IN JOHNSON CASE

26-count indictment handed down by jury

A 26-count indictment involving alleged interstate transportation of stolen grain and the furnishing of false information was returned by a federal grand jury against missing grain dealer Robert Johnson, his brother and business partner H.C. Johnson and one of their employees, Patricia Price, also of Iowa Park.

The indictment returned Tuesday by the federal grand jury meeting in Abilene is in connection with an investigation into Robert Johnson's business dealings spurred by his disappearance in early January.

Although no arrests had been made by late Wednesday, warrants for the arrest of the three persons named in the indictment had been issued. U.S. Marshal Service and the Federal Bureau of Investigation both were granted authority to make the arrests.

However, Robert Johnson's whereabouts have remained a mystery since he allegedly fell off a fishing boat and drowned Jan. 3 in the Gulf of Mexico near Port Aransas. No body has been found, and investigations indicate Johnson may have gone underground with the aid of plastic surgery.

Officials indicated they were not sure of H.C. Johnson's current address. Mrs. Price, a bookkeeper, remains an Iowa Park resident.

U.S. District Judge Leo Brewster in whose Abilene court the indictment was returned set a bond of $1-million cash surety for Robert Johnson. H.C. Johnson's bond was set at $10,000, and a $2,500 personal recognizance bond was placed on Mrs. Price.

The indictment returned Tuesday in Abilene supersedes the document returned against Robert Johnson in May, Asst. U.S. Atty. Ron Eddins of Fort Worth told the Leader in a telephone interview Wednesday.

The original counts against Robert Johnson are included in the broader indictment.

The indictment returned in Abilene charges Robert Johnson with 13 counts of interstate transportation of stolen grain from Oklahoma to Texas. H.C. Johnson is named in all 13 counts for aiding and abetting.

H.C. Johnson is named in four counts of interstate transportation of stolen grain from Colorado to Texas. Robert Johnson is named in the four counts for aiding and abetting.

H.C. Johnson is charged with one count of furnishing false information to the U.S. Department of Agriculture regarding the number of bushels of wheat in open storage. Patricia Price is named on the count for aiding and abetting.

H.C. Johnson also is named in eight counts of willfully furnishing false warehouse receipts in order to secure loans.

Eddins said the value of the grain in question was estimated to be worth about $1.4-million at the time of conversion.

Although Tuesday's revelations in federal court are the most far reaching steps taken by the government concerning the case, Eddins said some aspects of the case remain open, especially regarding fraudulent dealing of grain.

Next step in relation to Tuesday's federal grand jury action will be arraignment of those named in the indictment which probably will come Sept. 26, the next scheduled visit to Wichita Falls by U.S. Judge Robert Hill.

Johnson Road to be closed to parking

Parking of football fans on Johnson Road, employee insurance and abandoning of a portion of a street consumed most of the city council's time Monday evening.

insurance. The firm has carried the insurance only about nine months after the city switched from Blue Cross, Blue Shield for its increased rates.

Tension in the meeting room grew somewhat thick when a resident of Sunset Street, Loy Williams, indicated Mayor Johnny Crawford was receiving special treatment by being allowed to put no parking signs on Johnson Road across from Hawk Stadium.

After Williams initially addressed the council, Crawford turned over the chairmanship of the meeting to Mrs. Lita Watson, mayor pro tem, and spoke to the council in response, as well as to Williams.

Williams claimed that such signs were illegal, to which council members acknowledged they had no knowledge of legality in such a case and no legal advise was available at the meeting.

Council members agreed that parking should be prohibited on the east side of Johnson Road all the way from Johnson Road to Sunset.

Aldermen instructed Britton to obtain the services of an expert to determine which company should be selected to carry city employee health insurance.

Williams, apparently confused as to who owned the property, turned in a hand-printed request to be on the

He pointed out that the property was not his, but the home of his father W.T. Crawford. He said he had approached the council for his father some three years ago, requesting permission to install the signs

Williams later offered a solution that parking might be eliminated on that side of the street entirely, to which Police Chief Jim Voyles agreed.

After being notified by Continental Assurance Company that it was increasing cost of group health insurance for city employees by 12 per cent and 60 per cent for dependents, City Administrator Gene Britton suggested that bids be sought for a new company to carry the Council members approved abandonment of 23 feet of Pasadena Street, adjoining property owned by Mrs. Agnes Lindley.

The procedure was because the house was partially in the city's right of way. An agreement was reached that the house could not be expanded onto the portion of property being abandoned, nor could the house be repaired once it became inhabitable, at which time the property being abandoned would revert back to the city.

Open house set

Open house will be observed Monday evening at the Valley View school campus, according to James Ward, principal.

Starting at 7 p.m., parents will be able to visit with teachers in their classrooms.

Trustees hear report of enrollment increase

Enrollment in Iowa Park schools has climbed to almost 2,000, trustees were told Tuesday night, and a study is underway to determine whether to add one more second grade teacher.

conditions are becoming crowded both at the high school and second grade rooms.

When it was pointed out that the three second grade rooms at Kidwell Elementary are crowded, 30 in one and 31 in each of the other two, and Bradford's two rooms had 28 and 29 in them, trustee Roy Boutwell said he didn't like that.

In the area of transportation, Steger admitted there were some problems, mainly due to shifting of families in the district, but he told trustees the problems would all be worked out in the near future.

Jury indicts three in cattle theft case

Three persons have been indicted by a federal grand jury in connection with a cattle theft ring in which former Iowa Park resident Dr. Paul Parkey is an accused conspirator.

The administrator said high school enrollment is up to 770 at the high school. "That's the largest enrollment Bob's (principal Dawson) ever had," he said.

"I personally don't think you can do justice to second graders with 31 students sitting in a classroom," he said.

He said he still needs one bus driver for the mornings. Some personnel will be hired to transporting allegedly stolen truck tractors and cattle trailers from New Mexico and Gruver to Wichita Falls.

Indicted for interstate transportation of allegedly stolen cattle and vehicles from New Mexico to the Wichita Falls area were William Davis Lewis of Colorado and Frank Kenneth Simmons and Jerry Malone, both of Fort Worth.

The two elementary principals were instructed to watch the enrollment constantly of the second grade, and report to the superintendent for next month's meeting. They indicated that if enrollment in the grade continues as is, or increases, another teacher would be hired to relieve the situation.

Most of Tuesday's meeting dealt with regular reports, and with reviewing the first three sections of the new policy book.

The six-count indictment charges that they transported two shipments of allegedly stolen cattle to Iowa Park in March.

The trio was indicted Tuesday in Abilene by the same federal grand jury that returned an indictment in the Robert Johnson case.

Bill Steger reported that 98.2 per cent of the 1976-77 taxes were collected, and delinquent taxes and penalty actually gave the district 100.3 per cent of the previous year's taxes collected.

They also are accused of

The cattle theft operation resulted in the return of 28 indictments by a Wilbarger County grand jury last month in Vernon.

On cafeteria business, Steger said the department's unincumbered fund balance was the lowest it had been in several years, $18,000, but that was because a heavy grocery purchase was made during August, and only four days of cafeteria activity due to school starting late in the month.

Weather Report

Weather reports are officially compiled for Iowa Park at the Texas Experiment Station, southeast of town.

