Ince Oil Co. Will Donate To Boosters

Ince Oil Co. has announced a special program to benefit the South Plains area high school booster clubs. Ince Fina will donate a penny for every gallon of Fina Gas sold at their Muleshoe location to the various Muleshoe High School Booster Clubs. The September donation will go to the Muleshoe Mules Football Booster Club. The donation for October will go to the Muleshoe Fine Arts Boosters.

The first two schools to receive the donations will be Littlefield and Muleshoe. Ince Oil Co. intends to make the same donations to other area schools in the near future.

Ince Oil Co. has been serving the South Plains area for 53 years. Each month's donation should amount to several hundred dollars, according to Chuck Spagh, who added, "Ince Oil Co. is dedicated to supporting the young people of the Muleshoe community."

Since becoming the 'newest' government entity in the area, the fledgling Muleshoe Area Hospital District has held weekly meetings attempting to work out solutions to the vast and major problems facing the former West Plains Medical Center and Muleshoe Nursing Home.

Now named Muleshoe Area Medical Center and Muleshoe Area Health Care Center, the two health facilities are just working out many of the problems which have been plaguing it for so long.

With little time to prepare, the MAHD Board of Directors had to work out an operating budget for the two facilities and get it approved before the fiscal year begins on October 1, 1989.

Wednesday night, the MAHD board adopted a budget, a budget which will probably be facing some changes, but at the same time, a huge operating budget.

The directors adopted a budget of $2,738,840, which is expected to come up 'short' by some $438,080 from anticipated revenues.

Using a projected average daily census (patients) numbering eight; and projected patient days of 2,848; and staffing increases of 12 full time employees and five percent salary increases, the budget was figured.

Patient revenue is anticipated to be some $2,133,000 and nursing home revenue is expected to produce an additional $765,000.00.

Then, unlike most other businesses, the hospital district has to deduct certain expenses from their revenue, which include contractual adjustments at 15 percent for the hospital, (simply explained as the difference in what Medicare agrees to pay and what is actually charged for a patient's stay). This amounts to $319,950. The other is a 13 percent projected loss by the hospital on uncollectible accounts which amounts to $277,290, for a total of $597,240.00 which will be a 'write-off' for the hospital.

This leaves a net patient revenue of $2,300,760.

As with most businesses, salaries are the major expense, with expected salaries for the two facilities of $1,358,003. Payroll taxes will take an additional $181,592 and contract labor-consulting is expected to be $51,095.

Licenses will cost $500; dues and subscriptions will be $13,745 and insurance of all kinds will total $185,000.

Interest is expected to be $62,000; legal and accounting, and additional $20,000; supplies are expected to cost around $231,285; continuing education, $9,765; repairs and maintenance is set at $45,400; linens, $8,950; travel expense, $15,582 and quality assurance analysis will cost about $3,600.

Other expenses are expected to be telephone, $19,932; bacteriology, $2,400; utilities, $74,539; equipment lease for the lab, $49,500; advertising, $7,500; food costs, $118,100; pharmacy and central supplies will take another $109,900; software maintenance, $2,400; insurance expense $8,600; purchased services, $2,400 and depreciation expense, $157,052.

Tim 'Buck' Campbell, president of the Muleshoe Area Hospital District Board of Directors said the projected operating budget for the hospital and nursing home was provided by consultant, Methodist Hospital, using past experiences to come up with approximate figures.

After officially accepting the resignation of John Chisholm as administrator of the hospital, an interim administrator was introduced. Rita Mason, from Methodist Hospital Regional Services has had prior experience being administrator of small hospitals and will be serving the two to three months it is expected to take to find a new administrator for Muleshoe.

In discussing the proposed tax rate for the hospital, it was announced the tax rate will be set during a meeting of the MAHD on Wednesday, September 13 at 8 p.m. at Muleshoe Area Medical Center.

President Campbell, in speaking of the proposed budget, commented, "I don't think people will be disappointed with the actual results of the budget. We believe it will be better than the budget predicted."

However, with a number of items required by Medicare and Medicaid, in order to keep certification, the budget, through necessity, just starting out, will

County Holds Hearing On Development Funds

Bailey County Judge Jim Watson called a meeting of Bailey County Commissioners Court into session at 5 p.m. Friday with two commissioners present, R. L. Scott and Rudolph Moraw. Also in the courtroom were Barbara McCamish, county clerk and Rowena Myers, who wanted to sit in on a public hearing concerning seeking a grant to build a new health services building in Muleshoe.

