CARD OF THANKS

To all the many loved ones who have remembered me in so many ways that I am not able to write even a majority of them a separate card or letter of thanks:

Regardless of your age, church relationship or sex, I want to thank each of you for the tokens you have given me in connection with my ninetieth anniversary and for the interest you have shown in my effort to preach here on that day. May heaven's richest blessings rest on each of you.

Your loving servant, C. C. Davis.

C. D. Crites, pioneer from Fort Worth, visited his nieces Mrs. Tirmah Portis and Miss Hazel Crites this week. They also entertained Webb Love of Fort Worth and their cousin Bryan Sims and his daughter Mrs. Paul Bleberbery of Hobart, Okla.

Mae Tanner Is Pioneer Queen

Mrs. Mae Tanner, 74, was named Pioneer Day Queen this year at the Fair, but that didn't keep her from getting to work on time Wednesday morning, hours before the ordinary woman of her age would come down town.

That's the kind of person Queen Mae is. She has been the mainstay of Pioneer Day for many years, and now has been given her due reward. When we saw her Tuesday, she pointed first to her orchid, symbol of royalty, and then drily revealed that the wrist watch she was wearing was the first watch she had ever worn.

Mrs. Tanner came to Iowa Park from Missouri in 1890 and attended the first old settlers reunion 60 years ago at Frieze Grove.

Mrs. Mary Ann Garvey of Archer is pinning her boutonniere on the orchid corsage on Mrs. Garvey.

Rev. C. C. Davis has spent a large portion of his 90 years in north Texas, and most of that time in Iowa Park. Here Mrs. R. A. Tanner is shown pinning his boutonniere.

Personalities At the Fair

Mrs. Edna Messick of Wichita Falls ate dinner with the seniors one day this week. This is the fifth year Mrs. Messick has taken her Fair meals with the seniors. She says she likes the food and the service. Mrs. Messick has lived in Wichita Falls for 31 years, coming here from Muskogee, Okla.

R. A. Minton of Wichita Falls, was another customer at the senior stand. He has lived in Wichita Falls since August 27, 1915, coming from Haskell.

Mrs. J. E. Balch, 1202 Clark, Wichita Falls, has several reasons for visiting the Fair. One is that she is the mother of Mrs. W. R. Bradford of Iowa Park and enjoys seeing the Fair with her daughter.

Mrs. Balch came to this area 34 years ago from Wise county. She has nine children and eight grandchildren.

Although she is 91 years of age, Mrs. Balch still keeps house and does her own cooking. She tans for a pastime and has entered some of her work in the competition.

The public relations department of the Fair, T. Leo Moore's special area of activity, has a guest register this year and is anxious to get names of visitors to the Fair. By Wednesday evening the register had names from Idaho, New York, Minnesota, California, Missouri, South Dakota, Nevada, Florida, Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Texas.

Twenty years ago Mrs. Gordon G. Clark asked Mrs. J. O. Presley of Wichita Falls to help with Iowa Park's Fair. Mrs. Presley accepted the invitation and every year since that time has been Wichita Falls' representative in the Women's Department.

Mrs. Presley enjoys her work. She thinks the modern world needs more co-operative efforts of this sort, where the main object is to encourage others and thereby help ourselves and make better people of us all.

Mrs. Presley does lots of work in the Floral Heights Methodist church and especially in the Woman's Society of Christian Service. Her leisuretime hobby is fishing.

VALLEY VIEW TO PLAY NEWCASTLE FRIDAY NIGHT

Valley View Warriors will be hosts to Newcastle high school's football team Friday night, according to a revised schedule recently released by Coach Sutherland.

To date Valley View has had only one game and that with Holliday, which Valley View won 6 to 0.

Iowa Park will be host to Valley View, Friday, October 12.

Iowa Park Gets PMA Office

Iowa Park will be the location of the Production Marketing Administration office in December or the first part of January, according to plans announced Wednesday by Bob Crocker, administrator.

Crocker received approval of the move this week from B. F. Vance, chairman of the state agricultural mobilization committee at College Station. The move follows wishes of farmers who want the PMA office closer to other agricultural groups in the county.

