Teachers Honored

Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Muleshoe civic clubs honored the teachers at a luncheon here this past week, and here are four of those who were on the program: I-r Neal Dillman, school superintendent; the Rev. Frank Pollard, pastor of the Dimmitt First Baptist Church, who gave the address; Dr. Charles Lewis, chamber president and emcee, and Jaque Baker, chairman of the affair. (Journal Photo)

Drylands Brightened By Rains; Sorghums May Set Acre Records

Bailey County farmers may turn out...

1. One of the biggest dryland crops in the county's history and,
2. The per acre yield of grain sorghum may set a record.

These optimistic agricultural prospects appeared this past week after more than 6 inches of rain had fallen in less than six days to give practically the entire Muleshoe region a glowing farm outlook.

J.K. Adams, county agent, took to the road after the rains slacked off Thursday and made a 145-mile tour of the county, touching every corner to check crop prospects. He came back optimistic over the outlook, especially for dryland territories and for the grain sorghum outlook for both dryland and irrigated plots.

The county, he figures, has 12,000 acres of strictly dryland cotton. Of this some 6000 to 7000 acres "was in severe stress for moisture when the rains came this past week."

Of course, he pointed out, this extremely distressed cotton "will only partially respond to the rain in time to make a light crop this year."

But the outlook prior to the week's rains had not been promising—dourly dark, as one south Bailey county farmer put it.

The rest of the dryland cotton, as a result of the rains "may compete with irrigated cotton for an average yield of a bale per acre," was the optimistic word of the county agent.

Of grain sorghum, the county agent said: "Some dryland grain sorghum was already burned beyond redemption by the severe drought, but much of the late-planted sorghum, shown by the skip-row pattern, promises an excellent yield."

He pointed out "a few thousand acres of grain sorghum is a little bit late, and this might cause the midget to do some damage to it." He explained that the pesky little insect his grain sorghum just when it is in the bloom stage and that happens to be the stage of the crop now, so midget are beginning to show up.

But if luck continues to hold, the county agent predicted, "Bailey county will set a per-acre record—more yield than ever in the history of this county's grain sorghum crop."

Cotton prospects, for the most part are excellent, although the new and severe farm program has cut the acreage here to only 66,000 acres as compared with better than 100,000 acres at the peak.

But grain sorghum this year, more than ever, will be the county's biggest crop, dryland and irrigated grain sorghum acreage will run to some 140,000 acres.

They Grow Up FAST in Our Jail, Hereford Lad Finds

A Hereford lad grew up quickly this past week in our jail. Thursday he was a juvenile; Friday he was an adult. It happens that fast in the eyes of the law, one minute you're a kid and the next you're an adult—just like that.

Thursday he would have been charged in juvenile court where the court is more likely to take a more lenient view of a crime—a child's crime. But Friday, he was a man and the courts frowned more heavily on law-breaking.

He'll be tried as an adult. The lad who became 17 Friday and a boy who was already 17 journeyed to Muleshoe from Hereford one night recently, and, according to Sheriff Dee Clements, they appropriated an automobile that belonged to one Preston Coomer from Bushland who was visiting friends in Muleshoe.

Then the two lads turned south and broke into the Simmons Grocery in Enochs and appropriated a number of items.

At Morton's officers were inclined to take a dim view of two teenage boys rattling around their town at 3 o'clock in the morning—especially with the whole back seat of the car filled with a variety of items which one seldom find in the back seat of two teenage boys.

6th Grade Band Ready to Start

Sixth-grade beginning band gets underway with the opening of the new school year, and pupils who were interested in band were asked to register when they signed up last Friday.

It was explained that a two-week's instruction period in music theory will be held before the actual start of practices.

who would be at home sleeping at that time the morning. And again pointed out the sheriff's office, the items taken ranged all the way from kid stuff to adult. Take bubble gum for instance, an item usually associated with children. They got 144 packages of that sticky stuff. Or a package of corn chips or a jar of orange drink. Or eight bars of Hersheys or a box of cookies.

Most of these items, the sheriff's office here pointed out, might be classified as appealing to a juvenile.

But there were indications that maybe the boys weren't so young, after all. Because there were six cartons of cigarettes in the stolen automobile which the boys were driving through Morton at 3 o'clock in the morning. And 2 boxes of cigars, one an expensive brand, the other in the old

Editor's note: The following story was written by Jim Lattimer, field representative for the Social Security office in Lubbock, who visits Muleshoe each week. This is his account of A.C. Bell.

By Jim Lattimer. The subject is an invalid confined to a wheel chair, chair or bed. He smiles and his face lights up with a broad grin. His glasses evidence his poor eyesight, but the glint in his eyes tells more.

