VOL. VIII NO. 51 15 CENTS

School to start here Monday

School bells at the five Iowa Park campuses Monday morning will signal the start of a new, 175-day school year.

Teachers this week are undergoing in-service training in preparation for the 8:30 a.m. bells, and all students returning from last year are now registered.

Students new to the district should register this week.

High school students will pick up their schedules and locker assignments today and tomorrow. Seniors between 9 and noon today and juniors between 1 and 4 this afternoon, according to school personnel. Friday, sophomores will go to the high school between 9 and noon, and freshmen between 2 and 4.

Freshmen are to report to the high school auditorium at 2 p.m. Friday for orientation.

After a week in class, students will get their first vacation Sept. 5, Labor Day.

END OF LINE - An unidentified Hawk defender cuts the legs out from under a Grapevine runner, stopping a play which appeared to have the makings of another touchdown for the Mustangs, but didn't. The Hawks scrimmaged Grapevine last Friday, and will hold one more pre-season scrimmage tomorrow night at Bowie against the defending district champion Jackrabbits. That will be their final tuneup before opening the 1977 campaign against Lawton High Sept. 2 in Hawk Stadium.

Trustees approve budget

No change is made in tax rate for coming year

Iowa Park school trustees approved the 1977-78 school budget calling for expenditures of $3,065,566, at a public hearing held Thursday evening.

The board left the tax rate at $1.80, which allows for $150 for maintenance and 30 cents for debt service. School district values were set at $59-million, of which the tax rate is assessed at 60 per cent of value.

Added to anticipated revenues of $3,065,566 for the year is $317,719 carry-over from the previous year.

The budget for 1976-77 was $2,644,239, making this the first year the district budget has exceeded the $3-million level.

Salaries took the major portion of the increase in the budget, up some $210,800 over last year. Classroom teachers were the bulk of that, $129,000.

Other major increases included plant maintenance and operation, up $83,000; pupil transportation, up $44,700; general administration, up $39,500, which includes $10,620 to self insure against unemployment; co-curricular activities, up $31,800; and instructional administration, up $16,000.

A major portion of the budget finances the West Wichita Cooperative, which administers the Plan A program for not only Iowa Park, but Holiday, Electra and City View districts as well, as physical agent.

The Cooperative budget is $399,345, which includes $312,136 in salaries. Of this, Iowa Park receives approximately 51 per cent, according to school spokesmen.

Income will be $1,107,714 from local taxes, tuition, enterprise funds and other sources; $1,932,852 from state; and $25,000 from federal programs, totaling $3,065,566, giving this year's budget a zero balance.

In other business Tuesday, trustees accepted State National Bank's bid as school depository, approved the bank's pledge of $850,000 in securities; and named H.M. Nipper as depository treasurer.

Stabbing, burglary highlight blotter

An apparent self-inflicted stabbing and burglary of an eating establishment kept Iowa Park police busy this week.

Police responded to a call about 9:40 p.m. Tuesday to the 400 block of S. Colorado where a stabbing occurred.

A Gold Cross Ambulance Service unit was dispatched to the scene and carried a man to Wichita General Hospital.

Larry Fernandez of Iowa Park was treated and released Tuesday night for a knife wound to the leg, according to hospital authorities.

Sometime during the dark hours Monday morning the Sonic Drive In at 719 W. Highway was burglarized, according to police.

The police report said $113 was removed from a cash box in the manager's office.

Police responded to a prowler call at 2 a.m. Saturday at 909 Van Horn. Mrs. Larry Meador fired one round from a .357 revolver into the air to frighten the intruder, police said.

Last Friday Iowa Park officers were dispatched to the intersection of Peterson Road and U.S. Expressway 287 where two small aircraft had landed.

A man and his wife were flying from Childress to Wichita Valley Airport in separate planes. A road causer's nest in the plane's air vent caused the engine of the woman's plane to die, forcing the craft to make an emergency landing on the expressway.

Both planes landed. While Iowa Park officers stopped traffic, the problem was corrected and the planes resumed flight, using the expressway southbound lane as a runway.

On another traffic note, Iowa Park police said they will begin Monday enforcing lower speed limits around school crossings.

New warning lights have been installed along Old Highway, warning motorists to slow down to 20 miles per hour during the beginning and dismissal of school.

Weather Report

Weather reports are officially compiled for Iowa Park at the Texas Experiment Station, southeast of town.

DISTRICT QUEEN - Connie Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Williams of Iowa Park, was crowned queen of Farm Bureau's District III. Miss Williams, who will continue into state competition, won the title from a field of five contestants during ceremonies at Iowa Park High School.

United Way campaign leaders are named

Keith Aulds was named chairman of Advanced Gifts, Mrs. Bobby Shaw, Metro Division, and Faris Nowell, Bill Steger and Gene Britton as tri-chairmen of the Public Service area for the annual United Way campaign.

General Chairman Dick Waggoner made the announcement of the Iowa Park chairmen for the annual fund raising drive which has Sept. 8 as its official kickoff.

"These three divisions are very important to the overall campaign," Waggoner stressed. "The Advanced Gifts workers contact the individual donors and a great deal of their work is done prior to the official opening of the community campaign."

The Metro area is the largest division "in both contacts to be made and the number of volunteer workers needed," Waggoner said. This division reaches the self-employed, retired, small businesses, women and residential accounts.

The Public Service area involves state, county and city employees, plus public schools and community services, such as hospitals.

The goal for this year's drive is $1,112,800.

"Iowa Park is now a very working partner in the United Way both in the campaign and with an agency of our own receiving United Way funding," Aulds said. "To insure the services of our senior citizens center, The Friendly Door, and any new agency endeavor for our city, we all need to support this annual campaign."