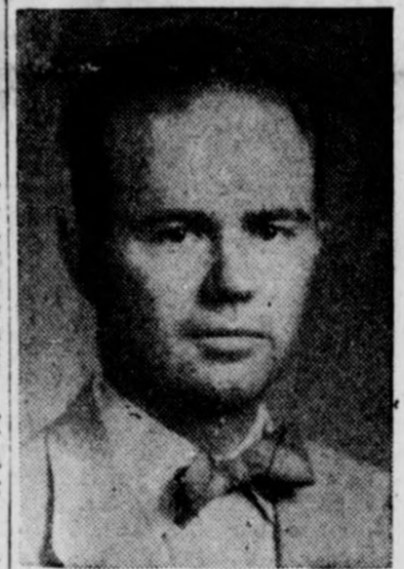

The new office will be in the Soil Conservation building one block west of W. C. Brown's Garage, on West Park.

New Phone Boss

Billy L. Moser has been named manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company for Iowa Park and Wichita Falls, R. B. Peterson, district manager, announced this week. The appointment is effective immediately, Peterson said.

Moser, who has been communications supervisor for the company at Amarillo for the past three years, succeeds Peterson, formerly manager here, who was named district manager a short time ago.

The new manager, who was born and reared in Wichita Falls, will bring to telephone users the benefit of his previous experience here and his knowledge of conditions in this section. In his new post, he will be in charge of all telephone business matters here and in Wichita Falls.

Moser served during the war with an army anti-aircraft unit in the south Pacific. Following his discharge from the army with rank of Master Sergeant, he began his telephone career in January 1945 as a coin collector at Wichita Falls. Later he was named commercial representative, and in 1946 he was promoted to communications engineer.

The following year he was transferred to Amarillo and in 1948 was named communications supervisor there, his position until the present promotion.

Mr. and Mrs. Moser will move to Wichita Falls soon.

NEW CHURCH OF CHRIST MINISTER TO PREACH SUNDAY

The members of the Iowa Park Church of Christ will hear their new preacher Sunday, Sept. 30. He is Cleo Jones and comes here from Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones and sons Thomas and Mark will move into their home at 324 East Bank this week. Mrs. Jones and the children have been staying with Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Caldwell this week so they could attend school.

Don Paullik and John Hubblering from Sheppard Air Force Base enjoyed Sunday dinner at the home of Rev. and Mrs. James Easterwood.

Leslie Clapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Clapp, is home on a ten day leave to visit his wife and family. Leslie is in the navy stationed at San Diego.

Mrs. Harry Moore received a call recently from her husband, who is stationed at San Francisco in the naval reserve. He reported that he was on the way to remerton, Wash., where he expects to be discharged in November.

Skip Makes a Slip
 Miss Gilbert, the teacher, was telling me how Skip Lawson almost went to sleep in her physics class. She noticed him nodding and—since they were discussing electricity—said in a loud voice: "Now maybe MR. LAWSON will explain what electricity is." Skip started up, looked around wildly, and blurted out, "Gee! I used to know, but I forgot."
 "What a loss to science!" sighs Miss Gilbert. "No one to this day knows what electricity really is, and here we have a genius who could explain it—but forgot!"

District Church Women Hear of World Needs
 One hundred thirty-one church women of District One attended the second annual district meeting of the Texas Council of Church Women which was held in Iowa Park at the Presbyterian church, Friday, Sept. 21.
 Towns and communities represented were Graham, Stamford, Holliday, Fort Worth, Electra, Vernon, Wichita Falls, Valley View and Iowa Park.
 National and state officers present were Mrs. John M. Hanna of Dallas, member of the national board of the United Council of Church Women; Mrs. Felix Harris of Dallas, president of the Texas council; Mrs. Lacy W. Goostree of Fort Worth, field secretary of the TCCW; and Mrs. Charles G. Eldson of Waco, auditor and a member of the training committee of the UCCW. Also present was Mrs. Theodore Leen of Wichita Falls, a former president of the California Council of Church Women.
 Mrs. Gordon G. Clark, district president, was in charge of the meeting. Mrs. Rollins Woodall served as secretary. During the afternoon business session Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Woodall were re-elected to serve during 1952. The nominating committee was composed of Mrs. E. R. Pace of Stamford, Mrs. Harry McConnell of Jacksboro, and Mrs. H. W. Barton of Wichita Falls.
 As visitors assembled to register Friday morning, Mrs. R. A. Tanner contributed an organ concert which enhanced the spiritual atmosphere of the meeting. Mrs. James A. Sewell directed singing of "The Church's One Foundation" to open the meeting.
 Mrs. C. E. Birk, president of the Iowa Park Council of Church Women, extended greetings to the visitors.
 The meditation was given by Mrs. O. T. Alles of Wichita Falls, using Psalm 133:1 as a scriptural background. She stated that the principal elements in cultivation of church life were unity and harmony. Using the first church in Jerusalem as a model, she emphasized that each individual life in that church was transformed and dominated by God. A striking truth set forth by Mrs. Alles was that man's rebellion to God brings about inhumanity toward his fellowmen, thus separating them from unity and harmony.
 During the morning workshop conducted by Mrs. Goostree with the assistance of the other three visiting officers, the proper observance of United Nations Week, Oct. 21-27 and United Nations Day, Oct. 24 and the World Day of Prayer next Feb. 29, was stressed. Announcement was made of the annual state conference at Abilene, Feb. 1-14 and World Brotherhood Week the second week in Feb.

