IOWA PARK LEADER

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1971

IOWA PARK, WICHITA COUNTY, TEXAS, 76367

10 CENTS

VOL. II, NO. 21

Citations were presented here Monday to several persons who contributed information on Iowa Park which will be used by the Texas Industrial Commission.

Making the presentations for the commission and Gov. Preston Smith was E. M. Sheffield, commission staff member. Receiving them were Dr. Richard Carver, Wayne House, Miss Roberta Hill, K. G. Wilks, Dean Miller, T. E. Gilbreath, Robert Wilcox, Norman Mayes, Delbert Todd, Bill Carnes, Glen Miller, Gene Barker and T. Stanley Hale.

The information provided by those recognized was considered a "significant contribution to Texas' industrial development."

Sheffield's meeting, held in the State National Bank building, culminated nearly a year's work towards incorporating pertinent industrial location information on Iowa Park into the nation's most sophisticated computerized site location data bank.

Called "Insta-Site", the commission's computer program has already received two distinguished awards itself from the Southern Industrial Development Council, a professional society covering 16 Southern states.

Participation of local leaders in gathering information from "Insta-Site", means that information on Iowa Park industrial assets will be instantly available to all industrial firms considering new plant sites in Texas.

Sheffield presented a massive 88-page printout containing 1444 items of information on the Iowa Park area. He pointed out the information bank would be increased to more than 2,000 items which will be put into the computer on the city. This is expected to be accomplished in about three weeks.

Local award recipients collected data for 393 items of information on the printout and the balance was collected for the community by the commission staff.

As soon as the local group has reviewed the information and suggested any changes necessary, a computerized Community Analysis Report will be available that shows how Iowa Park compares with other cities of similar size on the factors that industrialists look for in locating new plants. Using the Community Analysis Report as a guide, Iowa Park leaders will be able to plan effective measures to spur local economic growth.

"The next phase in the development of the computer program is to match Iowa Park plant locations resources with a profile of the location requirements of all types of expanding industries," Sheffield said.

"This will enable us at the commission to help concentrate your industrial development program on companies you have the best chance of attracting to Iowa Park," Sheffield continued.

Statewide, more than 14,000 business and civic leaders in 390 Texas cities will receive the special citations for their part in making the new program possible.

Shaw announces plans for new business place

Construction is expected to begin in the near future on a new home for Shaw Motor Co., Luther Shaw announced this week.

Plans are to erect the new structure on property he owns, located east of Park West Shopping Center, and fronting both East Highway and Bank Street. An architect is nearing completion of the construction plans.

Location and plans must first be approved by Ford Motor Company. This is a policy established by the auto manufacturer which covers all franchise dealers. However, no problems on either site or building are anticipated.

The new building will be considerably larger than Shaw's present location. His property covers approximately two and a half acres, with some 300 feet frontage on East Highway.

Shaw had been planning to relocate in the future, but the move was hastened when he learned that the location he has leased 15 years from W. M. Owens had been sold to Maurice and P.S. McGinty of Wichita Falls.

The McGintys plan to convert the building into a Mobil Station and Service Center, after some modification of the corner area is completed.

With his lease expiring April 1, Shaw will have a temporary location from which to operate while his building is being constructed. He does not anticipate any major problems in servicing his customers, either in service or sales, during the period.

After opening the Ford franchise in Iowa Park in October of 1955, Shaw observed his grand opening in the Owens building in February of 1956. While the building was being completed, he had temporary sales offices located next to what is now known as Kidd's Auto Supply. "Our plans are definitely not to go out of business. We will continue to serve the people with sales, repairs, replacement and service. And with the inventory of new and used cars and pickups we have on hand, and are receiving almost daily, we believe we can take care of everyone's needs," the auto dealer said yesterday.

ACC signs Harrison

Don Harrison, Hawk all-state lineman, Saturday signed a letter of intent to enroll at Abilene Christian College.

In doing so, Harrison became the first of the Hawks to commit to which college they would attend next fall. At least three others are being sought after by major colleges in the Southwestern Conference and in Oklahoma.

He will receive a full four-year scholarship.

Harrison attended the ACC football banquet, to which several schoolboy athletes were invited and introduced. Three Brownwood players signed the same day, he said.

Though the big tackle had been wooed by every school in the Southwestern Conference, as well as Oklahoma Univ. and Oklahoma State Univ., Harrison said he liked ACC and head coach Wally Bullington the best.

Harrison has been a starting tackle on both Iowa Park state championship teams. He was named both years to the all-district team, and this year was named to the all-state first offensive platoon by the Associated Press Sports Writers Association. Texas Football Magazine also put him on its Super Team, which is comprised of players of all classifications in the state.

