Former Iowa Park Girl Wins National Sewing Contest

Paula Johnson, daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. Billy Joe Johnson of Abilene, formerly of Iowa Park, was the state's junior division representative to the "Make It Yourself with Wool" contest held last week in Salt Lake City, Utah.

She won top honors in her division.

Paula, a former student here and now a senior at Cooper high of Abilene, won the state contest held recently in Lubbock.

She was accompanied to Salt Lake City by the senior winner, a student at TWU, Denton; and by their official chaperon Mrs. S. M. Harvick of Ozona, state wool contest director.

Contestants in the national event were honored with teas, lunches, tours, ski lodge facilities, and received instructions from the Powers modeling school. Each girl depicted something of her state. Paula sang "O Beautiful, Beautiful Texas." For the talent skit she wore red bell-bottom girls western pants, white ruffled shirt, red velvet belt with silver buckle, red western hat, white boots.

Besides the trip to Salt Lake City, Paula has won wool fabric, a $50 savings bond, a sewing machine.

At the national contest Paula won a trip to Hawaii and a $750 scholarship to the Clarissa school of dress design each year.

A Welcome Home Reception was held in Abilene on her return from Salt Lake City and she was presented an armful of roses and appeared on radio and television.

Sewing is common around the Johnson household. Her mother, Rosalie, has sewed as long as her daughter can remember. She interested Paula in clothes making when she was a freshman. The dress Paula made for the contest is a simply lined clay beige sheath fashioned with V neckline, above-the-elbows length sleeves and a loosely tied belt.

While Johnson was stationed at Sheppard the family—Joe, Rosalie and their daughters Pauls, Pam and Patty—owned their home in Valley Farms on FM 367. The Johnsons resided in Tokyo, Japan, for three years, returning in 1958 to live in Abilene, where Joe is stationed with the air force.

Billy Koonce Dies in Accident

Funeral service was conducted for Billy Wayne Koonce Jr., 10, Tuesday morning, Jan. 30, in the Christian church with Rev. Mr. Claude McDonald, minister, officiating.

Burial was in Highland cemetery under direction of Tanner Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Ben Hildebrand, W. T. Crawford, Bud Mercer and Jesse McCullough.

Billy was accidentally hanged Sunday afternoon while playing near his home in Country Hills Estates.

Billy was given permission by his parents to go play around 2:00 and when he did not return at dark they became alarmed. The neighbors and Volunteer Firemen were called in to assist in the search. He was found around 8:30 hanging from a mesquite tree a quarter-mile from his home.

Billy Wayne and a group of his friends often played at the spot and had tied a telephone cable to the tree and would swing on it, Tarzan fashion. Evidently he fell from the tree with the rope around his neck. His feet lacked a few inches of touching the ground.

Justice of Peace R. R. Brubaker returned a verdict of death due to accidental hanging.

Born Oct. 27, 1951, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy W. Koonce sr., he was a 4th grade student at the Ethyle Kidwell school and was a member of the Christian church.

Billy served as bat boy for the Angels of the Iowa Park Little League, of which his father was co-coach. He was also a member of the Pee Wee football team.

Other survivors besides his parents are a sister Jill; grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Marquart sr., and Mrs. E. C. Koonce, all of Iowa Park; several uncles and aunts.

School classmates, the Indians baseball team, the Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes sat in a group as honorary pallbearers.

Service Held for Leroy Hall, 47

Funeral service was conducted for Mr. William Leroy Hall, 47, Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 30, in the First Baptist church here with Rev. E. Young of Weatherford officiating. He was assisted by Rev. Roy Mosley of Electra and Rev. Homer Thompson of Iowa Park.

Burial was in Highland cemetery under direction of Tanner Funeral Home.

Military rites were performed by a squad of airmen from Sheppard AFB. This was followed by graveside services conducted by the Electra IOOF lodge of which Mr. Hall was a past grand master. He was also deputy grand master of the IOOF.

Pallbearers were members of the Odd Fellows lodge: Jessie Adams, John Rogers, Eldon Taylor, Oscar Rodgers, Neil Johnson and Hugh Woody.

Leroy died in the V.A. hospital in Dallas last Saturday following a lengthy illness.

Born Feb. 11, 1914, in Denison, he moved here with his parents William Earl and Blanche Hall, Sept. 25, 1915.

He served from Feb. 1941 till July 1945 in the 36th Infantry Division as Technical Sergeant. He was wounded four times and received the Purple Heart with three clusters.

Leroy was married to Miss Pearl Hartson in New Jersey in 1945. They resided in Iowa Park and the Clara community several years before moving to Electra.

He was a well serving and oil-field worker.

Surviving are his widow; two sons: William Earl and Ronald; three daughters: Mary Blanche, Rosalie, Lillian, all of the home; a brother Glen of Wichita Falls; a sister Mrs. Velma Edwards of Houston.

