Wichita county's Diamond Jubilee will begin officially next Saturday morning at 9:00, with Iowa Park, Electra, Burkburnett, Kamay and Wichita Falls taking part. Mayors of the various towns will deliver proclamations to County Judge Guy McNeely in a reviewing stand at Eighth and Scott in Wichita Falls.

Reading of these proclamations by the state governor will be the signal for five minutes of clamor including blowing of sirens and whistles, cannon salutes and ringing church bells, which will announce official opening of the Jubilee for eight days, May 11 through 18.

A huge parade will begin at 10:00 headed by the governor, Miss Diamond Jubilee and her court, and a host of other celebrities. Route of the parade will be through the downtown area.

Judging for the countywide beard growing contest will begin at 1:30 p.m. on the steps of the county courthouse. Members of the Kangaroo court will be on hand to try the governor and others for violations of the Jubilee laws.

At 7:30 the MU Indian band will give a concert at MU stadium.

At 8:15 the governor will crown Miss Diamond Jubilee, and the historical pageant "Diamond Trail" will follow.

Approximately 1,250 county residents will take part in the pageant which will depict the history of Wichita county from its founding to the present time.

A huge fireworks display will follow the pageant.

Sunday, second day of the 75th year celebration, will be highlighted by a community religious service at MU stadium at 7:45 p.m. A massed choral group from most of the county's churches will provide special music.

Monday will be Pioneer and Homecoming Day and will recognize the county's oldest residents, in both age and continuous residence.

Tuesday will be devoted to the youth; Wednesday to industry and labor; Thursday, agriculture; Saturday to the armed forces.

Reflections from the Bible

By Ray Marcum, Minister Iowa Park Church of Christ

We are grateful to the many who have said that they enjoy reading this short column each week. Your words of encouragement mean much to us. For the next several weeks we are going to study the beginning of the Lord's church and we do pray that you might study with us. Use your Bible for it alone is God's Holy Word.

Historically the churches of Christ have had very colorful experiences, some mighty and wonderful, others extremely distressing. To understand and appreciate these fully, we need to go back to the promise Jesus made His disciples.

"Upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

When He said, "I will build my church," He was promising to unite all pure in heart, into one body, the church.

When Jesus arose he gave explicit instructions for the creation of the glorious institution He so often referred to as the "Kingdom of Heaven." Jesus in reference to His church could not have called it, the Kingdom of the world for the people which made up His church had to leave the things of the world and base their hope upon the promise of the Father.

In giving instructions to His disciples just before His supreme sacrifice He said, "I will pray the Father and He shall give you another comforter." And "When He the Spirit of Truth, is come, He will guide you into all truth."

After He arose He said unto them, "Tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem. . ."

Lake at Highest

History making rains came to this area the latter days of last week and early part of this.

Last Thursday, Friday and Saturday the sky literally opened up and poured. It really was a busy town after the rain stopped for awhile. Everyone had to go see both city lakes and view the creeks out of their banks.

Lake Iowa Park caught enough water to put it within 15 inches of the spillway—the most storage the new city lake ever has had.

The old lake went over the spillway and caused a new sport to spring up—catching fish with bare hands and onion sack and buckets. Children and grown-ups enjoyed every minute of it.

Lake Iowa Park has received over 7 inches of rain the past week.

1957-58 officers of Noon Lions club were elected at the Tuesday meeting. Those to serve are:

President, R. B. Faulkner 1st, 2nd and 3rd vice-presidents: F. M. Wilson, Morris Jacks, George R. Huckaby sr. Secretary, Rollins Woodall Treasurer, R. R. Brubaker Lion tamer, Henry Jones Tail twister, Dan Barnes New directors: Jim Smith and Homer Thompson Holdover directors: W. G. Steele and Richard Hill

Nominating committee was composed of Alan Berry, Sam Hill and Curtis Sewell, all past presidents.

Guests introduced by Lion Tamers Peanuts Wilson were Lions Pop Work of Wichita Falls, Hugh Davis of Electra and Jules Bohn of Wichita Falls.

J. N. Holmes

Funeral rites were held for Jesse Norton Holmes, 63, of Wichita Falls, May 6, in the Grant Street Methodist church. Rev. T. M. Jensen, pastor, was assisted by Loy Mitchell, minister of the Kamay Church of Christ.

Burial was in Crestview Memorial Park of Wichita Falls under direction of Tanner Funeral Home of Iowa Park.

Pallbearers were Scott Ralston, Locke Lowrance, Forest Bates, H. A. Collier, Ed Kizer, Herschell Cobb.

Mr. Holmes died at his home in Wichita Falls early Sunday after several years of ill health.