Iowa Park joined last year with Burkburnett, Sheppard AFB and Wichita Falls in the drive benefiting 32 agencies throughout the area.

Pool to be closed during school week

Iowa Park Bicentennial Swimming Pool will not be open next week, but will re-open for Labor Day weekend, according to George Taylor, manager.

When the pool closes Sunday afternoon, it will not be opened until 5 p.m. Sept. 2. It will remain open for regular hours through 7 p.m. the following Monday, and then will be closed down for the winter.

Free, reduced lunch available

Iowa Park school trustees last week announced a policy for free and reduced price meals, free milk for children unable to pay the full price of meals and milk served under the National School Lunch, School Breakfast and Special Milk programs.

Application forms are being sent to all homes in a letter to parents.

Freshman orientation scheduled Friday

Students who will be freshmen at Iowa Park High School this year are requested to report at the auditorium at 2 p.m. Friday for orientation.

Bob Dawson, principal, will be in charge and members of the Student Council will be guides for the freshmen.

At orientation, they will pick up schedules, receive student hand books and will be free to walk around to locate their classrooms.

Trustees call meeting

Iowa Park School trustees will hold a called meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday for amending the 1976-77 budget, which is required by state.

Other items may be on the agenda, which is not required to be completed until tomorrow.

Aldermen taking look at building insurance

Iowa Park City Council is taking a hard look at its building insurance needs.

Insurance agents Bob Birk, Richard Hill and Charlene Barbour met with the council Monday night to discuss the insurance policies on city structures such as the library, city hall, water and sewer plant buildings and water towers.

The three agents said they would work together to prepare an overall insurance program proposal for the city which should be ready in a month to six weeks.

Also at Monday night's meeting the council appointed Barbara Padgett and Cherie Miller to the Park Board.

The council accepted the Planning and Zoning Commission's recommendation to replat Lot 7, Block 136, Original Townsite. The residential area is located on West Lafayette between Wall and Park.

The council granted Mayor Johnny Crawford and City Administrator Gene Britton authority to transfer money from the water and sewer fund to the general fund to cover September operating expenses until tax revenues begin being remitted.

Councilmen also discussed the possibility of abandoning a portion of Pasadena near the intersection of Old Highway.

Feldon Britt's insurance was discussed and approval given for street department employee Mike Price to attend a traffic school.

Tick population in yards increasing; could cause health hazard

Ticks are already a major problem in Iowa Park, and with the usual rainfall anticipated in the early fall, they could become a human health hazard.

Dr. Thurman Reitz, a veterinarian, made the statement this week, and he said the only remedy is up to the individual resident.

"This is one city problem we can't look to our city government to solve," he said. "It's a home-by-home responsibility and will require several treatments of both animals and the yard."

Dr. Reitz informed the Leader "to alert the general public in Iowa Park in what should be a general city-wide war against what appears to be our number one public health hazard, ticks."

He predicts that nearly every dog in the community is infected to one degree or another with ticks, primarily the brown dog tick. And he says the ticks will not go away on their own, and will even overwinter in the yard to attack next year if not exterminated.

"The ticks we have are a three-host tick, meaning they go through three stages to become adults. Nearly all infested dogs in this area have all three stages on them at once. Each large engorged female tick lays 2,000 to 4,000 eggs which hatch in not more than 30 days into very small larval ticks.

"These ticks are very tiny and difficult to see, but they all feed on the dog, then fall off, molt, and become larger nymphal ticks which still do not look like the easily recognized adult tick. They go through the on-dog feeding cycle again, fall off, molt, and become egg-laying adults," Reitz said.

Control of the ticks has to be centered around keeping the dog treated at all times, and breaking the life cycle of the tick. To accomplish this, each dog owner should carefully inspect his dog on a regular basis for any signs of any stage of tick.

If a tick is noted the dog should be treated with a compound designed for use on dogs, either tick spray, dip, shampoo or powder.

The yard should be sprayed with a compound suitable for yard use which is known to kill ticks. Special attention should be given to shrubs, cracks and crevices around houses and wooden fences.

Control has to be continual with spraying of the yard at regular intervals throughout the year. Severe infestations will require more frequent yard treatments, as often as every two or three weeks until the ticks are brought under control, and then monthly sprays until the infestation is brought under general control, Reitz said.

"The fact is that if you have ticks on your dog, they are home-grown and home-fed. They do not come from somewhere else. You and your dog grow them. Neighbors should try to get together and spray at the same time if possible, but please spray your yard and treat your dog if you find ticks," he said.

And then he emphasized, "Do it now before the health of the whole community is affected by these disease-carrying insects."

Reid-Davis marriage takes place here Saturday

A kneeling bench entwined with lemon leaf and the trinity candelabrum decked with white satin bows and emerald dominated decorations for the wedding of Miss Amber Gale Reid and Terry Earl Davis Saturday evening.

The couple recited their vows at Faith Baptist Church before a brass arch swathed with lemon leaf brightened with scattered yellow and white carnations and white satin bows and topped with two white doves. Bouquets of yellow and white carnations and seven-branched candelabra marked with emerald, bows and wedding tapers completed the setting.

Gary Lyles officiated the double-ring nuptials to unite the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Reid, Route Three, Wichita Falls and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Davis of Iowa Park.

The impressive musical setting for the wedding was provided by Tim Adcock, organist, and Lin Comer, vocalist. The organist played a medley of traditional wedding selections preceding the ceremony. These included "O Perfect Love", "O Promise Me", "I Love You Truly", "Savior, Like A Shepherd Lead Us", "Because", "Clair de Lune", "Plaisir De Amour". He heralded the approach of the bride to the altar by playing Wagner's "Lohengrin's Wedding March" and accompanied the vocalist who sang "The Lord's Prayer" for the benediction while the couple knelt on the prayer bench and "The Wedding Song" for the recessional.

