Revival Preacher

The young man with the penetrating eyes, the physical and mental scars that confirm his three years as a drug addict, knows why teenagers turn to dope—and he explains it in phrases typical of someone who once roamed the back streets of a big Texas city, with a ring called the Dirty Five.

"Narcotics among teenagers is a fad now. It's just the thing to do. I know. That's why I was busted."

In the vernacular of the narcotics addict, Paul Carlin, a young Baptist evangelist, has told thousands all over the South the story of his teenage career of robbery, theft and narcotics addiction.

He is to preach Oct. 14-20 at the Faith Baptist church of Iowa Park.

Mac Lucy, son of Mrs. Ruth Lucy of Wichita Falls, was inducted into the army recently at Dallas. He is a graduate of IPHS and of NTS, Denton. Mrs. Lucy is a former teacher in Iowa Park High School.

Rites Held for Lella Grace Livingston

Mrs. Lella Grace Livingston, a lifelong resident of Iowa Park, died Tuesday night in a Wichita Falls hospital. Services were held Thursday morning at the Presbyterian church with Rev. Harold Dykstra, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in Highland cemetery under direction of Tanner Funeral Home. Pallbearers were King Abernathy, C. E. Birk, Locke Lovrance, George Richter, Morris V. Jacks and Ed Watson.

Mrs. Livingston was born here July 11, 1907 and made her home in Iowa Park most of her life. She moved with her family to Waco when she was a child; later they moved back and made their home on the Kamay highway.

She was married to Ralph M. Livingston, who died in April of this year. She was the daughter of R. W. and the late Mrs. Cornforth, who also died this year. Survivors include her father and a sister Mrs. Tom Covington and two nieces Sue and Amy Lou Covington, all of Iowa Park.

Lella Grace, as everyone knew her, had served as secretary-manager of the local Chamber of Commerce or two different occasions. Prior to her marriage she served for several years, resigning to accept one as deputy tax assessor and collector in the county courthouse. She continued in this job for several years and then accepted a position with Mattingly Grace Buick company in Wichita Falls.

Her husband became ill and she placed him in a sanitarium in Kerrville and worked in that city. When his health improved, she came back and again became the secretary-manager for the Chamber of Commerce.

Lella Grace continued in this position until last spring, when she had to accompany Mr. Livingston to Dallas, where he was hospitalized. After the death of her husband, she accepted a position with the Jacks Insurance Agency, where she was employed when she became ill.

Everyone who knew Lella loved her. Her kindness, understanding, patience and fortitude were remarkable. She had many trials to bear and many burdens to carry, but through it all she met problems with her chin up, and faith in her Maker carried her through.

Although friends have known for several months that she would never be well, Lella never intimated by word or act that she had given up. In conversations shortly before she returned to the hospital, she told a friend that she had written several poems and she had plans to publish some of them, for which the friend planned to do the illustrations.

Toward the end when she realized she would not get well, she was still concerned, not with her own condition, but with her father's health and how much trouble she might be causing.

At the Presbyterian church, rarely a Christmas passed or a Christmas program was presented that Lella did not tell a story for the children while they waited for "Santa." This was a custom which was carried down through the years and many a man and woman who grew up in the Presbyterian church will remember her talent for telling a story.

She had many talents. She was a member of the Wichita Falls Poetry society and planned to take an active part in their program for this year. She had written many poems, particularly about the illness and death of her husband. Many were dedicated to him and many to her mother. They were simple, beautiful and expressed her undying love and faith in her Master.

This being the case it is fitting that the words of another poet be used to describe Lella's life and her passing.

"So live, that when thy summons comes, Thou goest not like the quarry slave at night, Scourged to his dungeon. . . . But sustained and soothed by an unfaltering Trust, Approach thy grave, Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him And lies down to pleasant dreams."

Fair Gets Pat Boone

Pat Boone, America's latest singing sensation of television and the movies, will star in his own show in the Cotton Bowl Sunday night, Oct. 13, at the 1957 State Fair of Texas. The gala performance, one night only, will be sponsored by Dallas Radio Station KLIP.