Born June 11, 1893 in Anson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Holmes, he was married in 1925 to Miss Mary Dee Nunnelly in Abilene.

Mr. Holmes served as manager of the telephone company in Iowa Park from 1927. He established many of the rural phone exchanges in this area, among them were the systems in Windthorst, Scotland, Bluegrove, Byers, Petrolia, South Bend, Eliasville, Kamay and Ring-

District Gov. Lester Brooks told his home club of the program to be held in Brownwood this Friday and Saturday and sketched the highlights of the year's work in the district.

District 2-E has had a net gain in membership. It was second in the state in January, during Founder's month. The average gain has been 3 plus per club.

Lion Brooks concluded his talk with "Lionism is a token of kindness, love of work for Lions club around the world."

Shower Honoree Parkan Finds Rare Waterfowl

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCord of Wichita Falls were honored with a wedding shower and party Tuesday evening, April 30, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Alvey. Mmes. Homer Mulkey, A. O. Beall, Herman Kight served as co-hostesses. Guests were greeted by Mrs. Alvey and signed the guest book.

The refreshment table was laid with a white lace cloth over green. Centerpiece was an arrangement of pink roses flanked by white tapers and pink bows.

Mrs. Kight and Mrs. Terrill Filner of Wichita Falls presided at the crystal punch service.

Guests called between the hours of 7:30 and 9:30.

Mrs. McCord is the former Marie Sunday Bedford of Iowa Park.

Mr. Sam Snider caused a lot of excitement early this week when he brought down town a strange-looking bird. Everyone would ask, "What is it?" And Mr. Snider would confess he didn't know.

The long legged fowl was discovered by Mr. Snider just walking around near his home on East Washington. One wing was out of kilter, which Mr. Snider remedied and it is believed the bird will eventually recover use of it.

Ona Lou Huckaby dug up a bird cage for it to be put on exhibit in town and at school. When taken to the elementary school Mrs. Mae Roby immediately took it because her 3rd grade students are studying birds. Mrs. Roby consulted the large bird book they have at school and quickly determined the strange visitor is an Irish snipe.

It resembles a stork in many features, but it is much smaller. It has web feet, long thin legs and a long sharp bill.

Mr. Snider is caring for the snipe until it is able to travel again.

Later this week, several snipes were seen at the city lake.

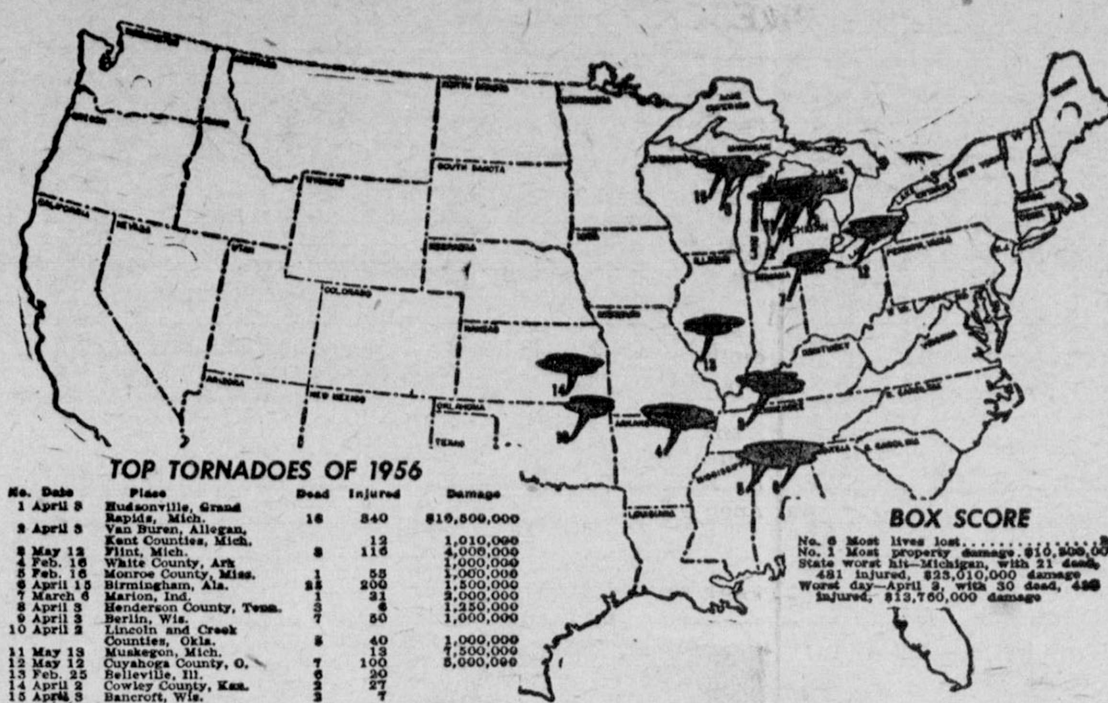

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sims and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Callahan attended the District 15 VFW convention held last weekend at Crowell.

