City must pay for ditch water

Responsibility for negotiating a contract to provide Lake Kemp water for Iowa Park during the period the city lakes cannot meet requirements rests on the shoulders of Wichita County Water Control and Improvement District No. 3, according to discussion held Monday night at the city council meeting.

The District, which is the same as the Iowa Park boundaries, is now negotiating with Wichita County Water Control and Improvement District No. 2 and the City of Wichita Falls for rates to be charged for taking water from the irrigation canal.

M. L. Hines and Gaines Maness, District No. 3 directors, met with the council and reported on negotiations for the water. They said it appeared the rate would be set at seven and a half cents per 1,000 gallons taken from the ditch. Discussion was also held on a meter to measure the water.

The city has been pumping water from the ditch since December, but has not been charged for it.

Aldermen voted, on a motion by Herman Mahler and seconded by Frank Harlin, to assess the standard rate fee for a building permit requested by the schools, which is to build a vocational training building on the high school campus.

A hearing was set for Mar. 22 on annexation of Expressway 287 and State Highway Loop 370, into the city.

Councilmen voted to allow Don Schram, owner of White's Auto Store, permission to display his lawn movers in front of

Payment of a liability claim to Ray
Hyde of Electra for $168 damages to his car was tabled to await further contact with his insurance company. Hyde drove his car into an unmarked ditch at the deadend of E. Alameda and N. Park Feb. 20.

E. O. Emmons requested correction of poor drainage in front of his home at 307 W. Alameda. Dr. Erwin Soell, Mayor, stated the city was making an effort to clean out the bar ditches and culverts to eleminate such problems, and that was about all that could be done at the pre-

Sen. John Tower announced Tuesday by telegram that Iowa Park's request for $103,000 grant in aid to build the new city sewer treatment plant had been approved.

The city now is awaiting word from Austin where legislation is pending which would grant an additional 25 percent of the total cost.

Annual Project Show draws big entry list

More than 200 entries have been received for the annual Iowa Park Project Show, which will be held Saturday at the FFA Project Barn in southeast Iowa Park. This will be one of the largest shows of its kind in Iowa Park in several years, according to observers.

Judging is slated to begin at 9 a.m. Bill Overbey is the Show Chairman this year, and Hoyt Watson is Secretary. Entries so far indicate there will be approximately 80 swine; 20 steers, heifers and breeding cows; 30 sheep; 15 horses; and 60 pens of fryers and rabbits. Trophies and ribbons will be presented to winners in each class. Showmanship awards will be made in sheep, swine, beef, horse and dairy divisions. Making the presentations will be Brenda Barnes, Iowa Park FFA Sweetheart.

Judging the show will be Jed Dennis, Vo-

Ag teacher at Vernon, for the swine, sheep and cattle; Wade Bailey, Electra Vo-Ag teacher, for broilers; rabbits, C. M. Crawford announces plans for 64 apartments here

Johnny Crawford has announced his plans to construct a 64-unit apartment complex in Iowa Park.

To be built in clusters around a swimming pool and party house, the apart-ments are to be located on the southeast corner of the East Highway and Johnson Road intersection.

The units, designed by Charles Harper and Associates of Wichita Falls, will be two story structures, each with terraces or balconies. Most of the apartments will be two-bedroom, but there will also be some with one and three bedrooms. Harper said a survey of Iowa Park indicated a need of 85 apartments in the city, and expects no problems in filling the new facility. Should the apartments average three occupants, the city's population likely will increase approximately 190 persons.

The buildings are of contemporary sty-ling, featuring a lot of wood and brick on the outside. Heavy landscaping is figured in on the overall plan. Perimeter parking will be utilized, with access to both streets.

Three vying for one school post

Emerging as the most-contested race in the April 3 elections will be that of the two-year term on the school board.

When candidate applications were opened Friday, following the deadline, it was found three men had filed for the two-year term, created by the retirement from the board of Fred Parkey, include C. E. Meyers, Jim Frazier and Chester Morrison.

Meyers has been serving the post most of the past year after being appointed by the school board. He was president of the Valley View board prior to that district's annexation to the Iowa Park district.

Both incumbents Robert Wilcox and Stanley Williamson are seeking return to their places on the board. They are being contested by Luther Skinner.

The top vote puller among Meyers, Frazier and Morrison will win his place on the board for the next two years. And the top two in the three-year term race will be declared the winners.

There were no late additions to the list of candidates for city alderman. Incumbents Arch Hughes and Frank Harlin will be competing with Carl Davis, John Huff, Robert Harper, Robert Johnson and Billy Gilmore for the two positions.

