Evening Lions feel the baseball field project is practically completed, and they are trying to make Iowa Park a better place in which to live and raise children. At the next club meeting July 14, Bill Ballard, Wichita Falls probation office worker, will be guest speaker.

Present Monday night were H. B. Jones, James Todd, John Rains, Ray Low, Bill Sawyer, Doc Waters and the host.

ANCIENT JURORS AND ADVOCATES

Speaking before juries—the beginning of jury trials—goes back to Greek colonies in Sicily about 600 B.C., in lawsuits over lands seized by tyrants.

Soon Athens itself took over such oratory, but appears to have worked out no rules of evidence or judicial control of the trial. Juries often cheered or booed the parties. They talked together and shouted back to the speakers. What one man knew about the case he told his neighbor.

All evidence could go: Personal knowledge, hearsay, prejudice, and the juror's opinion. The Athenian jury had power. Each "dicas" (chosen by lot) was both jurymen and judge. Each juror got one obol a day—about three cents.

Each accused person had to come before the jury personally to defend himself—which, was especially hard if he didn't know the art of advocacy, since he was assumed to be guilty. Indeed, many hold that if Socrates had taken independent advice he would never have offended the boisterous and biased Athenian jury which sentenced him to the hemlock there on the hillside in 399 B.C.

Less outspoken defendants in those days sought bootleg legal advice.

Antiphon (415) ghost-wrote and sold briefs to clients who had to put their own cases to the jury. He set out four steps of an Athenian trial: (1) the accuser's charge, (2) the accused's reply, (3) the accuser's reply, and (4) the accused's response.

Afterwards the jury let the accused off or found him guilty. The jury sentenced the guilty then and there, allowing some—Socrates, for one—to propose their own penalties, and even to bid them upward if they failed to please the jury.

After the trial, the speakers (or in Socrates' case, his friend Plato) often worked their talks over, and sent them out for friends to admire or criticize.

What appeals were used to win the jury over? Pretty much the same ones we hear today. Aristotle listed a few: The values the jurors shared with the speaker — reverence for justice, the law, and the city's founding fathers; the sanctity of the jurymen's oath; the verdict's effect upon public and foreign opinion, and sometimes upon women and youth.

CAROLIN LEE PETTIPAS
Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Pettipas of Havelock, N.C., announce the birth of a daughter Carolin Lee on Wednesday, June 10. Weight 7 lb. 4 oz. Grandparents are Mrs. B. O. Gilstrap and the late Mr. Gilstrap. Mr. and Mrs. Pettipas have two sons David and Mark. She is a former Miss Margaret Gilstrap.

Pirates Lead Little League at Half

Little League activities for the summer are half over, and the Pirates coached by Doyle Eckelbarger are champions. The team compiled a 6 won, 3 lost record. Giants and Yankees finished in a tie with 5 won, 4 lost records; and the Dodgers managed only 2 wins against 7 losses.

Pres. James Stewart feted the managers, directors and umpires with a barbecue dinner climaxing the first half. The occasion was informal and only the Pirate manager showed up in suit and tie.

Arch Hughes, District 6 representative for Little League, was encee of the program. He introduced Bill Ballard, county juvenile officer, who made some timely remarks.

All present stated the first half went into the record books smoothly, and had hopes of a better second half.

Those present were Dud Rowntree, George Huckaby, Ben Hildebrand, John Rains, Wayne House, Bob Dawson, Dan Barnes, George Cutler, Bill Greene, Alan Berry, Keith Swim, and those mentioned above. Team sponsors are Shaw Motor company, Texas Electric Service company, Methodist church and Lions club.

Women Plan for T-O Fair

A planning meeting luncheon for chairmen in the Women's department of the Texas-Oklahoma Fair was held Wednesday in the Fair auditorium. Preceding the meal, C. E. Birk, president of the fair association, offers the invocation.

Mrs. Rollins Woodall and Mrs. Homer Elalock, directors of the Women's department, conducted the session, which was introduced with greetings from Birk and T. Leo Moore, executive vice-president.

Out of town chairmen were introduced: Mrs. George Beavers of Vernon, Mrs. Doug Williams of Electra, Mrs. V. S. Icard of Archer City, Mrs. Leslie B. Finnell of Holliday, Mmes. J. O. Presley, Roy R. Fultz, Dudley Mullins, Paul Coppock, C. T. Moore, Walter Ehler, Miss Jennie Roberson, and Stan Shelton, all of Wichita Falls.

Local chairmen were Mmes. L. A. Brooks, E. N. Wickham, R. A. Williams, Sam Hill, S. T. Buzzard, A. L. Reed, V. R. Munden, T. M. Clark, D. H. Ford.

Others in attendance were Mesdames C. E. Birk, Gordon Clark, C. J. Thurber, Fred Widmoyer. From the meeting came two changes in the set-up for next fall: First there will be two sections in the ceramics division, one for those who do ceramics for a hobby and the other for shop owners and instructors. There will not be a painted china division this year.

Representatives of the Wichita Falls Art association will be in charge of the fine arts and amateur photography division. There will be two sections: for those over 16 years of age, and for those under 16 years.

Miss Roberson and Mr. Ehler ask people throughout the area to exhibit paintings, oil, water color, pastel, finger, mixed media and drawings, pen and ink, charcoal, pencil, lithograph and crayon.

Chairmen unable to be present were Mmes. J. D. Avis of Henrietta, Gilbert Steele, Forest Bates, Roy Laake and T. R. Horine of Iowa Park.

Wheat
1959 wheat crop in this area is completely harvested except for just a few spts. This year the yield was 40 per cent to 50 per cent of normal for the area.

But at that it was better than experts thought possible. The yield was 6 to 8 bushels an acre. Reason for such low average was that some fields were not worth cutting, and some had only three to four bushels, bringing the final average down.

Everybody is getting set for another season of outdoor living. Many of us still enjoy meals prepared by the backyard chef on barbecue pits and grills this summer.

I would like to mention a new wrinkle to make outdoor living more fun, and that is our new patio telephone which saves those rush trips back inside to answer the telephone. The telephone is weatherproof and can be locked for periods when it will not be in use.

Why not add to your convenience this summer by giving a call to 723-881 and inquiring about our patio telephones?

VACATION HINT

When you top in the middle of your vacation this year to remember friends or family back home, why not give the "wish you were here" greeting a new twist?

Do it with a long Distance call. It's more fun that way, and you can catch up on the news at home, too.

And remember to call station-to-station. It's cheaper—you can make three calls for the price of two.

BUSY TELEPHONES

With school out for the summer, telephones in many houses will probably be getting a real workout.

There'll be calls from the children's friends at most any hour of the day — to round up the group for a game, too arrange to meet at the movies, or to compare notes on a new bike or the latest record album.

Whatever the call, the telephone is always there to help teenagers — and small fry, too — have more fun during vacation.

If you have children, those friends keep the phone ringing at a merry clip, make it easy for your youngsters to answer without running through the house. Extension telephones will do the trick.

Why not call the telephone company for a home extension telephone today? The cost is low, just $1.25 a month plus installation.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.