Al C. Flack of Wichita Falls and Mrs. Geneva Bobeen of Hamlin were elected presidents of the organization and auxiliary.

Mr. Sims was elected to serve as one of the trustees of the post. Mrs. Sims was named a guard and Mrs. Callahan, a musician for the auxiliary.

About 250 members from nine counties were present. Next district convention will be held in Iowa Park next fall.

Mrs. Orland Fitzsimmons and daughter Kim went Sunday to Dallas to spend a week visiting with friends.

MAJOR TORNADOES OF 1956, as compiled from preliminary Weather Bureau data, clearly point to Spring as a time for special watchfulness by residents of the central United States—the world's most dangerous tornado area. Civil defense units are on special call throughout this vast region for possible rescue work. In addition, if a tornado-hit locality is declared a major disaster area by the President, as happened in Numbers 1, 3, 6, and 10 above, the Federal Civil Defense Administration can provide funds to aid communities in temporary repair of public facilities. MILK PRODUCERS FOR SCHWEITZER'S AFRICAN HOSPITAL

CINCINNATI—Much-delayed expedition to deliver a herd of dairy goats to Dr. Albert Schweitzer finally got underway here with the last financial obstacle of a 2-year program being removed. The public donated more than $2,000 for the venture and another $2,000 came from the World Services Committee of the Evangelical and Reformed Church at St. Louis. The truck was another donation, by Studebaker-Packard.

Dairy cows do not survive in the dank climate at the Equator and the Schweitzer jungle hospital at Lambarene in French Equatorial Africa is entirely without milk-producing animals. These Nubians, being loaded above are of African origin and are expected to survive on the sparse fare available there.

Free passage for the goats was provided by the Mississippi Shipping Corporation of New Orleans on the Del Rio. Flying the goats was first planned, but the water trip was selected for economy. The frisky and healthy herd of 14, one a kid born at the Cincinnati zoo, will be trucked to the New Orleans docks, truck and all will then begin a five week voyage. The Studebaker truck was outfitted into individual pens and will be used as a barn aboard the boat. On arrival at the hospital the truck bed shelter will be used as temporary housing until permanent quarters are completed.

Dr. Byron W. Bernard, zoo veterinarian, is accompanying the goats to the jungle settlement, and plans daily exercise on the ship deck to keep the herd in top condition.

SPARKS FOR MINDS

ALMOST five centuries ago, Gutenberg's invention of movable type started a revolution. It has been going on ever since.

For five times five centuries—and eons before—a few men were the privileged rulers—by accident of birth or of circumstance. The people were subjects, supporting those thus kept in authority.

However, movable type, by cutting the cost of printing, began the process of making knowledge more widely available. People's understanding then grew. Sparks of hope were awakened in the minds of men...When it became apparent to entrenched authority that permitting wide dissemination of information and ideas might in time destroy their securities, censorship was exercised.

In a search for greater freedom, men of many races and creeds crossed the ocean to establish homes on this continent. They and their children founded here a nation dedicated to a new principle: government by the people, and for the people. And knowing that liberty could be overthrown only by subduing freedom of speech and the press, they provided further that this basic freedom should never be abridged.

That system of government created an opportunity for all men to advance, limited only by their efforts. In but a few generations it won for this people a higher standard of living and of human welfare than had ever before been dreamed possible.

America's freedom of the press has proved to the world that the patriotic instinct of an informed plain people can be relied on to govern wisely and well.

The trucks will begin loading at 8:00 Tuesday morning, so it is suggested that householders place their trash out front Monday evening or quite early Tuesday. Weighing 34,000 pounds, this giant ladle hook is a part of the 500-ton hot metal ladle crane, the largest of its kind in the world.

A 500-ton hot metal ladle crane, the largest of its kind ever built, is being equipped with 174 roller bearings made by The Timken Roller Bearing Company of Canton, Ohio.

The mammoth crane built by Morgan Engineering Company, Alliance, Ohio, is the first of three being built for installation at a large eastern steel mill.

The new crane, in a single dip, has the power to lift and carry enough molten metal to manufacture 250 automobiles.

The large trolley, bridge and small trolley of the giant ladle crane are equipped with 174 Timken roller bearings.

