Let's forget we ever thought of the other side as the "bad guys" and of our side as the "good guys." Let's put our six-guns on the closet shelves—shake hands and come out fighting—not each other, but our common enemy.

To our way of thinking, the enemy is ignorance, poverty, of mind, spirit and body, and the inclination to look for the evil instead of the good which surrounds us on every side.

CARD OF THANKS

Now that the election has been brought to a successful conclusion, we wish to express appreciation for the many friends of the Democratic Party who helped us at headquarters. We also thank all those who dropped in occasionally with words of encouragement and offers to help get out the vote. We hope all those who donated money to maintain the headquarters are pleased with the way it was conducted.

We are particularly happy that so many young folk took part in the work and began their education in one of the most important functions they will have when they reach 21.

Hawks 21 Olney 20

Iowa Park Hawks and Olney Cubs battled last Friday night to a 21-20 decision which was in doubt until final seconds of the game.

Hawks won the toss and elected to take the ball. Palmer kicked into the end zone and IP got possession on the 20. Hawks promptly moved 80 yards with Dawson's screen pass to Terry May getting them started. Dawson passed to Dennis Hill for 45 yards, and he got away from two defenders to score the touchdown.

Dawson's kick was no good. In less than 3 minutes the Hawks had spilled Cub blood.

Olney stormed back on the running of Joe Pearce and Pinkie Palmer. Joe put the Hawks in trouble with a fine 28 yard knot going out on the 3. Pinkie knotted the score with a vicious line smash. His try for PAT was if as and fans began wondering and last year the game would w up 6-6.

Iowa Park misplayed the short kick-off and Olney recovered on the Hawk 35. Pastusiek, Parkey, Jackson and May stiffened on defense and took over on the Hawk 27 as the first quarter ended.

Hawks started the second as if to run the Cubs clear out of Gilbreath field as they marched upfield behind good blocking. Wakefield, Huff and Hill cleared the way for Thompson, May and Jackson. Larry Thompson scored with a 5 yard right end run.

Dawson faked the kick and hit Dennis Hill for 2 points to give the Hawks a 14-6 lead.

Iowa Park stopped Olney cold and Palmer punted to give Hawks the ball. Dawson tried the screen pass again but Olney tackle Gordon McBride picked it off. Dawson stopped him on the Hawk 21.

Six plays later Palmer scored but the pass to tie the score failed and Hawk fans breathed easier.

Hawks took complete charge of the third quarter. A fumble cost them a golden opportunity after Billy Jackson's 35 yard run had given them a first down on the Cub 25. Palmer kicked out of trouble but the Hawks came racing back. May's 15 yard run put the Hawks on Olney's 26. May and Jackson carried to the 7 as the quarter ended.

May slugged the line to the 5 for first down on the first play of 4th quarter. Dawson fumbled on the next play but managed to recover for only a 2 yard loss. Then he passed to Jackson for the TD. Thompson held and Dawson kicked for point No. 21.

Then the nightmare started as fumbleitis hit just when Hawks didn't need it to. After Thompson intercepted an Olney pass and May got 31 yards on a draw play the fumble bug hit.

Olney seemed inspired and proceeded to march goalward. Hawks gave assists with two offside penalties, and officials moved the pigskin to our 2. Palmer blasted over and Hawk boosters were nearly in tears.

Pinkie swept left end to add two points, bringing the score to 21-20, Hawks, with 5 plus minutes to play.

Olney kicked off, and the fumble pattern struck Iowa Park to give Olney another chance. Cubs moved well on the ground, but with time running out they were forced to pass and Thompson got his hands on the ball and returned into Olney territory.

Dawson ran out the clock to give us the game and our boys their chance at our first district championship.

Friday night the Electra Tigers will be Homecoming opponents of the Hawks on Gilbreath Field.

Coach Tommy Watkins and his staff have expressed concern because the Tigers are the most improved team in the district and are now playing fine team ball. In the past two games Electra has defeated Olney 19-14 and Chick-dress 40-20.

when you call Grandmother

...YOU DON'T EXPECT TO REACH TIMBUKTU
Naturally, when you call Grandmother's phone, that's the one you expect to get, and you do. But that's not as easy as it sounds.

Your call must work its way through all sorts of interconnections, wires, cables, switches and so forth until, finally, it picks the right phone out of some 83 million in the U.S.

Yet, out of all the possible chances for mistakes, your call goes where you send it . . . in town or out-of-town, to Grandmother, wherever she is. This sort of reliability is the result of service improvements that keep increasing the convenience and personal value of your telephone.

Mr. ZIP Moves Long Distance Parcels Faster

Five Digit Code Skips Sorting Stops
Mr. ZIP has a new assignment—to accelerate delivery of long distance parcel post by 24 hours or more.

Postmaster General John A. Gronouski has announced plans to distribute outgoing parcel post by ZIP Code in the Nation's largest post offices. These offices account for more than 50 percent of the total volume.

The program, he said, not only speeds deliveries but reduces damage to parcels because of fewer handlings in transit.

"I have made a commitment to President Johnson to revitalize our sagging parcel post service," Mr. Gronouski said.

