School Starts Tuesday

1957-58 school year of the local school will begin at 9:00 a.m. next Tuesday, and the first day's work will be closed at 2:30 p.m.

Already there's a hum of getting ready for school in the air.

Preparations began early in the summer and have been going strong as a big renovation job of cleaning, painting, varnishing, floor finishing, re-vamping some of the rooms, and building new closet units has gone on all summer.

Workers have been the custodians, men teachers, the principals and the superintendent.

In the grade school, all halls have been painted, floors sanded and refinished, and new closet units added.

Miss Kidwell and her teachers with the aid of several students, have been working several days this week, and all the rooms will be ready for Tuesday.

New desks have been added and books have been placed in each room. Ceramic tile has been placed behind the drinking fountains.

Approximately 500 elementary students are expected. The first graders attend a three-day preschool term in May and are enrolled and assigned to their rooms.

Four classrooms in senior and junior high have been completely remodeled. Floors of two rooms are covered with vinyl plastic and the other two with rubber tile. Ceilings are of fiberglass, new concentric ring lighting, ceramic tile on the walls. And all the furniture is new.

Board members are hoping to be able to modernize four rooms each year, until the junior and senior high school building is completely remodeled.

Junior high girls and boys will use the old gym on alternate days. The book-room has been moved to the basement.

Since the band will be in the new band building, the vocational agriculture department will occupy the entire building heretofore shared by the two. Mr. Sibley has moved the classroom into the band hall.

Grounds have been black topped around the new gymnasium and new band hall, between the elementary school and the cafeteria, and between the cafeteria and high school.

Prin. James Elms has completed class schedules for all junior and senior high school subjects and new registration cards are being used this year, which must be signed by parents. These cards have more complete information pertaining to the pupil than the ones formerly used.

High school and junior high had an increase of enrolment last year and one new teacher has been added. Elms expects about 354 students for the high schools, with 25 in the senior class.

Tuesday morning all junior and senior high school students and teachers will meet in the auditorium for a general assembly program. Then students will go to their home-rooms and receive their books.

Lunch will be served in the cafeteria. Students should plan to buy their lunch tickets Tuesday morning. Prices are the same as last year, although cost of groceries has advanced.

After lunch, short sessions of the classes will be conducted, and school will be dismissed at 2:30. Elementary students will go directly to their classrooms at 9:00 Tuesday morning. They also will be dismissed at 2:30.

All buses will keep their same routes and will run Tuesday. Any new student who lives on a bus route should contact Supt. Swim before Tuesday morning.

Regular classwork will begin Wednesday morning.

Supt. Swim has asked us to remind patrons not to park anywhere around the school plant where the curb is marked with yellow paint. This ruling is for the safety of all the children.

All Aboard for the 1957-58 School Term . . . in Safety

These first graders are all fired up for the beginning of school in Iowa Park next Tuesday. Seated, left to right, they are—Doug, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Guthrie jr.; Morris Victor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Jacks; Cindy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Walsh; Patsy Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sims; Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Huckabay jr.; Vickie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Williams; Gary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Williams. At left the same children are seen crossing the street enroute to their school rooms.

Supt. Keith D. Swim, the Iowa Park Board of Education, and the entire school staff join in this plea: "Give children a brake."

This play on words has also been voiced by officials of the Texas Safety association, in behalf of the annual Back-to-School safety program.

"With the arrival of a new school year, the pattern of life for nearly every Texan will undergo a radical change. The size of our school system will bear this out.

"Enrollment in Texas public schools for this term is expected to reach 1,833,331 pupils. There will be 75,280 teachers, principals, coaches and other school personnel; and there will be more than 8,000 school buses on the streets and highways.

"The opening of school doors affects virtually every driver too. When he gets behind the wheel of his car, he is sure to notice some differences. School areas will be guarded by the police, extra traffic signs and signals, and by Safety Patrol students. But special care on the part of the individual driver will need to be added.

"In the hours just before and after school there are increased numbers of bicycle riders, large groups of child pedestrians and the many school buses. All of these are signs, within themselves, for added carefulness while driving on our streets and highways.

"In 1956, there were more than 150 students killed in Texas traffic accidents, and approximately 8,920 injured. Of course these are "just statistics"—unless you or a close member of your family was involved.

"A sense of responsibility and dependability should be a part of the licensed driver's habits. He must recognize that a child can't be relied upon to follow the rules of safety, thus the driver's alertness must compensate for children's mistakes—"Give them a brake!"

"As a short course in safety, here are five suggestions to the motorists:

1. Be alert for children at all times, especially around school zones, playgrounds and other places where children congregate.
2. Know and obey the special warnings given in school areas by signs and signals, traffic police and Safety Patrol students. Watch for human caution signs in action—the children themselves.
3. Don't be juvenile and try to compete with bike riders—go slow and let them grow up.

"4. Stop when a school bus stops.

"5. THINK SAFETY ALWAYS."

The following individuals and business establishments in Our Town, with their several employees and staffs, heartily endorse the above expression from our school people, and recommend caution on the part of motorists, and school children too, at all times. We join in the admonition—"Give the children a brake!"

Reflections from the Bible

By Ray Marcum, Minister
Iowa Park Church of Christ

The 11th chapter of the book of Hebrews is inspiration's Hall of Fame. From its sacred pages we get a glimpse of the faith of the ancients who towered above their contemporaries like mountains above surrounding hills. I have often times wondered what characteristics it was of Moses, and of Abraham, and of David, that caused them to stand out head and shoulders above their fellowmen. I am able to come to no other conclusion than that these men, possessed of human frailties like other fellows and mentally on about the same level with them, possessed one thing in abundance—greater than all their fellow men namely an indestructible faith in the existence, and the righteousness, of Almighty God.

Man's greatest urge, next to life itself, is for conquest. This desire might even be said to be the basis of religion, for it is the desire for victory over death, that grim monster against which man by himself must wrestle in vain, that causes us to seek and find the hand of God to steady us through.

An unflinching faith is one of the greatest needs of this skeptical age. An unflinching faith does not contradict or prohibit human investigation in any field, it does furnish an answer to man's question before his laboratory work has uncovered an answer.