Tom Casey and Brent Bishop, the ushers, also lighted the candles at the altar preceding the entrance of the couple's mothers. Special honor was bestowed upon these two during the service when the bride presented them with long stemmed red roses. She made the presentation to her mother as she approached the altar and to the groom's mother after they had lighted the unity candle and were exiting from the church.

Escorted by her father, who presented her in marriage for both parents, the bride was radiant in a formal gown of white crystal organza and re-embroidered lace. The empire bodice was distinguished with a petal neckline covered in lace encrusted with pearls and medallions and lace-covered Juliet sleeves. The striking high rise Demi Bill skirt was accented with a double border of lace which flowed into a chapel train.

The bride chose a fingertip veil of silk illusion trimmed in lace which drifted from a cap of lace and pearls. She carried a Lace Lovely bouquet of yellow and white miniature carnations, daisies and baby's breath tied with white satin ribbons and streamers.

The bride wore a diamond heart necklace, a gift from the groom for "something new". She wore a brooch belonging to the groom's great-grandmother and carried a silk handkerchief that belonged to her great-grandmother for "something old". The "something borrowed" was her mother's Bible that she had carried in her wedding. Completing bridal tradition, she wore the garter chosen by most brides for "something blue" and the sixpence for luck in her shoe.

Mrs. Randy Stewart was matron of honor. She wore a formal gown of yellow embossed sheer over yellow taffeta attractively designed with an Empire bodice set apart with a "U" neckline and full sheer sleeves that ended in ruffles over the wrists. The waistline was defined with a self-belt that terminated in a center bow in the back and the gathered skirt featured a deep hemline ruffle. She carried one white and two yellow carnations combined with leather leaf and trailing yellow ribbons.

Mrs. Vernon Moore of Wichita Falls and Miss Julie Davis, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical to the one worn by Mrs. Stewart and they carried one yellow and two white carnations.

Tina Escue was flower girl and wore a yellow embossed sheer frock over taffeta. She wore a floral headpiece and carried a basket of miniature yellow and white carnations, daisies and baby's breath.

John Moore, the ring bearer wore a blue suit. He carried the rings on a lace-covered white satin pillow accented with a spray of lilies of the valley, yellow ribbons and simulated gold wedding bands made by the groom's mother.

The groom was attired in an all-white tuxedo and wore a yellow carnation centered with a white rose for a boutonniere. The masculine participants in the wedding also wore white tuxedos and yellow ruffled shirts.

Randy Stewart served as best man. Groomsmen were Roger Reid and Michael Davis, brothers of the bride and groom.

Mothers of the couple graced their formal wedding attire with yellow orchids. Mrs. Reid wore a light blue double knit dress with a pleated skirt and pleated tie at the front neckline and Mrs. Davis wore a long-sleeved mint green double knit dress.

Miss Vickie Thompson presided at the bride's book table where guests registered in the church foyer preceding the wedding. The table was covered with white linen and held a brandy snifter filled with yellow net rice bags, the bride's book and yellow plume pen.

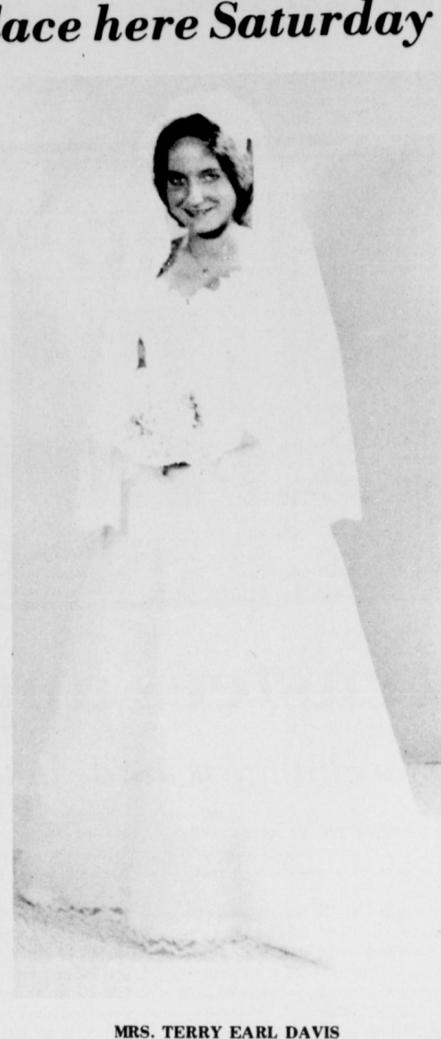

The bride's parents honored the newlyweds at a postnuptial reception given in the Fellowship Hall of the church where the bride's chosen colors inspired the decorative scheme.

The bride's table was draped with a white net cloth accented with yellow satin bows over yellow. The floral centerpiece featured the bouquets of the bride and her attendants.

The table extremities were marked by the bride's cake and silver punch service. Yellow icing roses gave a refreshing and decorative touch to the four-tiered white confection where pedestals lifted the two top layers. Yellow satin bells traced with pearls and nestled in poufs of white net on top seemed ready to peal out the glad tidings of the marriage.

The groom's chocolate cake decorated with names of the bride and groom and their wedding date in yellow icing was served with coffee from a silver service on a table covered with yellow linen overlaid with white lace.

Reception assistants were

MRS. TERRY EARL DAVIS

Misses Debbie McCreary, Karen Owens, Tamara Thompson; Mmes. Jim Wilson, Preston Morton, Herb Adcock, Andy Arrington, Clifton Cummings and Kevin Wright.

The gift table held a silver candelabrum filled with yellow candles and mixed flowers.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner Friday evening at El Babo's in Wichita Falls.