Rev. M. C. Swart, pastor of the Church of God at Cleveland, Tenn., will be evangelist for the Sunday morning revival to be held at the church at the corner of Cash and Alcott streets. The revival will begin Sunday at 7:00 p.m. The Sunday evening services will retain the usual 7:00 o'clock starting time.

Rocket Club

A group of 22 boys stood in a cluster. The cluster broke as about 7 of them spread out around the area. The remaining ones stood around the end of a wire running from a block of wood with a straight rod running up from the middle.

An object that looked like the rockets in science-fiction pictures was delicately placed on the rod. 5-4-3-2-1! A button was pressed, and with a whoosh the rocket hurtled into the sky. With a puff the nose-cone was fired out and a parachute unfolded and the rocket began its slow descent.

Such was the scene last Sunday as 22 boys ranging in age from 13 to 18 turned out for the rocket launching of the newly formed Rocket Club.

Several months ago Terry May and Martin Brubaker fired a rocket with a grasshopper and an ant as payload. The ant survived but the grasshopper was killed.

Terry talked to Mr. Charles Graham, science teacher of IPHS, and now Mr. Graham has designed and built and fired several of the different types of plastic and balsawood rockets available.

Mr. Graham also leads and supervises the young rocketeers.

Last Sunday 8 types of rockets were launched, 13 shots in all. Sixteen of them were recovered although several of the parachutes did not open.

Any person desiring more information or wanting to join the Rocket club can get full details from Mr. Graham.

Rev. M. C. Swart, pastor of the Church of God at Cleveland, Tenn., will be evangelist for the Sunday morning revival to be held at the church at the corner of Cash and Alcott streets. The revival will begin Sunday at 7:00 p.m. The Sunday evening services will retain the usual 7:00 o'clock starting time.

Service Set for Parkan's Father

Funeral service will be conducted Friday morning for Mr. Lester D. Mowrey, 77, of Wichita Falls, father of Mrs. Grace Hadley of Iowa Park, in the First Methodist church in Wichita Falls.

The body will be taken to the church at 3:30 a.m. and lie in state until the hour of the service. Dr. Howard Hollowell, pastor, will officiate. Burial will be in Crestview Memorial Park.

Mr. Mowrey was a member of the church, was a former steward and belonged to Kay Bible class. Members of that class will be honorary pallbearers.

Born Jan. 20, 1885, in Emerickville, Penna., he had resided in Wichita Falls for 37 years and was well known as an oil field equipment manufacturer and independent oil operator.

Mr. Mowrey's biography was used in the New Encyclopedia of Texas yearbook because of his achievements in developing and manufacturing oilfield equipment. He was owner of L. D. Mowrey and Son Machine Shop which manufactures the equipment, much of which he invented.

Surviving are the widow; two sons: Stanley of Wichita Falls and Bill of Jacksboro; the daughter Mrs. Hadley; two brothers and four grandchildren, which include Barbara and Beverley Hadley of Iowa Park.

Rev. M. C. Swart, pastor of the Church of God at Cleveland, Tenn., will be evangelist for the Sunday morning revival to be held at the church at the corner of Cash and Alcott streets. The revival will begin Sunday at 7:00 p.m. The Sunday evening services will retain the usual 7:00 o'clock starting time.

Hawks Drop in District Standing

Hawk basketball teams have had their ups and downs in the past two weeks, reports Coach Stanley Owen.

On Jan. 16 Iowa Park was upset by Seymour, 45-46. It was a close battle all the way with the Panthers leading 23-17 at the half. The Hawks overcame the lead with a 17-point surge in the 3rd quarter. The final stanza ended with the Seymour victory.

In the B-team game, Iowa Park beat Seymour 35-26. Clifford Klinkerman led with 11 points and Larry Thompson made 10.

Jan. 19 the Hawks went to Jacksboro and lost 50-38 to the district leaders. High point man was Mike Davenport with 20; and Scotty May made 12. Robert Leach had 17 for Jacksboro.

Electra came here Jan. 23 and went home with a defeat at the hands of the Hawks, 56-42. Mike Davenport poured in 23 points and Scotty May, 10.

Friday night, Jan. 26, Iowa Park defeated Nocona there 39 to 35. It was close all the way with the lead changing several times. Mike Davenport again won high point honors with 12 and David Brown scored 11. Mike Horn of Nocona hit for 21 points.

Jacksboro kept the slate clean again this Tuesday by trouncing the Hawks on their home court, 56-43. Scotty May was the Hawks' leading point maker.

Burkburnett will come to Iowa Park this Friday for games. The schedule next week calls for trips to Olney on Tuesday and Seymour on Friday.

