Mother of Mrs. Jones Dies at Walters, Ok.

Park Officers Solve Black's Market Theft In Record Time

Three teenage airmen of SAFB are being held in the county jail for investigation by civil authorities in the burglary of Black's Grocery and Market here last Saturday night.

The boys have acknowledged taking $42.20 in money and $38 worth of soap, some meat, ice cream, candy, cigarettes and soft drinks. They left several sacks of merchandise in the alley at the rear of the store when they thought the officer was after them.

The burglary was discovered by Mr. Black, Sunday morning. Entrance was gained by cutting a hole in a rear screen and then knocking out a door glass. The money was taken from the cash register.

The boys were traced by their car license number, taken down by Dick Phillips, night marshal on duty Saturday night.

The owner of the car parked behind Tanner Hardware and stayed with it while his two companions entered Black's. He saw a car go slowly down Wall street and thought it was the policeman, so he drove out of it alley.

The car wasn't Phillips'. Dick saw the young fellow and stopped him at the signal light. Told that he had been to see an Iowa Park girl and had parked his car in the alley, Phillips took his number and let him go.

The boy drove around, circled through the alley and told his pals the officer was after them. Then they drove away so fast they burned the car out at Beverly Drive and left it beside the road.

Sunday morning Bill Dettles of Iowa Park, county jailer, noticed the car and made a note of its license number. When the robbery was reported both men had the car number and it was traced to Sheppard. Air police arrested the three airmen.

County officers are trying to link these three with other robberies in Wichita Falls.

All Over State SEASON FOR FAIRS AT HAND IN TEXAS

In many a city and town of Texas today, community leaders are making plans for an important annual event which many folks have been eagerly looking forward to all year. During the next several months it will be fair-time throughout Texas — with county and regional fairs and festivals taking place in every section of the state, the culminating event being the State Fair of Texas in Dallas, October 7-23.

Texas possibly has a bigger percentage of large, widely patronized fairs than any other state. Several of Texas' big regional fairs attract more visitors and have more impressive fairgrounds than state fairs in some other sections of the nation.

The State Fair of Texas is, of course, the largest annual fair in the United States in terms of attendance, with over 2½ million visitors from all parts of America, and a magnificent fairgrounds with facilities valued at $35 million.

As with most fairs the country over, Texas events carry a heavy emphasis on livestock and agriculture. Entertainment naturally covers a wide range, from carnival sideshows, rodeos, folk festivals to the Broadway musical "Pajama Game" which will be presented at the State Fair. Competition in making jams and jellies, succulent cakes and pies and other examples of traditional homemaking skills still occupies a big place in the program of most Texas fairs.

Fairs in Texas date back over 100 years. The first fair to be held in the state may well have been one in Corpus Christi in 1852, which featured bullfights, a circus, cockfights and fireworks. During the same decade Dallas County became the first county in the state to organize a fair. The State Fair was founded in 1858.

A good fair regardless of size can be a valuable asset to its community. In the opinion of James H. Stewart, general manager of the State Fair and vice president of the International Association of Fairs and Expositions.

"In addition to providing wholesome and worthwhile recreation and relaxation, fairs serve to stimulate pride in the achievements of the individual, his group and his region," Mr. Stewart said, "They are a stimulus to trade and a unifying medium."

"The various fairs, festivals and livestock shows in Texas have one important thing in common — they are all working to improve our agriculture and livestock industry, to better living conditions generally and to build up our state."

Texas cities which will hold fairs, festivals or similar events during August, September and October — the traditional fair season in Texas — include the following:

Abilene, Alice, Amarillo, Angleton, Baytown, Beaumont, Big Spring, Blanco, Boerne, Bowie, Brenham, Carthage, Center, Centerville, Cleburne, Coldspring, Corsicana, Crockett, Dalhart, Dallas, Denton, Dublin, Edna, Emory, Fairfield, Floresville, Floydada, Fredericksburg, Gainesville, George West, Georgetown, Gilmer, Goliad, Gorman, Haskell, Hempstead, Henderson, Huntsville, Iowa Park, Johnson City, Junction, Kaufman.