Franklin Farmer and Bride to Do Church Work in Oklahoma

The theology chapel of Southwestern Seminary of Ft. Worth was the scene of a wedding ceremony for Miss Bonnie Lea Fabriguze of Duncan, Okla., and Franklin Delano Farmer of Iowa Park.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Fabriguze of Silsbee. Franklin's parents are the late Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Farmer, members of pioneer Iowa ark families.

The couple exchanged vows at 6:00 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 28 before a setting of white mums and jade foliage, flanked by candelabra. Dr. Thurmond George, pastor of First Baptist church of Duncan, read the ceremony. The couple exchanged wide gold bands that were hand fashioned by Dr. Jack Fuson, a seminary classmate of the couple, who is now with the air force at Goose Bay, Labrador.

Gerald Ray of Ft. Worth, organist, presented traditional nuptial music. Soloists, Miss Janie Bell and Bob Hines, both of Dallas, sang "Because" and the Lord's Prayer.

Candlelighters were Bill Kennedy of Shreveport, La., and Rex Hopson of Mound. Gene Wright of Oklahoma City was assisted as usher by the candlelighters.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz length gown of white venise lace over taffeta. A pearl tiara with a veil of illusion and a single strand of pearls were worn. She carried a nosegay bouquet of white orchid and stephanotis.

Mrs. D. B. Martin of Ft. Worth was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Joy McCullough of Waco and Miss Heather Parkinson of Kingstom, Jamaica.

Charles Quick of Iowa Park served as best man. Groomsman were Jim Hooten of Ft. Worth and Iowa Park, and Jerry Buckner of Springfield, Mo.

A reception was held in the parlor of Barnard Hall. Assisting were sisters of the bride: Mrs. Elroy DeSpain of Beaumont, Miss Carolyn and Miss Beverly Fabriguze of Silsbee; and the groom's sister Miss Lorene Farmer of Wichita Falls.

The bride chose for traveling a suit of imported silk with brown accessories. The couple will establish residence at 223 South Francis, Ada, Okla.

Franklin will be BSU director at East Central State college, and Mrs. Farmer will be youth director of First Baptist church of Ada.

The bride is a Beaumont high school graduate and has the BS degree from Lamar Tech and the master of education degree from the seminary at Ft. Worth.

Farmer is a 1950 graduate of IPHS. He received the BS degree at Midwestern university and the BD from the seminary. He is a former pastor of Murray Baptist church of Graham.

Reflections from the Bible

by Ray Marcum
Iowa Park Church of Christ

If it were right to take the name of any man as a religious title, or any system as a religious title, there are no more holy and godly names than Paul, and Peter and Apollis. Yet Paul informed us directly that such action is condemned of the Lord. If it would be wrong to call a church by the name of Paul, or of Peter then it would be wrong to call one by any other name.

Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Were you baptized in the name of Paul? If Paul was crucified for you then you might well wear the name of Paul. If any other man was crucified for you then you might well wear his name. If Paul has bought you then you might well be called "Paulites." If Peter has redeemed you, you might well be "Cephalites." If Jesus has redeemed you then in the name of Jesus you must rejoice.

The name Christian is the only religious title in the world under which man can be universally accepted of God. It is a hopeless task to try to unite the various human organizations of Christendom under any of the names that prevail among them.

Some one has said, "preach the gospel," but friends this is the gospel, Paul preached it. A man that is freezing to death doesn't like to be disturbed either. adv

Albert Bohanon, 48, was taken to Wichita General hospital last Saturday afternoon by Tanner ambulance, suffering from a broken leg received in a traffic accident on Ruby street.

Iowa Park Future Farmers set an outstanding record at the T-O Fair this year. Seven boys entered livestock and five won blue ribbons.

Blue ribbon winners were: Deryl James, lightweight steer and reserve grand champion of the junior steer show.

Billy Patterson; Guernsey heifer. John Williamson; Jersey cow. Ray Hicks; Hampshire gilt. Jerry Robertson; White Rock hens.

Other winners were: Linton Lovrance, 3rd, aged Hampshire ewe; Jimmy Banks, 2nd, broilers.