After a trip to Montego Bay and other points in Oklahoma, the couple will live in Iowa Park. The bride wore a two-piece green and white double knit dress and a corsage of yellow and white carnations for travel.

The couple are graduates of Iowa Park High School and he attends Midwestern State University. The bride attended MSU for three years and is presently employed by Child Care Center at Sheppard AFB. In high school, she was a member of the pep squad, officer in F.H.A. and outstanding H.E.C.E.

The groom was in A Cappella Choir, FFA and on the annual staff. He is employed by Vega Tool Manufacturing Co.

Grandparents of the couple who attended the wedding were Mrs. Faye Hobbs of Megargel, Mrs. Mrs. Earl Davis of Giney, Mrs. Haskell Wright of Electra and Mrs. Roy Scott of Vernon.

Other relatives attending were Messrs. and Mmes. J.E. Wood of Middleton, Clark Hilliard of Lawton, Okla., Melbourne Reid of Dean, Ken Hubbs of Lubbock and Miss Bertha Wright of Electra.

Happy Birthday Mr. Paschall from the crew!

Routh-Milner nuptials are exchanged recently

The First United Pentecostal Church was the scene of the August 12th wedding of Miss Sarah Anne Routh and Daniel Glenn Milner. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Routh and the groom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. G.W. Milner.

The groom's father, pastor of the church, performed the double-ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with an arch of greenery accented with yellow carnations flanked by white tapers in fifteen-branched candelabra and a kneeling bench.

Musicians for the ceremony were Mrs. David Milner and Miss Carla Croker, both of Glen Rose. Mrs. Milner provided piano accompaniment for their duet numbers, "Walk Through This World With Me" and "Whither Thou Goest" and played the wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal white Qiana gown with an Empire waistline. Venise lace enhanced the keyhole neckline outlined with pearls and the V opening. A watteau train bordered with lace extended to chapel length to heighten the beauty of the skirt. Her illusion veil fell from a tiara-shaped headpiece with pearl trim and she carried a bouquet of yellow and white carnations with cascading satin streamers.

Maid of honor was Miss Anna Milner, sister of the groom, and Miss Charlotte Routh, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore long yellow batiste dresses topped with lace and nylon capas and carried long stemmed yellow mums with streamers.

Darwayne Wilson was best man and Mark Patterson was groomsman. Ushers were Michael Troscclair of St. Bernard, La. and Rev. David Milner of Glen Rose, brother of the groom.

James Routh, brother of the bride, and Nathaniel Routh, her cousin, were candlelighters.

The reception following the wedding was given by the bride's parents in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The refreshment table was laid with white lace and centered with a gold epergne filled with yellow roses. The four-tiered cake featured yellow frosting roses and a miniature bridal couple standing under an arch lush with flowers for the top ornament.

Reception assistants were Mrs. Junior Dumas, Eugene R. Routh and Jackie Wilson. Guests were registered by Miss Carol Adams and Mrs. Amos Teafateller.

7th anniversary being observed

The "God Is Love" ministry which was started by Janie Hill at the time of her husband's death has been celebrating its seventh year of service to the Wichita Falls area and different cities in Texas.

The ministry works in cooperation with churches and hand-in-hand with other rehabilitation agencies in North Texas in solving human needs.

The "New Life Center" on Peterson Road is a Christian rehabilitation farm opened in 1974 and since that time nearly 500 persons have grown in new life through Christ and returned to society to do better things, according to Mrs. Hill, who manages the farm with the aid of her two children, David and Debby.

During the month, the ministry has held services in Waco, Austin and San Antonio, Amarillo at various places including Mexican Baptist Children's Home, Morning Manor, the largest nursing home in northwest Texas, coffee houses, a "river walk" along the river through San Antonio and the downtown bars and bus station.

The group will be guests of the Southern Gospel Music Association at the annual talent show Saturday in Seminole, Okla. and will return to Wichita Falls in September to resume services in this area.

Evening Lions gain member

During a business meeting directed by Gordon Griffith Tuesday, the Evening Lions Club voted Mike Isbell into the club.

Participation in the Wichita County Fair and Chamber of Commerce Whoop-T-Do was discussed and it was voted to purchase Lions Club baseball caps for members and club sweethearts to wear at the Whoop-T-Do.

Charles Wicker was program chairman and showed a film on steel.

Cook of the Week

Ethel Cook is a cook in more ways than one.

The first two are obvious, but add to it the fact that teaching kitchen technique is part of her job as home economics instructor at Holliday High School.

It is not surprising to learn that her students sometimes jokingly call her "Cookie" or "The Cookie Monster".

Even before she married and acquired the last name that adds the ironic twist to her job description, Mrs. Cook had her sights set on becoming a home economics teacher.

She knew what she wanted to do while growing up at Pyote.

She said she enjoyed taking home economics at Monahans High School.

"It's something I enjoy doing ... and it's useful for girls in knowing how to do the basic things around the house," she said.

Coming from a family of three brothers and working parents, she had plenty of practice.

Beginning her second year with the Holliday schools, Mrs. Cook is a 1975 graduate of Texas Tech University with a bachelor's in home economics.

Her husband James is a 1976 graduate of the Texas Tech School of Law and now is a partner in a Wichita Falls law firm.

In addition to cooking, Mrs. Cook said her hobbies include playing tennis, camping and hunting.

For a family of two persons, she said leftover portions of these recipes are excellent for freezer storage and later dining.

