita Falls area milk sheds have producers associations. And these groups have both received rulings which will permit them to vote their entire membership as a block. They will vote for the order.

The balance of power, though, may be in the vote of the Grade A producers who are not members of the two associations. Department of

Committees Named For X-ray Survey Saturday, Monday

The civic activities committee of the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce has just about completed details of the local Chest X-ray survey to be made here Saturday and Monday, August 4 and 6, in the Metz Appliance store, from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. each day.

General chairman is Earle Denny, also chairman of the civic activities committee. Chairman is Mrs. C. E. Birk, president of the Council of Church Women, who with the co-operation of the churches have worked out the following schedules and teams of workers:

Saturday morning the Christian church will furnish Mmes. John B. Barbour, Forest Bates, Ishmael Corder and Rollins Woodall.

For the Saturday afternoon session the Presbyterian church will be represented by Mrs. Gayle Park, Mrs. John Clapp, Miss Frances Park and Miss Cecilia Yeagan.

Monday morning the Methodist church will furnish Mrs. Harry W. Weaver, Mrs. Ruth Lucy, Miss Ruth Mary Dale and Miss Jackie Teal to assist the technicians.

Then on Monday afternoon Mesdames Taylor George, Sam H. Hill, R. J. Butts and Curtis Hill of the Baptist church will be on hand.

Distribution of 1000 handbills was made this week by Boy Scouts and Camp Fire girls. Painting of the sidewalk was done by Doyle Koonce; and many other people worked independently phoning their neighbors and friends and offering transportation. Many employers are planning to make it possible for employees to take the examination during work hours. There are also volunteers to assist with unloading and setting up the machine.

X-rays are quick and simple. To be x-rayed a person just steps up to the x-ray machine, takes a deep breath and holds it. That's all! X-ray machines were paid for out of tax money by Texas. This is a tax supported service working in co-operation with Tuberculosis Christmas Seal contributions. X-ray surveys are designed to find, isolate and eradicate tuberculosis.

Be x-rayed.

agriculture officials who conduct the elections in each milk shed have selected centrally located polling places for those producers in each of the two areas.

If approved the order will go into effect in about four to six weeks. At present federal milk orders are in operation in 44 metropolitan marketing areas over the nation.

Dallas Minister Is Brotherhood Speaker

The Presbyterian church was host Monday evening to the Men's Brotherhood of Iowa Park. The meeting was well attended, considering that it is midsummer and many are away on vacation. Watermelon was served to the group by a committee of the host church.

Thomas W. Currie, pastor of the Oak Cliff Presbyterian church in Dallas, brought a timely and instructive message on "Our Inheritance." He began by saying that the word "Protestant" has been maligned and misused and people have the idea that it means "always objecting to something."

He said the word has a more positive meaning similar to the word "witness"; and Protestants are people with strong convictions who are willing to proclaim them even to the extent of sacrificing their lives.

The message was illustrated with stories of the lives of leaders who have greatly influenced the world by their positive testimony, such as Martin Luther, John Knox, John Wesley and William Carey.

The speaker pointed out that Christianity has been the foundation of America's system of free enterprise in business and industry. John J. Egan of Atlanta and Birmingham was cited as an example of a great industrialist who practiced Christian principle and applied them to industry.

Pvt. Don James of Fort Riley, Kans., spent a three day pass in the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. D. O. James. After completing leadership training school, he was chosen from a class of 82 as an instructor and team chief, while awaiting assignment to OCS. His fiancée, Miss Arlene Hotovy of Lincoln, Neb., accompanied Don for a visit to Texas and to meet his family. They plan to be married in Lincoln this month.

Mrs. C. H. Head and Miss Maurine Miller of Lancaster were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Sewell over the weekend. The three women are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Griffin and children Gene and Paula Ann of Childress are visiting her mother Mrs. A. H. Estes and other relatives this week. They were accompanied by the Bert Van Horns, the Lowell Shortes and Robert Wilcox for a weekend outing at Possum Kingdom.