La Grange, Levelland, Liberty, Lipscomb, Littlefield, Livingston, Longview, Lubbock, Marshall, McKinney, Mesquite, Mexia, Midland, Nacogdoches, Navasota, New Braunfels, Palestine, Pampa, Paris, Pasadena, Pecos, Perryton, Plainview, Richardson, Roby, Rosenberg, San Angelo, Seguin, Seminole, Stanton, Tsalika, Temple, Texarkana, Trinity, Tulia, Tyler, Waco, Wharton, Wheeler.

Speakers for other nights have not yet been chosen. The speaking services will be held at 8:00 and all adults from all churches are invited.

Also all the young people from all churches are invited to attend the activities for the whole week. An inspiring program has been arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lemond and son Kenneth Wayne of Spur visited Mrs. Charlie Lemond and other relatives here last weekend.

For an evening of entertainment come on down to the Fair Grounds. Remember, fans, the local high school will begin soon training for the fall football season. Let's all get season tickets and back the Hawks to the championship.

See you Sunday.

Youth Center Sought Here; Co-operation of All Citizens Needed

A group of mothers met in the City Park on Tuesday, July 26 for a discussion on prospects for a Youth Center for Our Town.

They have located a temporary building and custodian and are asking full sponsorship of the organizations of the community to underwrite and push this much-needed facility.

They would like to have the backing of Lions club, Home Demonstration club, Music club, 23 Study club, Epsilon Sigma Alpha, Past Presidents of Iowa Park PTA, Amvets, VFW, PTA, United Church Women, Chamber of Commerce and all interested persons not included in any of these.

Special organizations could use the building for meetings when not in use by the youth.

Tentative program set up is as follows: Thursday, Friday and Saturday from 7:00 to 11:00 p.m. Any planned afternoon from 2:00 to 5:00.

Sponsors hope to secure as co-sponsors such firms as Coca Cola, Royal Crown, Mission, Barq's, Dr. Pepper, Curran & Curtis Candy company, Mead's Bread and Chas. Tronadale Music company of Eleotran, whose products will be sold from the snack bar.

Such entertainment as pingpong, shuffleboard, dominoes, cards and checkers will be available. Music from records and perhaps volleyball are on the planned agenda.

Leaders are asked to bring this problem up at their next meeting and notify either Mrs. Elvy Sargent, Mrs. Burk Scott or Mrs. D. O. James of the action taken.

Methodist folk are getting the jump on the heat again this summer. They are starting Sunday School at 9:10, Morning worship at 10:15, and getting out at 11:00. The evening services are starting at 8:00 with Old Sol safely tucked away for the night.

Bobby Cole to Preach From Father's Pulpit Sunday Evening, 8:00

Methodist folk are getting the jump on the heat again this summer. They are starting Sunday School at 9:10, Morning worship at 10:15, and getting out at 11:00. The evening services are starting at 8:00 with Old Sol safely tucked away for the night.

Sunday, July 31, Rev. Robert Edward Cole will preach at the evening service in the absence of his father Rev. Elden H. Cole, pastor, who is conducting a revival between Loving and Jean.

Bobby, as he is better known, is working this summer at Camp Bridgeport, a summer camp for Methodist youth. He plans to enter Texas Wesleyan college at Fort Worth this fall.

The local church extends a cordial welcome to all, especially the young people, to come and worship with them this Sunday evening and hear the young preacher.

Saturday night Frank's charges will go to Nocona to play Montague under the lights at American Legion field.

Sunday afternoon on the home diamond the boys will entertain Archer City in an Oilbelt League tilt.

Friday night a local club managed by Ray Williams will host the Walker-Neer Spudders in a softball game on the Fair Grounds diamond. The Iowa Park team features such players as James Vestal, M. L. Hodges, Jug Davis and others.

FORMER 4-H MEMBERS CAN BE NOMINATED IN NEW AWARD PROGRAM HONORING ADULTS

Do you know a member of your community whom you consider a notable success in his or her chosen career or who has an outstanding record as a citizen or as a leader in community and public affairs? And is this person a former 4-H member?

And have you often thought that that person should receive some form of public recognition for his or her acceptance of citizenship responsibilities and achievement in life?

If so, you now have the opportunity to do something about it, according to G. L. Noble, director of the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, who recently announced that Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation would again sponsor the National 4-H Alumni Recognition Program, the only 4-H Award Program honoring adults.

You can help nominate one of your neighbors for these coveted awards by filling out the form below and sending it to your county extension agent.