Letters to the Editor

How Soon We Forget.
First I have no interest whatsoever in this man's affairs.
But I figure a friend is a friend in storm as well as calm weather.
Having never written a letter of this nature before, and getting very tired of hearing nothing but bad things to say about him, I think it is about time someone remembers the good things he has done, not only for the City of Iowa Park, but for many young boys and men needing work. There never was a man or boy who asked him for a job that didn't get it.
He worked young boys (who wanted to work) including two of mine and never said a cross word to them.
He gave work when he really didn't need a hand. He always had a nice word even if he was busy (to his help).
He never asked you to wait on your check until some computer decided to write it. This man's name was Mr. Robert Johnson. I for one am proud to have known him.

There never was a time (when asked) that Bobby refused a favor for anyone, including loaning trucks and men to help the city on Clean Up day, and many other small things that he did go unremembered.

He may have got in too deep to see a way out in his business dealings, and I am sure his leaving hurt some of our neighbors, for which his family will suffer the rest of their lives. But, if he is alive, I think he is suffering, too.

Thanks for the opportunity to express my feelings about this man. I only hope Bobby's mother and father and brothers and sisters and many friends don't have to suffer too long because of Bobby's mistakes.

It comes to mind a saying I have heard many times: "He who without sin cast the first stone."
Thanks,
D.C. Hill

Dear Mr. Hamilton:
I have never written to a newspaper before, but I feel that it would be the best way to get to the citizens of Iowa Park to whom this letter is aimed.
I live across the street from Gordon Lake and Oscar Park. We could have one of the nicest little parks in North Texas if people would be a little more considerate and not throw their trash and beer cans in the park and in the lake.

Two weeks ago my family and I spent about one hour a day for four days picking up the trash only on the west side of the lake. We gathered six large trash bags full of cans, bottles, papers, and etc. A lot of this was in the lake itself. What kind of home up-bringing would cause a person to throw disposable diapers, W-D 40 cans, and even pieces of bathroom sink plumbing out in the lake which is part of our city drinking water?

We have only one trash can in the whole park and it has been full all summer. The trashmen say they can't empty it because it's too big and the city hasn't done anything since we notified them on about the 10th of August.

Incidentally, the trash that we picked up, we took home and it was picked up there by the trashmen.

If we had more trash cans scattered around the park, I think that maybe more people would try to hit the can instead of the ground.

Worth Quoting

We've got some tomato vines that would shame a Missouri mule as far as pure stubbornness, contrariness, and ornierist.

Our green thumbs have changed to livid red from anger, frustration, and dying hope.

We've got tomato vines at our house that look like a jungle of overblown, oversized milkweeds ... and there's not a tomato on them.

Our tomato vines are about the same size as our apple trees and we didn't expect to make any apples. But the apples are behaving as usual - green apples falling all over the yard until it looks like a green hailstorm hit the yard each afternoon.

But we expected more from those tomato vines. No one appreciates a vine-ripened tomato more than us.

For fear that the peso-devaluation in Mexico might interfere with a steady source of tomatoes, we decided to raise our own.

And the vines have done well. They stretch in green glory in every direction. They soar to magnificent heights. They spread in profusion and ramification ... but produce no tomatoes.

We've tried three different kinds of fertilizer. We've tried morning watering, afternoon watering, and midnight sprinkling.

To hold those blooms, we've tried Sta-Set, Bloom-Set, Fast-Set and Stick-Fast. We've tried Elmer's Glue. We've used liberal doses of nematode chaser and killer. No tomatoes.

We've tried music.
We got the youngest to tape Glenn Miller's Sunset Serenade, mixed in a couple of Mahalia Jackson's gospel

As I See It... by BOB HAMILTON

Oh, boy! Next week will be show and tell time on the school campuses.

The elementary students will be showing and telling of their summer trips and adventures. Junior high teenagers will be showing their new wardrobes. And high school boys will be showing off their summer-earned cars while the girls will be showing off their promise rings.

It's school time again, and I don't know anyone who isn't ready, unless maybe the faculty.

Certainly the parents will be happy their nine-month babysitter is back at work. Now the ladies can catch up on their coffee drinking, napping and entreaties, and interspersed the soothing music with a couple of river numbers by Fishbait Franklin. No tomatoes. Nothing.

Two nights later we hit the vines all night with country and western and the likes of Willie Nelson, Charlie Pride, Ray Price and Loretta Lynn. All we got for our trouble were vines that smelled of sawdust and beer.

We reasoned that the strong beat was missing. We replaced the caterwauling with the ear-splitting, distinct throbbing of Little Richard, Fats Domino, and Mac Davis. All we got for our two nights of music were trembling and shuddering vines and strange glances from our neighbors.

A consultant suggested that it was whipping rather than music that the plants needed. We put our two dogs on leashes and led them over, through, and under the tomato vines. Nothing!

We named each of the plants for a senator or representative in Washington who feels like the oil and gas companies are ripping off the nation's consumers. Then we grabbed a big stick and attacked the tomato vines with gleeful vigor and hatred. We beat them with vengeance - and waited two days for the vines to produce and hold a bloom.

Last night, we found one lone tomato ... on a vine we didn't know existed.

There's an odd occurrence that takes place in the business section once school get started that lots of folks don't notice. Businesses are rushed in the mornings before school starts, then store keepers pretty well sit around and count their fingers until 3:30 that afternoon.

There is precious little business transpiring during the day while classes are in session. But as soon as school lets out at 3:30, from then until closing time, stores bustle with trade.

Still haven't figured it out, other than there are some big coffee pots and long gossip sessions around town during the day, maybe.

School is like the change of season. We're all ready for it to close in the spring, but come fall, we're pulling at the leash to hear the first bell.

I was always like that through my school days. Boy, once the first blade of grass broke the earth's surface, I just couldn't sit still until final exams were over. But after three months of work or laying around, I was ready for the school doors to reopen.

