says:

I'm FOR encouraging our citizens in opening new businesses, or welcoming new residents who can contribute to the good of our town.

I'm FOR keeping city contracts at home. I believe all city construction should be offered to local businesses on an equal basis to each qualified contractor.

I'm AGAINST "bargain-hunting" with city funds. I have learned through experience that quality in equipment and products is more economical than inferior or worn-out materials, no matter how "cheap" they may be.

I'm AGAINST adding more and more Ordinances to our city government simply because some other locality uses them. I'm FOR revising some of the existing ordinances to make them more practical for our residents.

Hey, Skinnay!

Iowa Park students who are interested in geography have a fine opportunity to acquire a scrapbook full of historical pictures of interesting places. All they need do is cut out State National Bank advertisements during the coming year. "Famous Places" will be pictured and short articles will be carried for each place.

H. M. Nipper, of the bank, suggests that all children studying Geography consult their teacher and get hints from her as to saving these illustrated articles.

A complete set will surely be a fine record of the work a child has completed. And, who knows? Geography might turn out to be an interesting subject!

Student Actors in Two Dramas

by Jay Cantrell

Tuesday night, March 30, at 8:00 the Thespians of IPHS will present two plays. The first is entitled "A Young Lady of Property." This play is to be the IPHS entry in District one-act play contest at Hirschi high school.

It is the story of a young girl whose dreams and fantasies fill the void left by her mother's death. She is jerked into reality when her father announces his intention to re-marry and sell the house she cherishes. The story has elements of comedy and tragedy.

The cast includes Judy Spruiell, Don Yeager, Glenda Spruiell, Karen George, Rhonda Watson, Tom Ashley, Karen Watson, Michelle Brown and Vernon Overstreet.

Audrey Bushfield is student director. Mrs. C. B. Smith is faculty director.

Second play to be presented in this night of drama is a play of the absurd: "Mannequin's Denial." This popular modern vehicle deals with the conflicts of four persons played by Jackie Perkins, Lana Jacks, Gwen Stout and Greg Ancell. Jeff McDonald is the Silent Man.

The chorus is made up of speech students. Lighting and musical effects make this a most unusual production.

This play is also directed by Mrs. Smith with Linda Owens as student director.

We feel the Night of Drama offers something everyone will enjoy. Tickets may be purchased from members of the casts at $1 for adults and 50c for students. We hope to see you at high school Tuesday night at 8:00 o'clock.

Women Schedule Lectures

"God's Will for Woman" is the theme of a lectureship at the Iowa Park Church of Christ, April 1-2-3.

Mrs. Lois McCord will talk on "... as a Loving Christian Wife" on Thursday and on "... as a Worthy Christian Mother" Friday evening.

Mrs. McCord's husband is professor of Bible at Oklahoma Christian college. She is a graduate of Freed-Hardeman college at Henderson, Tenn., and often gives lectures at colleges and for women's groups.

Mrs. Vera Holding of Norman, Okla., will present the topics "Aging Christian Doctrine" on Thursday and "Victorious Christian Life" Friday evening. She is a poet and writer. "Take Time" and "Because Somebody Cares" are two of her better known poems contained in four volumes of verse. She also has a teenage novel. Mrs. Holding says she is busier than ever at the age of 73.

"Giving of Herself" is the topic to be presented by Mrs. Peggy Smith of Abilene at the Saturday morning session. She has spoken at Christian college lectureships, conducted workshops on benevolent work for women, and writes articles for magazines.

Saturday from 12:30 to 3:30 is fellowship time, beginning with luncheon, followed with a panel discussion, two skits and a singing.

All interested women are invited to participate in this challenging program. Theme song for the series is "I Know the Lord Will Find a Way for Me."

Shower for Pat

Colors of the rainbow were evident in decorations for luncheon at the W. A. George home Saturday when Miss Pat Nipper was honored. A white birdcage nestled in an arrangement of white carnations and stephanotis, topped with white doves holding streamers of greenery and wedding bells was the centerpiece on the luncheon table.

Pink lace placemats bordered with satin, and pink napkins were at each place setting. Tiny white baskets filled with miniature pink rosebuds, were favors. The meal was served buffet style.