The program provides two certificates as awards in each county. Four state winners, selected from all the county winners are presented burnished copper plaques mounted on walnut.

Eight people, four men and four women, chosen from all the state winners, will receive gold keys and all-expense trips to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, November 27-December 1.

Men and women who have previously been 4-H Club members, who have an outstanding record of participation and leadership in community activities and who are a success in their chosen occupation or profession are eligible for consideration. So, if you know any one in your community who is eligible for this award fill out the blank and send it to your County Extension Office. They have official nomination forms.

Many 4-H Alumni are successful farmers and homemakers. Others are leaders in business, government or civic affairs. Some may not have been recently active in 4-H Club work, yet because of the basic training received through the 4-H program, they contribute to the advancement of community, state and nation.

Purposes of the awards are (1) to inspire present-day youth to greater accomplishments by providing them with living examples of dependable purposeful citizenship and (2) to encourage former 4-H Club members to support and cooperate in 4-H work.

Fill in information regarding nominee for National 4-H Alumni Recognition Award, attach any supplementary information which may be helpful and submit to the County Extension Office.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Modern Science Finally Catches Up With Grandpa

I got put in my place the other night. Deserved it, too. My father-in-law said we were due for bad weather. "Birds are flying low," he reported. "That means a storm."

I started to josh with the old gentleman about being superstitious. Then my nephew Jim, on vacation from college, pipes up. "Grandpa's right," he says.

"At least, that's what they say at school," Jim goes on. "The heavy air you get before a storm forces insects down low—so high-flying birds have to swoop along the ground if they want to eat."

From where I sit, there's probably sound reasoning back of most old sayings . . . back of anything people have learned to believe in. Take the idea of a stitch in time saving nine—sparing rods and spoiling children—of drinking hot milk, or a refreshing glass of beer, at bedtime. You may not hold with any of these beliefs yourself . . . but it's not smart to give them the "bird."

Inside The House of Glass

CORNING, N. Y.—For the nation's summer tourists, constantly beset by pocketbook problems, a trip to the world-famous Corning Glass Center here offers a welcome relief.

It costs the traveling public exactly nothing to visit this 20th century monument to man's achievement in glass.

Six days a week, seven and a half hours daily except on Mondays, visitors are free to tour the Center year 'round. Some come to trace glass history from Egypt to Palomar; others are more interested in demonstrations of the modern uses of glass. Few leave without witnessing the amazing miracle of glass-making.

Since its opening four years ago, more than 1,500,000 men, women and children from all the 48 states and 50 foreign countries have visited the Center to tour its elaborate exhibits.

Built in 1951 to commemorate Corning Glass Works' 100th anniversary, the Center constitutes a bold experiment in human relations.

The average tourist spends an hour and a half at the Center. (Students of glass linger longer.) Thirty minutes of that time is spent in the blowing factory where exquisite Steuben crystal is made by the age-old off-hand process.

Out of the celebrated Steuben "glass house" have come some of the most impressive gifts presented to royalty by American officialdom.

From a gallery overlooking the blowing room visitors follow the fashioning of purest glass in the world. They see the "gatherer" as he expands a mass of orange-hot molten metal, follow the movements of the "gaffer" as he dexterously applies his primitive tools and finally witness a masterpiece in glass emerge in flawless form. Nearby, master craftsmen decorate glass-cutting craftmen decorate glass-cutting intricate patterns by copper wheel.

In the Center's museum is the most comprehensive collection of glass in the world, with examples from all periods and all civilizations important to its history. Three hundred pieces are on display, while more than 10 times as many are in open storage, available to scholars and artists for study. In addition, there is a library, unexcelled in its field, made up of volumes on the art and history of glass.

The modern glass, steel and marble structure, surrounded by ample parking facilities, is completely air-conditioned and contains a cafeteria. The Center is within easy driving distance of the popular Finger Lakes vacationland, noted for its scenery, water sports, sailing and fishing. The area is the center of the nation's champagne industry; and many of the wineries are open to visitors.

Corning is located in the western part of New York State, just north of the Pennsylvania border, on N. Y. Route 17, east and west, and U. S. Route 15 from cities north and south.

Photographic Record Of Man's History to Be State Fair Exhibit

The Family of Man, a gigantic assemblage of photographs from all over the world—depicting the entire sweep of man's whole existence—will be shown at the State Fair of Texas, Oct. 7-23.