 Other vital subjects discussed were the migrants, foreign students, promotion, publicity and the explanation of setting up budgets. During the luncheon Mrs. China B. Smith presented "The Church Woman," a publication of the UCCW, in a most interesting manner. Plate favors, the handwork of Mrs. W. A. George and Mrs. Taylor George, depicted a woman reading the magazine.
 Mrs. Hanna discussed "Christian Women's Action Program for World Peace" during the meal.
 Preceding the afternoon session appropriate organ music was presented by Miss Cecil Yeargan.
 Important resolutions adopted at the conference were that the district council send a telegram to Secretary-General Trygve Lee urging that a prayer room be installed in the United Nations building. Also that Gov. Allan Shivers be requested to ask Texas churches to keep their doors open for prayer all day Oct. 24.
 A highlight of the afternoon session was the address by the state president in which she explained the work of the state and national councils. She revealed that UCCW is made up of 10,000,000 church women and that in Texas there are 104 councils.
 Mrs. Goostree explained the sustaining, guarantary and life memberships of the council.
 An invitation to meet in Stamford next fall was accepted.
 The meeting was concluded with a consecration service conducted by Mrs. Hanna.
 Visitors were registered by Mrs. Miles Thompson and Miss Clara Lowrance. Greeting them were Mrs. R. R. Brubaker and Mrs. Chester Gleason. Ushers were Mrs. George Pennington and Mrs. Otis Gay.
 Mrs. Birk this week expressed gratitude to the local women who co-operated so whole heartedly in serving the luncheon and in other ways contributed to the success of the second annual meeting of the district council, TCCW.

Reunion Group Meets Again
 The home of Miss Clara Lowrance was again the scene of an annual pioneer day reunion Tuesday of this week. Friends from all directions who make their pilgrimage to the Fair each year, always wind up the day at Miss Clara's home.
 Those attending this year were: Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Love, Mr. and Mrs. Lam Troutman of Dumas; Webb Love, Emory Crites of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Noel Troutman of Floydada; Carl Troutman of Colorado Springs; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Herod, Miss Mina Troutman, Mrs. C. Birk, Mrs. C. E. Birk and daughter Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cornforth, Mrs. Tirzah Portis, Miss Hazel Crites, Mr. and Mrs. Locke Lowrance, Mrs. F. L. Emanuel, all of Iowa Park.