K. D. Lovell, Unit 24 Valley Farms, entered the Clinic hospital Tuesday evening for treatment.

Your C. of C.

The executive committee of the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce approved a breakfast meeting for the board of directors' August session, which will be held Tuesday morning, August 7, at 7:00 at Rolling's Cafe.

If this arrangement proves acceptable to the directors, other such meetings will be held during the fall — rotating the cafes.

This type of meeting is recommended because: It saves time. It gets the job done. It's a Dutch treat.

President Alan W. Berry says many chambers of commerce are finding breakfast meetings successful. He is anticipating a good attendance.

Assuming that all work and no recreation makes old men out of boys, the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce holds an annual summer membership meeting.

This year it will be on Friday, August 10, at 8:00 p.m. on the lawn of the Methodist church.

At the meeting Thomas B. Taylor, director of the Iowa Park School Band, will present his band members in a concert of popular numbers.

The public relations committee will then serve iced watermelons to members and guests. Arranging the details are Chairman Chauncey Weiler, F. E. Hill, Curtis Sewell, T. J. Pace and Fred Thompson.

President Alan W. Berry will preside.

Mrs. Gordon G. Clark, district president of the Texas Council of Church Women, was feature speaker at a meeting of the Jacksboro COW at the First Methodist church in that city Monday morning. During the meeting she invited the group to attend a district council meeting in Iowa Park, Friday, September 21 at the Presbyterian church.

F. W. Woodward of Electra is doing watch and jewelry repair at the Woody Jewelry store here temporarily while his son Bob Woodward is in Iowa on business.

Mrs. Wayne Short of Big Spring is visiting in Iowa Park and Wichita Falls this week. A group of friends assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Lochridge, Wednesday evening for a social honoring her and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Short of Wichita Falls.

Miss Arbie Barnes and Noel Pautsky Wed In Iowa Park Relatives' Home, Saturday

Miss Arbie Barnes of Wichita Falls and Noel Pautsky of Holliday were united in marriage when a ceremony of quiet dignity was performed Saturday evening, July 28, at 7:30. The service took place at the home of the groom's brother in law and sister Sgt. and Mrs. H. C. Clementson in Iowa Park under direction of Rev. Guy Perdue, pastor of the Methodist church.

The bride is daughter of Mrs. M. J. Barnes of Whitney and the groom is son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pautsky of Holliday.

The couple stood for the exchange of vows under a large silver wedding bell before the living room fireplace. Decorations in the nuptial space featured two tall baskets of white asters on either side of the fireplace which was completely filled in with greenery. Centering the mantel were white tapers burning in a five-branched candelabrum entwined with greenery.

A musical setting featured recorded interpretations of Wagner's processional, and "I Love You Truly" the latter composition being played during the recitation of vows.

The bride wore a floor length white slipper satin gown styled with full skirt and tight bodice topped with a smart bolero. Her fingertip length veil of bridal net fell from a lace trimmed net halo. The bride observed all the sentimental additions and completed her costume by carrying a white carnation corsage atop a white Bible.

Mrs. Clementson took part in the wedding as matron of honor. She wore a summer print frock complemented with harmonizing accessories and a yellow carnation corsage.

Mr. Clementson served as best man.

For a reception which followed, the table was covered with a white linen cloth. A bouquet of red carnations and a three-tiered cake topped with bride and groom were focal points of interest on the table.

Mrs. C. M. Hutson and Mrs. Clementson presided at the refreshment table while Mrs. Jim Milliron secured signatures of guests during the reception.

The newlyweds departed on a honeymoon trip to Colorado. They will establish a home in Holliday where he is owner of the Pautsky Crude Oil Producing company.

Judge Ikard was presented by Miss Lois Wantland, Henrietta school teacher who taught him in the second grade. Mrs. S. Royer, who had Ikard in high school, was presented as an honor guest.