Today, August 16, Albert Clyde Bell filed for his hospital-medical insurance under the Social Security program. Bell was hesitant at first saying, "I have always been able to pay my hospital and doctor bills. I have this small farm over at Earth, Texas, from which I receive rents, and I manage to get by."

As my interview progressed, an unusual story unfolded. Bell's parents both died before he was ten months old. An uncle took him to Missouri, but very shortly was required to return Bell and his brothers and sisters to Texas. Foster parents took the then 10 month old boy and reared him. He was given the name Claude Sauls by his foster father, W. C. Sauls. Sauls kept the boy busy as soon as he became old enough to work. When Bell was 17 years old, he had caught up on his farm chores for Sauls, so a neighbor came by one day driving a team pulling a wagon.

The car contained an electric clock but they also had stashed away a wind-up clock too, just to be on the safe side. There was a billfold and three half-pints of milk and a pecan pie and four loaves of bread, and two packages of chopped pork and a pound of ham.

The officers found 86 packages of BB's also, and a used butcher knife and one pair of cotton gloves and nine bottles of Coke.

ThreeWay Plans Opening; 7 New Teachers Listed

Three Way schools will open tomorrow with seven new teachers on the staff. Superintendent Harrel Holder told the Journal Saturday. Two of the teachers, however, are former members of the Three Way staff.

He said the holidays have been set for the 1966-67 term. The school will observe Thanksgiving weekend, starting Nov. 24; then Christmas holidays are slated for the week of Dec. 23. A full week will be observed at Easter time, starting March 29, and the teachers will attend the district TSTA meeting in Lubbock Friday, March 3.

He said first grade students will be required to bring their birth certificates tomorrow and to have had smallpox vaccination.

75 Called for Case Of Alleged Pig-Stealer

Because two men have been charged in district court—one with stealing a pig and the other with fondling a small girl—75 Bailey County folk will lay their hands on or hang up their dishpans (as the case may be) and trek to Muleshoe Sept. 6 for possible duty on a district court jury.

Hazel Gilbreath, district court clerk, said the two cases are the only ones set by District Judge Pat Boone for this particular district court session. Jury costs alone will run a minimum of $300, assuming they can shove both cases through in a single day which is not likely. Otherwise it could cost considerably more.

One of the cases is a retrial; Earl Glen Burton was tried earlier this summer on a charge of fondling a small girl. The cases ended in a hung jury.

Then Marion Howard is to be tried on a charge of stealing a pig from G.E. Oakes.

One here are the 75 folk who have been summoned for possible jury duty.

MAIF is Ready to Tell The Muleshoe Story task of putting the reports into an attractive brochure."

Elliott said the purpose of the Tuesday night meeting "is to review the committee chairman program of work they have been working up for the last two months."

At the Tuesday night meeting, too, the group will decide what Elliott said "will be the most effective course pursue."

He added: "Our waiting period is over; now we will start giving shape and form to the Muleshoe story. About 30 persons have been working on these reports. The work has been tedious and we appreciate greatly the long hours that have gone into this phase of our program. It was very essential that these reports be made before we could proceed with the next phase of MAIF."

Putting of the Muleshoe story into printed form will be the next step.

Here are the 10 committees which are to make reports at Tuesday night's meeting:

1. Sites and buildings.
2. City and County Government.
3. Utilities.
4. Community betterment.
5. Financing.
6. Labor.
7. Transportation.
8. Water.
9. Taxes.
10. Agriculture.

The Tuesday night meeting, while basically for the members, directors and officers of MAIF is open to the general public. Said Elliott: "We would be very glad to have anyone interested in our program be present. After all, the building of a greater Muleshoe is everyone's business. One of the first reports made was the report of the labor committee which wound up its report some three weeks ago. Elliott explained that "if Muleshoe is to secure industry we must know how much labor is available and what kind."

A survey has been conducted. Forms were placed at the post office and the Texas Employment office.

On the labor survey committee are Frank Ellis, Vic Benedict and Earl Harris, who prepared the survey form. They say the need to know the exact number and nature of labor in this area "will be necessary before MAIF can make intelligent reply to potential industry inquiries."

The labor forms are simple and include, among other information, the location of persons interested in working here. The committee explained that area labor may be needed from areas "within commuting distance of Muleshoe."

The survey group needs to know the educational background of potential workers, Ellis said, "as well as complete review of jobs held by a potential plant worker here."

And since many plants operate on a 24-hour basis, the potential employer needs to know how much night-time help will be available.

When this information is complete, the material will be included in a brochure of the Muleshoe area.