Judge Watson said the commissioners needed to make a decision on who will present the proposal for the $250,000 grant to obtain Community Development Funds to the Texas Commerce Department.

It was decided to ask Gordon H. Green to make the presentation. Gordon Green, an attorney, is a former county judge, who resigned to return to private law practice.

A portion of the grant proposal calls for Bailey County to provide $74,797 from general revenue funds to help construct the new building.

Proposed location for the building is just north of the Ben Franklin Store, and south of the Muleshoe Mule Putt Miniature Golf Course, according to the plans.

However, Judge Watson reminded that that is only a "proposed" location.

An additional $6,500 would be required for the purchase of property, bringing the county's total cost to $81,297, according to the plans.

The requirements in the plan also stated, "In the event that displacement of residential dwellings will occur in connection with a project assisted with TCDP funds, it will follow a residential antidisplacement and relocation plan, as specified by the department."

No residential dwellings would be involved in the current proposed location, if approved.

When Judge Watson called for a motion on the plan, Mrs. McCamish inquired of the judge if two commissioners constituted a quorum, and he replied that two commissioners and the judge is a quorum, and that he planned to cast a vote.

The two commissioners and the judge approved the planned proposal by a unanimous vote.

Two items that were not listed on the agenda then came up for vote.

In one, the judge asked the two commissioners for a motion to re-advertise for a dump truck. The two commissioners and judge approved the motion to re-advertise.

AW, WHO CARES ABOUT FOOTBALL ANYWAY?--It may have been Meet the Mules night and lots of football players and cheerleaders around, but 18-month old Trevor Turnbow, son of James and Shelly Turnbow, pays more attention to his golf game. In the background, Grandmother Bobbie Dunham discusses something more serious, like football, with Magann Rennels, right. In a few more years, Trevor will probably start paying more attention to football. (Journal Photo)

Creative Living

by Sheryl Borden

Information on party foods, remodeling your kitchen, and clothing sources for the handicapped will be the featured topics on "Creative Living" on Tuesday, September 5 at 12 noon and on Saturday, September 9 at 2 p.m. (All times are Mountain.)

Donna Haverstock, representing Norwegian Dairies, will explain that Norwegian cheeses are delicious and well suited for preparing many different types of party foods.

The working triangle in your kitchen is the space between the refrigerator, the sink and the cooktop, and it plays a very important role in the efficient operation of the kitchen as well as in directing traffic in this area. Jill Absher, with Creative Kitchen Designs in Birmingham, AL will explain that this triangle should add up to at least 12 feet but not more than 22 feet. Jill will also discuss the four basic kitchen types and explain the benefits, as well as the drawbacks of each type.

Dr. Joyce Davis, an instructor in Home Economics at Eastern New Mexico University in Portales, N.M. will discuss some of the sources and resources available for clothing for handicapped individuals.

On Tuesday, September 5 at 9:30 p.m. and repeated on Thursday, September 7 at 12 noon, "Creative Living" will present information on Vintage Fruit Sauce, spices, and the whole enchilada.

Polly Murray, Manager of Consumer Affairs with McCormick and Co. in Baltimore, MD, will explain what spices enhance what foods and tell how to use different spices and spice combinations to help eliminate unwanted sodium from your diet.

Jane Butel, founder and president of the Pecos Valley Spice Co. in New York, will demonstrate making the whole enchilada--featuring the traditional Santa Fe style red chili sauce.

Fran Smith, home economist with Universal Foods, will demonstrate some very tasty ways to serve Vintage Fruit Sauce. Universal Foods introduced a special recipe using yeast to ferment fruit several years ago thus creating a fruit sauce with a deliciously different vintage flavor.

"Creative Living" is produced and hosted by Sheryl Borden. The show is carried on more than 100 PBS stations in the United States, Canada, Guam and Puerto Rico and is distributed by Pacific Mountain Network, Denver, CO. Viewers can request copies of printed materials offered on the show by calling on KENW-TV's toll-free telephone lines between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. In New Mexico, the number is 1,800-432-2361, out-of-state: 1-800-545-2359 and Portales and Roosevelt County; 562-2112.

Library News

by Anne Camp

Storyhour at the Muleshoe Area Public Library will begin on Wednesday, September 6, at 10 a.m. for registration. A parent should come this first time with the child for information the library will need. All children three years old or older are invited to come for an hour of fun with stories, old and new, games, songs, movies, and other activities which will help them as preschoolers to interact with other children of the same age. Most children adjust quickly to group play, but if you have a child who is very shy, you may want to plan on staying with them a few times.