Others introduced during the program included Jim Koethe of Henrietta, who was a prisoner of the Nazis with Ikard during World War II; Volney LaFevre, Clay county Democratic chairman the past 30 years, and John Stallings, Seymour school man.

A 40-car caravan from Wichita Falls paraded around the courthouse prior to Ikard's speech. Delegates were present from each of the 15 counties in the 13th congressional district.

The Cow That Can't "Run Dry"

Sandy Johnson showed me his Jersey cows last week. It was a warm day and they were all under the trees near a watering trough.

And darned if one cow wasn't pumping water into the trough! It's a fact—she'd raise the pump handle with her nose, and use her throat to push it down again.

"That's Mabel," Sandy explained as she moved away. "Sometimes they drink that trough dry, and she's learned how to fill it again. But she doesn't know her own strength—turns the place into a swamp if we don't watch her."

From where I sit, Mabel isn't the only one who sometimes doesn't know where to stop. For instance, people often carry personal opinions too far—like the person who wants everyone to accept his choice of political parties, or ball-players... or beverages. I prefer a glass of beer with my meals. I know that a lot of other people prefer milk. But nobody ought to insist on "herding" others around to his way of thinking.

can you spare 9 minutes to read a message 19 centuries old?

The Sermon on the Mount is for everyone. Anyone who reads it will be happier during the next 24 hours. Anyone who carries it in his heart will be happier forever. Read...re-read...and understand its words. No speech ever promised...or delivered...so much.

WHEN he saw the crowds of people he went up on the mountain. There he seated himself, and when his disciples had come up to him, he opened his lips to teach them. And he said:

★ Blessed are those who feel their spiritual need, for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to them! Blessed are the mourners, for they will be consoled! Blessed are the humble-minded, for they will possess the land! Blessed are those who are hungry and thirsty for uprightness, for they will be satisfied! Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy! Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God! Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called God's sons! Blessed are those who have endured persecution for their uprightness, for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to them! Blessed are you when people abuse you, and persecute you, and falsely say everything bad of you, on my account. Be glad and exult over it, for you will be richly rewarded in heaven, for that is the way they persecuted the prophets who went before you!

★ You are the salt of the earth! But if salt loses its strength, how can it be made salt again? It is good for nothing but to be thrown away and trodden underfoot. You are the light of the world! A city that is built upon a hill cannot be hidden. People do not light a lamp and put it under a peck-measure; they put it on its stand and it gives light to everyone in the house. Your light must burn in that way among men so that they will see the good you do, and praise your Father in heaven.

★ Do not suppose that I have come to do away with the Law or the Prophets. I have not come to do away with them but to fulfill them. For I tell you, as long as heaven and earth endure, not one dotting of an i or crossing of a t will be dropped from the Law until it is all observed. Anyone, therefore, who weakens one of the slightest of these commands, and teaches others to do so, will be ranked lowest in the Kingdom of Heaven; but anyone who observes them and teaches others to do so will be ranked high in the Kingdom of Heaven. For I tell you that unless your uprightness is far superior to that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never even enter the Kingdom of Heaven!

★ You have heard that men were told "You shall not commit adultery." But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman with desire has already committed adultery with her in his heart. But if your right eye makes you fall, tear it out and throw it away, for you might better lose one part of your body than have it all thrown into the pit! If your right hand makes you fall, cut it off and throw it away! For you might better lose one part of your body than have it all go down to the pit!

★ They were told, "Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a certificate of divorce." But I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife on any ground, except unfaithfulness, makes her commit adultery, and anyone who marries her after she is divorced commits adultery.

★ Again, you have heard that the men of old were told, "You shall not swear falsely, but you must fulfil your oaths to the Lord." But I tell you not to swear at all, either by heaven, for it is God's throne, or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great king. You must not swear by your own head, for you cannot make one single hair white or black. But your way of speaking must be "Yes" or "No." Anything that goes beyond that comes from the evil one.

