Widows between the ages of 62 and 65 were given preferred treatment under the 1956 changes in the Social Security Act.
While wives and women workers also can receive social security payments as early as age 62, their filing before reaching 65 will result in a reduction in the benefit payments. Widows can file at 62 without any reduction in the amount of their payments as widows.
A representative will be in Iowa Park at the City Hall on Thursday, Dec. 5, to assist any person in filing a claim for old age and survivors benefits.

Leslie B. Finnell Named Head of Holiday Civic Club for '58

Robert Chesher, president, conducted the meeting of Holiday Civic club Tuesday night, Nov. 12, at the Community Building. Fred Maier led the opening prayer. Mrs. Charles V. Lough and Mrs. H. M. Simpson gave the secretary's and treasurer's reports.
C. V. Lough, chairman of the nominating committee, submitted the following list of nominees: President, Leslie B. Finnell; Vice-president, C. E. Toner; Secretary, Mrs. A. M. Carter; Treasurer, Lloyd Loudamy. All were elected by acclamation.
Lough reported on the building progress and the debts incurred. Mrs. Lough reported on the house-to-house canvass for the United Fund drive, which was to be completed if possible by Nov. 18.
C. E. Roberts expressed appreciation of the Texas Electric Service company for use of the building for the cooking school.

Alex Dickey of Denton, president of Texas Farmers Union, spoke to the Noon Lions club last Tuesday on the objects of the Farmers Union. He was introduced by Lester Brooks, program chairman.
Mr. Dickey is a graduate of Texas A & M and received the master's degree from NTSC at Denton. He is a farmer and owns a 1500 acre farm in Denton county. He has been president of FU for three years.
Dickey said Farmers Union is designed for farmers and their families and for their protection. He told the Lions that last year 168,000 persons were driven from farms in the United States because of the great losses the farmers had because of low prices they received for their products.
It is the belief of Farmers Union leaders that flexible price supports are the ruin of the farming industry and contribute to the so-called surplus of production.
Dickey told of the subsidies enjoyed by many segments of the American economy which are the accepted practice, and compared it with the total lack of an effective plan for protecting the family type farmer, who takes what he can get for his food and fiber in the marketplace, while industries limit production to fit demand and maintain profitable prices.
Farmers Union, said Dickey, is trying to get a plan that will do as well for the producers of our most vital goods—food and fiber.
Other guests at the meeting were Gene Lowrey and Kelley Gilbreath. Sweethearts Harriett Coppock and Mary Miles Mixon provided the luncheon music.

Laying aside the air force blue for two days, Halbert will don boots and levis to take part in the "Big Texas Day" rodeo being held Nov. 30 and Dec. 1 in Tripoli. The event is expected to bring together more than 30,000 Libyans and Americans as spectators.
More than 100 American airmen will perform everything from bronc busting and wild cow milking to an attack by real American Indians. Libyan sheiks will also be on hand to demonstrate some of their feats of riding.

Reflections from the Bible

By Ray Marcum, Minister Iowa Park Church of Christ
Many God-fearing, Bible-believing persons have been mistaken about baptism. One of the first of these was Apollous of Alexandria. He was an eloquent man, a man mighty in the Scriptures. Also he was "instructed in the way of the Lord," and was "fervent in the spirit." He "spoke and taught diligently," but he was mistaken about baptism (Acts 18:24-25).
He knew only the baptism of John the baptizer, and had not learned of the baptism into Christ (Gal. 3:27). Paul explained that John baptized "with a baptism of repentance," telling the people that they should believe on the one who was to come after John, "that is, on Christ Jesus" (Acts 19:4). Apollous was living up to the best light that he had. He was telling people to be baptized, but he did not know the baptism of Christ, and to remission of sins" (Acts 2:38), "into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit" (Matt. 28:19).
He and those whom he taught in Ephesus had been immersed or baptized, but without a proper understanding of the act. Their immersion had not been "into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." What should they do? What should honest believers in Christ do today when they find out they have not completely conformed to the teachings of Christ in this regard? Should Apollous become offended when Aquila and Priscilla bring this matter to his attention?
Should he shrug his shoulders and say that "Baptism doesn't make any difference anyway"?

Everybody is invited to the Rummage Sale and Bake Sale of the Christian Church Women's Fellowship all day Saturday, Nov. 23.

The Men's Class will furnish home made Chili, and the women will have everything else good to eat.
Many hand made articles, ideal for Christmas gifts, will be available.
Come one, come all — to the Old Texas Electric Office on Cash Street.