Rainfall for week	30
Total for month	34
Total for year	22.67
Total last year	19.75

As a result of the state indictments several figures in the case appeared this week before 46th District Judge Leslie Thomas in Vernon for arraignment.

Steger complimented his cafeteria personnel by stating "We've got the best personnel of any cafeteria in this part of the country." He said other schools were now visiting the department to see how they might improve their own.

Simmons was arraigned and entered a not guilty plea on a charge of theft over $10,000 and over $200, both counts involving cattle.

The school's 20-cent breakfast program, like last year, is receiving good participation mainly in grades kindergarten through six, he reported.

Also indicted for taking part in the cattle theft operation was Vernon pharmacist Darrell Theford, who entered a plea of not guilty on five counts of theft over $200 and one count of theft over $10,000 involving four loads of cattle and two livestock trailers.

Attorney for Parkey gave notice of waiver of arraignment. Parkey is charged with six counts of theft, identical to Theford's and including the same incidents of theft.

EXPRESSWAY MISHAP -- An Iowa Park man, John F. Blair of 100 W. Magnolia was hospitalized for injuries sustained in a two-vehicle mishap about 2:30 p.m. Wednesday in the southbound lane of U.S. 287 near the intersection with Bell Road. Another man, Robert Ryle, address unknown, was treated and released to General Hospital. The automobile Blair apparently collided with the rear of a department dump truck. Photo shows car as he is being loaded into ambulance.

Hartmangruber-Boylan wed Friday

Wearing a formal gown of white sheer organza enhanced with attractively patterned cotton lace, Miss Melissa Diane Hartmangruber became the bride of Cooper Addison Boylan Friday evening in nuptials officiated by the Rev. Bud Ruggia at the University United Methodist Church in Wichita Falls.

The lace covered the slightly raised bodice with a sheer yoke and high neckline and formed the cap sleeves and it was used effectively to accent the full skirt.

The bride's illusion fingertip veil was bordered with the delicate network of cotton threads falling in pendant designs between the scallops, and the motif was repeated around the camelet cap of lace and pearls that held the veil. The bride, who was presented in marriage by her father, completed her costume by carrying a large nosegay of silk flowers consisting of apricot morning glories, peach roses, yellow baby's breath and eucalyptus leaves.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hartmangruber of Iowa Park and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Boylan, Route Two, Iowa Park.

The couple recited their vows before an arch of greenery and silk flowers in autumnal shades. On either side were spiral votive candelabra and white wrought iron stands supporting baskets of silk flowers in fall colors. Decorations in the altar area were completed with a white satin and lace kneeling cushion and church pews were marked with apricot silk bows.

Mrs. Bud Ruggia, organist, and Larry Brumbelow were the wedding musicians. The latter provided his own guitar accompaniment for his solo which was his own composition of a wedding song, and the organist played the pre-nuptial music and marches for the entrance and exit of the wedding party.

The rich colors of autumn and apricot were emphasized in the feminine attendants' gowns. Mrs. Douglas Bridgens participated in the wedding as matron of honor and the bridesmaids wore

Miss Kathy Wilcox and Miss Janice Beason.

They were attired in apricot organza gowns imprinted with autumn-colored flowers. The gowns featured slightly raised pleated bodices, plunged necklines, full elbow length sleeves and full skirts. They wore peach picture hats with contrasting rust bands and streamers and carried nosegays identical to the bride's except on a smaller scale.

The groom was attired in an all-white tuxedo and the male members of the wedding party wore brown suits trimmed in brown satin and apricot ruffled shirts.

Maurice Boylan, father of the groom, was best man. Phil Decker of Wichita Falls and Randy McLaughlin of Iowa Park were groomsmen and also assisted Steve Hartmangruber, brother of the bride, with duties of ushering.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hartmangruber chose a long shrimp-colored polyester dress with a cowl neckline and cap sleeves and the groom's mother wore a long formal tailored beige lace two-piece suit. They wore complementary carnation corsages.

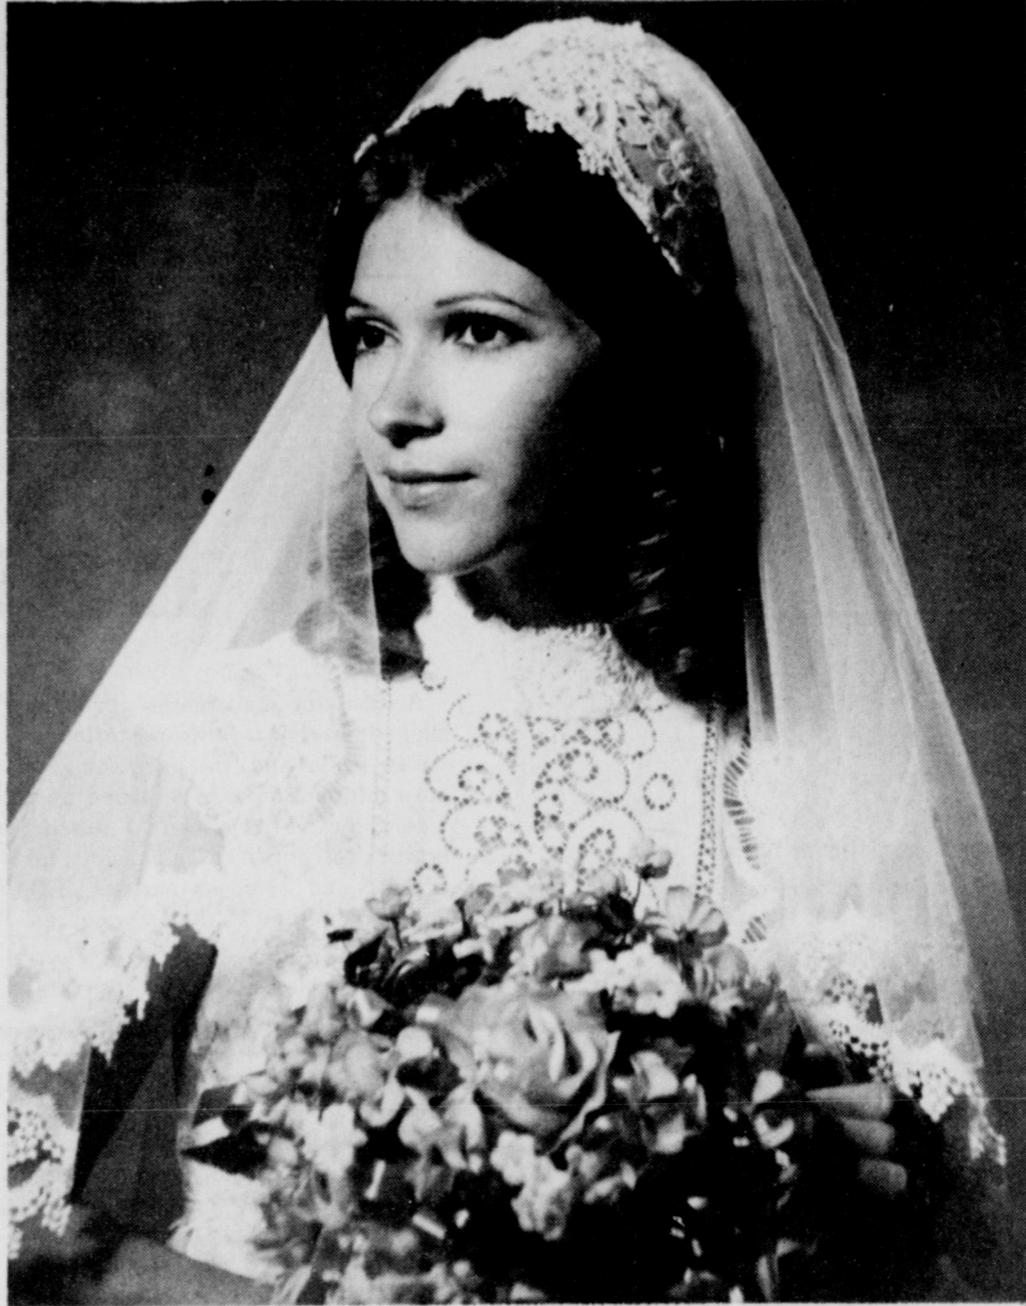

The new Mrs. Boylan was graduated from Notre Dame High School and attended the University of Houston and University of New York at Buffalo. She is employed by Elaine Powers Figure Salon.

