Angela Scott Marries in Odessa

Angela is daughter of Mrs. Viola Scott and the late Burk F. Scott, former residents of Iowa Park. The groom's parents reside

Rev. Ronnie R. Hanna, pastor of Antioch Christian church of Odessa, directed the double ring ceremony at 7:00 p.m. before a sunburst arrangement of carnations in rainbow hues flanked by white cathedral candles in wrought iron candelabra.

A program of traditional music was presented by Mrs. Galen Fowler, organist, and Bob McDonald, Presented in marriage by her brother Thomas J. Scott, the bride was attired in a formal chantilly lace gown designed with sebrina neckline outlined with seed pearls and crystal beads. Fitted bodice and short scalloped sleeves were lined with nylon tulle. The bodice dipped to a low V in back and drifted into a bouffant shirred lace skirt accented with lace rosettes. She wore long lace gauntlets which came to points at the Rowntree Men's and Boys' Wear wrists. Her fingertip veil of silk ilusion was ataached to a tiara of simulated pearls and crystal bead trim.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white gardenias and white feathered carnations atop a white satin and lace covered Bible.

Mrs. Melvin D. Simmons of Odessa attended the bride as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Tommy Burris, Miss Rosa-lind Page, Miss Helen Elaine Up-ton, sister of the brilegroom—all of Odeasa; and Miss Barbara Hadley of Iowa Park.