DISTRICT SESSION HELD IN VERNON CHURCH

On Monday members of the Women's Missionary Society attended the annual District 11 session, held at Vernon. Theme was "Lead on, O King Eternal."

Speakers heard were Miss Josephine Scaggs, missionary doing educational and evangelistic work in Joinkrama, Nigeria, and Mrs. Tex Culp of Dallas, state Girls Auxiliary secretary, who spoke on "Lead on with Deeds of Love and Mercy."

Miss Patty Lou Eads, a senior at Howard Payne college, Brownwood, gave the morning meditation on "Behold I set before thee an open door."

Mrs. B. T. Adams, past associational president of Wichita-Archer WMU's, read the proposed by-laws.

Mrs. Clarence Smith and Mrs. W. H. Gholson were narrators in presenting the associational presidents and standing chairmen, with their accomplishments during the year, under the title "The Day of March Has Come."

Mrs. Homer Thompson of Iowa Park conducted the memorial service. Reports of committees were presented by Mrs. J. H. Landis, Mrs. W. E. Norman, Mrs. E. E. Tidwell, Mrs. Joe Couch, Mrs. H. L. Westerman.

John Matthews, music director for the host church, was in charge of the music, presenting several special numbers.

Closing meditation was "The Crown Awaits the Conquest" by Mary Ann Baber and Lee Ellen Simpson, directed by Wanda Black, ed.

WMU's from all over the district were represented. Many pastors were present.

Loyalty Dinner

The covered dish Loyalty Dinner which was the social feature of the Forward Advance program being conducted by the First Baptist church of Iowa Park, was proclaimed a wonderful success last Friday night.

The Forward Advance stewardship program began Sunday, Oct. 27 and will close next Sunday with "Victory Day."

During this 29-day campaign, the church mailed each week a First Baptist Newspaper to each resident family of the church and to each member attending the Sunday School, informing them of the purpose of the program. Letters were mailed to every member inviting them to the Loyalty Dinner. This was followed up by the telephone committee, and the results were marvellous.

The dining-room was beautifully decorated, and near 250 persons enjoyed a delicious meal. Rev. Homer Thompson, pastor, was master of ceremonies, and Malcolm Mills gave the invocation.

A short interesting program and some fine music made the evening one to be remembered as an enjoyable occasion.

BWC THANKSGIVING DINNER

Business Women's circle of the First Baptist church met Tuesday evening in the church for its regular Thanksgiving dinner, which was a covered dish affair.

Fifteen members and their families were present. Mrs. Taylor George, circle chairman, was in charge of the program. Mrs. Homer Thompson gave the invocation, Mrs. Homer Blalock brought the meditation, and Mrs. Henry Jones led the missions program.

Next BWC meeting will be Tuesday, Dec. 3, with Mrs. Lee Smith.

Pastor Resigns, to Be Missionary

Rev. W. A. McKee resigned this week as pastor of Mankins Baptist church. He is a graduate of Midwestern university and is enrolled as a senior at Southwestern Theological seminary, Ft. Worth. McKee plans to go into foreign mission work after graduation from the seminary.

He has served the Mankins congregation since November 1954, and during that time attendance has increased 20 per cent.

This week McKee is helping to conduct a revival at Star Avenue church in Wichita Falls.