The groom, who is employed by Longhorn Music Co., was graduated from Iowa Park High School and attended Texas State Technical Institute at Waco.

The newlyweds went to the Lake of the Ozarks on their wedding trip and are at home at 311 Lakewood in Wichita Falls.

The bride's parents hosted the wedding reception in the Fellowship Hall of the church. They were assisted by Mmes. Clifford Bridwell, Phil Decker, Joe Sokora and Jackie Johnson.

The bride's book table was covered with white satin and appointed with a bud vase tied with an apricot silk bow holding gold carnations and a white basket filled with white satin rosebud rice bags.

The centerpiece for the white satin-draped refreshment table was a silver candelabrum holding gold mums, white candles and white doves. The extremities were marked with a silver punch service and the four-tiered wedding cake accented with decorative garlands of apricot roses touched with autumn leaves,

Shower fetes bride elect

A miscellaneous bridal shower was held Thursday evening in the recreation room of Woodbriar Apartments honoring Miss Vanessa Fletcher, bride-elect of Gary Burris. Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Joe Owen and Mrs. Lonnie Fisher.

The room was attractively decorated in a red and white color scheme featuring a refreshment table covered with white lace. The centerpiece consisted of a bouquet of mixed flowers. The chosen colors were noted in refreshments, especially in the double wedding ring-shaped white cake with the names "Vanessa-Gary" lettered in red icing on top.

The same colors were selected for the corsages fashioned of silk flowers presented to the bride-elect, her mother, Mrs. Bennie Bagley and grandmother, Mrs. Era Mae Baxter.

The couple will be married Saturday evening at Faith Baptist Church.

Church class holds meeting

The monthly meeting of the Friendship class of First Baptist Church was hosted Monday evening by group two in the home of Mrs. Ola McLaurin.

Philia Study Club begins new year

The theme of the Philia Study Club programs for the new year, "The Dream of Involvement" gave inspiration for a Hawaiian luau and the first meeting of the new club year Monday evening.

"Involvement in Learning about Our New State" naturally focused attention upon Hawaii and led members to dress in costumes typical of the islands for the luau at the home of Mrs. Harold Cowley. Assistant hostesses were Mmes. Michie Compton, Vern Horsky and Glenn Phillips.

Members were given colorful leis as they arrived at the Cowley home where recorded Hawaiian music set the stage. They went immediately to the luau on the lawn at the back which was lighted with hurricane lamps, brightened with brilliant fresh flowers and live plants and featured a small flower-lined pond.

Refreshments served on the patio consisted of fruit punch and fresh pineapple halves filled with vari-colored dips of sherbet.

The Americanism program given on the inside of the house was highlighted by a travelog of a 1977 summer vacation in Hawaii presented by Mrs. Horsky through narration, colored slides and prints. Enhancing interest she displayed various handcrafts, gems carved from lava, sea shells and jewelry popular with the people of the 50th state.

Mrs. Jerry Padgett was program director and led club members in the recitation of "The American Creed", then gave the federation counselor's report.

For the arts number, the group sang "America the Beautiful" by Samuel A. Ward.

Mrs. Deryl James, president, was in charge of business. Yearbooks were distributed and plans discussed for conducting the junior division of the Arts and Crafts Show Oct. 8. Mrs. Horsky was named general chairman.

Annual United Way campaign gets start

Iowa Park United Way volunteers rolled up their sleeves along with Burkburnett and Wichita Falls workers following the official kickoff Thursday to raise this year's goal of $1,112,805.

The money raised in this "once-a-year" campaign helps fund 32 agencies, soon to be 33 when the new Iowa Park "Rec" center becomes official.

"Our citizens certainly benefit from the agencies in our own community, but they also utilize the many services provided by agencies located in Wichita Falls," Charles Lee, local chairman said.

"From Boy Scouts to the Individual Development Center, our area is fortunate in having these services available."

At the official kickoff of the annual campaign last Thursday in Wichita Falls, seven pacesetter firms reported a total of $69,646, with all groups showing an increase in giving over last year. These businesses conducted their employee campaigns a week prior to the kickoff to give a first thrust to the drive. Firms and their support were Allis-Chalmers, $10,900; Dillards, $850; Levi-Strauss, $3,321; Lone Star Tool, $2,745; PPG Industries, $34,100; Surgikos, $3,510; and Whites, $14,220.

Lee explained the procedure of the local campaign. "Keith Aulds, advance gifts chairman, is contacting individual donors, while Wayne House is working with the larger businesses. Mrs. Bobbie Shaw is heading the metro division, the area of small businesses and retired individuals and self-employed. Bill Steger, Paris Nowell and Gene Britton are canvassing the public service area of schools and state employees, while Joe Singer is handling the professional area of lawyers, doctors and accountants.

"We feel we have excellent leaders and volunteer workers in each area. Iowa Park will certainly show its appreciation for these community services by raising its share of the total goal," Lee emphasized.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

If your water bill from the city for August was higher than usual, there may well be a reason other than the city's making a mistake.

City administrator Gene Britton brought it out at the council meeting Monday night, and it sure is embarrassing to city personnel. But they can't do anything about it other than explain and try to get citizen cooperation.

Not everyone is affected, but probably most water customers in the city are.

What happened was this: In the late spring, because of personnel changes, meter readers got behind. Reading for May was delayed into June. Then, with adequate personnel, they caught up in June, with many customers receiving a short, three-week reading.

Even though it was high and dry, bills were low for June, and everybody was happy.

But personnel changes hit again after that, and as I understand it, a young fellow was left by himself to do the meter reading.

Well, like I said, it was hot. So the young man decided the coolest place to work was in the shade of a tree. There, he just put down on the customer cards the same reading for July as they had in June. After all, conditions were the same.

But he either didn't know, or forgot, that the June bills were for three weeks. So, the July bills came out much lower than normal. That's when the administrator caught on.

The meter reader employee was changed.

Now the new meter readers were faced with reading the meters for August. But they had to figure how much water was used since the June billing, subtract the low July bill, and come up with what was actually owed the city by customers. Hence, the high bills.

Naturally, customers who hadn't made any mention about those low bills let it be known they sure didn't like the high one. And the policy of the city is to re-read any meter of a dissatisfied customer.

Well, all that re-reading has just about been accomplished, but that has taken so much time, there are still a bunch of bills not yet sent out. So, that means there are still a lot of people yet to be surprised at getting such high August bills.