The collection has been described as the greatest photographic exhibition of all time. It will occupy virtually all of the gallery space in the museum of fine arts on the Dallas fairgrounds. Admittance to the show will be free.

The Family of Man was created by Edward Steichen, dean of American photographers, for the Museum of Modern Art in New York, where it has been seen by more than 300,000 people.

Steichen and his assistant Wayne Miller spent 2½ years assembling the material. They examined 4 million pictures taken in all corners of the world by photographers of every nationality. It took five months to go through the Life magazine collection alone. Finally they selected the 50 pictures which make up the exhibit—representing 273 photographers, amateurs and professionals, famous and unknown, in 68 countries.

The Family of Man is tremendous in scope as well as size, and is said to have a powerful emotional impact on its viewers. Its message is the universality of human life everywhere — the basic oneness of the human race in spite of wars, language barriers, differences of religions, culture and race.

Carl Sandburg has written the introduction to the exhibition, concluding with: "There is only one man in the world and his name is All Men. There is only one woman in the world and her name is All Women. There is only one child in the world and the child's name is All Children."

Congress Busy This Week Trying to Wind Up and Come Home

By Congressman Frank Ikard

This week promises to be one of the busiest in recent times in the House. Due to the fact that every effort is being made to adjourn during the first week in August, it will be necessary this week to act on the federal highway program.

Tax provisions in this measure have been cut considerably. The controversy is whether there will be a pay-as-you-go plan which would require increased taxes on gasoline, diesel fuel, tires and trucks or whether the roads would be financed by a bond issue with no new taxes.

Other important matters are the Upper Colorado storage project, polio vaccine assistance, housing, and amendments to the Natural Gas Act that would limit the jurisdiction of the Federal Power commission. Each of these is important and highly controversial.

Consideration of them will mean the congress will probably be in session every night.

This will be the last weekly report I will send out. Immediately after adjournment, I plan to return home and be in the District most of the time until the next congress convenes. I expect at some time to be in every county and town in the District.

My office is at 206 Federal building in Wichita Falls. I will spend much time around over the District but this office will be open at all times.

Another import bill to be considered is the Military Reserve bill. This passed the House in a different form than the bill the Senate approved, and was sent to a conference committee. The compromise bill does not place a great burden of reserve service upon those who have already served their time in the armed services. This bill will probably pass without much difficulty.

By Marye Eckelkamp

More than 200 Farm Bureau men and women leaders from all over Texas are expected in Mineral Wells this weekend for a three-day summer institute.

The school is designed to train farm men and women in various duties and responsibilities in their county Farm Bureaus. Officers, office secretaries, board members and members of the various committees are expected to attend.

Eight regular courses will be offered. These include history and philosophy of FB, county and community programs, public speaking, serving FB members, parliamentary procedures, information program, membership acquisition, and policy development and execution. A special course in recreational activities will be offered as assembly periods.

Instructors will be specialists in the Extension Service and state and state and national Farm Bureaus. Classes will start Monday morning and last through Wednesday afternoon.

Banquet speaker that night will be Delmar Roberts, president of New Mexico Farm and Livestock Bureau. J. Walter Hammond will act as toastmaster.

Now Is the Time for School Children to See Doctor and Dentist

Has your child had a physical examination this month? In just a little more than a month he will be starting to school, and if he is in good health he will have a happy and profitable year. It's up to you to give him a healthful sendoff.

After he has his checkup by the family physician, be sure to take him to the family dentist. Teeth are mighty important, and decayed ones often cause a heap of trouble.

They may start infection in other parts of the body. Strong, healthy teeth add attractiveness to appearance and personality. Help your child to group up with good teeth... see that he has a dental examination twice a year.

Sometimes children need glasses and the parents don't realize it. An examination by an eye specialist. A child who needs glasses, if fitted now, will have time to get used to them before school starts.

When children are grouped together in a classroom, they expose each other to communicable diseases. Has your child been immunized against diphtheria, smallpox and whooping cough? Does he know he should avoid boys and girls who are victims of colds? Do you keep your child at home when he has a cold?

Plenty of exercise and recreation, the right foods daily and 12 hours of sleep each day are necessary for a child of elementary school age. Get your child an appointment for a checkup today... the first day of school is not far away!