The dairy judging team won first in the junior dairy judging contest for the second consecutive year. Members of this team were Donald Richter, Jackie Brooks and Jerry Padgett. Richter was high point man of the contest.

and Padgett was 3rd high. They received individual medals.

The livestock judging team composed of Louie Reed, Don Ray, Klinkerman, Deryl James and Roy Hicks placed 4th.

Participating in grass judging were Billy Patterson, Randy Trantham and Tommy Pierce.

These teams were coached by John E. Sibley, vocational agriculture instructor of IPHS.

The soil conservation booth exhibited by Iowa Park rated 5th. Jerry Robertson, reporter

DIRECTORS MEETING
Eight directors were present for the Oct. 1 meeting. A nominating committee of C. E. Birk, Joe Price, Harrel Sullivan and Joe Baxter was appointed to select 14 candidates for ballots on which seven directors will be elected.

F. E. Hill reports Dec. 2 has been set as the date for the 'All Town Banquet.'

HOME OF THE MONTH
Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Mann of 111 W. Smith have been given the award for September in the Home of the Month contest, because of making the most improvement in their yard for this year.

The city beautification committee with Mrs. O. E. Lochridge as chairman for September, and its members Mrs. E. E. Wallis, Mrs. C. J. Thurber, Mrs. Curtis Hill and Mrs. Mabel Karstetter, have been trying to select a home each time which has shown outstanding improvement this year in each section of Our Town.

In the Southwest section, they have been observing all summer how Mr. and Mrs. Mann have cleared the rubbish from around their home, which used to be the annex to the old Helton hotel, a building of 50 years. They have leveled the yards between their home and adjacent buildings to table smoothness, planted grass and made an inviting outdoor living room under the trees east of their house.

The Manns plan to tear down the old building and erect a new home. Much credit is given them for making a neat, beautiful yard out of what had been an eyesore.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK
A salute to the Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Department for constant services rendered through the year; time and work freely given to protect our homes and business property from destruction by fire. Each citizen can help by keeping trash, litter, weeds and grass burned on and around his premises.

From now until Jan. 31, you may pay your poll tax at the C of C office. Many important elections are coming in 1958.

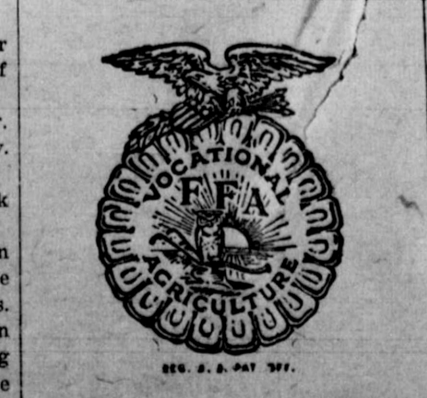

LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP
Leadership Workshop — Monday, Oct. 14, Midwestern university.

Wanted — Men in our community interested enough to attend. It has been said by our nation's leading businessmen that, not only is it a universally accepted practice to devote a tenth of an individual's means or income to religious and or charitable activities, but it is also a fact that a citizen owes the community in which he lives, rears his family and enjoys all the privileges of schools, churches, paved streets, law, sanitation, city government and protection, a tithe of his time to community projects. The C of C promotes such projects.

ABUNDANT LIFE BY ORAL ROBERTS

HOW TO TOUCH THE INVISIBLE

The robe of Jesus has a story to tell. If it could only talk it would thrill the heart of the world. It was made by Mary and Martha to show their gratefulness that their brother Lazarus was raised from the dead. Thus it became a symbol of the power of Jesus over life and death! This robe became a "point of contact." To touch it was to touch Jesus. And to those who touched it, the robe became a conductor to the invisible. The Bible states, "For as many as touched His robe were made perfectly whole."

A certain woman suffered an incurable disease. She decided to seek Jesus for healing. She learned that it was practically impossible to see Him. And so she said, "If I can only touch the hem of His garment. . ."