The Muleshoe Young Homemakers will again sponsor and help with the third Wednesday storyhour. We appreciate their wanting to help. They always bring good ideas, treats, and added fun for the children. Storyhours will be held every first and third Wednesday morning from 10 to 11 a.m. The second and fourth Wednesdays will be reserved for other groups. It has been a very busy summer with over twelve thousand items circulated! If anyone has books checked out, please return them before school starts, to keep your record good, so that books can be checked out in the future. We have been sending out overdue notices, but we need to get every book back if we are to continue to build a great collection...Please help us do that.

Our video collection is growing, with new good movies added every week. Videos are circulated for over-nite use and with 100+ on hand, we circulated over 100 in June and July! We have just received a new IBM Wheelwriter typewriter as another bonus from our West Texas Library System membership.

Kristi Hargrove Tells Of Her

Trip To Canada

The following was written by Kristi Hargrove of Sudan who experienced what she called the opportunity of a lifetime when she visited Ontario, Canada. The trip was made possible by the Sudan Lions Club.

My trip to the Province of Ontario, Canada was an opportunity of a lifetime. I was able to experience first-hand the lifestyle of a different nation. I was brought face to face with the similarities and differences of our two countries.

Three of the four weeks I spent in Canada were in the town of Grand Valley, approximately seventy-five miles north of Toronto, with my host family--the Orgeras. My host family was great--they did all they could to make my trip memorable. They took me on a tour to see the Bruce Nuclear Power Plant, to the lakes, to Toronto where I saw such places as the Skydome, home of the Toronto Blue Jays, and the CN Tower, the tallest free-standing building in the world, plus many other interesting and exciting new places.

My second week in Canada was spent at Lions Youth Exchange Camp. It's located at a place named Pike Lake Camp. Here I made friends with people from all over the world. There were twenty seven kids from fifteen different countries including Japan, Holland, Italy, England, Austria, Iceland and several others. Although we were only together for one week, we made friendships that will last a lifetime. We all had a terrific time together. During camp, we travelled to such tourist attractions as Niagara Falls (a place everyone should see at least once in their life), Wonderland, an amusement park; Stoney Creek Park, a beach on Lake Huron; and many more fascinating places. Also at camp, we swam, had campfires every night, had a presentation given by each student of his or her country, played sports and just had a great time.

Canada has a climate much like ours with cooler temperatures. The food is similar but not quite the same, hamburgers, hotdogs and pizza are common, but food such as chicken fried steak and Mexican food are basically unheard of. Also they eat such peculiar things as vinegar on French fries, and ketchup on potato chips. As far as style, fashion and music, it is all much like ours. But another difference between the two countries is that Canada uses the metric system. Also, food, clothing, gas and related items are substantially more expensive.

I had a wonderful time in Canada. There are memories I will never forget for this reason. I am forever grateful to the Sudan Lions' Club for making it possible.

Cornbread Salads Hit The Trendy Trail

Its popularity has rapidly spread throughout the cornbread loving Southern states where the salads have been spotted at church suppers, potluck dinners, picnics and on buffet tables from Amarillo, Texas, to Athens, Ga.

Cornbread salad is a great substitute for other conventional favorites. This new classic is prepared in the same fashion as potato or macaroni salad and usually contains many of the same ingredients. An easy-to-prepare cornbread mix is baked, cooled and crumbled. Then colorful fresh vegetables and a tangy, creamy dressing are added. Ways to prepare one is limited only to the cook's imagination because cornbread can carry a myriad of flavors. get soggy, it simply adds a hearty texture and taste.

Beautifully layered and colorful, Mexican Cornbread Salad makes a satisfying meal in itself or is a delicious accompaniment for a spicy south-of-the-border beef or chicken entree. A variation of a taco salad, the tortilla chips are replaced with savory Mexican cornbread prepared in no time from a mix. Pinto beans, a fresh "pico de gallo" mixture of chopped tomato, onion and jalapeno peppers, Monterey Jack cheese and crisp bacon are layered with the crumbled cornbread. The salad dressing is a lively mixture of bottled salsa and dairy sour cream.

Or, try the cornbread salad that's become a fast favorite of Nashvillians--Tennessee Cornbread Salad. It's an appealing accompaniment that is sure to become a year-round family favorite. The salad boasts fresh chopped tomato, green pepper, onion and Middle Tennessee's favorite salad ingredient, sweet pickles. The sweet pickle juice is even stirred into mayonnaise to make a tangy dressing.

be higher than it will be once necessary repairs and renovations are made.