Total weight of the crane without the ladle is 1,841,000 pounds. The crane has a speed of 380 feet per minute when not loaded and full load speed of 315 feet per minute. Its maximum wheel load is 87,500 pounds.

Twenty-five railroad cars were needed to ship the 500-ton hot metal ladle crane to its place of installation.

New Molasses Cowboy Cookie!

CIRCLE-O-RANGERS are plump and saucy cookies made with the help of a doughnut cutter! Senior winner of Pillsbury's Eighth Grand National Recipe and Baking Contest, these new Western gingerbread men make delicious nibbling-time treats for young cowboys and cowgirls. Extra incentive—the real New Orleans molasses is a top source of iron.

CIRCLE-O-RANGERS

- 3 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon soda
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon ginger
- 1/2 teaspoon instant coffee (if desired)
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1/2 cup real New Orleans molasses
- 1/4 cup boiling water
- Cinnamon candies, raisins or currants

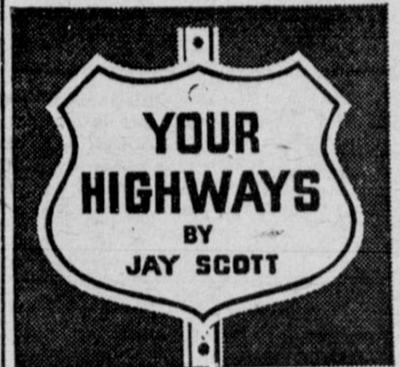

Sift dry ingredients. Set aside. Cream sugar thoroughly with shortening. Blend in molasses and boiling water.

Add dry ingredients gradually. Chill two hours. Roll out on floured board (1/4 at a time) to 1/8-inch thickness. Cut with doughnut cutter. Place circle and "hole" together on ungreased baking sheet, with "hole" for head. Cut circle opposite head and spread to make bowlegs. Make slanting cuts at sides of circle part way up; spread for arms. Use candies, raisins or currants to mark faces and buttons. Bake in 375-degree oven 7 to 9 minutes. Cool one minute before removing from pan. Makes about 6 dozen cookies.

America's new highway program, just getting underway, will include a 41,000-mile network of two-lane, four-lane, and six-lane—and even eight-lane—expressways connecting 209 major cities.

This road program—which will eventually cost about $100 billion—is bigger than 60 Panama Canals and bigger, too, than 15 TVA projects. More earth will be moved than in building all the big dams in the country.

It will take time. The Panama Canal took 15 years to build. This tremendous highway program will take 14 years.

There's a lot of work to be done, first. Plans must be formulated and approved in the various states. Routes surveyed, land acquired and contracts let.

Whether you drive 5000 miles a year or 50,000, you stand to gain enormously by the new roads.

If you're an average car owner you now spend at least 300 hours a year in driving time—much of it dragging along in traffic jams.

The new highways will eliminate bottlenecks, provide higher safe speeds. You're liable to save a hundred valuable hours a year.

You'll get better gasoline mileage, longer wear from your tires. Your car will take less beating—need fewer repairs.

And most important of all, you and your family will run fewer chances of accidents.

It's estimated that these new highways will save as many as 3500 lives a year.

HOME OWNERS QUESTION BOX

Q—I've heard quite a lot lately about using electricity to heat homes. It sounds clean and convenient, but doesn't the cost of electric power make it prohibitive for heating?

