Iowa Park Eastern Star Chapter 42 observed the birthday of Robert Morris with a beautiful seremony directed by Mrs. Juanita Upham, worthy matron, at the stated meeting Tuesday night in the Masonic hall.

Morris was founder of Eastern Star and each year all chapters observe his birthday sometime during August.

Large bows of Eastern Star colors were on the white-satin-covered altar. Each Star Point officer approached the altar and picked up a streamer, that extended from her color bow and gave a tribute to the founder.

Officers and members formed circle around the altar and re peated the obligation with Taylor George, worthy patron, directing The altar was draped in memor of Miss Cora Posey, past grand matron of Texas. She also served many years as grand secretary

Mrs. Verda Whitaker, Mrs. Jani Latimer and Mrs. Effie Walsh. Approximately 25 were present for the meeting and social hour that followed.

Members and guests Lions club were briefed on th laws of weights and measures of trucks and other vehicles on the state highways Tuesday at the regular luncheon meeting.

Henry Jones, president, directed the meeting. Homer Thompson of fered the invocation. Taylor George introduced two guests: Malcolm Bell of Dallas and Ranny Voyles. Visiting sweethearts Jeri Goss Frances Clark, Georgia Trammell Bertha Barnett and Elaine Sawyer were given a hearty thanks for their good music,

R. R. Brubaker was program chairman and introduced D. H. Witherspoon, head of the weights department of the Texas Department of Public Safety's Wichita Falls district. He introduced the speaker Harold Emery, also with the weights department.

He told his department assignment is to check trucks for weight licensing. State engineers set up standards, and trucks on the roads must abide by them. He went on to explain the procedures when trucks are overloaded.

Emery conducted a question and answer period which was quite interesting and informing. Next Tuesday will be Ladies Day for the club.

Mrs. Virginia Collins and daughter Comette and Mrs. Bertie Blair of Abilene have returned from a two weeks vacation in Highland, Ill.