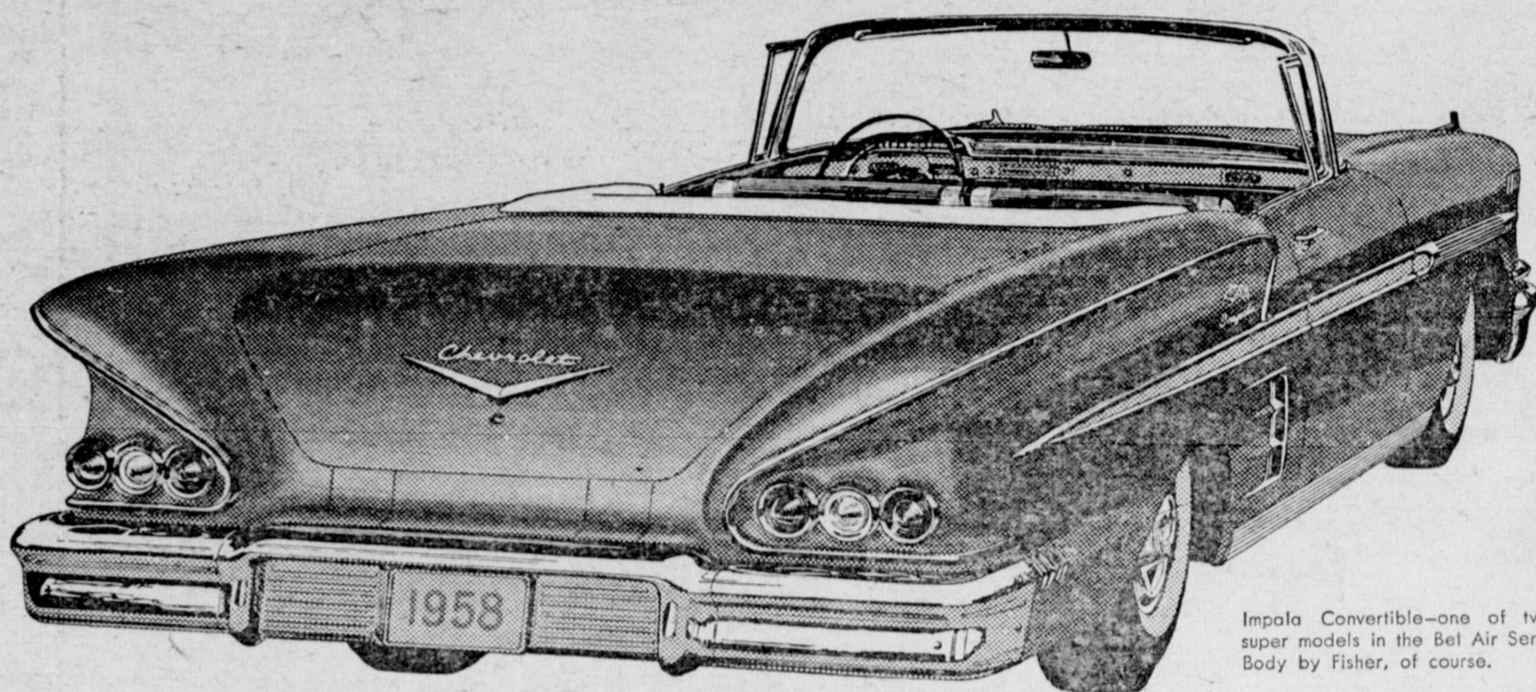

For his closing sermon at Mankins, the young pastor chose as subject "The Sin of the One Talent Man," emphasizing that the habit of doing nothing is one of the greatest sins of present-day Christians.

A NEWSPAPER WAS A RARITY IN MANY AMERICAN COMMUNITIES!

Then—a newspaper was a thing to be marveled at—for memories of the Press' fight for freedom were fresh in mind. Although newspapers are common in our country today, their existence should not be taken for granted. It is a wonderful fact that almost all of our modern communities have their own hometown newspapers, freely edited by members of their own communities—spreading the news, stimulating the business of the community, and keeping their readers informed of important events elsewhere. It is well to keep in mind that a free press and a free people are an unbeatable team.

New Holiday Party Treat

Hot fruit cake with coconut hard sauce balls are this year's answer to easy holiday entertaining. The fruit cake, laden with rich nuts and fruits from all over the world, is available from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department and the slices only require about 20 minutes in a moderate oven to heat through. Hard sauce, always a favorite fruit cake accompaniment, will taste even better in a coating of shredded coconut.

Here's how to prepare this attractive dessert combination:

HOT FRUIT CAKE WITH COCONUT HARD SAUCE BALLS

Coconut Hard Sauce Balls
1/2 cup (1 stick) butter or margarine (room temperature) 2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg or mace
3/4 teaspoon vanilla, or rum flavoring to taste
2 tablespoons cream or milk
1/4 cup finely chopped green cherries (maraschino or candied)
1/4 cup finely chopped red cherries (maraschino or candied)
Flaked coconut

Cover cookie sheet with a double thickness of foil. Arrange 3/4-inch thick fruit cake slices, as desired, on foil. Cover with a second sheet of foil and crimp edges of foil together securely. Place in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) and allow cake to heat through, about 20 minutes. Serve hot topped with Coconut Hard Sauce Balls. To make hard sauce, cream butter or margarine until soft and fluffy. Add all remaining ingredients, except coconut, and blend until smooth. Chill slightly. Shape into 1-inch balls and roll in coconut. Chill. Makes about 24 to 30 balls.

*If preferred, a whole cake—or slices—may be heated in a steamer or heated whole in the oven in aluminum or covered dish. If a whole cake is heated at a time reduce temperature to 325 degrees F. and allow to heat 35-40 minutes.