Following the meal, all were busily engaged in filling rice bags. They were made of tulle in pink, blue and yellow; and the rice was of many colors.

Those who were seated at the table were Misses Pat, Carla, Diana and Jaye Nipper, Karen George, Debbie Kirkpatrick of Wichita Falls; Mmes. C. A. Nipper, Bessie Nipper, H. I. Berry, Chuck Hickman of Wichita Falls, and the hostess.

Come & Get It!

Maggie is doing her thing again — come Friday, March 26, Herman will load that truck with gallons of noodles and chicken she has prepared for the United Methodist Men to serve that evening from 5:00 to 7:00 in Fellowship Hall. There will be home-made pies and salad consumed with a surfeit of coffee, tea, water, and maybe some milk for the youngest set.

The prices are right, too. Jay Farmer doesn't charge extra for that extra quality Maggie puts into her noodles. An adult can get all he can hold for $1.25. Folk under 12 will be fed for 75c. And an entire family can eat for $3!

Iowa Park Clubwomen Earn Many High Honors in District

Santa Rosa District, TFWC, had a meeting in Memphis last Thursday and Friday. General theme was "Sound the Trumpet for the Jubilee" and the topic of the principal address was on Vocational Education.

This is the 75th year of organization, and state president Mrs. Philip Carpenter of Burkburnett has designated vocational education as the major project of her two-year administration.

David L. Norton, president of Vernon Regional junior college, was featured speaker. He deplored that most schools are geared to send high school graduates to a senior college to work toward a BA degree when only 15 per cent of them will pursue that course. Most of today's youth are ignored in the field of greatest need — training for a salable skill at which they might be most adept and through which they might be worthy contributors to society rather than dropouts.

Mrs. A. C. Hughes, state vice-president, of Commerce continued the theme when she spoke to the assembly Friday. "We must teach something that is marketable. The day is near when such workers as decorators, sales services, short-order cooking, agri-business or civic leaders will need training at the college level."

She advised delegates to go home and make a vocational survey, find out how many construction men are needed, or industry contractors, and have a vocational advisory council in every school.

Delegates from Iowa Park were Mrs. D. O. James, president-elect of 23 Study club; Mrs. Deryl James, president-elect of Philia study club; Mrs. Chauncey Welger, chairman of the state year-book judging committee; Mrs. M. L. Hines, Santa Rosa District chairman of the division of administration of justice and rehabilitation.

Awards received by Philia club were: First places in overall report of the education department; and first place in environmental health.

Twenty-three Study club took first place in yearbook and second place ratings in:

outstanding club program fine arts overall report religion and ethics American heritage and citizenship environmental health urban and rural affairs administration of justice and rehabilitation

Mrs. Overton Neal of Vernon, Santa Rosa District president, directed what most delegates felt was the most informative and effective convention in recent years.

Shower for Marty

Miss Marty Dudley was honored Thursday evening of last week at a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Melford Burns, 106 Douglas. She is the bride-elect of Mike Maxwell of Wichita Falls.

The colors chosen by the bride-to-be, yellow and white, were evident in table decorations and refreshments. A white cake with yellow flowers, flanked by yellow candles in crystal holders, centered the table. Yellow punch was served.

Sitting with Marty at the gift table were her mother Mrs. Charles Dudley Sr., her grandmother Mrs. Carl Gordon of Floydada, and Mike's mother Mrs. Bill Maxwell of Wichita Falls.

Twenty-five guests called. Others from out of town included a great-aunt Mrs. M. C. Blair and a cousin Mrs. Marvin Blair of Ft. Worth; Mrs. James Wester of Garland; Mrs. Richard Winstead and Mrs. Roy Morris of Seymour.

The couple will be married on April 1 in the family home at 401 Mary Drive.

Miss Hattie D. Wells of Wellington is visiting this week with her sister Mr. and Mrs. China B. Smith.

Former Mayor Curtis Sewell Dies in Dallas

Memorial service was conducted Wednesday morning in Lancaster for Curtis Sewell, 81, who died Monday in a Dallas hospital. He was a native of Georgia.