Oh, by the way, Britton tells me one of his two readers is planning to quit in the near future.

And so it goes.

Either Iowa Park and Holliday school boards are doing a good job of holding down per-student costs, or two school districts I'm comparing them with are being pretty loose.

The Canadian school district has an annual budget of $2.75-million for 863 students, or a per-student cost this year of $3,188.

Perryton, with 1,840 students, has a budget of $3.6-million, for $1,956 per student.

Holliday's budget this year is $1.16-million for its 648 students. That's a per-student cost of $1,784. This does not, however, include West Wichita Coop costs, which would make it a few dollars higher.

Iowa Park, with the West Wichita money for the other participating districts calculated out, has a budget of $2.86-million. That figures out at $1,451 for each of the 1,982 students.

Merchants discuss coming promotions

Plans for promotions and activities were discussed Monday at the regular monthly meeting of the Retail Merchants Association.

Topics included this weekend's Lucky Numbers promotion, Christmas season activities, a sidewalk sale during the Whoop-T-Do and a joint meeting with the Chamber of Commerce next month.

Details of the Lucky Numbers promotion were explained by Bob Hamilton, publisher of the Iowa Park Leader. He told members "There will be a lot of people in town Thursday, Friday and Saturday, if the public reacts like those in Breckenridge, where the promotion was held in May."

Purchasing of a supply of candy to be handed out by Santa Claus Dec. 3 and 10, decorating a tree being donated by the Optimist Club, a parade, downtown decorations and store decorations were all discussed for the Christmas promotion.

Mrs. Gus Rich will decorate the tree, which will be set up next to the Chamber's sign on Park Street. Tommy Key was named chairman of the parade.

Some of the old Christmas decorations can be used, Mrs. Rich reported, though they will not have lights. She said $740 has been turned in so far to purchase replacements.

Merchants are planning to hold a sidewalk sale in conjunction with the Whoop-T-Do activities Oct. 8. Those who plan to participate in the sale will have to reserve their store front sidewalks, because the arts and crafts show will also be held during the same day, commented Danny Parkerson, president of the Merchants group.

There will not be a regular meeting of the association next month, it was decided. October 17 will be the date for the annual membership meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, at which time new officers will be elected.

Young man charged in burglary

A case investigated by the Iowa Park Police Department resulted in an Iowa Park 17-year-old being charged with burglary of a habitation.

Gary Dale Eakin, 17, of 1111 N. Pacific, was charged Tuesday for burglary of a habitation by Justice of the Peace Ed DeMontel.

DeMontel set Eakin's bond at $2,500.

In other police matters, the department here was investigating the theft of a CB radio antenna valued at $22.50 from an auto belonging to Richard Crawford of 609 W. Texas.

On Sunday officers here received a report from Dale Wayne Nolen that a CB radio valued at $119 and three stereo tapes valued at $24 had been stolen from an automobile parked at 700 W. Texas.

Police also investigated a report of criminal trespassing on a habitation at 1012 N. Fourth.

Pat Massingill, 622 S. Bond, told police Friday that a radio antenna had been ripped off a car parked at the Johnson Road Jiffy Store. The vehicle also had been scraped.

Police received a report on Thursday from Mildred Craig of Arlington that a mobile home at the corner of S. Wall and Chestnut had been vandalized. Intruders broke the bottom of the toilet and copper tubing had been cut with a hack saw.

'World's Greatest Parakeet Show' at Waurika

The second annual "World's Greatest Parakeet Show" will be held in Waurika, Okla. Sept. 16-17. Two changes in show rules this year will put more of the prizes, trophies, ribbons and cash into the hands of area persons, said Joe Chapman, president of the sponsoring Waurika Chamber of Commerce.

First, only pet stock division birds will be judged this year, instead of professional and novice class show birds.

Second, main street displays will also be judged, winning cash awards just like the birds.

The show in Waurika, "Parakeet Capital of the World," will still be open to all kinds of birds, but only the pet stock parakeets -- the mainstay of the multimillion-dollar business in southern Oklahoma and northern Texas -- will be judged, Chapman said, "to boost our area residents and let them know how important their individual efforts are."

Registration will begin on Friday, Sept. 16 from 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. and from 6 a.m. to 9 a.m. Saturday.

Great News FOR THE World

"WHY DID CHRIST RISE?"

That Christ came bodily forth alive from the tomb of Joseph of Arimathea, in which he was laid after his crucifixion, is the most conspicuous feature of the testimony delivered by the Apostles after his ascension. This may be seen from Acts 2:32; 3:15; 4:10; 5:30; 10:40; 13:30; and many other passages. Rather than withhold their witness to this fact, they went to their death.

Christian teaching professes to continue this testimony; yet how many people could say that they believe literally in the resurrection of Christ? Even professional theologians interpret the doctrine in such a way that they need no longer hold it as a literal fact.

The reason is to be found in the unscriptural belief that "There is no death; what seems so is transition." If there is no death, there need be no resurrection from death; and belief in resurrection will be a mere tradition without roots, which will in time wither away.

Theories of atonement have also tended to undermine belief in the resurrection by minimizing the necessity for it. If Christ by dying paid our debt so that we are free, our deliverance must be due to his death alone. There is equally little need for his resurrection if the only object of his death was to influence men by a sublime example of love.

Yet the apostles teach in the plainest words that unless Christ rose his death on the Cross was fruitless.

"If Christ be not raised, YOUR FAITH IS VAIN, ye are yet in your sins" (1 Cor. 15:17).

How is it that the resurrection of Christ was a necessity before human salvation was possible? Because, without a risen, living Christ (in whose crucifixion God's righteousness had previously been declared), there would have been no forgiveness of sins, and no attainment of immortality following upon his death. God cannot look upon sin. Adam's expulsion from Eden, at the beginning, and His holding sinners at arm's length ever since, exemplify His relation to sin, which is as much an established law as any physical ordinance of the universe.

1. -- God saves, but it is BY CHRIST, whom He makes the Saviour, by first bestowing salvation upon him for his obedience, and then giving him power over all flesh to give eternal life to those who believe.

Jesus made "supplications, with strong crying and tears, to him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared" (Heb. 5:7). He "obtained eternal redemption" (Heb. 9:12). "He became the author of eternal salvation" (Heb. 5:9).

"Thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him" (John 17:2). "Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience" (Heb. 5:8). "The captain of their salvation, bringing many sons to glory" (Heb. 2:10). "He which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also, BY JESUS" (2 Cor. 4:14). "The dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God ... and shall come forth" (John 5:25-29). Jesus "shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself" (Phil. 3:21).

2. -- Forgiveness of sins leading to eternal life is only obtained through the request of a living Christ, whose approach to God as an intercessor was the foretold means of reconciliation between God and men.

"I (the Lord) will cause him (Israel's governor) to draw near, and he shall approach unto me" (Jer. 30:21). "He made intercession for the transgressors" (Isa. 53:12). "THROUGH THIS MAN is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins" (Acts 13:38). "He is able to save unto the uttermost them that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them" (Heb. 7:25). He is the "one mediator between God and men" (1 Tim. 2:5). "If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous" (1 John 2:1). "Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession ... Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need" (Heb. 4:14-16).