She pushed her way through the crowd, used the last remnant of her strength to fall forward and thrust out her hand to touch the hem of His garment. Instantly she was made completely well, for, to touch the visible with her hands was to touch the invisible with her faith. She had made her "point of contact."

What is a "point of contact?" It means that you use something material in order to stimulate faith which touches something that is spiritual.

It could be when the minister of God lays his hands upon you, or when you clasp your Bible in your arms, or kneel in prayer. But it is that precise moment that you set in your own mind and spirit to release your faith that brings deliverance to you as you believe.

One evening six or seven people met for prayer in a chapel. One of the group, a nurse, was absent. She was in a large city at the bedside of a nephew. This young man had a burst appendix and suffered blood poisoning. There was also an infected kidney and a streptococcal infection of the blood stream.

The nurse in charge of this young man understood the terrible danger of her patient's condition. She called long distance and asked that this group pray for him. "At exactly 9:30 we will pray for him," she was told.

"Tell him to expect his healing at that moment and you pray for him, also."

Two days later she returned to the town in which the group lived. She found one of her friends in the back yard pulling weeds.

"I had the most wonderful thing I have ever seen," the nurse declared. "At 9:45 he looked up and said, 'What is happening to me? All of a sudden I feel fine. I don't hurt anymore.'"

The hospital, in perplexity, kept him one more day during which every test was negative. On the following day he went home. This incident is in the hospital records and can be investigated by anyone who cares to.

There was a time set to believe . . . the robe of the Nazarene was touched . . . the "point of contact" was reached and a miracle took place.

SIXTH GRADE REPORT

The sixth grade class in Mrs. Reaves's room recently was organized with Harry Moore as president; Frankie Cooper, vice-president; Drew Sawyer, secretary; Dorris Gard, treasurer; Judy Callaway, reporter.

We decided to bring 25¢ each semester as class dues. We will have good programs in the near future. The president will appoint a program chairman and some students to help him.

We welcome as new students: Charla Gilbert and Frankie Cooper.

In observance of Oil Progress Week, 10 seniors of IPHS will be guests of Warren Oil corporation and Shell Oil company on Wed., Oct. They will leave school at 9:00 a.m. and return at 3:20 p.m.

During the day they will tour the plant and field of these companies. At noon they will be guests at a luncheon.

Selected to take the tour are James Low, Donald Morgan, Shari Rogers, Tommy Starkes, Betty Tatom, Monroe Wiggins, Larry Hall, Billy McKenzie, Mary Skinner, Jane Waters.

HONOR SOCIETY ELECTS

Members of the National Honor Society met recently to elect officers. They are: James Low, president; Tommy Starkes, vice-president; Nancy Smith, secretary and treasurer.

A discussion was then led by Mrs. O. R. Owens to talk over projects for the year.

Other members present were Jo Ann Brubaker and Sue Bedford.

Initiation for new members was conducted Sept. 4. Previous members helping with the service were Violet Brott and Carol Thomas. Douglas James, Harvey Klinkerman and Josette Hensley were unable to attend.

New students pledged and pinned into the society are Jo Ann Brubaker, Sue Bedford and Nancy Smith.

SENIOR NEWS

Last week all the Srs were busy at the stand. At this time we would like to thank all our parents and teachers, past and present, for helping us so much at the stand and otherwise.

Donald, you and Kay better get to class after work.

Linda Fanny Holmes is our

Oil Progress Queen candidate. See you.—"Red."

Juniors are in a thankful mood this week. We appreciate everyone who took an ad in the football program; all the folk who buy pep ribbons each week for the game; and all the mothers, teachers, fathers and patrons who made our stand a financial success.

Sue, where were you a few nights ago? You weren't out at P.P., were you?

Louis, we're sorry to hear about the black eye you obtained by running into a door.

Paul, what do those notes say you get from Linda McKenzie? From your starry-eyed appearance, we get ideas.

A group of Jrs and Srs enjoy studying physics together. Julia, ask Larry with whom he studies. Mary, did you find the VV Sr you were hunting at the Fair? Jolyn, were you and Judy making some changes at Berry's the day of the parade?

Mark, where is your football jacket. Could it be on D. B.?