Besides being a good student scholastically, Harrison was a co-captain of the team and is vice-president of the Student Council.

Kite-flying dangerous

It's kite season -- the time when youth's fancy turns to paper and string aerodynamics.

For Texas Electric Service Company its the time to remind parents and youngsters of some safety suggestions for kite flying.

Wayne House, TESCO manager in Iowa Park, said, "While we understand the joys of kite flying, we also understand the dangers."

House said, "If your kite gets caught in electric wires just leave it there and call Texas Electric. We'll send someone to get it down for you."

House also pointed out other safety suggestions for kite flyers. They are:

- Always use dry string -- never anything metallic. Never use wire.
- Always make your kite of wood and paper.

- Fly your kite only in good weather. A soggy kite doesn't fly well and wet string can be dangerous.

- Find an open area to fly your kite. Always avoid trees, power lines, radio and TV antennas, and busy streets and highways.

House said the safety suggestions appear on posters which are distributed to local schools in a further attempt to promote safety during the kite season.

HELPFUL FRIENDS were credited with saving most of the possessions from the J. W. Fulfer home at Valley View Tuesday afternoon, before it was engulfed in flames. Neighbor Bill Stewart was the first to arrive and was responsible for much of the early work. Then others rushed to the rescue. Though the house was a total loss, almost everything was saved except the kitchen appliances. Mrs. Fulfer was at home alone when she found the fire burning inside the wall of the bathroom, apparently started from a leaking heater. They reportedly had no insurance against the loss. Mrs. Fulfer said they lost not only their home but all the possessions in a fire nine years ago, not must more than 100 yards from this house.

Hawks attract big crowd in new gymnasium

After splitting their final two home games against Henrietta and Bowie, the Hawks have only three more starts left on their schedule which winds up Feb. 12.

They travel to Jacksboro Friday, to Olney Tuesday, and close out the season at Breckenridge.

In their last home game Tuesday night, the Hawks played the first conference game ever in the new school gymnasium. And the event attracted the largest local crowd in memory of many school officials, eventhough those attending had to sit in chairs around the sidelines or stand.

More than 300 local and Bowie fans saw the Hawks struggle through the first half to trail the league-leading Jackrabbits 45-21 at the midway point. But it was a different story in the final two quarters, with the locals outscoring the undefeated District 11-AA visitor who finally emerged with a 84-64 margin.

After training only 4-5 early in the Auxiliary opens members drive

February has been declared Membership Drive Month for the Auxiliary to the Association for Retarded Children, according to Mrs. John Reynolds, president of the local association. Ed Navratil is chairman of the membership drive, and Mrs. Joe Baxter is treasurer of the organization.

The Auxiliary to the Association for Retarded Children in Iowa Park is doing a work that is vital to the interest of the entire community, but many people are still unaware of the work of the group. The present membership is made up largely of some interested parents who have children enrolled in the five Special Education Classes in the local school system, and the teachers, Mrs. Nancy Rauschuber, Mrs. Joy Allen, Mrs. Joyce Poe, Mrs. Edith Hamilton, and Mrs. Joy Heinlein.

Navratil stated that the people of Iowa Park could help meet the needs of the classes. The proceeds from the rummage sale last November made possible the purchase of necessary equipment that otherwise would not have been available for the training of the children.

The education of exceptional children is most important. Mental retardation is a serious problem often neglected. Most of the mentally retarded children are trainable and can become community assets, not liabilities. The classes in the Iowa Park Schools offer proper educational and rehabilitation services.

Until April 1st a $5 fee will pay for an individual membership and $5.50 for a family membership in the Iowa Park Auxiliary to the Association for Retarded Children. If one cannot be an active member, he can become a supportive member.

Navratil, Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Baxter will be the leaders of the membership drive during February.

game, the Hawks saw the touted Jackrabbits speed to a 14-5 lead with four minutes remaining in the first period of play, which ended 12-22. And the visitors continued to pour it on in the second quarter, outscoring the Hawks 23-9.

But the second half was a different story, with Iowa Park outscoring their visitors 19-17 in the third quarter and 24-19 in the fourth.

Greg Frazier led the Hawks in scoring, hitting four field goals and eight of 11 shots from the foul line, for 16 points. David Laurence had 12 for runner-up honors. Leland Stuckey and Charles Molsbee each scored 18 for the Jackrabbits. Molsbee, who normally hits only 25 percent of his free shots, was 14 of 16 at the charity line for the night.