Absentee voting will begin Monday in both elections. Absentee poll for the school is the business office, and for the city is the city hall. Absentee voting ends Guthrie and his bonding company, which cleared the path for issuance of all contracted fees yet owed on construction of the new high school. Final payment was delayed following the filing of a suit by Guthrie against the school.

Fillmore said the only remaining items yet to be contested in the suit now include penalty and interest, electrical bill and hooking up of equipment mainly in the kitchen and science labs. Total exposure is approximately $22,000. Architects Don Reed and Bob Pardue, at the request of the board, had nine studies and plans for expansion of classroom facilities of all four campuses in the city.

Briefly, their displays were as follows: Bradford Elementary - four new class-rooms on the south side; no additional rest rooms but with air-conditioning. Estimated cost, $56,082.

Kidwell Elementary - four classrooms with teachers' lounge, bookroom and storeroom; add onto west side of south wing. Estimated cost, $72,352. This cost represents a $15,000 increase over a similar addition on the north wing three years ago.

Junior High - Recommended tearing away original W.F. George structure and rebuilding one-floor replacement; to remodel the west wing. Would add nine general purpose classrooms, two general science rooms, cooking room, sewing room, art room, cafetorium, kitchen, of-fice suite and making present cafeteria into library because of size and central location. Total estimated cost, including air-conditioning entire structure, $525,

Six different studies for adding classrooms to the high school were also presented. Some were for top-ground construction, another for matching the one that has one floor atop and one below ground level, and one includes an additional gymnasium for physical educa-

These additions ranged from six to 22 classrooms, at a cost from $130,000 to $347,000, and the additional PE facility Reed pointed out the 22 rooms and PE addition would handle enrollment double what the high school has today. Addition of vocational courses to the curriculum was discussed, and generally appeared the board wanted to add two new courses each year until the students were receiving what they needed.

Included were cosmotology, drafting, commerical art, air-conditioning and refrigeration, office machines, radio and television repairs, electrical trades and others less technical. Most of the courses would be offered in half-a-day labs, and likely many would be held at the Valley View campus.

Principal Bob Dawson was instructed to conduct a survey of interest in the courses for next year.
In other business, the board did the following:

* Accepted the high bid of $651 for a bus advertised for sale, to Hudson Co. of Mesquite. There were six bids offered, with the lowest being $150. Two offers were from Iowa Park churches. First Baptist Church bid $201.01 and First Methodist Church bid $377.26.

* Set Aug. 10-11 as the dates the Board of Equalization will set in session.

* Approved increasing hourly pay scale of Gerald Franks from $2.10 to $2.40. Accepted an offer from Police Chief Raymond Dixon to put on a drug abuse program for all school student parents. The date was not set.

* Heard a report from Supt. Nowell that 190 students had pre-enrolled in drivers' education for next year, which would require increasing the number of cars to four. * Approved Nowell's request to attend the Texas State Teachers Association one-day convention in Dallas later this

* Heard from and agreed with trustee Jesse McCullough that the city should not have charged the school $95 for a building permit to construct the new vocational building. "I think we're getting the raw end of the stick."

McCullough said he did not attend the council meeting Monday night because he had been assured earlier there would be no charge for the permit, as in the past. "I don't want to pay it, I don't think it's right. But legally they can shut us down at work until we do pay it." The board made a motion to have the check written, amid grumbles about the possibility of charging $100 for use of the school buildings as election polling places and reminding the city of the contract which requires only six months notice before having to vacate the school structure being used as a city library.

Representatives of three consulting firms met Monday night with the Citizens Committee on Urban Renewal for discussions which could lead to the hiring of one, should the Urban Renewal be approved in the April 3 election.

The three firms represented were Carter and Burgess of Fort Worth, R. W. Book-er and Associates of Fort Worth and Joe E. Ward Engineers of Wichita Falls.

Representatives were first introduced to the city council members, where they told of their companys' backgrounds, and then the group went into its regular session with the Committee in the Chamber of Commerce office.

YOUR BIBLE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

John L. Maples, minister, church of Christ, Iowa Park.

QUESTION: N. F. of Iowa Park asks the question, "How can we preach Christ and not preach baptism?"