Also approved by the MAHD board was to tax all licensed vehicles in the jurisdiction of the hospital district for the year 1989.

In discussing emergency room physician coverage for weekends it was announced by Secretary Bob Finney that residents from the Texas Tech School of Medicine will be alternating staffing the hospital emergency room on weekends with Dr. Bruce Purdy and Dr. Mark McClanahan, who will each be taking one weekend a month. From noon on Saturday to Monday morning, the emergency room otherwise will be staffed by doctors from Lubbock.

Finney also explained that this may be one method of recruitment for more doctors for Muleshoe. He said the residents who will be coming to Muleshoe may be practicing in the clinic on Saturday morning, and like Muleshoe and decide to move here.

Dr. Purdy and Dr. McClanahan will be managing the program, and will also be helping with recruitment of new doctors for Muleshoe.

Following a discussion on the selection of CPA firm to represent the Muleshoe Area Hospital District, the MAHD board unanimously selected the firm of Mason, Warner and Co. of Lubbock, who specialize in representing hospitals.

Also approved, unanimously, was $5,000 malpractice insurance for Dr. Purdy in order to enable him to perform emergency caesarian sections until a surgeon can be obtained for the hospital.

Anticipating a need for a larger (more rooms) at the nursing home, Bob Finney, Buck Campbell and Derrell Jennings have met with an architect to draw up renovation plans for the nursing home and laundry facilities. The proposed plan will be presented by the board at a future date. It was explained that FHA may have money available with a long term payback.

Also, the board agreed to make a payment of $50,000 to West Plains Medical Center as partial payment for their inventory (supplies being used in the

In another action that was not listed on the agenda, Judge Watson said an amendment was needed to add to the new personnel policy.

The Judge told the two commissioners he had found that, by law, the commissioners court could not require county employees to return checks for jury service to the county. The trio approved a motion to amend the personnel policy.

At 5:20 p.m., Mrs. McCamish read the minutes of the meeting held August 21. At 5:25 p.m., just as Judge Watson had called for adjournment of the meeting, Commissioner Joey Kindle arrived.

Commissioner Kindle was asked by the judge if he had any opposition to the resolution, the amendment to the personnel policy and to re-advertise for the dump truck. On being informed by Commissioner Kindle he had no objection, the meeting was adjourned at 5:35 p.m.

Coach Stewart gave a short talk on the athletic program for Muleshoe for this school year and the coming years. The cross country team will be in Brownfield next Saturday.

There will be a scrimmage at Canyon tonight (Friday). This will be a tough scrimmage, but Coach Stewart stated that if it be football, baseball, track, cross country, or basketball, he could promise two things.

The young people would act right (be ladies and gentlemen) on the bus, wherever they might be eating or on the field, and they will always give 100 percent.

The rest he said he couldn't promise, but these two things he could.

Coach, this writer commends you very highly on your attitude and your program. I believe youth athletic programs will do great.

President Keith Turner called the meeting to order; Glen Morris led the club in the pledge to the flag and R. A. Bradley gave the invocation.

J. O. Parker, who couldn't find a friend, gave the friendship coin to Lyndon Huckaby. Good Luck, Huck.

Letter To The Editor

August 28, 1989

Cleta Williams
Muleshoe Journal
304 West 2nd
Muleshoe, TX 79347

Dear Cleta,

What do paint brushes, Mexican hats, lemon mints, Indian blankets and blue eyes have in common? As Texas wildflowers, they dot our hills, fields and highways every spring. But unless Texans do something to preserve their beauty, many of them will eventually disappear.

So, to educate and promote the preservation of these natural treasures, the makers of Maryland Club coffee are sponsoring a Fall Wildflower Planting Campaign, statewide.

During wildflower planting season, John Koros, one of our state's foremost botanical experts, will be traveling throughout the state, speaking to community groups and the media on all aspects of Texas wildflowers. John will be in Amarillo during the week of September 25.

I've enclosed a kit on the campaign, including Maryland Club's involvement, planting tips for wildflowers in your region well as tips for enjoying them year round. Also included is a brief profile on Don Warren, the native Texan artist responsible for a wildflower print Maryland Club is offering to consumers in conjunction with this effort.