I'm reminded of that quite a bit here lately, not school but people wishing for the change of weather to come about. It wasn't too many weeks ago that people would rub their hands together and stomp their chilled feet saying "Sure wish summer would hurry up and get here. I can always stand the heat, but this cold really gets to me."

Funny, though. I can't find anyone who will live up to making a statement like that, now that the temperature stands at 100 with regularity, and the humidity almost as high.

I think the thing I like most about change is knowing it is only temporary. I'm not too sure about permanent change, but a temporary change gives you something to look forward to, and know there will be another change, and with it something else to look toward after that.

And so it goes.

Deserving pat on back

Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation deserves a pat on the back for improving the safety of a culvert crossing on FM 368 between Iowa Park and Holliday a mile south of the Wichita River bridge.

In the wake of a traffic mishap at that exact location involving three local youths, the highway department responded quickly and responsibly. This week workers were dispatched to the point where a curve in the farm-to-market road crosses a six foot deep culvert.

Highway officials admitted the best solution would be straightening the curve, but not unlike situations faced by most folks on a strained budget, the highway department was forced to make the best with what it had.

Additional guard rails installed this week greatly improved the safety of the crossing. But remembering to correct the curve when money is available would be appreciated.

NO PLACE TO GO FOR MUSTANG RUNNER
Mean Green defenders make tackle during Friday's scrimmage at Grapevine.

Hawk coaches have been stressing aggressiveness and being more physical this week, as they prepare the young squad for tomorrow's scrimmage with the Bowie Jackrabbits.

Mentors felt the lack of aggressiveness and being physical was the reason their running game was almost nonexistent last week against Grapevine.

At Bowie tomorrow, the freshmen will start their scrimmage at 5 p.m., followed at 6 by the junior varsity and at 7:45 by the varsity.

The Jackrabbits, through only AA in classification, reportedly outscored Weatherford 2-0 last week. Bowie is rumored to be moving up to AAA next year.

The Rabbits advanced to the state AA quarterfinals last season.

Offensively against Grapevine, which was a district champion last year and lost only 14-0 in bi-district to state runner-up Gainesville, the Hawks mustered only one sustained drive, only to lose the ball on a fumble at the one-yard line.

Iowa Park managed only seven first downs in the two, 20-play sessions with the ball. The Hawks scored once, on a spectacular reception by Eddie Cannedy that covered 50 yards, but the play was nullified by a penalty.

Rushing, Iowa Park gained a net 29 yards, but through the air advanced 51 yards, for a total of 80 yards for the evening.

The second offensive unit picked up three first downs while rushing for 29 yards and gaining the same passing, amassing 58 yards in 20 plays.

Sophomore Kip Fuller was the leading ground gainer for Iowa Park, with 17 yards in 14 carries.

David Wright was quarterback of the first offensive unit, and he connected on seven of 13 attempts, mainly to Cannedy and David Blackerby.

Defensively, the first unit allowed Grapevine three touchdowns, 14 first downs, 193 yards rushing and 73 passing. Grapevine's second unit against Iowa Park's second defensive group gained five first downs, 84 yards rushing and 31 passing.

In the junior varsity scrimmage, Iowa Park picked up five first downs and didn't score, while Grapevine scored three times and picked up 12 first downs.

The freshmen scored on the first play and were held the rest of the scrimmage, but gave up three scores on defense.

Dove hunting rule change

All-day shooting for mourning doves and half-day hunting for whitewings has been set by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Jim Dunks with the P&WD said mourning doves during both the North and South Zone seasons may be hunted from 30 minutes before sunrise to sunset.

The North Zone dove season is set for Sept. 1 - Oct. 30; South Zone, Sept. 24 - Nov. 6 and Dec. 31 - Jan. 15, 1978. Exception to the all-day hunting hours is in those counties with a concurrent whitewing and mourning dove season Sept. 3, 4, 10 and 11, when the two species may be hunted from noon to sunset.

Officials with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service notified Dunks late on Aug. 4 of the framework for shooting hours of migratory game birds. Litigation involving shooting hours prevented USF & WS from providing Parks and Wildlife Commissioners with such frameworks at their July 22 meeting when dove seasons were set.

Season tickets to public go on sale next Tuesday

Season tickets for Hawk football games will go on sale to the general public at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday at the high school, according to Bob Dawson, principal. Ticket sales will be held in the concession stand across the hall from the gymnasium.

Option holders have until tomorrow to purchase their season ticket and maintain their seat option.

Those purchasing season tickets will get a bargain this year, besides assuring a reserved seat. Dawson pointed out admission will be only $2 for each of the six home games, when purchased for the season.

When purchasing a reserved seat at the gate, the price will be $3, and $2.50 for general admission.

Ticket prices are set for all District 4-AAA games by the district executive committee.

Varsity games to be played in Hawk Stadium this season include non-conference bouts with Lawton High and Wichita Falls Hirschi, then conference games with Burkburnett, which is also homecoming, Brownwood, Mineral Wells and Graham.

Construction not complete, but classes to start anyway

When classes begin tomorrow in Holliday students will be dodging workmen and sawhorses as well as their schoolmates.

What some people feared months ago will become reality.

Certain phases of the school's $1.2-million construction and renovation project will not be complete for the opening of the new school year.

However, it will be close enough to completion for classes to begin, said Holliday Supt. Ray Coe.

He said classrooms will be in order, but other parts of the project will not be complete.

All junior high and high school students who have not registered may do so from 8 a.m. - 4 p.m. today in the high school principal's office, according to Principal Bill Crabbs.

New students to the district may register anytime today or Friday, he added.

Holliday's 1977-78 school year officially begins at 8:30 a.m. Friday when students and teachers report for an assembly in the gymnasium.

Students can expect to hear a few tunes performed by the high school band in addition to the usual first day pep talks.