"As soon as all reports are complete and the labor situation has been pretty well surveyed, we will be ready to turn our material over to the professionals who are to put together brochures," officials summed up.

Elliott said the real estate sites and buildings committee whole task it is to seek out available spots and buildings, "in putting together a real impressive state of places where industry can locate here, and the board urges anyone who might have a lead on a prospect to get the necessary material together and turn it over to the board, and we will take action on it immediately."

While all these activities have been taking place in the MAIF set up, Elliott said the Foundation now believes that one of the major efforts should be lent to seeking a food processing plant.

"We believe," he explained, "that a cannery or processing plant or packing plant for vegetables and livestock grown in this area would help the overall economy here more than any other one thing, because it would give use to additional acres of land that would be converted into vegetables which are now lying idle." He added that such a program would create jobs for local workers in the fields, and in addition to all the employees who would be needed in the vegetable processing plant itself, additional help would be needed in the fertilizer industry, butane, machinery, shop work and the like."

He explained that MAIF "believes the farmers in this area are extremely interested in a new crops if they had a way to process them close at hand—a ready, local market, in other words. The addition of food processing plants would make such outlets available."

Looking deeply into the food processing possibilities here, will be one of the "Five functions of MAIF as well as looking at any other non-agriculture project which would create a payroll for Muleshoe."

county that rains of 5 inches to 8 inches "were of tremendous benefit."

The Maple area, the county agent pointed out, had five inches reported this past week, and that area already had had 11 inches in mid-July. "That has put that area in probably the finest shape it has been in for years. The same is true of the northern dryland areas."

The county agent sees the possibility of the first bale of cotton for the 1966 crop "on schedule." This usually means about the last days of September or maybe the first days of October. The crop may be a bit late which might account for a slightly later harvest.

Of other crops, the county agent said the rains were of benefit, but they did slow harvest.

"The rains kept the harvest hands out of 700 acres of tomatoes," he explained, but there will be "plenty of ripe tomatoes in the fields as soon as they are able to get back in those soggy tomatoe fields," was headed for town, and asked Clyde if he wanted to accompany him. He did, and a complete change occurred in his life from that day on. After arriving in town, Sauls was walking around hoping someone would come by and want to hire him for work. He passed an old man with a beard which fell almost to his belt, and he heard the man call to him. Started at first, he turned and asked if the man was calling to him. He was. The bearded man said,

"Soa, I know who you are," Sauls replied, "I never saw you before in my life." The man added "Son, your name is Albert Clyde Bell." Sauls replied "I never knew anyone by that name and I surely never used the name Albert Clyde Bell," and looked inquisitively at the man with the beard.

"Son, you come with me, and I can prove to you that what I say is correct." Reluctantly, Sauls accompanied the bearded man to Pat Lonis, local lawyer's office. They were hailed by the lawyer who said, "Have a seat and I will be with you in a few minutes. Then he raised his head looked at the two persons sitting at his desk and the bearded one said "Pat do you know this boy?" "Certainly I know this boy, he is Albert Clyde Bell." Sauls was shaken to hear another reliable person say he was actually named Bell. "I have a file and a lot of information on you son," the lawyer continued.

"You have inherited a small farm and quite a bit of money from your father's estate," the lawyer advised, "I have been trying to find you for 15 years to let you know about your inheritance," he continued. "I cannot give you the money until you are 21 years of age, but I have other good news for you too. "Son," he stated, "you have two brothers and one sister who can verify what I have told you and who would be slated to see you again," continued the lawyer. "You were born March 29, 1885," he added.

Thus at age 17 in the year 1902, life started again for Albert Clyde Bell formerly known as Clyde Sauls. The events which followed were exciting but not nearly so exciting as learning his real name, Bell stated "From that time on, I used the name Albert Clyde Bell. You can imagine that it took me a while to get used to the name, but it has been with me since," Bell beamed. Bell fell and broke his hip some time ago, but he has a very optimistic outlook on life. He mused, "Mr. Latimer, I once worked as a sort of bookkeeper on a farm, and I could read and write but very little. I spelled 'tobacco' as 'tabaker', and my employer learned I hadn't been to school. He encouraged me to go to school, but I never did have time for formal schooling.

Albert Clyde Bell's case is printed with his permission, in the hope that others like him will know the facts and exercise their own judgement, intelligently and with an informed mind."

PARROTS DO TALK... But!

SO DOES A RECORD PLAYER

Our Nation faces a serious threat of communism just off our shores. At the same time within our nation, they are seeking to undermine our faith in God. There are many sayings and expressions going around in our country that are communist inspired. In order to prevent "parrotting" these sayings, that weaken our nation... attend church regularly, and study God's word so that the truth is more easily recognized.

"Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Board to Hear Facts Gathered By Water Team

A Texas Water Development Board hearing team will return to Lubbock Sept. 9 to receive testimony on the Texas Water Plan as it affects West Texas, Joe G. Moore, Jr., Executive Director of the Texas Development Board, said Wednesday. The hearing will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the Lubbock City Auditorium on the Texas Technological College campus.

The Lubbock hearing will bring to a close the series of public hearings on the Texas Water Plan that began in the High Plains city in mid-June, and continued through the summer in all sections of Texas.

The September 9 hearing will follow generally the format that has been used in all basin hearings this summer; however, there will not be a review by staff members of the Texas Water Plan in order to permit more time for testimony, Moore will open the hearing with some general remarks, then the Board will begin receiving testimony.

Moore said persons desiring to testify should present written statements of their testimony to the Board so they may be made a part of the official record. "This, however, will not preclude hearing anyone who desires to speak from notes or extemporaneously," he said.

The hearing will cover the High Plains, the Trans-Pecos, and West Texas, Moore said.

Displays Booked For Field Day

HALFWAY—The Governmental Agricultural Services have been invited to display materials and charts of their activities in the conference room of the Kilgore Building at the 10th Annual Field Day of the High Plains Research Foundation Thursday, Sept. 8, according to Bedford Forrest, head of education and public relations.

Displays of the Running Water Draw project and other exhibits will be presented by the Soil Conservation Service board and staff. The noxious weed control program in Hale, Floyd and Swisher Counties will be on display by officials of the weed control program in these three counties. The Home Demonstration activities in Hale County will be displayed and explained by Home Demonstration personnel and representatives of Home Demonstration clubs in the County. Activities of the county agents service and 4-H club programs will be included in the display for the first time this year. Visitors to the Kilgore Building and Laboratory will be welcomed and shown through the building by members of the board of trustees.

Pat Leonard, Lubbock, is visiting here with Susan Birdsong.

Cox Family Returns From Europe

"Tearing Europe is wonderful... and busy," says Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cox and Edwin who concluded a 21 day trip last Sunday.

The family left Lubbock July 29 and due to the air strike, flew to Chicago and Boston, instead of New York and departed the states a day late for joining their scheduled tour group in Paris.

The group went to Lyon, France where they saw the drive from Nice to Italy along the Italian Riviera was beautiful. They visited the Leaning Tower of Pisa and the Baptistery building nearby. One of the most tranquil places along the route was Riva Sole, a restaurant where the group stopped for lunch among the tall pines of Italy's countryside.

In Rome, they toured St. Peter's, the Pantheon, Trevi Fountain, Villa Borgese, the Vatican Museum and saw Pitta, the statue of Mary holding baby Jesus, the Cistine Chapel and many other spots of historical interest. They also took the illuminated tour of these spots at night.

In Florence among the places of interest they visited were Pitty Palace the Baptistery and viewed some of the works of Michelangelo.

The Cox family had quite an experience at Venice. Gondola rides were scheduled that night for all members of the tour group, complete with the singing gondolier to entertain them.

Boarding the gondola with their party, they set out on this night ride. Soon it began to rain and all the gondolas in the group pulled up under a bridge to wait out the rain. It ended in a brief period of time and all the gondolas moved out except the one they were on. The gondolier couldn't speak English... they could not speak his language, but finally...at last, some of the group got the message over to him that they

Candlelight Ceremony Read for Miss McDaniel and James Walker

Miss Bonnie McDaniel became the bride of James Paul Walker in an impressive double ring ceremony read at 6 p.m. Saturday, August 27, in the First Baptist Church. The Rev. John L. Vickery, Marion, Ky., was the officiating clergyman.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. O. McDaniel. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Julian J. Walker, Eunice, N. M.

Vows were solemnized in a beautiful setting of candlelight achieved with stately golden candelabra. The background was formed by a regal candelabra arch holding 15 tall tapers and flanked by two candelabra holding nine tapers each. A kneeling bench covered with white velvet graced the foreground. On either side of the bench stood a single candle candelabra with garlands of English ivy spangling out to baskets of white gladiolas. Candles along the chancel rail complete the setting.