Cleta, please take advantage of this opportunity to meet John Koros...not only can he tell you everything you've ever wanted to know about wildflowers, he's an expert on which plants and flowers grow best in and around the Amarillo area and how they can enhance the quality of our lives.

I'll be in touch in a few days to discuss your interest further. In the meantime, if you have any questions, please give me a call.

Sincerely,
Theresa Haak

Wildflowers To Be Planted This Fall

Each spring, literally millions of Texans and tourists invade hillside and roadside, to enjoy the splendor of native Texas wildflowers in full bloom. Now, during the fall planting season, however, is the best time for Texans to pay a bit of attention to preserving our wildflower heritage.

So say the makers of Maryland Club coffee, who currently are sponsoring a wildflower planting campaign across the state spearheaded by John Koros, renowned Texas horticulturist and executive director of the Mercer Arboretum.

"We're encouraging all Texans to plant wildflower seeds now in anticipation of a beautiful spring," says Koros, who has represented Texas abroad on speaking tours in Australia and Great Britain. "We also hope to Crazy about Texas wildflowers? ... Then, you'll want to note that the makers of Maryland Club coffee are currently offering a limited edition, high-quality lithograph print of an original oil painting by Hill Country artist, Don Warren.

The work, "Open Gate," captures a bit of Texas countryside at the height of its beauty -- overwhelmed with color and completely blanketed by native Texas wildflowers. The poster is being offered in conjunction with the company's statewide campaign to promote fall planting of Texas wildflower seeds. (Plant now, for blooms later!)

To receive the 17" x 22" wildflower poster (image size 13" x 20"), just send two proof-of-purchase seals from any size or grind of Maryland Club coffee plus $2 postage and handling and your name and address to Texas Wildflower Poster Offer, Post Office Box 430113, Houston, Texas 77243-0113.

Koros will visit 14 Texas cities during the peak wildflower planting season (roughly mid-September through mid-October) to address community groups and the media and to offer suggestions for promoting and maintaining wildflower growth.

South Plains Fair

Slates 2nd Annual

Mule, Donkey Show

The 72nd annual Panhandle South Plains Fair will again feature a donkey and mule show, general manager Steve L. Lewis has announced.

Lewis said the popular event will open at 6 p.m. on September 28 and continue again at 9 a.m. on the following day.

The entry deadline is September 28 and entry fees are as follows: $5 for junior and sub junior classes and $8 for adult and open classes.

The show is sanctioned by the West Texas Donkey and Mule Club, a regional affiliate of the American Donkey and Mule Society.

No premiums will be paid in the junior and sub junior classes but $1,400 in added money will be offered in the adult classes, Lewis said.

Model donkey and model mule classes will pick up $100 for first place and $50 for second, plus banners. Costume classes will collect the same awards plus a third-place check for $25.

Thirteen classes will be judged on opening day and 24 on the second day of competition.

Bob Dantis of Shallowater will judge the entries. Other show officials include Clyde C. Waddell, superintendent, horse shows; Ken Aldridge, show superintendent; Jack French and James LeBlanc, assistants and Delores LeBlanc, secretary.

In conjunction with this wildflower planting campaign, the makers of Maryland Club coffee are currently offering a limited number of packages of a specially prepared mix of native Texas wildflower seeds.

To receive your package, just send $1 for postage to Texas Wildflower Seed Offer, P. O. Box 55187, Houston, Texas 77255-5187.

"As a Texas-based company with a 70 year history in this state, Maryland Club feels a responsibility to help preserve our heritage and keep Texas beautiful," adds Rod Rude, director of consumer marketing for Maryland Club Foods, Inc. in Houston. The company continues a commitment to "Helping Beautify Texas" begun in 1986 during the sesquicentennial celebration.

Among the many projects the coffee company has undertaken to demonstrate its ongoing commitment, is sponsorship of the annual "Great Texas Trash Off," complete restoration of the Stae Capitol yellow rose garden, funding for wildflowers and other native plants along Texas highways and a donation of $100,000 for the restoration of the Goddess of Liberty atop the Texas state capitol.

Disabled Drivers Will Get Break At Gas Pumps

Beginning Friday, September 1, service stations that offer full-service refueling must pump gasoline and diesel for disabled drivers, upon request, at the self-service price. Stations that have only self-service pumps were not affected by the new law, passed during this year's regular legislative session.

To receive refueling service at the self-service price, a driver must display a disabled persons insignia, validation sticker, identification card, or license plates issued by the highway department.

The new law allows Class C misdemeanor charges to be filed against a station manager who does not establish a policy providing refueling service for the disabled driver.