★ You have heard that the men of old were told "You shall not murder," and "Whoever murders will have to answer to the court." But I tell you that anyone who gets angry with his brother will have to answer to the court, and anyone who speaks contemptuously to his brother will have to answer to the great council, and anyone who says to his brother "You cursed fool!" will have to answer for it in the fiery pit! So when you are presenting your gift at the altar, if you remember that your brother has any grievance against you, leave your gift right there before the altar and go and make up with your brother; then come back and present your gift. Be quick and come to terms with your opponent while you are on the way to court with him, or he may hand you over to the judge, and the judge may hand you over to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison. I tell you, you will never get out again until you have paid the last penny!

★ You have heard that they were told, "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth." But I tell you not to resist injury, but if anyone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other to him too; and if anyone wants to sue you for your shirt, let him have your coat too. And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go two miles with him. If anyone begs from you, give to him, and when anyone wants to borrow from you, do not turn away.

★ You have heard that they were told, "You must love your neighbor and hate your enemy." But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for your persecutors, so that you may show yourselves true sons of your Father in heaven, for he makes his sun rise on bad and good alike, and makes the rain fall on the upright and the wrongdoers. For if you love only those who love you, what reward can you expect? Do not the very tax-collectors do that? And if you are polite to your brothers and no one else, what is there remarkable in that? Do not the very heathen do that? So you are to be perfect, as your heavenly Father is.

★ But take care not to do your good deeds in public for people to see, for, if you do, you will get no reward from your Father in heaven. So when you are going to give to charity, do not blow a trumpet before yourself, as the hypocrites do, in places of worship and the streets, to make people praise them. I tell you, that is all the reward they will get! But when you give to charity, your own left hand must not know what your right hand is doing, so that your charity may be secret, and your Father who sees what is secret will reward you.

★ When you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites, for they like to pray standing in places of worship and in the corners of the squares, to let people see them. I tell you, that is the only reward they will get! But when you pray, go into your own room, and shut the door, and pray to your Father who is unseen, and your Father who sees what is secret will reward you. And when you pray, do not repeat empty phrases as the heathen do, for they imagine that their prayers will be heard if they use words enough. You must not be like them. For God, who is your Father, knows what you need before you ask him. This, therefore, is the way you are to pray:

*'Our Father in heaven,
Your name be revered!
Your kingdom come!
Your will be done on earth
as it is done in heaven!
Give us today bread for the day,
And forgive us our debts,
as we have forgiven our debtors.
And do not subject us to temptation,
But save us from the evil one.'*

For if you forgive others when they offend you, your heavenly Father will forgive you too. But if you do not forgive others when they offend you, your heavenly Father will not forgive you for your offenses.

★ When you fast, do not put on a gloomy look, like the hypocrites, for they neglect their personal appearance to let people see that they are fasting. I tell you, that is all the reward they will get. But when you fast, perfume your hair and wash your face, so that no one may see that you are fasting, except your Father who is unseen, and your Father who sees what is secret, will reward you.

★ Do not store up your riches on earth, where moths and rust destroy them, and where thieves break in and steal them, but store up your riches in heaven, where moths and rust cannot destroy them, and where thieves cannot break in and steal them. For wherever your treasure is, your heart will be also. The eye is the lamp of the body. If then your eye is sound, your whole body will be light, but if your eye is unsound, your whole body will be dark. If, therefore, your very light is darkness, how deep the darkness will be! No slave can belong to two masters, for he will either hate one and love the other, or stand by one and make light of the other. You cannot serve God and money. Therefore, I tell you, do not worry about life, wondering what you will have to eat or drink, or about your body, wondering what you will have to wear. Is not life more important than food, and the body than clothes? Look at the wild birds. They do not sow or reap, or store their food in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more account than they? But which of you with all his worry can add a single hour to his life? Why should you worry about clothing? See how the wild flowers grow. They do not toil or spin, and yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his splendor was never dressed like one of them. But if God so beautifully dresses the wild grass, which is alive today and is thrown into the furnace tomorrow, will he not much more surely clothe you, you who have so little faith? So do not worry and say, "What shall we have to eat?" or "What shall we have to drink?" or

