Cleaning Up the Mess, Plans for Rebuilding, Have Parkans Busy

Downtown Street Scene, the Next Morning

Tuesday night, April 1, just at the time most Iowa Park people were getting settled to watch the news and weather report—at 10:00—the fire alarm sounded.

Starts

Robert Wilcox had turned his car at the corner of Wall and Cash when he saw smoke and flames coming from the Park Pastime Pool Hall owned and operated by George Pybus. It had been closed for the night only a few minutes before.

Wilcox quickly backed to the fire station and hit the fire alarm. About that time, according to Robert, "it seemed to explode and the flames were all over the inside in a few seconds."

In a matter of a few minutes firemen were on hand throwing water on the flames.

Spreads

The fire quickly swept from the pool hall into the Carroll Duke building, in which was stored a great amount of material belonging to the Jaycees which they were planning to use in the Youth building in the new City Park.

Firemen and observers thought the fire was under control, when suddenly the entire front and back of Frankie's and Philetious' place blew out into the street and into the alley.

With this development, it became apparent that more water was to be needed, and calls were made to Wichita Falls, Sheppard AFB, Vernon, Electra and Burkburnett.

Help

Electra volunteer firemen were on the scene and were throwing water within 15 minutes after the call. Wichita Falls and Sheppard sent units, and Vernon and Burkburnett sent firefighters and equipment. Before the blaze could be put under control, John B. Barbour Trucking company sent a huge Motecrane, operated by Lloyd Bell and Bill Bass, to knock down the front walls of Black's Market, Bates Barber Shop and open the front of Lone Star and Everett Sewell places to allow water to be directed to the flames which were working ever farther east. Malcolm Mills, a member of the local department, rode the crane high above the buildings and directed water into the flames.

National guardsmen from the Wichita Falls unit directed traffic through town.

The fire spread through buildings on the north side of Cash street, destroying or damaging eight business establishments:

The pool hall; Frankie's Apparel Shop; Philetious Beauty Shop; T. M. Black's Market and Grocery; Forest Bates Barber Shop; Lone Star Gas company office; Everett Sewell's Barber Shop; Metz Coffee Shop.

Many other businesses received smoke or broken glass damages, and the total loss has been estimated at well over $100,000.

Merchandise and equipment were moved out of Baxter's Cleaners and Fred Hays Rexall Drug Store. The household furnishings of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lowe were removed from their apartment over the drug store.

Moves

Hays and Baxter were able to open for business the following morning.

The only two business locations on the north side of the street not affected by the holocaust were Tanner's Hardware and Furniture and McClendon's Feed and Seed.

White's Store, Park Furniture and the Iowa Park Herald, located across the alley, received a great amount of smoke damage and window breakage.

Food, Coffee

In less than an hour after the alarm, the First Baptist church's kitchen was opened, hot coffee, donuts, cookies and sandwiches were prepared and being served to the firemen and all those assisting in the firefighting.

The generous people of our community worked side by side in preparing and serving the food and coffee. An appeal was made for grounds, and in 30 minutes a plentiful supply was on hand, furnished by Cage, Clyde's and Parker's food stores.

Control

About 3:00 a.m. the fire was under control, but local fireboys worked all night keeping the blaze down. Several stayed on duty all day Wednesday flooding the ruins to staunch the flow of smoke which was making work uncomfortable in downtown Iowa Park.

Cleanup

Wednesday and Thursday bulldozers and trucks were used to clear the street, sidewalk and alley.

Several of the businesses will go back into their buildings as soon as possible. Baxter and Metz are already carrying on in their present locations. Bates, Sewell and Lone Star will get back soon.

Praise

Fire Chief Oscar Singleton and the fireboys have words of praise for all the good people who assisted in every way possible, and especially for the work of our neighboring fire departments.

Enough cannot be said for the orderly manner people conducted themselves by staying out of the way and by helping the fireboys. As citizens, we may not all agree on city projects and elections, but at times like this everyone works shoulder to shoulder, forgetting all else by to save Our Town. All expressed thanks that no one was seriously injured.