Similar charges can be filed against an individual employee who is acting against station policy and refuses to provide this service when requested.

The law will be enforced by the attorney general or a local prosecuting attorney.

Wayland College Plans To Re-Instate MBA Degree

Wayland President Dr. Lanny Hall has announced the reinstatement of the master of business administration degree program, effective with the beginning of the fall semester. "Wayland is pleased to announce the reinstatement of the graduate program leading to the master's degree in business administration," said Hall. "There is a great demand in our area for the MBA program and we feel that many needs will be met through this program."

The degree program was put on hold two years ago as the University sought to strengthen a depleted Division of Business faculty. Dr. Wallace L. Duvall, division chairman, has completed the staffing effort, adding four new professors with terminal degrees.

"We have a well-qualified faculty and the program has received the stamp of approval from the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS)," added Hall. SACS is the accrediting body for institutions of higher education in the southern United States.

Students enrolling in the 36-hour, non-thesis MBA program can specialize in management or health administration. Most classes are conducted at night or on weekends to better fit the schedules of working adults seeking the degree to improve their potential for advancement.

"This is not a traditional program," said Duvall. "We are appealing to those students who are already working and want to get their MBA. The master's degree is essential for many persons entering management fields and is desirable, if not essential, for those desiring to move up in management. Graduates of Wayland's MBA program have reported that they have received increases in responsibility and salary as a result of completing the degree."

Classes will be offered in Plainview and Lubbock, with both the management and health administration specializations available on both campuses. In the management area, students can concentrate in accounting, business information systems, or management, while the health administration specialization is directed at hospital and nursing home administrators.

The program has received the approval of the executive committee of Wayland's board of trustees, with approval of the full board expected at its next scheduled meeting Sept. 14.

"We originally put the program on hold because we really didn't have the faculty we needed for the MBA degree," said Dr. Bill Hardage, academic vice president. "We have made big strides in faculty recruitment in the division and now feel that we have a very solid degree program to offer, and one that is in high demand."

Students interested in pursuing the master of business administration degree can contact Division of Business personnel or the Graduate Office at (806) 296-5521. Registration for the fall semester is scheduled for Monday and Tuesday in the Academic Services Office in Gates Hall.

September, 1889

There was that nameless splendor everywhere, That wild exhilaration in the air...

-Longfellow

Hitler marched into Poland, September 1, 1939, and launched World War II.

Labor Day falls on the 4th this year. The first Continental Congress met on the 5th in 1774--in Philadelphia. James Fenimore Cooper, the novelist, was born on the 7th at Burlington, N.J., in 1789.

The famous Galveston hurricane struck on the 8th in 1900. The 9th is Admission Day in California--dating from 1850 when California became a state.

The British defeated George Washington and his army at Chadd's Ford in Pennsylvania on the 11th, in 1777. Two weeks later, as a result, they took Philadelphia.

The 12th is Defenders' Day in Maryland, dating from the War of 1812 with the British; John Barry, the father of the U.S. Navy, died on the 13th in 1803. The 15th is the birth anniversary of William Howard Taft, born in Cincinnati, in 1857--elected president in 1908.

Baron Friedrich Wilhelm Rudolph Gerhard Augustin von Steuben was born in Prussia on the 17th in 1730. Years later he came to America and trained George Washington's army and helped the Colonies win independence.

On the 18th in 1793, the cornerstone of the capital was laid by George Washington with Masonic ceremonies. And the 23rd is the birthday anniversary of William McGuffey (Claysville, Penn-sylvania in 1800), whose school readers were to be read by millions of American youngsters.

Crime Line ALERT

From the Bailey County Sheriff's Department, Chief Deputy Steven Bearden has a recent crime that a cash reward is being offered through Crime Line.

Bailey County Crime Line is now offering a $250 cash reward for information leading to the arrest and indictment of suspects involved in the burglary of a motor vehicle where several items were taken out of a suburban, which was parked on the Muleshoe High School parking lot.

The crime took place sometime between 10 a.m. and 11 a.m. on August 22, 1989.

MICROWAVE TIPS

Did you know that, using a microwave, you can save money when cooking beef roasts?

That's because the microwave cooks meat better when there is fat spread throughout. When one buys round beef, for example, it turns out greasy and often tough when cooked in the microwave.

It's better to make country steak in a pan from round beef, or to cook it in a pot with juices, etc. in a conventional oven.