The game was enabled when the new scoreboard clock arrived in time for installation. Coach Earnie Reusch said he wanted his charges to play in the new gymnasium, eventhough the fans had no bleachers to better view the game.

Superintendent Faris Nowell said he thought the Iowa Park fans were more numerous than at any local game he could remember since he's been here. "We've had larger crowds for some tournament games," he said, "but that was usually because the visiting team brought a big following."

In the Iowa Park-Bowie "B" game, the locals almost pulled off a win in the final stages of the game.

Though they had trailed 54-31 after three quarters, the Hawk "B" squad narrowed the point spread to only two points several times in the last few minutes, and were behind 61-58 with a minute and a half remaining. Bowie finally won, however, 65-58.

Randy Alsop had 20 points for local honors, followed by Jerry Burkhardt's 12. Ronald Rhodes had 29 for Bowie.

Urban renew meeting set

A meeting will be held at the city hall at 7:30 p.m. Friday for all persons interested in working for the passage of the pending Urban Renewal election.

A committee named by the Planning Commission was asked to serve in the leadership of the project. The group met with the Commission Monday night, and two officers were named to serve temporarily until Friday's meeting and election of regular officers.

Besides formation of the working committee, most of the meeting will be educational on the Urban Renewal program and how it could help the community. At least one meeting will be held before the election, at which an officer of the Housing, Education and Welfare (HUD) will be present to speak and answer questions.

Members of the original committee include Bob Hamilton, temporary chairman, Mrs. Luther Shaw, temporary secretary, Gene House, Mrs. Miles Hines, Arch Hughes, A. K. Settle, Mrs. Earl Watson, and James Shumsky.

In other business discussed during the Planning Commission's meeting, veterinarian Thurman Reitz of Sealy told the group he was interested in opening a practice here and wanted to know the areas in which he would be allowed to work.

Reitz, a 1970 graduate of Texas A&M, said he had no particular location selected as yet, but said he wanted to start his practice here as soon as possible.

OPENING TIPOFF of the first varsity basketball game ever played in the new high school gymnasium was viewed by more than 300 fans, who had to sit in chairs from the cafeteria or stand along the walls. Installation of the scoreboard clock was completed in time for the game, which was the last to be played in Iowa Park on the 1970-71 schedule.

Block partnership project explained at sorority meet

Jerome Taylor, co-director of Block Partnership in Wichita Falls and a senior at Midwestern University, explained the Block Partnership Program for members of Epsilon Eta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority at their meeting Tuesday evening.

He stated that Block Partnership is a people to people program which seeks to involve residents of deprived areas in determining their own destiny.

It is a state and national organization and was begun in Wichita Falls in 1970.

According to the speaker, the two basic goals of the program are to establish and maintain communications between people of different racial, ethnic, and economic circumstances, and to bring together residents of block areas to determine their needs, to establish their priorities, and to work together for the realization of these needs and priorities.

Through the program, church, school, civic, fraternal, union, business, and other groups become the partner of a block of persons in a deprived area. These partners then become obligated for a specified length of time providing the resources needed to effect a positive change in the lives of the participants.

The Block Partnership Program in Wichita Falls has 16 directors. Angus Thompson is chairman, and the Rev. Bryon K. Rose is vice-chairman.

Mrs. Roy Johnson introduced the speaker and presented him with a Praying Hands gift following his talk.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. R. B. Faulkner. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Edwin Persons and Mrs. John Ratcliff.

Mrs. Marian Guthrie was in charge of the business.

Mrs. James Dyer used "Some Things to Learn" for the theme of the devotional thoughts.

During the evening, members drew for secret pals.

A Valentine theme was stressed on the refreshment table which was laid with a white linen cutwork and embroidered cloth. The centerpiece featured a red satin heart nestled in a red net accented with symbols of the special day when Love has a way of declaring itself. The motif was repeated in refreshments.

Others present were Mesdames Chester Morrison, N.E. Guthrie Jr., Donald Lucy, Tommy Watkins, Tommy Britt, Austin Webb, Bill Steger, John Clapp Jr., Floyd Adams, Bobby Sinclair, Luther Shaw, Bob Hamilton, John Sibley, D. W. Mercer, Raymond Cope, T. C. Berry, Frankie Hendrick, Tom Compton, and Homer Blalock.

Six students qualify for junior region band

Six Iowa Park musicians qualified for the Regional Junior High Band, and will play in concert Saturday evening in Vernon.

The students were named to the honor band following tryouts in the same city last Saturday. Iowa Park had 23 of the 340 students attempting to qualify for the 109-member band. Three were also named alternates.