Tex, there's a rumor about you and a certain Sr girl. True or false?

See you at Crowell.—Malcolm.

BAND NOTES

Auditions were held recently for junior high drum major and high school majorettes. Rosemary Clark was chosen drum major. Portia McManus, Glenna Archer and Peggy Weiss are majorettes.

This year's beginners turned out in large numbers. There are 44 fifth graders and 4 sixth graders. In junior and senior high school there are 4 seventh graders, 9 eighth graders and 2 tenth graders. Stick with it, kids, and it will pay off.

Seems, Nancy, Shorty, Nick and Drew ran into trouble when they arrived early at the Burk game. A Bulldog band member tried to take them into the band room. Must be a new way to recruit. Let's be more careful next time.

Band parents have the booth on the north side of the football field. They have cold drinks, sandwiches, brownies, dogs on a stick, hot dogs, muffins, pie, candy, gum, hot chocolate and coffee. Funds of the band parents club are used for purchase and maintenance of uniforms.

Band members and Band Parents wish to thank everyone who patronized their stand at the T-O Fair.

We won 2nd in marching, 1st in concert, and the Sweepstakes award. Sue Bedford won second in twirling for B class.

Each Friday night you'll catch the band on their toes. Each person in the best looking rank gets a dandy-dog!—Mary.

The 4-H club held its first meeting Wednesday. Officers elected are John Hopkin, president; Jerry Starr, vice-president; Harry Moore, secretary; Drew Sawyer, reporter. The club meetings on the first Wednesday of each month.

PLAN WITH US

The second period homemaking girls are striving to fulfill their title. In order to feel the true warmth of our cottage, we decided to make a few changes and additions.

Our class is taking the bedroom and bath, and with the help of our new teacher Mrs. Hutchins, who gives many helpful ideas, we hope really to improve the cottage. We made a few figures as to the expense. They were approved. A little paint and curtains will help the appearance.

Our work begins Friday; will you be with us?

—Cynthia Tatom.

HOMEMAKING II AND III

Homemaking girls of our class were enthused with the okay of Mr. Swim to redecorate the classroom of our homemaking cottage. We had decided to take about two weeks of class time and repaint the ceiling and closets.

When we are finished we are hoping all the girls will enjoy it. We are looking forward with great anxiety to the task. We are hoping to learn a great deal.

—Faye

Iowa Park schools will put emphasis on Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 7-11 by distributing fire prevention materials and by having fire drills.

Six weeks examinations will be given next Thursday and Friday. Report cards will be distributed Oct. 17.

HOMEMAKING NEWS

The first period class, smallest in number, all freshmen, have been making some changes. We have decided to redecorate the diningroom. We hope to get new curtains and wallpaper. We are going to refinish the woodwork and hope to make our cottage more livable and attractive.

—Kathy Teal, reporter.

Forester O. Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Robertson of Iowa Park, recently finished navy recruit training in San Diego, Cal.

State Representative Tony Fenoglio was recently given recognition for his leadership as a member of the Texas legislature and for services rendered in behalf of vocational agriculture. He was presented a plaque by the Vocational Agriculture Teachers association at a breakfast in Houston. The plaque bears the signatures of the VATAT president and executive secretary and carries the message, "for distinguished service, in grateful recognition of your leadership as a member of the Texas legislature, and for services rendered in the advancement of vocational agriculture."

SPOTLIGHT on SPORTS

Iowa Park Hawks have been getting a liberal education in defensive play the early part of this season, and now that the conference games are on tap, they expect to do much better.

Last Friday night, the Hawks were hosts to Haskell, and found themselves completely outclassed. The Hawks got only one drive underway, in the third period, and a fumble ended that goalward march.

While suffering at 59-0 defeat, the Hawks were able to generate enough steam to whistle out 124 yards rushing, with only 8 by the aerial route.

This Friday the team goes to Crowell to open conference play.

Gerald Combs, former IPHS and Navarro Junior college football star, has been sidelined the rest of the season at McMurry college, due to a broken ankle.