But chuck roast--usually the cheapest in grocery ads--does well in a microwave. It's usually well marbled with fat and this helps cook and tenderize the lean--in a microwave.

'87 Agriculture Census Down From '82

Cattle and calves accounted for $6 billion or 57 percent of Texas' agricultural sales in 1987, figures from the Commerce Department Census Bureau show. The cattle and calf inventory on the 142,244 farms reporting such stock totaled 13,020,910, up from 1982. Some 12,120,310 cattle and calves were sold in 1987. The heifer and calf inventory totaled 3,230,691. The inventory of steers, steer calves, bulls and bull calves totaled 4,295,123.

The 1987 Census of Agriculture shows that Texas' agricultural sales totaled $10.5 billion. Livestock, poultry, and their products accounted for $7.6 billion or 72 percent of total agricultural sales. Crops, including nursery and greenhouse products, accounted for $2.9 billion or 28 percent of total agricultural sales.

The 188,788 farms counted in 1987 were two percent more than in 1982, when the last agriculture census was taken. Some 36 percent had 1987 sales of $10,000 or more, and nine percent had sales of $100,000 or more.

Production expenditures for the state's agricultural operations came to $8.9 billion. Agricultural operators paid eight percent less for commercial fertilizers, 18 percent more for agricultural chemicals, and 31 percent more for hired farm labor than they did in 1982. They spent about the same for livestock and poultry feed.

FARM AND LAND

STATISTICS
 • Some 31 percent of Texas' farms were 50 to 179 acres, 21 percent were 180 to 499 acres, and 22 percent were 500 acres or more. The average size of a farm was 691 acres.

• The state's farm operators reported that crops were harvested from 16,521,315 acres in 1987 and that irrigated acres totaled 4,271,043. Irrigated land declined 23 percent, and harvested cropland declined 20 percent between 1982 and 1987.

North Texas People Support Texas Schools

People living in the northern regions of Texas believe their local public schools are doing a good job educating students, but they have even more confidence in the ability of the local teachers who staff these schools.

These are the findings of a recent Texas Poll conducted July 23-Aug. 8, 1989 for the Texas State Teachers Association by Harte-Hanks Communications and Texas A&M University.

Over a thousand residents were randomly polled statewide, including 316 in the northern area. The poll has a margin of error of plus or minus three percentage points.

North Texas, South Plains and Panhandle residents say local teachers are doing a very good job in the schools in spite of the fact that they believe them to be "under-paid" and "over-stressed." These same residents give overall good marks to the local public school systems and believe that the quality of education is directly linked to their level of funding.

Seventy-four percent of the area residents give schools a "passing grade" while a plurality believe the schools are underfunded.

TSTA President Ollie Besteiro said it is extremely heartening to the teachers that 82 percent believe local teachers care about students; 77 percent say teachers are hard working; and 79 percent believe teachers are well-informed on their subject matter.

Eighty-three percent of the respondents said that teachers deserve a pay increase this year.

"That makes it all the more ironic that many school districts in this area failed to even pass on to the teachers the mere $1,800 raise that the Texas Legislature granted this past session," Besteiro said.

"Top performance should be rewarded with top salaries," the TSTA President added. "Instead, our top Texas teachers are among the lowest paid in the nation--the average Texas teacher salary ranks 31st among the 50 states. It is obvious that legislators and school boards do not have their fingers on the public pulse in setting teacher salaries."

Besteiro noted the irony in that 85 percent of the residents in the northern regions and 83 percent of all Texans believe that teachers should have a say in the educational decisions that are made in local school districts. Only nine percent said those decisions should be left exclusively to the school boards and administrators.

"During this past legislative session, TSTA introduced a bill that would have provided a process for teachers to have a voice in local policy decisions," Besteiro noted. "It was the school board and administrator associations that lobbied hard to defeat the bill.

"We're glad to know that the public agrees with TSTA in believing that teacher input can make a real difference in educational quality."

Seventy-five percent said that the amount of money spent per student in a school district affects the quality of education offered in that district. In the area of school reforms, 37 percent believe they have had no impact. A majority said the reforms have not affected teacher pay or teacher quality.

Residents are split in their opinions on the fairness of funding public education in Texas. Thirty-two percent believe it's fair; another 37 percent said it's not fair; and the remainder are unsure. An overwhelming 79 percent believe that it is the state's responsibility to come up with an equitable funding system.

"On behalf of the thousands of TSTA members in this area, we thank the area residents for their support and confidence," Besteiro added. "During this year we will be asking the public's support to help TSTA to bring about the changes that both teachers and the majority of all Texans want in order to upgrade our public schools and the teaching profession, in general."