Humor

Every tragedy has its humorous situation. One developed so suddenly early in the fire Tuesday night. It wasn't a bit funny then, but Gerald Walsh and Doyle Koonce can laugh now and say that when Frankie's front window blew out and a manikin fell into Cash street, they each thought it was the other. It served also to alert all other firemen and on-lookers that danger lurked, so the street was pretty well cleared all through the night.

Two Days to Remember

April made its appearance in Iowa Park and this area with a big bang.

April 1 — Fool's Day and the worst fire in Our Town in 30 years.

April 2 — Rain, hail and tornado warnings.

Some hailstones were reported to be as large as 12 and 13 inches in circumference. The Valley Farms area took the worst beating in our community.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Burrows reported large hailstones. Several home in the Valley Farms were heavily damaged by hail and tornado winds. None was reported injured.

Wichita Falls was hit by three tornado funnels. One is dead and several were injured.

Several Iowa Park people were in Wichita Falls at the time, and said they really were frightened.

Reflections from the Bible

By Ray Marcum, Minister Iowa Park Church of Christ

The scripture for this Lord's day is Ephesians 1:15-23. This epistle is addressed to the "saints that are at Ephesus." All Christians are called saints in the scriptures.

In the spring of 54, Paul returned to Ephesus and joined Aquila and Priscilla, faithful servants of the Lord. At this time twelve followers of John the Baptist were converted by Paul. Paul showed them they should be following Christ instead of some man. He said: "John truly baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. And when they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus" (Acts 19:4-5). Their baptism was doubtless an important era in the history of the young church. It does make a difference what you are baptized "into" (Gal. 3:27).

Paul gives thanksgiving and supplication for the church as the body of Christ who is the head. "And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over ALL THINGS to the church. Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all." This relation of the church to Christ, represented by the body to the head, is a spiritual one but the spirit does this through the word of truth he represents. The truth is that Christ has but one body (Eph. 4:4) that there is but one Head, one faith and one baptism (Eph. 4:5).

We invite you to investigate the church of Christ in Iowa Park. See whether the things we teach are true.

Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Department wishes to thank the men and women who got together and rustled sandwiches, doughnuts and coffee and served firemen battling the blaze. Also, the neighborliness shown by Electra, Wichita Falls, Vernon, Burkburnett and Sheppard AFB fire departments in sending fire fighters and equipment, was really appreciated. State Guard and Civil Defense units from Wichita Falls also sent help.

CAR TAX REPORT
Through April 3, 2,644 license plates, including passengers, trucks and trailers and dealers, were sold since February 1, with receipts for the licenses, transfers and taxes running $68,350.86, which is $5,000 more than done in the first nine months of 1957. Who said there is a recession?

Forest Bates will be back in business in the near future, after losing his building and suffering severe damage to his equipment. Philetious Beauty Shop will be opened in the Park Hotel in the next week or two.

Frankie's Apparel plans to be back in business in two or three months.

R. E. Van Horn, mayor three terms, polled 242 votes to win over four write-in candidates. City Secretary Dossia S. Smith, a veteran of 14 years in the job, received all 254 votes to win re-election.

Baptist News

Sunday is an ideal time in the Spring Revival which will be held all next week at the First Baptist church. There will be two services daily, at 10:00 a.m. and at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. Hubert Faust, pastor of the First Baptist church at Graham, will bring inspirational messages for each service. He is a splendid speaker and will preach from the Bible, says Rev. Homer Thompson, local pastor. He is sincere and is highly recommended, so wonderful results are expected.

A feature creating interest to members is that each pew in the auditorium has been assigned a captain for Monday, Wednesday and Sunday nights. Each pew has been numbered, and each captain will bring enough folks to that particular service to "fill the pew." It is expected to be a revival long to be remembered in this community.

An outstanding song leader will be here to direct music for the revival. The public is invited to attend each and every service.

State Girls Auxiliary Queen's Court is in session in Brownwood. It began this Thursday afternoon with a tour of Howard Payne college campus. A formal tea is set for Friday and many other features will make a profitable three-day convention. Several missionaries are to make talks. The state GA leader will be present and have part on the programs.