Named were: Daryl Harrison, first chair tuba; Debbie Adams, first chair mallet percussion; George Teel, second chair snare drum; Sam Callaway and Mike Montgomery, fourth and eighth chair trombone, respectively; and Kellie Hamilton, eighth chair flute. Alternates are Denise White, first alternate clarinet; Charlotte Elliott, second alternate clarinet; and Katherine Schmidt, first alternate bass clarinet.

The musicians will leave at 8 a.m. Saturday for all-day practice sessions. The 7:30 p.m. concert will be held in Wilbarger Memorial Auditorium under direction of Oran Butler, of Lubbock, guest clinician.

Competition was greater this year than last, as nine Iowa Park musicians were named to the honor band and two were alternates, out of 11 who tried out.

P-TA hears Mrs. James

The Bradford P-TA observed Founders Day in the meeting held Tuesday night.

Mrs. D. O. James, organizer of Bradford P-TA, who has a long time record of service in P-TA on the local, district and state levels, was the featured speaker.

The tickets will be sold by the third, fourth and fifth grade students at Bradford. Adults tickets will be $1.25 and students tickets will be $.75.

The attendance award was won by Miss Helen Reed's fourth grade room.

Refreshments were served following the meeting by Mrs. Eddie Reece, hospitality chairman, and her committee.

Mrs. Keeter has W.S.C.S. program

Mrs. S. B. Keeter led the program for the meeting of the W.S.C.S. of the First United Methodist Church Tuesday morning.

The program topic was "Murmurings in the Absence of God". She said that murmurings are actually laments and that one third of the psalms are made up of laments.

Continuing, she described the two types of psalms: the individual cry, and the community lament.

To show the heathen influence upon the writings of the psalms, Mrs. Allen Bennett read "Hymn to the Mood God", a heathen writing which was similar in nature to many of the psalms.

Assisting with the presentation of the program were Mesdames C. J. Thurber, Donald F. Cook, Otis Gay, Elgin Denney, and W. C. Albright.

The topic of the next study will be "My Particular Psalm".

Others present were Mesdames Lucy Kluer, E. H. Pearce, Ray Low, M. L. Hines, James Oliver, Carroll Hester, Fred Widmoyer, Bessie Brohard, David Thomas, Bob McClelland, M. O. Cheves, H. M. FOR COLLEGE COURSE

Mike Dodd spends month interviewing officials

Mike Dodd, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Dodd and a student at Austin College at Sherman gave the following report of a recent trip to Washington, D.C., which he made with a group of other students from the college during the "Jan. term".

"Austin College is on a trimester system of education. As part of this, there are two fall semesters, there is a "mini-semester" during January in which only one course can be studied.

"As part of the January semester, or "Jan term" as it is called, sixteen students and a government professor went to Washington, D. C. to talk with and interview senators, advisers and academicians concerning the international commitments of the United States. In addition to the men interviewed as set up in the course, several students went out and gained interviews with ambassadors and representatives of foreign nations as well as advisers and Congressmen who were not scheduled in the course

"Dr. Shelton Williams, a former student at the School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS), which is one branch of Johns Hopkins University scheduled the speeches and made arrangements for the course and accompanied the students. The course consisted of:

"Senator Gale McGee of Wyoming, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee;

"Seth Tillman, the ghost writer for Senator J. W. Fulbright;

"John Leyman, a legal adviser on the National Security Council;

"John Sonnenfeld, an expert on the Soviet Union and a member of the National Security Council;

"Seyom Brown, the director of the International Relations sector of Brookings Institute;

"Harold Malmgren, a former economic adviser to President Johnson;

"Dr. Robert Osgood, a former member of the National Security Council and now a professor. He is a noted expert of International Relations in general and on Europe in particular;

"Dan Smith, a speech writer and adviser to Senator Edward Muskie on the Middle East;

"Dr. David Edwards, a professor at the University of Texas now on leave and teaching at SAIS;

"George Lawton, a young man who is an expert on Latin America, particularly Chile; and

"Two advisers to Admiral Zumwalt, the chief of Naval Operations.

"In addition to these men, several students gained interviews with other experts in the field of International Relations. Several of the interviews were acquired through the help of an uncle of one of the students, an adviser in the State Department. Others were acquired solely through the initiative and persistence of the students involved. These interviews included discussions with:

"Top economic advisers to the President concerning America's relations to the European Economic Community (the common market);

"Three advisers to the U.N. delegation. These men's specialties were China, International Seabeds and Outer Space;

"The Egyptian first secretary of the Intersection division of the Indian Embassy, Egypt and the United States have severed diplomatic relations with each other. However, both maintain representatives in the other's country. They work through the Indian Embassy, and the Spanish Embassy;

YOUR BIBLE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

John L. Maples, minister, church of Christ, Iowa Park.

