Wichita County Home Demonstration Club Council held the annual meeting and luncheon in the Methodist church here Thursday, April 30, with Mrs. V. C. Lamb, Council chairman, presiding.

Special guests for the luncheon were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sargent, Loys D. Barbour, Kelley Gilbreath, Buck Voyles, Miss Amy Walker, Mrs. Taylor George, Miss Thelma Wirges and Mrs. Ethel Lynn Travis.

Mrs. Peggy Williams offered the invocation.

Two new clubs were organized the past year: the Friendly Homemakers and the Homemakers. Miss Wirges reported 7 million women are active in home demonstration work. Sargent, agriculture director for radio station KWFT, was guest speaker. He emphasized the im-

Motherhood is a sacred privilege and all mothers have built-in capacities for love and tenderness toward their children. For these God-given qualities, all mankind is grateful.

We hurry through life most days without giving Mother the consideration she deserves — but on her day each year, most of us take stock and bring ourselves to realization of our dependence on Mother and our gratitude for her selfless love for us.

Mothers like to be made over and protected on their special day - and miss their children when circumstances have scattered them to the four winds. But most of all, they prefer to have some of that consideration and praise throughout the year.

A smile, a word of encouragement, an earnest effort to live up to Mother's highest hopes - these are the rewards most treasured by Mother. And these are day-to-day rewards which, like Vitamin C, cannot be stored but must be renewed at daily intervals.

Who Runs Our Bank?

We're always glad to answer that question. It gives us a chance to say again that our bank is operated by local businessmen.

We believe that to understand a community and its problems best, a banker and his directors should live at home. Participating in civic enterprises and knowing their neighbor enables them to employ the deposits of the bank wisely and profitably.

That's our idea of the way to do business.
