Wayne Dun-Tommy Enloe—all of Olney; Miss son, pastor, was officiant.

Wedding music was provided Mrs. Frank Scobee and family of by Mrs. John Mixon, organist, Seymour; Mrs. C. J. Osborne, and Miss Sue Crosthwait of Olney, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of Chantilly lace and over tul'e over white satin. The tight bodice was topped with a lace jacket designed with round neckline, long tapered sleeves and selfcovered buttons down the front and on the sleeves at the wrists. Four deep points of lace on the full skirt were dotted with rhinestones and pearls. A cabbage rose held her shoulder length veil of bridal illusion, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations atop a white Bible. When an unknown Dutchman invented roller skates about 250 years ago because he wanted to skate in the summer when the canals weren't frozen over, he had no idea that roller skating the canals weren't frozen over, he had no idea that roller skating would become one of the world's most popular sports. Even James Plimpton, an American who invented wheels that would skate in a curve about 100 years ago, would have been amazed at the latest development—sound in the wheels of roller skates! Such Banshee jet-wailing skates were unveiled in New York City's Central Park to scads of gleeful youngsters from the Cardinal Spellman Center. The new skates, which don't use the old-fashioned, always-lost key, are easy for young 'uns to put on (No. 1, above). Then comes the action (No. 2), and the children quackly find out that the joy's in the noise. The sheer joy of Banshee sound is reflected in the delighted faces (No. 3), as the group wails up a storm. as the group wails up a storm. The verdict: Banshee sound is (forgive the expression) a

Clara Church Youth Active

The Trinity Lutheran Walther League of Clara had a lot of fun doing the various activities they planned for the Christmas holi-

In the afternoon Dec. 22 some Leaguers went to buy candy and fruit for the children's Christmas socks. In the evening about 30 went caroling east of the church and in the Burburnett area. Dec. 23 the Walther League went caroling to the west in the Electra and Iowa Park areas. They sang "O Christmas Tree" in German, with many other earols.

After the outing the Leaguers came back to the church to finish decorating the 22-foot tree. It was quite a big job but everyone had fun. It was beautiful when finished at 11:30 that night.

Homecoming Party

Let's face it, the men in your life will probably be fanatical over Saturday's big football game whether you like it

Autumn's party-wise hostess should surrender — with a smile. Remember, if you can't beat 'em, join 'em at a Homecoming Party before the roaring hearth in your liv-

Homecoming parties - a late Saturday afternoon tradition — can easily become a weekly activity from mid-September through Thanksgiving day. Whether home from the stadium or away from TV, the "Monday morning quarterbacks" at your house will appreciate your hospitality (mums and pennants are optional)

The fun's in the crowd so invite the neighbors and begin as the final gun sounds. Serve warming cups of 7-Up Mulled Cider and let the armchair quarterbacks gather

'round a chafing dish of Hot Cheese Dunk with tasty morsels for dunking. Saturday's Homecoming Party — no games, no gimmicks — just good company, good conversation, and good refreshment.

7-Up Mulled Cider

In a large saucepan, combine 1 quart apple cider, 1 can (6 oz.) frozen pineapple juice concentrate, undiluted, 3 sticks cinnamon, 8 whole cloves, 4 whole allspice, and 1 orange, sliced. Simmer 10 minutes. Strain into punchbowl; slowly add 5 bottles (7 ozs. each) 7-Up, unchilled. Makes 18 (4 oz.) servings.

Hot Cheese Dunk

2 cans (10½ ozs. each) condensed cheddar cheese soup 1 bottle (7 ozs.) 7-Up 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Few drops onion juice Dash of white pepper 4 cups (1 lb.) shredded Swiss
