Directors of Chamber of Commerce met Monday night and heard a preliminary report on the Community Clinic which was held here recently. After discussion, it was decided that further study be made before final results are announced.

A study committee will be appointed to study the report and make recommendations for an 8-point program of work.

Routine business was handled, and there was discussion of a special monthly Trade Day to be put on by retail stores. Nothing definite was decided.

287' Caravan

Annual Caravan of US Highway 287 association will arrive n Iowa Park at 5:00 p.m. next Wednesday. The caravan is on its way from Amarillo to Tallahassee, Fla., and will spend the night in Wichita Falls. Any member may join the caravan.

There will be about 35 members wearing red jackets and black top-hats. They are business people from along the route and will advertise and publicize things to see and do in our own state, city, and area. They will also advertise their own businesses.

This Association promotes the benefits of traveling Highway 287. There are 200 members and still growing. The greater their number, the more they will be asking tourists and oters to travel our highways. The more travelers they have, the greater will be the demand for road improvements. It will work like a snowball going downhill, and all of