Four girls from First Baptist of Iowa Park left early Thursday, accompanied by Mrs. Virgil Woodfin, Glynda Woodfin, Lynda Jo Thompson, Doreen Green, Paula Smith have earned the privilege and pleasure of attending this Court, as they have been crowned Queens in the local GA.

WOMEN TO MEET TUESDAY IN VERNON WORKSHOP

District 11 Baptist Women's Missionary Union officers will meet in Vernon at 9:30 a.m. next Tuesday. State officers will be present to instruct in the work of their respective office, and much valuable information will be given. The Iowa Park WMU will have representatives in attendance.

TODAY'S HOMEMAKER

DUCKLING IS A SPECIAL TREAT WHEN COOKED IN A ROTISSERIE

by the General Electric Homemakers Institute

Nothing intrigues dinner guests more than watching a rotisserie in action while it browns "something special" to perfection! That "something special" can be easy to do in a portable rotisserie — and fun to watch, too — if it's Duckling with Orange Sauce. Here's the recipe:

Duckling with Orange Sauce

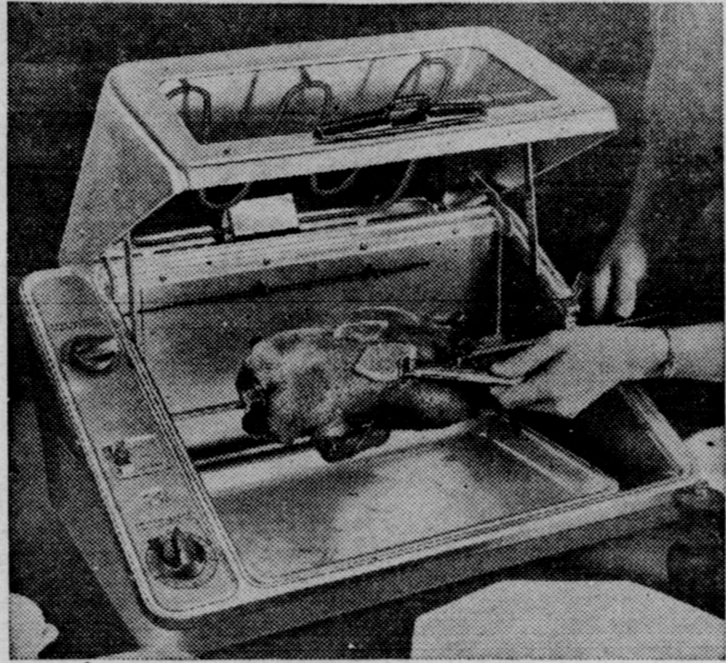

Order a frozen ready-to-cook duckling, about 4 to 6 pounds. Allow duckling to thaw according to package directions. Wipe inside and outside of duckling with damp cloth and dry well. Fold wing tips back and tie securely to the body. Tie ends of legs together, bring cord under tail and over breast, and tie securely. Insert rotisserie spit rod through center of body cavity, balancing carefully. Be sure skewers are inserted firmly into the body cavity before tightening screws to hold bird.

Place mounted spit in rotisserie. Turn temperature dial to ROTISSERIE setting. Allow duckling to cook on spit from 1 1/2 to 2 1/4 hours, depending on size. At end of cooking period, remove duckling to hot platter. Remove spit rod, skewers and cord. Orange slices may be used to decorate duckling for the table. Serve with Orange Sauce. Recipe will serve 4 to 6 people.

And here's how to make the sauce:

- 1 6-ounce jar red currant jelly
- Juice of 1/2 orange
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1/4 cup port wine
- 1/4 cup of 1 orange
- 1 teaspoon prepared mustard
- 1/2 teaspoon ground ginger
- 1/2 teaspoon Finck cayenne
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 3 tablespoons sugar

Melt jelly in top of double boiler over hot water. Add remaining ingredients. Stir over hot water approximately five minutes. Pour into sauce boat and allow to cool before serving.

Orange slices add just the right decorative touch to a rotisserie-cooked duckling cooked to perfection and ready for serving with a special orange sauce.

Church of God Plans Revival

The Church of God will begin a two weeks revival Monday night at 7:30 with Rev. S. K. O'Toole of Levelland bringing the messages at each service.