You and your Congress

Tax-wise, where do we go from here? That question plagues many members of Congress as ways and means of increasing income are sought in an effort to keep pace with government expenditures.
 Many of their constituents will be asking them that question after taxes are raised again next month. Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the Senate finance committee, who has spent nearly 30 of his 73 years in the Senate and helped write many tax bills, doubts that revenues can be increased much more by conventional methods. Senator Taft (R-Ohio), who sits on the tax-writing finance committee, agrees.
 The conventional methods include the income tax, the corporate income tax and excess profits tax, the excise taxes such as those on tobacco and liquor.
 George put the matter to his colleagues this way recently: "There have been frequent discussions of what the total tax take may be without injury to our economy. There is no fixed limit; the limit is to be found only when the tax take destroys the incentive of people and when it leads to every conceivable effort to evade and to wasteful practices by the taxpayers themselves."
 Earlier, George had said: "I am convinced we already have reached the point of diminishing returns, so far as income tax is concerned, and any further revenue must come from a new form of taxation. I believe any further increase in income taxes will discourage further income and encourage businesses to become extravagant, wasteful and inefficient."
 Then the chairman got to the other side of the story—spending: "Our chief hope is to use all our efforts to reduce nonessential federal spending."
 He noted that just as Congress was making progress in reducing Truman's proposed budget for the fiscal year, the Senate wiped out all gains by adding about $2 billion more than the president requested for military spending.
 George also noted the committee's estimate that the year will end next June with the government $3.7 billion in the red for the year.
 Government spending has reached record levels for peacetime.
 The pending revenue bill will bring the third tax increase since the outbreak of the Korean war and tax rates will be approximately back where they were (higher in some cases) during the war.
 The only new revenue-raising device that has been discussed is a general sales tax, which would be politically unpopular in election year 1952.
 The alternative to reducing expenditures or increasing taxes is government borrowing. That would create new credit, increase inflationary pressures and force prices up—which also would contribute to an unhealthy 1952 political climate.
 As the tax bill is being debated, it appears that 1952 may force the issue of reducing government spend-

Congratulations

Congratulations are now in order for all the division and department chairmen who have co-operated so splendidly with Dr. Gordon G. Clark and with Ted Overbey in staging Iowa Park's 1951 Texas-Oklahoma Fair.

These people serve because they are interested in the fair and in the welfare of the citizens of north Texas and southern Oklahoma.

W. H. Hammon is one of the Southwest's best breeders of Herefords, having combined this interest with his vocation as an oil operator. One of the founders of the Fair Hereford Division, he has been largely responsible for its success in former years. Hammon has been vice-president of the Fair association for the past several seasons.

Hereford Division committeemen also include J. M. Carpenter, Jack Austin, E. E. Garrett and G. R. McNeil, all of Wichita Falls.

Fred Parkey is one of the area's best known men in agriculture, having come to this vicinity in 1946 with the Soil Conservation Service, a post he resigned in 1950 to become head of Wichita County Water Improvement District No. 1, with its headquarters in Wichita Falls.

Serving in the agriculture department of the Fair are T. J. Pace, L. E. Brooks, Virgil Woodfin, Wymore Downing, Frank Wendt and James W. Park.

J. C. Porter has long been active in the interests of agriculture and livestock in the Fair area and is now agriculturist and head of the agriculture department at the First National bank in Wichita Falls.

He is assisting in directing the Junior Livestock department by Fred Parkey, Wade Bailey and Harold Shahan.

Miss Cathryn Sands has been associated with Fair work since 1944. She came to Wichita county in that year to work with the extension service's home demonstration program. She is Wichita county's Home Demonstration Agent. Miss Sands' ability and willingness to help have become a part of the great story of the people who make up the T-O Fair. The home demonstration clubs displays are an outstanding part of every year's Fair.

Miss Marva Ruth Thompson has recently taken the post of Assistant Home Demonstration Agent for Wichita county, and a large part of her time is devoted to the Girls' 4-H program. In this capacity she works with girls in all parts of the county and directs their efforts in the annual Fair division which displays their handiwork.

Max Carpenter, in charge of all livestock showing and handling during the Fair, is well known for his record as Wichita county Agent for the past five years. He is now manager of W. B. Hamilton's T-O Ranches and makes his home in Wichita Falls. He is a member of the Fair's board of directors and secretary of the T-O Hereford breeders association.

One of the wheelhorses of promoting the Fair is Grady England, Wichita Falls business and civic leader. Special representative of the Wichita Falls chamber of commerce to the Fair association, England was chosen because he is a man who gets things done. The chamber of commerce has given financial and manpower assistance to the Fair in many ways during past years, and in 1951 a special committee was organized under England's direction to work with the Fair board of directors.

R. King is well known in the area for his interest in improving farming and agriculture. He owns a large dairy west of Wichita Falls, and as one of the best. He has been a resident of the area 30 years and a large part of his time devoted to ranching and oil production.