"What shall we have to wear?" For these are all things the heathen are in pursuit of, and your heavenly Father knows well that you need all this. But you must make his kingdom, and uprightness before him, your greatest care, and you will have all these other things besides. So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will have worries of its own. Let each day be content with its own ills.

★ Pass no more judgments upon other people, so that you may not have judgment passed upon you. For you will be judged by the standard you judge by, and men will pay you back with the same measure you have used with them. Why do you keep looking at the speck in your brother's eye, and pay no attention to the beam that is in your own? How can you say to your brother, "Just let me get that speck out of your eye," when all the time there is a beam in your own? You hypocrite! First get the beam out of your own eye, and then you can see to get the speck out of your brother's eye.

★ Do not give what is sacred to dogs, and do not throw your pearls before pigs, or they will trample them under their feet and turn and tear you in pieces. Ask, and what you ask will be given you. Search, and you will find what you search for. Knock, and the door will open to you. For it is always the one who asks who receives, and the one who searches who finds, and the one who knocks to whom the door opens. Which of you men when his son asks him for some bread will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a snake? So if you, bad as you are, know enough to give your children what is good, how much more surely will your Father in heaven give what is good to those who ask him for it! Therefore, you must always treat other people as you would like to have them treat you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets.

★ Go in at the narrow gate. For the road that leads to destruction is broad and spacious, and there are many who go in by it. But the gate is narrow and the road is hard that leads to life, and there are few that find it.

★ Beware of the false prophets, who come to you disguised as sheep but are ravenous wolves underneath. You can tell them by their fruit. Do people pick grapes off thorns, or figs off thistles? Just so any sound tree bears good fruit, but a poor tree bears bad fruit. No sound tree can bear bad fruit, and no poor tree can bear good fruit. Any tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and burned. So you can tell them by their fruit. It is not everyone who says to me "Lord! Lord!" who will get into the Kingdom of Heaven, but only those who do the will of my Father in heaven. Many will say to me on that Day, "Lord! Lord! Was it not in your name that we prophesied, and by your name that we drove out demons, and by your name that we did many mighty acts?" Then I will say to them plainly, "I never knew you! Go away from me, you who do wrong!"

★ Everyone, therefore, who listens to this teaching of mine and acts upon it, will be like a sensible man who built his house on rock. And the rain fell, and the rivers rose, and the winds blew, and beat about that house, and it did not go down, for its foundations were on rock. And anyone who listens to this teaching of mine and does not act upon it, will be like a foolish man who built his house on sand. And the rain fell and the rivers rose, and the winds blew and beat about that house, and it went down, and its downfall was complete.

★ When Jesus had finished this discourse, the crowds were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them like one who had authority and not like their scribes.

Travis Hill Injured On Mexico Project

Travis Hill was hurried home by airplane from the rig moving expedition in Mexico undertaken by the John B. B. Barbour Trucking company, after an accident Sunday night. Although no bones were fractured, Travis was painfully injured when the wheel of a pole trailer knocked him down and ran over him.

The accident happened about 9:00 p.m. Saturday while a tractor and trailer were being loaded on a ferry barge. The work was being done one mile out of Alamo, Mexico (100 miles south of Tampico).

Travis said this week that the climate in that area is hot, but at night it cools off. The Barbour men camped in a corrugated iron building. They had good food and found the people in Mexico friendly and helpful. Most of the natives live in houses made of poles with grass roofs.

The plane trip back was made from 9:20 a.m. Sunday to 7:30 that evening. The remainder of the crew is expected back early next week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Parker and son Larry were in Naples for the Watermelon Festival and Homecoming over the weekend.