"I envisage a virtual revolution in the handling of parcels."

"The success of the program," Mr. Gronouski said, "hinges on public use of ZIP Code numbers in addressing packages, as well as the cooperation of firms that mail parcel post in large volume."

Explaining how the program operates, Mr. Gronouski pointed out that ZIP Coded parcel post bypasses larger cities where there is a heavy mail volume in post offices and is routed directly to the sectional center nearest its destination.

Faster-Safer Deliveries

Delivery thus is accelerated by as much as 24 hours, especially for packages which travel 300 miles or more. And since fewer handlings are involved, the possibility of damage is reduced.

By way of illustration, Mr. Gronouski said a parcel mailed from Los Angeles to Alexandria, Virginia, without ZIP Code must be halted enroute at Cincinnati for further sorting. From there it is sent to the Washington, D.C., sectional center and then forwarded to Alexandria.

But if the package is ZIP Coded it will bypass Cincinnati and move directly to Alexandria through the Washington sectional center, usually by local delivery star routes, saving as much as a day in transit.

ZIP Code is built around the concept of 566 of these sectional centers throughout the country, Mr. Gronouski explained. By the end of the year, he said, the distribution

New design in mail boxes is tested out by Tyler Abell, Assistant Postmaster General. Experimental models in aluminum and stainless steel are lighter, better protected against vandalism and less costly to maintain.

Mailster Routes On Increase

Mailsters, the three wheeled red, white, and blue postal delivery vehicles, now are used on 12,000 routes. Ten thousand are being added.

Putting a footcarrier in a mailster gives him wheels, gives the patron more service, means economy for the Post Office Department, and adds comfort for mailmen.

The millions of people now on Mailster routes receive 6-day parcel post service from the same postman who delivers their other mail.

Trucks and personnel previously used on parcel post routes are freed for other important duties. Mechanized routes in areas away from the congestion of the city can usually be expanded to serve more people as the suburban areas grow.

Mail carriers are not required to carry pouches which can weigh up to 35 pounds when loaded. In northern areas mailsters are being equipped with heaters for winter use.

U.S. Sees Mail Explosion

The U.S. Post Office is in the middle of a mail explosion. Six billion more pieces of mail will be delivered this year than were delivered only 3 years ago. That's enough mail to reach around the Equator 25 times.

Motorized equipment has helped keep postal employment relatively stable. As the mail explosion continues, the total number of postal employees is expected to rise very slowly in comparison with the soaring volume figures.

of outgoing parcel post by ZIP Code is expected to be implemented in each of these mail handling plants, which serve as transportation centers for sending post offices.

Moves To City, Business Mail Surge Change Building Pattern

The growth of business mail and the move to urban areas have brought about a dramatic change in the Post Office's construction program.

The folksy, newsy letters from Aunt Matilda and her counterparts make up only 10 percent of the 72 billion pieces of mail that the U.S. Post Office Department will process this year.

Ninety percent of U.S. mail is business mail.

Since 1900 our population has multiplied about two and a half times—from roughly 76 million to 190 million. By the year 2000, if the present rate of growth continues, there will be more than 330 million U.S. citizens.

It is expected that 85 percent of the population will live in urban communities and only 15 percent in rural areas. In President Johnson's appeal for the "Great Society," he noted the need for increased services in urban areas.

"It will be the task of your generation to make the American city a place where future generations will come, not only to live, but to live the good life," he said.

Use of the mails has accelerated four times as fast as the population rate. Most of the increase is attributed to business. It is now estimated that 75 percent of all domestic mail is originated by commercial and industrial organizations and 15 percent is generated by the public in response.

Five-Year Program

The Post Office Department now aims to build post offices and mail handling plants where the greatest volume of mail is concentrated.

This is the essence of the Department's 5-year program, begun in mid 1964, to halt a threatened hardening of the arteries in the Nation's postal system.

Much of this space is needed in the larger cities. Cities like New York, Milwaukee, Atlanta, Buffalo, Omaha, Portland and Indianapolis are struggling along with postal buildings of 50-year vintage or more.

New Buildings

During fiscal 1964 the Department took a big step toward sprucing up the postal system in the larger cities by awarding contracts for construction of new buildings in nine cities. Another 13 are scheduled for fiscal 1965, and plans have crystallized for an additional 15 cities in 1966.

In most of the larger post offices contracts are awarded to qualified architectural and engineering firms to draw up plans for the building. Postmaster General Gronouski has continued the Department's policy of encouraging the architects to exercise initiative, freshness and originality in their designs, provided they keep in mind the basic functional use of the building and the always existent factor of economy in a building constructed for government use.

Fills Out

Fills which unnecessarily increase construction costs are out.

Wherever feasible, the Department tries to follow the architectural pattern of the community. Provided other postal needs are met. It is also willing to cooperate in a community effort to rehabilitate and revitalize downtown areas.

While it is concentrated in the big cities, the building program is not confined to those areas.

The 5-year program encompasses a total of some 4,700 buildings, of which less than 100 are planned for the big cities.

