When I was young my slippers were red. I could kick ip my heels right over my head.

When I grew older my slippers were blue, But I could still dance the whole night through.

Now that I am old, my slippers are black. I walk to the store and puff my way back.

The reason I know now my youth is all spent, My get up and go has got up and went.

Rut I really don't mind, when I think with a grin Of all the grand places my get up has been.

Since I have retired from life's competition, I busy myself with complete repetition;

I get up each morning, dust off my wits, Pick up the paper and read the "Obits."

If my name is missing I know I'm not dead, So I eat a good breakfast and go back to bed.