Sewell came to Iowa Park in 1915 when he received his discharge from World War I, and was employed on an oil lease on the Mamie Dale farm southeast of town. He later operated a service station in town for many years, all the while incorporating "service" to his church and community along with his business service.

During the 50 years Curtis was here he was a member of the City council, mayor, teacher and superintendent in the Methodist Sunday school, leader in Scout work, member of the Lions club, and was due to receive on June 23 this year a 50-year service award of the Masevic Lodge.

Sewell received the first Boy Scout silver beaver award ever conferred in Iowa Park.

He was mayor during the time Iowa Park established its water board, built Lake Iowa Park, and got off the salt water diet here.

Surviving are the widow Louise; a son Curtis Jr. who was born and reared here and now resides in Livermore, Calif.; a brother James A. of Iowa Park; a sister Mrs. Harry Camp of Augusta, Ga.; and three grandsons.

WE NEED Water!

Board of directors of Wichita County Water Control and Improvement District No. 3 (Iowa Park) met Tuesday evening in the office of O. N. Newman, secretary. Others present were M. L. Hines, Gaines Maness, and Carl Sullivan.

Major item of business was the signing of a contract with Wichita County Water Improvement District No. 2 and the City of Wichita Falls, paying for the water purchased from the canal since Dec. 16 at the rate of 7 1/2c for 1000 gallons. That will be the continuing price so long as we use canal water.

County Commissioner Buck Voyles was present to discuss plans for improving the road through Buffalo Lake district property from east to west, hoping the project of surfacing can be completed in 15 months. Work will be done at times convenient to the county. The water district will be paying for the rock and asphalt after the county has laid the base of sandstone.

The board also considered cutting a few dams on stock tanks in the drainage area.

Plans for spreading the dirt already placed on the dam were made, preparing it for seeding.

Some trees on Iowa Park Lake will be poisoned and some soil will be placed on the back slope of the dam.

Regular meeting time of the board is 7:30 on the last Tuesday of each month.

Urban Renewal Discussed

Dr. Arthur Beyer of Midwestern university led off the Urban Renewal discussion in IPHS auditorium Tuesday night. His approach was from the viewpoint of pollution and prevention of blight in both home and business establishments.

Fred Cuney, representing a consultant firm in Dallas, discussed the workings of Urban Renewal and pointed out that by using certain guide lines and local appraisers, property owners in the "blighted" areas can get their living accommodations raised as much as $8000 worth without cost to themselves or to the city.

The owners of older and rundown business structures also can get their investments renovated and modernized at little or no cost to themselves.

Joe West, assistant urban renewal administrator at Whitesboro, then took the floor and told of the $2,500,000 program being produced in that city.

An incidental part of the program, West said, can be curbs and gutters and even drainage for certain parts of the town.

The 75 persons present for this study program asked quite a few questions and received enlightening answers.

Iowa Park voters will decide the Urban Renewal proposal in the regular city election on April 3. At that time they will also elect aldermen to fill the positions now occupied by Frank Harlin and Arch Hughes.

Firemen Ask Co-operation in Fire Plans, Reports

Iowa Park Volunteer Firemen ask your co-operation in reporting fires to this department. It is the time of year when farmers and rural residents are burning to rid the land of dead foliage in preparation for fresh spring growth.

Before reporting a fire, ascertain if the fire is unwanted or out of control. However, if there is an unwanted fire or one out of control, do not hesitate to report the fire immediately.

Give precise directions and try to have someone in the immediate vicinity to direct the fire apparatus from the road to the fire when it arrives.

When you are planning to burn outside the city limits, call the fire department and inform the dispatcher where and when you will be burning. It will eliminate making runs to the fire should it get reported by someone unaware the fire is intentional and attended.

Burning within the city limits is prohibited by city ordinance except when done by permit.

Older & Smarter

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hunter were refreshment hosts for impromptu celebration of the birthday of Louis Sefcik at his jewelry store Monday morning. They provided a Fisherman's cake and coffee to be shared by Louis and Betty with customers and friends during the day.