Readers Write

IOWA PARK HERALD:
Recently at my request you put an item in your newspaper containing my address. I was pleased to receive letters from two former classmates with whom I had long lost contact. This leads me to wonder if there are other Iowa Parkers who have moved away who would enjoy being in contact with former classmates. An excellent way to do this would be to follow a practice my family has engaged in for over 50 years. The Gilstrap family is scattered all over the country, and like most families, one finds time to correspond only with the closest members. Therefore we have a family chain letter. It works like this: Someone writes a letter containing news of his family, and mails it to another relative. This person writes the same type of letter and mails both letters to a third relative, who does the same thing, etc. When the chain letter comes back to the first relative, he removes his first letter and adds another with more current news. Our family chain letter has about 30 members, and when that big, fat envelope arrives it is read with great pleasure. There are distant cousins whom I have never met, but whose letters I enjoy immensely. It takes about eight months for the chain to make the rounds. My pleasure would be boundless were it possible to have a "Class of '45 Chain Letter"—and I am wondering if there are others of that class who share this interest. If so, may I ask that those persons who are interested send their addresses to me directly or care of the Herald? Perhaps graduating classes of other years might be interested in their own chains, too. Polly Bernardi nee Pauline Gilstrap 17899 Lamson Road Castro Valley, California

IOWA PARK HERALD:
The Big D Chorus of Dallas and the Texachords of Wichita Falls want to thank you and your whole office force for being so helpful in making our SPEBSQSA "Harvest of Harmony" show last Saturday such a wonderful success. All of our members were quite pleased with the way you handled our publicity, and especially the Souvenir Programs. Thanks again for a job well done. Dr. R. G. Warner
Mrs. Marion A. Stacy, the former Marguerite Thompson of Iowa Park, was installed Jan. 14 as mother adviser to Zia Assembly No. 49 Order of the Rainbow for Girls, Roswell, N.M. She was initiated in the Eastern Star in Iowa Park in 1958 and moved to Roswell. Mrs. Stacy is sister to Miles V. Thompson of Iowa Park.

Hawk Coach Plays with State Cage Champs

The Pete Grace Drillers will play the Sheppard AFB basketball team here Thurs., Feb. 1, in the school gymnasium. Proceeds will go toward the purchase of glass backboards for the gym. There will be a Peg Wee game at 6:30 with the main event starting at 7:30. The Drillers are a semi-pro team made up of outstanding ex-college players. They won the state TAAF basketball tourney in Houston and were undefeated last year. They played such teams as the Harlem Stars and Dallas Texans and have lost only one game the past three years. The squad lists All-American O'Neal Weaver, Rogers Morgan, Wayne Davis, Jamie Cone, John Guice, Bob Cash, Dan Owen and the Hawk coach, Stan Owen. Sheppard AFB is paced by big Theodore Hall and La Moyne Potter from the University of Washington. This is a final warm-up game for the Drillers before they meet the Harlem Stars on Feb. 3 in Jacksboro high school gymnasium. Homer Burnam of Amarillo visited relatives here this week. J. H. Miley and son Jimmie Dale of Arlington were here Tuesday to attend the funeral service for Lee Roy Hall.

Witnesses Study Visitation

W. R. Thomas of Brooklyn, N.Y., closed out a 3-day convention of Jehovah's Witnesses last Sunday in Lubbock when he spoke to 923 persons on "Uniting Men in a Split-up World." He said: "Unity! The heavens have it. Man does not. Man will attain it when God's will is done." Theme of the assembly was "to assist one another to do God's will." Harold P. Bruce, presiding minister of the Wichita Falls congregation of Witnesses, said the assembly was designed to aid us to be more efficient in house to house visitation, calling back on interest found and caring for it with home Bible service.

R. H. Smith, circuit supervisor, said: "In your house to house visits remember the proverb, 'An answer, when mild, turns away rage.'" Texas Circuit No. 9 covers an area from Wichita Falls to Hobbs, N.M., and from Lamesa to Plainview. Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Banks and children of Seymour were in Iowa Park last Saturday visiting relatives and conducting business. The family recently moved to Seymour, where he is a caretaker at Lake Kemp. Mrs. Banks, the former Miss Shirley Morgan, had a car accident last week during the ice storm and received some bruises. The pickup she was driving hit an icy spot on the highway and turned over. Her two children were not injured.

Russell Butts of NTSU, Denton, visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Justin Butts last weekend.

Christ and a Faith for Our Day

by Boyd Schlenker

Prayer is one of the most vital and yet most misunderstood elements in the Christian Faith.

Some believe prayer is a psychological exercise by which we build up "spiritual muscles." They believe the best way to escape the problems which confront us is to enter into a state of inner-composure. As far as actually praying to a "Thou," these people say we must make up our minds prayer is really only talking to ourselves for the purpose of clarifying and composing our minds.