ANSWER: This is a valid question because many religious people feel that we should just preach Christ but not baptism to which some object. In Acts 8 Philip was directed to the Ethiopian's chariot. He preached to him Jesus, verse 35. That is all that the Bible says that he preached. But notice! "And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain wa-ter..." On seeing the water the Ethiopian said: "See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?" ver-How did this man known to be baptized? He had only heard Jesus preached. But when he saw some water he wanted to be baptized. The only honest conclusion I can come up with is that when Philip preached Jesus he preached baptism. Why? When we preach Jesus we have to preach obedience to him (Hebrews 5:8,9) and baptism is part of our obeying Jesus.

The Eagles, coached by Milford Groves, got their first taste of action last weekend at Vernon. Holliday captured the second place trophy in Division III with a 76 point total. Crowell took top honors with 109 points among the 14 teams

Aron Anderson appeared in top form as he collected 32 individual points. His 6-3 winning jump in the high jump event was a new meet record. The 16-year old junior also placed first in the long jump event with a 21-3 leap. He earned more points as a member of Holliday's mile relay team which placed second with a 3:41 timing, and the Eagle 440 relay squad which took fourth place. Anderson finished third in the 100-yard dash.

Mike King captured first place in the 120 yard high hurdles and ran on the mile relay which was second. Another member of the second place mile relay squad was Ricky Allgood. Allgood crossed the finish line in the 440-yard dash in 53.8 seconds for third place.

The main topic of Holliday's brief council meeting Tuesday night was how to go about extending the city's sewage line three blocks in the southwest part of town. This extension was brought about to provide five families who are living in that area an opportunity to connect to it.

It was also pointed out the line could possibly serve three or four more families if homes were built on existing vacant

Bob Mathews, engineer for Biggs & Mathews, discussed what plans might be used in making the extension. Once the line is installed, residents would have the opportunity to connect to it.

Council members agreed a resident would have to lay his own line to the main line and pay a $37.50 (normal rate) tapping fee. The council was approached at their last monthly meeting by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ward who asked if it was possible to extend city sewage services to their home.

Another item which was agreed upon by the council was the opening of Magnolia Street. The street in the south part of day. town was designated quite some time ago, but never opened.

Grass planting time is near

"Early preparation for grass planting assures proper plant-ing and quicker growth," says local conservationist, K. C. Willis, Jr. of Iowa Park. Bermuda grass maybe planted any-time between March 1, if sod-ded, or March 15 if sprigged, and June 1st. Native grass such as sideoats gramma maybe planted anytime between now and June 1st, Willis said. The Soil Conservation Service recommends bermuda grass be planted one to three inches deep and natives one half to three quarters inch deep.

"These methods apply to establishment of Bermuda grass on lawns as well as in pastures," Willis advises. Where grasses are seeded, sprigged or sodded, the prepared land should be available for Bermuda grass during drouth periods.

Five persons have filed as to whether absentee voting candidates in Holliday's city would be available. Election would be available. Election judge is Mrs. J. L. Moss. In the school board election voters will be able to elect two persons to three year terms. Seeking reelection is Luke Deb-ler and Darrell Whitehead. Dr. Joe E. Wells and Mrs. Jess Lynch are the only other people who have officially filed in this race. The two highest vote getters will be named to the board.

Presently serving on the board are Kenneth Williams, president; Darrell Whitehead. vice-president; J. R. Franklin, secretary; Tommy Mankins, Jack Ayres and Joe Miller.

Purcell on committee

U.S. Representative Graham Purcell (D-Tex.) was elected Thursday to the newly created Investigations Subcommittee of the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee. Purcell, who served on the Post Office and Civil Service Committee during the last Congress, initiated an exhaustive investigation into alleged cutbacks in postal service to Texas last

Purcell said, "The full Committee has requested a statement from the Post Office Department on that investigation. Nothing has been received." Continuing, Purcell said, "This new subcommittee will enable us to act on the results of my investigation much sooner than we could have under the old Committee structure."

Purcell was also elected ranking majority member behind Chairman Robert Nix (D-N.C.) of the Postal Facilities and Mail Subcommittee.

Serving his sixth term in Congress, the Texas lawmaker Civil Service Committee is just as important now as it was before the passage of the Postal Reorganization Act. Congress has the responsibility for judging the performance of the new postal corporation and providing new guidelines, if necessary."

The Texas Democrat concluded, "The Corporation is down the ramp, but Congress nevertheless continues to have surveillance which will be exercised primarily through this Committee."

As I See It.....

By BOB HAMILTON

Probably every record ever known for numbers of pieces of legislation offered in the state legislature is being broken in this 62nd session. Through Mar. 4 more than 1,350 bills had been introduced, and it appears the senators and representatives have been working overtime since then writing new ones.