Rev. L. C. Pennington, pastor, announces the local Church of God will be joining all the other congregations of the brotherhood in simultaneous revivals.

Special music will be heard each night.

The public is invited to come and hear this young and powerful preacher.

Wichita county unit of Texas State Teachers association met in Iowa Park, March 25 with Dr. Hraivis White, president of Midwestern university, as guest speaker. Officers for 1958-59 were elected as follows:

- Mrs. Earlene Blair, Electra, president
- James Elms, Iowa Park, vice-president
- Mrs. P. A. Karney, Electra, secretary
- Mrs. Ava Buck, Burkburnett, treasurer

FORD PRODUCES 50 MILLIONTH VEHICLE

WHICH HAS CHANGED THE MOST, CARS OR CHEMISES?—The change in automotive design is made apparent by the contrast between Ford's 50 millionth vehicle—a new four passenger Thunderbird produced at Novi, Mich., March 17, 1958—and Ford's 10 millionth vehicle like the Model T produced in 1923. But what about women's fashions? The lady with the Model T is wearing a chemise with a "bucket hat" typical of the Model T period. The lady by the new four passenger Thunderbird is wearing a 1958 model chemise. Ford's 50 millionth vehicle rolled off the assembly line on St. Patrick's Day and was painted — as you might suspect — "Irish Green". Bumper to bumper, the 50 million vehicles would stretch six times around the world. Ford officials predicted the company would produce the next 50 million vehicles in much less than half the time it took to produce the first 50 million.

A FARMYARD "STAR" IS BORN

Proof of the power is in the performing—and in engine test cells such as this, a new diesel tractor engine has become the star performer before a critical audience. And by complex instruments which take the "pulse" of its forged steel crankshaft, measure its meager "appetite" for fuel, and check its "acting ability" under punishing loads, this dynamometer laboratory researcher has proved that this new Diesel is no temperamental, caviar-hungry "prima donna". This rugged and compact four-cylinder diesel engine now "is talking the show on the road" under the hoods of a new line of Ford tractors, which are being "billed" as the first U.S.-made Diesels that Ford Motor Company has produced.

OCEAN TO OCEAN ACROSS SOUTH AMERICA—AND BACK—IN 41 HOURS!

CHEVY'S NEW V8 LEVELS THE HIGHEST, HARDEST HIGHWAY OVER THE ANDES!

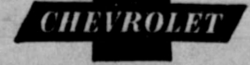

To prove the durability of Chevrolet's radical new Turbo-Thrust V8,* the tremendous flexibility of the new Turboglide transmission,* the incredible smoothness of Full Coil suspension, we tackled the most challenging transcontinental road in the world — the 1,000-mile General San Martin Highway. To make it harder, the Automobile Club of Argentina sealed the hood shut at Buenos Aires — no chance to add oil or water or adjust carburetors for high altitude.

So the run began — across the blazing Argentine pampas, into the ramparts of the forbidding Andes. Up and up the road climbed, almost 2 1/2 miles in the sky! Drivers gasped for oxygen at 12,572 feet — but the Turbo-Thrust V8 never slackened its torrent of power, the Full Coil springs smothered every bump, the Turboglide transmission made play of grades up to 30 percent. Then a plunge to the Pacific at Valparaiso, Chile, a quick turn-around and back again. Time for the round trip: 41 hours 14 minutes — and the engine was never turned off!

*Extra-cost option.

The sure-footed Chevrolet purrs past a road sign that says "danger"—and ahead lies the toughest part of the perilous Andean climb!

ABUNDANT LIFE

HOW TO TRUST PEOPLE FOR TEN MILLION DOLLARS

Alexander Lake tells of two men, Paul Klein and John Habine. These two men grew up together and at seventeen joined the same Canadian Army outfit. When they were discharged they bought a little electrical shop.

From the beginning they prayed about this work. It was tough sledding for a while. But one day a Dukhobor farmer ordered a farm light and power plant from them and paid cash. The firm of Klein and Habine was on its way.

During the next two years light and power plants were sold to farmers all over Saskatchewan and Manitoba. Most farmers gave notes payable at harvest time. Harvest was good, and the notes were met promptly.