The 5 foot 4 inch, 133 pound back, who turned in an exceptional performance in the opening game against West Texas State, suffered the injury in practice. Gerald is son of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Combs of Iowa Park and husband of the former Mrs. Peggy Koocoo.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Koocoo recently visited their daughter and son in law at Abilene.

Sunday School Class Party

Mrs. W. H. Mahler entertained her Sunday School class of the Evangelical United Brethren of Wichita Falls in the home of her son Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mahler in Iowa Park, Tuesday afternoon, when they met for the regular monthly business session.

Mrs. Wilson gave the devotional and Mrs. Ulrich Forscher, president, of the business session. A social hour followed.

Refreshments were served to 13 members: Mmes. Forscher, Goins, Long, Wilson, Anderson, Langley, Mahler, Frank Krebs, Heath, Harry Krebs, Bowden, Carr, Hughes.

Mrs. Mahler is a long-time member of the Wichita Falls church. She is at present making her home in Iowa Park with the Herman Mahlers.

SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS Attention all self-employed persons! Beginning with 1956 all self-employed except doctors of medicine are covered by social security if they have net earnings of $400 or more.

In order to secure proper credit for your work and your taxes paid, be sure your account number is shown on your tax return. If you have never had a number, or if you have lost your number, contact your nearest Social Security office located at 421 Post Office building, Wichita Falls.

Or, if you had rather meet the representative, he will be in Iowa Park at the City Hall next Tuesday, Oct. 10, during the morning.

Highland Cemetery association will hold a meeting at the Christian church next Sunday afternoon at 3:00. The public is invited.

YARBOROUGH AND THE LITTLE ROCK DEAL

Sen. Ralph Yarborough released the following statement on the Little Rock tragedy from his office in Austin last weekend:

"Some vocal Texas politicians who have campaigned for the Republican party for years and years are now running over Texas hating their Eisenhower buttons."

"Everybody knows that I have opposed this administration with all the means at my command, so it is not necessary for me to issue any exculpatory statements."

"However, no real American can fail to be saddened by the tragic conflict dividing this country. Now is the time for statesmanship, not brinkmanship."

YOUR HIGHWAYS BY JAY SCOTT

Would you like to save as much as $150 a year on your auto's upkeep. Well, then, first of all read the owner's manual. Cross-switch your tires every 3,000 miles and be sure to include your spare. Check the wheel alignment. Have your battery water checked frequently—every two weeks in summer, once a month in winter. Plan your driving. This could save as much as one gallon out of every three in city driving.

Only one President has ever been arrested for speeding. He was U. S. Grant who was nabbed by a Washington, D. C. cop for driving a two-horse carriage down Pennsylvania Avenue at "unreasonable speed." General Grant paid a $5 fine and complimented the policeman for doing his duty.

Women drivers are better than men in signalling their left hand turns says Dr. Abram M. Barch, Michigan State University. Delaware, Maine, Louisiana, Minnesota and South Dakota resident motorists received reflective license plates this year. These plates, visible from 2000 feet away at night, help reduce after-dark accidents. Walrus hides, diapers and women's golf gloves are used to build autos, trucks and other auto products. The hides are used to make friction drives for coil winding machines, the diapers to polish and clean parts and the gloves to protect workers hands in lacing and tying wiring.

CHEVROLET PICKUP CLIMBS PIKES PEAK THE HARD WAY ...OF THE ROAD!

Off-the-road run up Pikes Peak was called possible by people who know the mountain well. But a production Chevrolet pickup actually did it to prove its pulling power and ruggedness!

All the way to the top without using the road! Here the truck scales high boulder pile near the 14,110-foot summit.

Steep grade near timberline—a rugged test of power. The power and torque of Chevrolet's famous Thriftmaster 6 proved more than a match for the most difficult grades.

Miles of loose boulders and thinning air offer extreme challenge. Yet the big Chevy engine never faltered; it performed flawlessly mile after mile, all the way up the mountain!

Final effort achieves summit! Pickup conquers Pikes Peak. It shows why Chevrolet trucks are famous for staying and saving on tough jobs! Talk trucks with your Chevrolet dealer.