At the beginning of the ceremony, the groom lighted the memory candle while the bride's hand was clasped over his.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of champagne pure silk and re-embroidered French lace. The empire waist and long slender sleeves were fashioned from re-embroidered French lace and the A-line skirt was of pure silk. The scalloped V-shaped neckline dipped low in the back accenting a wide chapel train of scalloped aloe and underlay of champagne silk illusion, her waist-length veil was styled from identical lace with gathered fullness at the crown. Her bridal bouquet was of white sweetheart roses entwined with English ivy carried atop a white satin and lace covered Bible. Mrs. Wayland Holt, Pacific Grove, Calif. served as matron of honor. Maid of honor was Miss Kay Louvorn, Stamford. Bridesmaids were Miss Sue Collins, Abilene and Miss Mary Sanders, Muleshoe. The bridal attendants wore formal gowns of aqua crepe styled with empire bodices and A-line skirts. The bodices and tapered sleeves were accented with beige lace. Each attendant carried a long stem white Giamella with English ivy.

John Walker, Eunice, N. M. served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Sonny Carson Robert Jones, both of Eunice, and John Womack, Fort Worth. Ushers, who also served as candlelighters, were Bob Cole, Petersburg, Perry Milburn, Abilene, and Kenneth Largent, Littlefield.

Traditional wedding selections were played by Susan Birdsong. "The Wedding Prayer," "We'll Walk With God," and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Mary Lois Patterson, Hamlin, soloist. "A Transition From Ruth" was read by Linda Louterback, Lubbock.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McDaniel chose a rose bonneted jersey dress with a street-length coat and matching accessories.

Mrs. Walker wore a mint green dress complimented with beige accessories. Each mother wore a corsage of Jappette Orchids.

The bride is now attending Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, where she will be a candidate for a B. A. degree in January. She holds the honors of Senior Favorite and University Princess and is a member of Phi Phi Phi Social Club.

The bridegroom has attended New Mexico Military Institute, Roswell, McMurray College, Abilene and is to receive his degree from Hardin-Simmons in January.

A reception following the wedding was held in Fellowship Hall of the church. The reception table was laid with a beige cloth over aqua satin with the bride's bouquet forming the centerpiece.

Miss Patsy Hough, Friona, served the three-tiered wedding cake which was topped with a white orchid. Miss Lois Moyer, Friona, presided at the crystal punch bowl.

The bride's memory candle centered a special table decorated with wedding flowers and English ivy.

The groom's table was centered with a dark cake and a red rose emblemifying "love." Miss Sandra Eason, Lubbock, served the cake at this table and Miss Barbara Evans, Muleshoe, presided at the silver coffee service.

Mrs. Kenneth Largent, Littlefield, registered guests.

For a wedding trip to New Mexico, the new Mrs. Walker chose a beige silk dress with olive green coat and accessories. Her corsage was of white roses. The couple will reside at 2125 Swenson Ave., Abilene.

wanted to follow the others in the party. The goddiler refused and finally got his message over to the party that he expected wind and didn't want his gondola damaged. The wind didn't stir...but neither did the gondola. They sat under the bridge...that is until the man became very angry at the men for trying to get him to continue the trip...then he pulled back into shore and this party missed their gondola tour.

The time spent in Lucerne, Switzerland was fascinating. The group were entertained with a Swiss dinner party complete with Swiss yodlers entertaining.

The Swiss keep their cattle on top of the mountains during the summer months and make their cheese up on the mountains during this time. A record is kept on the production of each cow, then when they are brought down in the Fall, the cow who has produced the most is named "Queen" and a three day celebration is given in her honor by the villagers.

Mr. Cox and Edwin visited the summer places on Mt. Poltius, going up by cogtrain. They learned that when the Swiss bring the cows down for the winter, the animals are backed down the steep mountains. This backing down method prevents the cows from being overbalanced by their long, heavy horns going down.

The men's trip down was made part way in a chair car and the remainder of the trip by a lift.

The tour included Frankfurt, Brussels, Amsterdam and other points of interest.

SAFETY

It isn't that children mean to be careless... it's just that in their zest and vitality they sometimes forget to stop, look and listen before crossing the street. It isn't that we mean to be careless either, yet the very car we drive may be considered a lethal weapon and the consequences of our negligence could be fatal. It is our moral obligation to be extra alert these days when school children crowd the crosswalks!

CHECK YOURSELF ON THESE SAFE DRIVING TIPS . . .

- BE ESPECIALLY CAREFUL NEAR SCHOOLS . . . THINK ONE STEP AHEAD OF EVERY PEDESTRIAN.
- KNOW ALL TRAFFIC RULES . . . OBSERVE THEM AS LIFE OR DEATH REGULATIONS.
- REGARD ALL TRAFFIC SIGNALS, SIGNS AND MARKERS AS LIFESAVERS . . . THEY ARE.
- HAVE YOUR CAR SAFETY CHECKED OFTEN. FAULTY EQUIPMENT CAN COST LIVES.
