Funeral service has been tenta-tively set for Friday for Miss Junie Karen Camp, who died of carbon YES monoxide poisoning late Tuesday night in an automobile parked Chamber of Commerce office. You about three blocks from her home have only through January to in Iowa Park.

She was found dead in the car about 8:00 a.m. Wednesday.

Miss Kamp had been to a party in Wichita Falls which broke up about 11:00. She and her boyfriend Jimmy Skinner of Wichita Falls returned to Iowa Park and stopped near home. They became sleepy and she climbed into the back seat of his 1955 automobile.

Skinner awoke about 3:00 and got blankets from the trunk of his car with which he covered the girl, then went back to sleep. Sometime during the night his Noon Lions are practicing for their 1962 Follies to be presented March 1 and 2 in the high school auditorium. Sweethearts Harriett Coppock and Esther Thornberry took the members through the pace of practicing their songs at the Tuesday meeting.

Pres. Keith Swim read a letter from Frank Copeland thanking the club for a nice Christmas gift. More than 300 pairs of glasses have been turned in for the club sight project. They will be turned in at the district mid-winter conference in Stephenville this week-

Local elementary students were credited with collecting most of the spectacles.

Evening Lions and guests enjoyed a program of Barbershop singing at their Tuesday meeting in the City Cafe. Boyd Schlenther offered the invocation.

George Warner, Lion tamer, introduced the guests: George R. Huckaby and Frank Harlin of the Noon club, and Bill Foley of Wichita Falls.

An appeal was made for blood for an Iowa Park woman who is to have surgery soon. Several members offered blood. One of the guest artists, Jim Hanks, a three-gallon donor, offered three pints. He is personnel director of Bethania hospital.

A letter was read from the Lioness club offering assistance with the public library the Evening club is sponsoring.

Lion Warner introduced the Wichitones quartet: Bruce Stewart, Otto Kitterman, Jim Hanks and Charles Wooster, who pre-sented six numbers in Barbershop

This group and another quartet known as Bill Foley's Ouartet will take part in the Noon club's Follies, Marche 1 and 2. In the latter group are Dr. Carl Pierce, Buddy Horine, Dale Appleyard, Bill Foley.

At the Iowa Park elementary school 168 pairs of glasses were collected. Mrs. Mae Roby's 3rd grade and Mrs. Leroy Guyett's 4th grade tied with 45 pairs each.

Danny Custis and Tom Birdett tied for top honors with 22 pairs

Students of Kidwell school collected 144 pairs. David Kingcade brought in 26 pairs and his room taught by Mrs. Floyd ion had high score with 33 pairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hensley visited last weekend in the home of Mrs. John Stanley in Ft. Worth. They were joined by their daughter Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Rabun and son Johnny.

Stanley received a degree in civil engineering from the University of Texas last week. He and his wife, the former Miss Josette Hensley of Iowa Park, and son were enroute to Redding, Cal., where he will work for the state.

Den 2, Pack 37 met in the A. W. Bennett home. The boys made daggers and shields. Refreshments were served by Mike Ward and his mother.

Also present were Roy Adams, esley Bennett, Carl DeWayne Davis, Eddie Rowntree, Douglas and Rusty Spruiell.

Eleven new-size models make One-Stop Shopping easier than ever at your Chevrolet dealer's

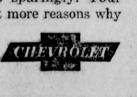

Nothing fair to middling about the spacious and spunky new lineup of low-priced cars from Chevrolet! From the looks of these nifty top-of-the-line Novas (unmistakably new), you'd never guess they're so easy to own. Even some bigger cars wonder how we got so much full-size family room into such a parkable package—and such hustle out of a 6 that sips gas so sparingly. Your dealer will point out more reasons why luxury and a low