QUESTION: Because of a question from C. B. of Iowa Park, a few weeks ago, we have been discussing the work of Elders. Today we want to view the qualifications for that office.

ANSWER: In 1 Timothy 3:1-7, we find that an Elder must be: blameless, husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, good behavior, given to hospitality, apt to teach, not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre, patient, not a brawler, not covetous. "One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity. For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God," not a novice, of good report of them which are without, desire the office, AND, in Titus 1:5-9 we find he must be: blameless, husband of one wife, temperate, sober, lover of hospitality, "Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. ", not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre, not soon angry, not accused of riot or unruly, having faithful children, not self-willed, lover of good men, just, Holy.

New firm opens here

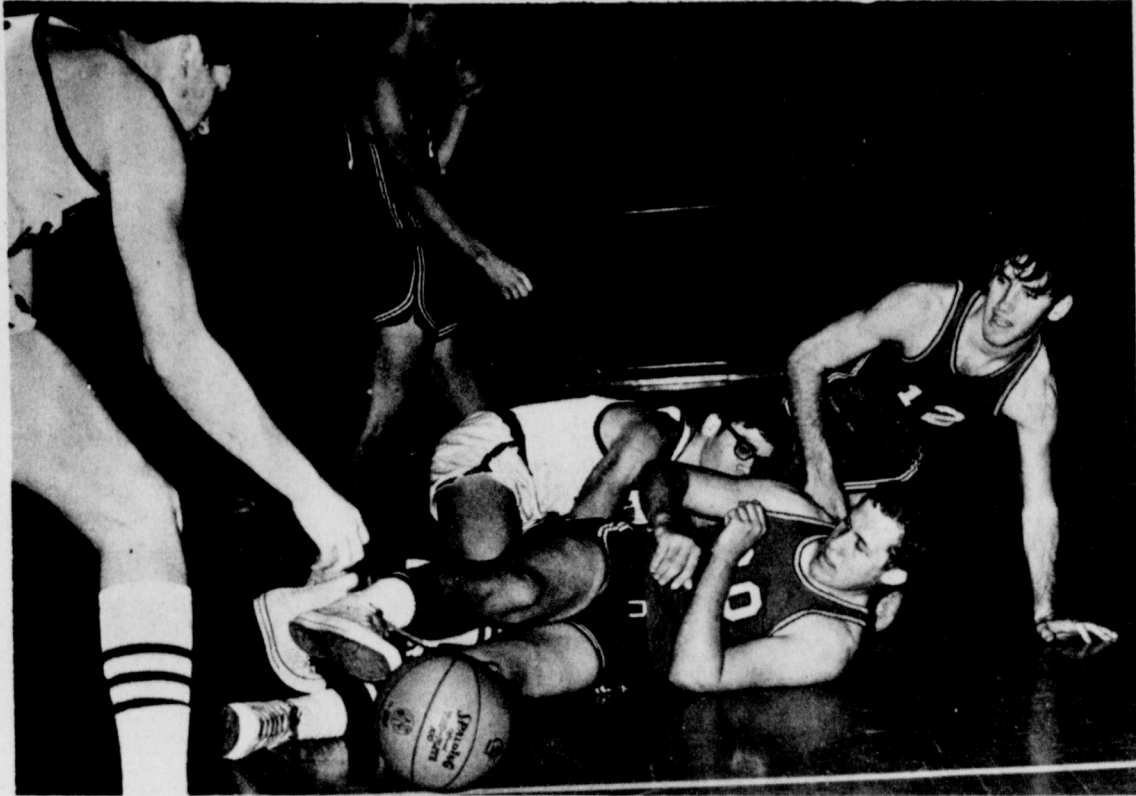

Iowa Park's newest business, B&C Electronics, was opened Monday by Bill Honeycutt, recently retired 20-year veteran of the Air Force.

The radio and television service center is located at 312 E. Highway, next to Probst Conoco service station.

Honeycutt retired Jan. 1 at Sheppard AFB. He and his family have lived in Iowa Park five years, following two at Burkburnett. He has been an electronics technician and instructor at the base.

The Arizona native is teaching during the daytime at Draughon's in Wichita Falls. Mrs. Honeycutt will tend the business during the daytime, and he will make the repairs at night. When the business justifies his full time, he says he will quit teaching and turn all his attention to the repair store.