We surely did enjoy having our families and friends here Saturday night. We had never seen as many freezers of home made ice cream, cakes, cookies and all kind of desserts. Glenda Jennings did a great job entertaining after we had the sandwiches (made by dietary). Also chips and drinks and ice cream and desserts. We thank our families for being so supportive and our friends that helped with decorating, serving and cleaning up afterwards. Thank you dietary, volunteers, families and Health Care employees.

John Williams returned home from visiting with his dad, J.A. Williams, who was hospitalized in Chillothe.

The Youth department at the First Baptist Church recently sponsored a Mini-Retreat for the young people in Sudan. Tents were set up in the back yard of the host family, Philip, Mary Ann, Kay Lynn and Jeff Gordon. The all night campout was rained out, but the young people enjoyed the fellowship until about 1 a.m. Saturday morning.

The group played games such as Broom Hockey, Chase the Tail and Basketball (between the knees) Relay. They enjoyed refreshments and fellowship throughout the evening.

The evening was highlighted by a campfire service. Mr. Gordon did the devotional on being joyful and the seniors lead the group by challenging them to make a difference in their school during the coming school year.

The group in attendance totaled about 68 young people and sponsors. Other sponsors besides the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gordon, were Rick and LaRhonda Hill (youth directors), Bro. Cliff and Kita Hargrove, Calvin and LaDelta Vernon, Jerry and Pam Bellar and Pee Wee Lance.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ray and children have returned home from vacationing at Yellowstone National Park and Glacier National Park and Waterton, Canada and also attended Lee's class reunion in Spokane, Washington.

Horses Need Roughage For Health

Horses have a physiological and psychological requirement for adequate bulk in the daily diet. This is important to maintain the integrity of the digestive tract and to facilitate normal rate of feed passage through the system. Furthermore, roughage serves to minimize certain vices such as wood chewing and mane or tail chewing, problems often observed in stalled or confined horses.

According to Spencer Tankley, County Extension Agent in Bailey County, the quality of the roughage to be fed is of great importance. Hay should be selected for apparent leafiness, with emphasis being placed on a high leaf: stem ratio. Color, cleanliness and aroma are also key factors in selecting hay on visual characteristics. Horses are rather sensitive to mold, and hay that looks or smells the least bit moldy should never be fed to horses. In situations where large quantities of hay are being considered, it may be wise to obtain core samples for testing of nutrient content prior to purchase.

State Extension Horse Specialist, Dr. Pete Gibbs, points out that nature, idle horses and non-milking mares in early pregnancy can normally be maintained solely on good quality pasture or hay. These horses will consume from two percent to three percent of body weight in roughage daily, which will satisfy the majority of nutrient requirements. For other horses being fed traditional blended concentrates or individual cereal grains as primary energy and protein sources, hay or grazing is required on a daily basis. Gibbs suggests that a good thumb rule to use for hay intake is one percent of body weight per day. This means that a 1000 pound performance horse should receive approximately 10 pounds of hay every day. Horsemen feeding large amounts of grain to young halter or race prospects should keep a close eye on roughage consumption to insure that such horses actually eat enough roughage on a regular basis.

From an economics standpoint, the type of hay purchased for horses may be an important consideration. Legumes such as alfalfa may contribute to excessive amounts of protein intake for mature performance horses. However, if purchased relative to cost per pound of protein, legumes can make good sense as the roughage source for milking mares and young, growing horses. Horse owners can have a very effective feeding program with either grasses or legumes. The type of hay will dictate the nutrient content needed in a grain or concentrate mix for mares and young horses.

In summary, roughage often serves as the foundation for a good feeding program designed to provide horses with adequate bulkiness in the total diet. Horsemen may choose from grasses or legumes, but two very important considerations are quality and consistency in selecting and feeding roughage to horses.

A SYMBOL OF SAFETY

When the ship is in danger, we can depend on the life-boats to take us over the seas to safety. It is comforting to glance at the life-boat when the seas are rough.

Our Armed Services are a symbol of safety when our country is in trouble, when war threatens to raise its ugly head. In the past, when war has come, our servicemen have not hesitated to give their lives to protect and defend us.

There is a special Day each year when we remember and honor our servicemen who have died in the defense of our blessed country. Let us not forget, as individuals, to honor these dead and give thanks to God for those who protect us even now. Remember them as you attend church this week.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