Additional instructions on scheduling and class meeting places will be given during the assembly, Coe said.

Classes will dismiss at 2:30 p.m. Friday.

Students will have the day off Monday, but teachers will be required to report for a workday.

Classes will resume on a regular schedule Tuesday.

For students in kindergarten through the sixth grade classes will begin at 8:20 a.m. Students in kindergarten through the third grade will be dismissed at 2:30 p.m., except bus students who will have to wait until 3:30 p.m. to catch their rides home.

Students in the fourth grade through twelfth will be dismissed at 3:30 p.m.

The regular academic day for students in grades 7-12 will begin at 9 a.m.

However, junior high and high school students involved in junior high sports and other extracurricular activities such as UIL events will report for the beginning of activity period at 8:20 a.m.

Turf burners to scrimmage Olney here

Holliday High School's Olney is scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m. Friday in complete their pre-season schedule tomorrow night when the Olney Cubs Head Coach Don Lucy and his staff were busy this week tuning the Big Red Machine following last week's scrimmage with Knox City.

"We weren't disappointed with our offense at all," Lucy said following the outing against KC's Greyhounds.

On their second possession of the scrimmage, quarterback Steve Lucy guided the varsity unit 80 yards for a TD drive capped off by a 12-yard sprint by Lynn Ayres.

He said the Eagles played their best of any debut scrimmage in some areas, while in other areas the team performed poorly.

"Are you serious about saving energy and money? Then send for the book."

"I'm in the Financial Department at Texas Electric, so I know electricity is costing more to make because of higher plant and fuel costs.

But I'm also a Texas Electric customer — and my bills are higher, too. I've found this tips booklet very helpful. It's full of energy-saving ideas.

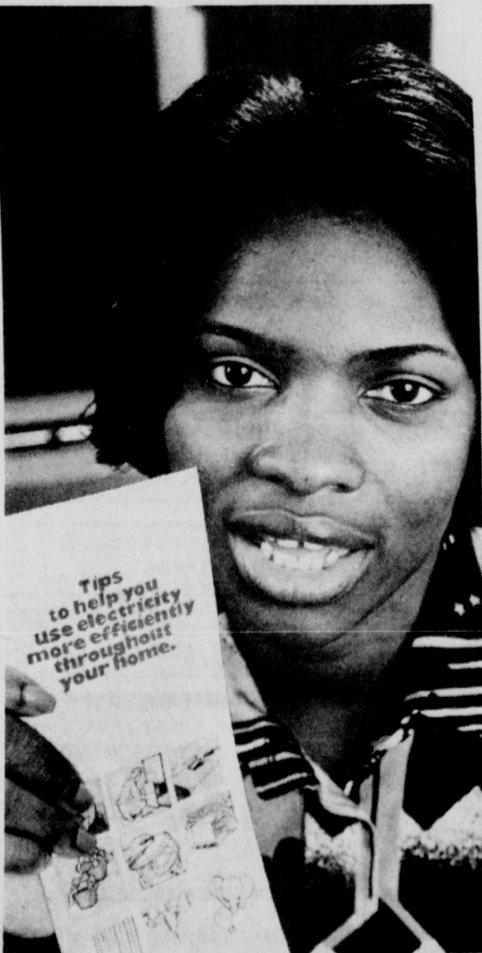

Like keeping your thermostat set on 78 degrees or higher during the summer. Waiting until you have a full load before you run the dishwasher or the washing machine. Turning off unused lights.

If you're serious about saving energy and money, just write 'send the book' on the comment portion of your electric bill."

Bridges-McDaniel vows recited Saturday

The double-ring exchange of wedding vows by Miss Robin Lea Bridges and Robert Clark McDaniel Saturday evening was officiated by Rev. Bob Gray of Olustee, Okla., Baptist minister and great-uncle of the groom.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Olin R. Bridges and Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. McDaniel, all of Route Three, Wichita Falls.

The wedding took place in the home of the bride's parents at eight o'clock before the fireplace in the den. The decorative setting featured a mantel graced with a long spray of jade and salal foliage dotted with white gladioli, yellow carnations and poms centered with tall glowing candles. Tall candelabra at floor level completed the setting. Attractive bouquets of the chosen flowers and foliage were placed at vantage points in the room.

Mrs. Nancy King of Wichita Falls, pianist, provided the musical setting, her prelude selections including "Theme from Love Story", "You and Me Against the World", "We've Only Just Begun", "Love Theme from Romeo and Juliet", "Colour My World" and "Evergreen". She played the traditional compositions for the wedding marches.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her formal wedding gown of white organza was designed with a wide scooped neckline accented with reembroidered lace and capelet sleeves. Skirt interest was enhanced with four rows of lace extending down the front from the waist to the lace trim around the skirt at floor level and attached train.

The bride's knee-length tulle veil was caught at the back of her sunhat of Chantilly lace. She carried a cascade of yellow roses, carnations and baby's breath completed with mint green velvet streamers terminating in clusters of roses and baby's breath.

Adding bridal tradition to her wedding gown, she wore an engagement ring that belonged to her grandmother, Mrs. Verba Lofland of Iowa Park for "something old", a strand of pearls for "something borrowed" from her aunt, Mrs. Kenneth Gulley, the popular touch of blue and the lucky sixpence in her shoe.

A part of the service that will long be remembered by families and friends was the presentation of long stemmed yellow roses by the bride to her mother and the groom's mother at appropriate times.

Mrs. W. Keith Wood of Seminole, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Mrs. Michael Bridges of Wichita Falls, her sister-in-law, was bridesmaid. They wore fashionable strapless handkerchief dresses of yellow crepe and opal centered gold drop necklaces presented to them by the bride at the rehearsal dinner. Their cascade-style bouquets consisted of yellow roses, white carnations and baby's breath.