Harlem Thrillers appear in Holliday gym tonight

Tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the high school gym Holliday's Lions Club is sponsoring a game which will see the nationally known Harlem Thrillers take on the Wichita Falls High School coaches and others.

Tickets may be purchased in advance from members of the club at a discount price. However, tickets will be available at the door; $1.50 adults and $1 for children under 12.

The team opposing the Thrillers is the Wichita Falls South Side Baptist Church squad with two or three high-calibre players added for the occasion.

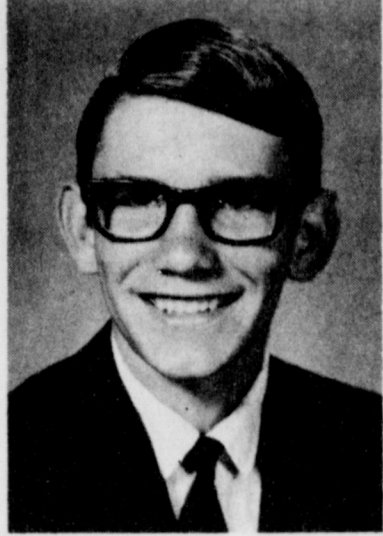

The Thrillers are somewhat like the Harlem Globetrotters and Stars. They are a comedy basketball squad made up of players with outstanding ability to handle, dribble and shoot the ball. It was added this was the only game which they will play in this area due to other season arrangements.

The South Side players are considered to be one of the better cage squads in this area and have posted a 10-1 record in church league competition.

The Harlem Stars managed to beat them by less than 20 points. They led the professional team, 20-16, in the first quarter.

Playing against the Harlem Thrillers are 5-10 Royce Heller, head basketball coach at Wichita Falls High; 6-1 Eddie Marion, basketball coach at Wichita Falls High; 5-9 Marc Goodrich, freshman football coach at Wichita Falls High; 6-4 Charles Dean, employee of Lone Star Gas; 6-1 Tom Francis, owner of Phidoux's Pizzeria; 6-2 Jim Moffet, assistant basketball coach at Midwestern; 5-9 Bill Koziol, basketball coach at Washington Junior High; and 6-0 Keith Brewer, an employee of Central Freight Lines.

Proceeds will go to help several outstanding community projects conducted by the Lions Club members each year.

VAN ADAMS was graduated Tuesday from the Wichita Barber College. The 19-year-old Holliday High School graduate is employed by Tom Hall's Barber Shop in Holliday where he will specialize in several types of haircuts and hair styling. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Adams.

Holliday Happenings

John took fifth chair in the tuba division. He is very active in school activities and was chosen to the All-District Football team last year. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Allen Kocks Jr.

Miss Anderson was awarded first chair rating in the contra-bass clarinet competition. She has been a band member for four years and as a seventh grader last year she captured third chair honors. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Anderson, she won first place honors in oral poetry reading at the district speech meeting.

Charolais bull owners witness dream come true

It's almost like a dream come true for Iowa Park's Troy Powell and Ross Roberts who welcomed the arrival of the first offspring from their imported French here sire FA Vaillant Jr, EO3.

Many things have happened since Powell and Roberts journeyed to Mack Braly's first production sale and purchased their young imported full French Charolais bull for more than $20,000.

Since that time Vaillant Jr, EO3 has gained the admiration of such Charolais experts as Buddy Jones of the famous Billie Yates Ranch; Robert Jernigan, Charolais breeder and sales manager; outstanding showmen Larue Douglas, Carlos Holmes, E. J. Seymour and others.

The bull placed high in the Oklahoma State Fair in Tulsa and he was second to the Grand Champion at the Texas State Fair in Dallas. It is expected he will receive more honors in the Ft. Worth, San Antonio and Houston shows this month.

The bull's sire, Vaillant Sr, 6, was recently awarded recognition as the first and only super certified meat sire in the history of Performance Registry International (PRI). This is the highest performance rating ever awarded a bull of any breed.

Vaillant Jr, EO3 weighed 1960

pounds at the age of 20 months and is expected to reach more than 3,000 pounds at maturity. His first offspring was calved by a heifer without difficulty and weighed less than 70 pounds. Both owners of the bull agree it is like a dream come true and added it was well worth waiting for.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

The Leader makes its share of mistakes, but did you read the one in the Kansas Bulletin: "Our paper carried the notice last week that Mr. Hamilton Ferris is a detective in the police force. This was a typographical error. Mr. Ferris is a detective in the police force."

I've been receiving all kinds of helpful hints on how to complete my vow to stop smoking. Most have been beneficial. All are appreciated.

