Each Iowa Park Community 4-H club entrant in the annual Dress Review at Electra, Tuesday evening won a blue ribbon for quality workmanship. Two won second place prizes on their garments. Only two divisions were represented in the review.

Each Iowa Park girl had made a 2-piece garment or dress, which is unusual. Often Div. I girls make ony simple things such as apron or skirt. Because the work of all the girls was above average, the judges declared each deserved a blue ribbon.

The five Icwa Park contestants were Cheryl Dowell, Lynette Flick, Wendy Hicks, Rita Ratcliff and Sharon Ratcliff. Cheryl and Sharon won prizes for second place, the first a sewing chest and the other a set of sachet hangers.

First place prize winners and also the overall winners in each group were Pat and Cindy Gray of Wichita Falls.

"Keep America Beautiful" was theme of the review. Stage setting was a picnic scene with red, white and blue dishes, table cloth and a red, white and blue yard light. Iowa Park 4-H club served refreshments of red fruit punch and cookies to the nearly 100 in at-