3. -- Christ has been made the judge as well as priest of his people; and before him, at his coming, they must all appear to render account of their lives, and to receive from him according to their deeds -- acceptance and immortality if approached; rejection, shame and a return to death if he refuse them.

"The Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment to the Son" (John 5:22). "It is he (Jesus) that is ordained of God to be the judge of the living and the dead" (Acts 10:42). "We must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ, that we may receive in body according to that we have done, whether it be good or bad" (2 Cor. 5:10). "I (Jesus) will give to every one of you according to your works" (Rev. 2:32). "For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works" (Matt. 16:27). "The Lord Jesus Christ shall judge the living and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom" (2 Tim. 4:1).

Is it not clear that if Christ had not risen, his death would have been of no value? What was needed was a way out of death. This was effected in Christ's resurrection, after submission to death. There was then provided a living Mediator, through whom God's forgiveness could be obtained, and a living dispenser of immortality in the day of judgment, to all who come to God by him.

It is not enough to look to the death of Christ. Having accepted him, our life depends on doing his commandments. On this theme read: Matt. 7:21-22; John 15:14; Rom. 8:13; 1 Cor. 6:9; Gal. 6:8; 1 John 3:7. Continued next week.

Lions hear coach talk

Charles Williams, a varsity football coach, spoke to the Evening Lions Club Tuesday. He was introduced by Mel Moulton.

"We get good support from the community and we understand what football means to the community. We are trying to teach the boys the whole system and they need your encouragement," he stated as he explained some of the techniques the coaching staff used.

He gave a thumbnail sketch of the varsity players and was optimistic about their potential in view of how they were working out and their devotion to the sport. "We must realize that the boys are making a sacrifice to play because many of them could be working and earning money if they were not going out for football," he said as he stressed the need of lending encouragement to the players.

Gordon Griffith directed the business. It was voted to devote the next two Tuesday nights to repairing and repainting the booths that will be used in the Whoop-T-Do Oct. 8. The work sessions will take place at Griffith's house and members will have grilled hamburgers to eat.

Barry Dye accompanied Randy Underwood to the meeting as a visitor and Mike Isbell, a new member, was present for the first time.

Mrs. E.L. Gallop played the dinner music.

Future phone features told

Equipment which will improve the telephone system here and across the nation in the near future was explained and demonstrated Tuesday at the Noon Lions Club meeting.

Glenn Scott, public information supervisor for the Dallas office of Southwestern Bell Telephone, provided the program.

He showed the camera which Bell uses with its picture phone, now in use in a limited amount in Chicago; a digital clock that measures time in the trillion of seconds which makes use of measuring the speed of sound; a laser beam used to transmit sound by light by blinking at 44-millions of a second; and how an echo suppresser is needed.

In addition, the utility spokesman told of how conversations will be carried by light in a tiny glass tube, replacing the more expensive copper wire.

When asked about the company's recent court trial in San Antonio, in which the company was sued for $29-million by one former employee and the family of another, Scott said "I'm glad that's out of the way so we can get back to business."

Prior to his program, Scott recalled the change of the Lions Club meeting place, stating he first spoke to the Iowa Park group some 24 years ago.

MSU president heads Red Cross

Dr. John Barker, Midwestern State University president, was elected to head the Wichita County Chapter, American National Red Cross, for the 1977-79 fiscal years.

The selection of Barker as chairman of the board of directors came at the end of the chapter's 60th annual meeting Tuesday, Mrs. D.J. Marks was elected secretary.

The meeting, held at the First Presbyterian Church, heard State Sen. Ray Farabee talk on the subject "New Dimensions of Volunteer Service."

Cook of the Week

Hawaii - who has not had a yen to spend a vacation there? When the budget does not permit, it is time to bring a little of the tropical paradise to where you are. What better route to take than the food route, and who is better qualified to provide recipes for dishes indigenous to the 50th state than someone who has lived there?

Mrs. Jack James lived in Hawaii while her husband was stationed in the Air Force and she is sharing two of her favorite recipes, Kalua Pig and Cabbage and Pineapple Succotash that can surely bring a touch of Hawaii to tables in Iowa Park even without wooden bowls, straw mats, bamboo-shaped utensils and brightly colored flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. James and their children have lived in Iowa Park three months. He is retired from the Air Force and works for Sisk Bullets. Their children are Jerry, John, Eric, Jerrod, Isaac and Nicole. They enjoy doing things together such as camping, hiking and outdoor sports.

Mrs. James' other hobbies include painting, liquid embroidery, and bowling.

Silk flowers topic of program speaker

Mrs. Gus Rich, of Bee Hive Arts and Crafts Shop, gave a program on "How to Make Silk Flowers" for the Iowa Park Garden Club meeting Friday morning in the home of the president, Mrs. Charlie Lee.

Mrs. Rich stated that silk flowers were currently popular and in use for many occasions, such as weddings, showers, etc. She fashioned a beautiful red rose and instructed members in making carnations and daisies after which each one made a daisy for herself.

Mrs. Frank Harlin, chaplain, read an inspirational verse on "The Gift of Friendship" by Helen Steiner Rice preceding the business directed by Mrs. Lee. Due to the resignation of Mrs. Marion Wilkins, Mrs. Harlin was appointed recording secretary and publicity chairman.

Mrs. W.A. George, community service chairman, reported that Billy James had cleaned and painted the trash cans in the downtown area for the club and that they had been placed back in their respective areas.

She also gave a report on the landscaping project of the Freeway between Peppy's Grocery and Country Hills Addition explaining that the club had purchased all of the trees and plants and that the Highway Department was keeping them watered and the area mowed.

Mrs. Lee made a report on the National Gardener.

Mrs. Raymond Phillips brought horticulture specimens to the meeting.

The hostess served refreshments to 16 members.

The word "fate" comes from the Latin "fatum" meaning "that which is spoken."

GOOD TRY, BUT NO CLEVERNESS - Eventhough two Hawks had a chance for this pass from quarterback David Wright, neither snared it. Nearest the ball, thrown late in the fourth quarter, is Troy Thompson, while Richard Dietrichson waits for his chance.

THROWN FOR LOSS - Hirschi's attempt to run a reverse failed to get past Hawk defenders Terry Daniels, 21, and Pat Cooke, 7. He was thrown for a seven-yard loss late in the first quarter.

Hawks score, but lose 28-7 to Hirschi

That close game between Iowa Park's Hawks and the Hirschi Huskies never came about. In fact, the Wichita Falls school's 28-7 victory possibly was the most lopsided score in the series between the two clubs.

The Huskies riddled Iowa Park's defense for 21 points the first 13 1/2 minutes of the game, prompting Head Coach Pat Tone to lecture his squad on pride and effort during the halftime break.

The only really bright portion of the game was when Iowa Park scored, with 2:36 minutes remaining in the game.

It was the first touchdown for the Hawks of the 1977 season; the first varsity touchdown by sophomore back Troy Thompson; and the first varsity extra point kicked by senior tackle Billy Ray.

The touchdown was set up by the aggressive play of senior Pat Cooke, who pounced on a fumbled punt reception at the Hirschi 45 yard line. Punter Jeff Nolen had booted a low, 29-yarder into the east wind. It bounced into Hirschi's Willard Dial's arms, and right back out again. Cooke was charging downfield, and leaped on the ball before Dial could retrieve it.