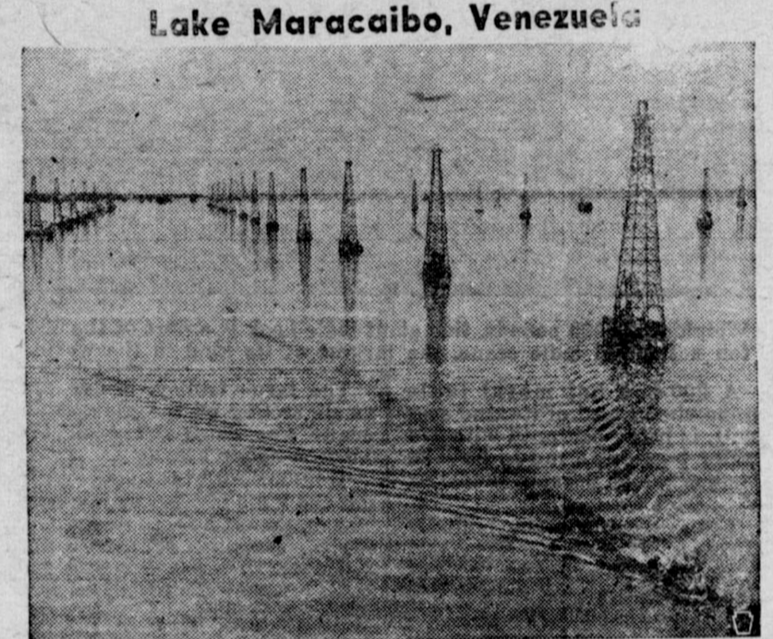

A—In areas where the electricity rate is low, tests have shown that a house can be heated economically with electricity when thick mineral wool insulation is installed in walls, ceilings, and floors. Manufacturers of electric-heating equipment recommend a 6-inch thickness of insulation in ceilings, 4 inches in walls and 2 inches in crawl-space floors or around the edge of the concrete slab under a basement-less house. The mineral wool keeps heat from escaping from a house, so that it isn't necessary to burn so much fuel. Insulation has the same effect with other types of fuel, too.

Q—Taking showers in our bathtub has loosened all the caulking compound around it. What's the best way to keep this from happening again?

A—When you re-caulk, let the compound dry thoroughly, then paint it with a good grade of enamel will make the caulking compound last longer.

Q—We recently purchased an old, three-story house and plan to modernize it. How can we relieve its tall, awkward appearance?

A—Tall houses can be made to look lower by making them longer with a porch, garage or addition on one side. If the house needs a new roof, asphalt shingles in one of the deep tones available will help, since dark colored roofs always make houses appear lower. In conjunction with this, paint the upper half of the house in a darker color than the lower half.

Lake Maracaibo, in the western part of Venezuela, is one of the world's richest oil basins. Oil derricks rise above the lake in a geometric pattern that stretches as far as the eye can see. The lake is about the size of Lake Erie and many of these oil derricks are on pilings in water 100 feet deep. Creole Petroleum Corporation, Venezuelan affiliate of Standard Oil Company (New Jersey) is a major producer of oil and has more than 2,000 derricks in the lake. A vast network of pipelines under the water is required to handle the flow of oil for the wells. Venezuela is the world's largest exporter of crude oil and is traditionally a good ally and customer of the United States.

6th Grade

Spring and the circus came to Iowa Park last Friday evening, when the two sixth grades held their annual banquet in the school cafeteria.

Highlighted with multi-colored balloons tied to each chair and clowns swinging from trapezes on the attractive programs, circus tents were used on all the table. The tents were surrounded by miniature circus animals made of plastic.

The head table featured a tent with a colorful circus parade entering it. Bareback riders on the traditional circus ponies were highlights of this arrangement. The animals and figures used on the head table were made of ceramics.

Rev. Harold Dykstra, pastor of the Presbyterian church, gave a short message to the boys and girls about not always doing things the easy way; but to tackle a hard job once in a while in order to receive the feeling of accomplishment.

Special guests were Supt. Keith Swim and Mrs. Dykstra and the grade school faculty. With 64 parents attending, a total of 138 persons were served a wonderful meal by members of the Park Area club.

Room mothers this year have been Meses. W. D. Vestal, William Lane, L. Shelton, H. W. Darnell, Lowell Short, Pete May, Jim Cowden and Tom Blackburn.

A skating party and picnic will be held Friday, May 10, for all 6th graders and their families.

FLOOD BATTERED, BUT IT'S HOME

ABILENE, TEX. — Familiar surroundings outweighed all flood discomforts with Mrs. Gertrude Hurd, 75-year-old blind resident of the flood-struck North Park area here, who insisted on returning to her home as soon as waters went down sufficiently, despite urging from friends and Red Cross workers. Here she sits in her favorite chair from which she says she can find her way to anything in the house. Helping her is Estell Johnson, one of the 56 trained Red Cross national disaster workers who have been dispatched to the Southwest storm area to assist chapter volunteers in helping disaster stricken families restore homes, furnishings and other living necessities. Red Cross relief operations have been constant throughout the month of April in Texas, with workers now spread through eight tornado swept counties and 13 other counties affected by floods.

First tire ever vulcanized by atomic energy instead of heat is examined by scientists from The B. F. Goodrich Company, Akron, Ohio, following its removal from the mold at the Atomic Energy Commission's National Reactor Testing Station, Idaho. Encased in a steel mold, the tire was lowered into a 17-foot water canal and exposed to radioactive fuel elements. Tread was grooved into tire later.

Tests show the nuclear vulcanized tire to have considerably better resistance to aging and deterioration than conventionally vulcanized tires while the tread shows "above normal" resistance to abrasion and wear, B. F. Goodrich scientists said. The tire is believed to be the first large commercial item ever processed by nuclear radiation and the first basic change in the "curing" of rubber products since the discovery of vulcanization in 1839.