Mrs. Tirzah Portis and Miss Hazel Crites returned Monday from a nine-day visit in San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Mayo of McKinney came here last Friday for a visit with her mother Mrs. Scott Morris. They went on to Lubbock, Saturday to see his mother Mrs. Rachel Mayo, who is 92 years of age. Returning via Iowa Park, they went back to McKinney, Monday morning.

Mrs. Will Spruiell attended funeral services for an uncle W. T. Watts at Abilene last Saturday. She was accompanied by a son Euell Spruiell of Valley View.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Burrows returned Sunday from a five day trip to Arkansas where they visited relatives in Fort Smith and Texarkana. They came by Waxahachie for a visit enroute.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Legett and daughters Linda and Julia returned to their home at Kenedy, Sunday after a week's visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave O. Harbour and of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mason in Wichita Falls. Mesdames Legett, Harbour and Mason are sisters. The group visited an uncle D. J. Moore and family at Randlett, Okla., last Saturday.

DAIRY FARMERS VOTE

In Your Own Interest!
Vote FOR the Milk Order!

REGARDLESS...

of your status as a member, former member or Non-member of the Milk Producers Association, at the long-range picture. LOOK to your own future . . . and LOOK to the future of Wichita Falls area dairy farming.

LOOK

IGNORE

temporary promises and temporary advantages promised by distributors in return for your vote . . . But, your vote FOR a milk marketing order is a vote for prices for your product, FAIR butterfat tests, and FAIR milk marketing conditions.

FAIR

VOTE "YES"

on the milk referendum. Vote WITH your friends, neighbors and fellow dairymen. Vote WITH us now, or you or your children will have this same painful struggle to go through all over again in the future.

YOUR VOTE IS ESPECIALLY IMPORTANT

In view of the recent action of the 89th District Court in granting an injunction against the Wichita Falls Area Milk Producers Association. This injunction will apparently deprive the Association of some 40-odd votes of former members who were active members during the representative period as set by the Department of Agriculture.

This injunction also jeopardizes the bloc vote of our current members. And, consequently, it jeopardizes the federal milk marketing order that we dairymen have worked so long and hard for. Our main hope now is for an affirmative vote from many of the former members and non-members. Lots of them have assured us that they understand the issues . . . and will vote for the dairy farmers rather than for the plants.

Despite the barrage of unfounded and ridiculous propaganda which has been hurled at the Federal Milk Order, despite expensive legal assaults on the milk producers association, despite extensive and expensive "public relations" and advertising campaigns of a large Dallas firm on behalf of a so-called "Independent Producer Association," the main issue still stands sharp and clear!!!

What is that issue?

YOU know the issue!

The issue is whether you, the milk producer, want a stable, regulated market for your product . . . or a chaotic market.

IF you are entirely satisfied with the present system of milk marketing, where the distributor has complete 100% domination of all phases of the milk industry (including you producers) . . . then we have little to offer.

IF you really believe the distributor has always given you your fair share of the milk dollar . . . IF you feel that your butterfat tests are always correct . . . IF you feel that the distributor has never bottled and sold at Grade "A" prices milk which he bought from you at Grade "B" or surplus prices . . . IF you think no outside milk was ever shipped in while you were on "surplus" . . . IF you enjoy preferred treatment where surpluses and other common producer problems never bother you . . . and IF you think you will continue to enjoy such special attention indefinitely . . . then you are probably well satisfied with things as they are.

IF, however, you feel that it's your right as a producer to have government check tests made on your butterfat, to have the plant books audited to determine the usage of all milk purchased, to be assured of a fair price for milk, and that no milk should be shipped in while you are on "surplus," why then we feel that you should find it in your heart to go to the polls and vote FOR a federal milk marketing order. Because, the order has these protections for the farmer written into it . . . and the United States Department of Agriculture will back it up.