Peanuts Wilson was telling me about his five or six successful attempts. They all worked for periods of time, some lasting years. But eventually he would succumb to the paper-wrapped habit once more.

Once Peanuts was at home, and already in his pajamas in preparation for sleep. Then all of a sudden he wanted a cigarette. No particular reason, but he was going to have a smoke after keeping off it two or three years.

The way he tells it, Peanuts began rummaging through the drawers, pockets and everywhere else where he might have long-since left the forgotten weed. None could be found, but he still wanted to smoke.

Well, seems the flower fellow slipped into some clothes and started in his car looking for a business that was still open where he could buy a pack. He went all over town. Nothing.

Then he noticed a light and figured someone was working at the Dairy Palace. He drove to the back door and knocking for attention. "About that time two police cars converged on me from different directions. Apparently I had attracted lots of attention driving all over the business district looking for a place to buy some cigarettes," he explained.

When they got the car lights on him, the police immediately recognized Peanuts, and asked him what he wanted at this hour. He explained, Chief Raymond Dixon gave him an opened pack of his own.

And Peanuts was hooked again. . . but he had unnerved the police, the person who was in the Dairy Palace, and had to go home to face Avis, who wasn't too happy about being kept awake just because he wanted to break the habit of not smoking.

AUSTIN -- Legislators face a week of major decisions.

Before the House are key portions of Gov. Preston Smith's finance plan. House followed the Senate in hurrying to a vote the proposal to lift the $80 million a year welfare spending lid.

An emergency $48.4 million deficit spending bill to avert a welfare crisis is perhaps their biggest problem today.

A four-fifth vote of both houses is required to suspend the Texas constitution's "pay as you go" requirement and permit lawmakers to go into the red for the balance of this fiscal year. . . which ends in August.

If legislators decline to take this route, they must pass a tax bill to raise the money by March 1. To place a revenue-raising measure into immediate effect would require passage by a two-thirds majority.

Alternative is reduction in welfare benefits by early spring.

Another matter being moved to an early showdown is Governor Smith's proposal to float a $450 - million state bond issue secured by income from permanent school fund revenue diversion. Both bond issue and tapping of school land lease money would require constitutional amendments.

Regardless of the House vote on the bond issue, Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes sizes up Senate sentiment toward it as cold.

Mood of both houses appears to favor early passage of code of ethics legislation.

If Governor Smith's finance program doesn't fare better than he anticipates, Barnes says, he will ask House Speaker Gus Mutscher to join him in urging the Governor to submit some alternatives.

COURTS SPEAK -- Third Court of Civil Appeals here turned down the plan of the Fredericksburg Community Savings and Loan Association to provide mobile service to Burnet, Bandera, Kimble, Llano and Mason counties via trailer.

Third Court also affirmed the savings and loan commissioner's decision to grant a charter to Matagorda County Savings and Loan Association in Bay City.

An April 7 hearing is set in the Third Court on the Sharpstown Bank of Houston dispute with an insurance company over a performance bond to insure repayment of a loan.

Mustang Island park purchase -- whether State Parks and Wildlife Commission has authority to spend $4.2 - million in state and federal funds for the property -- has been the subject of a lengthy hearing in the federal district court at Austin for two weeks.

NEW CAR INSURANCE PLAN OFFERED -- Auto insurance agents in a hearing before the Insurance Board proposed "a much better insurance package" at reduced cost.

But a spokesman acknowledged no actuarial studies have been made to back up their claim.

While their plan keeps present liability coverage, it also would extend unlimited medical expense benefits to the insured regardless of who is at fault in accidents. It would replace up to 60 per cent of wages lost due to accident injuries to maximum of $250 a week, and provide death and dismemberment coverage.

Although all of the above (proposed as mandatory coverage in each policy) would increase costs, agents claimed the overall premium would be reduced if $150 deductible damage coverage was substituted for $50 and $100 deductible.

AG OPINIONS -- A Justice of the Peace is not authorized or required to present the state's case, or undertake representation of the state's interest, in any matter before him, Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has held.

In another recent opinion, Martin concluded that the El Paso county treasurer is duty bound to countersign checks signed by the county auditor when the commissioners court orders money transferred from the general fund to a special bank account for disbursement by check to welfare recipients. However, said Martin, the treasurer may refer checks to the commissioners court for direction.

Martin obtained a $1,000 judgement against Proler Steel Corporation of El Paso as the result of an air pollution suit.