Keithanne Wood, the bride's niece, wore a long yellow chiffon frock with rows of ruffles extending from the empire waist as she participated in the wedding as flower girl, and Jeffrey Wood, her nephew, serving as ring bearer was attired in yellow shorts, white pull-over sport shirt with knee socks. At the rehearsal dinner they received Bibles from their aunt.

The groom wore a camel-colored formal tuxedo and masculine members of the wedding party were attired in green vested tuxedos with ruffled shirts in a lighter shade of green. Robert L. McDaniel, father of the groom, was best man and Russell McDaniel, his brother, was groomsman. Those who assumed duties of ushering were Mickey Pohlmeier of Houston, Johnny Veal, John Ruby, Michael Bridges and Ronald McDaniel, the latter two brothers of the bride and groom.

The bride's parents entertained with a reception at their home immediately following the wedding.

The bride's table was covered with fine white linen bordered with wide lace. The centerpiece was a silver colonial candelabra filled with mint green carnations, yellow roses, poms and baby's breath illuminated with tall white tapers blending with the crystal and gold serving pieces on the table.

The focal point of interest was the pettily-tiered candlelight cake strewn with cascades of yellow, green and beige frosting roses. The second and third tiers were separated by columns to show a dainty ceramic bird bath holding a bright little Cupid that pointed to the romantic ornament on top, a miniature kissing bride and groom sitting on a bench under an archway decked with wedding flowers and symbols.

A duplicate of the centerpiece on the bride's table, except on a smaller scale, the chocolate cake topped with yellow, green and beige confection roses and the silver coffee service appointed the groom's table.

Reception assistants were Mrs. Kenneth Gulley, Misses Gayla Minnix, Tracy Anderson, Cami Potter, Karen and Milea Wilkerson and Kristi Little.

As guests arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bridges for the wedding, the first glimpse of the colors chosen for the wedding was seen in a basket arrangement of yellow, green and white flowers hanging on the front door. Trailing from the basket were wide silk ribbons imprinted with "Robin - Clark, August 20, 1977."

Guests registered in the foyer at a table laid with lace-edged white linen holding a bud vase filled with yellow roses, the bride's book and feathered pen. Mrs. Terry Lambeth and Miss Susan Gulley presided at the table.

White net rice bags tied with mint green and yellow streamers bearing the names of the bride and groom and their wedding date were placed on a four-tiered Hawaiian Lazy Susan near the registry table.

The bride and groom were both graduated from Holliday High School. She works for Wichita Well Service and he works for Wichita Valley Water Supply. When the couple departed from the reception on a short wedding trip the bride wore a knee length rose and beige off-the-shoulder peasant dress. They will live in Wichita Falls.

The French Lace Room at Holiday Inn East was the scene of the rehearsal dinner hosted by the groom's parents. Table decorations featured dried materials combined with silk flowers. The couple presented their attendants with gifts during the evening.

Special guests at the wedding were Mrs. Verba Lofland of Iowa Park, the bride's grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. F.O. Clark of Sweetwater and Mr. and Mrs. J.R. McDaniel of Seymour, grandparents of the groom.

Other out of town guests included Messrs. and Mmes. Leroy Toon of Tulsa, Okla., J.E. McDaniel, Olen Minnix, Terry Lambeth, all of Dallas, W. Keith Wood of Seminole, Sam White of Rowlett, Terry Wood of Irving, John Rathke of Sherman; Misses Rene and Anna Marie Simmons of Fair Oaks, Calif. and H.C. Pohlmeier of Houston.

HOLLIDAY HAPPENINGS

Holliday school board is slated to meet in special session at 8 p.m. tonight at the high school. Primary reason for the meeting is to approve the new school budget.

Crack down set on stray dogs

Holliday City Council voted Tuesday night to crack down on stray dogs beginning Sept. 1.

Sept. 1 also will mark the date weekly garbage collection will be implemented by the city.

ANIMAL CONTROL

The stray dog problem in Holliday was the first item the council discussed and the subject that was last to receive formal action Tuesday.

The lengthy discussion resulted in city employee Junior Akers assuming the duties of animal control warden effective Sept. 1.

The council decided to pay Akers $50 additional each month, and instructed him to begin catching stray dogs without collars or tags running in packs.

The city will take up an offer made earlier by the Humane Society of Wichita County, which said it would accept stray animals nabbed by Holliday personnel.

Q.T. Phillips of Holliday initiated discussion on the dog problem Tuesday night, however, Mayor Jim Darr said the council had planned to address the problem Tuesday night anyway.

Although he claimed to like dogs, Phillips said animal protective measures promoted by the Humane Society were "ridiculous." "It's completely out of hand," Phillips said.

He said Holliday residents can't ride bicycles because dogs "will tear you off it."

He called Bois D'Arc "Dog Street." "They're there by the hundreds," Phillips said, claiming Holliday has the worst dog problem per capita than any city in the world.

Water Supt. Hershel McDaniel presented a proposed breakdown of trash collection routes to be implemented Sept. 1 when weekly collection begins.

Holliday residents can expect to have their trash collected in the following locations, according to days: Monday - South of railroad tracks and east of Main including Whiteaker, Easy Street and FM 1954.

Tuesday - South of railroad tracks and west of Main to West Ave.

Wednesday - North of railroad tracks and east of N. Main to Stone Addition. Thursday - North of railroad tracks and west of N. Main to Garland Ray Addition.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If you have foster children living with you and wish to apply for such meals and milk for them, please notify us or indicate it on the application.

All children are treated the same regardless of ability to pay. In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, or national origin.

If we can be of any further assistance or if your family size or income changes during the year, please contact us.

Sincerely,
Faris O. Newell
Superintendent of Schools