Apparently sparked by

the turnover and opportunity, the Hawk offense made quick work of the scoring series, covering the distance in only three plays. Thompson sailed around right end for 15 yards, and Kip Fuller blasted the line for seven more.

Then Thompson set sail around his left end, breaking on a tackle at the 21, and driving with a defender wrapped around him the final three yards, into the corner of the end zone.

Kicker Ray will remember that extra point for a long time, besides it being his first on the varsity. Because of a mixup, he did it barefooted.

Since it was their first extra point attempt of the season, the managers apparently weren't ready to take the special square-toed kicking shoe out to Ray for the attempt. He didn't want to call time out, and didn't have the shoe, so rather than be called for delaying the game, he kicked with his stocking foot.

Ray admitted his toes were still sore this week. He had made contact with his toes, instead of curling them as do many barefooted kickers.

The Hawks thwarted Hirschi's first scoring attempt, set up when Thompson fumbled on his own 12 following the opening kickoff. Hirschi attempted a pass from the five yard line, the ball was tipped into the air and defender Andy Sitgraves alertly snatched it for a touchback.

But on their next series, from the Hawk 48, the Huskies were not to be denied, making the score 7-0 with 3:54 remaining in the period.

The Wichitans scored on the next series also, this time from Iowa Park's 45. The scoring play was a 26-yard screen pass.

Punter Nolen was forced to punt from deep in his territory both times during the first quarter, into a steady wind out of the east.

Hirschi intercepted a David Wright pass attempt on the final play of the opening quarter. Four plays later, Hirschi capped the short, 23-yard drive with a seven-yard run around left end. And the visitors led 21-0 with 10:39 remaining in the half.

Throughout the first half, Hirschi's game plan was to isolate the quick Husky backs on outside and secondary defenders. And it worked successfully, as they gained 93 yards rushing and 74 more passing during the two quarters.

It also worked on their first series after the half, when the quarterback capped a 71-yard drive by rolling out around his right end and scampering 32 yards for the final Hirschi score.

Hawk turnovers helped the Husky effort, giving them possession for 59 offensive plays. Iowa Park fumbled three times, and had three pass attempts intercepted, one by Wright and two by Bruce Holder.

Hirschi committed only three miscues, one interception and a pair of fumbles, but the Hawks could capitalize on only one.

Thompson, who had a poor first quarter when he carried only twice, losing the ball once and gaining a yard on the other, finished the night with a respectable 89 yards on 17 carries.

Fuller, who carried only once in the final period and 11 times for the night, was credited with 32 yards. Sitgraves handled the ball once offensively and turned in a 15-yarder, while Scott Hutson carried once for four yards, and Gary Blackerby once for two.

The quarterbacks had their problems, being sacked. Wright fumbled once and was thrown for a six-yard loss. Holder was caught three times behind the line, each time for seven-yard losses, and fumbled a pithout once.

The other Hirschi fumble was covered by Sid Waldrop.

Changes being considered

Hawk football fans may see several changes in the varsity next week at Azle, following this week's layoff for an open date.

Coach Pat Tone said earlier in the week that he may make some position changes, though he would not elaborate.

The mentor indicated the changes might have enough effect to help the Hawks win their first game of the 1977 season, after losing their initial two non-conference starts to Lawton High and Wichita Falls Hirschi.

However, even after the two losses, Tone said "I think the kids still have a good attitude. We had a good workout Monday."

He said he thinks the week's layoff will be beneficial.

Tone also said there would be some changes in their workouts, in an attempt to have more concentrated direction by more coaches at a time.

The Hawks will lay off this week, but hit the road for Azle the following Friday. It was Azle the Hawks defeated in 1976, their only win since 1974.

SHORT HUSKY GAIN - Hawk cornerback Keith Hillard, lower left, brings down a Husky runner after a short gain. Billy Maupin, 80, appears to be taken out of the play with a clip by Hirschi's William Norris, though no penalty was called.

Council calls special session

Holliday City Council will meet in special session at 5 p.m. Friday to act on a new trash ordinance.

The board was scheduled to air the subject during a public hearing Tuesday night, however, attorney Mike Hubbard said a draft of the ordinance was not complete.

The council put a ban on burning trash here effective Sept. 1 and began weekly garbage collection at Holliday residences.

City employees are having their problems in implementing the new garbage collection procedures.

Mayor Jim Darr instructed city crews to be more careful in replacing cans in racks.

Junior Akers, city employee, told the council an irate resident pulled a knife on him when he refused to empty the man's 55-gallon drum. The large barrels have been outlawed as trash containers, and are to be replaced by aluminum cans.

Councilman Melvin Bills was appointed to head a committee of aldermen to contact individual businessmen to negotiate a contract fee for their garbage services.

Water Supt. Hershel McDaniel told the council the city needs another pickup truck because of conflicts created when Akers is rounding up stray animals. Akers said he has picked up 16 stray dogs and cats.

Councilmen also voted to pay the Humane Society of Wichita County $20 for quarantining a dog that bit a Holliday youth during the summer.

In its business with city employees, the council voted to sign a contract allowing uniforms be furnished men workers. Employees will pay for the uniforms themselves through payroll deductions.

The council also instructed Danny and Timmy Teafattiller to get their commercial driver licenses.

Councilmen discussed several purchases made by new police officer Dennis Rees, but specific airing of the issue was reserved for an executive session later in the meeting.

No property owners acted when the council appeared as the board of equalization for city taxes.

The council adopted a speed zone ordinance proposed by the Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation. The ordinance slows to 35 miles per hour the section of Seymour Highway between Cedar and Mesquite.

Alderman Melvin Bills requested that the council vote on a proposal to ban smoking at city hall when it meets in special session tomorrow afternoon.

Five visitors sat in on Tuesday night's regular council meeting. Alderman Charles Parker was the only councilman absent.

BUCKSKINS AND BLACK POWDER - Marvin Brandt of Iowa Park, president of Red River Renegades, draws a bead with a double barrel 12 gauge muzzle loader. The Renegades and David "Big Foot" Williams of Holliday host a black powder dove hunt each year at Black Flat.

Renegades hold annual dove hunt

Come the first of September, hunting mourning doves comes second only to high school football among most North Texas outdoorsmen.

Most hunters who flock to the fields come equipped with their Remington or Browning pumps and auto-loaders.

But not the Red River Renegades, as their name suggests. For the past eight years they have sponsored a dove hunt exclusively for black powder shooters.

For most of the 33 registered hunters, this year's event began on Friday of Labor Day weekend as they began filtering into a predestined campsite surrounded by several hundred acres at Black Flat set aside each year for the black powder hunters by Renegade rancher David "Big Foot" Williams of Holliday.

Invitations sent out in advance informed black powder hunters that $2 and a valid Texas hunting license would get them four days of prime hunting.

"Camping sites available, bring own water and shade. Black powder shotguns only. Bring your musical instruments for some ole fashion pickin and grinnin sessions," the invitation said.

Signs proclaiming "RRR Dove Hunt" marked a trail a tenderfoot could follow.

Soon after paved highway gave way to dirt roads, red flags tied to the top of a teepee could be spied, leaving little doubt to the rumors that the Renegades literally turn back the clock for their annual dove hunt.

Rounding a corner in the dirt road, the teepee came into full view. Two small boys ran across the road, one wearing overalls with a 32 caliber revolver strapped to his hip. A woman with black braided hair in a buckskin dress disappeared into the teepee. A little further down the road under a cluster of mesquite trees a man in buckskins ignited a noon meal campfire with flint and steel.