As usual, there are many special interest bills. And there are really some gems, some of which I'd like to offer. See how you'd vote on these:

* Raise annual salary of members of the Legislature at $12,000, the Lt. Governor and Speaker at $30,000, and per diem of $25 per day for 120 days of regular session and for 30 days of each special session. This would require a constitutional amendment.

Levy a one-cent tax on every check written, regardless of whether it comes from in or out of state. This would not apply, however, to federal, state, city, county, school district or any other district or political subdivision.

* Impose a two-cent tax on each dispo-sable container sold be a wholesaler containing alcoholic beverages or soft drinks. Money would be split between the State Highway Commission, counties and towns. * One section of H.B. 758 on Human Relations would forbid any employer to set quotas for his employees.

But the really great one was from Brownsville's ultra liberal Sanchez. This character wants to put Austin into a situation like the District of Columbia. By that, the "District of Travis" would be the boundaries of Austin, or a smaller area. The Legislature "shall exercise exclusive authority over the district and may provide for the manner of governing the district, may levy taxes (including property taxes) in the District, and may assume the bonded indebtedness of the City of Austin."

This would require a constitutional amendment, and I'd be willing to give 100 to 1 odds that it wouldn't pass. All one has to do is look at the sad state of affairs D.C. has been in all these years, and he'd know right away this isn't wanted in Texas.

M ESQUITE M USINGS

Last week in San Antonio, John Bunyan Blackwell died at the age of eighty eight. Blackwell is credited with inventing the process of burning spines off prickly pears to make them palatable for cattle to eat. This simple process probably saved the lives of millions of cattle during times of feed shortage.

Old time cowmen recall that the first time prickly pears were "burned" in our area was during the severe winter of 1903 when the Club Ranch used the method. This was before the days of concentrated feeds and the pears which grew ince were almost an animal alive until spring.

Ranchers with kerosene burners would singe the spines off the plants and let the cattle help themselves. This was a simple process and not exactly new a farmers had long used the cob cacti for hog

It was simple tricks like this however, which enabled our ancestors to survive in this country. It is always the little things which hold the key to the solution of bigger problems. Any problem when broken down into small parts is on its way to being solved.

We know that when the big breakthrough in the search for a cure for cancer and other world problems, comes it will be by some obscure person working quietly alone in his workshop or laboratory. How very much we owe these little men who have worked in the only way they know to make the world a better place.

An anonymous philosopher has said that whoever endeavors to do all the good he can will probably have done more good than he will ever know or imagine until the day of judgment.

It was learned that Grandfield, Okla., a small rural community just across the Red River from Iowa Park, was applying for Urban Renewal funding. Committee chairman Bob Hamilton said he would discuss with that town's representatives how their program was handled and what it had cost. Hamilton also said he would visit Whitesboro, which has been in Urban Renewal about a year.

Hamilton's report will be given at a brief meeting of the Committee Monday night, to be held in the Chamber office. All interested persons are urged by the Committee to attend.

"Use of telephones here also is rising, he noted, "with an annual total of 5,590. ooo local and long distance calls placed during 1970, compared to 4,914,000 during 1969.

"The best possible service at the lowest possible price was not Southwestern Bell's only contribution to Iowa Park dur-cng 1970," Hall added. "The company paid about $2,700 in ad valorem property taxes and some $3,200 in gross receipts taxes during the year to meet its obligations as a good corporate citizen." The company is engaged in a statewide effort involving an estimated $460-million dollars in new construction for service improvements and expansion, he "This massive amount of money for Texas represents more than half of Southwestern Bell's planned expenditures in its five-state operating territory during 1971," Hall explained.

EDITORIAL

Let's Drop The Fee

This newspaper has never taken issue with the decisions of our city government. In fact it has worked hard to defend actions of the council both personally and editorially. But action taken in the council's meeting Monday night cannot go unchallenged, and we hope unchanged.

The decision was to levy the standard fee for issuance of a building permit on the new vocation building on the high school campus.

Though the amount, said to be $95, is not great, the ramifications could be great and create a gap between the two elected bodies that could take years to ever smooth out.

Out city fathers evidently overlooked the fact that the school has been obliging to every request in recent years. The school buildings are used for voting polls, at no expense to the city. The school is allowing the city exclusive use of its for-mer home economics building for a pub-lic library, at a cost of $1 per year. When the city asked for land on which to locate a swimming pool, should the unsuccessful referendum of last spring pass, the school was ready and willing to cooperate at no cost to the city. School lands are used for little to the city of the city of the city. Little League baseball practice fields, which rightfully is the responsibility of the parks department to provide. And there are many other instances which could be cited.