PROCLAIMS CHRISTMAS SEAL DAY—Governor Price Daniel has proclaimed "Christmas Seal Days" as that period from November 15 to December 24. Bearing the request for the proclamation was Miss Carolyn Calvert of Austin, Texas' first Miss Christmas Seal and the reigning Miss Texas. Christmas Seals are being mailed over Texas Friday. They support work of voluntary tuberculosis associations toward control of the disease.

ABUNDANT LIFE BY ORAL ROBERTS

WHAT TO DO ABOUT THE DEPRESSION

In these days of unprecedented prosperity, when our living standards are at the highest they have ever been and America is the envy of the world, many people are worrying about what they shall do when the depression comes. They fear a real catastrophe will visit our country. They believe that there is going to be much unemployment and difficult times for everyone. Already by their thoughts and actions, they are ready to enter a darkened realm of mental depression—to be lost in despair, fear and want.

Fear of facing the future in want or hardship is not a new thing. The desire to gain material wealth and possess peace of mind is an age-old pursuit. One day two brothers, who were disciples of Christ, entered into a dispute about the correct division of a certain inheritance. This quarrel became so acute that they asked Jesus Christ to be the judge for them. He answered them so profoundly that man is still trying to fathom the wisdom of his answer: "A man's life consisteth not in the abundance of things which he possesseth." Then he proceeded to unfold to them a story about a certain rich man who possessed such great wealth that he had not sufficient room to store it. So he said to himself, "I know what I will do, I will build greater barns and there will I store all my wealth." And I will say to my soul, "Now you have security and peace of mind. Sit back and take it easy." But God was displeased with this selfish, independent kind of attitude and He said to this man, "Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee!"

HOME ECONOMICS NEWS

The first period homemaking students finished their part of the home-ec cottage last week.

Our next project will be sewing. This is the first time some in our class have ever sewed, and then there are some that have. Well, I'm sure none of us know everything about sewing, but we hope to learn all we can about it.

Kathy Teal, reporter

Second period homemaking students have begun to study a foods unit. We will learn about foods needed for good nutrition. Then, we will learn how to cook them.

Our class was honored to have Miss Mary Frances Reeder show us some helpful short-cuts in ironing. She is a home economist for Texas Electric and works out of Fort Worth. I'm sure her ideas will prove helpful to each that had the privilege of hearing them.

Peace in Our Generation

District Supervisor Kenneth R. Savoy of Brooklyn, N.Y., told a group Sunday at a conference in Amarillo of Jehovah's Witnesses that "Lasting peace will come within this generation."

Harold P. Bruce, minister at Wichita Falls, said his congregation had a large delegation attending the 44-county semi-annual circuit conference.

Speaking to 682 persons at the Community Center, Savoy closed out the three-day conference by saying, "Lasting peace does not come by means of men's efforts, but by means of Jehovah's Kingdom through Christ Jesus, upon whose shoulders the government of lasting peace rests."

Conference theme was "Qualified to Teach." Savoy pointed out that the chief weakness of the 18 convening congregations is "meeting attendance. To become qualified to teach it is necessary to attend all meetings and through use of your perceptive powers tell others the good news of the Kingdom."

Circuit Supervisor Wendell Phillips, in his closing talk "Showing Respect for Jehovah's Organization," said, "We do not live our own lives any longer. Our lives, which he purchased through Christ Jesus, belong to God. For this reason we should have the greatest respect for the Theocratic Organization."

Dr. V. R. Wigley was admitted Tuesday to Bethania hospital for treatment.

November Home

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoffman's home was selected by the Chamber of Commerce beautification committee as the Home of the Month for November.

This ranch style home is located at 326 East Cash and is of antique brick which came out of the old kiln at Bennett.

The flagstone walks surrounding the house are made from rocks off the farm where Mrs. Hoffman was born and reared.

Jane and Carl have worked hard on their yard to make it attractive, starting most of the plants from seeds and cuttings that neighbors and friends have given them.

Various kinds and colors of roses, chrysanthemums, verbenas are found in the flower beds. Pampas grass, phycanta, oleanders and gardenias are planted at various places in the front yard. In the back yard, violets surround the small patio. Shumake, iris and honeysuckle make it an attractive outdoor livingroom.

The attractive five-room home has two bedrooms, two baths, a kitchen and den combination and livingroom, where an antique brick fireplace is found. The attached double garage is on the east side of the house.

A redwood fence on the east gives privacy. The Little Store operated and owned by Jane and Carl is fashioned after a log cabin.

