Child Dies in Truck Mishap

Djuana Ann Daily, 2-year-old daughter of S-Sgt. and Mrs. Maxwell Daily, 207 Hope Lane, was killed Wednesday noon when she was struck by a pickup.

The child had slipped unnoticed in front of the truck which had been backed up to the home to unload some furniture. When the driver last saw the child she was on the porch beside Mrs. Daily.
She was so close to the truck her presence was not noticed, and the truck started out the driveway. When he had moved only a few feet, the driver felt his back wheel strike something. A quick glance back revealed the child on the driveway.

Djuana Ann was born Jan. 2, 1964, in Minot, N.D., and had resided in Iowa Park only two months.

Funeral service will be conducted at 2:00 p.m. Friday in Tanner Funeral Home chapel by Rev. Joe Knowles of Allendale Baptist church. Burial will be in Highland cemetery.

Survivors in addition to the parents are a sister Kristy, two brothers Steven and Paul, all of the home; grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Daily of Purcell, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Barnes of Pascagoula, Miss.

Kelly returned last week from 23 months in Germany, where he was with 123d Signal Battalion in Würzburg. He has been re-assigned to Fort Lee, Va.
Bryant was graduated from IPHS in 1963. He played football and belonged to the Spanish club. He is member of Iowa Park Christian church.

Editor, the Herald:
"Who Said It?"
A lifespan without love and certain knowledge of the human race is an even greater wasteland than outer space.
What is seen and heard of most of us could be the best—or worst—in us.
Detour could be a by-pass or a lie-pass.
When we reach for something that isn't there, neither are we.
Defy: Was a razor; Defy: Is a blunt instrument with a greater cutting edge.

Mrs. Jewell Marshall of Kamay was shopping Monday in Iowa Park. She had as guest over the weekend Mrs. L. M. Johnson of Iowa Park.

Shower

A miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Glynda Woodfin, bride-elect of Dean Schickedanz, was given in fellowship hall of First Baptist church last Friday from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m.

Composing the hostesses were Meses C. L. McKinnon, C. A. Hicks, R. A. Williams, Henry Jones, Joe Singer, Wayne Williams, L. E. Brooks, R. R. Brubaker, Taylor George, O. E. Lochridge, Edd Penn, Jimmie Jeter, M. E. Goforth, Homer Blalock.

Mint green and maize, the bride's colors, were used in decorations. A mint green net cloth draped the refreshment table. The floral centerpiece featured roses in the same color. The punch was mint green; napkins, candles and other refreshments were maize-colored.

Special guests were Mrs. V. I. Woodfin, mother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Van Schickedanz of Canyon, mother of the prospective groom.

Mrs. Singer, vocalist, and Mrs. O. E. Lochridge, pianist, provided musical entertainment.

At the close of the party, the honoree presented each hostess a dainty apron.

Miss Woodfin and her fiance will recite wedding vows Aug. 27 in First Baptist church.

WMU executive board of the Wichita-Archer-Clay association will meet at 2:00 p.m. next Tuesday at Trinity Baptist church on Jacksboro highway.

Reports will be given by youth directors and functional chairmen pertaining to their accomplishments and plans for the last quarter of the church year.

Nursery staff will be provided, and entertainment for the primary and junior age groups.

Mrs. J. W. Sturgeon is president of Associational WMU.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Vaughan visited in Lawton last weekend with their son Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Vaughan and daughters.

After 50 Years

Rev. John Klappenbach officiated for the double-ring wedding ceremony at Faith Baptist church Monday afternoon uniting Mrs. Bibba Williams of Dallas and Grover Williams of Iowa Park in marriage.

The bride wore a light blue jersey dress and a pink carnation corsage.

Attendants were Mrs. J. T. Watson, sister of the bride, and D. O. James, her brother.

A wedding reception was held in the James home.

The marriage culminated a romance of 50 years ago, which was interrupted when Williams went to World War I. She later married his brother and he married another girl. Both have lost their companions and fate has brought them together again.

They will reside on Kamay Highway.

Trimettes

TOPS Trim-ettes met Thursday, June 23, at 306 E. Cash. Six members and a special guest were present.

Willie Robertson introduced Dr. E. F. Soell, who spoke on the causes and effects of overweight. He created interest by citing examples of cases he had treated. Question and answer period concluded his talk.

Geraldine Green wore the crown home week before last, and Lois Robertson received it last week.

The club will start contests in July. New members are needed. Anyone desiring to join is invited to be present at the meetings.

Lowell Longley, assistant scout executive, Northwest Texas Council, BSA, presented the program for Noon Lions club Tuesday. The group stood facing the flag as he played a tape on Americanism.

The editorial emphasized that basic ideals and structure of our nation haven't changed.

Mr. Longley was a teacher in Iowa Park about 14 years ago for one semester.

Luncheon guests were Mrs. Longley, Sp-4 Kelly Bryant and Lyndell Berry.

Mrs. Otis Gay and Mrs. C. W. Coppock furnished dinner music.

"My Feeling in Lionism" based on 13 years experience as a Lion, was subject of a talk by J. W. Martin of Wichita Falls, district governor at large, for Evening Lions club meeting Tuesday.

He was introduced by Johnnie Ozee, who said Martin was named "Lion of the Year" by Noon club of Wichita Falls.

Opportunity for Lionism in Texas is great at this time because in 1968 Texas will have an International president, Martin said. He discussed the fund of $80,000 which will be needed for the convention in Dallas that year, and observed that if each Texas member will contribute $3 during the next three years, the fund will be oversubscribed.

John Fecher presided during the meeting. Mrs. Joe Singer was voted a sweetheart of the club. She and Mrs. O. E. Lochridge provided dinner music.

Leslie Godfrey was introduced as a visitor.

Fecher announced a directors meeting at his home at 7:30 p.m. July 11.

Shower for Bride

Miss Chesta Faye Miller, bride-elect of Joe Tom New, was honored with a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. O. N. Newman, Mrs. K. W. Sullivan was co-hostess.

Refreshment table was covered in blue overlaid with a white tulle cloth. The white bridal arrangement was complemented with crystal serving pieces. The bride's chosen colors of blue and white were used throughout the party room.

A white orchid corsage made to resemble a bridal bouquet was presented to the honoree by the hostesses.

Miss Rita Guthrie registered guests; Misses Nancy Crawford and Glenda Smith presided at the party table.

More than fifty persons called during the evening.

Chesta Faye is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester F. Miller. She attended school in Iowa Park and has completed the freshman year at North Texas State university.

Joe Tom is son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. New of Graham and has completed the sophomore year at NTSU.

Marriage vows will be exchanged July 23 in Wichita Falls First Christian church.

LIGHT UP..
OUT

FOR PLEASURE . . .

You'll have more hours for family fun with proper outdoor lighting. You can enjoy lawn games, outdoor dining or just plain relaxing long after the sun goes down. And you'll find yard work is easier when you can do it in the cool of the evening.

FOR BEAUTY . . .

With outdoor lighting, you can enjoy the beauty of your flowers in the evening, too. Over-all low level yard lighting is recommended for a unified picture, plus lights in each flower bed to provide attractive "spotlight" effects.

FOR SAFETY . . .

Outdoor lighting along steps and walks helps prevent dangerous slips and falls. Flood lights properly placed, discourage prowlers and permit you to do after-dark chores with daytime ease.

Your dealer will gladly show you how to light your yard for beauty, safety and convenience. See him soon, or visit our office.