Chauncey Weller has served in one capacity or another with the Fair for many years, and has done most of the liaison work between the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce and the Fair association for this year's awards plan. The Chamber is providing awards in Junior Livestock Judging contests, and in Girls' 4-H work. A former resident of Electra before moving here, Weller has worked with civic groups and religious organizations for years in this territory. An employee of Gulf Oil company, he has been loaned by his company for Fair Week for several years. The Wellers have a son Bill now attending Texas A and M.

W. A. Krohn is one of the Southwest's exponents of the quarter horse and its merits. He has been largely responsible for many innovations in showing these animals. It was Krohn's insistence that the breed should be shown as working animals as well as halter-handled, which introduced this part of the Quarter Horse Show at the T-O Fair several years ago. This is now a vital part of virtually every quarter horse show in the country. A member of the executive committee of the Fair, he has been active in Fair work 10 years. His vocation is farming and ranching.

Krohn is assisted by J. B. Barnes, J. T. Huey, Jim Shipman of Electra; Jimmy Cullum, C. H. McClellan of Wichita Falls; and Earle Denny of Iowa Park.

Oral Jones, chairman of the Pioneer Day committee, has long been identified with civic projects throughout the Fair area. He is chairman of public relations for the Wichita Falls chamber of commerce and is serving his second year as chairman of Pioneer Day at the Fair. Jones is vice-president of the City National bank in Wichita Falls.

Pioneer Day is of such importance and requires so much detail supervision that Jones has a large force of committeemen on whom he calls. They include: Leon Deaton, Wiley

Robertson, Carter McGregor, Rhea Howard, Lester Jones, Joe Ward and Linn A. Boyd of Wichita Falls; Mrs. J. A. Tanner of Iowa Park; Walter Roberts, Mrs. J. H. Bentley sr., J. V. Brookshear of Burkburnett; Danie Dale, C. H. McGann of Electra; and J. H. Rayborn of Holliday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Stephens and his mother T. J. Stephens sr. and sister Dot, all of Dallas, visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Gleason.

ESA Names Marilyn Chandler 'Golden Girl'

The quiet charm and sincerity of Marilyn Chandler made her selection as Golden Girl of Epsilon Eta chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, Iowa Park, a pleasant occasion.

Marilyn is a lovely girl whose activities are numerous. A girl who is active in other organizations, and is given an opportunity to become an ESA, will bring her energy with her. This is true of Marilyn.

She is employed in Wichita Falls as secretary in an insurance agency. She is also secretary in the Insurance Women's club in Wichita.

Marilyn is a talented musician who serves her church as organist. Her appearance on numerous civic programs and at religious services also attests to her ability as a vocal soloist. She sings with the Community Chorus and is active in the Modern Music Study club.

Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Chandler was president of the district Methodist Youth Fellowship and worked extensively in that field.

She majored in history while a student at Texas State College for Women. But Marilyn is primarily a homemaker and she and her husband Joe are a handsome couple.

Epsilon Eta is pleased to present Marilyn as its Golden Girl.

Lester E. Brooks, superintendent of the Iowa Park Experiment Station, is a member of the committee arranging for the Rolling Plains area display in "A Storybook of Texas Agriculture" at the 1951 State Fair of Texas in Dallas, Oct. 6-21.

The display, devoted to the agricultural resources of District 3 of the Texas A and M extension service, will be a part of the mammoth display covering every section of Texas, telling the agricultural story of each.

The Rolling Plains display will feature beef cattle, varieties of grass, grain sorghums, cotton, alfalfa, wheat, mesquite control and a typical ranch house.

Fair Taxi Is Hay Burner

The horse-drawn taxi seen here during the Fair belongs to Robert Taylor of Route One. The horse and buggy were willed the Taylor in 1941 by his Uncle Floyd Taylor. The buggy is a Spaulding purchased new in 1895 and has been kept in a fine state of preservation.

Mr. Taylor takes great pride in the old buggy as did his Uncle back in horse and buggy days. Taylor says the horse is a blue flea-bitten paint raised in Iowa Park. Years ago it belonged to a welder; then a paper route boy.

Mr. Taylor gets a great deal of pleasure using the buggy as a taxi during T-O Fair time.

Sears Appliances Are Displayed

Visitors at the Texas-Oklahoma Fair this week have been treated to a full display of useful home appliances in the Sears Roebuck and company booth in the industrial building.

These appliances are not just sitting on display. They are being demonstrated and explained by a force of salesmen and home demonstrators who know their line of equipment and can answer most all questions.