The overall cost for new space is estimated at $1.1 billion. Some post offices would be built under federal ownership, requiring direct appropriations from the Congress. But the projects planned through fiscal 1965 probably will be built under the Department's Lease Construction program.

Boosts Local Tax Rolls

Under this program the building is constructed with the use of private funds.

Essentially, the Government's financial contribution is limited to paying the rent, while the owner contributes to the local tax rolls.

Sled Route

Mail was still being delivered by dogsled in Alaska as late as 1963.

Today the airplane has replaced the husky.

Theme of program for Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service, Tuesday morning was "Rekindling the Inner Life thru Prayer." Mrs. Elgin Denny was assisted by Mrs. Dave Snead and Mrs. W. E. Stockton.

Mrs. Denny said, "Put God first and all else secondary. Center our thoughts in our love of God and the needs of others. Forget our well-being, be in a receptive mood; as we speak to Him let Him in turn speak to us."

Mrs. Snead brought out there are four kinds of prayer: Thanksgiving, praise and adoration, intercessory, and self-examination. Mrs. Stockton suggested we have a regular time and place to pray, but at all times be in a spirit of prayer. Pray as we feel and feel in the heart what the words say. She also said there is no set pattern to prayer, but is according to the needs of the individual. Be aware of God's presence and feel His nearness. By this means we are able to rekindle the inner life.

Mrs. John Mixon sang the Lord's Prayer and Mrs. Denny dismissed the 36 members with a prayer.

Next week Circles will meet with Mmes. W. F. George, Emma Gauntt, Gordon G. Clark.

CHRISTIAN HOPE—A BETTER WORLD

Christian hopes for a better world are more than mere dreams, they are a reality. Even when Christians first began to unite they made things happen.

This was so true that early Christians were called "these men who have turned the world upside down" (Acts 17:6). The dynamic action of old still exists today in the person who is a true servant of Christ.

Modern disciples may not wear sandals but they still make a lot of difference in the world.

God is always concerned about us but many times we do not get too concerned about Him. The important mission of the Christian today is to change the people and the conditions under which they live. Hunger is one of those conditions. To people under this condition God can only appear through persons or nations that give them food.

Churches have pioneered in the field of literacy and must continue this benefit too, that lives may be changed and lifted. We must confront people with the claims of Jesus Christ, challenge them to respond to him in faith, and help them relate to other people in Christian love.

Never in history has there been more need of God's power than now, lest men grow fearful and impatient and, forgetful of God's resources, push the panic button.

The Christian's job is to penetrate every aspect of the world's life with the power of the gospel. His, Yours—Dave Snead

Ruby Wheat GA's of Faith Baptist church met Monday at the church. Present were Mrs. Jerry Lane, counselor; Nancy Hays, assistant counselor; Redonda Stevenson, Rhonda Crabtree, Ginger Smith, Janie Cogdell, Rebecca Willis, Missy Gilliam, Linda Williams, Judy Cowart, Laura Catron, Beverly Boren.

The group will have an all-day meeting at the church Saturday, Nov. 7.

WYNNE CHESTER SAYS: Here's How to Prepare Your Wild Duck

It suddenly occurred to me, as I was thinking about the constantly rising number of shooters, that many of you new shooters and new shooters' wives may not know how to prepare wild duck. Well, it takes a bit of doing, but believe me, the deliciously different taste of wild duck is well worth it.

You clean and draw wild duck as you would any fowl. Removing the pin feathers is more difficult, though. You can (1) pluck the large feathers, passing along some of my own deep boiling water, drain and rub off rest of feathers, or (2) paint the duck with a heavy coat of paraffin, let it cool, then strip off feathers and paraffin.

To remove the strong, gamey flavor of duck, (1) soak the duck in buttermilk for 2 hours, or (2) stuff with pieces of raw apple and celery, freeze for 2 days, discard stuffing.

Always remove the oil bag from the tail. Now clean the duck with lemon juice, and you're ready to go.

Ducks should be roasted very rare, and the fat poured off as it collects. Small young ducks are best for broiling. I'll be passing along some of my own favorite recipes soon, but meanwhile—good hunting and good appetite!

Stock Survey

Rural mail carriers R. J. Butts and E. E. Wallis will leave some livestock survey cards along their routes beginning Nov. 13.

"Information reported on these cards is used to set the yearly inventory of livestock and poultry on Texas farms," Postmaster T. E. Gilbreath explained. The cards are delivered at random in boxes along the routes.

"Not every box will get a card. For this reason, it's important for everyone who gets a card to return it filled out so USDA can get a true sample of the state's livestock holdings," Gilbreath said.

Hawk B team and junior high team played at Olney last Thursday night, and both Iowa Park squads won their games.

Chevrolet

"walks" right over bumps and trouble

Independent front suspension takes the "truck" out of truck ride. It smooths rough roads, protects truck, driver and cargo from excessive jolting. And on Chevrolet pickups it's a proved system with millions of miles of user experience behind it. Try it out on one of Chevrolet's great Fleetside or Stepside pickups. It's one of the big reasons that Chevrolet is first choice with pickup users from coast to coast.