We hope the citizens will see the issues a little more clearly than did the aldermen, express their views that harmony is not only desired but a must, and hopefully this problem will not only be cleared but lead to greater cooperation in the fu-

WORTH QUOTING...

It's true the Quanah Tribune-Chief did make rain Thursday morning. The credit goes to the editor who is now known nationwide as the most accurate rainmaker of them all!

However, we also got part of the ac-claim to fame the newspaper garnered after the success of the rainmaking spree here got around via AP and UP wires.

Would you believe, a nationally-known radio disc jockey, a fellow by the name of Jimmy LaBarbara of WLW, Cincinnati, Ohio called for an interview on Quanah's rainmaking?

He told us it came over the AP radio news wire and he thought the news so unusual and good he wanted facts from

Some wise guy has, with tongue in cheek, suggested that the motto for Olney be "The Committee City" with the symbol will probably continue to be true in the weeks and months ahead.

Anyway the deadline for suggesting a motto and symbol is Sunday.

The City of Tomorrow program in Olney is moving along now that the preliminary reports have been received from the sub committees and the general committees. The reports developed a comprehensive study of our fair city by local citizens, who took the good as well as the bad into consideration. The reports amounted to more than 700 typed pages and covers every aspect of life in Olney.

There will be many public meetings in the next weeks for the purpose of discussing future plans for Olney and for answering questions raised by our citizens. Don't be afraid to ask those questions you have. -- DAVID PENN, The Olney Enterprise

The News doesn't customarily publish letters that are not signed, but we received a note this week that has a signature of a sort on it and since we believe in letting everyone be heard, we decided we better publish this one. It went as

AUSTIN -- In a week of major financial flurry, the House passed a $492.5 million tax bill and an $80 million college tuition hike, while the Senate approved a $185 million college building bond plan. Here's the breakdown on the tax bill: * An increase in the sales tax rate from 3.25 to 4 per cent, $279.8 million.

* Increase in the auto sales tax rate from 3 to 4 per cent, $69.75 million. Increase in the hotel occupancy tax from 3 to 4 per cent, $6.3 million. * A $1 tax on transfer of corporate securities, $10 million.

* A 10 per cent levy on entertainment admissions, $26.6 million.

* Increase in the corporation franchise tax rate from $3.25 to $3.75 per $1,000 of assets, $39.5 million. * A 5 cents per gallon tax on aviation jet fuel, $50 million.

* An increase in the tax on sand, gravel, shell and marl taken from submerged lands, $10.6 million.

The House rejected amendments that would have taxed corporation net profits, timber, snuff and sales to government Representatives approved a tuition increase from $50 a semester to $7 per semester hour -- or $105 a semester for a full 15-hour course load.

Also included is a $47 per semester hour charge on out-of-state students, or about $700 per semester.

Both bills now go to the Senate, where Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes has promised extended hearings. First, however, the Senate -- unlike the House -- proposes to total its spending proposals to see just how much revenue is required to balance the budget. Senate voted 21-7 for the House-passed bill to provide tuition-backed revenue bond financing of new higher education facilities in San Antonio, Dallas, Odessa, Houston, Lubbock and El Paso.

bers served notice on Jones they don't like his preliminary sketches of new district lines. They interpret Jones' early efforts as designed to safe-guard rural congressmen.

Under a fair plan, they said, Harris County should include four congressional districts, Dallas County three, and Bexar and Tarrant counties two each. Instead of the 11 districts to which the metropolitan counties are entitled, they argued, Jones has indicated only seven districts would be dominated by the bigger cities.

APPOINTMENTS -- Gov. Preston Smith named Houston attorney Carl Illig to the Texas Water Development Board.

LOCAL SCHOOL COSTS SET -- Local school district share of the state's public education system cost in 1971-72 will be $245.1 million.

State Board of Education set the local fund assignment for the next school year at a meeting here last week. (March 1).

Assignment includes 20 per cent of the foundation school program cost ($215.1 million), plus another $30 million in special credits earned by the districts during the past year. Total cost -- both state and local share -- of the foundation school program for the 1970-71 school year is estimated at $1,075,634,247 (billion).

Professional and teacher aide salaries this year will cost $926.7 million; maintenance and operation of schools, $76.8 million; transportation, $26.8 million; Texas Education Agency administration, $2,093,000 and special programs, $7,082,

Many local school districts pay for additional services with local tax money and support salaries for their teachers higher than the minimum scale.