It was like a scene straight off the set of television's "Grizzly Adams."

More hunters and their families arrived Saturday morning, the day the hunt reached its climax with competition shooting, a community supper and music around the campfire.

Although Texas' new law on mourning dove allows hunting all day, most hunters at the Black Flat affair opted to wait until afternoon Saturday before heading for the fields. By 3 p.m. the Renegades and their black powder compadres were heading for the fields.

Most of the youngsters carried 410 shotguns while the men in buckskins largely used 12 gauge double barrels.

Why the attraction toward muzzle loaders?

"A regular shooter doesn't want to have to stop to reload," said Renegade Bob "Reb" Neal of Wichita Falls.

"If I get a bird down I'll spend 20 or 30 minutes looking for it instead of shooting two more. If you get your limit with a muzzle loader, well, it's just a lot more fun," Neal said.

Most of the hunters had returned to camp by dusk. Mel Weaver of Wichita Falls was awarded the plaque for having killed his 10-bird limit first.

Mrs. Williams arrived in a pickup truck with the bed loaded down with big pots of barbecued beef brisket, pinto beans, cole slaw, cornbread, cakes, cobblers - plenty enough to feed the 75 persons estimated to be there Saturday night.

But why didn't they have a dove feed?

Renegade president Marvin Brandt of Iowa Park explained there had been past years when doves were too scarce to feed a crowd that size.

After everyone was stuffed on Mrs. Williams' barbecue, a roaring campfire was built and everybody settled back for some fiddle, guitar and banjo music under a big, yellow moon.

'Jaws' funds being sought

Mothers of two Holliday youths injured a month ago in a one-car fatality have embarked on a campaign for donations to buy Archer County the "Jaws of Life" rescue equipment.

At this week's meeting of Archer County Commissioner's Court, Mrs. Bobby Park was given the green light to accept donations. The county would be responsible for the purchase of the equipment, estimated to cost $5,500.

Mrs. Park will be chairman of the fund raising drive. Community chairmen throughout the community include Mrs. Homer Davis at Holliday and Bill Sanders at Dundee.

Brian Park and Ricky Davis, sons of the two women at the commissioner's meeting, were among six Holliday youths involved in an automobile accident in mid August which killed Gordon Kent Cornelison.

"Jaws of Life" equipment owned by City of Wichita Falls was used to help free the youths from the wreckage.

The issue over Archer County purchasing similar equipment or contracting for services with Wichita Falls surfaced when the Wichita Falls rescue workers were chastised for taking the equipment outside Wichita County.

Susan Meyers is recognized

Susan Sanders Meyers, formerly of Holliday, recently was recognized by the Texas Honor Society and faculty of Texas State Technical Institute at Waco for her achievement of a 4.0 grade average and being named to the President's Honor Roll.

A graduate of Holliday High School, Mrs. Meyers is majoring in technical communications and computer science technology at the Waco school.

She is married to Dennis Meyers, an assistant professor of automotive at TSTL.

Holliday Happenings

Holliday Lions Club and Holliday Volunteer Fire Department will continue their clean-up campaign Saturday when they converge on the north side of town to haul off unwanted articles and trash.

New trustees are slated to be elected when the Holliday Cemetery Association holds its annual meeting at 7:30 p.m. Monday at the community building.

Holliday Volunteer Fire Department members and auxiliary will compete in a firemen's convention Sunday at Vernon.

State Rep. Charles Finnell will speak to the Holliday Lions Club when it meets at 7 p.m. next Thursday.

Holliday's new candy apple red fire truck was delivered last week. The $33,000 piece of fire fighting equipment was financed by the city and through two auction sales sponsored by the department. Firemen were busy this week installing radios in the new unit which primarily will be used for fighting fire inside the city limits.

Eagle miscues lead to shutout

It seemed as if an evil spell had been cast on the Eagles. The harder they tried to exorcise the demon, the further they seemed to sink into Electra's quicksand trap that left Holliday on the skinny end of the 27-0 home opener.

Friday night's bum trip marked the first time the Eagles had been shut out since December 1975 when Holliday lost a 12-0 decision to DeLeon in the state's Class A quarter finals.

In their first contest before a hometown crowd, the Eagle loss was anything but a giveaway with two of the Electra touchdowns coming on prime time turnovers.

Neither team was able to penetrate deep into the opposition's territory during the first quarter. Seconds into the second period Holliday defensive safety Gerry Graves hauled in a stray Electra pass to give the Eagles possession 40 yards from paydirt.

Two plays later a backfield blunder caused an Eagle fumble which was recovered by Electra, although they were unable to capitalize on the recovery thanks to Holliday's stingy defense.

Minutes later Electra coughed up the ball, and Eagle defensive back Larry Ayres recovered to give Holliday possession on their own 25.

With the biggest chunk of the yardage coming on a 35-yard pass from Jay Wright to Rusty McDaniel, the Eagles soon found themselves 23 yards deep into Tiger territory.

However, another Eagle fumble iced the drive.

Lynn Coats and Lynn Ayres helped ward off Electra's attempt to score before the halftime buzzer sounded.

But when they reappeared to begin the second half, the Eagles didn't seem to be the same team.

Unable to gain a first down on their first possession after the second half opening kickoff, the Eagles were forced to punt. Kicker Mark Wells heard the dreaded double thump; his punt was blocked by Electra.

Electra's Greg Ray scooped up the pigskin and returned it 26 yards for the first Tiger TD. With 11 minutes remaining in the third period, the PAT failed.

Again unable to sustain a drive after taking the kickoff, the Eagles were forced to punt. Despite some good defense by Eagles Bobby Hawley and Andy Barton, the Tigers picked three quick first downs.

Electra's Howard Warren blasted five yards through the Eagle defense untouched for the second Tiger TD. Electra failed to garner two extra points on a pass try with 6:26 left in the third quarter.

The Eagles gained an element of momentum several plays later when Lynn Ayres recovered a Tiger fumble, but the Big Red Machine just couldn't get ticking.

Electra soon gained possession near mid field and, aided by a 24 yard sprint, was able to push past the goal line again with 1:14 left in the third quarter. The extra point pass was good.

Holliday had another small blaze going when Wright turned around and returned the Electra kick 40 yards.

The next 10 minutes of field action resembled what fans witnessed the first half, both teams sticking to their ground games but with no substantial success.

Kent Lemons, Jeff Coats and Barton got in some good defensive licks, but their efforts could not ward off a bad case of butter fingers in the backfield which ended in another fumble recovered by Electra.

The Tigers capitalized on the turnover and marched the ball 37 yards into paydirt. The PAT cinched the noose around Holliday's neck with 1:48 left in the contest.

THE BIG SQUEEZE -- Holliday's Lynn Coats and Lynn Ayres put the squeeze on an Electra offensive running back during gridiron action here last Friday.

Junior high teams earn first victories

Holliday's junior high football teams chalked up their first victories of the season against Electra while the junior varsity was forced to settle with a draw on its season debut.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Holliday's junior varsity tied Electra 6-6 in their season opener that began with a bank and ended in stalemate.

Electra took the opening kickoff and scored seven plays later. The PAT failed.