The chocolate cake featured a white icing and pink fences and had an angler, presumably Louis, working at his favorite sport.

We didn't hear the birthday jingle sung, but we certainly did enjoy the cake, coffee and conversation, and certainly hope the honoree has at least one birthday celebration each year from now on for many, many years.

23 Study Club

Mrs. Earl F. Watson was leader for the program of 23 Study club Thursday of last week. Several activities were featured.

Mrs. Gene Overbey Steele and Mrs. C. L. Metz were hostesses in the home of Mrs. Steele.

On the front door, guests were greeted by a poster in multi-color letters saying "Come to the Fine Arts Fair." A similar invitation was on the studio door, "Welcome to Little Taos." In the studio were displays of arts and crafts, some of professional quality.

Exhibits included paintings—still-life and portraits and landscapes—crochet, cross-stitch, needlepoint, printing by hand, beaded flowers and necklaces, knitted articles, original musical compositions, ceramics, embroidery, tatted lace and canned goods.

Of special interest was a finger painting by Miss Jennie Roberson of Wichita Falls, a gift from her to the 23 Study club. On several occasions Miss Roberson has been the program for the club.

She is former art supervisor of Wichita Falls public schools and has written a series of art textbooks used by elementary students in Wichita Falls.

Miss Roberson is also a former president of the Woman's Forum. Music of the program included: "Festival March" (Read), an organ solo by Mrs. R. A. Tanner; a piano duo "Sheep and Goats—A Walk in the Pasture" (David Guion) Mrs. James A. Sewell and Mrs. Georgia Flanagan; vocal selections "Follow Me" and "If I Would Leave Thee" from "Camelet," and "Seguidilla," aria from "Carmen" (Bizet), Mrs. Joe Singer with Mrs. Steele as accompanist; and an organ solo "76 Trombones" from "Music Man" by Mrs. O. E. Lochridge.

"That Old Sweetheart of Mine" (James Whitcomb Riley) was recited by Mrs. Earle Denny.

Mrs. Metz gave a talk and demonstration on "The Fine Art of Painting." She asked "What is a painting?" and described and displayed samples of the three styles of painting: realism, expressionism and abstractionism.

The second account of the Creation as found in Genesis 1 to 2:4 was the basis of a meditation directed by Mrs. M. L. Hines, who stated that this account was written perhaps several hundred years before the first account recorded in Chapter 2. Though the handiwork displayed in the home and by the members were lovely works of creative art, Mrs. Hines described God as the greatest creator.

The refreshment table itself was a work of art, laid with yellow linen and centered with floral arrangements in pink, yellow, red, blue and green. Favors of handpainted plaques, the work of the hostesses, added another note of beauty to a program and display already overflowing with liveliness.

Special guests included Meses. Elsie Lehman, Louis Sefcik and Deryl James.

Lake Shore Class

Rooms Planned

An outdoor classroom for teaching conservation is in the making for the area next to Buffalo Creek lake three miles northwest of Iowa Park. The project is being sponsored by the Wichita Soil and Water Conservation District.

Donald Hill, chairman of the District board of directors, said this week the outdoor study center will help students understand the natural environment. "We want students to have a place to learn about our environment and the conservation of our natural resources," he said.

Other district board members are Jack Stevens of Valley View, Rayford Young of Burkburnett, Eddie Showers of Electra, John H. Jones of Valley Farms.

This innovation means using the outdoor approach in teaching biology, sociology, history, geology, conservation, and other subjects to elementary and secondary students. "We want to help develop a place where students can learn to appreciate and enjoy a clean, wholesome environment," members of the board explained.

Approval for the use of Buffalo Creek lakeside has already been given by directors of the Wichita County Water Control and Improvement District No. 3. About 500 acres on the east side of the lake is involved in an initial study being made by the biology department of Midwestern university under direction of Dr. Arthur F. Eyer.

MU students Peggy Spring, Tim Kaspar, Bill McIvain, Gregory Nesty and John Parrish are making an inventory of plant and animal life in that area. Further studies will be made by the Soil Conservation Service and other agencies. District Conservationist Gary A. Balle of Iowa Park, reported the SCS work unit has already completed a soil survey of the area.