But what a tragic delusion this is; this belief in prayer which is only looking at ourselves in the mirror and carrying on a lovely conversation with ourselves! Behind the heroic, set face of the man who thus speaks to himself in prayer, lies the whole tragedy of a child who has lost his father.

If this is not prayer, then what is it? Prayer first and foremost is a conversation—a conversation between two parties. And the main Party is the God of Jesus Christ. This means that we do not use prayer initially for what we can get from God.

It may be true that "families that pray together stay together," but then again, it may not be true. If we pray solely that we may receive something, we are misunderstanding prayer.

If prayer is conversation with God, then the first thing we do in prayer is to praise Him; standing in His presence we could do nothing else. And as we continue we find that in prayer before the God who "knows us better than we know ourselves," we must be honest! Luther said that the first law of prayer is "Don't lie to God!" You see, when we pray for something, we must really want it. Too often we pray for the giving up of some habit—without the slightest intention of giving it up. We may pray to be made into a certain kind of person when the last thing we want would be to be changed.

The peril of prayer is pious and unmeaning platitudes; attitudes are never changed with platitudes, even in prayer. All this is lying to God.

Then again we must realize that we certainly do not receive a "yes" to all our petitions. A "no" or a "wait awhile" are just as much answers as a "yes."

Do not forget that our God has ever-lasting purpose and destiny for us. Because we are human beings, the only thing we can see is the present moment. We do not know what is going to happen a week, a day, an hour, even a moment ahead. We are like people who come into a movie in the middle of the film. We have not seen the beginning, we do not know the end, and the happenings on the screen are a mystery to us. God alone sees all time, and, therefore, God alone knows what is good for us. For that reason God can often best answer our prayer by not giving us that for which we ask.

In the Garden of Gethsemane Jesus prayed, if it were the Father's will, to be released from the Cross. He was not released from the Cross, but was given strength to endure it.

Next week we shall look at the subject of becoming a part of our prayers, and the next, praying "in the Name of Jesus Christ."

Brotherhood

Rev. Homer Thompson of First Baptist church addressed members of the United Brotherhood at Faith Baptist church, Jan. 13.

He said that in the six years since he moved to Iowa Park 600 new homes have been built. When he came here you could ask anyone on the street where a certain person lived and expect an answer. Now it is not uncommon to get an "I don't know" from the same person who used to know everyone.

Many of the newcomers are from varied background, young, have assumed heavy financial obligations in buying homes, and have young children. They are pre-occupied with their own problems and it is up to the established laymen of the church to assume the task of helping to make them feel they are a part of our community and thus speed their assimilation into the community as useful and participating citizens.

The speaker refreshed our memories to the fact that the church fathers of our individual churches have established a reputation for Iowa Park as a friendly town. In most cases that was one of the factors that helped each of us to decide to move here.

The most effective way to express gratitude to those who made it a friendly town is to carry on its traditions.

Homemakers

Future Homemakers of America met in the school auditorium recently to elect Chapter Mothers and the FHA Beau. Dates were discussed for the annual Sweetheart Banquet.

The girls decided to present Mike Davenport on Feb. 8 at 7:00 p.m. as the beau.

Mothers selected are: Senior: Mrs. G. O. Davis; junior: Mrs. Shelton; sophomore: Mrs. W. J. Hall; freshman: Mrs. H. W. Darnell.

On Jan. 15, Sue Shelton and Jo Cowden met with members who do not have their Junior Degree. They discussed the requirements, the pins and the book. The girls seemed eager to learn.

Church of Christ To Enlarge Building Soon

Iowa Park Church of Christ is planning a $40,000 remodeling and expansion program. Plans and bids are expected to be in the church office by Feb. 11.

Anyone interested in bidding on the remodeling should contact the church office.

The local Church of Christ has come a long way since the first little wooden structure was built on East Cash street. The white face brick building located at the corner of Bond and Park was completed in 1954, and by 1958 four more classrooms were added.

Under the present program the auditorium will be doubled in size to accommodate 600 seats.

With accordion type doors, much of the auditorium space can be used for classrooms. The nursery will be quadrupled and the office space will be tripled. Aisles of the auditorium will be carpeted.

Walls of the building will be formed by a series of oblique sections to provide a unique architectural effect.

H. W. (Dub) McClish is minister. He has served in this position two years. Mrs. Jimmie Cameron is church secretary.

Members of the building committee for the expansion project are Jack Vestal, R. L. Good, C. I. Reaves, Harrel Sullivan.

Active enrollment of the church is 232. Bible class attendance averaged 247 a week in 1961.

The church has supported H. L. Farris, minister of the Huntington Church of Christ, Long Island, N.Y., the past 2½ years. During that time he has baptized 168 persons.

Elders of the church are B. L. Bradford, Good, Reaves and W. B. Shook.

B. L. Bradford was in Dallas, Monday and Tuesday for a hardware meeting.