Only minutes later Holliday took Electra's kickoff and overcame two 15-yard flags to answer the Tiger fire on a two yard plunge through the left side line by James Porter.

SEVENTH GRADE

Holliday's seventh grade blanked Electra 12-0. In the second quarter a 40-yard drive set up a six-yard TD pass to Kevin Killy from Brad Harmon. The PAT failed.

With six seconds remaining in the first half, Harmon blitzed the Tiger backfield and intercepted a pitch out.

Harmon returned the interception 30 yards for the score. PAT failed.

EIGHTH GRADE

Holliday's eighth grade defeated Electra 30-12 in that season opener.

Electra drew first blood with a TD in the initial quarter.

In the second quarter Holliday capped a 70-yard drive on a three-yard TD run by Joel Mankins to tie the score.

Mankins hit Eddie Flowers in the open for a 33-yard gain which set up Holliday's second TD, a three-step plunge by Ray Looney.

Holliday scored again in the second period on a 40-yard reverse by Flowers. Looney's extra point run was good.

Electra scored in the third quarter, but Holliday came back in the final stanza with a 21-yard TD scamper by Looney, who also supplied the extra points.

Two Holliday touchdowns were called by including a 32-yard sprint by Joe Chase and a 63-yard burn by Looney.

TOP OF TEXAS LEAGUE

In Top of Texas League competition, Holliday's midgets knocked heads with Electra in a scoreless game, and Holliday's pee wees were scorched by Electra 20-0.

Big Red rebound needed for Indians

Mental attitude may be a major factor in deciding Friday night's clash between Holliday's varsity Eagles and the Quanah Indians.

After being defeated 18-6 by Crowell and 21-6 by Wellington, Quanah probably will be thinking Friday night will be a good chance to pick up their first season win by coming to town in the wake of Electra's 27-0 blitzing of the Eagles.

Holliday fans will be hoping just the opposite, however, counting on the Electra embarrassment to give the Eagles extra incentive to win.

Kickoff for Friday night's dash between the Eagles and Indians is set for 8 p.m. here.

Although the Indians do not have great size, they should display plenty of speed in the backfield, according to head Eagle mentor Don Lucy.

Three senior starters will remain sidelined because of injuries this week. They include wingback Bimbo Stone and ends Mark Mankins and Buff Young.

Holliday's seventh, eighth and junior varsity teams will play host today to Petrolia. First of three games is scheduled for 5 p.m. today at Eagle Stadium.

Tech's Frazier lauded by coaches, professors

Ask Texas Tech All-Southwest Conference free safety Greg Frazier to analyze the Red Raider defense and you may get a detailed discussion of torque load on the tackles, shear stress on the linebackers

Kidwell teams score shutouts

Both Kidwell football teams got their Top of Texas seasons kicked off with shutout victories over Henrietta Saturday.

The Pee Wees won 22-0 and Midgets 24-0.

Shawn Price led the Pee Wees in both yards gained and touchdowns. He carried 11 times for 96 yards, and scored a pair of touchdowns. Bobby Whisnand carried eight times for 32 yards, and scored once.

On defense, Jeff Tucker led the team with six tackles. Price and Whisnand had five each.

Van Hedrick was the Midget answer to Price. He gained 107 yards in 18 tries, and scored twice. Craig Whisnand was credited with 16 totes for 73 yards, and one TD. Donnie Dietrichson scored the other touchdown.

Defensively, Scott Young and Brett Cappleman led the team with seven tackles each. Whisnand and Dietrichson were credited with six each.

Kidwell and Bradford hook up here Saturday.

and tension and compression involved with man-for-man coverage.

Actually, Frazier probably wouldn't say it just like that, but the senior architecture major from Iowa Park is well versed in both the principles of the Tech defense and the fundamentals of stress and torque.

A standout student as well as athlete, Frazier has made a name for himself on the field and in the classroom.

"Greg is a marvelous student," said Dudley Thompson, a professor in the architecture department. "He's capable of making an A in every class he enrolls in. He'll make a B occasionally, but it's usually because of all the other activities he's involved in."

"The great thing about Greg is that when he steps into the classroom, it's all architecture," Thompson said. "You can ask him about football and other things and he'll talk with you, but when class starts he's all business. I wish we had more students like Frazier whether they played football or not."

Thompson's enthusiasm for Frazier the student is matched by the Tech coaching staff's enthusiasm for Frazier the athlete.

"Greg is an exceptional player and individual," says head coach Steve Sloan. "He's a smart player and a hard worker. When Greg is in there, you know he's going to give you all he's got."

In the past, the 6-1, 195-pound Frazier has given more than enough. Last season he led the team in interceptions with five and was the leading tackler in the secondary with more than 80. He's gained a reputation as one of the smartest players on the squad and is a proven leader.

Frazier came to Tech as a quarterback and started for the junior varsity at quarterback in 1973. When the Raiders went to the Peach Bowl in 1974, Frazier was a back-up signal-caller.

But when help was needed in the secondary, Frazier was called on and he not only became a starter last season, but was named All-SWC as well.

"Greg was a very important part of our team last season," says defensive coordinator Bill Parcells. "He plays hard and knows where he is supposed to be and when he's supposed to be there. He was excellent for us last season."

Although coaches and professors alike laud Frazier, the soft-spoken defensive back plays down his unusual success in the classroom and on the field.

"Architecture is a big part of my life and so is football," Frazier said. "It's really just a matter of staying after it until everything gets done. I'm not smart enough to just walk in and do well in class without studying. I have to keep up with things."

Keeping up with everything is not always an easy proposition for Frazier. Last season he had a major class project due the week before the SMU game and had to try and get ready for the game and finish the project.

"We were trying to finalize everything for the game and I had that project I had to get in for class, so things got a little hectic," Frazier said. "I averaged about four hours of sleep a night that week. I played like I was asleep, too."

Undoubtedly, Frazier has earned the respect of his coaches and professors. And not surprisingly, it's coaches and professors who he credits with helping him a great deal.

"In my opinion, the architecture department at Tech is as good as any in the country," Frazier said. "The faculty is excellent and the facilities are very, very good. I can't say enough about the people in the department."

"Really, there are too many professors who have helped me to single out people," Frazier said. "But Dudley Thompson and Walt Calvert are two who have been a great help to me."

"As far as the coaching staff, there isn't a coach on the staff who won't take the time to help you any way he can," Frazier said. "Coach Sloan is an incredible person and Coach Wyant (defensive back coach) and Coach Parcells (defensive coordinator) have helped me a great deal too."

Another person Frazier is quick to praise is his wife, Debbie. The couple was married in the off-season and Frazier says she makes plenty of sacrifices for him now.

"I don't get to spend as much time with just her as I should during the fall.

"I'm a cashier supervisor for Texas Electric and we deal with customers' bills all day long. Nobody knows better than I do that people are having to pay more for electricity these days.

The reason bills are up — mine too — is because it's costing more to build plants and buy the fuel to run them.

My wife and I are looking for a new house right now and I know there are certain energy-saving features that will have to be in the house. Otherwise, I won't even consider buying it.

Proper insulation is number one on my list. It helps keep operating costs down, which means I might be able to afford a nicer house.

If you're thinking about buying a new home, you ought to get a copy of Texas Electric's E-OK booklet. It tells you all about homes that are certified energy efficient. For a copy of this free booklet, just give us a call. Or request one on the comment portion of your electric bill!"