When all inventories are completed, the information will be used for school curriculum planning and development of lesson plans, he explained.

It is hoped by sponsors of this project that conservation education workshops for teachers can be held in connection with the study center.

Dale Miller of Iowa Park is a member of the Chambers Singers, a select group of East Texas State university music students. They will present a concert at 8:15 p.m. next Monday in the concert hall on the campus in Commerce.

Dale sings bass with the group which will perform madrigals of arrangements by Bach, Effinger, Hammerschmidt and other composers.

Benny Brott of Idabel, Okla., flew here recently for a visit with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brott. He was accompanied by a friend John Powell of Idabel.

Windstorms Are

Due Here Soon

Vulnerability of Texas to the ravages of wind and hail has been established — by such super-destructive hurricanes as Celia in 1970 and by the statistical reality that tornadoes hit our state far more frequently than any other. We can hark back to Lubbock's tornado last May and to Amarillo's hailstorm in 1969.

From 1965 through 1969, 684 tornadoes struck Texas, killing 17 persons and injuring 232.

Aside from the injuries to persons, there is the enormous loss from storm damage to be accounted for. There's where insurance companies and adjusters jump in and work overtime to settle claims fairly and promptly, with hardy cases handled first.

Gilmore is native son; interested in growth and improvement here

Bill Gilmore, candidate for the City Council, issued this week the following statement:

I was born at 701 South Park in Iowa Park, where my mother still lives. My father was the late Jim Gilmore, an old-time oilfield worker. The youngest of three children, I was raised in a close-knit, though poor, family. My sister is Mrs. Bill (Venita) Glasgow of Wichita Falls, and my brother James lives in Irving. I am 38 years old.

for my hometown; and the courage to stand alone, if necessary.

The only promise I can make is to do my best.

I'm not sly as a fox, meek as a lamb, strong as an ox, or wise as an owl.

But I've got good horse sense, I work like a dog, and I'm bull-headed and stubborn as a mule when it comes to the things I believe in.

I attended Iowa Park schools from first grade to high school graduation. I have no college education.

My wife is the former Maryanne Chambers, daughter of R. B. Chambers of Iowa Park and the late Mrs. Chambers. We have four sons. Cecil is currently serving a four-year term in the Marines. He and his wife, the former Debra Blizard, are expecting their first child in April. Jimmy is a senior and Kenny, a sophomore at Iowa Park high. Billy Clark is in the seventh grade at the Junior High.

I began working for wages at age eleven, washing dishes in Metz's Cafe. Throughout my teen years, I was employed in Black's Market, Jerrill's Grocery, sweeping Thompson Tool Co., and cleaning the barn at Spruiell's Dairy.

Immediately after my high school graduation, I was hired as a laborer by the pipeline company located here temporarily, installing the water line from the then "new" city lake to the city. When that job was completed, I moved with the company, and, within a year, became a foreman with them.

Except for two years during which I worked in the local oilfields, the following years, I traveled over the United States, Canada, Venezuela, Germany, Iran and Arabia, keeping my residence in Iowa Park. All the profit from these various places was brought home and spent here.

Ten years ago, I opened a welding business in Iowa Park, beginning with one pickup, and a portable welding machine. As more financing was needed to expand, I returned to the pipeline for short periods. As a result, my company recently moved into its new building on the Expressway.

I've filed for city councilman to represent the hard-working citizens like myself, who seem to be getting the short end of the stick.

My qualifications include: good common sense about financial matters, learned through practical experience; a knowledge of the history of Iowa Park, the "old-timers," and their problems; a willingness to admit a lack of understanding on some issues, and to seek true facts; a real concern

HELP!

Iowa Park's girls softball is in its third year and has developed financial trouble. Donations are needed for the entrance fee and equipment.

Any organization or individuals interested in helping support the girls should contact Mrs. Kenneth Watts at 107 North Penn. She is treasurer of the club.

Last year there were eight teams in the Girls League in Wichita Falls. This year there will be 13. IP finished the season in a tie for third place. Twenty-three girls took part from Iowa Park and three were chosen to participate in the play-offs.