We saw electric sewing machines, refrigerators, washing machines, ironers, radios, cleaners, and the all-purpose David Bradley garden plow, which, incidentally also becomes a lawn mower when the occasion demands.

To our way of thinking, the personnel of a display is a most important part. It takes the human element to sell customers on the various implements. Sears has gone all out in furnishing that part of the show. They are not all on hand at all times, but from time to time visitors can meet the following experts in the different lines:

Clyde Rogers, Mrs. Mary Horn, L. A. Spruiell, Ira Johnson, Lewis Human, Hubert Lewis, Jack Deaton and Eldon Sealand.

Sears invites all Fair guests to inspect these appliances and sign the guest register. The store will give away a pig and a console radio Saturday night.

MR. AND MRS. BUCK VOYLES

NEVER AGAIN

Will salesmen have such an opportunity to build their own independent business and to become well established in the auto and truck insurance business. For particulars, see L. M. Anderson, 1905 9th St. Wichita Falls, District Agent for Farmers Insurance Group, the West's leading writer of auto and truck insurance, the company that pays up to 30% dividend on currently expiring policies.

Harris Couple Is Typical Pioneer Family Group

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Harris are among the men and women who first settled in Iowa Park, thus helping to open it for occupation and development.

Mrs. Harris, who is 69 years old now, came to Iowa Park with her parents from Clay county in 1891. Her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Cottrell, built their home in the south part of town. The structure still stands on West Pecan and is now occupied by Mrs. Ida Weeks.

Mr. Dexter was born in Dexter county Oct. 1, 1874. He came to Iowa Park in 1895. The few business houses which were here were on the south side of the railroad track just south of the depot, according to the Harrises.

On Dec. 23, 1898, Addie Cottrell and Emmett Harris went to Wichita Falls in a buggy to exchange marital vows. That day will always be remembered by the couple for a number of reasons. One is that it had rained and the mud was so deep it took them over three hours to travel the 11 miles. They were married by the late Judge Barwise in front of the courthouse.

Mr. Harris, when asked what kind of work he had done, replied that he has done a little of almost every kind of manual labor. He did team work in the oilfields for years, after which he engaged extensively in the carpentry business.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris live at 420 East Jefferson. They take particular interest in their lawn, trees, flowers and vegetable garden.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris have three children: Bill of Iowa Park, Pete of St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. Warren Davis of Seattle, Wash. They have 3 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Farmers Union Gives Steer to Ag Students

John Williamson and Lee Lovell presented the Iowa Park vocational agriculture boys with a Hereford steer weighing about 400 pounds, recently, as a gift from the Farmers Union. At the same time the boys received sufficient feed for the steer from the Farmers Co-op.

The presentation was made at the Farm and Ranch club in Wichita Falls, Tuesday evening, Sept. 18.

The agriculture boys will feed the steer out and sell it, starting a perpetual fund with the proceeds.

The chapter needs such a fund to finance contests, entry fees, lunches for teams, pictures, banquets, refreshments at FFA meetings, etc.

J. K. Bradshaw, vocational agriculture teacher, expressed this week a feeling of deep satisfaction that the work of the agriculture boys has favorably impressed people of the area.

The working motto of the boys is "Do something, be somebody."

KILLED IN KOREA

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Maeckel received word this week that Gene Maeckel had been killed in action Sept. 1 in Korea. Gene is a nephew of Mr. Maeckel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Maeckel of Corpus Christi.

Clayton Baldwin is home from navy duty in Yokohama, Japan. He left there Sept. 6, arrived in Seattle on Sept. 17 and was released from duty Sept. 20. Clayton's parents Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Baldwin live in the Valley Farms area.

The 4½ year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted E. Zeck is visiting Mrs. Zeck's mother Mrs. F. C. Whistler at Levelland.

Newcomers who have stopped by at the Herald office to pick up stationery gifts are Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Puder, Mrs. Orval Deary, Mrs. C. W. Moreman and Mrs. James Todd.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Walsh and son Wayne of Lawton visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Carl Walsh over the weekend.

Byron Taylor of Granada, Colo., is visiting this week with her brother Boyd Taylor and helping Mr. and Mrs. Taylor move to Wichita Falls.