FEDERAL HELP LAUDED -- Word that the Secretary of Interior has announced the availability of more than $2 million to the State of Texas for fish and wildlife research in 1971 was greeted with enthusiasm by E. A. (Gene) Walker, director of Wildlife Services for the State. Texas has participated in the Federal State wildlife program since 1937 and the Sport Fish restoration project since 1950.

"This is the backbone of the work program in Wildlife and Fisheries," said Walker, "and the results of this basic research has provided tremendous increases in hunting and fishing opportunities for the people of this state."

As an example Walker cited the fact that Texas has more deer than any other state; larger bag limits and longer seasons on quail. . . just to mention a few of the benefits made possible by Federal financial assistance.

The Lone Star State will receive $1,538, 500 in wildlife funds and $653,750 for fish restoration.

Money for wildlife research is derived from the 11 per cent excise tax on sporting arms and ammunition. Funds for fish projects come from a levy of 10 per cent on sport fishing equipment.

Appropriation is made available through the Interior's Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife. Formula for appropriating hinges on the number of hunting and fishing licenses issued in the State.

Money also can be used for purchase of land and water for wildlife and public use.

TREASURE DISPLAY URGED -- An interim committee advised the Legislature in a written report to direct permanent display of treasure recovered from ancient Spanish galleons off Padre Island.

Actual ownership still is the subject of a dispute in court. Platoro Inc. of Gary, Ind., which recovered the artifacts, won a decision in the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals that it had a valid contract with the state for a 50-50 share of the treasure.

House interim committee on housing the treasure concluded it should become the property of the permanent school fund, and transferred around the state in a mobile unit occasionally, so school children can see it in their own communities.

REGISTRATION EXTENSION VOTED -- A bill to extend voter registration through February sailed through the Senate 27-1 but ran into a delay in the House.

Another Senate bill passed to the House would provide for precinct-by-precinct reporting of statewide election returns to the secretary of state.

Still another would change the name of Pan American College, Edinburg, to Pan American University.

SHORT SNORTS

A new Senate bill would require advance permits and strict security and health standards for rock festivals in rural areas where more than 5,000 people are expected to remain 12 hours or longer.

Charles G. Scruggs of Dallas was nominated for the Texas Tech University board of regents.

A Senate study committee recommended a state open housing law.

Bills call for establishment of a University of South Texas at Corpus Christi and a University of Houston branch at Clear Lake.

Top state leaders will address the third biennial legislative forum on United Community Services here on February 9.

Texas is recovering from the credit crunch (tight money) of 1968-70, according to a University of Texas Bureau of Business Research study.

MESQUITE MUSINGS

By Ruby L. Robertson

So our state legislature is about to pass a code of ethics. We sorta had the idea that each member already had a well established code of personal ethics before he took the oath of office. It is undoubtedly embarrassing to the many good men who hold public offices for others to betray their trusts, but only the voters are to blame for not keeping them busy enough to stay out of mischief.

Each of us has a job to do as a stockholder in the greatest country in the world. Few business men would hire a stranger to handle large sums of money then turn away and never check on his activities. When we consider the vast amount of time we spend working to gather money to pay our taxes; why do we blindly trust incapable people to administer it?

Many of us have long hoped to see a law which would limit to two terms the time that any one person can serve in one office. More people would be given the opportunity to be aware of the responsibility of public office and there would be less complacency on the part of office holders. If this law is good enough for the highest office in the land, why should it not work for all?

A political kingmaker recently stated that people have short memories, therefore the recent ruckus in our state capitol will be forgotten before the next election. Are we really that naive?

Perhaps it is a good thing that the 18 year olds will soon be voters. They may see the evils of the one party system, which their elders have ignored, and bring a breath of fresh air into stale and musty offices which have too long been closed to public scrutiny.

HAWKS...

ta, the Hawks evened up their conference record at 3-3 by defeating the Bearcats 74-49.

It was Henrietta that handed the Hawks a 37-46 defeat Jan. 8 in the conference opener for the two clubs.

The Hawks led at the end of each quarter, 21-18, 42-34, 60-41 and finally 74-49.

Five Hawks finished in the double figures in their highest scoring effort of the season. Mike Carol had 16, Greg Frazier 13, David Laurence 12 and Greg Ancell and Sam Morrison each had 10.

The Mean Green outscored the Bearcats in field goals, 30-15.

After leading 12-9 at the end of the first period, the Hawk "B" team fell behind and trailed in a nip and tuck game that ended 54-50 in Henrietta's favor. Halftime score was 23-20 with the victors in the lead, and the margin was only 38-34 after three quarters.

Aisup and Burkhart each scored 12 points for the locals.