Towns in the league are Burk Burnett, Henrietta, Sheppard AFB, Wichita Falls and Iowa Park. Burk has several teams and so does Wichita Falls. Surely we can support one team!

Bob Lamb, 1011 Lincoln, is to coach the girls again. He will be assisted by Ronnie Hill and Johnny Chapman.

Later a schedule will be published so the public will be informed about the games.

Fifth grade Ko-Ki Ta-Wan-Ka Camp Fire girls of Kidwell school enjoyed a long hike Saturday afternoon with a wiener roast.

Twelve girls went on the outing.

The girls are working on their woodgatherer's rank which they hope to pass by the end of May.

Mrs. Lamb, guardian of the unit, was assisted by Judy Watts and Mrs. Kenneth Watts. They gathered wood and made their camp fire.

The girls earned 13 beads Saturday doing different things on the hike. They arrived safely at home by 7 p.m.—tired and dirty—and some were carrying souvenirs from their trip. Would you believe one carried a large sack full of cow bones?

Mrs. Josephine Patterson and daughter Mrs. Bing Miller attended the funeral of a cousin Miss Brenda Sue Ellis at Paducah on Tuesday. Miss Ellis was killed in a car wreck on the Childress road out of Paducah, suffering a broken neck.

Mrs. L. H. Hobson has returned home after attending the funeral of her brother Marvin Clark of Rotan last week. He suffered from a combination of heart trouble and diabetes, and died at the age of 67.

Mrs. Leo Fletcher is at home following surgery about two weeks ago in Baylor hospital, Dallas. A close friend Mrs. Jewel Stephenson is staying with them at this time and reports she is doing fine.

Last year we spent $740 million on your telephone . . . and it still looks the same.

The changes don't show. But they are ways of making your phone—the one you've had all along—work better. For instance, the money went for more Long Distance circuits so your call will go through faster. It also went for more training so that telephone employees serving you will know their job. The money went for new switching systems to speed up connections for the 56 million calls we handle daily. At Southwestern Bell, we keep working every day, every year, to put a new phone inside your old one. Even if it does look the same. "We may be . . ."

Mrs. Travis Smith directed the second session of the study "How the Word Gets Around" when the Women's Society of Christian Service met at the United Methodist church Tuesday morning.

A profitable and interesting hour was spent as thinking was provoked by the question "What do we mean by the word, and what is the medium of transmission, and how are they in conflict?"

Miss Ethyle Kidwell remarked that just telling people what to do is not communication and that truth is something that is slowly and painfully discovered in the meeting of minds. Communication of truth is necessary to getting the word around.

"Open Communication and Closed Communication," illustrated with posters, was the subject of a challenging presentation by Mrs. Bob McClelland.

Mrs. J. W. Farmer presided for business. In honor of the newest baby a certificate was presented to David Whittington of her little son Nathan Christian, revealing that an offering to missions had been made in his name.

Others present included Mmes. Elgin Denny, Emma Gauntt, Ray Low, Delbert Todd, Fred Widmeyer, E. H. Pearce, W. C. Albright, Etta Bennett, Floyd Boyd, Gordon G. Clark, M. L. Hines, Gene Lowrey, Gladys Robinson, Carl Sullivan, Carl Waldraft, Herman Mahler, W. M. Owens, James A. Sewell, C. J. Thurber, and David Thomas.

Organ Club

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Denny and Miss Elga Ann Denny were hosts to Iowa Park Organ club in their home Monday evening.

During the business session directed by Mrs. Elmo Traylor, a name was suggested and candidate selected as the club's entry in the most outstanding senior selection sponsored by the 23 Study club.

Organ selections were contributed by several members, and a duo series on the organ and piano melodia played by Mr. Denny and Mrs. Lottie Lochridge provided an hour of pleasant entertainment.

Following a tour of the new home, refreshments of crisps, cookies, punch and coffee were served.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Ishmael Corder, Mrs. L. C. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carnes, Mrs. Emma Gauntt, Richard Hill, Henry Jones and Hubert Weseman.

April 26 meeting will be in the Weseman home.