But the third year was a drought year. The bank had discounted many notes. These had to be made good. It broke Klein and Habine.

They said, "When we asked the banker for a loan to carry us along, he said, 'We can't gamble on another cropless year. But you boys can sue for most of your losses.'"

"But," Johnny said, "those farmers can't pay. They've lost their crops. If we sue, they'd have to sell everything they own."

"We want to help those people. They'll pay up when they get a crop. Before we installed those light plants, those farmers lived hard. They had only lamp and lantern light."

The banker turned away. "Well, come and see me when you grow up," he said.

They stood on a street corner for a few minutes. Then Johnny said: "I'm going to the shop to pray. There's nothing to worry about."

Three days later a phone call came from a wholesaler asking Paul and Johnny to come over to his office. When they were seated beside his desk, he began, "I hear you boys told the banker you wouldn't sue the farmers. Right?"

Johnny answered, "Well, we sold the people something to make their lives easier and happier. Do we take it away now? A lawsuit would break most of those farmers, anyway. In some cases, it'd break their hearts, too."

"Do you owe the bank any money?"

"No, we made those notes good. But we're busted."

"I'm glad you boys aren't going to sue anybody. I'm going to stake you for another year. Those farmers will all pay up some day."

The wholesaler smiled. "I'm a praying man too, you know." Then he added: "I've only one condition to make. After this, when a man's ready to buy a plant, tell him to mail you his notes after he's prayed about the deal himself."

And so this new arrangement was started. Each customer had to promise to pray before credit was given to him. During the last twenty years, Paul Klein and John Habine have sold more than ten million dollars' worth of goods on credit—and have never lost a dime. Do they believe in prayer? I'll say they do.

AN Invitation TO FAITH

"For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: Not of works, For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained (prepared) that we should walk in them" (Eph. 2:8-10).

To become truly alive in this world one must become the workmanship of God, created in Christ Jesus. God is the workman, and the saved are His spiritual creation. The saved are a work of God for a good purpose, a positive good purpose, not a neutral or negative purpose as so many who profess Christ reveal themselves to be. A saved person is not to be a fence post, nor even a sign post pointing the way heavenward, but he is living wood—a living tree that bears fruit of Christ's righteousness (John 15:1-27).

God's own are His through faith. Through faith in the death of Christ for your sins and through faith in the resurrection of Christ for your justification, you can have life today. There is no other way. There is no other name under heaven whereby you must be saved (Acts 4:12).

The gospel fountain from which you drink water of life is the grace of God. It is by grace that you are saved. Not of yourself will you be saved. Not by any works of righteousness which you have done, but according to His mercy He will save you. When you believe that you are not capable of deserving the love of God, you are then at the throne of His grace. You can then trust in His mercy, and with repentance in your heart for your sin, you can then trust His grace to give righteousness to your account. God loves you. Believe that and pray to Him. He will answer your plea for salvation with Salvation (Rom. 1:18). You will feel welcome at the Faith Baptist Church. Brother George Shropshire, Pastor.

Scout Projects
Boost Safety

By Jeanne Smith,
Dodge Safety Consultant

THE FAMOUS BOY SCOUT "good turn" credo has taken on a new and vital meaning this year.

During 1958, the four and a half million Scouts in the United States will devote their efforts to "safety good turns" in the areas of traffic, bicycle, railroad and farm equipment safety.

A typical Scout traffic safety program is that of Explorer Post 2563, part of the Chicago Council of Boy Scouts.

Post Leader Lafayette Morrison, Jr., has tailored projects to the age group (14 years or older) and interests of his members. One of the boys already is a licensed driver, and seven are in the process of learning.

"I want to make good drivers out of the boys," Morrison told me, "not only for their own safety, but for that of other drivers and pedestrians."

"It's important to establish good driving habits in young people even before they are licensed to drive. Such habits can be effective safety guards for the rest of their lives."

As part of this training, Morrison's post has embarked on a "Find The Errors" campaign. Each boy keeps a tally of the driver and pedestrian violations he notes in traffic, and then reports back to meetings for group discussion.

In ways like these, Boy Scouts everywhere can boost traffic safety as part of their 1958 "Live For Tomorrow" safety campaign.