The committee felt the Hoffmans not only had a beautiful home and yard, but they had cooperated with the committee in keeping paper and litter cleaned up around their store.

Release Week of Nov 18-23, 1957

THIS WEEK

-In Washington

With Clinton Davidson

This week in Washington some 200 of the Nation's top farm economists are meeting to make their annual forecasts on what 1958 holds for farmers.

They have been doing that for almost 20 years at the U.S. Department of Agriculture's annual Conference, and their forecasts have turned out to be remarkably accurate.

The consensus of those who have prepared advance reports for the Conference is that next year will be very little different from 1957.

Net farm income this year is estimated at $12 billion, about $250 million over 1956, and for 1958 the forecast is for another small increase of about the same size as this year.

The price trend generally is expected to be downward during the first half of the year, with a recovery starting sometime during the summer. This follows rather closely the forecast for business.

As was the case this year, all of the forecasts of net income is expected to result from increased payment for idling land under the Soil Bank program. Payments in 1957 may total about $850 million.

The forecasters think the price of things farmers buy, such as machinery, fertilizer, gasoline and building materials, will be worked up again in 1958 by an average of 4 or 5 per cent.

Farm labor costs have more than doubled since the end of World War II, and the economists predict still another increase in 1958.

"More money will be going into farmers' pockets, but they also will be spending more to keep their farms in operation," says USDA chief economist O. V. Wells.

The principle "soft spots" which the economists look for in farming next year are feed grains and hogs. Feed prices will be lower throughout the year and hog prices will drop sharply next fall, they think.

We have on hand the largest supply of feed grains on record, and farmers are expected to raise a near-record number of hogs for market in the latter part of 1958.

Dairymen, the forecasters say, probably will be better off in 1958 than they have been this year. Milk prices are expected to average at least as high as this year, but feeding costs will be lower.

The recent upward trend in poultry and egg prices is expected to continue at least until next spring. The higher prices, however, may induce poultrymen to expand production and that would bring on lower prices after next June.

The situation as it affects producers of wheat, cotton, fruits and vegetables looks to be about the same as this year, at least until the size of 1958 production becomes known.

The one thing the economists shy away from as if it were the plague is politics. Their predictions are based on the assumption that Congress won't change farm laws and that the Department will not change support rates.

FIRST TEXAS ENTRY

From a cotton export port comes the first Texas entry in the 1958 Maid of Cotton contest. She is Rikki Clark, 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Clark of Galveston.

The hazel-eyed, black-haired beauty is a sophomore at the University of Houston, where she is majoring in clothing and textiles. She is a member of Delta Phi Epsilon Sorority and was chosen third in a campus contest to find the "Best Dressed Coed."

A graduate of Ball High School in Galveston, she also has attended the University of Texas and the University of Miami.

Rikki, who stands five feet, six inches tall, has modeled in charity and civic fashion shows at Galveston. She has been Shrimp Bowl Queen and a finalist in the Blue Bonnet Bell contest and in the Miss Splash Day contest.

Deadline for entries in the 1958 Maid of Cotton contest is December 1. To be eligible, a girl must have been born in a cotton-producing state, must be between 19 and 25, must be at least five feet, five inches tall, and must never have been married.

The girl chosen Maid of Cotton will travel 50,000 miles on an international tour and will be presented an all-cotton wardrobe created by leading American designers and a new Ford car. Applications may be obtained from the National Cotton Council, P.O. Box 9905, Memphis 12, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Barbour, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Barbour Jr. attended the Notre Dame football game at Norman, Okla., last Saturday.

Fun at School

Mrs. Stanley Williamson is acting as their agent and announced that by immediate contact any organization can secure them for public entertainments.

Last but not least on this stage, we were graciously shown the possibilities of our own Miss Kidwell in her old fashioned dress and sweet old-fashioned dance in stiff competition with the more recent Rock and Roll, Bop and Jitterbug Geneva House, which literally brought 'down the house.

The treasurer reported $160 as proceeds from the Halloween carnival, which was enjoyed and afforded a bit of hilarity that goes with the usual Oct. 31.

Mrs. Gibbons Brubaker is in Galveston this week attending the state convention, and will bring the highlights to our local unit, probably at the December meeting.

Thanks to all who participated on the program. A few good laughs cure illness of mind.

Mrs. Low and Mrs. Clark announced attendance awards for Mrs. Zion's fifth grade and Mr. Warren's 7th grade.

Yearbooks were distributed to members. Those not present will receive them by mail soon.