Churches Honor IPH Class of '71

Western atmosphere pervaded the air last Friday evening when the 121 seniors of IPHSS were invited to meet in fellowship hall of the Presbyterian church for a Chuck Wagon special chow.

Though all could not be present those who came made up in enthusiasm for the absentees. The entertainment was a project of six churches: Faith and First Baptist, Church of Christ, Methodist, Christian and Presbyterian, as a courtesy to the graduates.

The Rev. Mr. Alfred Dursett was master of ceremonies. The Rev. Mr. Don Killingsworth gave the welcome and Jeff McDonald responded.

"And now abideth faith, hope and love, these three" was theme of the address by the Rev. Mr. Kenneth Flowers. He reminded the group that this is a wonderful world; it is a world of change, but there are some eternal verities.

He admonished all to have faith in their fellowmen and in themselves; that hope is the assurance that tomorrow will be; that many things will change for the good; that God's love is eternal, more lasting than selfish love or brotherly love.

The Ichthus Sings of Baptist Student Union at Midwestern provided a program that delighted the audience. Their selections included both sacred and popular numbers, with banjo and guitar accompaniment; and a comedy skit.

Wagon masters were Faris Nowell and Bob Dawson, with Richard Davis, Mrs. Dub Dearen, William Nunn and Earnie Reusch as head scouts.

Red and white checked runners were laid the length of the dining tables. Prancing upon the road were cowboys dodging in and out around cactus bushes. Plate favors were realistic duplications of leather boots inside of which were copies of the program including the names of all members of the IPHS Class of 1971.

The menu consisted of Virginia baked ham, Boston baked beans, potato salad, slaw, sourdough bread and fried pies.

The Te Pa Camp Fire group met at Mrs. Donald Richter's home at 4:30 Thursday, March 18. We read the Law of the Camp Fire girls and read the Trail Seeker's Desire. Then we counted the beads we had earned and sang until the meeting was adjourned.

Students Adopt Hospital Patients

For two years the 15 classes at Bradford school have been sponsoring 15 special patients at Wichita Falls state hospital, the only school in the state pursuing such a project. Thursday, March 25, the students are having a May Day celebration for their friends in the foyer of the school, with a Maypole and dancing, and baskets of flowers to be presented to each of the 15 guests.

The reason for the early party is that impact, the news magazine of Texas department of health, wishes to include the story in its May issue which goes to 15000 employees in state mental health clinics, hospitals, state schools, mental retardation centers and mental health centers.

A gala party was given at Valentine time when eager students greeted the sponsored patients in the school and conducted them to classrooms where students and mothers had decorated with red and silver streamers, chubby cupid with bows and arrows, and where red punch, white cupcakes and candy hearts were served.

Valentines were given and other gifts included boxes of candy, a pink carnation corsage, and a slender white vase with two roses. Smiling patients knelt as the children with unselfconscious tenderness reached out to hug them.

All through the year the students remember these special friends with letters, birthday greetings and gifts. They enter wholeheartedly into this project.

An electric range is a kindness for the cook. It's your time-saver, your work-saver. Here are 4 reasons why:

Cooking's cooler. An electric range uses heat more efficiently, so it wastes less heat into your kitchen.

Cooking's cleaner. Flameless electric heat is the cleanest heat of all. The cleanness shows on your pots and pans, curtains, drapes, walls and woodwork.

Cooking's easier. An electric range with automatic set-and-forget features sets you free from watch-and-wait cooking routines.

Cleanups are automatic. Save yourself some real time and work by making the oven a self-cleaning model.

Get your dealer's special wiring allowance!

Your appliance dealer is making it easy for you to own and enjoy a new free-standing electric range. He's offering a special wiring allowance to customers served by Texas Electric. Save the money. See him for the details before his offer ends March 31.

Set a child free this Easter.

Our therapists teach kids to walk when they can't learn by themselves. And when their parents can't teach them. We teach kids to talk. We teach kids to hear. To control arms, and fingers. To move legs. Toes. We take little kids that are imprisoned inside themselves and help set them free. It takes money. Give to Easter Seals.
